LR NOTES

The Lenoir-Rhyne Baseball dropped a pair of games on Saturday to #3 Catawba. The Catawba Indians took the opener 8-6 then defeated the Bears 9-1 in the night cap.

Matt Procopio stayed hot with a pair of hits in each game as Sylas Boris went yard in game one.

Sylas Boris' home run tied him for the team lead at four with Seth Christmas.

This series loss snaps a six game SAC home series win streak.

HEAD COACH

Adam Skonieczki
Head Coach
2nd Season
Record: 61-18

Adam Skonieczki was named the Lenoir-Rhyne Head Baseball Coach in July of 2024. This promotion followed a successful five-year stint as both an Assistant and Associate Head Coach for the Bears.

In his first season as head coach, Skonieczki led the Bears to their best season in program history, advancing to the NCAA DII Championship Series in Cary and leading the Bears to a record of 50-15. The Bears set a new DII record with 137 home runs and First Team All-American honoree Mackenzie Wainwright set a DII record with 121 hits in a single season. Skoniecski was named the Perfect Game National Coach of the Year and Wainwright, Sal Carricato, and Cole Stanford all finished with All-American honors. In total, this Bears squad set 15 LR single-season records.

From 2019-24 Skonieczki served as both an Assistant and Associate Head Coach for the Bears. During his time as an assistant/associate the Bears never failed to have a winning record, peaking with a 46-13 mark in 2022 that saw LR post a 19-game winning streak and win their third SAC Tournament Title in program history. In five seasons he coached 27 all-conference honorees, six all-region, and one all-american. 2022 that saw LR post a 19-game winning streak and win their third SAC Tournament Title in program history. In five seasons he coached 27 all-conference honorees, six all-region, and one all-american.
