HEAD COACH JEREMY WHITE
11TH HEAD COACH IN LIBERTY VOLLEYBALL HISTORY

Jeremy White, a perennial Coach of the Year award winner, came to the Mountain in December 2024 to lead the Lady Flames volleyball team as the program's 11th head coach.

He wasted no time putting his stamp on the Liberty volleyball program, as the Lady Flames posted a 20-10 record during his first season, 2025. The Lady Flames posted their first wins in program history over a Big Ten (Rutgers) and Big 12 (Houston) program during the 2025 season

White spent six seasons (2019-24) leading Southeastern Louisiana to unprecedented success. He guided the Lady Lions to back-to-back Southland Conference titles in 2022 and 2023 and consecutive appearances in the NCAA Volleyball Championship.

White finished his six-year career as the winningest coach in Southeastern Louisiana history in terms of winning percentage (66.1 percent/113-58). He also posted a 74.5 percent winning percentage in Southland conference matches (70-24).

White has been named the Southland Conference Katrinka Jo Crawford Coach of the Year three times since the 2020 season (2020, 2023 and 2024) and the LSWA Louisiana Coach of the year four times (2020, 2022, 2023 and 2024).

Southeastern Louisiana boasted the nation's longest win streak during the 2024 season, reeling off 24-straight victories and posted a perfect 16-0 record in conference play.

White coached the Southland Conference's Player of the Year in Cicily Hidalgo in 2024. Hidalgo, a four-time Southern Conference all-conference honoree, averaged 3.86 kills per set during league play, while posting a .296 attack percentage and a 4.72 points per set.

White led Southeastern to arguably the best season in its history in 2023. The Lady Lions tied a program record with 28 wins, recorded a 22-match win streak, while picking up true road wins over LSU and Texas State.

Southeastern Louisiana had the program's then best record in Southland Conference play at 17-1 while winning the program's first SLC regular season title. The Lady Lions followed that up by winning the SLC Championship and clinched an automatic berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his days at Southeastern Louisiana, White spent two seasons at Northwestern Oklahoma State, leading the Lady Rangers to the two best years in school history (38-25), producing seven All-Conference selections and a Great American Conference Newcomer of the Year.

The winningest coach in program history, White guided Northwestern to back-to-back appearances in the GAC Tournament.

Before Northwestern, White spent one season as the top assistant at Lamar State College in Port Arthur, Texas, and two more as the recruiting coordinator at fellow Southland Conference foe McNeese.

A two-time graduate of McNeese, White earned a bachelor's degree in health and human performance in 2008 and completed his masters in exercise physiology in 2016. He is married to the former Sarah Lyons, a Lake Charles native. The couple has two children, son Karter James and daughter Maggie Cate.
