Series Notes

-The Lindenwood women's hockey team concludes the regular season portion of its schedule with a two-game series on February 19-20 from War Memorial Arena in Syracuse, N.Y. Puck drop is scheduled for 3:00 p.m. EST on Friday and Saturday.

-This past weekend the Lady Lions traveled to University Park, Pa. for a two-game series with the Penn State Nittany Lions. During the first game on Feb. 12 Lindenwood struggled offensively, being shutout for the fourth time this season. The Lady Lions responded the following afternoon with a shutout of their own, defeating Penn State by a final score of 1-0.

-Earlier this season the Orange traveled to Wentzville, Mo. for a two-game series on Nov. 6-7. The Orange used two third-period goals to win the first-game by a final score of 3-1. The Lady Lions found themselves trailing 1-0 late into the third period of game two, before tying the game with 2:21 remaining. The game would end in a 1-1 tie. Syracuse leads the all-time series 13-3-2.

-Syracuse enters into the weekend series with a season record of 16-13-3 and 12-4-2 in conference play. The Orange currently sit in second-place in the CHA standings with 26 points. Syracuse is led offensively by the trio of Stephanie Grossi, Jessica Sibley, and Melissa Piacentini who all rank in the top-five in CHA scoring. Jenn Gilligan has made 30 starts in goal for the Orange, while compiling a .899 save-percentage and a 2.04 goals against average.

Lindenwood Notes

-Shara Jasper equaled the single-season program record with her 19th goal of the season on Feb. 13 at Penn State. Jasper is the conference leading goal-scorer, and tied for third in points.

-Jasper also set the career program record with her sixth-career game-winning goal, including five this season.

-Sarah Bobrowski set the single-season program assists record of 18, following her assist on Jasper's game-winning score on Feb. 13.

-Carrie Atkinson achieved a new career-high point total after her assist on Feb. 13. Atkinson's previous high was six-points during the 2014-15 season.

-Goaltender Nicole Hensley recorded the fourth shutout of her career, and second of the season after blanking Penn State on Feb. 13.

-Hensley has set career-best marks in save-percentage (.927) and goals against average (2.36) during her senior season.

-Tae Otte blocked four shots over the two-game stretch at Penn State, bringing her team-leading total to 87 for the season.

-Shannon Morris-Reade currently ranks fifth in CHA freshman scoring. Morris-Reade has totaled 18 points on the season, including seven goals.

-The Lady Lions are currently winning a program record 45.2 percent of their faceoffs. The previous mark of 40.8 percent was reached a season ago. Corbin Welsh leads the team, winning 51 percent of her draws.

-Lindenwood will await the weekend results from around the CHA to find out who and where they will be playing during the opening round of the conference tournament, a best-of-three series on Feb. 26-28.

Head Coach Scott Spencer

Scott Spencer is in his second season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's ice hockey program in 2015-16. He has been a hockey coach for the last 12 years, including the last nine in women's hockey.

In his first year in charge of the program, the Lady Lions had the best season in their short NCAA history. Lindenwood reached double-figure wins for the first time, picked up at least one win over every CHA program, and had a win over three WCHA programs, including nationally-ranked Bemidji State. Lindenwood became a tough team to beat at the Lindenwood Ice Arena, winning more games than its first three seasons combined.

Under Spencer, Lindenwood's offense had its highest goals per game total against NCAA Division I competition. On defense, the Lady Lions' Goals Against Average was 0.41 lower than the previous season, and they allowed nearly 10 shots a game fewer than 2013-14.

Spencer helped two players earn first-team all-conference honors in Nicole Hensley and Shara Jasper. Nicole Hensley also earned Academic All-American honors, and was one of 16 players to earn CHA Academic honors.

Prior to coming to Lindenwood, Spencer was the Director of Female Hockey and Female Midlevel Head Coach at the Pursuit of Excellence Hockey Academy in Kelowna, British Columbia for two years. Pursuit of Excellence is one of North America's premiere hockey academies and Spencer oversaw all facets of the women's program, as well coaching both under-19 AAA hockey teams.

His Pursuit of Excellence teams had success on the ice, including being a bronze medalist at the 2013 World Sport School National Championships and a silver medalist at the 2014 World Sport School National Championships. Seven players at Pursuit of Excellence became under-18 national team members, and 100 percent of his graduates moved on to play college hockey. His teams had an overall record of 77-38-20 in his two seasons at Pursuit of Excellence.

In 2011-12, Spencer was an assistant coach at Ohio State University. He helped the Buckeyes go 16-16-4 that season, an improvement by several wins over the last season. Among the players he coached that season included Natalie Spooner, an All-American and finalist for the Patty Kazmaier National Player of the Year Award.

Spencer was an assistant coach at Robert Morris University from 2006-2011, including being the Associate Head Coach in 2010-11. He coached seven all-conference players, two conference Rookie of the Year award winners, and one rookie All-American. Spencer was the head recruiting coordinator for the Colonials, including having a hand in recruiting every member of the team that won the 2012 CHA Tournament Championship.

Spencer played collegiately at the ACHA Division I level for Minot State. He was a four-year letterwinner and helped the team make three national tournaments. Minot State finished in the top-10 nationally three times, including coming in third in 2001-02. He was a team captain and earned the Player's Player Award in 2000-01 for his work ethic and putting the team first. Spencer received honorable mention honors at the 2002 ACHA National Tournament.

Spencer received a Bachelor of Science degree from Minot State in 2002 in Physical Education, with a minor in Coaching. He earned his Master's in Sports Studies from Bemidji State in 2012.
