LINDENWOOD LIONS WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

QUICK TIDBITS

- Katie Falco enters her fifth season as head coach of the Lions in 2022-23.
- The Lions are members of both NCAA Division I and the Ohio Valley Conference for the first time in program history as of the 2022-23 season.
- Lindenwood is scheduled for eleven non-conference games, including two tournaments, and 19 Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) contests.
- The team opened up the regular season at Eastern Michigan in Ypsilanti, Mich. on Monday, Nov. 7., where the Eagles held down the fort at home in a 56-71 win over the Lions.

THE LIONS' FIRST WIN

- The Lindenwood women's basketball team secured their first victory of the season by defeating Hannibal-LaGrange 96-36.
- The Lions ran up the score from the get go, putting on a show in a dominant 37-11 first quarter and shooting an impressive 13-15 (86.7%) from the floor to get there. From outside the arc, Lindenwood was able to hit 7-9 of their three point attempts and a perfect 4-4 from the free throw line.
- Lindenwood's most dominant quarter of the night was the third, outscoring the Trojans 22-2 thanks to a full team effort both offensively and defensively. The Lions shot an impressive 64.3% from the floor, running up the score to 77-23 with ease.
- Emily Benzschawel had another incredibly powerful performance off the bench, knocking down a team-leading 19 points, shooting 7-9 from the floor and 5-7 from outside the arc. The senior out of Monroe, Wisconsin also contributed three rebounds, two assists, one block and two steals.

#OVCIT

- The Lions currently sit at 0-10 in the OVC, making them the only team remaining with a 0 in the wins category.
- Two Lions are in the Top 25 of the OVC's scoring leaderboard - Mary McGrath (13th), Emily Benzschawel (15th), both representing Lindenwood with their strong points per game averages so far this season.
- Emily Benzschawel ranks 3rd in the OVC for her three-pointers per game average of 2.1, and 2nd in three point percentage (48.6).
- Masyn McWilliams is also receiving recognition on the conference level with her 32.7% 3PFG%, ranking her 9th in all of the OVC in this category. The graduate transfer also ranks 15th in three-pointers per game with her 1.1 average so far this year.
- As a team, the Lions lead the conference in three-point field goals made as well, recording 112 total and a 6.6 per game average.

HAIL MARY

- Mary McGrath, the Lions' current leading scorer with 12.1 PPG, became the first Lion in program history to receive an OVC weekly award. The sophomore standout was named the OVC Co-Player of the week on December 27 for her impressive showing at the Las Vegas Holiday Hoops Classic.
- McGrath currently ranks 13th in the Ohio Valley Conference in the points per game category, and 9th in rebounding throughout the conference, making her the highest ranking Lion on both of those lists. She also ranks 4th in FG% with her 51.6% average from the floor.

LAST GAME'S RECAP

- The Lindenwood women's basketball team dropped a heartbreaking six-point game to Morehead State on Saturday afternoon, falling in a 66-72 loss in Hyland Arena.
- "Today was a special day as we honored our women's basketball alumni," said Head Coach Katie Falco. "I want to thank all the women and their families who came back to campus. I feel our team played in a way that made our alumni proud! Go Lions!"
- The injury-ridden Lions, who would only see action from six players today, outpaced the Eagles from the jump, kicking off the game with some impressive shooting. Alana Striverson led the way and heated up in the early minutes of the game, stringing together three three-pointers in a row. The sophomore would end the quarter with 11 total points, playing a huge part in the Lions' 58.8% field goal percentage and 60.0% from outside the three-point line in that first quarter.
- Lindenwood was leading 23-14 at the top of the second quarter, but Morehead greatly cleaned up their offensive game, outshooting the Lions' percentage-wise for the next 10 minutes. They began to close the gap and would continue to do so until the final seconds before halftime, only giving Lindenwood the narrow 37-35 advantage heading into the locker room.
- Both teams' offensive statistics decreased greatly in the third quarter, really putting the pressure on sharp defense in order to succeed. The Lions gripped onto their lead, regardless, still out in front at the conclusion of the third by a score of 53-49. The Lions shot well in the fourth, compiling a 41.7% from the floor. Morehead was able to knock down crucial baskets in the final minutes of the game, however, and that would ultimately be the difference maker despite strong games from all six Lindenwood athletes that played.
- Striverson drained eight more points in the fourth to lead the way offensively again for the Lions, and would go on to be the leading scorer of the night with her outstanding 24 point effort. This broke the previous single-game high in the points category this season, which was set by Mary McGrath when she dropped 22 against Cincinnati in the Lions' home opener. Striverson was also just one point away from tying her career high of 25 points, which she reached last year on Feb. 14 against Missouri S&T.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH KATIE FALCO

Katie Falco is entering her fifth season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's basketball team in 2022-23.

During Lindenwood's final season as a Division II program, Falco led them to an 11-16 record, including an 8-11 mark in GLVC play. Under Falco, Julia Ruzevich put together arguably the best season in program history, collecting two All-America awards and earning GLVC Player of the Year. The Orland Park, Ill., native was also named the GLVC Richard F. Paragon award winner, which recognizes the league's top female athlete of the year. Joining Ruzevich to the All-GLVC lists were teammates Devin Fuhring and Ellen McCorkle. Fuhring, who earned the third All-GLVC Second Team of her career, averaged 14.0 points in 18 games, while totaling 62 rebounds and 50 assists. Meanwhile, McCorkle recorded 11.3 points and 6.6 rebounds per game in her final season.

Navigating the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020-21, the Lions finished 11-9 under Falco in a conference-only season. Lindenwood was one of the top teams in the GLVC inside the paint defensively with Falco's guidance, finishing first in blocked shots (94), blocked shots per game (4.7), rebounds per game (40.1), and rebound margin (7.5). Numerous players relished under the coaching of Falco, as three Lions secured All-GLVC accolades, and three student-athletes received GLVC Player of the Week honors. Julia Ruzevich, a first-team All-GLVC selection and two-time GLVC Player of the Week, broke out with the help of Falco and finished with 11 double doubles during the campaign, good for 10th in the country. In the classroom, the Lions collected GLVC Team Academic All-Conference honors, and 12 student-athletes collected Academic All-GLVC honors.

The 2019-20 season saw continued success for the program, as the team finished 19-9, with a 14-6 mark in the GLVC. Falco helped formulate one of the top offenses in the entire conference, as the team finished second in scoring offense, putting up 77.6 points per game as a unit. Under the tutelage of Falco, players enjoyed record-setting seasons, with Kallie Bildner becoming the school's career points leader, en route to a unanimous All-Conference first team selection. Devin Fuhring and Lindsay Medlen also excelled under Falco, as both players were second-team All-Conference honorees. The team captured a 20-point victory in the GLVC Tournament as a five seed, beating the fourth-seeded Truman State Bulldogs, 79-59. The team was selected to play in the NCAA Division II Championship Tournament as an at-large pick, marking the second-straight season Falco has achieved that as head coach of the Lions.

In Falco's first season as head coach of the Lions, the team finished 21-8, which was the most wins for Lindenwood in the NCAA-era. Additionally, Falco oversaw the development of Kallie Bildner, as she finished the year as a D2CCA All-Central Region selection. In conference games, the Lions were 14-5, earning the three seed in the MIAA Conference Championship and placing three players on All-MIAA teams. Though the Lions fell in the MIAA Championship, Lindenwood received an at-large bid to the NCAA Central Regional, the first at-large bid in program history. The Lions finished the season with a .470 field goal percentage, a Lindenwood NCAA record and the seventh-best mark in Division II during the season. Lindenwood also finished eighth in the NCAA with a 9.4 rebounding margin. In the classroom, the Lions finished the year with a 3.691 GPA, seventh in the nation.

Falco came to Lindenwood after spending the previous 10 seasons as an assistant coach at NCAA Division I South Dakota State. She helped guide the Jackrabbits to 10 postseason appearances, four Summit League regular-season titles and a 248-87 overall record. With SDSU, Falco was responsible for recruiting, scouting and coaching the team's perimeter players. In addition to her on-court responsibilities, Falco served as the Jackrabbits' academic coordinator. In this capacity, she helped lead the team to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Academic Top 25 Team Honor roll in seven of her nine years. Additionally, the Jackrabbits finished with the nation's top GPA during the 2010-11 season.

Prior to SDSU, Falco worked as an assistant coach at Montana State for three seasons. With her on staff, MSU oversaw a program that went from three wins in 2005-06 to 18 wins in 2007-08 and an appearance in the Big Sky Conference Championship game.

Falco was a standout player at Northern Iowa, ending her career fifth on the UNI career scoring charts with 1,343 points. A first-team All-Missouri Valley Conference performer in 2003, she finished second in the league with 18.2 points per game, leading the Panthers to their second Women's NIT appearance in three years. She also set the UNI record for career free throw percentage at 82.4 percent, making an MVC-record 53 consecutive free throws as a freshman. Falco excelled in the classroom, earning Verizon Academic All-America honors in 2003 while completing a Bachelor of Arts degree in sports psychology. She pursued a master's degree in physical education at Utah State, where she served two years as graduate assistant for the Aggie women's basketball team.

Falco is a native of Solon, Iowa, and she and her husband, David, are the parents of Dominic, Jillian, and Sullivan.

ASSISTANT COACH CHRISSEY ROBERTS

Chrissy Roberts is entering her first year with the Lindenwood women's basketball team in 2022-23.

Roberts came to Lindenwood after two years as the Assistant Women's Basketball Coach at the University of Indianapolis, where she specialized in defensive operations and scouting for the Greyhounds.

Before Undy, Roberts was the Head Women's Basketball Coach at Division I Eastern Kentucky University for 11 seasons beginning in back in 2008. Under Roberts' direction, EKU reached the OVC Tournament Championship game two seasons in a row (2015-16 and 2016-17), which was something that had only been accomplished one other time in program history.

Roberts began her coaching career back in 1999 at Tennessee Technology University as the Assistant Women's Basketball Coach and Recruiting Coordinator. Roberts then went on to become the Assistant Women's Basketball Coach at EKU until 2002 before moving into the Assistant Women's Basketball Coach role at East Carolina University all the way through 2008.

ASSISTANT COACH NICK MORGAN

Nick Morgan will be entering his first year with the Lindenwood women's basketball team in 2022-23.

Morgan arrived at Lindenwood after spending the previous season working at Division I Coastal Carolina College, where he acted as both the Assistant Women's Basketball Coach as well as the Recruiting Coordinator.

Prior to Coastal Carolina, Morgan was the Head Women's Basketball Coach at Division III Blackburn College from 2019-21. Under Morgan's leadership, the Beavers made their first appearance in the SLIAC postseason tournament since their 2007-08 season. Illinois Central College and Beloit College were also stops on Morgan's extensive coaching journey, where he took on Assistant Men's Basketball Coach roles for both programs, working heavily in the recruiting realm for each team.

Morgan kickstarted his coaching career back at Southern Illinois University in 2013, where he was the Team Manager and Scout Liaison through 2014.

ASSISTANT COACH TERRA HELM

Terra Helm is entering her first year with the Lindenwood women's basketball program in 2022.

Helm comes to Lindenwood after four years as the Assistant Women's Basketball Coach at Culver-Stockton College, where she coached several successful squads, including a NAIA National Tournament qualifying team in 2019-20.

Before Culver-Stockton, Helm was the Graduate Assistant Women's Basketball Coach at William Woods University for a year right after finishing up her collegiate playing career at Culver-Stockton. During her graduate assistantship, William Woods finished with a 19-13 record and qualified for the AMC Conference Tournament.

Helm received her Bachelor of Science with an emphasis in Physical Education and Health from Culver-Stockton in 2017. She then went on to acquire her Master of Education from William Woods in 2018, specializing in Administration of Activities and Athletics.
