What is a Leatherneck?

Western Illinois holds the distinction of being the only non-military institution to officially have its nickname derived from a branch of the military service. The school began the use of the Marine Corps' official nickname, "The Fighting Leathernecks", in 1927 when athletic director and head baseball, basketball and football coach Ray "Rock" Hanson was granted permission by the U.S. Navy, based on his status as a Marine hero, to use the nickname.

HEAD COACH CHAD BOUDREAU

On Thursday, April 13, 2023, Western Illinois University Director of Athletics Paul A. Bubb announced the promotion of Chad Boudreau to Leatherneck men's basketball head coach, becoming the 25th head coach in program history.

"Chad's influence over the past three years as the associate head coach and the positive results we have seen in the program made this a rather easy decision," Bubb said. "The volume of interest, from calls to emails and text messages, was refreshing and confirmed to me that the program is definitely in better shape than during other recent searches, and Coach Boudreau has been a big part of making that turn around."

Boudreau was named interim coach on Friday, April 7.

For the past three seasons, Boudreau has served as associate head coach for the Western Illinois men's basketball program. During those three years, the Leathernecks saw increases in wins and win percentage, both overall and in the Summit League.

"First and foremost, I want to thank Paul Bubb,"

Boudreau said. "I also want to thank the President, Dr. (Guiyou) Huang, the search committee and the Maccomb community.

"I'm really excited and honored to be the next head coach at Western Illinois University. I've grown to love the city and the people. I grew up not far from here, this is home for me, I want to be here and I'm very proud to be here."

Before coming to Western Illinois, Boudreau was head coach at Highland College in Freeport, Illinois.

At Highland, Boudreau led the Cougars to three consecutive Arrowhead Conference titles with undefeated conference marks in 2019 and 2020. He earned Arrowhead Conference Coach of the Year honors all three seasons of his Highland tenure and was named NJCAA Region IV' Coach of the Year in 2018 and 2020.

Before coaching at Highland, Boudreau was an assistant at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee from 2005-2016. Boudreau assisted Milwaukee to Horizon League championships in 2006, 2011, and 2014, and the Panthers qualified for six postseason tournaments during the 11 years.

Before Milwaukee, Boudreau was the lead assistant at Indian Hills Community College from 1999-2005 and recruited two eventual NBA draft picks. Indian Hills advanced to the NJCAA Final Four during his tenure.

Boudreau graduated from Hannibal-LaGrange College with a bachelor's degree in education in 1995 and from Southwest Baptist University with a master's degree in education in 1999. He began his coaching career as a women's basketball graduate assistant at HLGC.

Boudreau and his wife, Stacy, have five children.

KYLE HEIKKINEN

Associate Head Coach

Kyle Heikkinen, who is entering his fourth season at Western Illinois University, was promoted to associate head coach by Chad Boudreau on June 1, 2023. He began his stint at WIU ahead of the 2020-21 season under the school's previous regime.

During his time in Macomb, he was a member of the winningest first-year staff in Leatherneck history. Amidst the COVID-19 pandemic, they were able to assemble the highest-ranked recruiting class in school history. Three of those student athletes eventually went on to be selected to the All-Summit League Team.

Heikkinen has helped guide the Leathernecks to the most season wins, conference wins and longest winning streak in a decade; capped off by post-season invitational tournament invites in 2022 & 2023.

Some other crowing achieves during his time at Western Illinois:

More than doubled overall wins and conference wins from year-one to year-two

Part of largest single game comeback in school history

First time in school history to sweep all four Dakota Schools in a single season at home

Buy-Game wins at University of Nebraska (B1G) and Illinois State University (MVC)

Largest attendance at home (Western Hall) in one decade

Before joining the Leathernecks, he was on staff at Highland Community College with Coach Boudreau, where for three seasons, he was responsible for recruiting, opponent scouting, film breakdown, academic monitoring, fundraising, team travel coordination, and the organization and administration of summer basketball camps. Highland won the three straight Arrowhead Conference Championships, the NJCAA District 10 title in 2018 as well as the Region IV championship in 2018 and 2020. 13 student-athletes attained NCAA Division I scholarships under the pair's tutelage.

His collegiate coaching journey began at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater (2013-17), where he helped put together one of the best four-year runs in school history, headlined by a 2014 NCAA Division III national championship title.

The program won 90 games that included three 21+ win seasons and three NCAA tournament appearances. In 2015, UW-Whitewater won the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) tournament and regular-season titles while setting the school record for conference wins in a single season (15).

Prior to his stop at Whitewater, Heikkinen spent five seasons with the Fort Atkinson High School boys' basketball and football programs.

Outside of coaching, Heikkinen has worked for ESPN Wisconsin, Rivals.com and 247Sports. As a member of Rivals.com, he spent three years (2007-2010) as a recruiting analyst covering high school basketball and football across the Midwest. During his most recent stop with 247Sports from 2010-2013, Heikkinen was named Publisher/Editor-in-Chief of Badger247.com, covering athletics for the University of Wisconsin.
