The Lindenwood women's basketball team (7-19, 5-11 OVC) travels to Evansville, Ind. for a matchup with Southern Indiana (20-6, 15-1 OVC) on Thursday night. Tip-off is set for 5:00 P.M.

The Lions are coming off a 61-54 victory over Little Rock last Saturday. Lindenwood was led offensively by Justis Odom who posted a career-high 24 points, 16 of which came in the fourth quarter. The Indianapolis, Ind. native made some big free throws down the stretch and finished the contest going 14-of-16 from the charity stripe. She also added six rebounds to her stat line.

Those six rebounds were a team high as the Lions outrebounded the Trojans, 32-28. The Lions have outrebounded their opponents seven times so far this season and are 4-3 in those games. Odom currently leads the team with 4.2 boards per game.

Lindenwood kept Little Rock quiet from outside last Saturday as the Trojans finished the game 0-of-2 from deep. This is the third time this season in which the Lions have allowed no threes in a game. Overall, the black and gold held Little Rock to just 54 points, the third lowest output by an opposing team this season.

Mykayla Cunningham and Ellie Brueggemann were the other Lindenwood players in double figures with 13 and 10 respectively. Cunningham made an impact on the defensive end with a team-high three steals. Brueggemann has now scored in double figures in 22 games this season, tops on the team.

Lindenwood will be looking to even the season series with Southern Indiana after the Screaming Eagles topped the Lions 71-68 in the conference opener on December 31. In that game, Mya Skoff paced the squad with a season-high 16 points.

The Lions are sitting on the edge of OVC Tournament contention with a 5-11 record. Lindenwood will close out the regular season with a road matchup at Morehead State on Saturday. Tip-off is set for 12:00 p.m. CT.

NCAA Tournament Win in Three-Straight Years: After not winning a NCAA Tournament game from 1990 through 2019 (and no tournament being held in 2020), the OVC has responded with victories in each of the last three NCAA events. Belmont broke through in 2021 with a 64-59 over Gonzaga. The following year the Bruins won again, defeating Oregon 73-70 in double overtime. Last year it was Tennessee Tech (who won the NCAA game in 1990) earning a win, defeating Monmouth 79-69 in the First Four in Bloomington, Indiana. It marks the first time that the OVC has ever won NCAA Tournament games in three-straight years.

OVC Basketball Championships To Be Held at Ford Center in Evansville For Seventh Consecutive Year: The OVC Men's and Women's Basketball Championships will be held March 6-9 at the Ford Center in Evansville, Indiana. It marks the seventh-straight season the event will be held in the building after a long run in Nashville. The Ford Center, which opened in 2011, is an 11,000-seat arena located in the core of Evansville's downtown district. The 290,000-square foot facility serves as home of the University of Evansville's men's basketball team and the Evansville Thunderbolts of the Southern Professional Hockey League. The Ford Center also serves as host to numerous sporting events and concerts on an annual basis. In September 2019, the OVC signed a three-year extension to keep the event at the venue through 2023, with an option for a fourth-year (2024), which was exercised in fall 2022. It was announced in March 2023 the event was extended through 2026 with an option for 2027.

New Team: After welcoming three new teams last year, the OVC welcomes another new program in 2023-23. Western Illinois joined the OVC on July 1 after previously being in the Summit League. They are just the 25th full-time member in the 76-year history of the OVC. All Teams Eligible for OVC Tournament: Both reclassifying teams, Lindenwood and Southern Indiana, were eligible to compete and win the OVC Tournament Championship this season. Should a transitioning school win an OVC Tournament Championship, the AQ shall be awarded to the tournament runner-up. Should the tournament runner-up also be a transitioning school, the AQ representative shall be semifinalist that had the highest remaining seed going into the tournament.

OVC Tournament Championship Format: Once again the OVC Tournament will include a merit-based format. The format, which began in 2011, has the top eight men's and women's teams qualifying for the tournament. The No. 1 and 2 seeds will receive two byes to the semifinals while the No. 3 and 4 seeds will receive one bye into the quarterfinals. The first round will include the No. 5 seed against the No. 8 seed and the No. 6 seed against the No. 7 seed.

Owens Named Preseason Player of the Year: The 2023-24 OVC Preseason Women's Basketball Team was headlined by Tennessee Tech graduate guard Maaliya Owens. Last season she averaged 14.9 points/game while knocking down a career-record 92.3-pointers in leading the Golden Eagles to the OVC Tournament Championship and a NCAA Tournament victory over Monmouth. Overall, nine different schools were represented on the Preseason All-OVC Team which included 13 individuals. The other players included Eastern Illinois' Macy McGlone and Miah Monahan, Little Rock's Faith Lee and Tia Harvey, Morehead State's Veronica Charles, Southeast Missouri's Jaiyah Green, SIUE's KK Rodriguez, Southern Indiana's Meredith Raley and Vanessa Shafford, Tennessee Tech's Anna Walker, UT Martin's Shae Littleford and Western Illinois' Anna Deets.

Tennessee Tech Picked as OVC Preseason Favorites: In a vote of Ohio Valley Conference head women's basketball coaches and communication directors, Tennessee Tech was picked as the preseason favorites for the 2023-24 season. It marked the second-straight year the Golden Eagles have been tabbed the favorites. TTU picked up 16 of 22 first-place votes in picking up 196 points. Little Rock picked up five first-place votes and was voted second (184) while Eastern Illinois got the other first-place vote and was tabbed third (157). UT Martin was fourth (135) and followed by Southeast Missouri (125), Southern Indiana (104), SIUE (89), Tennessee State (75), Morehead State (64), Western Illinois (49) and Lindenwood (32).

The 2023-24 Season: The 2023-24 season is the 46th for women's basketball in the OVC (the sport began in the league in 1977-78). Over the previous 45 years, 10 different teams have claimed an OVC regular season championship.

HEAD COACH | AMY EAGAN

Amy Eagan was named head coach of the Lindenwood women's basketball program on March 28, 2023.

Eagan arrives in St. Charles, Mo. after spending three seasons as the head coach of Drury University women's basketball. Eagan completed her 14th season as a collegiate head coach, as she had stops at Truman State, Ashford, and St. Ambrose.

Eagan brings a career mark of 274-151 (.645) to Lindenwood, including four-straight seasons of 23 or more wins. Eagan has led three schools to the NCAA Division II tournament for a total of five appearances, as well as one NAIA tournament appearance. Eagan has claimed five conference titles in her 14 years, including three-straight.

In three years at Drury, the Panthers went an impressive 87-9 under the leadership of Eagan. The Panthers won the GLVC Championship in all three seasons, and appeared in the NCAA Tournament each year. Eagan was named the 2021 WBCA NCAA Division II Coach of the year. The Panthers were the 2021 National Runner-Up, as they garnered the NCAA Division II and GLVC Player of the Year. Eagan earned GLVC Coach of the Year honors this past season, while four of her student-athletes earned all-conference recognition. In all, Eagan has coach 13 all-GLVC selections while with the Panthers.

Before her stint in Springfield, Mo., Eagan coached the Truman State Bulldogs for six years. From 2013-2019, the Bulldogs went 111-62, as Eagan is the all-time leader in wins at Truman State. Eagan led Truman State to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances, along with a GLVC title in her first year in Kirksville, Mo. Eagan spent three seasons at Ashford, collecting a record of 28-63. Eagan began her coaching career in 2005 at St. Ambrose, where she went 48-17 with a MCC Championship and a NAIA Tournament appearance in two seasons. Eagan earned 2007 MCC Coach of the Year honors in just her second season as a collegiate head coach.

Eagan was a standout student-athlete at Truman State, where she left as the all-time leader in assists (529), steals (328), and steals per game (3.3). Eagan ranked fourth at Truman with her 1,527 career points as a Bulldog. During the 1998-99 season, Eagan set the school record for points in a game with 46, and was later named honorable-mention All-American. After her collegiate career, Eagan moved on to play professionally in Norway. In 2012, Eagan was inducted into the Truman State Hall of Fame.

With roots deep in the state of Missouri, Eagan earned all-state honors while playing at South Shelby High School in northeast Missouri. Eagan earned her bachelors in exercise science from Truman State in 2001, before collecting a master's in organizational management from Ashford in 2012.
