2022 SOUTHEASTERN FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

Frank Scelfo

Head Coach • @Coach_Scelfo

Fifth Year at Southeastern • ULM, 1981 • 31-22 at SLU

A veteran coach and Louisiana native, Frank Scelfo was named the 16th head football coach in Southeastern Louisiana University history on January 30, 2018.

Scelfo led the Lions to a 9-4 overall record and an appearance in the FCS playoffs for the second time in the past three years in 2021, advancing to the second round after a 38-14 first round home win over Florida A&M. The Lions finished No. 15 in both the Stats Perform and AFCA Coaches Top 25 polls and were one of six teams to finish in the top 25 every season from 2019-21.

Quarterback Cole Kelley was named Southland Conference Player of the Year and Louisiana Offensive Player of the Year, while earning consensus All-America honors and finishing second in the Walter Payton Award voting. Kelley, cornerback Zy Alexander and wide receiver Austin Mitchell earned All-America honors and were three of 18 All-Southland Conference performers.

The 2021 SLU squad broke 39 school records and finished in the top five nationally in nearly every offensive category, leading FCS in scoring offense, first downs and completion percentage.

The 2020 season was moved to the spring of 2021 and Scelfo led the Lions to a 4-3 record in a season that featured all four road games being played against ranked opponents. The Lions finished the unique spring season ranked No. 20 in the Stats Perform FCS Top 25 and No. 21 in the AFCA Coaches FCS Top 25.

Under Scelfo's tutelage, Kelley won the Walter Payton Award – the Heisman Trophy of the FCS – as the nation's best offensive player and was a consensus All-American choice. Kelley was joined on the Stats Perform All-America team by junior defensive back Ferlando Jordan, marking Jordan's second straight year to earn All-America recognition.

Kelley, the Southland Conference and Louisiana Offensive Player of the Year, led a Lion offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in nearly every offensive category. Southeastern placed 17 student-athletes on the 2020-21 All-Southland Conference teams.

In 2019, in just his second year at the helm of the program, Scelfo was named Southland Conference Coach of the Year after leading the Lions to the third NCAA FCS playoff appearance in school history.

In the opening round, Southeastern overcame a 17-point deficit to rally past No. 8 Villanova for a 45-44 victory – the second playoff win in program history. SLU finished with an 8-5 record and earned regular season wins over No. 6 Jacksonville State and No. 6 Central Arkansas. Scelfo's squad was ranked 18th in the final AFCA Coaches poll and 19th in the final STATS FCS Top 25.

Scelfo saw 10 different student-athletes earn All-Southland Conference honors under his tutelage. He also had four players earn All-Louisiana recognition. The Lion offense finished ranked among the FCS leaders in total offense, passing offense, first downs and scoring offense.

Jordan was named All-American by STATS, The Associated Press and HERO Sports following the season. Senior Isaac Adeyemi-Berglund, who was the No. 3 overall pick in the CFL Draft, became the first CoSIDA Academic All-American in program history and earned a spot on the CoSIDA Academic All-District 6 team for the second straight season.

The Lions finished with a 4-7 overall record in their first season under Scelfo, posting a 4-5 record in Southland Conference play. Among SLU's victories were a win at FCS playoff participant Lamar and a victory over No. 11/12 McNeese.

Scelfo's charges in his debut season included 10 All-Southland Conference players.

Juwan Petit-Frere, Bransen Schwebel and Devonte Williams were all named to the first team, while Petit-Frere also earned All-American honors from the AFCA as an all-purpose player. Schwebel, Adeyemi-Berglund and Jon Miller also represented SLU on the Southland All-Academic Team with Adeyemi-Berglund claiming CoSIDA Academic All-District 6 accolades.

Scelfo's inaugural season at the helm of the program saw his Lions play a part in the department's Southland Strong Community Service Award for the 2018-19 campaign. Prior to the 2018 season, Scelfo announced the program's partnership with CASA (Court-Appointed Special Advocates) in the Hammond area.

Scelfo came to Hammond with over 30 years of coaching experience. Scelfo took over the Southeastern program after spending the previous two seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at UTSA. In 2016, his offense set 15 school records and helped the Roadrunners to their first-ever bowl game, the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

Prior to his time in San Antonio, Scelfo coached for three seasons with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars as an offensive assistant working with the quarterbacks. In his final season in Jacksonville, quarterback Blake Bortles threw for 4,428 yards and 35 touchdowns under Scelfo's tutelage.

In 2010 and 2011, Scelfo was the quarterbacks coach at the University of Arizona. During his tenure with the Wildcats, he tutored future NFL quarterbacks Nick Foles and Tom Savage. Foles, a third-round draft pick in 2012, was the Super Bowl LII MVP after leading the Philadelphia Eagles to a 41-33 victory.

The three seasons prior saw Scelfo serve as the offensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech. Scelfo's stint in Ruston included a 2008 Independence Bowl victory – the Bulldogs' first bowl victory in three decades.

Before heading to north Louisiana, Scelfo spent 11 seasons on the staff at Tulane, including the final eight as the Green Wave's offensive coordinator. Scelfo was the recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach for a 1998 TU squad that was one of two FBS teams to finish undefeated that season, recording a 12-0 mark and a Liberty Bowl victory.

Scelfo's Green Wave offenses were ranked among the national passing leaders in five different seasons and four Tulane quarterbacks – Patrick Ramsey, J.P. Losman, Lester Ricard and Shaun King – went on to play in the NFL. A total of eight Tulane players were selected in the NFL Draft during Scelfo's time in the Big Easy, highlighted by two-time Pro Bowl running back Matt Forte.

Scelfo's Tulane offenses produced the school's all-time passing leader in Ramsey, the program's all-time rushing and all-purpose yardage leader in Mewelde Moore and Roydell Williams, who set the school's career record for touchdown receptions. Moore was only the second player in NCAA history to top both 4,000 rushing and 2,000 receiving yards under Scelfo's guidance.

Scelfo's coaching career began at Prairie View High School in Bastrop, where he served as head coach for the 1982-83 seasons. He also coached at Jesuit High School (1984), River Oaks High School (1985-86), Vidor High School (1987), Orangefield High School (1988), Chapel Hill School (1989-91), Kilgore College (1992-94) and Galena Park North Shore High School (1995).

Scelfo was a four-year letter winner on the baseball diamond at ULM from 1978-81, earning the school's Athlete of the Year award as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree from his alma mater in 1981, before completing his graduate studies in 1983.

He and his wife, Holly, are the parents of two sons, Anthony and Jordan. Anthony, who coaches the Southeastern wide receivers and serves as the team's pass game and recruiting coordinator, played both football and baseball at Tulane and was selected in the 2008 MLB Draft by the Tampa Bay Rays. Jordan was on the baseball and football teams at SLU's Southland Conference rival Incarnate Word from 2012-15.

Game 4
9.24.22
Southeastern 41
No. 4/7 UIW 35
Hammond, La. (Strawberry Stadium)

Game Notes:

- CJ Turner ran down a 59-yard touchdown pass from Eli Sawyer on the game’s final play to give the Southeastern Louisiana University football team a thrilling 41-35 walkoff win over No. 4/7 UIW in the Southland Conference opener for both teams.

- The win for the Lions (2-2, 1-0 SLC) marked the highest-ranked opponent SLU has defeated since a 34-21 win over No. 4 Sam Houston on Nov. 16, 2013. UIW fell for the first time in 2022, dropping to 3-1 overall and 0-1 in league action.

- UIW tied the game on a four-yard touchdown pass from Lindsey Scott Jr. to Marquez Perez with 21 seconds remaining. After the tying score, the first overtime game in Strawberry Stadium since a 31-24 SLU win over Northwestern State on Oct. 14, 2006 seemed inevitable.

- Southeastern had other plans. On the first play of the drive, Carlos Washington Jr. busted loose for 22 yards down to the Lion 41-yard line. Washington, who finished with a game-high 120 yards and two touchdowns on 23 carries, gave SLU a chance to be aggressive.

- A short Sawyer incompletion set up the final play with five seconds remaining. Turner got behind his defender and caught a long pass down the right sideline from Sawyer and ran in for the game-winning score. It was the first walk-off touchdown win for SLU since an 82-yard touchdown pass from Justin Alo to Brandon Acker in a 31-24 victory over McNeese on Oct. 8, 2016.

- Sawyer, who came in in the first quarter after starting quarterback Cephus Johnson III suffered an injury, finished 15-for-24 for 256 yards and two touchdowns in by far his most game action as a Lion.

- While Sawyer’s play marked the first major notch in his belt, Turner’s catch was just the latest achievement for one of the most accomplished players in school history. The LaPlace, Louisiana native finished with five catches for 139 yards and two touchdowns after the game-winner on the way to being named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Week.

- The 100-yard receiving game was the 10th of his career, tying the school record set by teammate Austin Mitchell. His two scoring receptions give him 22 in his career, which tied him with Southeastern Athletics Hall of Famer Felton Huggins for third in school history.

- Donte’ Daniels was named Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Week after he led the Southeastern defense with 11 tackles, as he and Tyrik Mitchell each were credited with tackles for loss. Scott threw for 333 yards, three touchdowns and one interception on 27-for-38 passing.

- Former Lion Marcus Cooper led UIW with 61 yards rushing and 94 yards receiving. In his collegiate debut, SLU kicker Riley Callaghan was named Southland Conference Special Teams Player of the Week after making 2-of-2 field goals and 4-of-4 PAT’s.
