2023 Lady Lions Look to Build on 2022 Success

SLU is coming off the most successful season in school history. The 2022 Lady Lions set a new single-season school record for wins, finishing 40-16 and advancing to the Southland Conference Tournament for the first time in program history. Southeastern set new single-season team standards for winning percentage (.714), fewest losses, runs (341), hits (488), doubles (92), RBI (282), batting average (.334), on-base percentage (.403), total bases (710), slugging percentage (.485) and batters struck out (325), while also finishing as the national Division I stolen base leader for the seventh straight season.

Much of the firepower in the lineup returns for eighth-year SLU head coach Rick Fremin's squad, as the Lady Lions bring back six starters from a season ago. All-Southland performers Cam Goodman (.426, 38 runs, 30 SB in 2022), Audrey Greely (.344, 10 2B, 32 runs, 23 RBI), Bailey Krolczyk (.333, 34 runs, 9 2B, 3 HR, 23 RBI), Maddie Watson (.331, 10 2B, 7 HR, 52 RBI) and Madison Rayner (.327, 16 2B, 5 HR, 44 RBI) are all back this spring.

With outfielder Lexi Johnson (.302, 13 2B, 7 HR, 38 RBI) also returning and expected to make the transition to first base, much of the lineup will remain the same. Veterans Sarah Diaz, Blaire Bizette and Sadie Hewitt, as well as newcomers Maddie Leal, Maria Detillier, Colleen Kulivan, McKayla Ferguson, Ka'Lyn Watson, Madison Hebert, Jillian Gutierrez and Britt Bourgoyne, will bolster the offensive attack.

"We expect Cam to step in to the leadoff role for us," Fremin commented. "We're going to have more power throughout the lineup than we've had in the past. We had 14 different players homer in the fall, so hopefully that translates to the spring."

In the circle, Southeastern's most veteran returners are KK Ladner (8-3, 3.00 ERA, 1 save) and Mary-Cathryn (MC) Comeaux (10-3, 3.72 ERA, 1 save), as well as the school's career and single-season saves leader in Ellie DuBois (0-1, 3.55 ERA, 2 saves). Alyssa Romano (0-3, 2.28 ERA, 1 save) and Leah Marshall (0-0, 0.00 ERA) also are back for the Lady Lions. Cera Blanchard leads a trio of pitching newcomers that includes Chyanne Ellett and Lainee Bailey.

"We feel very good about our pitching staff heading into the season," Fremin said. "Our pitchers know whoever can consistently perform will have the ball in their hands. We have a lot of options, especially in a three-game series or a five-game tournament."

Southeastern faces a nonconference schedule that will see the Lady Lions play nine games versus 2022 NCAA Regional participants, including defending national champion Oklahoma. Alabama, Mississippi State and LSU, which visits Hammond March 15, are among the other Power 5 teams on the SLU slate.

Southland Conference play opens March 17, when SLU travels to Lamar for a three-game league series. The Lady Lions also travel to UIW (April 7-8), HCU (April 14-15) and Northwestern State (May 5-6) during SLC action.

Conference opponents Texas A&M-Commerce (March 31-April 1), Nicholls (April 21-22) and McNeese (April 25-26) visit North Oak Park. The Southland Conference Tournament is set for May 9-12 in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

Southeastern will open the 2022 campaign on Feb. 10, hosting Missouri State at 5 p.m. at North Oak Park. All of SLU's home games this season will air on ESPN+.

Rick Fremin

HEAD COACH

Eighth Year at Southeastern (204-152 at SLU) • Belhaven, 1999

Rick Fremin is in his eighth season as the Southeastern Louisiana University head softball coach. Fremin became the sixth head coach in program history on July 22, 2015.

Fremin has a 204-152 mark during his time in Hammond. All of Fremin's teams have led Division I in stolen bases or stolen bases per game throughout his Southeastern tenure. Southeastern has had two NFCA Golden Shoe Award winners, two All-South Region performers, 29 All-Southland Conference honorees and 19 All-Louisiana selection under Fremin's tutelage.

In 2022, Southeastern set a new single-season school record for wins for the second time in Fremin's career, finishing 40-16 and advancing to the Southland Conference Tournament championship game for the first time in program history. The 2022 Lady Lions set single-season school team records for winning percentage, fewest losses, runs, hits, doubles, RBI, batting average, on-base percentage, total bases, slugging percentage and batters struck out.

Southeastern placed seven players - Aeriy! Mass, Bailey Krolczyk, Audrey Greely, Heather Zumo, Cam Goodman, Madison Rayner and Maddie Watson - on the All-SLC team. SLU set a school record with six All-Louisiana honorees, as Mass, Krolczyk, Greely, Zumo, Goodman and Rayner were all selected among the state's best.

The 2021 campaign saw SLU finish 28-23 overall and 14-10 in league action, while leading Division I with 2.96 stolen bases per game and ranking second with 151 stolen bases. Southeastern placed five student-athletes - Mass, Greely, Zumo, Lindsey Rizzo and Anna Rodenberg - on the All-Southland team, while Mass, Greely and Zumo also earned spots on the All-Louisiana squad.

The 2020 season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Lady Lions were 15-8 overall and 2-1 in Southland Conference play and led Division I with 2.87 stolen bases per game when the season was halted. SLU blanked Texas A&M, 8-0, to earn its first win over a Power 5 opponent under Fremin's tutelage and its first shutout of an SEC opponent since 2007.

The 2019 Southeastern team finished with a 34-23 record and led the nation in stolen bases. The Lady Lions set a new single-season school record with 227 steals - the 10th-highest total in Division I history. Under Fremin's tutelage, Jaquelyn Ramon won the Golden Shoe Award, leading the nation with 63 stolen bases - a new Southland mark and the 10th-highest total in Division I history. Ramon also finished with a Southland career record 184 steals, good for eighth in Division I history.

Ramon and Ella Manzer represented SLU on the All-South Region teams, while the duo was joined on the All-Southland Conference team by Rizzo, Madisen Blackford, Mima Doucet, Alley McDonald and Rebecca Skains. The Lady Lions also set new single-season school records for hits (465) and walks (176).

Blackford, Skains and Manzer also represented Southeastern on the Southland All-Academic teams, while Fremin's squad featured nine Easton/NFCA All-American Scholar-Athletes.

Fremin's 2018 Southeastern squad was at the time, the most successful in school history, finishing 38-21 overall and 18-9 in conference play on the way to finishing tied for second in the standings. The Lady Lions not only set school records for wins - both overall and in league games - but they also set new single-season school standards for runs (319), triples (20) and RBI (253).

For the second time in Fremin's tenure, SLU led the nation in stolen bases, finishing with a then single-season school record 184. Southeastern also placed a single-season school record six student-athletes - Kinsey Nichols, Rachel Hayes, Mahalia Gibson, Ali McCoy, Ramon and Alli Daigle - on the All-Southland Conference teams.

The 2017 Lions finished tied for the national lead with 162 stolen bases and ranked second in Division I with 2.95 stolen bases per game. Ramon led the Southland Conference and ranked fifth nationally with 54 stolen bases.

Gibson became the first Lady Lion to earn Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year honors. Gibson and Nichols were both named to the All-Southland Conference and All-Louisiana teams. Southeastern also placed a then-school-record five student-athletes on the NFCA All-American Scholar Team, as Grace DeLee, Mychal Truxillo, Kasey Nielson, Maddie Edmonston and Daigle.

In his first season with Southeastern, Fremin's 2016 squad finished atop NCAA Division I with 172 stolen bases, breaking the previous school record by over a 100 steals. Senior Katie Lacour was the national leader with 58 stolen bases, earning the Golden Shoe Award, All-Louisiana and All-Southland honors. Lacour was joined on the All-Southland team by Kinsey Nichols.

Lacour batted .423 as a senior under Fremin. Her .425 career batting average was a Southland Conference career record.

Fremin, a Belle Chasse, Louisiana native came to Hammond after spending the previous five seasons at Jackson State.

Fremin led JSU to three Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) East Division championships - the first three in school history. During his five years in Jackson, Fremin has led the Tigers to 137 victories, including a 67-16 record in league contests. In his first season at Jackson State, he led his team to the first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

He was named the 2014 SWAC Coach of the Year and helped JSU set 70 school records during his five years at JSU. Fremin's squad led the nation with 163 stolen bases in 2012. During his tenure, Fremin's teams won games over Ole Miss, Arkansas, Houston and Texas Tech among others. Fremin was also a member of the NCAA Central Regional Advisory Committee from 2012-14.

Prior to his time at Jackson State, Fremin spent five seasons at Belhaven University, accumulating a 186-95 record. His 2010 squad made the program's first NAIA National Tournament appearance and finished the season ranked sixth in the final national poll. During his time with the Blazers, he coached eight NAIA All-Americans.

Fremin was an assistant coach at Millsaps in 2005, helping the Majors to a SCAC West Division championship. Fremin's teams have also consistently excelled in the classroom, being recognized by the NFCA with Academic All-American team honors on eight different occasions.

Fremin started his coaching career at his alma mater Belle Chasse High School, where he was named District 11-3A Coach of the Year twice after leading BCHS to district titles in each of his two seasons at the helm. The 1995 Belle Chasse graduate was a four-year letterman in football, baseball, and golf at BCHS.

A 2007 inductee in the Belhaven Sports Hall of Fame, Fremin was a three-year team captain and quarterback for the Blazers. Fremin earned his bachelor's degree in sport administration from Belhaven in 1999 and earned his master's in sports science from Jackson State in 2013.

Fremin and his wife, Alana, are the parents of two daughters, Brelan and Cambre.

Katie Godwin ASSISTANT COACH

Fifth Year at Southeastern • Southeastern, 2016

One of the most decorated softball student-athletes in program history, Katie Godwin joined the Southeastern Louisiana softball staff as an assistant coach in August 2018.

A 2016 graduate of Southeastern, Godwin is the only three-time first team All-Southland Conference performer in school history. The Port St. Joe, Florida native was named to the All-Southland and All-Louisiana teams in each of her four seasons in Hammond.

She was named to the All-South Region team as a junior, after ranking among the national leaders with a single-season school record .484 batting average. In her lone season under Fremin, Godwin received the NFCA Golden Shoe Award after leading Division I with 58 stolen bases and setting a single-season school record with 49 runs scored.

Godwin's .425 career batting average is the highest in the history of the Southland Conference. She is still the program's career leader with 277 hits and 148 runs scored.

Godwin works with the team's outfielders and hitters. Following graduation, she moved back to her home state with coaching stints at Port St. Joe High School and Apalachicola Bay Charter School.

The former Katie Lacour and her husband, Bryce, wed in June 2020. The couple welcomed a son, Micah, in October 2022.

Alana Fremin ASSISTANT COACH

Eighth Year at Southeastern • Belhaven, 2005

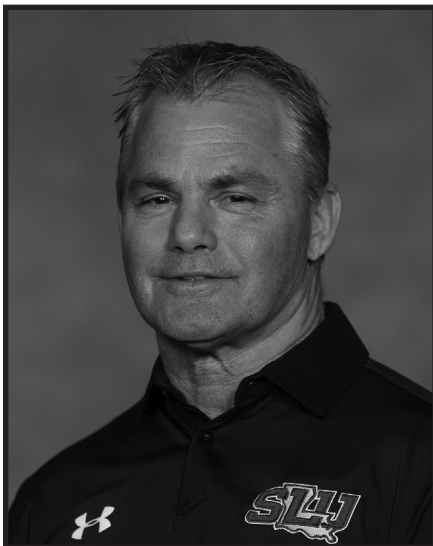

Alana Fremin is in her eighth season with the Southeastern Louisiana softball coaching staff. In September of 2021, she was elevated to assistant coach after serving as the program's volunteer assistant coach for the 2016-21 seasons. The veteran coach is in charge of player development and coaches first base during the games.

Fremin, the wife of eighth-year head coach Rick Fremin, has been on her husband's coaching staff for both of his previous collegiate head coaching experiences at Belhaven and Jackson State. Fremin, who primarily worked with the outfielders at JSU, helped both Jackson State and Belhaven reach new heights on and off the field.

Fremin played collegiately at Belhaven and Florida Community College in Jacksonville, where she was a four-time All-Conference centerfielder. In 2012, Alana was inducted into the Belhaven University's Sports Hall of Fame for her leadership and accomplishments on the softball field.

The Fremins are the parents of two daughters, Brelan and Cambre.

Mission Statement

The Lion Athletics Association (LAA) is a non-profit organization which assists the Southeastern Athletics Department by providing financial support for scholarships, operations and athletic facilities. The LAA follows by-laws set forth and reviewed yearly by the President of the University, Athletic Director and the LAA Board of Directors to ensure all policies and goals comply with the NCAA and Southeastern Louisiana University regulations and missions. The primary mission of the LAA is to positively impact the lives of Southeastern student-athletes.

Giving Options

Contributions to the LAA can be earmarked for use by specific sports programs, spirit groups, the Academic Center, the Student Athlete Advisory Committee or the LAA general fund.

Funds can then be used for:

- Fifth-year scholarship aid for eligible student-athletes. This aid assists student athletes to graduate upon completion of their athletic eligibility
- Financial assistance (recruiting, travel, equipment)
- Scholarship assistance
- Programs and projects that benefit the individual sport programs or the department as a whole
- Operation costs of the LAA

Other Ways to Give

Athletic Scholarship Endowments

Scholarship endowments can be established to aid the most deserving student-athletes or designated to a student-athlete participating in a particular sport. Scholarship endowments allow you to have your name, or the name of a loved one, linked to Southeastern Athletics.

Naming Rights

Leave your mark on Southeastern Athletics and leave a legacy that will be viewed for years to come through a name rights gift. Naming opportunities exist at each of the Southeastern athletic facilities.

Planned Gifts

Name Southeastern Athletics as a beneficiary in your will, life insurance, trust or other planned gift arrangement and ensure the continued development of student-athletes from one generation to the next. Please contact Lindsey Owens, Associate AD for External Relations/SWA, at (985) 549-5226.

Gift-In-Kind

A gift-in-kind is a donation of goods and/or services instead of money.

Payroll Deduction for Employees of Southeastern

Southeastern employees can payroll deduct their contribution to the LAA. Please contact the LAA to find out how.

Corporate Sponsorships (Partnership Form)

Lion Sports Properties offers a variety of game day and promotional opportunities for your business to reach the thousands of fans that attend sporting events at Southeastern Louisiana University year round. Combine your business with the excitement of Southeastern Athletics through one or more of the following opportunities: signage packages, print advertising, radio spots and live reads, website banners on Lionsports.net, gameday sponsorships and golf tournament packages.
