BOBBY BARBIER

SLU BASEBALL HEAD COACH

3rd SEASON AT SLU
HOMETOWN: Lafayette, Louisiana
COLLEGE: Northwestern State, 2006

Veteran coach, and Louisiana native, Bobby Barbier was named the 18th head baseball coach in Southeastern history on June 5, 2023.

Barbier guided Southeastern to the Southland Conference's 2025 regular-season title in his second season at the helm of the program, earning him conference Coach of the Year honors for the second time in his career.

Seven players earned All-Conference honors as the Lions picked up their first conference title in a decade, tying the program's single-season record for home runs established during Barbier's initial season.

Brennan Stuprich was named the Southland's Pitcher of the Year and Student-Athlete of the Year, in addition to earning All-America, All-Region and All-Louisiana honors. Freshman closer Brady St. Pierre was named the conference's Relief Pitcher of the Year, along with picking up Freshman All-America honors.

TJ Salvaggio and Dane Watts joined Stuprich and St. Pierre in earning first-team All-Southland honors. Conner O'Neal, Giovanni Licciardi and Blake Lobell picked up second-team honors, while Watts and Parker Coley were named to the All-Defensive squad.

Ryan Brome, O'Neal and Salvaggio joined Stuprich in earning All-Louisiana honors.

Stuprich and O'Neal were both drafted. O'Neal was selected in the ninth round by the Los Angeles Dodgers and Stuprich was drafted in the 14th round by the New York Yankees, the two participants in the 2024 World Series.

In his first season at the helm, Barbier led SLU to its first winning record in three years (30-28) and established program single-season records for home runs and fan attendance along the way. The No. 6-seeded Lions picked up a pair of wins in the North Oaks Health System Southland Conference Baseball Championship, advancing to the semifinal round.

Brennan Stuprich, TJ Salvaggio and Shea Thomas each earned first-team All-Conference honors while left-handed pitcher Larson Fabre was named the Southland Conference Freshman of the Year. Salvaggio and Thomas joined Rhett Rosevear and Jackson Rodriguez on the Southland's All-Academic squad.

Four SLU hitters produced double-figure home run totals - Salvaggio (13), Parker Coley (12), Jude Hall (12) and Thomas (10) - as the Lions blasted 86 home runs as a team, besting the previous program record by three.

Hall, Coley and Justin Williams would each earn Southland Conference Hitter of the Week honors during the season, while Stuprich was named the conference's Pitcher of the Week twice.

A grand total of 51,112 fans were in attendance for Lion games at Pat Kenelly Diamond at Alumni Field during the 2024 season, an average of 1,460 per game. Both totals established new program records along with leading the conference.

Barbier previously served as the head coach at his alma mater, Northwestern State, from 2017-2023.

During his seven-year tenure as the head baseball coach, Barbier left his imprint on the Northwestern State baseball program - from leading the Demons to their first Southland Conference Tournament championship in 2018 to coaching the first single-season trio of All-Americans in Demon baseball history.

Eight Northwestern State players were drafted during Barbier's time at the helm, including a pitcher in each of his last five seasons, while former Miami Marlin right-hander Adam Oller spent two seasons with Barbier as his pitching coach.

In 2020, right-handed pitchers Logan Hofmann (second-team Collegiate Baseball), Jonathan Harmon (Collegiate Baseball Freshman) and Kyle Swanson (third-team CoSIDA Academic) earned All-American honors.

During the COVID-19 shortened season, Hofmann led the nation in ERA (0.00) and struck out 38 batters in 28 innings, becoming a fifth-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Pirates, giving NSU consecutive seasons with the highest draft selection in the Southland Conference.

Behind that trio, the Demons ranked fifth nationally in team ERA (2.05), 10th in hits allowed per nine innings (5.97) and 12th in shutouts (3). All three totals led the Southland Conference.

One year after engineering the largest single-season turnaround in program history - a jump of 18 wins - the Demons returned to the Southland Conference Tournament in 2019 and produced a pair of Major League Baseball drafts for the second time in as many seasons.

Right-handed pitcher Nathan Jones became the first top-five-round draft pick from Northwestern State since 2012. Junior shortstop Caleb Ricca then was tabbed by Seattle in the 23rd round.

Jones (second team), Ricca (third team) and outfielder Tyler Smith (third team) were named All-Southland Conference in 2019, giving NSU nine all-league players in the first three years of the Barbier era.

In 2018, en route to the Demons' first NCAA Regional appearance since Barbier's junior season of 2005, the Demons won 18 more games than they had the previous season and captured the first Southland Conference Tournament championship in program history. Northwestern State's 38 victories were also its most since winning 41 games during the 2005 season.

Three Demons earned individual acclaim from both the Southland Conference and the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. Barbier was both organization's Coach of the Year and earned the Central Region Coach of the Year award from the American Baseball Coaches Association.

Catcher/first baseman David Fry was the Southland Conference's Player of the Year and the LSWA's Hitter of the Year while right-handed pitcher Jerry Maddox was both the Southland and LSWA Newcomer of the Year.

Fry was named a third-team All-American by Collegiate Baseball Magazine, giving Northwestern State its second All-American in three seasons, joining Adam Oller, who earned the honor during Barbier's term as the Demons' pitching coach.

That role was one Barbier resumed in 2018, and his impact was immediately measurable.

In addition to Maddox' first-team All-Louisiana and second-team All-Southland Conference selections, fellow junior Ridge Heisler was a third-team all-conference selection. Overall, the Demons shaved more than two and a half runs from their ERA, pitching to a 3.41 mark in 2018. That number ranked 18th nationally and was 2.65 lower than the previous season.

Following the Demons' run to the NCAA Corvallis Regional, half of the NSU senior class heard its name called in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Fry was a seventh-round selection by the Milwaukee Brewers while center fielder Kwan Adkins, a third-team All-SLC pick, was nabbed by the San Francisco Giants in the 30th round.

During Barbier's first season, Fry produced the first 20-double, 10-home run season in school history, earning first-team American Baseball Coaches Association/Rawlings All-South Central Region honors.

Before becoming the 12th head coach in the more than 100 years of Northwestern State baseball history, Barbier spent two stints as an assistant coach with the Demons.

He spent the 2015 and 2016 seasons helping the Demons craft two of the lowest ERAs in recent Northwestern State baseball history.

In addition to helping guide Oller to a pair of All-American selections, Barbier's tutelage led the Demons staff to a 3.01 ERA that ranked ninth nationally.

Oller wrapped up a season in which he went 8-1, posted a 1.23 ERA (third-lowest nationally) and earned Southland Conference Pitcher of the Year honors, along with All-American nods from Louisville Slugger/ Collegiate Baseball magazine and the American Baseball Coaches Association.

In his first season, Barbier helped the NSU staff post a 3.55 ERA while Josh Oller became the program's first 10-game winner in 11 years and Brandon Smith tied the program record for single-season saves (10). The overall ERA marked an improvement of more than one run from 2014 and was the lowest mark since 2002 (3.54).

Between his two coaching stints at his alma mater, Barbier joined former NSU head coach Mitch Gaspard's staff at the University of Alabama, where he spent five seasons (2010-2014) as the Crimson Tide's third base coach.

While at Alabama, Barbier coached five All-Southeastern Conference selections, including Academic All-American Taylor Dugas. Twelve Alabama players were selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft during Barbier's Crimson Tide tenure.

He was also part of a Crimson Tide coaching staff that led Alabama to four regional appearances, including the Atlanta Regional championship and a berth in the 2010 Clemson Super Regional.

Barbier's responsibilities at Alabama included coaching outfielders, assisting with catchers and infielders, directing camps and scouting and being heavily involved in recruiting. Barbier also was the staff's academic coordinator. Barbier was a key contributor on the field as Alabama's defense set a school record for fielding percentage in 2011.

During his first stint as a Demon assistant, Barbier coached NSU infielders and hitters as well as acting as the team's base running coordinator. Under his tutelage, NSU led the Southland Conference in stolen bases with 99. Barbier also coordinated travel, field maintenance and team academics as an NSU assistant.

On the field, Barbier saw the majority of his playing time at first base, earning honorable mention all-conference accolades in 2004 and first-team All-Southland honors in 2005, while helping lead NSU to the 2005 Southland Conference title and an NCAA Baton Rouge Regional berth.

During his Northwestern State playing career, Barbier epitomized the term student-athlete. In addition to being awarded the Southland's top individual academic honor, Barbier was a 2004 Academic All-American and part of the 2005 Southland Conference All-Academic Team.

The 2006 Southland Conference Scholar Athlete of the Year, Barbier played four seasons for the Demons and still ranks in the program's career top 10 for HBPs (2nd, 44), RBIs (4th, 130), games played (7th, 209), doubles (T-10th, 33), hits (10th, 181) and total bases (10th, 267).

Barbier earned both a bachelor's degree (2006) and master's degree (2008) in health and human performance from Northwestern State. The son of former Nicholls football coach Darren Barbier, he is married to the former Kody Sprout. The couple has one daughter, Landry.

RICK FREMIN

SLU SOFTBALL HEAD COACH

11th SEASON AT SLU
HOMETOWN: Belle Chasse, Louisiana
COLLEGE: Belhaven, 1999

Rick Fremin is in his 11th season as the Southeastern Louisiana University head softball coach. Fremin became the sixth head coach in program history on July 22, 2015.

Fremin has a 348-197 mark during his time in Hammond. Nine of Fremin's teams have led Division I in stolen bases or stolen bases per game throughout his Southeastern tenure. Southeastern has had two NFCA Golden Shoe Award winners, four all-region performers, 47 All-Southland Conference honorees and 39 All-Louisiana selections under Fremin's tutelage.

In 2025, Fremin repeated as Louisiana Coach of the Year and was the leader of the AETA/NFCA Gulf Region Coaching Staff of the Year after guiding Southeastern to its second straight Southland Conference Tournament championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. SLU took down host and No. 10 national seed LSU twice to advance to the final of the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional.

Southeastern finished 50-16 overall – just the fourth 50-win season in Southland history – and set single-season school records in 12 different categories. Under Fremin's tutelage, SLU led Division I in stolen bases, triples and triples per game, while ranking among the national leaders in wins (6th), ERA (8th), hits (12th), shutouts (7th), sacrifice bunts (4th), winning percentage (9th) and stolen bases per game (2nd).

Macie LaRue was named the 2025 Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year and Louisiana Pitcher of the Year, while also earning NFCA All-Gulf Region accolades. LaRue was joined on the All-SLC teams by Maria Detillier, Chloe Magee, Shenita Tucker and Britney Lewinski. LaRue, Magee, Detillier, Tucker, Brilee Ford and Cydnee Schneider represented SLU on the All-Louisiana teams. Detillier was also named SLC Student-Athlete of the Year and the Southeastern Athlete of the Year.

Fremin was named the Louisiana Coach of the Year in 2024 after leading the Lady Lions to their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, where SLU advanced to the championship game of the NCAA Tuscaloosa Regional with two wins over nationally-ranked Clemson. Southland Conference Tournament MVP Lexi Johnson helped send Fremin's squad to the postseason with a walk-off three-run home run in an 8-7 championship game win over UIW.

The 2024 team finished 47-15 overall, tying the school record for victories set by the previous season's team. The 2024 Lady Lions also set or tied single-season school marks for shutouts, at-bats, runs, hits, batting average, games played, on-base percentage, sacrifice flies, innings pitched, putouts and fielding percentage. SLU led the nation in stolen bases and stolen bases per game and ranked in the top 20 in Division I in wins (11th), batting average (6th), ERA (13th), shutouts (10th), triples per game (4th), winning percentage (13th) and on-base percentage (16th).

Ka'Lyn Watson was the second straight Lady Lion to be named SLC Hitter of the Year and was joined on the all-conference team by Johnson, Audrey Greely, Cera Blanchard, Bailey Krolczyk, Magee, Ellie DuBois and Cam Goodman. SLU also placed a school-record eight on the All-Louisiana team, as Detillier, Watson, Greely, Blanchard, Krolczyk, Magee, DuBois and Johnson were named among the state's best. Following the season, Fremin spoke at the annual NFCA Convention in Dallas, Texas.

His 2023 roster set a new single-season school record for victories, finishing 47-14 and advancing to the SLC Tournament championship game for the third straight year. The Lady Lions also set then-school records for winning percentage, runs, hits, doubles, triples, RBI, total bases, walks, batters struck out, shutouts, putouts and consecutive wins.

Krolczyk was the first player in school history to be named Southland Player and Hitter of the Year, as well as All-South Region. She was joined on the All-SLC team by Johnson, Greely, Goodman and KK Ladner. For the second straight year, SLU placed a then-school-record six players on the All-Louisiana team, as Krolczyk, Johnson, Greely, Ladner, Detillier and Blanchard were named among the state's elite.

In 2022, Southeastern finished 40-16 and advancing to the Southland Conference Tournament championship game for the first time in program history. Southeastern placed seven players – Krolczyk, Greely, Goodman, Aeriyl Mass, Heather Zumo, Madison Rayner and Maddie Watson – on the All-SLC team. SLU set a school record with six All-Louisiana honorees, as Mass, Krolczyk, Greely, Zumo, Goodman and Rayner were all selected among the state's best.

The 2021 campaign saw Southeastern finish 28-23 overall and 14-10 in league action, while leading Division I with 2.96 stolen bases per game and ranking second nationally with 151 stolen bases. Southeastern placed five student-athletes - Mass, Greely, Zumo, Lindsey Rizzo and Anna Rodenberg - on the All-Southland team, while Mass, Greely and Zumo also earned spots on the All-Louisiana squad.

The 2020 season was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Lady Lions were 15-8 overall and 2-1 in Southland Conference play and led Division I with 2.87 stolen bases per game when the season was halted. SLU blanked Texas A&M, 8-0, to earn its first win over a Power 5 opponent under Fremin's tutelage and its first shutout of an SEC opponent since 2007.

The 2019 Southeastern team finished with a 34-23 record and led the nation in stolen bases. The Lady Lions set a new single-season school record with 227 steals - the 10th-highest total in Division I history. Under Fremin's tutelage, Jaquelyn Ramon won the Golden Shoe Award, leading the nation with 63 stolen bases - a new Southland mark and the 10th-highest total in Division I history. Ramon also finished with a Southland career record 184 steals, good for eighth in Division I history.

Ramon and Ella Manzer represented SLU on the All-South Region teams, while the duo was joined on the All-Southland Conference team by Rizzo, Madisen Blackford, Mima Doucet, Alley McDonald and Rebecca Skains. The Lady Lions also set new single-season school records for hits (465) and walks (176).

Blackford, Skains and Manzer also represented Southeastern on the Southland All-Academic teams. Perennially maintaining a team grade point average of 3.0 or higher, Fremin's squad featured nine Easton/NFCA All-American Scholar-Athletes.

Fremin's 2018 Southeastern squad was at the time, the most successful in school history, finishing 38-21 overall and 18-9 in conference play on the way to finishing tied for second in the standings. The Lady Lions not only set school records for wins - both overall and in league games - but they also set new single-season school standards for runs (319), triples (20) and RBI (253).

For the second time in Fremin's tenure, SLU led the nation in stolen bases, finishing with a then single-season school record 184. Southeastern also placed a single-season school record six student-athletes - senior Kinsey Nichols, senior Rachel Hayes, senior Mahalia Gibson, sophomore Ali McCoy, Ramon and senior Alli Daigle - on the All-Southland Conference teams.

The 2017 Lions finished tied for the national lead with 162 stolen bases and ranked second in Division I with 2.95 stolen bases per game. Ramon led the Southland Conference and ranked fifth nationally with 54 stolen bases.

Gibson became the first Lady Lion to earn Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year honors. Gibson and Nichols were both named to the All-Southland Conference and All-Louisiana teams. Southeastern also placed a then-school-record five student-athletes on the NFCA All-American Scholar Team, as junior Grace DeLee, senior Mychal Truxillo, senior Kasey Nielson, junior Maddie Edmonston and Daigle.

In his first season with Southeastern, Fremin's 2016 squad finished atop NCAA Division I with 172 stolen bases, breaking the previous school record by over a 100 steals. Senior Katie Lacour was the national leader with 58 stolen bases, earning the Golden Shoe Award, All-Louisiana and All-Southland honors. Lacour was joined on the All-Southland team by sophomore Kinsey Nichols.

Lacour batted .423 as a senior under Fremin. Her .425 career batting average was a Southland Conference career record.

Fremin, a Belle Chasse, Louisiana native came to Hammond after spending the previous five seasons at Jackson State.

Fremin led JSU to three Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) East Division championships - the first three in school history. During his five years in Jackson, Fremin has led the Tigers to 137 victories, including a 67-16 record in league contests. In his first season at Jackson State, he led his team to the first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

He was named the 2014 SWAC Coach of the Year and helped JSU set 70 school records during his five years at JSU. Fremin's squad led the nation with 163 stolen bases in 2012. During his tenure, Fremin's teams won games over Ole Miss, Arkansas, Houston and Texas Tech among others. Fremin was also a member of the NCAA Central Regional Advisory Committee from 2012-14.

Prior to his time at Jackson State, Fremin spent five seasons at Belhaven University, accumulating a 186-95 record. His 2010 squad made the program's first NAIA National Tournament appearance and finished the season ranked sixth in the final national poll. During his time with the Blazers, he coached eight NAIA All-Americans.

Fremin was an assistant coach at Millsaps in 2005, helping the Majors to a SCAC West Division championship. Fremin's teams have also consistently excelled in the classroom, being recognized by the NFCA with Academic All-American team honors on eight different occasions.

Fremin started his coaching career at his alma mater Belle Chasse High School, where he was named District 11-3A Coach of the Year twice after leading BCHS to district titles in each of his two seasons at the helm. The 1995 Belle Chasse graduate was a four-year letterman in football, baseball, and golf at BCHS.

A 2007 inductee in the Belhaven Sports Hall of Fame, Fremin was a three-year team captain and quarterback for the Blazers. Fremin earned his bachelor's degree in sport administration from Belhaven in 1999 and earned his master's in sports science from Jackson State in 2013. In 2023, he received commendation for earning 600 coaching wins at the NFCA Convention.

Fremin and his wife, Alana, are the parents of two daughters, Brelan and Cambre.
