LAST SERIES RECAP

- The Bisons were swept for the second straight series against an SEC foe, falling to No. 15 Alabama in all three games this past weekend.
- Lipscomb scored 20 runs against the Crimson Tide but gave up 10+ runs in each game over the weekend.
- Mason Lundgrin was one of the Bisons' bright spots against Alabama. He hit .583 against the Tide, going 7-of-12 at the plate with five RBI and two home runs.

LOUISVILLE MATCHUP

- The Bisons will take on Louisville on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week before they host a hot Austin Peay ball club over the weekend, their conference series opener.
- Lipscomb has recently fared well against the Cardinals, winning both of their previous meetings in the last two seasons.
- Last season, the Bisons took down the No. 18 Cardinals 12-7.
- In that matchup, Austin Kelly and Trace Willhoite led the way, going a combined 7-of-10 at the plate with 10 RBI and seven runs scored.
- The Bisons scored nine combined runs in the third and fourth innings, which put the game out of reach.
- Chandler Giles, Wednesday's starter this time, earned the win after pitching two-thirds of an inning and allowing no runs.
- The win over Louisville was the first of two wins for the Bisons over ranked opponents last year.
- Lipscomb looks to snap a six-game losing streak and build momentum going into conference play.

2024 BISONS

- Lipscomb returns 22 players from last year's roster and adds 18 newcomers, seven of them freshmen, and 11 of them transfers.
- The Bisons also return eight of their nine players who were starters in their two NCAA Regional games and a large portion of the 2023 season.
- Four Bisons earned preseason all-conference selections, led by a graduate student and starting third basemen Trace Willhoite, who was named ASUN Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. Senior centerfielder Alex Vergara, senior catcher Austin Kelly, and junior left-handed pitcher Hayden Frank also represented the Bisons in the preseason list.
- The Bisons were picked to win the league this season, after winning the league last year while being picked fourth in the preseason.
- Lipscomb finished 15th in the nation in home runs last season, hitting 109 in 2023, almost double the previous Lipscomb record (69). Four players had 15+ home runs last season, led by Alex Vergara, who launched 23 bombs last year, and Austin Kelly, who hit 21 and was the first to break the program's single-season record, held initially by Trace Willhoite (17-2022), the program's current career home run leader.
- Lipscomb will have to replace four of their top five starting pitchers from a year ago, including Conference Pitcher of the Year and 8th Round MLB Draft Pick Logan Van Treeck. Offensively, Lipscomb returns almost all of their production except for electric shortstop and lead-off hitter Caleb Ketchup, who was drafted in the 15th round of last year's MLB Draft.
- Three Bisons were named Top-100 at their position by D1 Baseball. Those players are Alex Vergara (OF-59th), Austin Kelly (C-28th, and Trace Willhoite (3B-17th). LHP Hayden Frank was named the 183rd-best prospect in the nation in the preseason.

2023 REWIND/LIPSCOMB HISTORY

- The Bisons went 36-26 in 2023 and 23-7 in league play to win back-to-back regular season titles and their third ASUN Tournament Championship under 18th-year Head Coach and 2023 ASUN Coach of the Year Jeff Forehand.
- Lipscomb punched a ticket to the Clemson Regional last season, falling to top-16 national seed Clemson in game one and Charlotte in the elimination game.
- Lipscomb broke their single-season conference win record and won every series in conference play for the first time in their ASUN history last season.
- Lipscomb had two wins over nationally ranked opponents in 2023 (#6 Arkansas, #18 Louisville).
- Thirty-six wins was the second most wins in program history.
- Before the Division I era, Lipscomb was a powerhouse NAIA program that won two NAIA National Championships.

"BYE-SONS"

- We are the "BYE-SONS" at Lipscomb. Don't confuse us with North Dakota State as they are pronounced the "BYE-ZIN." Act like you are from the South. The most commonly accepted plural of "bison" is bi-son, but at Lipscomb, we are the BISONS with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

NEWS AND NOTES

PICKED FIRST

The Bisons have been picked to win the league this season after taking home the regular season and tournament title last season. In the 2023 preseason, the Bisons were picked fourth.

PRESEASON DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

After being named to the All-ASUN Second Team in 2023, Graduate third basemen Trace Willhoite was voted by the ASUN Coaches as the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year in the conference.

PRESEASON ALL-ASUN TEAM SELECTIONS

Trace Willhoite, Austin Kelly, Hayden Frank, and Alex Vergara were all Preseason All-ASUN Team Selections. All of them made All-ASUN Teams at the end of last season and were deemed among the best in the nation at their position by D1 Baseball.

ENTERING YEAR 18

Head Coach Jeff Forehand enters his 18th year as the Bisons head coach. Forehand has over 600 wins at the helm during his tenure, with no signs of slowing down any time soon.

REWIND BACK TO THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

Lipscomb earned a bid to the Clemson Regional of the NCAA Tournament a season ago. The Bisons held a one-run lead against the national seed midway through the 5th inning but fell to the Tigers. Then, Charlotte bounced Lipscomb down in Clemson, South Carolina, in the elimination game.

COMEBACK KINGS IN THE ASUN TOURNAMENT

The Bisons dropped their first two games of the ASUN Tournament but rallied off three straight, including the Championship final against FGCU, to win their third ASUN Title and punch their ticket to the NCAA Tournament.

STAFF CHANGES

Head Coach Jeff Forehand and Lipscomb Baseball brought three new members to their staff for the 2024 season. The first addition was Coach Ross Steedley, who replaced Adam Wyse as an assistant coach. Steedley moved to Nashville after a three-year stint as the head man at Queens University - Charlotte. The Bisons also replaced three-year pitching coach Matt Myers. Coach Robert Zeigler transitioned to his new role after serving as the Director of Pitching at X2 Baseball in Concord, North Carolina. Lipscomb also added a new role this season titled Director of Player Development, which former Bison Tyler Drabick filled.

THE LONG BALL

Last season, the Bisons were among the best in the nation at hitting the long ball. Lipscomb ranked 15th in the country in total home runs (109) and 22nd in the country in home runs per game (1.76). The Bisons had two players in the top 30 in homers last year, and four players hit 10+ bombs in 2023. 109 homers, nearly double the previous program record set the year prior, and 23 homers from Alex Vergara set the program's single-season record.

NEW LOOK PITCHING ROTATION

Coach Forehand knew they had to replace their entire weekend rotation from a season ago. Experience midweek guys from last season, Alex Brewer and Michael Dunkelberger will be called upon to take a step forward. The Bisons also brought in eight new arms to help the room.

TOUGH SCHEDULE

Coach Forehand never shies away from scheduling in the non-conference as the Bisons take on programs like Xavier, Kentucky, Alabama, Louisville, Vanderbilt, and Tennessee on top of their ASUN slate. Five teams on the Bisons 2024 schedule made it to an NCAA Regional: Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Vanderbilt, and Xavier.

OFFENSIVE RETURNERS

Lipscomb returns most of their offensive production from last season, only losing one starter from their championship roster. Their leaders in almost every offensive category have returned for another season, including all-conference hitters like Trace Willhoite, Austin Kelly, and Alex Vergara.

BISONS

We are the "BYE-SONS" at Lipscomb. Don't confuse us with North Dakota State as they are pronounced the "BYE-ZIN." Act like you are from the South. The most commonly accepted plural of "bison" is bi-son, but at Lipscomb, we are the BISONS with an S. The unabridged Oxford English dictionary includes Bisons as a proper usage.

MLB DRAFT PICKS

Lipscomb Baseball had a pair of players selected in the 2023 MLB Draft, a three-day event from July 9-11. Lipscomb has now produced 32 MLB draft picks, 17 of which have come under the leadership of Head Coach Jeff Forehand. Logan Van Treeck was selected in the 9th round (No. 258) by the Cincinnati Reds, while Caleb Ketchup went to the Los Angeles Angels in the 15th round (No. 444). Lipscomb Baseball right-handed pitcher Braydon Tucker became a pro as he signed a free-agent deal with the Philadelphia Phillies.

TAKE YOUR BASE

The Bisons finished first in the conference and 19th in the nations in total walks in 2023. Lipscomb took a free base 334 times last season.

AGGRESSIVE IN THE BASE PATHS

Coach Forehand's team was one of the more aggressive teams at stealing bases last season, finishing 30th in the nation in stolen bases (102) and first in the ASUN.

Liberty and Jacksonville State are no longer in the ASUN, playing their last season in 2023. They have both moved to the Conference USA. Kennesaw State will be joining them after this season. The ASUN will add West Georgia, a D-II powerhouse, to the conference next season.

FOREHAND FILE

Jeff Forehand is entering his 18th season as the Lipscomb University baseball head coach in 2023 and was named the ASUN Coach of the Year in 2022 and 2023.

After being named the 15th coach in the history of the storied Lipscomb program in 2007, Forehand has racked up over 500 collegiate wins and sits as the winningest skipper in the program's NCAA era with a 459-471 record.

His overall record as a collegiate head coach is 672-622-1 in 23 seasons. He earned his 500th career win on March 24, 2017, with a 4-1 decision over Evansville – which also happened to be the same team he recorded his first career win as skipper of the Bisons on February 11, 2007.

During his tenure, Forehand has led the Bisons to three ASUN Championships and the only three NCAA Tournament appearances in program history in 2008, 2015, and 2023.

He has mentored 59 All-ASUN selections and 13 superlative award winners, including 11 First Team All-Conference selections, 21 Freshman All-ASUN selections, three ASUN Defensive Players of the Year, two ASUN Tournament MVPs, two ASUN Scholar Athletes of the Year, two ASUN Pitchers of the Year, and one ASUN Freshman of the Year.

In addition, Forehand has coached one All-American, four Freshman All-Americans, one All-South Region honoree, and the program's first-ever ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove recipient in 2017 – one of only nine to be honored in Division I.

Having players drafted is nothing new for Forehand as 16 of his student-athletes have received the call on draft day – including a program record three in 2017. There have been 31 total draftees in Lipscomb's history, with the most recent being the 2023 ASUN Pitcher of the Year Logan Van Treeck and Caleb Ketchup who was an all-conference performer and the 2022 ASUN Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to his arrival, Lipscomb had yet to post a winning season since joining Division I as a full member in 2004. After finishing just two games shy of .500 in his first season (28-30) in 2007, the Bisons posted a 33-30 overall mark and won a program-record 19 conference games en route to the team's first-ever ASUN title and NCAA postseason berth in 2008.

Before taking over the Lipscomb program in 07, Forehand had a highly successful stint across town at Trevecca Nazarene, where he led the Trojans to a 211-142-1 in six seasons. At Trevecca, Forehand earned 2004 NAIA Region XI Coach of the Year and was named TransSouth Conference Coach of the Year twice in 2004 and 2005. The Trojans also excelled in the classroom, as the team's grade point average increased a half a point in his tenure.

While at Trevecca, Forehand saw three players have their names called on draft day as Mario Campos (Red Sox, 2001), B.J. Jenkins (San Diego Padres, 2004), and Brad Coon (Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, 2005) each was selected.

Before taking over the Trojan's program, Forehand got his head-coaching start at Nashville's Goodpasture Christian School, where in seven seasons, he won three state titles (1995, 1997, 1999). He is also a three-time Tennessee State Coach of the Year honoree winning the award each of those three years. Before taking over the Goodpasture program, Forehand was an assistant coach from 1990-92 under his father, Fred, at Montgomery Bell Academy.

A native of the "Music City," the former second baseman played college ball at nearby Belmont under coach Dave Whitten graduating in 1989. Forehand also holds a Master of Education degree from Tennessee State.

A lifelong resident of the city of Nashville, Forehand and his wife, Karen, have two sons, Gant and Brooks.
