WHAT'S INSIDE

Dear Lions Fans,

On behalf of our Athletic department and the Lions Athletic fund, we are pleased to present you the 2020-21 LMU Basketball Fan Guide. Although we may remain apart due to COVID-19, I am estatic that basketball is back at Loyola Marymount University and our seasons are underway.

This season our basketball experience will different with fans not able to be in attendance, but we still want to encourage you to support now more than ever by cheering on our lions from wherever you are. this means engaging with us on social media, watch our streams, wear your favorite LMU gear for game day and yell go lions as often as possible.

This season we look forward to a new standard with Head Coach Stan Johnson. In hiring Coach Johnson, we have brought the LMU community together. I look forward to watching the progress Coach Johnson makes not only this season, but in the future.

We appreciate your generous support and look forward to seeing you in person when able to on the bluff! Thank you and Go Lions!

RTWG,
Craig Pintens

STAN JOHNSON

HEAD COACH | 1ST YEAR AT LMU

Loyola Marymount University has named Stan Johnson as its new men's basketball head coach on March 20, 2020, Athletic Director Craig Pintens announced.

Johnson coached five seasons at Marquette University and was promoted to associate head coach in June of 2017 after helping guide the Golden Eagles to a NCAA tournament trip in 2016-17. Marquette also made a run to the NIT quarterfinals in 2017-18 and returned to the NAAs in 2018-19.

Johnson arrived in Milwaukee after working the previous two seasons at Arizona State and was on the opposing bench in a pair of matchups against the Golden Eagles. The Sun Devils, who went 16-1 at home, participated in the NCAA tournament in 2013-14 in his first campaign with the program and earned a spot in the National Invitation Tournament in 2014-15.

Johnson also spent two seasons (2011-13) at Drake University after a three-year stint at the University of Utah, which advanced to the NCAA tournament in 2009.

During his two seasons at Drake, he helped coach Ben Simons and Joey King to Missouri Valley Conference honors with Simons earning All-MVC second-team honors each of the final two seasons and King earning all-freshman honors in 2012-13.

In Johnson's first season with the Bulldogs in 2011-12 he helped guide Drake to its second-highest conference finish (tied for third) since 1986, and a victory in the postseason for the first time since 1975. Two Bulldogs were named second-team All-Missouri Valley Conference (Simons and Rayvonte Rice), and Simons was named captain of the MVC's Most Improved Team.

During his three-year stay at Utah, Johnson was part of a staff that coached the Utes in 2008-09 to a 24-10 record, a share of the Mountain West Conference Championship and the postseason conference tournament title. Utah finished the season ranked No. 25 in the AP poll and earned a No. 5 seed in the Midwest Region, at the time the highest seed ever given to a Mountain West team.

Johnson came to Utah after a one-year stint as an assistant coach at Cal State Northridge in 2007-08. The Matadors finished 20-10 overall and earned a share of their first Big West Conference regular season championship with Johnson on the staff.

Prior to his year at Cal State Northridge, Johnson spent three seasons (2004-07) on the bench at Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Mo. The Bearcats were 50-30 in that period, with three-consecutive winning seasons for the first time in school history. The 2005-06 squad posted a 27-5 record, including a school-record 14 wins in a row to open the season. Southwest Baptist captured the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association title that year and made a trip to the NCAA Division II tournament, finishing No. 6 in the national rankings.

Johnson started his coaching career at Bemidji (Minn.) State University in 2003-04. In his lone season at Bemidji, Johnson helped coach the Beavers to a 20-10 mark and their first-ever 20-win season. Bemidji State was 14-2 in conference play that season, earning a berth to the NCAA Division II tournament and leading the nation in 3-pointers per game, with 11.7.

As a player, Johnson was a three-year letterman at Southern Utah University. He was a team captain and starter in 2000-01 and helped lead the Thunderbirds to the Mid-Continent Conference (now Summit League) title and a berth in the NCAA tournament, where they dropped a close 68-65 decision to No. 3 seed Boston College. Johnson was a three-time member of the Mid-Continent Conference All-Academic Team and earned a bachelor's degree in communication from SUU in 2003.

Johnson played his senior season of college basketball at Bemidji State (2002-03), where he served as a team captain and earned honorable mention all-conference accolades. He averaged 13.5 points and distributed a team-high 11.4 assists during his one season with the Beavers.

Johnson is a graduate of Taylorsville (Utah) High School. He and his wife Brittany have three children, Brooklynn, Myles and Braylon.

The Barron's 2020 Top 100 RIA Firms is given by Barron's and is based on assets, revenue, number of clients, number of employees, and quality of practice. Newly added metrics for 2020 recognition include technology spending, staff diversity, and succession planning. RIA firms apply for this award. The firms pay a fee in order to reference this award either upfront to obtain the award or paid on the back-end after the award is granted to obtain plaques, article reprints or similar indicia of the award. The Forbes 2020 ranking of Best-In-State Wealth Advisors is based on an algorithm of qualitative criteria, mostly gained through telephone and in-person due diligence interviews, and quantitative data. Advisors that are considered have a minimum of seven years experience, and the algorithm weights factors like revenue trends, assets under management, compliance records, industry experience and those that encompass best practices in their practices and approach to working with clients. Portfolio performance is not a criteria due to varying client objectives and lack of audited data. Forbes does not receive a fee in exchange for rankings. The criteria for the Financial Times 400 Top Financial Advisers includes six broad factors which calculate a numeric score for each advisors: assets under management, growth rate of assets under management, years of experience, compliance record, industry certifications and online accessibility. Third-party rankings and recognitions are no guarantee of future investment success and do not ensure that a client or prospective client will experience a higher level of performance or results. These ratings should not be construed as an endorsement of the advisor by any client nor are they representative of any one client's evaluation. # 2021 RECRUITING CLASS

ONE OF TWO WCC PROGRAMS RANKED BY 247SPORTS

James Nobles officially signed with LMU on Nov. 11, 2020. Nobles shot 53 percent from the field last year and averaged over 10 points per game for Birmingham. Nobles is an elite athlete with great size, length, and quickness for his position. Nobles has a very good three-point shooting stroke and can pass the ball well. Because of his length and quickness, Nobles has potential to be a great defender. He has great upside and is an excellent student with interest in the sciences.

Lamaj Lewis officially signed with LMU on Nov. 11, 2020. Lewis earned his spot as a First Team All-Trinity League selection and Second Team CIF after averaging double-digits while playing for St. John Bosco. Lewis is a big guard with promising upside. He is very skilled and smooth. With his size and skill set, Lewis will be a match-up nightmare. He is an unselfish player who is always looking to get his teammates involved. He has the ability to make his teammates better.

David Elliott IV officially signed with LMU on Nov. 11, 2020. An All-LA City Section and All-City Open Division selections, Elliott averaged 17 points per game and shot 45 percent from the field. Elliott is a combo guard with a reputation as a very good scorer. He is known as a three-level scorer. He has excellent range on his three-point shot and can beat defenders off the dribble to shoot the mid-range pull up or finish at the rim. He has developed both his ball-handling and passing skills. He has the ability to play both on and off the ball.

GERSTEN PAVILION AT 40 YEARS

Gersten Pavilion, which enters its 40th year as the host of LMU's indoor athletic events in 2020-21, is the centerpiece of the LMU athletic complex. Opening in 1981, Gersten Pavilion has become one of the toughest places to play in the West Coast Conference and one of the more historic athletic facilities in Southern California. While hosting men's and women's basketball and volleyball, the Pavilion has seen its share of memorable moments in the history of collegiate athletics.

One of the more memorable moments came as the Lions posted a 16-game winning streak that spanned three seasons from Feb. 25, 1987 through Nov. 28, 1988. In that span, the Lions posted a 14-0 mark at home in the 1987-88 season.

The Pavilion has also hosted the highest-scoring basketball game in NCAA Division I history when Loyola Marymount defeated U.S. International 181-150 on Jan. 31, 1989. In addition, it served as host to the WCC Tournament in 1990 and 1997.

The Pavilion opened its doors on Jan. 15, 1981 with a men's basketball 83-68 loss to Santa Clara. The Lions' first win came eight days later with a 66-62 victory against St. Mary's.

To this day, the Pavilion keeps bringing them in, as the 2005-06 season saw the third-largest crowd in school history when 4,482 saw the Lions take on fifth-ranked Gonzaga in a game televised by ABC. It was the first trip to the campus for the network as the Lions fell to a career-best performance by the future No. 3 pick in the NBA draft. Three years later, eighth-ranked Notre Dame came to LMU, where a record 4,534 fans saw the Lions' upset bid fall short in the final seconds. Then in 2009-10, LMU defeated its highest ranked opponent in Gersten Pavilion (and highest overall since 1961), knocking off No. 9 Gonzaga. In 2011-12, the Lions defeated another ranked opponent, this time previously-unbeaten and No. 23 Saint Louis.

In 2011-12, Gersten Pavilion saw more people go through its doors for a single basketball season in its 30-plus years. A total of 49,597 fans watched the games, the most ever in a single season.

In posting the best home record since the Elite Eight season, LMU racked up 12 home wins in both 2011-12 and 2018-19, the most ever at Gersten Pavilion.
