THE COACHING STAFF

22

nathan CHOATE

LMU

Head Coach | Second Year | 0-0 Overall | Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, '01

Nathan Choate was named the school's eighth head coach on June 25, 2019 after leading the Lions to the West Coast Conference Tournament Title and first appearance in the NCAA Regionals since 2000. Choate was brought onto the LMU coaching staff in the summer of 2018 after being hired by then head coach Jason Gill.

Prior to his hiring, Choate spent the previous two years as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at WCC-rival San Diego. While with the Toreros, Choate helped guide USD to a combined 58-50-1 record. In his first season with San Diego in 2017, Choate's staff struck out 9.7 batters per nine innings to record the sixth-best rate in the nation and lead the WCC. Torero ace, Nick Sprengel, went 9-1 to tie a program record for win percentage and was named to the All-WCC First team. Additionally, Chris Murphy was named to the Freshmen All-American team after striking out 11.61 batters per nine innings - the fifth-best rate in a single-season in program history.

Through his two seasons, five Torero pitchers were selected in the MLB Draft, including right-hander Paul Richan by the Chicago Cubs in the second round of the 2018 June Draft.

Before coming to USD, Choate had been the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Grand Canyon University for five years. While at GCU, he helped lead the 'Lopes to a D-II World Series appearance and a WAC Championship while the school was transitioning to D-I. Considered one of the top recruiters in the nation, Choate also spearheaded a top-35 ranked recruiting class in 2015.

Prior to his time at Grand Canyon, Choate spent four years at UC Riverside, where he served as the Highlanders' pitching coach and recruiting coordinator, helping 11 pitchers get drafted by MLB clubs, including Joe Kelly and Matt Andriese.

Before UCR, Choate was the pitching coordinator for UC Irvine, which finished fourth at the 2007 College World Series.

Choate pitched collegiately at Cal Poly for two seasons, where he was awarded the Jim Newkirk Fireman's Award, given to the team's best relief pitcher, in his junior and senior seasons. He also pitched two seasons at Santa Ana Junior College in 1998 and 1999, helping the Dons to a third-place national finish in 1999.

Choate is married to Lori Choate. The couple has four children, Kamdyn, Chance, Kyla and Kacey.

14 | matt CURTIS

LMU

Assistant Coach | First Year | Fresno State, '98

Matt Curtis enters his first season as an assistant coach at Loyola Marymount after spending the last six years at the University of Southern California where he was the Trojans associate head coach.

Prior to his time at USC, Curtis was the head coach at Cal State Northridge from 2011-13, where he helped turn around the Matador program, leading them to a fourth-place finish in the Big West in 2013. With a record of 15-12 and an overall record of 31-26, 2013 marked the program's best record since 2002. That mark was achieved on a non-conference schedule that was ranked the eighth-toughest in the country. The team's conference finish that season was the program's second-highest finish since joining the Big West. In 2012, CSUN improved its win percentage from the year before and also reached 10 wins in the Big West Conference for the first time since 2002 (later matched by the 2013 finish of 15 wins). In his first season at CSUN, Curtis led the Matadors to a 23-33 season and saw a number of players receive postseason accolades, including two that were selected in the 2011 MLB Amateur Draft. In 2011 and again in 2013, Curtis' squads set school records in fielding percentage. He coached one All-American, one Big West Freshman Pitcher of the Year, nine All-Conference honorees, four MLB draft picks to go with 12 student-athletes signing professional contracts under his watch. He finished his tenure with a 77-89 overall record.

Prior to his time at CSUN, Curtis was a major contributor in one of the West Coast's most successful college programs, Fresno State, where he served as assistant coach for a program that won five consecutive Western Athletic Conference titles, made five NCAA tournament appearances and won the 2008 College World Series. During his ten seasons in Fresno, the Bulldogs compiled a 362-272 record. Curtis first joined the Fresno State coaching staff as a student assistant for one season in 1998 before returning to the Bulldog bench two years later. From 2000-02, he served as volunteer assistant coach, working primarily with the catchers and hitters in conjunction with his duties as first base coach. With his catchers earning All-American honors during his two seasons as a volunteer, Fresno State wasted no time in recognizing his efforts and naming the team's assistant coach in July of 2002 under two-time National Coach of the Year Mike Batesole.

The last eight recruiting classes Curtis was responsible for assembling and developing featured 79 All-WAC honorees, nine WAC Pitchers or Players of the Year, 15 All-Americans, five Freshman All-Americans, 62 overall draft selections and five first round draft picks. In addition, four of his recruiting classes gained top 20 national rankings, and the 2010 class contained four recruits drafted by professional organizations that ended up on campus at Fresno State. During his last three seasons at Fresno, Curtis also served as the team's pitching coach, third base coach, and defensive instructor of catchers, helping produce three All-WAC pitchers, and one WAC Pitcher of the Year. Five of Curtis' pitchers were drafted by professional organizations with another six signing professional contracts during his three-year tenure as pitching coach. As the primary individual responsible for maintaining and monitoring the eligibility of his student-athletes at Fresno State, Curtis has seen one of his players receive Academic All-American honors, another 41 named to the Academic All-WAC Team, with numerous players each season receiving academic recognition from the university.

A four-year letterwinner as a player at Fresno State, Curtis started 155 games for former head coach Bob Bennett. Curtis can be found on numerous program top-ten lists including games played (215), at-bats (761), hits (235), runs (144), doubles (52), walks (116), and RBIs (127). Curtis ranks fourth all-time with 52 career doubles, 22 of which were earned in 1995 when he finished atop the WAC statistics in that category. During his time as a Bulldog student-athlete, his baseball team competed in four NCAA Regionals and won two WAC Championships in 1993 and 1995. A two-time WAC Scholar-Athlete Award recipient (1994-95), Curtis also earned WAC Academic-All Conference and WAC All-Conference Catcher accolades shortly after the 1995 season concluded.

After his stellar career with the Bulldogs, Curtis was drafted in the 28th round of the 1996 MLB First Year Players Draft by the then California Angels. In his inaugural season as a professional, Curtis set a single season Midwest League record for doubles and was named to Baseball America's Minor League All-Star Team. During his five seasons of professional baseball, he received the Ray Perry Award - given to Northern California's most outstanding first year minor league player - and reached the Double-A level as a member of both the Anaheim Angels and Cleveland Indians organizations.

Curtis graduated from Fresno State with a Bachelor's degree in accounting in 1998 and earned his Master's degree in business administration in 2001, also from Fresno State. For his accomplishments and successes earned as a student-athlete and coach at Fresno State, Curtis was selected in the 2003 class of inductees into the Fresno State Baseball Hall of Fame. A native of Visalia, Calif., Curtis and his wife Kimberlee have three children - daughters Lauren and Allison and one son, Jacob.

ASARO

Assistant Coach | First Year | UC Irvine, '09

LMU

Tony Asaro enters his first season as an assistant coach after spending the last two years as an assistant at Cal State University Northridge.

In just two years, Asaro made a major impact on the Matadors' recruiting and catching core. He helped the Matadors record their most Big West Conference wins since 2013 with 13. Asaro worked closely with Matador catcher Trevor Casanova, a Johnny Bench Award Semifinalist. Casanova went on to be drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 13th round of the 2018 MLB First-Year Player Draft. Matador catcher committed just three errors and threw out 42 percent of would be base stealers on the year. Casanova committed just two passed balls in 56 starts.

Asaro also spearheaded a group of Matadors as part of CSUN's F.A.L. (Fantasy Academic League) Program which helped lead the Matadors to posting a 3.05 GPA for the fall 2017 semester, setting a new program record.

In 2017, Asaro served as the Utes' volunteer assistant coach and worked with the outfielders along with the team's offense. With Asaro in the dugout, Utah produced All-Pac-12 First Team outfielders DaShawn Keirseay and Dallas Carroll. In last year's MLB First-Year Player Draft, Carroll was selected in the 10th round by the Milwaukee Brewers.

Prior to Utah, Asaro completed two stints as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at El Camino College. Along with running the offense and overseeing the catchers, Asaro implemented defensive strategies. In his first stint with the Warriors from 2010-12, El Camino won the South Coast Conference Championship in 2010 and advanced to the state finals. El Camino players also earned consecutive SCC Player of the Year awards from 2010-11 in addition to a Regional Player of the Year nod. Asaro, who returned to the team in 2016, also served as a part-time instructor in the physical education department while with the Warriors.

Asaro began his collegiate coaching career at Tennessee as a volunteer assistant coach from 2013-14 and the director of operations and camp coordinator in 2015. While with the Volunteers, the team advanced to the Southeastern Conference Tournament for the first time in seven years in 2014. Tennessee would return back to the tournament the following season. The team produced two first round draft picks in Christin Stewart and eventual No. 2 overall pick Nick Senzel. The Volunteers also produced recruiting classes ranked in the Top 25 in each year from 2013-15.

Asaro played college baseball at Pepperdine in 2006 before transferring to UC Irvine from 2007-09. The Anteaters advanced to the College World Series for the time in program history in 2007 and reached the Super Regionals a year later. Asaro helped UC Irvine win the 2009 Big West Conference title. In 2008, Asaro was selected in the 47th round of the MLB First-Year Player Draft by the St. Louis Cardinals.

Asaro earned a degree in sociology from UC Irvine in 2009. A year later, Asaro received his master's degree in sports science with an emphasis in coaching.

Volunteer Assistant Coach | Fourth Year | LMU, '16

Following a four-year playing career with LMU that ended in 2016, Ryan Erickson recently completed his third season on the coaching staff with the Lions in 2019. Erickson, entering his fourth season on staff in 2020, will serve as the Volunteer Assistant Coach.

In his first season on the LMU staff, Erickson helped guide the 2017 squad to a 38-18 overall record and a 20-7 mark in the WCC to earn a share of the West Coast Conference Championship and a berth into the WCC Championship Tournament. The 38 wins are tied for sixth-most in LMU history, and are the most since posting 40 in 2000. LMU's .679 winning percentage is fourth-best in LMU history, and the best mark since 1990's .726 percentage. LMU lost just one weekend series en route to capturing its first WCC title since 2000, finishing the year 11-1-1 in weekend sets. The Lions also dropped consecutive games just three times in 2017, and 13 of its 18 losses came by three runs or less. LMU featured seven All-WCC selections in 2017, including position players Phil Caulfield and Jamey Smart on the first team, Jimmy Hill on the second team, Spencer Erdman on the honorable mention team, and Cooper Uhl on the All-Freshman squad.

In his third season on the LMU staff, Erickson helped guide the 2019 squad to their first ever WCC Tournament Championship and a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2000. The Lions finished the season with a 34-25 overall record, which was highlighted by a 3-2 victory over No. 1 UCLA in the Los Angeles Regional. Erickson was instrumental in the development of numerous Lions players which resulted in six All-WCC selections, including Codie Paiva and Nick Sogard being named Pitcher of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year, respectively. Erickson was a key member of the Lions bullpen staff and assisted with the development of Nick Frasso, helping him turn into an All-WCC selection and being named to the 2019 Collegiate Baseball National Team Roster.

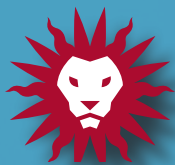

Erickson is responsible for LMU's infielders and hitters as part of the coaching staff. Erickson will also serve as the team's first base coach.

Erickson also is the President of his own club baseball program, Silicon Beach Baseball Academy. Silicon Beach Baseball Academy has two teams: a 14/13U HS club baseball team and an Academy program that teaches baseball fundamentals to youth players ages 7-12. Erickson is also responsible for all camps and clinics hosted by LMU. These include, but are not limited to: high school prospect camps, hitting clinics, pitching clinics, defensive clinics and high school team camps.

Erickson also serves as an assistant coach for the Orleans Firebirds in the Cape Cod Baseball League. He will return to the CBBL for his fourth summer in 2020 working with Firebird hitters, infielders, outfielders and serve as the team's first base coach.

Prior to attending LMU, Erickson was a 2012 graduate of Mira Costa High School in Manhattan Beach, Calif. where he was a two-year varsity letterwinner for head coach Cass Olson. As a prep player, he was named Defensive MVP at shortstop and a team captain as a senior.

Erickson graduated from LMU in 2016 with a degree in English. Erickson is also currently pursuing a Master's degree in Educational Studies from LMU.

2019 REVIEW

A LOOK BACK AT 2019

LMU: LMU finished the West Coast Conference Tournament 3-0, picking up a complete game from ace Codie Paiva on 5/23, followed by a pair of victories against Saint Mary's to capture their first WCC crown since 2000. The 2000 WCC championship was the third in a line of three straight for LMU from 1998-00. Paiva was named WCC Tournament Most Outstanding Player while Trevin Esquerria, Nick Frasso and Nick Sogard were all named to the WCC All-Tournament team. LMU entered the NCAA Tournament with a team batting average of .261 to go with 478 hits, 243 runs and 224 RBIs ... As a team the Lions finished first in the WCC in ERA at 3.48, second in WHIP at 1.25 and led the conference in stolen bases with 73 and stolen bases per game at 1.33 ... The Lions pitching staff put together an impressive run in 2019 leading the conference in hits allowed per nine innings at 7.90 ... The Lions entered the 2019 postseason tournament in the top half of the country in ERA, fielding percentage, sacrifice bunts, strikeout-to-walk ratio and walks allowed per nine innings.

NCAA TOURNAMENT: LMU made their first appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2000 when they played in the Los Angeles Regional. The Regional featured No. 1 UCLA, No. 24 Baylor and Nebraska-Omaha. The Lions beat Baylor 3-1, setting up a matchup between them and UCLA. The Lions then took down the number one team in the country 3-2. The Lions then pushed UCLA to the brink but lost in the deciding fifth game 6-3 ending their 2019 season ... Codie Paiva and Nick Sogard were named to the All Los Angeles Regional Team.

PAIVA'S PLACE: Codie Paiva was the staple for the Lions starting rotation, his 2019 ERA of 1.91 was one of the lowest in a single season in team history ... His senior season saw him lead the team in wins, ERA, innings pitched, batters struck out and games started ... Paiva was named West Coast Conference Pitcher of the Year, becoming the sixth Lion to capture the award, the first since Cory Abbott took home the honor in 2017 ... Paiva also was named to the All-WCC's First Team ... continuing his accolades Paiva was named WCC Tournament Most Outstanding Player.

SOGARD'S STORY: Junior infielder Nick Sogard was honored as the West Coast Conference's Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the fourth LMU player to bring the award back to the bluff and the second-straight DPOY honor for the Lions following Cooper Uhl's recognition in 2018 ... Sogard also earned a spot on the All-WCC first team and was named to the WCC All-Tournament team ... Sogard started all of LMU's games at short on the year and led the team in assists with 146, tied for first at fielding double plays with 25 and a fielding percentage of .981 ... Offensively, he batted .310 with 39 runs scored, eight doubles and 19 RBI ... He led the WCC in stolen bases with 30 and stolen bases per game at 0.51 ... His 30 stolen bags tied for the eighth most in a single-season in Lion team history.

ESQUERRA'S BLISTERING 2019: Junior infielder/outfielder Trevin Esquerria was on a tear in 2019 ... he led the Lions in batting average at .322, slugging percentage at .622, hits (75), RBI (60), doubles (20), total bases (145) and home runs (16) ... Esquerria also ranked among the leaders in home runs, RBI, slugging percentage and total bases in the West Coast Conference ... He amassed a team-high 24 multi-hit games and 19 multi-RBI games. In WCC play, Esquerria batted .288 with 18 runs scored, five doubles and 25 RBI to go along with eight home runs ... He was also recognized for his stellar season with a place on the All-WCC Second Team and was named a member of the WCC All-Tournament Team ... He hit three doubles against Louisiana Lafayette on 3/10 which was one shy of the team record for doubles in a game set by Matt Lowenstein against Albany on 3/27/10 ... It was the second time Esquerria recorded the feat, he last hit three doubles in a game on 4/4/17 against UC Riverside.

MR. 300: Head Coach Jason Gill, the seventh coach in LMU baseball history, won his 300th game against San Diego State on March 19, 2019 ... Gill became the third coach in LMU baseball history to reach the milestone joining Marv Wood (371) and Frank Cruz (329) ... Gill was the fastest coach in program history to reach 300 career victories, reaching the milestone in 569 career games besting Cruz's 616 games.

MOVING THEM ALONG: Sophomore Kenny Oyama and junior Cooper Uhl were Mr. Reliable for the Lions in 2019 ... Uhl led the WCC in sacrifice bunts with 13 and Oyama wasn't too far behind at second in the conference with 12 ... Both Lions finished in the top 20 in the nation as well with Uhl at 10th and Oyama at 15th.

FRASSO BROUGHT THE FIRE: Sophomore Nick Frasso was incredible taking the hill for LMU ... he was second on the team in ERA at 2.22 and led the Lions in opposing batting average at .154 and saves with 10 ... The right-handed pitcher logged 56.2 innings and struck out 73 hitters to just 17 walks ... Frasso made 19 appearances, starting five games posting a 2-2 record ... He only allowed 14 hits with 48 strikeouts over 31.2 innings out of the bullpen this year ... Frasso was recognized as a member of the All-WCC Second Team for the season as well as the WCC All-Tournament Team.

SIZZLING SHEARER: Brandon Shearer started in all 59 games for the Lions at third on the season and finished third on the team in average at .304, second in slugging percentage (.392), on base percentage (.401), RBI (31), doubles (12), home runs (2), total bases (89) and tied for first in runs scored (40) ... He batted .275 in WCC play while collecting 30 hits, 21 runs, seven doubles, two home runs and 17 RBI ... He was selected to the All-WCC Honorable Mention team as well as the WCC's All-Academic Team.

DEL-GOT-IT: Tommy Delgado burst onto the collegiate scene with a stellar freshman campaign that saw him amongst the team leaders in average, hits, RBI, triples, total bases and slugging percentage ... He posted the longest hitting streak for the Lions for the year, batting safely in 11 consecutive games ... He appeared in 54 games, starting 53, and in WCC play he was responsible for 20 hits, nine runs, one double, one triple, one home run and 13 RBI ... Delgado's All-WCC Freshman Team selection marked the Lions sixth-straight year with a member on the squad.

WCC PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Senior infielder Brandon Shearer was named the WCC Rawlings Player of the Week for Feb. 25 ...he batted .471 (8-for-17) in the Lions five games played during the week of Feb. 18-25 including taking two of three over preseason A-10 favorite Saint Louis ... he produced two runs, two RBIs, one double, one walk and had an on-base percentage of .550 and a slugging percentage of .529.

PAIVA AND SOGARD HIGHLIGHT GROUP OF SIX LAUDED BY WCC: Senior pitcher Codie Paiva and junior infielder Nick Sogard headline a group of six Loyola Marymount baseball players who earned All-West Coast Conference honors. Paiva took home Pitcher of the Year, becoming the sixth Lion to capture the award, the first since Cory Abbott took home the honor in 2017. Sogard honored as the WCC's Defensive Player of the Year, becomes the fourth LMU player to bring the award back to the bluff and the second-straight DPOY honor for the Lions following Cooper Uhl's recognition last season ... Paiva and Sogard also earned spots on the All-WCC first team while junior Trevin Esquerria and sophomore Nick Frasso were tabbed by the conference coaches for second-team honors. Senior Brandon Shearer was the lone Lion who received honorable mention while Tommy Delgado was listed on the All-WCC Freshman Team.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME: In its 37th season as the home of Lion baseball in 2019, George C. Page Stadium is also in its sixth year under the lights ... the 2019 LMU baseball schedule featured 28 home games ... LMU finished 17-11 at home ... LMU, which went 15-9 in 2018, went 17-10 in 2017 at home after going 9-12 at home in 2016 ... the Lions, who have posted a 592-440-4 (.571) overall record in the park's 35+ seasons, have claimed six conference titles while calling Page Stadium home ... the first Page Stadium conference title came in 1986, when the Lions posted a 24-8 record at home ... the best record came in 1988, when LMU was 30-5 at home (.857) ... LMU's historic first game in Page Stadium was played on March 19, 1983, with a 5-1 loss to Cal State Fullerton ... the Mikos Blue Monster in left field stands 130-feet wide and 37-feet tall.

THE 1986 COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

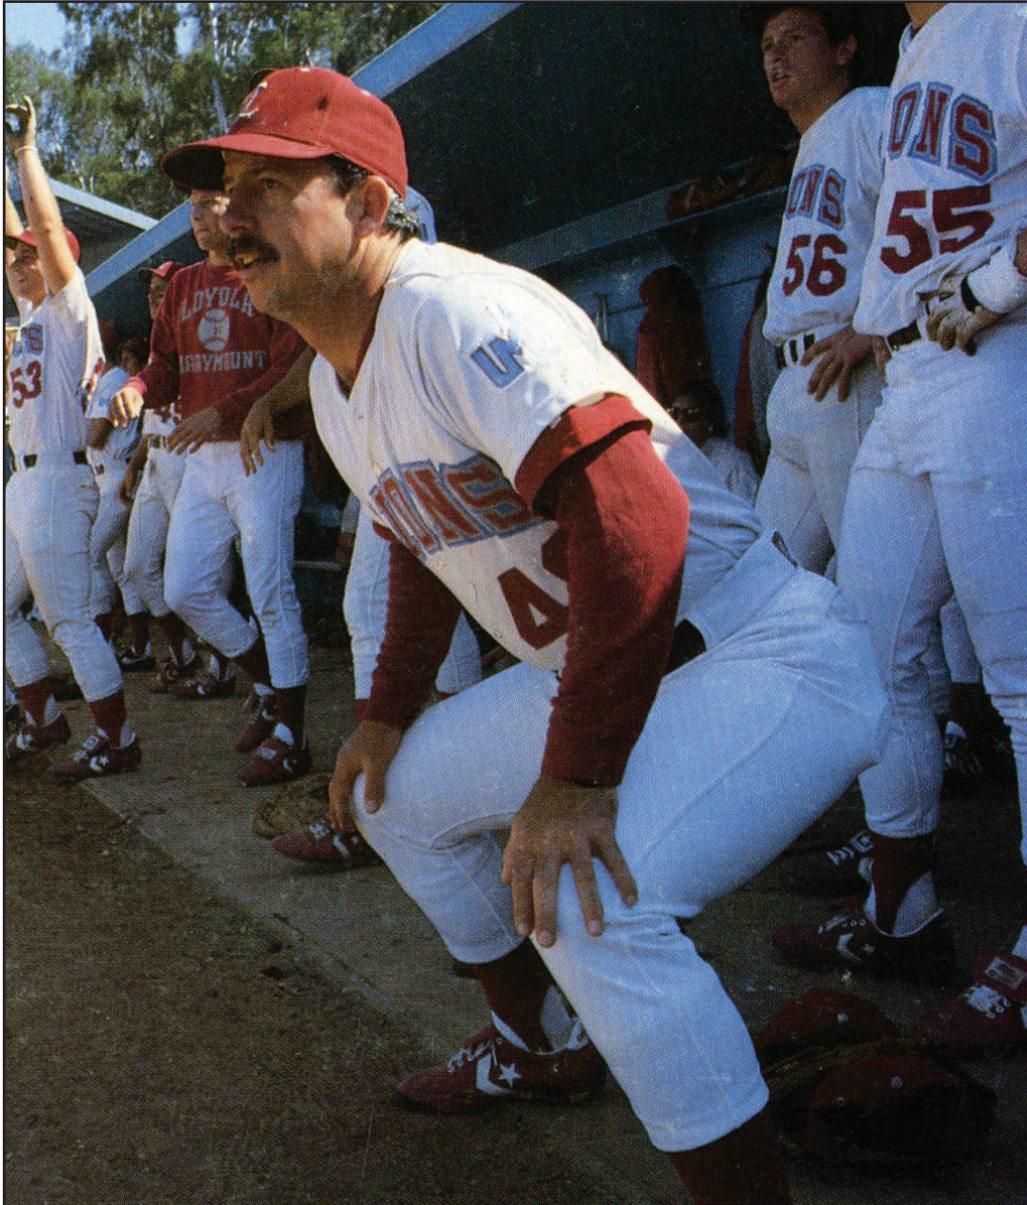

The 1986 LMU baseball team not only put together the best season in LMU baseball program history, it was also one of the best overall seasons of all time for LMU Athletics. Following a 1985 season in which the Lions did not have a winning record at 27-28, the program performed one of the best turnarounds in LMU history. That team finished the season with a program-best 50 wins, and wrapped-up the season at 50-15, a 23-game improvement from the previous year.

The season started with the Lions winning their first eight games, and 12 of their first 13. As the season progressed, LMU produced a 13-game winning streak from March 21 through April 11, and won 20 of 21 games in the middle of the season. With the winning streak came the nation's top ranking in the ESPN/Collegiate Baseball National Poll. The Lions never looked back, finishing tied with Pepperdine for first place in the West Coast Athletic Conference at 19-5, forcing a one-game playoff to determine the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Regional. Played at Jackie Robinson Stadium on the campus of UCLA, the Lions defeated the Waves 14-9 to earn the bid to the NCAA West Regional.

LMU was placed with UCLA, UC Santa Barbara and the University of Hawai'i in Los Angeles at UCLA. It looked as though it might be two-and-out for the Lions, as they dropped their first game to UC Santa Barbara, 11-5, to move down to the elimination bracket. However, LMU would reel off its next four games, fighting through four separate elimination games to earn a bid to the school's first appearance in the College World Series.

In game two of the Regional, the Lions defeated UCLA 12-10, eliminating the Bruins and earning a rematch with UC Santa Barbara. LMU advanced past the Gauchos with a 14-6 win, and would then have to beat the University of Hawai'i twice to compete in Omaha. After 10-6 and 12-5 victories, the Lions earned a trip to the 1986 College World Series.

On May 30, the Lions opened their first World Series trip with a 4-3 win over perennial powerhouse LSU, earning a two-day rest and a spot in the winner's bracket. The Lions played the University of Arizona on June 2 and lost a heartbreaker, 7-5, to drop to the elimination bracket and face Oklahoma State. The Cowboys were too much for the Lions, as they went on to an 11-5 win, ending what has proved to be the best season LMU has ever had on the diamond.

LMU

Played at LMU from 1971-73 | Jersey Retired March 11, 2000

A three-year starter for the Lions, Jerry Stone played an integral role in guiding Loyola to its first conference baseball championship in 1973. One of the greatest catchers in school history, Stone had his jersey retired on March 11, 2000, prior to LMU's game against San Francisco. Stone, a first-team All-WCAC and All-District VIII pick his junior year, also earned first-team All-America accolades issued by Collegiate Baseball in 1973. The All-American tag was the first awarded in LMU baseball history. A switch-hitter during the wooden-bat era, Stone still ranks as an All-Time Top-10 statistical leader at LMU in single-season (45) and career walks (106), and career on-base percentage (.447). He hit above .300 for each of his three seasons with the Lions, and managed to maintain a perfect fielding percentage in 1973. In that same year, Stone led the WCAC in home runs (11) and RBI (45). One of Stone's greatest accomplishments included leading the Lions to their first postseason appearance in school history, a berth in the NCAA District VIII playoffs in 1973. He was drafted in the fourth round by the San Diego Padres in 1973.

billy BEAN

Played at LMU from 1983-86 | Jersey Retired March 11, 2000

One of the greatest hitters to ever grace the diamond at LMU, Billy Bean had his jersey retired on March 11, 2000, during pregame ceremonies prior to LMU's game against San Francisco. Bean, who is a member of the LMU Athletics Hall of Fame, was one of many great players who helped guide the Lions to the 1986 College World Series. A two-time first team All-WCC and All-District-VIII pick, Bean earned honorable mention All-America honors following his junior year from Collegiate Baseball. With an even greater performance his senior year, Bean was tabbed a second team All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association in 1986. Bean still holds the WCC record for single-season walks with 66. He also holds the LMU record in single-season runs scored with 84, a mark that ranks third in the WCC record book. Of the WCC's nine All-Time career offensive categories, Bean ranks in the Top-10 in five of them. On the LMU front, Bean ranks in the Top-10 in runs (216), on-base percentage (.466), hits (290), RBI (204), total bases (449), doubles (61), triples (16) and walks (150). Following his standout LMU career, the Detroit Tigers selected him in the fourth round of the 1986 draft, and Bean went on to play for the Tigers in the Majors from 1987-1989. He also spent time with Los Angeles (1989) and San Diego (1993-1995). Bean was named to the WCC's Rawlings 40th Anniversary Team, recognizing him as one of the WCC's All-Time Top-40 players, and was inducted into the WCC's Hall of Honor in 2012. One year after Major League Baseball issued a policy prohibiting players from harassing and discriminating against others players based on their sexual orientation, former Commissioner Bud Selig appointed Bean as MLB's first Ambassador for Inclusion on July 15, 2014. Bean, who made public that he is gay in 1999, was charged with providing guidance and training related to efforts to support those in the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) community throughout Major League Baseball. In January of 2016, Bean was promoted to Vice-President for Social Responsibility and Inclusion, as Curtis Pride was named the next Ambassador for Inclusion. In his elevated role, Bean is responsible for many of the League's social responsibility initiatives, including oversight of MLB's Workplace Code of Conduct and anti-bullying programming, while continuing to facilitate inclusion strategies with a focus on the LGBT community.

One of the greatest pitchers in LMU history, Tim Layana had his jersey retired during pregame ceremonies prior to LMU's game against San Francisco on March 11, 2000. Layana's prowess helped guide the Lions to the College World Series in 1986. A first team All-WCC pick as a senior, Layana was tabbed the Conference Pitcher of the Year and earned first team All-District VIII honors. Selected a second team All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association following the 1986 campaign, Layana re-wrote many of the pitching records in LMU baseball history. He is the WCC record-holder in innings pitched, tallying 511.0 innings of work over his career, including an LMU record 170.2 in 1986 alone. Layana posted 12 complete games and 17 wins in 1986 - both LMU records. He also holds the LMU career record for complete games (33), wins (35), and strikeouts (405). His 405 career strikeouts and 35 career wins rank second and fourth among WCC All-Time leaders. After guiding the Lions to their second Conference Championship and second NCAA Regional berth in 1986, Layana, who tragically passed away in an automobile accident on June 25, 1999, was drafted in the third round by the New York Yankees. Inducted into the LMU Athletics Hall of Fame, Layana played professionally with the Yankees, Cincinnati Reds and San Francisco Giants. Although he did not appear on Cincinnati's roster during its World Series sweep of the Oakland Athletics in 1990, Layana posted a record of 5-3 that year with a 3.49 ERA. He also had two saves in 55 appearances. Layana totaled a 5-5 career record with two saves in 78 appearances in the Majors. Most recently, Layana was named to the WCC/Rawlings 40th Anniversary Team, recognizing him as one of the WCC's All-Time Top-40 players.

MATT MULLER LION AWARD

The Matt Muller Lion Award is bestowed upon members of LMU baseball teams whose actions represent the program with pride, dignity and respect. The award was established in 1997 by then-head coach Frank Cruz when he assumed responsibility of the program. Re-named in honor of Matthew John Muller (1994-97) following his tragic and unexpected death on November 10, 1999, the honor is awarded to players who represent the team and the University in the highest regard. The cornerstone of the award circles around hard work, dedication to the sport, competing at the highest possible level, and promoting a team environment. Simply put, a recipient of the Matt Muller Lion Award wears the uniform with honor.
