The 49ers defeated Weber State 92-73 in the first round to claim their first NCAA Tournament victory with George Trapp scoring 17 points. LBSU then advanced to the Western Regionals where they lost to UCLA in the Regional Semifinals, 84-65. Long Beach State finished the season with a 24-5 record, the second in a string of six straight seasons where the 49ers won 20 or more games. Trapp earned conference player of the year honors and first-team all-league recognition, while Billy Jankans was an all-league pick and Sam Robinson was an All-America selection.

The 49ers advanced to their second straight NCAA Tournament and fell just two points shy of advancing to the NCAA Final Four. LBSU once again won the PCAA title with a 10-0 record. The 49ers routed Weber State in the first round, 77-66, and then came back from a 44-31 halftime deficit in the Regional Semifinals to defeat Pacific, 78-65. That set up a showdown with No. 1 UCLA. The 49ers led 31-27 at the half and 52-50 with 5:46 left, but 49er star Ed Ratleff fouled out at the 5:23 mark and the Bruins outscored the 49ers 7-3 down the stretch to escape with a 57-55 win.

Ratleff earned first-team all-league honors, while George Trapp was named an All-American, conference player of the year for the second straight season and a first-team all-league pick. Chuck Terry also was named all-league.
