BULLDOG BITES

ABOUT UNC ASHEVILLE: UNC Asheville enters the weekend series with a 9-23 overall record and a 5-7 mark in Big South Conference contests.

In Big South Conference games this year, Danny Wilson is pacing the Bulldogs offensively, as he has 21 total hits in league games this season. He sports a .429 batting average in 12 starts. Right behind him is sophomore Tyler Serricchio, who totes a .333 clip in 11 starts. Serricchio has 12 RBIs, which ranks near the top in league play. Carmine Pagano is the third Bulldog hitting above .300 in league-only games. The junior shortstop has recorded 12 hits (three doubles) en route to touching home even times.

On the mound, Eric Whitecavage has been a workhorse for the Bulldogs, as he has appeared in six conference games. He sports an unblemished 2-0 record with a 2.84 ERA. Beau Nichols and Ethan Tressler have yet to allow an earned run in Big South play, as the duo has combined for 4.2 frames.

CODY WILSON NAMED FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK: Freshman infielder Cody Wilson was named the Big South Freshman of the Week on Monday, April 9, following his five-hit series versus Presbyterian at Greenwood Field.

Wilson appeared in three games this past week, which included a pair of starts. He opened the three-game series versus the Blue Hose by setting two single-game career highs in hits (3) and runs scored (3). He wasn't originally slated to start the series opener, but he capitalized on the early substitution by smacking a double and two RBIs. He capped off the three-game home set with a hit and a run scored in each of the final two games.

The honor marks the first career accolade for Wilson. The Freshman of the Week award marks the third time a Bulldogs has won the honor, as both Chris Troost and Brandon Lankford won the accolade last season.

TAKE A LITTLE OFF THE TOP: Win the game, lose the hair. That was the recipe for success on Wednesday, April 5, 2018, as the UNC Asheville baseball team worked to raise donations for a special cause in an attempt to capture a bigger victory than the 8-4 win over Western Carolina at McCormick Field. The Bulldogs held their annual Vs. Cancer Game at the historic baseball venue located in downtown Asheville. It was the sixth year of the event and it was one of the biggest ones yet. Over the previous five years, UNC Asheville baseball has raised close to $35,000 to fight cancer. As of the most recent count, the Bulldogs have collected $12,300 this year alone, with hopes to add to that total throughout the rest of the season. The money raised will be donated to the Vs. Cancer Foundation, a non-profit organization based in Raleigh. The foundation, which operates on a 50/50 model of giving, raises funds for childhood cancer research as well as helps children live more comfortably during treatments at local children's hospitals. Vs. Cancer gives half of the proceeds raised to pediatric brain tumor research and the other half goes back to a local hospital in the community where the money was raised. For UNC Asheville, that is Mission Children's Hospital.

STARTING CONFERENCE PLAY RIGHT: For the first time since the 2012 season, the Bulldogs won the conference-opening series. UNC Asheville won the first two games of the series at Radford, where it won 5-4 and 8-2 in Radford, Va. During the 2012 season, the Bulldogs swept VMI, when it was a member of the Big South Conference. The series victory over Radford also marked the first series win over the Highlanders since the 2008 season.

TALK ABOUT A FAST REBOUND: Redshirt sophomore Jordan Carr sat out last season due to Tommy John surgery. However, the left-handed pitcher has recovered quickly. He has appeared in nine games (eight starts) this year, and he has been strong for the Bulldogs. The Pasadena, Md. native has totaled 42.2 innings and has struck out 26 batters. In his first start of the year at Lipscomb, Carr twirled 5.1 innings en route to striking out six and only allowing one run. The start earned him the title of Big South Conference Starting Pitcher of the Week. Prior to this season, his last appearance was on May 19, 2016, when he started at Radford and tossed six innings, allowed three runs and struck out a trio of batters.

SCOUTING LONGWOOD: Longwood enters the three-game set with a 10-21 overall record and a 3-9 mark in Big South Conference play. Inside the confines of Buddy Bolding Stadium, the Lancers are 7-9 with wins over Niagara, Iona, High Point, George Mason and Radford.

Sammy Miller, who has started all 31 games for the Lancers, paces the team with a .301 batting average. He also leads the team in total hits (34), total bases (46), slugging percentage (.407) and on-base percentage (.423). He has touched home 16 times and has swiped 10 bases this season. Mac McCafferty has appeared in 12 games, including 11 starts, and has a .333 batting average.

On the mound, Boydston and Farkas have been the two most consistent starters for Longwood. Boydston has a 5.57 ERA, as he has started eight games this season. He has totaled 42 frames and has struck out 36 batters. He limited opponents to a .286 batting average. Farkas has a 6.75 ERA, where he holds batters to a .313 batting average. Farkas has a team-leading 54 strikeouts in 42.2 innings of work.

Longwood has six pitchers that have appeared in at least 10 games this year. Tommy Green has appeared in 14 games, where he has worked 23 frames and has struck out 36 batters. Eric Harp is right behind him with 13 appearances, and he has limited batters to a .270 clip and 24 hits in 24.1 innings.

DEJA GRU: Sophomore catcher/utility Joe Gruszka started his second season at UNC Asheville red hot. The Fayetteville, Ga. native hit home runs in back-to-back games at Lipscomb (Feb. 17-18), as both home runs led off the game. Ironically, both leadoff home runs came on the same exact count 2-0.

TURNING DOUBLE PLAYS: This year, UNC Asheville has 27 total double plays, which is an average of 0.84 double plays per game. Last year, the Bulldogs turned 47 double plays, which gave UNC Asheville 13 more than the previous season. The 2015 Bulldogs turned 57 double plays while the 2014 'Dogs rolled up 35. The Bulldogs finished third in the Big South Conference for double plays behind Campbell and Liberty.

BEST REGULAR SEASON FINISH IN SOME TIME: With their 11 wins in 2017, the Bulldogs have posted the most conference wins since winning 12 Big South Conference contests in 2012 en route to finishing sixth in the league standings. Coincidentally, 2012 was also the last time UNC Asheville earned a berth into the Big South Conference Championships.

20-WIN SEASON: Under the Scott Friedholm era, the Bulldogs posted two seasons of at least 20 wins. Last year the Bulldogs went 25-32, which was the most victories since the 2012 season when UNC Asheville went 25-30. The previous 20-plus win season under Coach Friedholm was in his first season (2015), when the Bulldogs went 21-34.

BULLDOGS WINNING 20+ GAMES: In the NCAA Division I era, only head coaches Bill Hillier, Matt Myers and Willie Stewart recorded more 20-win seasons with the Bulldogs, as all three had three 20-win campaigns. Hillier's 1997, 1998 and 1999 teams finished with 20, 27 and 21 wins, respectively. Myers' 2002, 2003 and 2004 squads recorded 21, 27 and 26 wins. Stewart's 2006 Big South Conference Tournament Champions, 2007 and 2008 teams recorded 28, 22 and 24 wins. Current skipper Scott Friedholm is the only other Bulldog head coach to have multiple 20-win campaigns. The 23 wins is the ninth-most wins in program history for a single season. The 2006 team set the standard with 28 wins while the 1990 squad went 25-25.

THE BULLDOGS AT HOME: For the first time since the 2012 season, UNC Asheville baseball boasted a winning record at home in 2017. Last year, the Bulldogs went 12-11 at home, and in 2012, UNC Asheville went 13-12 in home games.

WALKING UP THE RANKS: Danny Wilson finished last season with 41 walks, which ranks tied for 4th in program history in a single season. Current Volunteer Coach Pete Guy holds the programs record for the most walks in a single season with 53 in 2016.

SAVING THE DAY: Eric Whitecavage finished the 2017 season with three saves, which gives him six in his career. In 2017, he also broke into the top-5 in program history for appearances (27) in a single season. Kole Harris currently has three saves this season, as he is only one save away from moving into a seven-way tie for the 10th-most saves in a season.

FORMER BULLDOG DULL IN THE PROS: 2012 graduate and former Bulldog great Ryan Dull begins his third full season in Major League Baseball with the Oakland Athletics. Dull made his debut on September 1, 2015, pitching one complete inning against the Angels where he gave up just one hit and struck out one batter. He ended 2015 with a 1-2 record and one save in 13 appearances, pitching 17.0 innings. He struck out 16 batters compared to giving up just 12 hits, eight earned runs and six walks. In 2016, his first full season in the majors, Dull saw action in 70 games, pitching 74.1 innings while posting a 2.42 ERA and a 5-5 record to go along with three saves. He struck out 73 batters while giving up just 50 hits, 20 earned runs and 15 walks. Last season, Dull set a major league record by stranding 36 straight inherited runners without giving up a run. It was the longest streak at any point of a season dating back to at least 1961 and was the longest streak of 36 stranded inherited runners by any major league reliever to start a season in the expansion era. At one point during his streak, opponents were batting just 0.75 with men on base and he allowed just one hit in 47 at-bats with a runner in scoring position.
