► BY THE NUMBERS

739

Radford possesses a 739-948 record in its 34-year history. Head coach Joe Raccuia is the program's leader in wins with a 303-287 record.

104

Of Radford's 256 batters that have led off an inning in 2018, 104 have reached safely for a 40.6 percentage.

35

Kyle Butler has 35 multi-hit games in his last 83 games played. He had 23 during the 2017 season and already has eight this season.

HIGHLANDER HIGHLIGHTS

ABOUT LAST SEASON

- The success of the 2015 season continued during the 2017 season as the Highlanders played their best baseball when it mattered, outscoring opponents 29-8 in the Big South Tournament to run the table for four straight tournament wins to capture their second tournament championship in three seasons. Radford earned a trip to the NCAA Louisville Regional.
- Radford matched a program record with six all-conference selections, highlighted by Big South Pitcher of the Year Zack Ridgely.
- The left-hander turned in a 7-5 record with a 2.84 ERA, striking out 85 in 95.0 innings, walking only 12 batters. Ridgely ranked ninth in the country with a 7.08 strikeout-to-walk ratio, while his 1.14 walks allowed per nine innings ranked 17th best.
- Joining Ridgely on the Big South First Team were seniors Kyle Zurak and Danny Hrbek.
- Zurak put together a breakout campaign that earned him a semifinalist spot for the Gregg Olson Award. The eighth-round selection by the New York Yankees finished his season with a 2.40 ERA, sixth best in program history.
- Zurak finished with a 4-4 record and nine saves in 25 appearances with four starts. In only his third career start, Zurak tossed his first complete game in the Big South Tournament Championship, striking out nine batters.
- Hrbek earned first team honors after making the transition to a two-way player for the Highlanders, stepping into the Saturday role on the mound.
- In his third career start, Hrbek tossed the first nine-inning no-hitter in program history with a 4-0 win over Quinnipiac on March 4. Hrbek struck out nine, falling an error shy of a perfect game.
- Radford received big contributions from second team members Jonathan Gonzalez, Kyle Butler and Spencer Horwitz.

- Gonzalez hit a career-best 12 home runs, while driving in a team-high 44 runs. Butler stepped into a starting role due to injuries early in the season, finishing with 70 hits and 48 runs scored, both coming as team highs.
- Horwitz put together one of the best offensive freshman seasons in program history, earning a spot on the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American team after leading the Highlanders with a .311 average.
- Horwitz finished second with 64 hits, while driving in 34 runs on 11 doubles and eight home runs.
- Highlander pitchers were especially good in Big South play, ranking third with a 3.09 ERA, walking only 63 batters in 212.1 innings.
- Opposing conference foes only hit .241 off Highlander pitching.
- Zurak led the league with a 1.03 conference ERA, striking out 40 in 26.1 innings. Ridgely came in fifth with a 2.13 ERA

RECENT STRUGGLES

- After dropping its last five home games, Radford will hit the road as the Highlanders look to get back to their winning ways with six of their 10 wins coming on the road.
- During the five-game stretch, Radford has been outscored 47-27, while outthit 53-44.
- The Highlanders outthit Appalachian State on Tuesday and ETSU on Wednesday as Radford fell to 8-3 when outhitting opposing teams on the season.
- Averaging 5.4 runs per game, Radford is hitting .220 in RBI opportunities, picking up 11 hits in the situation over the last five games.

HIGHLANDER HITS & TIDBITS

- Radford leadoff batters have reached base safely 40.6 percent of the time this season. The Highlanders have placed at least five leadoff guys on base 10 times on the season.

- Currently on a nine-game hit streak, Andrew Szamski continues his torrid start to the season. The redshirt junior is second in the league with a .387 average and third with 41 hits.
- Szamski is third in the league with 16 extra-base hits.
- With runners on base, Szamski is 21 for 51 for a .412 hitting clip. Szamski is 10 for 32 with runners in scoring position.
- Six different Highlanders have double-digit RBIs on the season with Spencer Horwitz leading the way with 20. Horwitz has three four-RBI games on the season.
- With 12 extra-base hits, Horwitz is currently hitting .268 on the year with a team best 15 walks.
- Radford's lone run in Tuesday's 5-1 loss to Appalachian State came off the bat of Matt Roth as the junior is now tied with Szamski and Horwitz with a team best four home runs.
- Roth had multi-hit games in both midweeks, totaling eight on the season.
- In his last 83 games played, Kyle Butler has 35 multi-hit games, including a team best 11 in 2018.
- Butler picked up his fifth multi-RBI game on Wednesday night with a 2 for 4 night and two RBIs. He is tied with Szamski for lead in multi-RBI games.
- The redshirt junior owns a 14-game on-base streak. The 2017 season saw Butler put together a 20-game streak.
- Radford has tallied 71 extra-base hits on the season, ranking 15th nationally with 11 triples. Szamski is 11th nationally with four three-baggers.
- Opposing teams have outscored Radford 28-6 in the first inning, scoring in the inning in five straight with home runs in three straight.
- The Highlander offense battles back in the second with a 23-10 edge, while scoring the

- most runs in the fourth with a 26-15 advantage.

ON THE RUBBER

- Highlander pitchers have struck out a Big South low 178 batters in 248.1 frames. Radford ranks sixth with 152 earned runs allowed.
- Radford's staff has been tough on left-handed bats in the last five games, holding opposing southpaws to a 13 of 50 performance at the dish. On the season, they are hitting .268 against Radford.
- Redshirt senior southpaw has held opposing lefties to a .152 clip with five hits in 33 at bats.
- Ryan Sande ranks seventh in the Big South with a 3.90 ERA. The junior has allowed only 13 runs in 30.0 frames, holding opposing bats to a .250 average.
- Sande has given up only five extra-base hits in his 27 hits allowed.
- Out of the bullpen, Austin Gerber holds a 4.01 ERA in 24.2 innings tossed.
- Entering the weekend with a 5-3 record, Austin Ross is tied for the league lead in wins and ranks tied for 18th nationally.
- Ross has struck out 27 in 27.0 innings on the mound, making two straight weekend starts.

SLAMMIN' SZAMSKI EARNS POW

- After sitting out the 2017 season due to NCAA transfer rules, Andrew Szamski made the most of his first series in a Radford uniform as the redshirt junior was named Big South Player of the Week as announced by the conference Feb. 19

- Szamski earned the league's first award of the 2018 season after going 8 for 13 with six RBIs and five runs scored in Radford's Opening Weekend series win at North Florida. Of the eight hits, three were of the extra-base variety with two doubles and a home run.
- In his first NCAA Division I game on Feb. 16, the Concord (W.Va.) transfer went 3 for 5 with two RBIs. Radford picked up a 14-8 Opening Day win as Szamski knotted the game at three in the top of the third with a two-run single.
- Szamski did a majority of his weekend damage in Saturday's 12-6 series clinching win. The Glen Arm, Md., native went 4 for 4 at the plate with four RBIs and four runs scored.
- He opened the game in the first with a two-run blast to left field. After North Florida tied the game at six in the fourth, Szamski drove in the game-winning run on a RBI double in the seventh, while adding another RBI double in the ninth.

JOE RACCUA

Head Coach :: 11th Season at Radford

► @RUJoeRaccua

Joe Raccua, a 1995 Radford graduate, returned to his roots on July 10, 2007 when he was named the fifth head coach in Radford baseball history. Entering his 11th season as the head man for the Highlanders, a Radford uniform has been a winning fit for Raccua. Throughout his 14 seasons in a Highlander uniform, Raccua has been apart of 379 total wins as a player (1994-95), assistant coach (1996) and head coach (2008-present), better than 51 percent of the program's all-time victories dating back to 1985.

Raccua's most successful season in a Radford uniform came during an historic 2015 season as the Highlanders finished with a 45-16 record, setting a new school record in wins. The season also saw the programs first Big South regular season and conference championships, while earning a trip the NCAA Nashville Regional. In the regional, RU went 2-2, including wins over No. 3 Indiana and No. 4 Lipscomb.

Radford finished Big South play with a 20-4 record, earning Raccua the Big South Coach of the Year award. Raccua becomes only the third RU head coach to earn the honor. Including a record six all-conference selections in 2015, 39 of Raccua's players have earned all-conference honors.

The 2015 squad posted a .289/.386/.425 line, while leading the Big South with 122 doubles and 362 RBI. The Highlander bats were led by Big South first-teamers Josh Gardiner and Patrick Marshall. Gardiner narrowly missed the Big South batting title, finishing second with a .368 average, while leading the league with a .451 on-base percentage. Marshall led the conference and set a new RU single-season record with 59 RBI. Big South second team member Hunter Higgerson finished with 25 doubles, leading the Big South and setting a new RU season record. Higgerson finished second behind Marshall in RBI, driving in 53 runs. Shane Johnsonbaugh earned Big South second team honors after leading RU in hits (76), runs scored (50) and walks (38).

Radford can attest their 2015 success to their pitching staff and bullpen. The Highlanders finished with a 3.95 ERA, a new single-season record. RU ranked second in the Big South, holding opposing batters to a .255 average. The Highlanders only allowed 276 runs, their lowest since the 2000 season. Big South First Team member, Ryan Meisinger was named a finalist for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year award after leading the NCAA in saves with 17. Meisinger finished his career with a 2.60 ERA, a new RU career mark. Michael Boyle earned Big South First Team honors after leading the Big South in wins (10) and finishing second in innings pitched (105.1). With the 10 wins, Boyle became the first Highlander to lead the league in wins, while setting a new RU single-season record.

The 2015 senior class concluded their careers with a 137-93-1 overall record, the most wins for a four-year class in program history. The group led RU to three consecutive 30-plus win seasons.

The success of the 2015 season continued during the 2017 season as the Highlanders played their best baseball when it mattered, outscoring opponents 29-8 in the Big South Tournament to run the table for four straight tournament wins to capture their second tournament championship in three seasons. Radford earned a trip to the NCAA Louisville Regional.

Radford matched a program record with six all-conference selections, highlighted by Big South Pitcher of the Year Zack Ridgely. The junior left-hander turned in a 7-5 record with a 2.84 ERA, striking out 85 in 95.0 innings, walking only 12 batters. Ridgely ranked ninth in the country with a 7.08 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

Joining Ridgely on the Big South First Team were seniors Kyle Zurak and Danny Hrbek. Zurak put together a breakout campaign that earned him a semifinalist spot for the Gregg Olson Award. The eighth-round selection by the New York Yankees finished his season with a 2.40 ERA, sixth best in program history.

In his third career start, Hrbek tossed the first nine-inning no-hitter in program history with a 4-0 win over Quinnipiac on March 4. Hrbek struck out nine, falling an error shy of a perfect game.

Spencer Horwitz put together one of the best offensive freshman seasons in program history, earning a spot on the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American team after leading the Highlanders with a .311 average. Horwitz finished second with 64 hits, while driving in 34 runs on 11 doubles and eight home runs.

Highlander pitchers were especially good in Big South play, ranking third with a 3.09 ERA, walking only 63 batters in 212.1 innings. Opposing conference foes only hit .241 off Highlander pitching. Zurak led the league with a 1.03 conference ERA, striking out 40 in 26.1 innings. Ridgely came in fifth with a 2.13 ERA.

Getting players to the professional ranks has been a staple for Raccua during his time as the headman. Raccua has oversaw 11 players drafted in the MLB First Year Player Draft, with four players signing non-drafted free agent contracts.

In 2012, Eddie Butler was the 46th overall selection of the Colorado Rockies in the draft - the highest draft selection in program history and the first Big South player to be selected in the draft's first round. On June 6, 2014, Butler became the third Radford player to make it to the big leagues with his MLB debut for the Colorado Rockies.

Raccua's success has come both on-and-off the field of play, including facilities, player development, recruiting and academics.

On his watch, two major baseball facilities have opened: the Siro's hitting facility and Carter Memorial Stadium. The stadium, which opened on April 8, 2011, became the cornerstone of Radford's program thanks in part to Raccua's extensive fund-raising and planning efforts. The project went from conception in the Fall of 2010, to completion during the 2011 season as a result of his work. Raccua also spearheaded the work done to the playing surface and dugouts in time for the 2010 season. All of the improvements to the facilities marked the first major capital upgrades since Raccua's playing days at Radford.
