KATHY RILEY

Head Coach

27th Season (23rd at Longwood)

East Carolina, '81

Career Record: 812-489-1 (26 Seasons)

Longwood Record: 725-406-1 (23 Seasons)

Three-time Big South Coach of the Year Kathy Riley has built Longwood softball into the dynasty of the Big South.

With a career record of 809-482-1 in her 26 years as a head coach, Riley is among the most decorated and respected coaches in all of college softball. She has spent 22 of those years at the helm of Longwood's program, amassing a 722-400-1 record with the Lancers without a single season below .500 on her resume.

Riley has thrust Longwood onto the national stage through the success of her softball program, taking the Lancers to five NCAA Regionals in 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2019 with Big South Championships in each of those years. Longwood has reached 30 wins 16 times, including all seven years as a member of the Big South, as well as three 40-win seasons. She has been named Big South Coach of the Year three times, earning that peer-selected honor in 2015, 2016 and 2019.

Longwood's players have also become equally decorated in Riley's tenure, with two Lancers earning All-America honors in Megan Baltzell and Brooke Short, three earning Big South Player or Pitcher of the Year in Baltzell, Short and Elizabeth McCarthy, and nearly two dozen receiving All-Big South recognition.

With every NCAA Tournament berth, Riley's teams have ventured closer to an NCAA Super Regional. In the program's historic first visit to an NCAA Regional in 2013, the Lancers suffered back-to-back losses for a quick exit from the Knoxville Regional. Longwood's next trip, which was a return to Knoxville in 2015, featured another historic first when the Lancers upset Commonwealth rival Virginia Tech for the school's first-ever Division I NCAA Tournament win. One year later, the Lancers earned victories against ACC foe North Carolina and Princeton at the Harrisonburg Regional on the same day to advance to the NCAA Regional Championship series against nationally-ranked James Madison. The following year, Longwood battled back once again to reach the NCAA Regional Championship showdown once more in Knoxville before falling to host Tennessee. iversity in 1982.
