LAST TIME OUT

- No. 24 James Madison showcased its top-25 prowess and took both games of a midweek doubleheader 1-0 and 6-0. The Dukes got back-to-back shutouts from the ace duo of Alissa Humphrey and Odicci Alexander, who entered the game ranked No. 1 and 2 in the CAA in ERA and opponent batting average.

- In game one, Longwood ace Sydney Backstrom went toe-to-toe with Humphrey in a pitcher's duel that featured just six hits and 24 strikeouts. Backstrom held JMU to just four hits with nine Ks.

- The games were Longwood's sixth and seventh against a top-25 team this season.

THE FIRST PITCH

- Currently in third place in the Big South with a 10-5 record, Longwood hosts conference rival Charleston Southern Saturday and Sunday at Lancer Field.

- Due to expected inclement weather, the series schedule has shifted to a single game Saturday at noon and a doubleheader Sunday at 10 a.m.

- Longwood has won 21 of its past 22 Big South series, including five of six this season. Longwood defeated both Radford and Presbyterian two games to one over the past two weekends and suffered their only series loss at the hands of current Big South frontrunner Campbell.

- With two Big South series remaining in the regular season, both at home against Charleston Southern this weekend and second-place USC Upstate on May 8-9, the Lancers are seeking their eighth consecutive top-three Big South finish. That streak encompasses every year the Lancers have been a member of the Big South, including Big South regular-season titles in 2015, 2016 and 2019.

- Longwood senior Sydney Backstrom was named Big South Pitcher of the Week Monday for the fourth time after going 4-0 with a 1.25 ERA and a perfect game. Her four Big South awards are the most by a Lancer in a single season.

- The Lancers are 16-4 against the Buccaneers in the Big South regular season and have won five of the past series since their inaugural season in the Big South in 2013.

- Longwood is 17-10 since March 10. That stretch includes an 11-game winning streak from March 10-28.

BY THE NUMBERS

- Longwood is averaging 4.6 runs per game and hitting .285 in Big South play, compared to 3.3 runs per game and a .205 batting average in non-conference games. The Lancers have also hit 13 home runs in 15 Big South games, compared to 11 homers in 29 non-conference games.
- Designated player Madison Blair has enjoyed the team's biggest statistical jump from non-conference to conference play, hitting a team-high .364 (16-for-44) in Big South games, compared to .133 (6-for-45) in non-conference games.
- Of Longwood's 29 non-conference games, 11 are against teams either ranked or receiving votes in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll.
- Longwood has stolen 100 bases this season, only the second time in program history a Lancer team has hit the century mark in that cateogry. The last team to do it, and the program's single-season record-holder was the 1999 Lancer squad that amassed 136 steals in 53 games.
- Four Lancers have amassed double-digit steals this season, including junior Mason Basdikis, who is 26-for-26. Basdikis has stolen 34 consecutive bases without being caught and ranks No. 1 in the nation in steals by a player who has yet to be caught stealing this season.
- Longwood ace Sydney Backstrom has allowed just five hits and one earned run over her past 21.0 innings, including a perfect game against Presbyterian on April 17 and a one-hitter against the Blue Hose in a series-clinching follow-up on April 18. She also held No. 24 James Madison — the No. 3 scoring team in the nation — to one run on four hits in a seven-inning complete game this past Wednesday.
- Backstrom recently snapped a streak of 32 consecutive innings without issuing a walk. That streak spanned five consecutive starts and saw her rack up 35 strikeouts.
- Backstrom has thrown complete games in 10 consecutive starts, going 6-4 with a 1.93 ERA, two shutouts and a perfect game in that span.
- Longwood is 6-2 in one-run games and has yet to lose when leading after the sixth inning.

LONGWOOD FAN POLICY

- On March 15, 2021, Longwood announced guidelines for spectators at Lancer athletics events as part of the first phase of its plan to re-open athletics venues to spectators. The protocols apply to Longwood baseball, field hockey, lacrosse, soccer, softball and tennis events on campus.
- The first phase of Longwood's athletics reopening plan limits spectators to family members of Longwood student-athletes, who must be listed on a player pass list submitted to the athletics department. Coordination of those lists and submissions for each game are handled by each team's coaching staff and in coordination with their respective student-athletes.
- Before entry, fans must complete a COVID-19 pre-screening. Upon entry, fans must wear face covering over the nose and mouth at all times, sit in designated spaces and refrain from eating and drinking.
- Congregating at athletics venues and surrounding facilities — including concourses, parking lots, and any tailgating site on campus — is prohibited.

- Under former head coach Kathy Riley, who retired after the 2020 season, the Lancers won five of the Big South's past seven league titles, doing so in 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2019.

QUOTABLE:

"In the fall, we talk about putting hay in the barn that you're going to need for spring. A lot of times pitchers throw their bullpen before practice and then they shag batting practice for two hours. Our pitchers come to practice and pitch for almost three hours. They do different drills, they condition, they do core exercises. We train them in such a way that we build endurance. If you don't train that way, you can't do it."

— Longwood head coach Dr. Megan Brown on her training philosophy for the Lancer pitching staff

A NEW ERA BEGINS

- Following the retirement of legendary head coach Kathy Riley in June of 2020, Longwood softball has a new head coach for the first time since 1998.
- Taking the reins of the Big South softball dynasty is Dr. Megan Brown, who was among the top pitching coaches in the country before her hiring as Longwood's head coach in August, 2020.
- Brown wasted little time in earning her first signature win as Longwood's head coach, leading the Lancers to a 3-2 upset over No. 16 Georgia on Feb. 20 at the Georgia Classic in Athens, Ga. The win was Longwood's 10th over a top-25 foe since making the jump to the Division I level in 2005.
- In year one, Brown has led the Lancers to an 11-game winning streak, a 15-13 record through the end of March, and a Big South-leading No. 70 spot in the first release of the NCAA RPI.
- In taking over the Lancers, Brown assumed command of a mid-major powerhouse built by Riley, who amassed a 722-400-1 record in 23 seasons at Longwood and an 820-488-1 record in her 27 years as a collegiate head coach overall.
- The Lancers advanced to seven NCAA Regionals under Riley, including Division II berths in 2002 and 2013 and Division I berths in 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2019.
- With a coaching resume that has taken her to three high-major programs, Brown has worked with some of the best ever at the collegiate level, including NFCA Hall-of-Famers Tina Deese (Auburn), Karen Mullins (UConn), Diane Ninemire (Cal) and Chris Bellotto (Florida Southern).

A LOOK AT THE STREAK

- From March 10-28, Longwood won 11 consecutive games, which was the third-longest winning streak in program history and the second-longest of Longwood's Division I era (since 2007).
- Included in that streak were four consecutive series sweeps, two of which were in Big South play.
- Only the 2015 Lancers' 13-game tear and the 2016 Lancers' 12-game streak were longer.
- During the streak, Longwood averaged 6.7 runs per game and hit .318 as a team while banging 14 homers and going 46-of-52 stealing.
- Longwood's pitching staff, led by an 8-0 stretch from Sydney Backstrom, logged a 2.46 ERA and held opposing hitters to a .193 clip.

CREAM OF THE CROP

- Longwood has annually produced some of the best players in the Big South and on the entire mid-major softball circuit.
- Among those are a pair of All-Americans in Megan Baltzell (2013) and Brooke Short (2013) and two-time Big South Pitcher of the Year Elizabeth McCarthy (2015, 2016).
- Baltzell was also a two-time Big South Player of the Year, winning those honors back-to-back in 2014 and 2015, while Short won the league's top award in 2013.
- Baltzell ranks tied for 12th on the NCAA's all-time home run list with 76 career bombs and fifth with a career .872 slugging percentage. She is one of only 12 players in NCAA Division I history to hit 30 home runs in a single season.
- Meanwhile Short was named Big South Player of the Year and an All-American as a senior in 2013, her only season in the Big South.
- Of the 21 Big South players to earn All-Big South honors four times, four are Lancers: Emily Murphy (2013-16), Elizabeth McCarthy (2014-17), Karleigh Donovan (2016-19) and Sydney Gay (2016-19).

WORKHORSE IN THE CIRCLE

- Senior right-hander Sydney Backstrom emerged as Longwood's ace in 2020 and has lived up to that role once again this season.
- The 6-1 native of Huntersville, N.C., owns a 56-32 career record, eight saves and a 2.63 ERA. In her 564.1 career innings, she has struck out 434 batters while holding hitters to a .209 batting average.
- Backstrom has been a workhorse for the Lancers this season, throwing 60 percent of the team's total innings. She leads the nation with 165.2 innings pitched and 20 complete games and leads the Big South with 16 wins and a .191 opponent batting average.
- Backstrom is the latest in a long line of Longwood aces, following in the footsteps of 2013 Big South Tournament MVP Libby Morris, two-time Big South Pitcher of the Year Elizabeth McCarthy (2015, 2016) and four-time All-Big South pitcher Sydney Gay (2016, 2017, 2018, 2019).

DR. MEGAN BROWN

Head Coach

First Season
Florida Southern, '07 & '09 | Auburn, '13
Career Record: 21-23 (First Season)
Longwood Record: 21-23 (First Season)

After a national search following the retirement of legendary head coach Kathy Riley, Longwood athletics director Michelle Meadows named Dr. Megan Brown the new head coach of Longwood softball in August, 2020.

Brown's coaching resume includes time in the ACC, Pac-12 and SEC, along with extensive playing credentials that include a record-setting All-American career at Florida Southern and six years on the professional softball circuit at home and abroad.

During that time, she has coached under and played for some of the most decorated head coaches in college softball, including National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Hall-of-Famers Diane Ninemire at Cal and Karen Mullens at UConn, SEC Coach of the Year Tina Deese at Auburn, and 1,200-game winner and NFCA Hall-of-Famer Chris Bellotto at Florida Southern.

Most recently Brown served as an assistant coach at Pac-12 member Cal (2020) and Atlantic Coast Conference member Boston College (2016-19), with prior stints at Akron (2015), UConn (2014), UNC Pembroke (2012-13) and Auburn (2010-11). She has also coached at the highest level of international fastpitch softball, serving as pitching coach and guest player for the Great Britain Women's National Team from 2011-14.

At Longwood, Brown takes over one of the most dominant dynasties in Big South Conference history. Under Riley, who won 722 games in 23 years at Longwood and 820 in 27 years at the college level, Longwood softball has won five of the past seven Big South championships, reached five NCAA Regionals, and twice advanced to the NCAA Regional Championship game.

Brown stepped into her new role armed with a longstanding history of pitching success, which has been the hallmark of her career both as a player and coach. That trend has followed her from the standout collegiate career that landed her in the Sunshine State Conference Hall of Fame, Florida Southern Hall of Fame and the NCAA record books, to her beginnings in the coaching industry as a volunteer assistant at Auburn and her most recent stints with two different high-major programs.

Throughout her coaching career, she has worked under some of the best to ever coach at the collegiate level, including most recently under 1,355-game winner Ninemire at Cal in 2020. With the Golden Bears, Brown worked under Ninemire in the Cal coaching legend's 33rd and final season before retirement, helping Ninemire cap a career that saw her finish at No. 9 on the all-time Division I wins leaderboard.

Prior to Brown's COVID-shortened stint as pitching coach at Cal in 2020, she was the top assistant at Boston College from 2016-19 and transformed the Eagle pitching staff into one of the best in the ACC.

Under her tutelage, Boston College's pitchers ranked second in the conference in ERA in 2017 behind only top-10 power Florida State, ranked among the league's top four in opponent batting average and strikeouts three consecutive years from 2016-18, and led the league in strikeouts looking in both 2016 and 2017. Leading that charge were Brown's pupils Jessica Dreswick and Allyson Frei, two NFCA All-Region pitchers who left their names littered throughout the school's record books. Among a wealth of school records, Dreswick set the program's single-season wins record and threw the school's first no-hitter of the ACC era under Brown.

That dominance in the circle propelled Boston College to the upper tier of the ACC, finishing in the top four of the league standings three consecutive years from 2016-18. The Eagles reached 30 overall wins and double-digit ACC victories in each of those seasons, leading to the program's winningest three-year run of its ACC era.

That five-year stretch at Cal and Boston College followed two years in which Brown held assistant coach positions at Mid-American Conference member Akron in 2015 and American Conference member Connecticut in 2014. At Akron, she oversaw the development of one of the best pitchers to ever come through the program in Erin Seiler. Seiler set Akron's single-season strikeout record with 305 that year, her highest total in a four-year career that ended with her atop the program leaderboards in career wins, complete games and strikeouts. Meanwhile at UConn, Brown learned under NFCA Hall of Fame inductee and 862-game winner Karen Mullins in the last of her 31 seasons leading the Huskies program.

Prior to her return to the Division I level at UConn, Brown cut her teeth in the college coaching ranks at Division II UNC Pembroke in 2012-13 and at SEC power Auburn in 2010 and 2011. At Auburn, she worked toward her doctorate degree while serving the Tiger program as a student manager in 2010 and a volunteer assistant coach in 2011, helping the program reach two of its nine NCAA Tournaments under Tina Deese. Brown also continued her professional playing career while at Auburn, playing the latter half of both of both springs in the Italian Softball League.

Brown's wealth of coaching accolades followed a playing career that remains among the best in the history of NCAA Division II softball. She was a three-time All-American and four-year ace of a Florida Southern team that finished No. 2, No.3 and No. 4 in the NCAA Division II College World Series from 2004-07 and amassed a four-year record of 200-42. Brown won a school-record 124 of those games with a career ERA of 0.69, two of the 11 school records she still holds. Also among those are 58 career shutouts and 12 career no-hitters, both of which rank among the NCAA Division II top 10 along with her 124 wins and 58 shutouts.

Brown also remains the only player in Sunshine State Conference (SSC) history to thrice earn the SSC Pitcher of the Year award and one of only four to be named an All-American three times. She was inducted into both the Florida Southern Hall of Fame and Sunshine State Conference Hall of Fame in 2013.

Brown continued her softball playing career at the professional level, playing three seasons in the National Pro Fastpitch League, first with the Michigan Ice in 2007 followed by two seasons with the Rockford Thunder. After the 2009 season with the Thunder, she jumped into the international ranks with the Titano Hornets A1 Softball team in Dogana, San Marino in 2010 and 2011, and then with the Oosterhout Twins in Oosterhout, Netherlands, in 2012. Those international endeavors have taken her to softball fields in Bulgaria, Canada, Czech Republic, Great Britain, Italy, Netherlands and San Marino.
