ABOUT THE DUHAWKS

> Loras welcomes the Nebraska Wesleyan University Prairie Wolves to the Rock Bowl for the final home game of the 2024 season. The Duhawks look to put themselves back in the win column, following a 45-7 loss at Central last week. Last time these two squads met, the Duhawks came out on top by a score of 41-38. In that contest, Evan England completed 73 percent (30-of-41) of his passes, totaling 308 yards for four touchdowns. England also totaled 63 rushing yards on 18 carries, while Jaheem Haynes tallied five receptions for 50 yards. On defense, Niko Jemilo registered six solo tackles and two quarterback hurries for the Duhawks, while Scott Talmadge successfully completed five PAT attempts and averaged 53 yards per kickoff.

> So far this season, Helminiak has thrown 1,142 yards (93-of-156) for a completion percentage of 60 percent. Justin Stephens controls the ground game with 353 total rushing yards, while Brock Couch has totaled 359 yards on 28 receptions.

> Defensively, Owen Kelly and Henry Ivers lead the Duhawks with 55 (34 solo) and 51 (32 solo) total tackles respectively.

> The Duhawks lead the overall series against the Prairie Wolves, 6-1.

ABOUT THE PRAIRIE WOLVES

> The Prairie Wolves enter this afternoon's contest with a 3-5 overall record and a 2-4 mark in conference play. In its most recent contest, Nebraska Wesleyan fell to the University of Dubuque, 52-7.

> So far this season, quarterback Connor White has thrown 1,387 yards (144-of-235) for a completion percentage of 61 percent. Nathan Athouris leads the ground game for the Prairie Wolves totaling 402 rushing yards on 85 carries, while Cole Siems leads all receivers with 465 yards and two touchdowns in 42 receptions.
