ABOUT THE DUHAWKS

> Loras welcomes the Luther College Norse to the Rock Bowl for the season finale. Last time out, the Duhawks suffered a 63-7 loss to Coe College. In the game, quarterback Jacob Richtman completed 18 of his 32 pass attempts for 154 yards and one touchdown. Carter Cahill led the Loras ground game with 52 yards on 16 carries. He also racked up 19 receiving yards on six catches. Sai McWilliams finished with five catches for 90 yards to lead all Loras wide receivers. Ian Brochous followed with four catches for 27 yards. On defense, Henry Ivers led all Duhawks with 10 tackles, six of them being solo. Micah Hendricks followed with seven, while Will Speltz finished with six. Cormaic Flynn was all over the field for the Duhawks. He finished the game with two interceptions, one forced fumble, and a pass break-up.

> Through nine weeks of play, Richtman has completed 94 passes on 156 attempts, which is good for 60% to lead all Loras quarterbacks. Cahill leads the Loras rushing attack with 317 yards on 120 carries, while Myles Schumacher leads all backs with five rushing touchdowns. McWilliams continues to lead all Duhawk wide outs with 43 catches for 541 yards and five touchdowns. On defense, Speltz anchors the Purple and Gold with 72 total tackles, while Braxten Johnson has been a quarterback nightmare with five interceptions on the year.

> Today marks the 77th all-time matchup between the two squads with Loras leading the series 43-32-1. The Duhawks have also won seven straight meetings against the Norse.

> The Duhawks will be celebrating senior day today. The 17 seniors will be recognized prior to kickoff.

ABOUT THE NORSE

> Luther comes into today's matchup with a 0-9 overall record and a 0-7 conference mark. Last time out, the Norse fell to the University of Dubuque, 27-20.

> So far this season, quarterback Christian Hiner has completed 58-of-151 pass attempts, totaling 753 yards and four touchdowns. Trent White leads the ground game for the Norse with 267 yards on 76 carries all while finding the endzone four times. Sophomore Bryce Buckley has hauled in 16 catches for 297 yards, while Anthony Thorton has a team-high four receiving touchdowns.
