

INSIDE LOYOLA

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

82% of faculty hold t

Zero classes tau

12:1 Faculty:Student Ratio

Loyola has ranked se among like in the North by U.S. Ne World Re

terminal degrees

ght by teaching assistants

s been econd schools
n region
ews & eport

Undergraduate degrees in over 40 fields

LOYOLA

UNIVERSITY

MARYLAND

*Loyola's residence halls
have been ranked No. 1
in the nation by U.S. News &
World Report*

*Loyola sits on 80
beautiful acres in suburban Baltimore*

*Loyola was ranked 12th on a list of Top 20
Wired Colleges*

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

170+ student-run
clubs and programs

Learning doesn't stop outside the classroom walls

Strong Truths, Well Lived

Compassion...
Engagement...
Optimism...
Inclusion...
These Jesuit
values and more form what Loyola is all about

REV. BRIAN LINNANE, S.J.

PRESIDENT

Rev. Brian F. Linnane, S.J., President of Loyola University Maryland, brings a wealth of experience as an educator deeply immersed in the Jesuit traditions of academic excellence and the promotion of faith and justice.

A native of Massachusetts, he formerly served at a sister Jesuit institution, the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, MA, as Assistant Dean and Associate Professor of Religious Studies.

Born August 25, 1955, Fr. Linnane entered the Society of Jesus in 1977, and was ordained to the Roman Catholic priesthood on June 14, 1986.

He earned an A.B. degree, magna cum laude, from Boston College in 1977 and an M.A. from Georgetown University's Department of Government in 1981 before undertaking divinity studies at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley, where he received a master's degree in 1986 and a Licentiate in Sacred Theology in 1988.

He earned master's degrees from the Yale Department of Religious Studies in 1990 and 1991, and a Ph.D. in religious studies concentrating in religious ethics in 1994.

Fr. Linnane joined the Religious Studies Department at Holy Cross in 1994. His scholarly publications are extensive, covering the disciplines of fundamental moral theology, health care ethics and virtue ethics. He served as Assistant Dean at Holy Cross from 2003 to 2005 and was named a Loyola University Maryland Trustee in 2000.

He currently serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of the College of the Holy Cross; the Institute of Christian and Jewish Studies; the Gilchrist Center for Hospice Care in Baltimore; and the Board of Directors of the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities.

He is President of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, Secretary/Treasurer of the Executive Committee of the Maryland Independent College and University Association, and a member of the NCAA Division I Committee on Athletics Certification.

In July 2005, Fr. Linnane became the 24th President of Loyola University Maryland.

JOE BOYLAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Joe Boylan, a Baltimore native and former college basketball coach, is in his 19th year as Director of Athletics at Loyola University. Guiding a 18-sport department at Evergreen, Boylan and the Greyhounds have experienced success and growth over the years.

In October 2009, Boylan announced his retirement plans, effective June 30, 2010.

Under his direction, Loyola has won its share of Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference titles, representing the University with the highest level of sportsmanship. In 2007-08, the Greyhounds won the ECAC Men's Lacrosse League and captured three MAAC championships - men's and women's soccer and men's golf - in addition to the Loyola men's teams combining to capture the Commissioner's Cup for men's sports.

Boylan has also been able to showcase Loyola nationally by hosting the 2003, 2004 and 2007 NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championships with Johns Hopkins, Towson and UMBC. The Greyhounds also landed the 2005 NCAA Men's Golf Championships and became the smallest school ever to host an NCAA Championship by itself. The nation's best golfers came to Caves Valley and Loyola put on quite an event, having the championships televised (The Golf Channel) for the first time.

Before coming to Loyola, Boylan spent 17 years at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. While there, he helped the Scarlet Knights earn their highest national ranking ever. From 1973-85, he was associate head basketball coach under Tom Young. During his tenure, Rutgers compiled a 238-114 record, reaching the NCAA Final Four in 1976. Rutgers was ranked fourth in the nation that year. The Scarlet Knights also appeared in the 1975, 1979 and 1983 NCAA tournaments and in the NIT in 1974, 1977, 1978 and 1982.

A Baltimore native and 1956 graduate of Milford Mill H.S., Boylan was an outstanding student-athlete himself. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in history from Lafayette in 1960 where he earned varsity letters in both basketball and soccer before receiving his Master of Arts from Johns Hopkins in 1969. From 1961 to 1963, Boylan served in the U.S. Army.

Boylan and his wife, Molly, have a grown daughter, Heather, and a grandson named Jake. Heather is married to former Greyhounds basketball player Dave Wojcik.

LOYOLA

ATHLETIC

ADMINISTRATION

Teddi Burns
Associate
Director of Athletics

Dave Gerrity
Associate
Director of Athletics

Joe Artuso
Assistant
Director of Athletics

Joe DelBalso
Assistant
Director of Athletics

Bill Wnek
Assistant
Director of Athletics

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

170+ student-run
clubs and programs

Every student-athlete receives customized academic support to help them balance the rigors of being a student and an athlete.

Academic advising, academic monitoring, structured study halls and tutorial programs are part of the support a student-athlete receives at Loyola.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The Ridley Athletic Complex will feature a 2,500 square-foot athletic training center (shown above) where Loyola lacrosse will have state-of-the-art facilities available to use.

Loyola's athletic trainers coordinate the management and reconditioning of all athletic injuries.

The athletic trainers combine with Union Memorial Sports Medicine's nationally-renowned doctors to provide outstanding treatment of the Greyhounds.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Strength and Conditioning is at the core of athletic success. Individual plans are developed for teams and student-athletes to help maximize potential.

The staff at Loyola helps student-athletes reach new heights with fitness and conditioning, thus putting them in position to success in their sport.

SO MUCH, SO CLOSE

BALTIMORE

MARYLAND

Baltimore's skyline overlooks the Inner Harbor's attractions

Ft. McH Star Sp

National Aquarium

Baltimore-Washington is the 4th largest metro area in the United States

Henry, home of the Genghis Khan and the Genghis Khan

The NFL's Ravens and MLB's Orioles call Baltimore home

SO MUCH, SO CLOSE

While Baltimore has so much to offer, there is even more within close proximity. The city is 45 minutes from Washington, D.C., 30 minutes from Annapolis, 90 minutes from Philadelphia and less than four hours from New York City.