PSU HEAD COACH AMANDA DAVIED: After serving as an assistant coach with the Gorillas for 14 seasons, Davied was promoted to head coach beginning with the 2018-19 season. In four years, she has led PSU to 59 victories. As an assistant, Davied helped Pittsburg State go 283-160 with five trips to the NCAA Division II tournament and the 2017 MIAA regular season title.

SCOUTING THE LIONS: Missouri Southern is averaging 78.2 points per game while allowing 64.4, with Lacy Stokes leading the team with 18.0 points and 6.0 rebounds per contest. Layne Skiles is next in both categories (10.6 ppg., 4.8 rpg.), and Kaitlin Hunnicutt (9.6 ppg.) and Amaya Johns (9.5) also average close to 10 points per night. Stokes additionally leads Missouri Southern in both assists (48) and steals (23).

MSSU HEAD COACH RONNIE RESSEL: An alum of MSSU, Ressel was promoted to head coach in 2016 after spending the previous three years as an assistant with the program. Ressel helped the Lions average 19 wins as an assistant and has won 47 games as the head coach. Before he began his tenure with the women's team, he served as an assistant with the MSSU men's team.

D-D-D-DEFENSE: The Blue Tigers already have surpassed their win total from 2020-21, and they have done so using a defense that allows just 67.1 points per game. Lincoln is third in the league in steals (95), second in steals per game (10.6) and fourth in blocks (3.9). The Blue Tigers have also been able to create second-chance opportunities, as Lincoln's 14.3 offensive rebounds per contest is second in the MIAA.

TAKE IT AWAY: The Blue Tigers have stolen the ball 95 times in 2021-22, and currently are 45th in NCAA Division II in total steals and 52nd in steals per game (10.6). Lincoln ranks among the top of the MIAA in both categories, as well as in turnovers forced, as LU has created 20.3 take-aways per game, the 67th-most in the country.

2021-22 Lincoln Women's Basketball

BAND OF THIEVES: When it comes to taking the ball away from the other team, it's a team-wide effort for LU. Nine Blue Tigers have at least five steals on the season, led by 16 from Hya Haywood, who ranks seventh in the MIAA in steals. AJ Bradley is next with 15 takeaways, the 10th-most in the conference.

UP THE BLOCK: Ashtin Ingram is in just her second year as a Blue Tiger, but she's already added her name to the record books. Ingram has blocked 50 shots over the past two seasons, placing her eighth all-time on LU's career block list. Ingram needs just five more blocks to surpass Andrea Sykes (54 career rejections) for seventh on the all-time list.

OFF THE GLASS: Lincoln once again has excelled on the offensive glass, as the Blue Tigers have secured 129 boards to rate second in the MIAA and 61st in NCAA Division II in offensive rebounding. The Blue Tigers led the MIAA in offensive rebounding last year, and this year average 14.3 offensive boards per contest. Le'Yanna McGinnis leads Lincoln and is eighth in the MIAA with 2.4 offensive boards per game.

GET YOUR TICKETS: Lincoln is partnering with Home-town Ticketing once again to sell tickets to all of LU's basketball games online in 2021-22. For more information, visit www.LUBlueTigers.com/Tickets.
