INSIDE THIS WEEK'S MATCHUP

- For the fifth time Marian will take on Lawrence Tech, while the Knights are making their second-ever trip to Southfield
- Marian won their only matchup played in Michigan 45-14 in the 2022 season
- The Blue Devils are 0-2 on the season, limping into the game after losing back to back weeks to Chicagoland foes St. Xavier and St. Francis (Ill.)
- Marian has averaged 44 points per game in their series history against Lawrence Tech, and has never scored less than 41 points in the series
- Last season the Knights gashed LTU on the ground for 155 yards, averaging 5.5 yards per carry. The Knights also had a big passing day, as Zach Bundalo threw for 281 yards while Jake Reichard completed a 62 yard pass

INJURY REPORT

- Tirae Spence made his awaited return in the win over Concordia, and by the end of the month Drew Byerly will be set return as he progresses back from an injury sustained over the summer.
- Connor Young is slated to miss his second consecutive game on Saturday against LTU, after seeing his 12-game streak as the team's starting center snapped during the Concordia game.
- James Ralph saw the injury bug bite in practice leading into the Concordia game, and will miss the remainder of the season with a lower body injury.
- Alex Covey, who has been injured in previous seasons, is nearing a return to play after suffering an injury in the preseason.

YEAR TWO OF KARRAS 2.0

Ted Karras Jr. leads the Marian football team into the 2024 season, entering the campaign as his eighth as the head coach at Marian and second after returning in December of 2023. Karras led the Knights to an MSFA Mideast League Championship in his return season, and eclipsed 50 wins as Marian's head coach in the process.

NEW YEAR, NEW DIVISION

For the first time, Marian will play a new slate of conference foes, as the Knights are headed to the MSFA Midwest for the 2024 season. Marian, who won the MSFA Mideast League for the eighth time in 2023, will now switch divisions, joining Saint Francis (Ind.) as the two lone teams to leave the Mideast for the Midwest. The Knights and Cougars will replace St. Ambrose and Roosevelt, who left for greener skies in the Heart of America Conference and NCAA Division II, respectively.

The 2024 MSFA Mideast alignment will feature Concordia, Defiance, Indiana Wesleyan, Lawrence Tech, Madonna, Siena Heights, and Taylor. Concordia is in their final season of football as the school is ending all athletics after the 2024-25 season ends, and will leave the MSFA with a balance of six teams in each league.

RETOOLING ON THE OFFENSE

For the third year in a row, there will be a new signal caller on the Marian offensive sideline, as Matt King takes over offensive coordinator duties for the first time in his career. King, a former collegiate quarterback at Siena Heights, is in his first season as a coordinator and takes over the role previously held by BJ Coad and Andy Mitchel. King will feature a new look offense, with multiple formations and packages in use for the Knights throughout the season. Marian returns seven starters from a season ago on offense, with three first-year starters in Jake Reichard, Adam Warren, and Keagan La Belle with ample playing experience.

HOUNDING DEFENSE

Justin Robinson had a highly successful year as the Knights defensive coordinator in 2023, and will look to repeat his success as the NAIA-AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year has a strong stock of talent this season. Robinson's team held opponents under 275 yards in the regular season a year ago, while creating 30 turnovers and 32 sacks. Marian returns just four starters from last season, but have several depth pieces who have seen extensive time on special teams in their careers.

DUAL-THREAT UNDER CENTER

For the first time since 2018, the Marian Knights will have a dual-threat quarterback as Tristan Polk takes the reigns as the signal caller in 2024. Luke Johnston was the last mobile quarterback for Marian, bucking the trend of the strong-armed pocket quarterbacks held by Ethan Darter, Zach Bundalo, and Frankie Young since 2019. Polk has appeared in 10 career games as a backup, and is set to prove his spot in the Marian football program lore as the team's starting quarterback.

NEW NAMES AND FACES

With a new season, Marian will have several new faces featured throughout their campaign. Defensively, Jesse Stevens, Jayden Scruggs, and Isaiah Street will be focal points on the defensive line, rotating around to cause chaos in the backfield. Linebacker Wyatt Woodall aims to have a breakout season, becoming Marian's first true freshman to start at linebacker since 2017. The secondary will feature new names as starters, with players emerging from their previous roles on special teams. Marshall Flaig, JT Downey, Curtis Foust, and Zion Woods are all primed to have a breakout season for Marian.

Offensively, Adam Warren re-emerges as a starter on the offensive line, while Baron Huebler aims to return to his 2022 form, fully healthy entering the start of the season. Ali Richardson and Uriah Buchanan will be key eyes to watch on in the backfield as well. The Knights will have several new pass catchers to get familiar with in 2024, beginning with Riley Palmeter, the most experienced member of the 2022 recruiting class. Jameson Coverstone, Montasi Clay, Aidan Wanner, Anthony Annee, and Max Autry are all primed for breakout roles as well, while Charles Vaden will take over the spot previously occupied by Jalen Jennings at kick returner. Ben Uran and Logan O'Brien will also have strong chances to make a name for themselves in the early season at the tight end position, joining Nick Miller in the position group rotation.

HEAD OF THE ROUND TABLE

Marian has selected nine captains for their 2024 season, with Tristan Polk, Jayshawn Underwood, Connor Young, Baron Huebler, Joe Apata, JT Downey, Keagan La Belle, Deon Pettiford, and Zach Sibila earning the distinction in 2024.

POSITION CHANGE

Deon Pettiford, a two-time All-MSFA player, will be seeing the game from a new light in 2024, as he is now one of the team's starting linebackers. Pettiford entered college as a linebacker when he began his career at Indiana State, but converted to defensive end when transferring to Marian. Pettiford will once again anchor his former position in the middle as a senior, aiming to continue his overall dominance on the defensive side.

KICKIN' IT

Marian has retained their top specialist unit from the 2023 season, as Marlon Pomili and Mason Miller return as the team's placekicker and punter. Both will enter their final seasons of college football, with Pomili in his fourth year as the team's top-kickoff specialist. Miller will be the team's punter for the second consecutive year, and will take on the holding duties once again. Joining the pair of specialists on gameday will be first-year Knight Gavin Irons, who replaces Peyton Knight as the team's long-snapper. Irons is a transfer from Clemson University. Cole Yost and Kenny Curry will also be in competition throughout the year to earn kicking reps, with both players bringing their own strengths to the table. Curry handled the placekicking duties in week one.

SO YOU'RE THE NEW KID

In week one against Siena Heights, Marian employed 12 new starters into their lineup, with all 12 players making their first collegiate starts. Jesse Stevens, Jayden Scruggs, JT Downey, Marshall Flaig, Jacob Howell, Curis Foust, and Wyatt Woodall all made their first starts on defense, while Riley Palmeto, Jameson Coverstone, and Tristan Polk all made their first starts on offense. Additionally, special teamers Gavin Irons and Kenny Curry made their first starts as the team's respective long snapper and place kicker.

150 MARIAN FOOTBALL WINS

Against Siena Heights, the Marian football program collected their 150th win as a program. The Knights, who began playing football in 2007, earned the milestone victory in the first game of their 18th season, and have not incurred a losing season since the inaugural year of play.

JOINING RARE COMPANY

Against Concordia, Jake Reichard became just the second non-quarterback in program history to both catch and throw a passing touchdown in the same game, joining JaQuan Patilla who first claimed the feat on September 11, 2010, against McKendree. Reichard, Patilla, and William Stubbs are all tied for the most non-QB passing touchdowns in program history with two each.

TAKEAWAY MACHINES

Marian ranks among the top NAIA schools in takeaways through three weeks of football, ranking third in the NAIA in fumble recoveries (4) and eighth in interceptions (5). Marian's 9-total takeaways ranks top-15 in the nation.

CENTURY MARK

For the 7th time in his career, Keagan La Belle eclipsed 100 all-purpose yards in Marian's win over Concordia. La Belle leads the team in career games with over 100 all-purpose yards, with Baron Huebler with five, and all five include rushing games.

Tirae Spence recorded his third-career 100+ yard game against Concordia, one week after Jake Reichard recorded his first-career 100-yard game.

GAME 1

Marian 31
Siena Heights 9

Knights Post 7 Takeaways in 31-9 Victory at Siena Heights

Streamwood, Ill. - The Marian football team began their 2023 season with a bang on Saturday afternoon, running away from the Judson Eagles in the second half of their 40-6 season-opening victory. The Knights win under head coach gives the team a 1-0 start, as Marian is now 12-5 all-time in season openers.

The Knights received the opening kickoff and methodically marched the ball down the field, with a 48-yard rip from Christian Hunter headlining the opening drive. A pass interference penalty set Marian up in the red zone, and on a third and long Zach Bundalo connected with Jalen Jennings for a 10-yard score, as the senior connection helped give Marian a quick 7-0 lead.

Judson went three-and-out on their first possession, and after a punt return from Armani Glass set the Knights up with great field position, six runs from William Gibson covered all 28-yards on the drive, as the senior plunged in from three yards out to provide a 14-0 lead. The Eagles would answer with an 80-yard scoring drive of their own after a big play provided the score, however the extra point was blocked by the Knights, keeping an eight-point lead. The scoring subsided for both sides as the first quarter came to its close, as penalty flags stalled out the final drive for both Marian and Judson.

Leading 14-6 going into the second quarter, Marian was unable to sustain a drive on each of their first two possessions in the period, allowing Judson to hang with the Knights. Marian was able to force a pair of punts in the quarter, with the second Judson boot proving costly, as Joe Owens broke through the middle of the blockers and rejected the punt, swatting the ball into the end zone. Owens was able to track the ball and recover in the end zone for his first collegiate touchdown, helping Marian to a 21-6 lead.

The Knights would get the ball one last time in the half, with backup quarterback Tristan Polk leading Marian on a 46-yard drive in 43 seconds, connecting with CJ Young for 38 yards to get in field goal range. Marlon Pomili converted the 39-yard kick as time expired, pushing Marian ahead 24-6 at the half.

After resetting at halftime, the Knights defense dialed in and forced an early punt, giving the offense the ball with 11:33 to play in the third. Backed up at their own three yard line, Christian Hunter plowed ahead for space from the end zone, while Polk was able to gain better field position with a 19-yard strike to Jennings. On the fifth play of the drive, Polk again dialed up Jennings number, hitting the senior in stride on an out-route, and letting the shifty receiver use his legs, as Jennings raced 66-yards to complete the 97 yard scoring drive.

Jennings' touchdown gave Marian a 31-6 lead, with the strong defensive pass rush getting to Judson and forcing another boot. Marian bled the clock with Gibson on the ground and moved the game into the fourth quarter, where the Knights would make their biggest play of the game. After receiving the ball on their own two yard line following the kick, the Knights needed just two plays to make program history, as William Gibson hit the hole on a second down run and streaked down the Knights' sideline, racing 94 yards to the end zone for the final touchdown of the game. Gibson's run was the longest in program history, surpassing the previous team record set by William Stubbs in 2011 (82 yards).

Gibson's touchdown put the game out of reach with a 37-6 lead, and on the final offensive drive of the game Pomili would convert another field goal, setting the final score of 40-6.

GAME 2

Concordia 31

Marian Outlasts Concordia 34-31 in Saturday Night Shootout

INDIANAPOLIS - Overcoming a halftime deficit for the first time in the young season, the Marian football team rallied in the fourth quarter to overcome Concordia, as a late touchdown and interception gave the Knights a 34-31 victory. Marian's final meeting against Concordia gives them a final series record of 12-2, as the Knights push to 2-0 in their 2024 campaign.

Marian received the opening kickoff and looked primed to score on their opening drive of the game as they marched 28 yards in three plays, but a Tristan Polk pass hung in the air a second too long, allowing Ethan Burrows to intercept a pass intended for Concordia. The Cardinals answered with an 80-yard touchdown drive to take a 7-0 lead, and after the Knights were forced to punt after a five play series, the Cardinals marched 77 yards before settling for a 32-yard field goal.

The high-octane pace was answered by Marian on their third series of the game, as the Knights were able to march 69 yards over seven plays, with Polk connecting with Reichard from 21 yards out for the team's first touchdown of the day. The scoring continued the next time Marian received the ball, as a Concordia fumble recovered by Jesse Stevens turned into a one-play score. Charles Vaden raced 27 yards on a reverse play to the end zone, scoring on his first collegiate offensive touch. Vaden's touchdown gave Marian a 14-10 lead, which held through the end of the opening quarter.

Concordia kept the slug-fest going as the second quarter continued, finishing an 11-play series that began in the first quarter with a one-yard touchdown from Colby Kohmescher. Trailing 17-14, the Knights again answered as Polk and Keagan La Belle moved the Knights into the red zone, where the series ended in a 35-yard field goal Kenny Curry. Back and forth the game continued, as the tied game stood for just 2:45, as the Cardinals put together their fourth scoring drive of the first half, getting a 42-yard score from Seeger DeGayner to go on top 24-17.

Both defenses returned to form and made strong showings after the four consecutive series with points, as the Cardinals were able to stop Marian and force a Mason Miller punt, while the Knights forced a quick three-and-out to get the ball back with 39 seconds remaining in the half. Polk marched Marian 36 yards down the field, getting into manageable range for Curry, as the redshirt-freshman converted a 32-yard kick, bringing the halftime score to 24-20 in favor of the visitors.

The Cardinals got the ball first to start the second half, but were denied on their possession as the Knights forced a three-and-out, quickly getting the ball back for the offense. Polk completed a pair of passes on the team's 75-yard drive, as the Knights dove into their bag of tricks to take the lead. Jake Reichard completed a 30-yard pass to Tirae Spence, as the pair of receivers connected on their second career scoring play to give Marian a 27-24 lead. After the score with 9:19 to play in the third quarter, the defensive level again rose, as Marian and Concordia ended their next two series with punts, ending the quarter with the Knights on top.

Entering the fourth quarter trailing, Concordia wasted little time to reclaim the lead, marching 80 yards to pay-dirt to take a 31-27 lead. Trailing by four, Marian failed to find points on their next two series, turning the ball over on downs and punting. As the offense stalled out, the defense continued to make plays, forcing a three-and-out on back-to-back drives to keep Marian in the game.

With 3:01 remaining in the game, the offense received the ball for their final scoring drive and hit a big play right away, as Polk found Spence for 41 yards. La Belle pushed the Knights within the two-yard line, and a pair of quarterback sneaks from Polk paid off, with the second resulting in the go-ahead touchdown. Leading 34-31, the Marian defense stepped up on their final drive, ending the game with a Jayshawn Underwood interception, as the first pick for the senior sealed the victory.
