Week 3 • March 4

Climbing Higher

Evan Almighty

After having single hits in each of the first three games, Evan Finch went 4-for-4 in game two on Saturday. He rapped out four singles with two runs and three RBIs. It was the Green Terror's first four-hit game of the season.

Triples Alley

The Green Terror rapped a pair of triples in game two on Saturday. With the bases loaded and two outs in the fifth inning, Tim Griest laced a triple to straightaway center field to clear the bases and rack up three of his four RBIs in the game. Three innings later, Brad Thaxton roped a pinch-hit triple to right field for his first career three-bagger.

This Week's FOES

GALLAUDET

The Bison (2-5) enter the week off a 14-1 loss at No. 7 Christopher Newport on Sunday. Since sweeping an opening-day doubleheader from Valley Forge on Feb. 15, Gallaudet has dropped its last five by a combined 76-13. Cameron Upton is hitting a team-best .579 on the young season with 11 hits that have included two doubles and a triple. Ryan Gilbert is hitting .421 with two doubles and two triples among his eight hits.

STEVENSON

The Mustangs (6-2) enter the week off a three-game sweep of MCLA over the weekend. Stevenson won the Saturday single game 7-4 before taking both ends of the Sunday twinbill, 1-0 and 11-1. Thomas Holcomb is hitting a team-best .450 and slugging .650. He has four doubles among his nine hits. Zachary DeLong (11) and Jordan Moore (10) have reached double digits in hits. James Wiercinski has fanned 30 batters in just 17.0 innings of work. He has started three games, including last on Feb. 28 against Immaculata, where he struck out 13 in 7.0 innings.

DEAN

The Bulldogs (0-0) have yet to open the season. Dean is scheduled to play Coast Guard on Wednesday before travelling to Massachusetts Maritime for a doubleheader on Saturday and to Maryland on Monday en route to its spring break trip in Myrtle Beach. Dean went 12-26-1 a year ago. Travis Dinsdale is the leading returner offensively with 45 knocks in 2018. He also was a perfect 20-for-20 in stolen bases.
