UIW Promotions

- Alamo Heights, Olmos Park, and Terrell Hills Community Appreciation Game - All residents, employees and students of those municipalities receive tickets sponsored by Broadway Bank.
- Sustainability Giveaway - The UIW Office of Sustainability is giving away green UIW towels to the first 500 fans to promote recycling.
- Enhanced Fan Zone - This week's fan zone will include a bounce house, a 45-foot nuclear rush obstacle course, an inflatable football toss, cornhole, giant water pong, giant connect four and more.

Highlights from Lamar

- Jon Copeland finished with 515 yards passing, a new program record. That breaks the program record of 411 he set on Oct. 6 against SLU.
- Copeland threw for over 400 yards for the second straight game. He has three games with over 300 passing yards this season, becoming the first quarterback in program history to throw for 300 yards in three or more games in a single season since joining Division I.
- He becomes the first quarterback in program history to throw for 400 or more yards in consecutive games and the first to throw for over 500 in a single game.
- Copeland is the first SLC quarterback to eclipse 500 yards passing in a single game and just the second in the FCS this season (Davlin Hodges -- Samford -- 562 yards -- Oct. 6).
- UIW had one scoring play of 20+ yards, giving them 12 such scoring plays this season (six games). By comparison, the team had 11 such scoring plays all of last season.
- Senior running back Ra'Quanne Dickens set a new Division I program record for rushing touchdowns in a single season when he scored a 1-yard touchdown in the third quarter.
- The UIW offense had two wide receivers eclipse 150 yards for the second consecutive game.
- Senior defensive linemen Darrius Montgomery forced his first fumble of the season in the first quarter, halting a Lamar drive that had taken the ball into the red zone.
- Junior Mar'kel Cooks recovered the fumble, the third FR of his career (all have occurred this season).
- The UIW defense has forced a turnover in seven consecutive games dating back to the 2017 season. This is the second longest turnover streak since joining DI -- the longest was a stretch of nine games from Oct. 3, 2015, to Sept. 3, 2016.
- Senior defensive lineman Justin Alexandre finished the game with 1.5 sacks, giving him 6.0 on the season. He is 2.5 shy of the program record (8.5 held by Myke Tavarres from 2015).

UIW Name Usage

Please note that there are two primary versions of our institution's name: Upon first reference, we are the University of the Incarnate Word. After that, UIW is the preferred name. Any other reference, including Incarnate Word University or Incarnate Word College, is incorrect. Additionally, all teams, including women's athletic teams, are known as Cardinals.

Eric Morris | Head Coach/QBs

Eric Morris was announced as the third head coach of the University of the Incarnate Word football program by Director of Athletics Dr. Brian Wickstrom, on Saturday, Dec. 30, 2017.

Morris joined UIW from Texas Tech, where he spent the previous five seasons as offensive coordinator for the prolific Red Raiders offense.

"I'm excited about the vision and the leadership that Dr. Evans and Dr. Wickstrom have established for UIW athletics," Morris said. "They've been awesome throughout this process. To have what I see as a power-five president and a power-five athletic director to help generate the resources we need to get the program where it needs to go is exciting.

Morris produced one of the most high-scoring offenses in the country, guiding Tech to annual top 20 rankings in total offense and top 10 rankings in passing offense.

The Red Raiders averaged over 30 points per game during Morris' tenure and set the single-season school record with 45.1 points per game in 2015.

Morris helped Tech to three bowl appearances, including a Birmingham Bowl bid in 2017. The Red Raiders ranked 10th in passing offense and 16th in total offense that season, racking up 474.6 yards per game, including 333.7 through the air.

Tech led the nation in 2016 with an average of 566.6 yards of total offense, including 463 passing yards per game.

Morris tutored Jonathan Giles and Keke Coutee -- both true sophomores in 2016 -- to breakout years. Giles earned All-Big 12 second team honors after recording 1,158 receiving yards and 13 touchdowns, both of which ranked in the top 10 in Tech single-season history. Coutee finished second on the team with 890 receiving yards and seven touchdowns.

The program's success offensively in 2015 pushed Tech to an appearance in the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl. The Red Raiders closed the 2015 campaign ranked No. 2 nationally in total offense, scoring offense and passing offense.

Tech was consistent throughout the 2015 season, totaling at least 25 points in all 13 games. The Red Raiders were one of just two teams nationally and the only team in a Power 5 conference to score 25 or more points in every game that season.

Morris created a balanced attack that featured a 4,000-yard passer in Patrick Mahomes II, a 1,000-yard rusher in DeAndre Washington and a 1,000-yard receiver in Jakeem Grant. It marked the first time in Tech history that three different Red Raiders reached those marks in the same season.

Under Morris' guidance, Grant ended his career as the all-time leading receiver in Tech history. An All-America honoree by several publications, Grant totaled 3,164 receiving yards over his four seasons, breaking the previous school record that was set by two-time Biletnikoff Award winner Michael Crabtree.

In 2014, Morris' first season as the lone offensive coordinator, Tech finished with a No. 10 national ranking in total offense after the Red Raiders averaged 504.1 yards per game. Tech also averaged 351.1 yards per game through the air to end the season with a No. 5 national ranking.

The Red Raiders displayed a balanced attack that season thanks in part to Washington's impact on the ground game. Washington rushed for 1,103 yards over 12 games, marking the first time a Red Raider running back reached the 1,000-yard mark since Ricky Williams in 1998.

Morris shared offensive coordinator responsibilities during his debut season in 2013. The Red Raiders displayed the nation's second-ranked passing attack (392.8 yards per game) and the eighth-best unit for total offense (511 yards-per-game). The solid offensive season earned Tech an appearance in the National University Holiday Bowl, where the Red Raiders pulled off a stunning 37-23 victory over No. 16 Arizona State.

Jace Amaro closed 2013 campaign with one of the best seasons by a receiver in program history. Amaro, a second-round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft by the New York Jets, set an NCAA FBS record for most receiving yards (1,352) in a single season by a tight end and was named an NCAA Consensus All-American.

Morris, a native of Shallowater, Texas, spent the 2012 season as the inside receivers coach for former Tech Head Coach Mike Leach at Washington State. In his only season with the Cougars, the Washington State receiving corps hauled in 3,965 yards and 23 touchdowns.

Prior to heading to Pullman, Morris spent two years on Kevin Sumlin's staff at the University of Houston, first as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 and then as the offensive quality control assistant in 2011. Morris coached the Cougars alongside current Texas Tech Head Coach Kliff Kingsbury, who served as Houston's quarterbacks coach in 2010 before being promoted to co-offensive coordinator a year later.

Morris and Kingsbury helped produce one of the nation's top offenses in 2011 as the Cougars led the country in passing (443.8 yards per game), total offense (599.0 yards per game) and scoring average (50.8 points per game). Houston concluded the season with a 12-1 record, which included a win over Penn State in the TicketCity Bowl.

Before joining the coaching ranks, Morris played in the Canadian Football League for the Saskatchewan Roughriders in 2009.

Morris was a versatile, all-round player during his four seasons as a Red Raider wide receiver (2005-08). He caught 184 passes for 1,965 yards and 19 touchdowns over his four seasons, the majority of which came during his final two years. Morris concluded his collegiate career as one of four players in NCAA FBS history to be part of multiple receiving trios where each player recorded at least 60 receptions in a season.

Morris was also instrumental as Tech's primary punt returner the final two seasons, where he averaged over 10 yards per return. He was named to the All-Big 12 second team as a punt returner by the Fort Worth Star Telegram following his senior campaign. He was also a member of the 2007 Academic All-Big 12 first team.

Morris arrived at Tech after a stellar prep career at Shallowater High School, where he was named the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal All-South Plains Super Team Offensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2003. He finished with 926 rushing yards and 24 touchdowns that season, while throwing for another 1,926 yards and 22 touchdowns.

Morris received his bachelor's degree in Communications Studies from Texas Tech in 2008. He and his wife, Maggie, have a son, Jack.

Josh Kirkland | Assistant Head Coach and Running Backs

Prior to UIW, Kirkland, a Levelland, Texas, native, was the athletic coordinator and head football coach at Lehman High School (Texas). Under his tutelage, Lehman broke the record for passing yards and completion percentage. Prior to Lehman, Kirkland was the athletic coordinator and head football coach at El Paso Parkland High School. Under Kirkland, Parkland led the state in rushing yards (3,924 yards) and was third in total offense (6,351 total yards).

Cody Crill | Offensive Coordinator

Crill comes to UIW after nine seasons at Navarro College, the final three of which he served as the head coach. Since he arrived at Navarro, the Bulldogs accumulated a 97-24 record, three conference titles, four bowl wins and the 2010 NJCAA national championship. He has guided 30 offensive linemen to the Division I level and several former players have played in the NFL.

Justin Deason | Defensive Coordinator

Deason comes to UIW from Texas A&M-Commerce, where he spent four seasons as the defensive coordinator. Deason helped guide the Lions to a National Championship in 2017. Under Deason, the Lions had the 15th best scoring defense in Division II, allowing just 16.7 points per game. Deason's defense was also ninth in the country in interceptions (19), 11th in defensive passing efficiency, 13th in tackles for loss per game (8.5), 20th in red zone defense and sacks, 25th in turnovers gained (25), total defense (303.4 yards per game) and third down defense (32.8 percent).

Brandon Lechtenberg | Special Teams Coordinator and Linebackers

Prior to UIW, Lechtenberg spent the 2017 season as the safeties coach at UT Martin. In one season, the Skyhawk defense quickly elevated to one of the top defenses nationally in FCS football. In addition to finishing fourth in the nation in scoring defense, sixth in total defense, and first in redzone defense, two of Lechtenberg's three safeties finished with All-Ohio Valley Conference honors.

Rickey Hunley | Recruiting Coordinator and Safeties

Prior to working with the Cardinals, Hunley served as the linebacker coach and special teams coordinator at the University of West Georgia. During each of his three seasons, the Wolves led the GSC in total defense. UWG also ranked 44th nationally in kick return defense and seventh in kick return average in 2017.

Brett Watson | Defensive Tackles

Prior to UIW, Watson spent two seasons at Southeastern Oklahoma State University. During the 2017 season, he was the defensive line coach and the junior college recruiting coordinator. He coached the linebackers in 2016. In 2017, Watson helped guide SOSU to a 7-4 record with a 4-2 mark in the Great American Conference. The Savage Storm recorded 791 tackles with 53 tackles for loss and 15 sacks.

Darren Garrigan | Cornerbacks and Camps Coordinator

Prior to UIW, Garrigan spent four seasons as the secondary coach at Texas A&M-Commerce. In four seasons, Garrigan tutored a secondary that was not only at the top of the Lone Star Conference, but was also one of the top in the country. He helped produced 14 all-conference players, three all-region players, one LSC Defensive Back of the Year and one All-American. In four seasons, the Lion defense intercepted 71 passes, caused 185 pass breakups and scored 12 defensive touchdowns.

Steve Foley | Defensive Ends

Prior to UIW, Foley spent one season as the volunteer assistant coach at the University of Louisiana Monroe. Before ULM, Foley played in the NFL for seven seasons. While in the NFL, he split time between the Cincinnati Bengals (1998-2001), the Houston Texans (2003) and the San Diego Chargers (2004-05).

Jordan Shoemaker | Offensive Line

Prior to working at UIW, Shoemaker helped lead Magnolia West to become co-district champions and bi-district champions with a 9-2 record and an appearance in the second round of the playoffs. Before Magnolia West, Shoemaker spent five seasons working in the Baylor football program. In his final two seasons with the Bears, he was an assistant director and analyst.

Tad Blaylock | Director of Football Operations

As the director of football operations, Blaylock oversees the administrative duties for the football team. He does everything from the day-to-day operations to responsibilities including budget control, team travel, office organization and facility management. He also serves as the football program's liaison to university departments and all other units within the athletic department.

Jordan Davis | Wide Receivers

Prior to UIW, Davis was an offensive graduate assistant at Texas Tech University, where he worked closely with Eric Morris, then the offensive coordinator for the Red Raiders, during the 2016 and 2017 seasons. In 2017, Davis helped guide TTU to a top-10 national ranking in passing offense. The Red Raiders also ranked 16th in passing offense, averaging 474.6 yards per game, including 333.7 yards through the air. Texas Tech played in the Birmingham Bowl to conclude the 2017 season.

Bret Huth | Director of Strength and Conditioning

Bret Huth joined the University of the Incarnate Word football program as the director of strength and conditioning in the spring of 2018. Prior to the Cardinals, Huth worked as the assistant director of strength and conditioning with the Rice football team in 2017. Before Rice, Huth spent three seasons with the football program at Cal. After two seasons as an assistant director of strength and conditioning Huth was promoted to associate strength and conditioning coach for his final season.

Clint Killough | Quality Control – Wide Receivers

Prior to returning to San Antonio, Killough was a defensive and offensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University from 2017-18. While in Bowling Green, Killough worked with the secondary before transitioning over to the offensive side of the ball with the wide receivers. Before joining the BGSU staff, Killough, a San Antonio native, played for the Cardinals for three years, one of which he suffered a season-ending injury after just three games as a junior.

UIW AROUND THE CONFERENCE, IN THE NATION

- The Cardinals lead the Southland and are ninth in the FCS with an average of 491.0 yards of total offense per game.
- UIW leads the SLC and ranks No. 18 in the nation in passing yards per completion (14.37).
- UIW is second in the league and No. 10 in the FCS in passing offense (309.0 yards per game).

INDIVIDUALS AROUND THE CONFERENCE, IN THE NATION

- Mar'kel Cooks leads the FCS with three fumbles recovered.
- Jon Copeland leads the conference and is No. 6 nationally in passing yards per game, averaging 307.3.
- He also leads the Southland and ranks No. 9 nationally with 316.2 yards of total offense per game.
- Copeland leads the league and ranks No. 10 in the FCS with 14.75 passing yards per completion; he leads the league and ranks No. 25 in the nation with 8.09 yards per pass attempt.
- Justin Alexandre is third in the SLC and No. 8 nationally in sacks with 1.0 per game.

CALLING COPELAND

- Freshman QB Jon Copeland threw for 515 yards, a new program record, at Lamar on Oct. 13. That breaks the program record of 411 he set on Oct. 6 against SLU.
- Copeland threw for over 400 yards for the second straight game (vs. SLU and at Lamar). He has three games with over 300 passing yards this season, becoming the first quarterback in program history to throw for 300 yards in three or more games in a single season since joining Division I.
- He becomes the first quarterback in program history to throw for 400-or-more yards in consecutive games, and the first to throw over 500 in a single game.
- Copeland is also the first SLC quarterback to eclipse 500 yards passing in a single game and just the second in the FCS this season (Davlin Hodges -- Samford -- 562 yards -- Oct. 6).
- When Copeland took the field against New Mexico in week one, it was the first time that a true freshman started at quarterback for the Cardinals in a season-opening game. Previously, UIW had started a redshirt freshman (Trent Brittain, 2013) in a season opener and started a true freshman (Taylor Woods, 2012) in midseason games. In that game, Copeland threw for 328 yards and one touchdown, while running for another.

RECEIVING CORPS

- The UIW offense had two wide receivers eclipse 150 yards at Lamar for the second consecutive game.
- Junior wide receiver Kam Williams hauled in a team-high 153 yards receiving at Lamar, marking his second career game of 150+ yards through the air. Kody Edwards made 10 catches for 150 yards, which marks a new season high for the senior.
- In the game against Southeastern Louisiana on Oct. 6, senior Phillip Baptiste finished with 174 yards on seven catches, the most yards of any UIW receiver this season, and the second most in a single game by any UIW receiver (two tied for first with 188 yards) in program history. Junior WR Kam Williams put up 163 yards on six catches. This was the third-most receiving yards in program history.

RUN LIKE THE DICKENS

- Ra'Quanne Dickens leads conference and is No. 4 in the nation with 8.04 rush yards per carry.
- The Seminole, Florida, native is first in the conference and No. 12 in the nation with 675 rushing yards.
- He ranks first in the SLC and No. 13 nationally with 112.5 rushing yards per game.
- Dickens is third in the conference and No. 34 in the nation with an average of 126.33 all-purpose yards per game.
- Dickens is also first in the conference and No. 4 nationally with nine rushing touchdowns; he is first in the SLC and No. 10 in the nation in total touchdowns.
- Dickens' nine rushing TDs ties the UIW Division I program record for rushing touchdowns in a single season.
- He is two touchdowns away from tying the all-time program record of 11 rushing touchdowns in a single season (set by Broderick Reeves back in 2013).
- Dickens ran for 220 yards against Stephen F. Austin on Sept. 15. He is the only SLC running back to surpass 200 yards in a single game this season.

- Dickens recorded the longest run from scrimmage in program history on Sept. 1 against New Mexico with a 90-yard touchdown run. He then added the fourth longest run from scrimmage in program history in the home opener, vs. SFA on Sept. 15, when he scampered for a 79-yard touchdown run.

SCOUTING MCNEESE

- McNeese is 5-1 overall and 4-0 in Southland Conference action after a 24-21 victory over Abilene Christian on Oct. 6. The Cowboys are ranked No. 6 in both the AFCA Coaches Poll and the STATS FCS Poll.
- James Tabary leads the Cowboys with 95 completions for 1,137 yards and eight touchdowns, in addition to one rushing touchdown. He has thrown four interceptions, but leads the conference and is No. 14 nationally with a .660 completion percentage (95-144).
- The McNeese defense leads the conference and ranks No. 4 nationally in rushing defense, allowing an average of 83.0 yards per game.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

McNeese won last year's game, 55-7, on Oct. 21 at Cowboy Stadium in Lake Charles.

SERIES RECORD

UIW strives for its first win against McNeese. The Cowboys have won the four previous games.

NOTABLE CARDINAL PERFORMANCES AGAINST MCNEESE

- Jordan Scelfo passed for 260 yards in the Nov. 1, 2014, game.
- Joe Zema launched a 69-yard punt in the Oct. 14, 2017, game.
- Desmond Hite had a 96-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the Nov. 21, 2017, game.
- Hite had 147 yards in kickoff returns in the 2017 game.
- Cam Knight had 11 tackles in that same 2017 game.
- Down by 28 points in the third quarter, UIW stormed back with three fourth-quarter touchdowns -- a reception by Kody Edwards, a 53-yard run by Dorland Field, and a quarterback keeper by Trent Brittain -- but the Cowboys recovered the ensuing on-side kick and preserved victory in the Sept. 24, 2016, game.
- Brittain passed for 209 yards in the 2016 game.
- Kicker Ramon Coto Jr. recovered his own on-side kick in the Oct. 25, 2014, game.

RECEIVING VOTES

Following three-straight victories, the Cardinals received votes in the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS Coaches Top 25 Poll and in the STATS FCS Top 25 Media Poll, both released Oct. 8. UIW defeated Stephen F. Austin, 31-7, on Sept. 15 in its home opener. The Cardinals followed that with a 44-34 road victory at Abilene Christian on Sept. 29 before returning home and capturing a dominating 52-34 against Southeastern Louisiana on Oct. 6.

THREE STRAIGHT

- The three victories from Sept. 15-29 marks the first time the Cardinals have won three consecutive games since 2013 (HBU, 24-3, Oct. 26; McMurry, 47-43, Nov. 2; Abilene Christian, 34-31, Nov. 9).
- This is just the third time in program history the Cardinals have won three consecutive games (also Oct. 3-Oct. 24, 2009).

CARDINALS FACE THREE FBS OPPONENTS THIS SEASON

With the announcement that UIW will play Iowa State on Dec. 1, the Cardinals now play three Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents this season. UIW opened its season with games against FBS opponents New Mexico and North Texas. The Iowa State game will be the sixth FBS opponent in UIW football history, and the first game against a proverbial "Power Five" conference school.

SPEAKING OF A CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

UIW also plays top-notch Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) opponents. Four schools represented the Southland Conference in the AFCA FCS Coaches Poll, released on Oct. 15: McNeese (6), Sam Houston (10), Central Arkansas (15), and Nicholls (22). Beginning with Saturday's game against McNeese, the Cardinals play these schools on consecutive weekends.

2018 UIW FOOTBALL

10TH YEAR: CARDINAL FOOTBALL

This is UIW's 10th year of college football. The Cardinals won their inaugural game on Aug. 29, 2009, by a score of 42-39 against Monterey Tech. In that first year, UIW competed as a Division II independent. For the next four seasons, UIW played in the Division II Lone Star Conference. The Cardinals joined the Division I ranks as an independent in 2013 before becoming a member of the Southland Conference in 2014.

138TH YEAR: THE UNIVERSITY OF THE INCARNATE WORD

In 1881, the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, an order of Catholic nuns based in Paris, founded UIW as a center of higher education for young women. In 1970, male students first enrolled in undergraduate programs. UIW is the largest Catholic school in Texas and the fourth-largest private university in the state. Enrollment is approaching 11,000, which includes off-campus learning programs in Texas and international locations.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL COACHING PRODIGY

Eric Morris, at age 32, is one of college football's youngest head coaches. Born on October 26, 1985, he is more than two years younger than another coach who has received a lot of attention for his youth, 34-year-old Lincoln Riley of Oklahoma. Morris is not the youngest head coach in college football, however. Sean Lewis of Kent State, another 32-year-old, is more than six months younger.

HEAD COACH: DEEP TEXAS TIES

UIW's new head coach, Eric Morris, comes to UIW from Texas Tech and has deep Texas ties. He played at Tech before spending five years as its offensive coordinator, and he plans to bring the same exciting style of offense to Benson Stadium. He was also a graduate assistant under University of Houston head coach Kevin Sumlin, who later went on to coach at Texas A&M. Additionally, Morris coached at Washington State under former Texas Tech head coach Mike Leach.

ASSISTANT COACHES: MORE TEXAS TIES

Only one of Eric Morris' 11 position coaches/coordinators does not have a Texas background as either a player, coach, scholar, or native-born son.

PASSION FOR CHANGE

The Cardinals have an all new staff filled with young coaches who have a ton of energy and passion. Throughout the spring and in fall camp, they worked to change the culture of the team and will look to sustain that momentum throughout the season. Many of the players have remarked that they can relate to a youthful coaching staff that seems to have boundless energy.

SIX YEARS WITHOUT NATURAL TURF FOR THE CARDINAL GRIDDER

UIW has played 65 consecutive football game on an artificial playing surface. The Cardinals last played on natural grass on Oct. 13, 2012 at Texas A&M-Kingsville's Javelina Field. All Southland Conference football teams play home games on artificial turf. The Cardinals' streak of consecutive games on a synthetic playing surface will come to an end on Dec. 1, 2018, when they play on natural grass at Jack Trice Stadium in Ames, Iowa.

SPEAKING OF PLAYING SURFACES

UIW enjoys the Southland Conference's newest crop of artificial turf. Benson Stadium received new Field Turf over the summer, replete with a camouflaged end zone pattern in school colors of red and black with white lettering. The installation of the field turf garnered national attention from social media, Sportscenter, and more.

STRENGTH IN NUMBERS

When new UIW head football coach Eric Morris held spring football drills in March, he had a roster that numbered in the sixties. When fall drills began in August, those numbers had increased to 105. The new roster included a 20-player recruiting class announced on Feb. 7 (19 high school prospects and one transfer), plus numerous recruited and walk-on players who joined the team later.

2018 UIW FOOTBALL

MAKING THE GRADE

Since UIW head coach Eric Morris took charge of the Cardinal football team in December 2017, his student-athletes have increased the team GPA -- previously under a 2.5 -- through hard work and dedication. The emphasis that Morris and his assistant coaches placed on classroom attentiveness paid off in one semester. When spring semester grades arrived in late May, the team achieved a collective GPA of 3.2.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Five team captains, chosen by their fellow student-athletes, will provide leadership on and off of the field for the Cardinals this season. Center Tyler Preston from Georgetown and wide receiver Kody Edwards from Mesquite, both seniors, represent the offense. Senior linebacker Silas Stewart, from Wilmington, Delaware, and junior linebacker Mar'kel Cooks, from Irving, Texas, will lead the defense, while special teams members will look to senior kicker Cody Seidel, from Keller, Texas.
