- Hugh Durham Award Coach of the Year Finalist

Will Wade completed his first season as the head coach at McNeese and guided the Cowboys to the Southland Conference regular season and tournament championships while leading the team to its first NCAA Tournament in 22 years.

Along the way, Wade, nicknamed "The American Gangster," led the Cowboys to their most cherished season in school history as a Division I program, posting a 30-4 record and a perfect 18-0 mark in home games at the Legacy Center.

Named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year and the NABC District 22 Coach of the Year, Wade was named a finalist for the Jim Phelan and Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year Awards and earned a vote as the AP Coach of the Year.

His 2023-24 season got started after serving a 10-game suspension and we went on to win his first 11 games that included a statement win at Michigan, the program's first-ever victory over a Big Ten school. The Nashville native notched his 200th-career win on January 6 against Texas A&M-Commerce and ended the season at 22-2, his best record in a season as a head coach.

Two of his players this past season, Shahada Wells and Christian Shumate, earned top honors from the Southland Conference – Wells the league's Player and Newcomer of the Year while Shumate garnered Defensive Player of the Year accolades. Both were named to the All-Defensive team as well.

As a team, the Cowboys ranked in the top five in the nation in five different categories – 2nd in scoring margin (17.7), 3rd in turnover margin (6.7) and winning percentage (88.2), 4th in field goal percent defense (38.9) and 5th in steals per game (10.3).

McNeese was one of just seven teams in the nation to finish with at least 30 wins (NCAA champion UConn 37, NCAA runner-up Purdue 34, Houston 32, Indiana State 32, James Madison 32, and Grandy Canyon 30).

The Cowboys also garnered votes in the AP and Coaches Top 25 polls for the first time in school history and were named the nation's team of the week three different times.

Through 10 seasons in his career, Wade has compiled a 218-98 overall record with stops at Chattanooga, VCU and LSU before coming to McNeese. He's appeared in the NCAA Tournament six times.

At LSU, Wade's five-year tenure is noted for consistent winning and a return to interest in the basketball program.

During his time in Baton Rouge, the Tigers won a Southeastern Conference regular season championship in 2019, advanced to four post-season tournaments (including consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 2019, 2021 and 2022) and advanced to an SEC Tournament championship game for the first time since 1993.

LSU in his last four seasons (2019-22) won 48 regular season SEC games, tied for the second most of any team over that period.

LSU won 20 games or more in three-of-his-five seasons and finished his time at LSU with a record of 105-51 with 196 career wins for his nine years as a head coach. He finished 55-33 in the SEC over that time. His 105 wins made him the fourth winningest coach in LSU Basketball history.

The Tigers advanced to the round of 16 in the NIT in 2018, to the Sweet 16 in the 2019 NCAA Championship, to the second round of the NAAs in 2021 and a tournament appearance in 2022.

In 2019, Coach Wade, his staff and players put together a team that posted a 16-2 record in the Southeastern Conference, winning the 11th regular season title in school history.

Wade has also brought analytics and trends to his coaching practices at LSU and his ability to quickly know situations and tendencies proved beneficial to the Tigers in his five seasons.

The highlight of Wade's five years came in 2019 when the Tigers won their first SEC title in 10 years and won two games in the NCAA Tournament to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2006.

The native of Nashville, Tennessee, directed VCU to a 51-20 record and two NCAA Tournament appearances in 2015-2016 and 2016-2017. The 2016 Rams advanced to the second round of the tournament, defeating seventh-seed Oregon State before losing to Oklahoma. Wade was the youngest head coach in the NCAA Tournament in 2016. In 2017, VCU lost to St. Mary's in the first round of the NCAA tourney.

The Rams were 28-8 over his two years in the Atlantic 10 Conference, posting 14-4 records both years. The team was 25-11 in 2016 and earned a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference regular season crown. The 2017 team won 26 games and finished second in the league.

Wade previously served at VCU as an assistant with the Rams under Shaka Smart from 2009-13. VCU was 113-37 during that time, reached three NCAA Tournaments and won the 2012 Colonial Athletic Association Championship. He was part of the staff in 2011 when VCU advanced from the NCAA "First Four" all the way to the Final Four in Houston.

Wade is credited with being a key figure in four top non-power five recruiting classes in his four seasons at VCU.

Prior to becoming the head coach at VCU, Wade served as the head coach at Chattanooga for the 2013-14 and 2014-15 seasons.

His first Mocs squad went 18-15 in 2014, finishing 12-6 and second in regular season Southern Conference play. The 18 wins overall were the most by the program since 2008-09 and the 12 wins in league games was the highest total since 2010-11. The team made the school's first postseason appearance since 2009 in the CIT.

Wade was honored with the Anton Foy Southern Conference Coach of the Year award for his efforts in 2014.

The Mocs won 22 games in 2015 and finished 15-3 in the league as Wade guided Chattanooga to its first 20-win season since 2004-05. He finished his two seasons there at 40-25 and 27-7 in league play. In the two seasons prior to his arrival, Chattanooga was 24-40 overall and 13-23 in SoCon play.

Wade was VCU Head Coach Shaka Smart's first hire upon being named the head VCU coach in 2009.

That reputation was cemented prior to his arrival on the VCU campus. He served as an assistant to Tommy Amaker at Harvard in 2007-08 and 2008-09. Much like at VCU, he was Amaker's first hire.

Wade's coaching start came at Clemson where he served as Director of Basketball Operations (2006-07) and Graduate Assistant (2005-06) after four seasons as a student manager (2002-05). There he worked for coaches Larry Shyatt (2002-03) and Oliver Purnell (2004-07).

In eight years on coaching staffs at Clemson, Harvard and VCU, the teams had a record of 177-97 with six postseason appearances (2005-13).

Wade is married to the former Lauren Deason, and the couple has one daughter, Caroline Elizabeth.
