One of the Deans of the coaching fraternity in the Southland Conference, Justin Hill enters his 12th season at the helm of the McNeese Cowboys in 2025. He recently had a three-peat in SLC championship seasons from 2019-21, claiming four Southland titles in six seasons.

Hill recently concluded his 11th season with the Cowboys, leading them to their fourth championship game appearance in the Southland Conference Tournament in five seasons. Reaching 32 victories on the season, he recorded his ninth season with 30 or more victories, a program record, surpassing Tony Robichaux with seven. 2020 was cut short due to Covid with the team only playing 17 games on the season. One player was named to the 2024 SLC All-Conference First Team in Cooper Hext with three members of the squad earning a spot on the All-SLC Defensive Team (Hext, Conner Westenburg, Cameron LeJeune).

During the 2023 campaign, Hill recorded his 300th victory on May 23, surpassing Tony Robichaux's former mark of 263 set on May 20, 2022. Entering the 2024 season with 301 all-time wins, Hill is looking to add more hardware to a trophy case that already includes two SLC Coach of the Year Awards (2017, 2022), two SLC Tournament Championships (2019, 2021) and two SLC regular season titles (2017, 2022).

His teams have won 30 or more games in eight of his 10 years with one season, 2020, cut short due to the Covid pandemic. Most recently, Hill guided the Cowboys to a 35 win season in 2023. In his first season in 2014, Hill guided the Cowboys to 30 wins and followed that up with three more 30-win seasons to become the first coach in school history to win at least 30 games in his first four seasons. By doing so, he became the second-fastest coach in program history to tally 60+ wins in his first two seasons.

Hill quickly made a name for himself in his initial season after becoming the first head coach since Mike Bianco in 1998 to win 30 or more games in his first season as the skipper for the Cowboys. He also was the first coach since Todd Butler to win in his debut, defeating Chicago State. Five school records, six NCAA records and one Southland Conference record were either tied or broken by Hill's first McNeese team.

Throughout his young career, Hill has coached or recruited 38 players that have gone on to play in the professional ranks (31 drafted and 5 signing as free agents), 12 All-Americans, two conference players of the year, a conference hitter of the year, two NCBWA Stoppers of the Year, a conference pitcher of the year, relief pitcher of the year, freshman of the year, conference tournament MVP, and a Louisiana pitcher of the year.

Hill's accomplishments at McNeese include defeating six nationally-ranked opponents during his tenure as skipper. One notable victory came in the form of a 7-0 shutout of Hill's alma matter at LSU in Baton Rouge. Spanning from 2019-2022, he oversaw a 12-game win streak in the Southland Conference Tournament, going 4-0 in in 2019 and 2021 (no 2020 tournament) before winning four more in the 2022 championships before falling to the SLC Tournament Champion Southeastern.

Prior to joining the Pokes, Hill made stops at West Monroe High School as an assistant, Northwestern State, LSU, Sam Houston State, Southeastern, and UL-Monroe before making his head coaching debut.

Hill began his playing career at Mississippi Delta Community College before transferring to Bossier Parish Community College. During his playing days, Hill pitched at LSU for the legendary Skip Bertman. A two-year letterwinner and academic All-SEC performer in 2001, Hill was also part of the Tigers' 2001 and 2002 NCAA Regional Championship teams. Hill appeared in 19 games in his final season at LSU, throwing 19 innings while compiling a 1-1 record with two saves and 27 strikeouts before a shoulder injury ended his season.

Hill has learned from some of the best head coaches in college baseball, including legendary coaches Skip Bertman and Mark Johnson, former Southeastern Louisiana head coach Jay Artigues, and Mitch Gaspard.

The West Monroe native graduated from LSU in 2002 and earned his master's degree from Northwestern State in 2005. Hill is married to the former Melissa Rawls. The couple has two daughters Lily and Rylie.
