One of the Deans of the coaching fraternity in the Southland Conference, Justin Hill enters his 12th season at the helm of the McNeese Cowboys in 2025. He recently had a three-peat in SLC championship seasons from 2019-21, claiming four Southland titles in six seasons.

Hill recently concluded his 11th season with the Cowboys, leading them to their fourth championship game appearance in the Southland Conference Tournament in five seasons. Reaching 32 victories on the season, he recorded his ninth season with 30 or more victories, a program record, surpassing Tony Robichaux with seven. 2020 was cut short due to Covid with the team only playing 17 games on the season. One player was named to the 2024 SLC All-Conference First Team in Cooper Hext with three members of the squad earning a spot on the All-SLC Defensive Team (Hext, Conner Westenburg, Cameron LeJeune).

During the 2023 campaign, Hill recorded his 300th victory on May 23, surpassing Tony Robichaux's former mark of 263 set on May 20, 2022.

Entering the 2024 season with 301 all-time wins, Hill is looking to add more hardware to a trophy case that already includes two SLC Coach of the Year Awards (2017, 2022), two SLC Tournament Championships (2019, 2021) and two SLC regular season titles (2017, 2022).

His teams have won 30 or more games in eight of his 10 years with one season, 2020, cut short due to the Covid pandemic. Most recently, Hill guided the Cowboys to a 35 win season in 2023. In his first season in 2014, Hill guided the Cowboys to 30 wins and followed that up with three more 30-win seasons to become the first coach in school history to win at least 30 games in his first four seasons. By doing so, he became the second-fastest coach in program history to tally 60+ wins in his first two seasons.

His 2022 team saw the Cowboys capture the SLC Player of the Year (Payton Harden), Pitcher of the Year (Grant Rogers) and Relief Pitcher of the Year (Cameron Foster) awards in addition to his coach of the year accolade. In all, 17 Cowboys earned postseason all-conference honors including four on the first team (Harden, Rogers, Foster and third baseman Josh Leslie. Foster also earned All-America honors and was drafted by the New York Mets in the MLB Draft while he, Harden and second baseman Brad Burckel earned ABCA All-South Region honors.

In 2021, the Cowboys won the Southland Conference Tournament with a perfect 4-0 record and extending his post-season conference tourney winning streak to eight games. Outscoring opponents 35-5. A total of five players earned All-Southland Conference honors - RF Clayton Rasbeary, 2B Nate Fisbeck and LHP Will Dion to the 1st team; DH Tré Obregon III to the 2nd team; and CF Payton Harden on the 3rd team. Will Dion was named the league's Pitcher of the Year to become the fifth Cowboy in school history to garner the conference award.

In his first season in 2014, Hill guided the Cowboys to 30 wins and followed that up with three more 30-win seasons to become the first coach in school history to win at least 30 games in his first four seasons and has since added another to his resume.

During his tenure, 13 Cowboys have been selected in the Major League Draft - Cameron Foster (Mets) 2022, Will Dion (Guardians) 2021, Shane Selman (A's), Carson Maxwell (Diamondbacks), Cayne Ueckert (Cubs), Bryan King (Cubs), Robbie Podorsky (Padres) and Collin Kober (Mariners) in 2017; Kaleb Fontenot (Rangers) in 2016; Andrew Guillotte (Blue Jays) in 2015; and Michael Clemens (Pirates) in 2014. Under Hill's supervision, McNeese has earned 29 All-SLC.

Hill has mentored three Freshmen All-Americans in Joe Provenzano in 2014 and Bryan King in 2016 by Collegiate Baseball and Will Dion in 2019 by the NCBWA. Provenzano was as a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American (2017, 2018) while Bryan King received the prestigious academic award in 2019 and in 2022, Julian Gonzales received the academic award.

The 2019 campaign saw the Cowboys post a 35-26 overall record that included a shutout win over nationally ranked LSU in Baton Rouge. McNeese entered the conference tournament as a 5-seed and swept through the slate with an unblemished 4-0 mark to capture the team's first NCAA appearance since the 2003 season. The Cowboys competed in the Nashville Regional where it dropped two hard-fought games to Indiana State (6-5) and Ohio State (9-8 in 13 innings).

Five Cowboys were named all-conference that season - DH Clayton Raspberry (1st team), 2B Nate Fisbeck (2nd team), 3B Carson Maxwell (3rd team), UT Jake Dickerson (3rd team), P Will Dion (HM). The third baseman Maxwell also became the program's first-ever Cowboy player to be awarded with the ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove award and was named to the league's All-Defensive Team.

Prior to a rebuilding year in 2018, Hill led the Cowboys to the 2017 Southland Conference regular season title with a 22-8 league mark, a school record for conference victories, and a 37-20 overall record. It was the fourth regular season title in school history and first since the 2006 season. He was named the SLC Coach of the Year, the first in his career.

That team was chopped full of talent as McNeese led the league in hitting (.305) and home runs (60) as well as ranking second in runs scored (410) as well as saves (17) and earned runs allowed (231). McNeese put eight players on the All-Conference squad, including outfielder Shane Selman who was named the league's Hitter of the Year after he posted a .333 average with 14 home runs, 16 doubles and 59 RBIs.

The 2016 season was full of accomplishments for Hill and his Cowboys as they scored a program-best five victories over ranked opponents, including a 7-0 victory against ninth-ranked LSU in Baton Rouge. In conference play, McNeese captured 15 or more league wins for the third straight year, for just the second time in program history. In addition, the Pokes placed four on the all-conference squad and recorded 13 total victories over Top-100 RPI programs. The 2016 Cowboy team finished out the year by having played its way into the SLC Tournament semi-finals for the second time in four seasons.

With a 32-25 overall record in 2015, the Cowboys recorded 30 or more wins for the 17th time in program history and back-to-back 30 win seasons for the first time since 2002-2003. Following 2015, Hill became just the third McNeese head coach to guide the team to back-to-back 30 win seasons in his first two seasons.

In just his second year as the McNeese skipper, Justin Hill led McNeese to back-to-back 30+ win seasons for the first time in over a decade, finished with the most conference victories (18) since 2006 and guided the Pokes to their fourth consecutive league tournament. He became the second fastest coach in program history to score 60 or more wins in only his first two seasons. Hill mentored Senior CLASS Award finalist and McNeese all-time hits leader Andrew Guillotte, NCBWA Stopper of the Year candidate Collin Kober and Johnny Bench Award nominee Cameron Toole in the process.

McNeese's 30-win season in 2014 was the program's first in nearly five years while the Cowboys compiled 17 conference victories, the best since 2012. The two wins in the SLC Tournament was a team best since picking up two victories in 2010. Hill also became the first head coach since Mike Bianco in 1998 to win 30 or more games in his first season as the skipper for the Cowboys. He also was the first coach since Todd Butler to win in his debut as he picked up a victory over Chicago State. Five school records, six NCAA records and one Southland Conference record were either tied or broken by Hill's first McNeese team. He also coached four All-Southland Conference student-athletes and three All-Louisiana honorees.
