WEEKEND OVERVIEW

- UNT embarks on its first road trip of American Conference play this weekend as it heads out to East Carolina and Charlotte.
- North Texas battles the Pirates Friday evening at 5 p.m. CT and concludes the weekend against Charlotte on Sunday at 12 p.m. CT. Both matches will be available for streaming on ESPN+.
- The Mean Green and Pirates have split four all-time matchups in a series that began just 13 years ago. UNT won a four-set contest last season at its home venue but is still looking for its first victory at Minges Coliseum. It is 0-2 in those road meetings, last traveling to Greenville in 2024.
- UNT owns a 9-3 advantage in the all-time series against Charlotte, which dates back to 2005. The 49ers snapped a seven-match losing streak against the Mean Green last season in Denton, but North Texas is 5-1 in six all-time meetings at Charlotte and has won its last four trips to Halton Arena.
- With a pair of wins this weekend, UNT would improve to 3-1 in conference play for the second time in the past three years. Last season, the Mean Green lost three of their first four conference matches before rattling off a six consecutive wins.

UNT QUICK HITS

- The Mean Green enter the long weekend with an 8-5 overall record and a 1-1 mark in American Conference action.
- UNT opened league play last Friday with a dramatic comeback victory over Florida Atlantic in which it battled off match point and ultimately won in five sets. It then fell to Tulane on Sunday, losing each set by three points or less.
- Dave Fleming is in his second season at the helm of the Mean Green program, compiling a 29-14 record during that time. In Fleming's debut season, UNT won 20+ matches for the first time since 2017 and finished fourth in the American.
- Outside hitter Jahniya Jackson has taken a significant leap in her second season with the program, leading the Mean Green with 154 kills (3.08/set) thus far. She also owns a pair of double-doubles and has topped the team in kills eight times.
- The North Texas lineup features a strong middle blocker duo in Loredana Fouonji and Addison Achilles, who have each started every match this season. Fouonji was a Second Team All-Conference performer in 2025, while Achilles is averaging 1.45 kills per set and currently holds the team lead for blocks at 49.0. Fouonji is just behind in the category with 43.0 of her own.
- Sophomore Alessandra Romo has earned the start at libero in all 13 matches this season and ranks second in the league with 189 digs (3.78/set). She was named American Conference Defensive Player of the Week back on Aug. 31 for an excellent performance at the ACU Invitational.
- UNT continues to receive significant contributions from its setter duo of Sidney Soria and Olivia Branum, who are combining for 9.88 assists per set. Just a freshman, Branum's five double-doubles are the most on the team while Soria produced one of UNT's most impressive performances of the season last Friday with 30 assists and 15 digs against the Owls.

PREVIOUSLY ON...

- North Texas split a pair of matches last weekend while opening American Conference play at the UNT Volleyball Center.
- The Mean Green secured a comeback victory over Florida Atlantic in the league opener on Friday, overcoming a 2-1 deficit and match point to pull out the five-set win. Three UNT players recorded double-digit kills for the sixth time this season, a group that was paced by 16 from Lillian Croshaw.
- On Sunday, Tulane pulled out three straight sets by three points or less, including two that finished in extra points. Loredana Fouonji was UNT's top performer of the day, producing nine kills on 12 attacks alongside four blocks defensively.

American Preseason All-Conference

ALESSANDRA ROMO

American Conference Defensive Player of the Week (8/31)

LIFE IN THE LEAGUE

- The Mean Green enter the second weekend of American Conference play looking to build on the success they encountered in the league last season. UNT went 11-5 throughout the 2025 conference slate and finished fourth despite being voted 11th in the Preseason Coaches Poll.
- North Texas was selected No. 6 in the American Preseason Coaches Poll ahead of the 2026 campaign.
- The UNT volleyball program has won four regular season league titles, the latest coming in 2017 as part of Conference USA. It also captured the 1995 Southland Conference Tournament championship to clinch the program's sole trip to the NCAA Tournament.

FRIENDLY CONFINES

- Opened in 2006, the UNT Volleyball Center provides the Mean Green with an intimidating atmosphere. The intimate arena seats 450 people with a low ceiling, recessed basketball goals and a lively pep band to give UNT a distinct home-court advantage.
- North Texas finished the 2025 season with a 7-3 record at the UNT Volleyball Center for its highest home winning percentage (.700) since the 2020-21 season. It has registered a winning record at the venue for 16 consecutive seasons and holds an overall record of 177-101 (.636) there.
- After announcing six sellouts throughout the 2025 campaign, the Mean Green have already sold out the UNT volleyball center three times this season, including Sunday's match against Tulane.
- The UNT volleyball program made history on Sept. 6 when 2,377 fans piled into the Super Pit to watch it battle 17th-ranked Florida. That attendance total set a new program record, crushing UNT's previous high of 1,414 which came against Miami (FL) back on Sept. 1, 2024.

RETURNING PRODUCTION

- North Texas returned five of six starters and its top two liberos from a 2025 squad that went 21-9 and finished fourth in the American Conference standings. Overall, the Mean Green retained 90.8% of their kills, 88.5% of their blocks and 78.7% of their digs.
- Among that group of returners were Reagan Bedell, Lillian Croshaw, and Jahniya Jackson, who led the team in kills last season with 340, 304 and 276, respectively.
- 2025 Second Team All-Conference selection Loredana Fouonji heads the middle blockers alongside Addison Achilles, who averaged 1.68 kills per set and was the team's second-leading blocker (85.0).
- Sophomore liberos Dakota Mitchell (team-best 387 digs) and Alessandra Romo (214 digs) are back as staples of the Mean Green lineup while sophomore Sidney Soria looks to lock down the setter position. Soria compiled 562 assists last year over 114 sets.
- Through 13 matches in 2026, every UNT starter has been a returner from the previous year.

DAVE FLEMING

HEAD COACH
2ND SEASON • DENISON UNIVERSITY, 1992

Dave Fleming is in his second season as head coach of the UNT volleyball program after being hired on December 24, 2024. Prior to joining the Mean Green, Fleming spent two decades leading Colorado Mesa in Grand Junction, Colo.

In Fleming's first season at the helm, North Texas compiled a 21-9 overall record to reach 20 victories for the first time since 2017. That marked an 11-win improvement from the Mean Green's previous season and the highest winning percentage (.700) by a first-year head coach in program history. Despite being voted 11th in the preseason American Conference coaches' poll, Fleming also guided his squad to an 11-5 league record and a fourth-place finish in the regular season standings.

Under Fleming's guidance, middle blocker Loredana Fouonji put together a fantastic season that ultimately earned her Second Team All-Conference honors while setter Alexa Washington recorded four triple-doubles and was one of just nine NCAA players with 100+ kills, 600+ assists and 300+ digs.

Fleming has won at least 20 matches in 10 different seasons throughout his career, including each of the past five. He was one of 10 first-year Division I head coaches to do so last year and reached the milestone mark of 400 career victories on Sept. 20, 2025, against Tarleton State.

While at Colorado Mesa, Fleming went 390-184 (.679) over 20 seasons and holds the program record for career winning percentage. He tallied 258 conference victories and won four league championships, while the Mavericks were included in each AVCA Division II Coaches Top 25 Poll for the final 41 consecutive weeks of his tenure, a streak that dated back to Aug. 29, 2022.

Fleming won four RMAC Coach of the Year awards and added AVCA South Central Region Coach of the Year honors in 2014. He coached 21 All-Americans and 80 All-Conference players, including three RMAC Player of the Year winners, three Setter of the Year honorees and three Freshman of the Year selections.

Before taking the head job at CMU, Fleming was as an assistant coach for UCLA from 2001-04. With him on staff, the Bruins compiled a record of 86-43 and earned four bids to the NCAA Tournament with Elite Eight appearances in 2001, 2003 and 2004. Fleming worked under head coach Andy Banachowski, who ended his 43-year career with six national championships and 1,106 wins.

From 1994-96, Fleming held an assistant coaching role for the USA Women's National Team. He worked under head coach Terry Liskevych as the team helped host the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta after it won the nation's first gold medal in a major competition at the 1995 FIVB World Grand Prix.

He originally began his coaching career as a student assistant with the women's team at Denison University, earning a bachelor's degree in geology with a minor in physical education in 1992. There, Fleming played for and coached the men's club volleyball team while also starting for the varsity tennis team.

In 1994, Fleming graduated from the University of Michigan with a master's degree in kinesiology. During his time in Ann Arbor, he worked as a volunteer assistant coach for the women's team and played for the men's club volleyball team.

Following his stint with USA Volleyball, Fleming became the head coach at Valhalla High School in El Cajon, Calif., where he won coach of the year and a conference championship over two seasons. While in California, Fleming also worked as a club coach for San Diego Volleyball Club (1994-2001) and Sports Shack Volleyball Club (2001-04). In 2012, he was a founding member of Mesa Juniors Volleyball Company in Palisade, Colo., and served as President of the Board of Directors.
