STARTING FIVE

» North Texas concludes its three-game homestand at the Super Pit on Wednesday against Saint Francis. Tipoff is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. and is available for streaming on ESPN+.
» The Mean Green won both games last week to improve to 3-1 on the season. They are undefeated in three games at the Super Pit thus far, beating visitors by 30.3 points per game.
» Sophomore point guard Cherie Spencer has shined all over the floor, averaging 12.5 points, 7.3 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 2.3 steals per game. She's already scored a career-high 22 points and recorded her first collegiate double-double so far this season.
» Longwood transfer Otaifo Esenabhalu is the nation's second-leading rebounder at 14.0 boards per game. She grabbed at least 14 rebounds in three of her first four games.
» Saint Francis is in its first season at the Division III level after transitioning down from DI this past summer. It went 3-26 last season and now joins the Presidents' Athletic Conference.

WHAT 2 WATCH 4
• North Texas concludes its three-game homestand on Wednesday against Saint Francis. Tipoff is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. and can be streamed on ESPN+.
• The Mean Green won back-to-back games last week to improve to 3-1 on the season. Most recently, they outscored Incarnate Word by 27 points in the second half to secure a 75-46 victory.
• It is a home-heavy month of November for the Mean Green, who are already 3-0 at the Super Pit and are scheduled to host three more games before month's end.
• Another win on Wednesday would make it four straight seasons under head coach Jason Burton that UNT has won four of its first games of the year.

CLEANING THE GLASS
• Longwood transfer Otaifo Esenabhalu is well on her way to continuing the rebounding standard set at UNT in recent years.
• Through four games, she ranks second nationally at 14.0 rebounds per game and is top 10 in both offensive and defensive rebounding.
• Esenabhalu has recorded a double-double in each of her past two games, including a 15-point, 14-board performance last time out against Incarnate Word. She has had 23 double-doubles throughout her career.
• She has grabbed at least 14 boards in three of UNT's first four games, highlighted by a career-high 18 in the season opener.
• With Esenabhalu patrolling the paint, the Mean Green lead the conference in rebound margin and total rebounds per game.
• Last season, Megan Nestor compiled 21 double-doubles and led the nation in rebounding at 14.1 per game. The year prior, Tommisha Lampkin averaged 10.1 boards per game and completed her career as the program's all-time leader in rebounds and double-doubles.

CHERIE ON TOP
• Point guard Cherie Spencer is primed for a big sophomore season, averaging 12.5 points, 7.3 rebounds, 4.5 assists and 2.3 steals through four games thus far. She is one of two players in the American Conference reaching those thresholds in all four statistical categories.
• Spencer scored a career-high 22 points in the season opener against Newman, adding seven rebounds, five assists and three steals.
• In the following game at San Diego State, Spencer recorded a double-double with 11 points and a career-high 11 rebounds while tying her career-high with six assists. It was her first career double-double.
• She earned American Honorable Mention weekly honors for her pair of performances.
• Spencer has totalled 18 assists against just seven turnovers through four games.

THE PRICE IS RIGHT
• The program's longest tenured player, guard Chania Price is looking to break out in her third season with the Mean Green.
• Price dropped a career-high 19 points in the win over UIW, increasing her season scoring average to 9.0. She is currently shooting an impressive 45.8% from the field and 50.0% on nearly three 3-point attempts per game.
• Since joining the team ahead of the 2024-25 season, Price has played in all 71 games for the Mean Green. She averaged 6.3 points and 3.2 rebounds per game as a sophomore.

BIRD IN FLIGHT
• Kalysta "Bird" Martin has impressed through her first four games in Denton. She joined the program last spring after spending two seasons at Texas Tech.
• Despite playing less than 20 minutes per game, Martin leads the Mean Green at 14.8 PPG. She is also shooting 44.4% from beyond the arc on 4.5 attempts per game, a percentage that ranks third in the American.
• She has reached double-digit scoring in all four games thus far, including a career-high 18 in the win over HCU.
• A former four-star recruit out of San Antonio, Martin was rated the country's No. 63 player in the class of 2024. She is believed to be the highest-ranked high school recruit to ever suit up for the Mean Green.

WINNING STANDARD
• Since Jason Burton took over as head coach ahead of the 2023-24 season, North Texas leads all American Conference teams in both total wins and league wins.

JASON BURTON

Head Coach
4th season at UNT • 70-33
13th season overall • 241-123

Jason Burton is in his fourth season as head coach of the Mean Green after being hired on March 27, 2023. The ninth head women's basketball coach in UNT history, Burton arrived in Denton after nine seasons as the head coach at East Texas A&M, formerly known as Texas A&M-Commerce.

Since taking over the Mean Green program, Burton has guided UNT to its most successful three-year stretch ever. North Texas is coming off its third straight season winning at least 19 games, a first in program history, and its 67 total wins in that span are the most in any three-year stretch throughout UNT's 50 seasons of competition. It also captured a share of the 2024 American Conference regular season championship, marking the program's second conference title, and appeared in back-to-back national postseason tournaments in 2024 and 2025.

In the three completed seasons since Burton's hiring, UNT's 67 total wins and 39 in league play both lead the American Conference. It also leads the league in several different statistical categories such as points per game (71.6), field goals per game (26.0), field goal percentage (42.8), free throws per game (14.9) and opponent 3-point percentage (28.4). Additionally, North Texas is one of two American Conference teams with three straight top-four finishes in the league standings and the only to have secured true road wins over a power conference opponent in each of the last two years.

Most recently, North Texas went 19-14 during the 2025-26 season and came within a victory of the American Conference tournament finals for the second year in a row. The Mean Green ranked top three among league competitors in both scoring offense and defense, finished tied for fourth in the conference standings and set the program record for 3-pointers in a season with 181. Sharpshooters Andi Schissler and Aysia Proctor played big roles in the record-breaking effort, each making 59 themselves to crack the top five on UNT's single-season list.

The 2025-26 season also saw the breakout of Megan Nestor, who went from NAIA play to Division I star under Burton's tutelage. Despite it only being her fourth year of competitive basketball and first at the DI level, Nestor emerged as one of the most dominant posts in the country by averaging 12.8 points and 14.1 rebounds per game. As the nation's leading rebounder, Nestor ranked top 10 in the country with 21 double-doubles while breaking nearly every UNT and American Conference rebounding record. She collected several postseason awards from the league, including Defensive Player of the Year and All-Conference First Team, and eventually spent time with the WNBA's Chicago Sky the following summer.

In his first season at the helm, Burton led North Texas to its first conference title since 1986 and an appearance in the inaugural Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament. He pioneered the Mean Green to the third best turnaround in Division I and best among all first-year head coaches with a 23-9 record.

He was named American Conference Coach of the Year and set single-season program records for regular season wins (23), conference wins (13), points per game (74.3), field goal percentage (46.3) and total points scored (2,379). His very first game as head coach also saw the Mean Green set a school record for points in a 117-42 victory over UNT Dallas in the season opener.

The Mean Green then built off that success during the 2024-25 campaign, setting program records for total wins, conference wins and home wins for the second consecutive season. North Texas posted an impressive 25-9 record on the season and went 15-3 in league play, good for a second-place finish in the regular season standings. Burton's squad continued its success at the Super Pit with a 16-1 home record, including an unbeaten conference slate that eventually stretched to a program-record 13 straight conference home victories.

Burton once again led UNT back to the postseason, earning a berth in the WNIT. There, it advanced to the Round of 16 after capturing the program's first ever win in the tournament with a 78-67 triumph over UT Arlington.

Under Burton, North Texas has accumulated 14 postseason honors from the American Conference. That includes six All-Conference selections, which is tied for most in the league during that span, and four individual award winners. Nestor and Proctor were UNT's most recent All-Conference selections in 2026, while Tommisha Lampkin was named to the First Team in each of the two previous years.

The all-time winningest coach in ETAMU history, Burton's East Texas A&M teams produced five All-Americans, three Lone Star Conference Player of the Year honorees, one South Central Region Player of the Year, three all-region players, 25 all-conference selections and five all-defensive picks. In total, Burton went 171-90 in nine seasons at ETAMU with four bids to the NCAA Division II Tournament.

In his final year at ETAMU, Burton guided the program through its first season transitioning to Division I competition. The Lions went 10-8 throughout league play in the Southland Conference before reaching the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Burton led the Lions to a program-best ranking of No. 2 in the WBCA poll and the top spot in the D2SIDA rankings during the 2021-22 season. The Lions eventually played in the LSC Championship for the third year in a row and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the fourth straight time. His squad won 27 games that season, the second most in program history, and beat the Colorado School of Mines to advance to a regional semifinal in the NCAA Tournament.

During the shortened 2020-21 campaign, the Lions posted a 14-4 record, were ranked in the top 25 all season, won the LSC North Division title and earned their first NCAA Tournament win in over a decade. Future Mean Green stars Dyani Robinson and DesiRay Kernal were named Honorable Mention All-Americans by the WBCA after the season.

ETAMU's most successful season during the Burton era was 2019-20 when it tied the program record for wins with a 28-3 record and qualified for the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back years for the first time ever. Burton was named Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year and his team set program records for wins in a season (28), conference wins (20), consecutive wins (25), scoring margin (+18.4) and scoring defense (56.8). East Texas A&M won its first 25 games that year and earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament before it was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The first five seasons of Burton's tenure at ETAMU showed steady improvement with win totals of 14, 16, 20, 18 and 20. The 20 victories in 2017 and 2019 marked the just the second and third 20-win seasons in program history.

A native of Plano, Texas, Burton joined ETAMU for the 2014-15 season following a two-year stint as a men's basketball assistant coach at Texas State and one year as head boys coach at McKinney Boyd High School. Prior to that, he served as an assistant coach and later associate head coach for the ETAMU men's program from 2007 to 2011.

Burton earned a BA in Business Administration in 2007 from Austin College, where he also played on the basketball team, and MBA from East Texas A&M two years later. He is married to the former Alexyndra Guiton, and the couple has two children, Braylon and Jalen.
