VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
ACU, 2000

Jared Mosley was named Vice President and Director of Athletics at the University of North Texas on December 10, 2022. In his role, he leads UNT Athletics and its more than 300 student-athletes.

In 2025-26, North Texas continued its strong trajectory under Mosley with the second-best win percentage in the American Conference across all team sports. The Mean Green won a pair of conference titles in women's indoor track and field as well as diving in 2025-26 while also setting a school record with 12 wins on the football field.

In the 2025 football season, the Mean Green earned a spot in the American Conference title game for the first time in program history and won the Isleta New Mexico Bowl, the program's first bowl win since the 2014 Heart of Dallas Bowl. In addition, UNT sold out DATCU Stadium for the first time in its contest against South Florida and set a school record with an average home attendance of 24,493.

In the classroom, North Texas had the highest spring semester GPA in history of 3.48. The Mean Green had success across the board with every team on campus earning above a 3.20 semester GPA and a cumulative GPA over a 3.0. It was just the second time in program history UNT met those marks across the board as a department. In addition, 10 teams posted both semester and cumulative GPAs over a 3.4.

Mosley was also instrumental in finishing fundraising for Phase One of the expansion of the UNT Athletic Center, including securing the largest gift in program history of over $4 million from Tom and Kristy Weger for the Weger Family Strength and Conditioning Center which broke ground in May of 2026.

UNT also renamed its soccer and track and field stadium to Norma Knobel Hunt Stadium under his direction in March of 2026.

As evidence of his strong performance leading the Mean Green, Mosley was named as one of the Top ADs in America by Silver Waves Media in June of 2026.

In the 2024-25 academic year, the Mean Green completed their second season in the American Conference, finishing with the league's second-best overall winning percentage and the second-best two-year win percentage since joining The American in 2023. UNT teams combined for 130 victories, the second most in school history and the highest total since 2019.

Additionally, membership in the Mean Green Scholarship Fund grew to a record 2,404 donors as of June 2025, a 105% increase year over year.

Mean Green student-athletes continued to excel in the classroom, posting their 12th consecutive semester with a department-wide GPA above 3.0. Over 73% of student-athletes recorded a GPA of 3.0 or better, and the department achieved a record 3.284 GPA during the Spring 2024 semester.

During the 2023-24 season, UNT enjoyed a strong debut in The American, with six programs reaching postseason competition. Women's basketball captured the Mean Green's first American championship, while the athletic department posted a combined winning record for a program-best seventh consecutive year.

In Mosley's first year leading the department, UNT celebrated several significant achievements. The women's golf program claimed its third consecutive Conference USA championship, the track and field program qualified three athletes for the NCAA Championships, marking the program's most qualifiers in 30 years, and the men's basketball program captured its first-ever National Invitation Tournament (NIT) championship.

In 2023, Mosley led negotiations for a new 15-year naming rights agreement for DATCU Stadium and guided the department through its transition into the American Conference.

A native of Lockney, Texas, Mosley is the 15th Director of Athletics in UNT history. Before his appointment, he served as UNT's Associate Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for more than six years (2016–2022), managing financial, operational, and administrative responsibilities while providing oversight for human resources, facilities and event management, student services, marketing, promotions, and strategic communications. He also served as sport administrator for both men's and women's basketball, assisted with football operations, and coordinated football scheduling. During his tenure, seven UNT programs combined to win 17 conference or division championships, with the department achieving its highest overall winning percentage in the modern era.

VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Before joining North Texas, Mosley served as CEO and President of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame from 2014 to 2016. He previously spent more than a decade at Abilene Christian University, including 10 years as Director of Athletics from 2004 to 2014, where he oversaw more than $30 million in facility construction and renovations and led the university's transition to NCAA Division I. Under his leadership, athletics fundraising increased by over 650 percent, surpassing $1.7 million in his final year, and he secured the lead gift for ACU's on-campus football stadium.

Mosley, who has more than 20 years of experience in athletics administration, began his career at ACU as Associate Athletic Director from 2001 to 2003. He earned both his Bachelor of Science in 2000 and master's degree in education administration in 2003 from Abilene Christian. A former standout on the basketball court, Mosley was inducted into the ACU Sports Hall of Fame in 2015 after finishing his playing career as the 11th-leading scorer and eighth-leading rebounder in program history.

Mosley and his wife, Trish, have three children: Jaden, Jaxon, and Blair.

HEAD COACH NEAL BROWN

HEAD COACH
UMASS, 2002

Neal Brown was named the 21st head coach in UNT Football history on Dec. 2, 2025.

Brown joins the Mean Green as one of the most respected offensive minds in the country, with 10 seasons of experience as a head coach at the FBS level and nearly 25 years of collegiate coaching experience.

Across 10 seasons as a head coach at both Troy and West Virginia, Brown compiled a 72-51 overall record with seven bowl appearances, five bowl victories, three 10+ win seasons and the 2017 Sun Belt Conference title. He was also the 2017 Sun Belt Coach of the Year at Troy.

In six seasons as the head coach at West Virginia, Brown posted a 37-35 overall record and helped the Mountaineers earn four bowl berths. The 2023 season saw Brown coach WVU to a 9-4 overall record, the most single season wins for the program since 2016, and a final ranking of No. 25 overall in the US LBM Coaches Poll.

From 2015-18 as the head coach at Troy, Brown coached the Trojans to a 35-16 overall record including a remarkable 31-8 mark from 2016-18. In that span, Brown's .794 winning percentage was the third highest in FBS, trailing only Alabama's Nick Saban and Clemson's Dabo Swinney who each won National Championships during that stretch. He was also one of just six coaches to win 10+ games in 2016, 2017 and 2018.

In his head coaching career, Brown has coached seven NFL Draft Picks and 24 total players in the NFL.

With Brown at the helm, the Mountaineers had six players named First Team All-Americans including Wyatt Milum (2024), Beanie Bishop Jr. (2023) and Darius Stills (2020) who were all consensus All-Americans. It was the first time since 2002-06 that WVU had three or more consensus All-America selections in a five-year span.

In addition, Brown's tenure saw West Virginia players rake in a total of 51 All-America honors. In the classroom, the Mountaineers had two National Football Foundation (NFF) Scholar Athletes and three CSC Academic All-Americans while having a 90+% Graduation Success Rate (GSR) for three consecutive years for the first time in program history, including a program-best 94% GSR in 2023 and 2024.

In 2025, Brown was the Special Assistant to Head Coach Steve Sarkisian at the University of Texas. Brown helped the Longhorns knock off three AP Top 10 opponents, the only FBS team in the country to do so.

The 2024 season saw West Virginia win at least six for the fourth time in five seasons with a 6-6 record in the regular season to earn a berth in the Scooter's Coffee Frisco Bowl. WVU finished the season 3-1 in one-score games and three of their six losses with Brown as the head coach came against AP Top 25 opponents.
Brown coached OL Wyatt Milum to a prolific season, helping him become just the 14th consensus All-American in the history of WVU football.

In 2023, West Virginia was picked to finish last in the Big 12 Conference preseason poll by the league media. However, Brown, his coaching staff and the entire program used that selection as the motivation needed to generate the best year of Mountaineer football since 2018, registering a 9-4 overall record, including a 30-10 win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl, a 6-3 mark in the league, and a No. 25 final ranking in the AFCA Final Coaches Poll.

Brown faced arguably the toughest schedule in his tenure. He earned Co-Big 12 Coach of the Year honors by Heartland College Sports. The conference finish tied the Mountaineers for fourth place – 10 spots better than originally predicted. Since becoming a member of the Big 12 Conference in 2012, WVU had only one better season, 2016, when it won seven league games.

The Mountaineers had one of the best offenses in the nation, producing the best rushing mark in Power Five football, averaging 228.9 yards per game and scoring a league-tying best 32 rushing touchdowns. WVU was the only school in the league to finish with more than 2,000 rushing yards in conference games (2,211). West Virginia currently leads the nation with 16 straight games of producing more than 140 rushing yards, three more than the next team on the list.

West Virginia gave up a league-low 10 sacks for the season, including only three in league games, ranking No. 1 in the Big 12 and No. 2 among Power Five schools. That included 450 yards or more of total offense in seven games and producing 500 or more yards five times. WVU scored 30 or more points in seven of its last eight games. The defense, meanwhile, was No. 1 in the Big 12 in sacks (33) and No. 2 in tackles for loss (84).

In 2022, the Mountaineers won two of the final three games, including victories against Oklahoma and at Oklahoma State. The win over Oklahoma marked the first Big 12 Conference win over the Sooners, and the win over the Cowboys was the first since 2014 and snapped the Cowboys' 14-game, home winning streak. WVU also defeated 2021 Big 12 Champion Baylor and rival Virginia Tech to hold on to the Black Diamond Trophy.

The 2021 squad finished with six wins and had its share of positives, including earning a bowl bid to the Guaranteed Rate Bowl, its second in a row under Brown. Running back Leddie Brown rushed for 1,000 yards for the second year in a row, and WVU was fourth in the Big 12 in average passing yards per game (247.9). The Mountaineer defense finished No. 5 nationally in red-zone defense, No. 18 in the fewest first downs allowed and No. 29 in third-down defense.

The Mountaineers defeated No. 15 Virginia Tech, marking the highest-ranked win of the Brown era and also defeated No. 22 Iowa State.

West Virginia had a program-best 24 student-athletes named to the Academic All-Big 12 Teams, safety Sean Mahone was a finalist for the William Campbell Trophy, the academic Heisman, and he earned a spot on the National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Team. Kicker Casey Legg was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza National Kicking Award and WVU had nine players named to one of three postseason Big 12 all-conference teams by media organizations.

Frazier was named to the Walter Camp Football Foundation and American Football Coaches Association's All-America teams, and Milum was named to three freshman All-America teams. Defensive lineman Dante Stills was named an All-Big 12 First Team honoree, and Frazier was on the second team.

The 2020 season while dealing with the Covid-19 pandemic, Brown led the Mountaineers to a 6-4 overall over and 4-4 in the Big 12. Brown made his first bowl appearance as the coach of West Virginia against Army in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, winning the game, 24-21.

Five players earned All-America honors, led by Darius Stills, who was the school's first Consensus All-American since 2006 and 12th in school history. Tony Fields II, Tykee Smith and Dante Stills were named to at least one All-America team, and freshmen Zach Frazier and Akheem Mesidor were named to Freshman All-America teams. In April, Fields was drafted by the Cleveland Browns, while five players signed free-agent contracts.

The Mountaineers finished the 2019 season with a 5-7 mark. WVU finished the regular season winning two of the final three games, at Kansas State and at TCU, and had a 3-3 mark on the road, including a 3-2 road record in the Big 12 Conference.

Five of Brown's players were named to All-Big 12 postseason teams, and Colton McKivitz was named the Big 12's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year. McKivitz earned spots on two All-America teams - Walter Camp Football Foundation's Second Team and the Associated Press' Third Team, and Tykee Smith was named a freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America. McKivitz played in the Reese's Senior Bowl and was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to his time at WVU, Brown spent four seasons as the head coach at Troy University (2015-18), compiling a 35-16 record, including 3-0 in bowl games. In his final three seasons, the Trojans posted a 31-8 record (.795), tying for the highest winning percentage nationally among non-Power 5 schools.

In the final two seasons of the Brown era, Troy won 17 of its last 20 games and 22 of its last 26 games. After directing the Trojans to the 2017 Sun Belt Conference Championship, Brown was honored as the league's coach of the year.

During his highly successful tenure at Troy, Brown's signature wins included a 24-21 victory in 2017 at then-No. 22 LSU in Baton Rouge, which snapped the Tigers' 49-game non-conference home winning streak, and a 24-19 win at Nebraska. Also impressive was his team's 30-24 loss at eventual 2016 national champion Clemson.

In 2018, Troy finished 10-3, including a victory over Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl in Mobile, Alabama.

The 2017 campaign featured an 11-win season for Troy, including a win over North Texas in the New Orleans Bowl. The Trojans once again finished with a 7-1 conference mark, earning Brown his first conference championship. Troy finished the season with the 27th most votes in the final Amway Coaches Poll, marking the highest final ranking by a Sun Belt Conference squad in league history.

Troy finished 10-3 in 2016, including a 6-2 mark in the Sun Belt and a victory over Ohio University in the Dollar General Bowl. The Trojans became the first Sun Belt Conference school to ever open a season with eight wins in its first nine games, and they became the first league school to appear in a major top 25 poll, checking in at No. 25 in the Associated Press' Nov. 13 poll. Additionally, Brown's 2016 squad tied for the best turnaround in the country (six wins).

Prior to Brown's first season at Troy in 2015, he spent two years (2013-14) as the offensive coordinator under Mark Stoops at Kentucky. Under his direction, he led the Wildcats to some new heights on the offensive side of the football. The Wildcats posted more than 440 yards of total offense in three Southeastern Conference games in 2014, its highest total since 2001.

The Wildcats totaled 380 yards or more of total offense in their first three SEC games in 2014 – Florida, Arkansas and South Carolina – marking the first time a UK team had done so since 1998. Kentucky scored 21 offensive touchdowns in SEC play in 2014.

The two years prior to Brown being named offensive coordinator, Kentucky had a combined 21 offensive touchdowns in conference play.

He also spent three years at Texas Tech (2010-12) as the offensive coordinator after his first stint at Troy as an assistant coach from 2006-09.

As Texas Tech's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the Red Raiders ranked in the nation's top seven teams in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense, having increased production in all three categories each year since 2010. TTU finished the 2012 season second nationally in passing with 355.9 yards per game, 13th in total offense at 495.4 yards per game and 20th in scoring with 37.5 points per game.

The 2012 campaign was an expansion of the success from 2011, when Texas Tech ranked 13th nationally in total offense at 470.6 yards per game. The Red Raiders lit the scoreboard at a tune of 33.8 points per contest. In his first season in Lubbock, Brown's offense notched 460.2 yards of total offense per game, including 318.9 passing, and scored at a 33.1-point clip as Tech went 8-5 and won the TicketCity Bowl.

At Troy, Brown was the inside receivers coach the first two years (2006-07) with the Trojans before transitioning to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2008-09. Troy won four Sun Belt Conference titles and appeared in three bowl games during Brown's initial tenure.

He began his coaching career with one-year stints at UMass (2003), Sacred Heart (2004) and Delaware (2005).

At Delaware, Brown served as wide receivers coach. Starting three freshman wideouts, the Blue Hens went 6-5.

In 2004, Brown coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Sacred Heart, which boasted the top-ranked scoring offense in the conference.

In 2003, he was the tight ends coach and offensive line assistant at Massachusetts, helping the Minutemen win a share of the Atlantic 10 championship and a berth in the FCS playoffs.

As a player, Brown was a wide receiver at Kentucky for three years (1998-2000) before finishing his career at UMass in 2001-02.

He was a member of two bowl teams with the Wildcats and was named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll.

While at UMass, he was an Atlantic 10 All-Academic honoree and an NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Directors' Academic All-Star team selection.

Brown graduated from UMass with a bachelor's degree in business management in 2002 and earned his master's degree in business administration in 2005.

Born in Louisville, Kentucky, Brown grew up in Bardstown, Kentucky, before moving to Danville, Kentucky, where he was an all-state wide receiver at Boyle County High School, finishing his career as the No. 2 receiver in state history.

Brown and his wife, Brooke, have two daughters, Adalyn and Anslee, and a son, Dax.

MATT POWLEDGE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
SAM HOUSTON, 2009

Matt Powledge, who spent the 2023-25 seasons as the defensive coordinator at Baylor, was named the defensive coordinator for the Mean Green in December of 2025.

Powledge joins the Mean Green with extensive coaching experience with 12 seasons as either a defensive coordinator or a special teams coordinator working for Baylor, Oregon, Louisiana, ULM and Sam Houston. In his career, he has coached four players to All-American honors and 19 All-Conference honorees.

In 2025, Powledge helped lead the Bears to the No. 33 ranked passing defense in FBS and was tied for 30th in the nation in defensive touchdowns. He coached Second Team All-Big 12 LB Keaton Thomas in 2025 and helped him finish the year with 100+ tackles for the second straight year.

Powledge helped spur a defensive turnaround in 2024, as the Bears went 8-5 and advanced to the Texas Bowl. Powledge's defense sparked a six-game winning streak to conclude the regular-season, the longest such streak in program history.

His defense improved drastically in 2024, including moving up 40 spots in the defensive FEI ratings, and in the NCAA stats national rankings, saw the Bears improve 23 spots in total defense, 31 spots in sacks, 42 spots in pass efficiency defense, 34 spots in scoring defense, 43 spots in rushing defense, 73 spots in third down conversion percentage defense amd 82 spots in passes intercepted.

The 2024 defensive unit was led by a dynamic pair of inside linebackers, including first-team All-Conference stalwarts, Matt Jones and Keaton Thomas. The duo each charted over 110 tackles, becoming the first pair with 100 tackles in a season at the linebacker post since 2010.

In his first year as the primary defensive play caller in 2023, while also working with the safeties, Powledge helped mentor freshman All-America cornerback Caden Jenkins snd STAR Carl Williams IV.

A native of Huntsville, Texas, Powledge helped Oregon win 10 games in 2022, leading Oregon to a 7-2 mark in the Pac-12, three top 15 wins and the Holiday Bowl Title.

Powledge was strong as Baylor's safeties coach while also directing one of the nation's top special teams units. He helped the Bears secure the 2021 Big 12 Championship and the 2022 Sugar Bowl title after a win over Ole Miss in New Orleans.

The safeties shined under Powledge in 2021, helping Baylor establish one of the nation's leading defensive units, ranking among the NCAA leaders in a bevy of categories, including fifth in interceptions (17) and 14th in scoring defense (19.2 points per game allowed). The Bears held their 2021 opponents to 13.1 points below their season scoring average.

Individually, Powledge helped mentor the dynamic Jalen Pitre into a 2021 Thorpe Award finalist and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year; while running back and electric return man Trestan Ebner earned his second-consecutive Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year honors. In 2020, Ebner was named to four All-America teams as a returner or all-purpose player.

Powledge coached at Louisiana-Lafayette from 2018-19, working as the outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. While in Lafayette, Powledge coached six All-Sun Belt performers as the Ragin' Cajuns won the Sun Belt West Division twice and played in two bowl games.

In 2019, ULL had the league's best scoring defense, allowing just 19.7 points per game while finishing second in the Sun Belt with 33 sacks. Powledge helped lead the Ragin Cajuns to the program's first 10-win season ever in 2018.

Powledge moved from the FCS to the FBS level in 2016-17, serving as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator for two years at ULM.

He served as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at his alma mater in 2014-15 at Sam Houston. He coached five players to All-Southland honors and two special teamers earned All-America honors after the 2014 season.

As a graduate assistant under Mark Stoops at Kentucky, Powledge primarily assisted with the defense and special teams. As a defensive assistant, he worked with two second-team All-Southeastern Conference choices, elite pass rusher Bud Dupree and tackling machine Avery Williamson, during the 2013 season.

Powledge coached in 2012 at Northwestern State, serving as the running backs coach for a team that piled up 1,286 rushing yards and 14 TDs. Three Bearkat backs ran for at least 250 yards.

He started his career as a graduate assistant at Southeastern Louisiana in 2010-12. He worked primarily with the tight ends during his second season.

Powledge played fullback for Sam Houston from 2005-09, earning All-Southland accolades and served as the team captain in 2009. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Sam Houston in 2009.

Powledge is married to his wife Karina, and the couple has two children, Zoe and DJ.

BRADLEY DALE PEVETO

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / LINEBACKERS
SMU, 1987

Bradley Dale Peveto was named Co-Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach at North Texas in January of 2026.

Peveto has more than 30 years of coaching including time as a head coach as well as an assistant coach for national champions at both the FBS and FCS levels. He joined UNT after spending the 2024 and 2025 seasons with the same position at Texas State.

A native of southeast Texas, Peveto has spent more than 14 years coaching in the state of Texas. The former SMU defensive back joined Texas State after three years at UTEP as the defensive coordinator. He also had in-state stops at Texas A&M, Houston, Stephen F. Austin and Trinity Valley Community College.

Peveto has been a part of teams that have reached 11 bowl games, including the 2007 BCS National Championship with LSU as the national champion's linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. His teams have also made four appearances in the FCS Playoffs and helped lead Stephen F. Austin to a national championship in 1989.

Peveto's coaching resume also includes appearances in the Texas Bowl (2X), the Tax Slayer Bowl, the Citrus Bowl, the Music City Bowl, the Peach Bowl (2X) and the Sugar Bowl. In addition to his time at Texas schools, Peveto was the head coach at Northwestern State and also has spent time at Southern Miss, Arkansas, Middle Tennessee, Kentucky and Ole Miss.

In 2024 and 2025, Peveto helped Texas State advance to back-to-back bowl games as a part of a three-year string for the first time in program history. Prior to joining the Bobcats, Peveto was the Defensive Coordinator at UTEP from 2021-23, helping the Miners earn a berth in the 2021 New Mexico Bowl.

From 2013-19, Peveto worked in the SEC primarily with linebackers at Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss and Texas A&M. The string featured appearances in five bowl games in those seven seasons.

Peveto was the head coach at Northwestern State from 2009-12 where he won 14 games over his final three seasons. His time with the Demons was highlighted by working with and developing future sixth round NFL pick and Super Bowl Champion Jeremy Lane, one of just two NFL draft picks out of Northwestern State since 2010.

One of the largest team accomplishments in Peveto's career was helping the 2007 LSU Tigers team earn a spot in the BCS National Championship game. Peveto served as the Linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at LSU from 2005-08 in a string that featured appearances in the 2005 and 2008 Peach Bowl as well as the 2006 Sugar Bowl along with the 2007 National title game.

A four-year letterwinner as a defensive back at SMU, Peveto served as team captain as a senior in 1986. He was also named the Wild Mustang Special Teams Player of the Year and was the recipient of the Mike Kelsey Award during his playing days. After graduating from SMU in 1987, he added a master's degree from Stephen F. Austin in 1989.

Peveto comes from a family with a rich football coaching tradition. His late father, Ed, coached high school football in the southeast Texas area and was inducted into the Greater Houston Coaches Hall of Honor in 1993 and into the Golden Triangle Coaches Hall of Fame in 1997. Two of his brothers, Jeff and Garey Birt, coached at high schools in the southeast Texas area.

Peveto and his wife Melissa have two children, Payton and Jake.

MIKE BLOESCH

RUN GAME COORDINATOR / TIGHT ENDS
HOUSTON, 2008

Mike Bloesch was hired as the Run Game Coordinator and Tight Ends coach in January of 2026.

Bloesch re-joins the Mean Green for his second stint with the program after spending the 2023 and 2024 seasons at Cal. Under his watch, Bloesch helped the Golden Bears earn a bowl berth in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2018-19.

In 2024, Bloesch helped the Cal offense average 358.2 yards per game en route to an appearance in the Art of Sport LA Bowl. The Golden Bears offense was one of the best at taking care of the football with just 11 turnovers lost in 13 games, the 15th-fewest in FBS.

In his first season at Cal, Bloesch served as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach and was largely credited with the improvement of an offensive line that helped the running game average 172.8 yards per game, its highest mark since 2012.

The OL helped open running room for breakout RB Jaydn Ott, who paced the Pac-12 and ranked among the nation's best in all-purpose yards per game (135.67, 6th in FBS), rushing yards per game (109.6, 9th in FBS) and rushing yards (1315,14th in FBS), while also tying for second in the league with 15 total touchdowns (T-19th in FBS) and 12 rushing touchdowns (T29th in FBS).

Prior to his time at Cal, Bloesch was on staff at North Texas from 2020-22. Bloesch helped UNT clinch a spot in the 2022 Conference USA Championship game and an appearance in the Frisco Bowl. The Mean Green led Conference USA in fewest per-game sacks allowed (0.79, 5th FBS) and tackles for loss allowed (4.07, 13th FBS).

Bloesch's offense produced a pair of 2022 first-team All-Conference USA selections in TE Var'Keyes Gumms (34-458, 5 TD) and OL Manase Mose while QB Austin Aune led the nation in with an average of 15.29 passing yards per completion and also posted top-20 national rankings for passing touchdowns (33, No. 8T), passing yards (3,547, No. 17), yards per pass attempt (8.63, No. 17) and points responsible for (206, No. 19).

In 2021, Bloesch directed one of the nation's leading rushing attacks and mentored one of the best offensive line units in the country. Behind an offensive line that allowed only 15 sacks, the eighth fewest in FBS, the Mean Green rushed for 32 touchdowns on the season. That total is the second most for a UNT team and the most since 1951's program record 33.

Bloesch served as a co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach in 2020, his first season in Denton, helping guide the Mean Green to the eighth-ranked total offense in the nation in 2020, averaging 513.2 yards per game, and averaged 6.59 yards per play (22nd-best in FBS). Senior wide receiver Jaelon Darden had an All-America season, earning honors from every major outlet/awards group at either first or second team levels.

Bloesch spent five seasons on the Tulsa coaching staff from 2015-19, the last four as offensive line coach. In 2016, Bloesch's front line paved the way for a Hurricane offense that set a school record with eight 300+ rushing games, which was also the second-most 300+ rushing games in the NCAA. It was an offense that also set an NCAA record by becoming the first FBS/DI school to have a 3,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard rushers and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. Bloesch coached four offensive linemen to seven American Conference honors during his tenure.

Before coming to Tulsa, Bloesch spent the 2014 season as a football analyst at his alma mater, the University of Houston. In his role, Bloesch was responsible for providing analytical support for the offensive coaching staff including video breakdown, self and opponent scouting, game day support and analysis of the football program.

Previously, Bloesch spent three seasons (2011-13) as the offensive coordinator at Temple High School. In his three seasons with the Wildcats, Bloesch helped lead the program to a 19-13 record, capturing the District 8-5A championship in 2013, while averaging 44 points and 512 offensive yards per game.

Bloesch began his coaching career as the offensive line coach at Abilene Cooper High School in 2009.

As a player at Houston, Bloesch started 37 consecutive games at offensive guard from 2006-08, while helping lead the Cougars to their first bowl victory in 28 years. He earned Conference USA honorable mention all-conference honors in 2007 and 2008.

Bloesch received his bachelor's degree in Kinesiology-Sports Administration from Houston and a master's degree in education administration from Lamar University in 2013. Bloesch and his wife Lexi have two children, Beau and Drew.

JEFF CROSBY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
NORTHERN ARIZONA, 2015

Jeff Crosby was hired at the special teams coordinator for UNT football in January of 2026.

In over 10 years on staffs at the FBS level, Crosby has worked with two College Football Playoff teams and eight bowl teams, including appearances at the Cotton, Fiesta, Peach, Rose and Sugar Bowls with time at App State, Texas, Washington and Southern Miss.

Crosby spent the 2025 season as the special teams coordinator at App State where he helped the Mountaineers earn a trip to the JLab Birmingham Bowl.

In 2025 at App State, Crosby coached a Mountaineers special teams unit that finished in the top 30 in FBS in net punting (28th), blocked kicks (t-9th) and punt returns (26th). App State was one of just four FBS programs to block three or more extra points/field goals in 2025.

Crosby was key in the development of Third Team All-Sun Belt selection Dominic De Freitas who finished the season knocking down 20 of 25 FGs with a long of 49.

Crosby assisted with the Texas Longhorns' special teams from 2021-24.

In Texas' first season in the SEC and fourth under head coach Steve Sarkisian in 2024, Crosby worked with a Longhorns team that went 11-1 in the regular season and lost to Georgia in overtime in the SEC Championship Game before going 2-1 in the CFP with wins over Clemson and Arizona State and a loss to Ohio State in the semifinals. Kicker Bert Auburn broke the all-time school record for field goals made. The Longhorns' kick return defense led the SEC and ranked 13th nationally at 16.57 yards per return, while the punt return unit was fourth in the SEC and top 40 nationally at 10.5 yards per return.

In 2023, Auburn connected on a Big 12-record 19 consecutive field goals on his way to All-Big 12 first-team honors. He was joined on the first team by Xavier Worthy, who led the Big 12 and ranked second in the nation averaging 16.9 yards per punt return. As a unit, Texas also ranked 10th in the nation with three blocked kicks and was 16th in the nation with a net punting average of 41.76.

The 2022 season saw Auburn make 21 of 26 field goal attempts in his first season as the starting kicker. Texas blocked four kicks, the 10th-most in the nation, including three punts, the seventh-best mark in the FBS. The Longhorns were 14th in the nation in punt return defense (3.09 yards/return) and 22nd in kickoff return defense (17.23 yards/return).

In Crosby's first season in Austin in 2021, Texas tied for the FBS lead with four blocked punts while ranking fourth nationally with five total blocked kicks. Additionally, the Longhorns ranked 10th in the nation in punt return average allowed (2.86) and 38th in punt return average (10.13). Cameron Dicker was named a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award while also being named first-team All-Big 12 as a punter and honorable mention as a placekicker after ranking ninth nationally in punting average (46.8 ypp) and 14th in field-goal percentage (13-of-15, 86.7).

In his four seasons in Seattle with head coaches Chris Petersen and Jimmy Lake, Washington compiled a 31-13 record with three bowl appearances. The 2019 Huskies team set a school record for punt average, while kicker Peyton Henry finished 19-for-21 on field goals. In 2017, the special teams unit included a consensus All-American in Dante Pettis, who set an NCAA record for career punt return touchdowns.

Crosby earned his first FBS position as an offensive quality control coach at Southern Miss in 2015 before transitioning to special teams in 2016.

A quarterback at Bakersfield College and Cal Lutheran, Crosby graduated with a bachelor's degree from Northern Arizona University in 2015. He is married to Hanna Ralston.

Black joined the North Texas staff after spending the last three seasons as the defensive line coach at Illinois State.

In three years at Illinois State, the Redbirds were one of the top teams in FCS, winning a total of 28 games and advancing to the Division I FCS playoffs in both 2024 and 2025.

In 2025, the Redbirds posted a 12-4 overall record and made a run to the 2025 FCS National Championship game that included postseason wins over the No. 1, No. 8, No. 12 and No. 16 teams in the FCS rankings.

Illinois State was stout along the defensive line with the No. 28 rushing defense in FBS allowing just 132.5 yards per game on the ground on the year.

Prior to the 2025 season, Black was selected to participate in the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship with the New England Patriots in the summer of 2025.

In 2024, the Redbird defense was particularly stout against the run, ranking fourth in the conference in rushing yards given up per game at 157.1. The group also finished year fifth in the league in defensive efficiency at 135.7 and ranked No. 29 in the country with 2.43 sacks per game. Defensive tackle Jake Anderson was a MVFC Second Team selection, after he ranked sixth on the team in tackles with 59 (21 solo) and was credited with 3.0 sacks, 6.5 tackles for loss, one pass breakup and one forced fumble in addition to a 55-yard interception for a touchdown in the FCS playoff win at Southeast Missouri State.

The 2023 season saw the Redbirds have nine new starters on defense, but that group came together quickly to become one of the best in the MVFC. The Redbird defense ranked No. 3 in the country in sacks per game and ranked No. 16 in tackles-for-loss per contest. Senior defensive end Josh Dinga capped off his six-year career at ISU with All-MVFC Second-Team plaudits, as he ranked second on the team with a career-best 7.0 sacks and 11.0 tackles for loss to go along with 34 total tackles.

Black was a graduate assistant at Illinois State in 2019, helping the Redbirds reach the quarterfinals of the FCS playoffs as they led the FCS in sacks and red zone defense.

A four-year starter at Robert Morris, Black tallied 43 consecutive starts along the defensive line, and was named an all-conference player in 2014 and 2015. After graduation, RMU immediately hired Black as its defensive coach and his work helped Robert Morris lead the conference in total defense, rushing defense and scoring defense in his first season as an assistant in 2016.

Black achieved his Master of Business Administration from Robert Morris in 2018 and his bachelor's degree from RMU in 2016.

OCT. 24, 2025 • ATTENDANCE: 9,626

POSTGAME NOTES

• Redshirt freshman quarterback Drew Mestemaker broke the program and American Conference record with 608 yards passing as UNT defeated Charlotte, 54-20, on Friday night at Jerry Richardson Stadium.
• The 49ers held a 17-7 lead with 11:27 left in the second quarter, before the Mean Green outscored the hosts 47-3 over the last 38:30 of game time. This marked the second double-digit comeback of the season.

• The Mean Green scored three rushing touchdowns as sophomore running back Kiefer Sibley tallied two and redshirt freshman running back Ashton Gray crossed the goal line for the first time in his career.
• Freshman running back Caleb Hawkins finished the day with four catches for 39 yards and two receiving touchdowns and added 48 yards on 13 carries.

RETIRED NUMBERS

28 ABNER HAYNES (1957-59)

A two-time all-Missouri Valley Conference running back for the Eagles, Abner Haynes ranked seventh in the nation in rushing and fifth in scoring as a senior in 1959. He led North Texas to an appearance in the 1959 Sun Bowl post-season game and was named All-American by Time Magazine that same year.

In 1956, Haynes and teammate Leon King became the first African-American student-athletes to play college football in Texas when they became members of the North Texas freshman team. Haynes moved up to the varsity in 1957 and, despite the racial hurdles he faced, Haynes led the Mean Green in rushing for three years. He averaged 5.4 yards per carry for his career and scored 28 touchdowns.

In 1959, Haynes earned two Missouri Valley All-Conference honors, and would later be named to the Missouri Valley's All-Centennial Team. In addition to Haynes's prodigious accomplishments as a running back, he was also a terror on special teams. In 1957, he averaged a remarkable 39.3 yards per punt return, which still stands as a school record. Even more astonishing is his career punt-return average: 28.6 yards per return, a record that remains unchallenged at North Texas.

He signed with the Dallas Texans of the AFL and was named AFL Player of the Year in 1960. Hayes rushed for over 4,500 yards during his pro career. He had his number retired by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988 and was inducted into the UNT Hall of Fame and had his number retired in 1986. Haynes died in 2024 at the age of 86.

Ray Renfro was the first North Texas football player to earn All-Pro honors in the National Football League.

A 6-1, 190-pound receiver and halfback from Whitesboro, Texas, Renfro had one of the great seasons in Mean Green history in 1951 when he averaged a remarkable 7.5 yards per rushing attempt, which remains a school record. North Texas captured the Gulf Coast Conference league championship that year, and Renfro earned all-conference honors and was named a first-team All-America running back. Renfro finished his career with a rushing average of 6.8 yards per attempt, which also remains a school record.

After his collegiate career, Renfro was drafted in the fourth round by the Cleveland Browns. Renfro split time at halfback and flanker early in his pro career but was used primarily as a receiver. After catching one pass for eight yards his rookie year, Renfro had a break-out season in 1953. He was second in the league in yards from scrimmage and was named to the 1953 Pro Bowl. Renfro was named to the Pro Bowl again in 1957 and 1960, and he was named All Pro in 1955 when he led the NFL in yards per reception with 20.8 yards a catch. He was also third in the league in touchdowns that year. Renfro earned All-Pro honors again in 1959. Renfro played in the NFL for 12 years, all with the Browns.

He also served as an NFL assistant coach in the NFL for the Detroit Lions, Washington Redskins and Dallas Cowboys.

Renfro was the father of former Houston Oilers and Dallas Cowboys wide receiver Mike Renfro, and the older brother of fellow UNT Hall of Famer Dean Renfro. He was inducted into the UNT Hall of Fame in 1988, and his No. 33 jersey was retired posthumously in 2000. Renfro died in 1997 at the age of 67.

55 RICHARD GILL (1968-69)

An all-conference linebacker for North Texas in 1968 and 1969, Richard Gill was a popular and outspoken team leader on some of the best squads in school history.

Playing alongside Hall of Fame teammate Joe Greene, Gill was part of the original "Mean Green" defense as it was nicknamed in the late 1960's.

With his leadership, the Mean Green recorded seasons of 8-2 and 7-3 and are still the school record holders for interceptions in a season (32) and yards allowed in a game (180 vs. Drake).

Scheduled to return for his senior season in 1970, Gill met an untimely death when a blood clot reached his lungs following a routine surgery for a knee injury he suffered on the practice field.

In 1971, Gill was the first North Texas player to have his number retired.

75 JOE GREENE (1966-68)

Considered not only the greatest player in North Texas history, "Mean" Joe Greene is also considered the greatest defensive tackle in the history of football.

Greene, a three-time Missouri Valley All-Conference player, anchored a defensive line at North Texas that allowed opponents just two yards per rushing attempt from 1966 to 1968, helping North Texas to a 23-5-1 record.

Greene was a consensus All-American in 1968 and remains the only North Texas player in history to achieve that feat.

In 1969, Greene became the first North Texas player to be selected in the first round of the NFL draft, taken by the Pittsburgh Steelers, where he quickly became the cornerstone of Pittsburgh's "Steel Curtain" defense where he recorded 66 sacks in his illustrious NFL career.

He was named Rookie of the Year in 1969 on his way to 10 All-Pro selections, five first-team All-Pro honors, and four Super Bowl championships. Greene was also the NFL's Defensive Player of the Year in 1972 and 1974.

North Texas retired his No. 75 jersey and inducted him into the UNT Hall of Fame in 1981. His legacy was forever enshrined in UNT history when an 8-foot statue in his likeness was revealed outside of DATCU Stadium during the 2018 season where it remains to this day.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME MEMBERS

"MEAN" JOE GREENE (PLAYER, 1966-68)
INDUCTED: 1984

Charles Edward Joseph Greene was better known by his nickname "Mean Joe" Greene. The 6-4, 270-pound tackle acquired this moniker as a reference to his school's nickname, the North Texas State University Mean Green. During the three seasons Greene played defensive tackle for North Texas, the Mean Green posted a 23-5-1 record. In his 29 games at defensive tackle, North Texas State held the opposition to 2,507 yards gained on 1,276 rushes, a per-carry average of less than two yards per attempt. His collegiate coach, Rod Rust, said of the 1968 consensus All-America, "There are two factors behind Joe's success. First, he has the ability to make the big defensive play and turn the tempo of a game around. Second, he has the speed to be an excellent pursuit player." A pro scout said, "He's tough and mean and comes to hit people. He has good killer instincts. He's mobile and hostile." He was drafted in the first round by the Pittsburgh Steelers and became part of the "Steel Curtain" defense that won four Super Bowls. Greene is also a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, being inducted in 1987.

HAYDEN FRY (COACH, 1973-78)
INDUCTED: 2003

For 37-years one of the most recognizable faces in college football was that of Hayden Fry. But Fry is remembered for more than his dark glasses and square jaw. When he retired, his 232 wins placed him tenth on the all-time list. After coaching on the high school level, and for two years as a college assistant, he received his first collegiate head coaching job at Southern Methodist. His wide-open style fit the Southwest Conference as he led the 1966 Mustangs to their first SWC title since 1948. Among his achievements at SMU was recruiting Jerry LeVias, the first African-American player in the SWC. In six seasons at North Texas, Fry won 40 games including 19 in his last two seasons. Before his arrival, the school had won seven games in the previous four seasons. Fry is best known for sparking a resurgence at Iowa, where his teams were 143-89-6 over 20 seasons. In 1981, he coached the Hawkeyes to their first winning season in 19 years with a Big-Ten co-championship and a birth in the Rose Bowl, the school's first bowl appearance in 23 years. Fry won two other Big Ten titles sending the Hawkeyes to Pasadena. At Iowa, he had ten ranked teams and made 14 bowl appearances.

ALL-CENTURY TEAM

In 2013, UNT celebrated 100 years of football at the University of North Texas by naming an All-Century team compiled of the best players to play in the history of Mean Green Football. Below is the list of the 2013 UNT All-Century Team Selections.

BOWL GAME RECAPS

1946 OPTIMIST BOWL

UNT 14, PACIFIC 13

ROBERTSON STADIUM • HOUSTON, TEXAS
DEC. 21, 1946 • ATTENDANCE: 5,000

Louis Reinzi caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Billy Dinkle on fourth down with nine seconds left and Dinkle's point after carried the Eagles to a thrilling 14-13 win over the University of the Pacific in the first Optimist Bowl.

It was a significant game for several reasons, not the least being the final game as head coach at Pacific for the famous Amos Alonzo Stagg. It also capped the first season for Eagle head coach Odus Mitchell.

The winning score capped a 67-yard drive by the Eagles. North Texas led 7-0 at the half thanks to a 58-yard interception return for a touchdown by Ned McNeil.

The Eagles won despite being out-gained 274 to 94. The Eagles also had to play most of the game without starting quarterback Fred McCain, who was kicked out of the game in the first quarter for fighting.

For Stagg, the inventor of the T-formation, it was the only bowl game that he would coach during his 57 years as a college coach. Stagg became a head coach at Springfield College in 1890 and ammassed a career record of 329-190-35, which ranks third among all college coaches in career games coached. His Hall of Fame career came to a close with a loss at the hands of the Eagles.

1948 SALAD BOWL

NEVADA 13, UNT 6

MONTGOMERY STADIUM • PHOENIX, ARIZONA
JAN. 1, 1948 • ATTENDANCE: 12,000

The Eagles made their second consecutive post-season bowl appearance in Odus Mitchell's second season as head coach, but this time it was NTSC that came out on the short end of a close decision.

Bill Cromer, who intercepted a Stan Heath pass to start the drive, gave the Eagles the early first-quarter lead as his four-yard run put NTSC up 6-0. The touchdown was set up by a 45-yard pass from Fred McCain to Joe Abbey.

Heath rebounded from his first-quarter mistake to hook up with Tommy Kalmanir on a 94-yard pass play in the second quarter to grab a 7-6 halftime lead.

Neither team scored in the third quarter and early in the fourth quarter the Wolf Pack mounted what would become the game-winning drive. The drive culminated with Nevada fullback Ernie Zeno scoring on fourth down and a foot.

The Eagles tried to rally and got into Wolf Pack territory, but a long pass from Zeke Martin to Abbey failed to connect and the Eagles went down to defeat.

Although the Eagles lost their last game, it was an outstanding season as NTSC won its second consecutive Lone Star Conference title.

KIDD FIELD • EL PASO, TEXAS
DEC. 31, 1959 • ATTENDANCE: 14,000

The New Mexico State Aggies took advantage of several NTSC turnovers to beat the Eagles in the Sun Bowl.

North Texas lost four fumbles inside the Aggie 25-yard line and six of seven fumbles overall. NTSC could mount a score only on a 51-yard punt return by Billy Christle on the final play of the third quarter.

The second UNT fumble of the first quarter came on the Aggie 24-yard line with New Mexico State up 7-0. Down 14-0, the Eagles drove to the Aggie four-yard line before losing a fumble. New Mexico State then drove 96 yards on 13 plays to increase the lead to 21-0.

As the half ended, the Eagles had a drive stall on the Aggie 10-yard line. On NTSC's second drive of the third quarter, the Eagles lost a fumble on the Aggie 10-yard line.

New Mexico State struck on its next possession following the Christle punt return for a score to build the lead to 28-8. Two more fourth- quarter drives ended in frustration as the Eagles fumbled the ball away on the Aggie eight-yard line and had another drive stall on the Aggie 37-yard line.

COLORADO STATE 45, UNT 20

THE SUPERDOME • NEW ORLEANS, LA.
DEC. 18, 2001 • ATTENDANCE: 27,004

Colorado State exhibited its bowl game experience, overpowering North Texas 45-20 in the inaugural New Orleans Bowl before 27,004 at the Superdome.

The Rams, who were making their fourth straight bowl game appearance, scored in every quarter to hold off the Mean Green, which won the Sun Belt Conference's first-ever football title and was playing in the school's first bowl game in 42 years.

Colorado State had four rushing touchdowns and quarterback Bradlee Van Pelt threw for another as the Rams (7-5) racked up 246 yards on the ground and passed for 129. They also intercepted one North Texas pass, recovered a fumble and blocked a Mean Green punt attempt that resulted in another score.

After North Texas had trimmed the CSU lead to 10 at 24-14 at halftime, the Rams scored in the third quarter when a Jason Ball punt was blocked and recovered in the end zone by game's Most Valuable Player, Ram defensive back Justin Gallimore.

Colorado State later scored twice in the fourth quarter on drives of 67 and 70 yards before North Texas's Justin Claborn blocked a Ram punt to set up the Mean Green's final TD drive.

North Texas sophomore quarterback Scott Hall completed 13 of 30 passes with two touchdowns, and junior running back Kevin Galbreath rushed 22 times for 108 yards.

DEC. 17, 2002 • ATTENDANCE: 19,024

Five different Mean Green players came up with interceptions and running back Kevin Galbreath rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown to earn MVP honors as North Texas battled past Cincinnati, 24-19, to capture the second annual New Orleans Bowl.

In winning the school's first bowl game since 1946, North Texas broke out to a 24-7 third-quarter lead before holding off a fourth-quarter comeback effort by the Conference USA champion Bearcats.

North Texas got outstanding efforts in all phases of the game. The defense came up with a season-best five interceptions while the offense rode the legs of Galbreath for his eighth 100-yard rushing performance of the season.

And on special teams, Ja'Mel Branch set up a touchdown with a 36-yard kickoff return, Patrick Cobbs had a 50-yard kickoff return and punter Brad Kadlubar nailed five of seven punts inside the 20-yard line.

Junior defensive back Jeremy Pearl highlighted the Mean Green's defensive play, returning his first career interception 27 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter that gave North Texas the lead for good.

Also pulling down interceptions for the Mean Green were defensive backs Don McGee and Markeith Knowlton in the first quarter, linebacker Chris Hurd in the second and linebacker Cody Spencer in the third.

Galbreath took home the game's Most Valuable Player trophy after rushing 28 times for 130 yards and one touchdown. North Texas redshirt freshman quarterback Andrew Smith threw for 126 yards with one interception of his own.

DEC. 16, 2003 • ATTENDANCE: 25,184

North Texas' bid to win its second straight New Orleans Bowl fell short with a 27-17 loss to Memphis at the Superdome.

With the loss, North Texas' win streak was snapped at eight games and its overall bowl record dropped to 2-4.

The Mean Green took the game's opening kickoff and marched 51 yards before settling for a 47-yard field goal to begin the scoring in the opening quarter.

Memphis responded with a 66-yard touchdown drive to take a lead it would never relenquish with 6:57 to play in the first quarter. The Tigers added another touchdown and a field goal in the second quarter to take a 17-3 halftime lead.

North Texas cut the lead to seven twice in the second half, both on touchdown runs by Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year Patrick Cobbs. Cobbs broke a 35-yard touchdown late in the third quarter to cut the lead to 17-10, but Memphis came back with a touchdown of its own in the fourth quarter to seal the victory.

Cobbs led all rushers with 110 yards and two touchdowns and secured his place as the nation's leading rusher and nation's leading scorer. It was Cobbs' ninth straight game with over 100 yards rushing.

North Texas also held Memphis to just 88 yards rushing, which was the Tiger's lowest output of the season and the eighth Mean Green opponent held below the century mark of the year.

THE SUPERDOME • NEW ORLEANS, LA.
DEC. 14, 2004 • ATTENDANCE: 27,253

Southern Miss quarterback Dustin Almond passed for 247 yards and all-America linebacker Michael Boley returned an interception for a touchdown in a 31-10 win over North Texas in the Wyndham New Orleans Bowl.

The North Texas offense was held to 78 yards rushing and 156 yards passing. Quarterback Scott Hall was sacked a season-high five times and was intercepted twice after having just two total interceptions in 11 regular-season games.

North Texas' standout freshman running back Jamario Thomas was held to 92 yards rushing, his lowest total since a Sept. 25 loss at Baylor. He finished his freshman campaign with 1,801 yards, the third-most by a freshman in NCAA history.

Sophomore Johnny Quinn led the team in receptions with eight, including an 11-yard touchdown pass to end the game. Quinn's fumble after a punt return led to the Golden Eagles' final score with two minutes to play in the game.

The Golden Eagles' offense scored only seven points in the second half despite putting up 173 yards of total offense. Darren McCaleb missed two field goals in the third quarter from distances of 33 and 42 yards.

North Texas won the turnover battle, 2-0, in the first half but was only able to convert on one of those opportunities. Senior Andy Blount recovered a fumble by kickoff returnman John Eubanks at UNT's 19-yard line, which led to a Nick Bazuldua field goal from 24 yards.

It was the fourth straight trip to the New Orleans Bowl for North Texas after it completed a perfect 7-0 record in the Sun Belt Conference.

UNT 36, UNLV 14

COTTON BOWL STADIUM • DALLAS, TEXAS
JAN. 1, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 38,380

For the first time in eleven years and the first time on New Year's Day in program history, the North Texas football team is a bowl champion.

In a game that epitomized the 2013-14 North Texas season, the Mean Green fell behind early but showed its boundless resiliency, methodically taking control of the game, battering the UNLV offense into submission, getting an efficient performance from senior quarterback Derek Thompson, and scoring a Heart of Dallas bowl-record 22 fourth-quarter points to roll to a 36-14 victory at the Cotton Bowl.

Thompson completed 21-of-30 passes for 256 yards and two touchdowns and no interceptions, and earned the game's Most Valuable Player award, while Brelan Chancellor scored two touchdowns on reverses, both in the fourth-quarter assault that sealed the win.

Early on, however, UNLV's read-option offense sorely tested the Mean Green defense. The Rebels came into the game averaging 31 points and 423 yards a game, and backed up those stats on their opening drive with a 95-yard scoring march for a 7-0 lead.

Wide receivers Chancellor and Carlos Harris then sparked the offense and moved the Mean Green to the UNLV three with three reverses, something North Texas practiced again and again in the lead-up to the game. Antoinne Jimmerson scored from a yard out to tie the game.

With the game tied 7-7 at halftime, North Texas took complete control in the second half. UNLV had 192 yards of total offense in the first half, but just 20 in the third quarter and 50 in the fourth period, while the Mean Green offense found its legs.

The Mean Green took the lead for the first time on its first drive of the second half, a march capped by a Thompson-to-Drew Miller seven-yard touchdown pass and a 14-7 lead.

Chancellor, who had 181 all-purpose yards to shatter the North Texas career and single-season records, scored on a three-yard run, then Thompson dropped a perfect pass into Darnell Smith for a 34-yard score and a commanding 28-7 lead. Chancellor finished the North Texas scoring with another wide-receiver reverse, this one from 15 yards out.

ARMY 38, UNT 31 (OT)

COTTON BOWL STADIUM • DALLAS, TEXAS
DEC. 27, 2016 • ATTENDANCE: 39,117

UNT senior quarterback Alec Morris finished with 304 yards and a career high three touchdowns as he rallied the Mean Green from a 17-point deficit and directed a drive to set up a game-tying field goal with 28 seconds left.

However, the game turned on Army's triple-option offense as the Black Knights rushed for 480 yards, converting 11-of-17 third downs and two-of-four fourth downs, including the pivotal fourth down in overtime that lifted Army to a 38-31 victory.

Down 24-7, North Texas rallied to within three points before halftime, then again fell behind by double-digits, 31-21, in the third quarter. But the Mean Green recovered a fumbled punt return to set up a touchdown pass from Morris to Tyler Wilson, and got another defensive stop to set up a 50-yard drive that ended with a 37-yard field goal by Trevor Moore with 28 seconds to play to force overtime.

OT, however, went the way of much of the day. Army, which threw only four passes all day, completed a 15-yard pass to set up a first and goal from the UNT 8-yard-line. After Joshua Wheeler made a stop on Army's third and goal attempt, the Black Knights eschewed a field goal on fourth down from the 3, depending on its powerful run game to punch in the go-ahead score on a run by Jordan Asberry.

Black Knights quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after he led Army's offense with 129 yards rushing including a 65-yard touchdown scamper in the third quarter.

2017 NEW ORLEANS BOWL

TROY 50, UNT 30

THE SUPERDOME • NEW ORLEANS, LA.
DEC. 16, 2017 • ATTENDANCE: 24,904

North Texas spent the afternoon digging itself out of one hole after another, the Mean Green were unable to mount a comeback it fell 50-30 to Troy at The Superdome.

In the face of a relentless Trojan pass rush, UNT sophomore quarterback Mason Fine passed for 303 yards and three touchdowns but was sacked six times.

The Mean Green got off to a disastrous start, falling behind 15-0 in the first five minutes, then spent much of the first half just trying to stay in the game. North Texas' first possession ended in a strip sack of Fine, recovered at the UNT 14-yard line, and the Trojans quickly added a second touchdown and a two-point conversion.

UNT senior Joshua Wheeler helped right the ship when he sacked Trojan QB Brandon Silvers on third down to force a punt. Once the Mean Green gained possession, it overcame three third-and-long situations on a 75 yard drive punctuated by a 12-yard touchdown pass from Fine to Rico Bussey Jr. to cut the deficit to 15-7 after the first quarter.

Early in the second, Troy stunned UNT with a 55-yard rumble from 250-pound running back Josh Anderson to set up the Trojan's third score of the game and push the advantage to 22-7.

On Troy's ensuing offensive possesion, a high snap from center sailed over Silver's head, before UNT's Colton McDonald scooped up the loose ball and returned it 56 yards for a touchdown. Next, the Mean Green stopped a pair of Troy drives with an interception by Kishawn McClain and a quick three-and-out with 2:34 remaining in the half. Six plays later, Fine threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Michael Lawrence, bringing North Texas to 22-20.

North Texas got the ball to start the second half, but a Fine pass was intercepted by Troy's Reese Hunter, and the Trojans added a total of 21 points to its lead in the third.

Silver added to the Trojan lead with his fourth passing touchdown of the game with 4:07 remaining before Fine tallied his third and final airborne strike with 27 seconds left.

NO. 23 UTAH STATE 52, UNT 13

UNIVERSITY STADIUM • ALBUQUERQUE, N.M.
DEC. 15, 2018 • ATTENDANCE: 25,387

No. 23 Utah State used a balanced, up-tempo offense and a ball-hawking defense to overwhelm North Texas in Saturday's New Mexico Bowl, 52-13.

The Mean Green kept pace with Utah State (11-2) through most of the first quarter. North Texas trailed 7-0 when it lost Fine to an injury suffered as he scrambled for yards. Fine, limping noticeably, returned to lead a scoring drive capped by a 2-yard DeAndre Torrey touchdown run to tie the game at 7-7, and defensive back Nate Brooks thwarted an Aggie scoring threat with his sixth interception of the year, a pick of a Love fade pass into the corner of the UNT end zone, to keep the game close.

But the Aggies relentless attack kept piling up yards. By the 12:08 mark of the second quarter, Utah State had more than 100 yards passing and rushing and built a 21-7 lead, the first time North Texas has trailed this year by more than one score.

North Texas narrowly avoided turnovers on bad shotgun snaps, the second of which aggravated Fine's injury sending him to the bench and forcing UNT to punt from its own end zone. Utah State quickly took advantage of good field position and struck again, this time on a screen pass turned into a 37-yard touchdown and a 28-7 lead.

The Aggie lead grew to 38-7 by halftime, matching the most points North Texas allowed in a game this year.

In Fine's absence, North Texas used three quarterbacks, redshirt senior Quinn Shanbour and true freshmen Jason Bean and Kason Martin. Martin had the most success, completing 7 of 12 for 110 yards and opening the second half with the fastest scoring drive in New Mexico Bowl history when he hit Jalen Guyton for a 75-yard touchdown.

It was Martin's first career TD throw, and the North Texas defense followed with stops on consecutive Utah State drives to give rise to thoughts of a comeback.

But the rally hopes didn't survive the third quarter. Torrey and Martin limped off with a leg injuries, the Aggies came up their fourth interception of the game, and Utah State grabbed another big chunk of yards on a 38-yard pass to set up a 3-yard touchdown run and a 45-13 lead.

2020 MYRTLE BEACH BOWL

APP STATE 56, UNT 28

BROOKS STADIUM • CONWAY, S.C.
DEC. 23, 2020 • ATTENDANCE: 5,000

In several ways, the cards were stacked against North Texas on Monday in its Myrtle Beach Bowl showdown with App State, but despite a 56-28 loss for the Mean Green, there were a few bright spots heading into the offseason.

Tre Siggers led the way on the ground for the Mean Green, picking up a season-high 120 yards on 17 carries, while Oscar Adaway III added 97 yards on 26 carries. Bean completed 21 of 36 pass attempts for a career-high 251 yards, two touchdowns and an interception that led to the Mountaineers' final touchdown of the game early in the fourth quarter. The Mean Green totaled 497 yards – just shy of their season average of 515 yards per game, which was seventh in the nation entering the game.

After an inspired start to the game by UNT's defense, the App State running game began to take over in the form of big, explosive plays.

Just when North Texas seemingly grabbed some momentum and pulled to within 28-14 with a 4-yard touchdown run from Adaway III with 27 seconds left in the first half, App State struck back in a hurry.

On the Mountaineers' ensuing possession, Camerun Peoples broke off a 64-yard touchdown run to instead send App State (9-3) into the halftime break with a 35-14 lead. That was after App State's Marcus Williams Jr., reeled off a 70-yard touchdown run on the Mountaineers' previous possession.

Peoples added a 62-yard touchdown run with 2:58 left in the third quarter to put the Mountaineers up 42-21. Peoples had 23 carries for 319 yards and five touchdowns. Williams Jr., finished with 101 yards and a score on six carries.

In all, App State's big plays on the ground killed the Mean Green, as the Mountaineers had three one-play scoring drives that featured touchdown runs of 70, 64 and 62 yards, respectively.

BOWL GAME RECAPS

2021 FRISCO FOOTBALL CLASSIC

MIAMI (OH) 27, UNT 14

TOYOTA STADIUM • FRISCO, TEXAS
DEC. 23, 2021 • ATTENDANCE: 11,721

After North Texas closed the season with a five-game winning streak to gain bowl eligibility, the Mean Green came up short on Thursday in the Frisco Football Classic, falling 27-14 to Miami (Ohio).

The Mean Green (6-7) flipped their identity to a power rushing team early in the season and entered the game with the nation's fourth-ranked rushing offense but were unable to find their footing on the ground against the Redhawks (7-6).

Leading rusher DeAndre Torrey did not play in the game, and UNT's trio of talented freshman backs totaled just 61 rushing yards, while sophomore quarterback Austin Aune led the team with 28 yards and a touchdown on the ground.

Late in the first quarter after a 70-yard Bernardo Rodriguez punt flipped the field in UNT's favor, the Mean Green defense forced a punt and the offense made the most of the chance.

UNT went on a 10-play, 90-yard drive that was capped by Aune's 2-yard touchdown run that put the Mean Green up 14-10 with 11:32 to play in the second quarter.

From that point, not much went UNT's way as the Redhawks outgained UNT 426-317 and held the ball for almost 17 more minutes than UNT.

The Mean Green's last gasp effort came with 9:18 remaining in the game, when an Aune pass fell incomplete on fourth-and-goal with the Mean Green looking to pull within one score early in the fourth quarter.

2022 FRISCO BOWL

BOISE STATE 35, UNT 32

TOYOTA STADIUM • FRISCO, TEXAS
DEC. 17, 2022 • ATTENDANCE: 12,211

The Mean Green had a chance to tie or win the game in the closing minutes of the 2022 Frisco Bowl on Saturday night at Toyota Stadium but fell short despite putting up 435 yards of total offense in a 35-32 loss to Boise State.

UNT (7-7) forced a punt to take possession with 1:20 to play down three points but failed to get a first down as Boise State improved to 10-4 on the season after an undefeated run through the Mountain West.

In his final collegiate game, quarterback Austin Aune completed 17 of 32 pass attempts for 238 yards, a touchdown and a pair of interceptions, while the program's all-time leading tackler, linebacker KD Davis, finished his UNT career with five tackles before leaving the game in the final minutes with an injury.

Senior center Manase Mose set the NCAA record for consecutive starts with his 62nd straight start to break a tie with Coastal Carolina's Trey Carter (2017-21).

Sophomore running back Ikaika Ragsdale led the UNT ground effort with 21 carries for 94 yards and two touchdowns to become just the third player in UNT history to have multiple rushing touchdowns in a bowl game, joining Patrick Cobbs (2003) and Brelan Chancellor (2014).

Defensive coordinator Phil Bennett was making his second career appearance in a bowl game as an interim head coach and came up just short of a second bowl victory as an interim coach.

2025 FIRST RESPONDER BOWL

TEXAS STATE 30, UNT 28

GERALD J. FORD STADIUM • DALLAS, TEXAS
JAN. 3, 2025 • ATTENDANCE: 28,725

True freshman walk-on quarterback Drew Mestemaker passed for 393 yards and two touchdowns in a 30-28 loss to Texas State at the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl on Friday at Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

Mestemaker was in control throughout much of the day and gave UNT a 7-3 lead when he found Miles Coleman to open the scoring on a 46-yard scoring strike with 6:33 left in the first quarter.

Coleman finished with his first career 100-yard receiving day while Damon Ward Jr., finished his Mean Green career with a program bowl-record 133 receiving yards. North Texas led until late in the first half before Texas State took a 16-14 lead into the locker room.

UNT (6-7) was able to hang around, but it appeared Texas State (8-5) had put the game on ice with a long touchdown run with 2:25 to play that put the Bobcats up 30-21.

Mestemaker then rushed for a 70-yard score to pull UNT within two points with just under two minutes remaining in Eric Morris' first bowl appearance as the Mean Green head coach.

UNT was able to force a punt and get the ball back at its 9-yard line with just 40 seconds left and no timeouts before a desperate throw from Mestemaker was intercepted to end the game.

BOWL GAME RECAPS

2025 NEW MEXICO BOWL

UNT 49, SAN DIEGO STATE 47

UNIVERSITY STADIUM • ALBUQUERQUE, NM
DEC. 27, 2025 • ATTENDANCE: 18,867

The UNT football team put a bow on a historic season on Saturday night with a 49-47 win over San Diego State in the Isleta New Mexico Bowl to cap the program's first-ever 12-win season and snap a seven-game bowl losing skid in the process, winning its first bowl game since the 2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl.

The No. 25 Mean Green (12-2) rode the rejuvenated legs of freshman sensation running back Caleb Hawkins after he was forced out of the American Conference Championship loss to Tulane with an early injury. But the freshman was back at 100% on Saturday night and proved it to the tune of 30 carries for a career-high 198 yards on the ground and two touchdowns to go with three catches for 25 yards and another score to earn Offensive MVP honors.

He wasn't alone on Saturday night though, as UNT ushered in a new rushing star in the form of redshirt freshman Ashton Gray, who had a career day with 16 carries for 152 yards and two touchdowns – all career highs.

Hawkins' three touchdowns on the night gives him an FBS freshman record for touchdowns scored and points scored in a season, breaking the previous records held by LA Tech's Kenneth Dixon in 2012.

UNT's other freshman sensation, quarterback Drew Mestemaker, capped off his historic season, as well, finishing the night 250 yards and three passing touchdowns to move him into second place all-time among FBS freshmen in passing yards in a season. He also set a new program record for passing touchdowns in a season with 34 while running his season total to 4,379 passing yards – extending his American Conference freshman record.

Defensive MVP Will Jones II finished his night with a career-high 14 tackles, an interception and a forced fumble that thwarted a San Diego State scoring drive in the red zone, as UNT ended the season with 28 forced turnovers – the fifth-most in program history.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

JOE GREENE • DEFENSIVE LINE

Inducted in 1987 ... Played 13 years for the Pittsburgh Steelers ... four-time Super Bowl champion (IX, X, XIII, XIV) ... two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year (1972, 1974) ... NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year (1969) ... NFL Man of the Year (1979) ... Eight-time All-Pro (1971-77, 1979) ... 10-time Pro Bowl (1969-76, 1978-79) ... NFL 1970s All-Decade Team ... NFL 75th Anniverary All-Time Team ... NFL 100th Anniversary All-Time Team ... Pittsburgh Steelers No. 75 retired ... Pittsburgh Steelers All-Time Team ... Pittsburgh Steelers Hall of Honor ... 77.5 career sacks

A 1968 consensus All-America at North Texas, Joe Greene was Pittsburgh's No. 1 pick in the 1969 National Football League Draft. Almost from his first game, the 6-4, 275-pounder showed the superstar talents that established him as the defensive foundation in coach Chuck Noll's program that produced four AFC titles and four Super Bowl victories in the 1970s.

Playing defensive line, Greene was named the NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 1969 when he received the first of his 10 Pro Bowl invitations. He was named All-NFL five times and earned all-conference recognition 11 consecutive years from 1969 to 1979. In both 1972 and 1974, when Greene was selected as the NFL Defensive Player of the Year, he played a major role in his team's success.

He had career-high 11 sacks in 1972 when Pittsburgh reached the playoffs for the only the second time in franchise history and first since 1947. In a must-win game against Houston that season, Greene recorded five sacks and a fumble recovery that assured a 9-3 victory for the injury-riddled Steelers.

In 1974, Pittsburgh won its first AFC championship, followed by Super Bowl IX. That year, Greene developed the new tactic of lining up at a sharp angle between the guard and center to disrupt the opposition's blocking assignments. Against both Oakland in the AFC title game and Minnesota in Super Bowl IX, Greene was virtually unstoppable. His pass interception and a critical fumble recovery at the Pittsburgh 5-yard line were major factors in the demise of the Vikings.

Greene was armed with speed, quickness, strength and great determination, and at the peak of his career he could dominate a game almost single-handedly. A natural leader, he captained the Steelers' defensive unit beginning in 1977. Greene opened his career with a 91-game streak that was interrupted by injury in 1975. Durable, he played in 181 of a possible 190 regular-season games.

ALL-PRO SELECTIONS

"MEAN" JOE GREENE

Greene played for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1969-81. He was a Pro Bowl selection 10 times and was the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1969. He recorded 66 quarterback sacks in his career and is regarded as one of the greatest defensive tackles in the history of the NFL. The anchor of the famed "Steel Curtain" defense that led the Pittsburgh Steelers to four Super Bowl titles, he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1987. Greene was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1983. He was the fourth player selected in the 1969 NFL Draft after earning All-America honors at North Texas in 1968.

ABNER HAYNES

Haynes made his mark at North Texas as one of the first African-Americans to play college football in the southwest in 1957. He was an All-America pick in 1959 and signed with the Dallas Texans of the AFL after leading North Texas to the Sun Bowl. He was named AFL Player of the Year in 1960 and helped the Texans to the 1962 AFL Title. Haynes rushed for over 4,500 yards during his pro career and was an AFL All-Star from 1960-63. He had his number retired by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988 and received the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1985. In 2008, he was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

BRIAN WATERS

Waters was one of the top offensive linemen in the NFL for several years, making four trips to the Pro Bowl and being named All-Pro twice. He was the recipient of the prestigious Walter Payton NFL Man of Year Award in 2009, being recognized for his charitable contributions in addition to his performance on the field. Waters was an undrafted free agent in 1999 before signing with and spending the majority of his career with the Kansas City Chiefs (2000-2010), while also spending time with the New England Patriots (2011) and Dallas Cowboys (2013). Waters was inducted into the Kansas City Chiefs Ring of Honor during the 2019 NFL season.

RAY RENFRO

Renfro spent 12 years in the National Football League, all with the Cleveland Browns from 1952-1963. Renfro was a three-time selection to the Pro Bowl in 1953, 57 and 1960. He was drafted 48th overall in the 1952 NFL draft after a successful career at North Texas where he was named first team All-America running back by the Associated Press in 1951.

ZACH ORR

Orr was named a 2016 Associated Press Second Team All-Pro selection in just his third season in the NFL. Originally signed as an undrafted free agent, Orr combined for 30 tackles during his first two seasons in Baltimore. He burst onto the scene as a starter in 2016 and led the Ravens in tackles with 132 (91 solo), while also posting three interceptions, a forced fumble and two fumble recoveries in 15 appearances. His 132 total tackles tied for ninth-most in the NFL. Unfortunately, Orr was forced to retire at the age of 24, due to a congenital neck condition prior to the 2017 season.

J.T. SMITH

Smith earned his reputation in the NFL as one of the premiere punt returners of his time. Smith was selected to two Pro Bowl games and was once named first team All-Pro for his returning prowess, which he led the league with in both 1979 and 1980. He also led the NFL in receptions in 1987 as a member of the St. Louis Rams. Smith played 13 years with three different teams, including seven years with the Kansas City Chiefs, where he finished as the team's all-time leader in punt returns.

CEDRIC HARDMAN

Hardman played 12 years in the NFL, 10 with the San Francisco 49ers and two with the Oakland Raiders. Hardman was a first round draft pick (ninth overall) of the 49ers in 1970 and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection in 1971 and 1975. He is still the all-time sacks leader for the 49ers and was a member of the Raiders 1981 Super Bowl Championship team.

STADIUM HISTORIES

DATCU Stadium is the home of Mean Green football and the centerpiece of the Mean Green Athletic Village.

Opened in 2011, DATCU Stadium was designed by the same team that created the spectacular Dallas Cowboys' AT&T Stadium, award-winning architects HKS Sports and Entertainment Group and Manhattan Construction, and they brought some of the same touches to Denton. DATCU features two huge, state-of-the-art video boards, 21 luxury suites, 750 club seats, high-tech facilities for broadcast and print media, banquet rooms and an 1,800-square-foot team apparel store.

The stadium seats 30,100 in a horseshoe-shaped bowl, putting fans close to the action and offering excellent sight lines from every seat. A spacious concourse runs under the seats and boasts 23 concession stands for food and drink vendors. DATCU is also home to the North Texas Ticket Office, located on the west side next to Gate 2.

At the open end of the horseshoe is the giant high-definition scoreboard and videoboard with a display screen measuring 27 feet high and 47 feet wide, directly behind the south end zone and towering over the Mean Green's tunnel entrance to the field. A second videoboard, 15 feet high and 27 feet wide, stands behind the corner of the north end zone.

Behind the north end zone is one of DATCU Stadium's two signature features, giant wing-shaped grandstands which echo the shape of the Mean Green's eagle logo. The tips of the grandstand's wings reach 106 feet above the playing field.

DATCU's other distinguishing characteristic is its unique green ecological design. DATCU Stadium is the first newly-constructed college football stadium in the nation to be awarded a LEED Platinum Certification, the highest level of Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design status.

DATCU Stadium was sold out for the first time in program history in 2025 when 31,386 fans watched UNT take on USF on Oct. 10, 2025. It is the largest crowd to watch a North Texas home game in the history of UNT athletics.

The United States Green Building Council evaluated the stadium and awarded the certification, signifying DATCU Stadium's use of renewable and recycled materials, reduced energy and water consumption and decreased CO2 emissions. Three wind turbines were constructed next to the stadium in 2012 and provide approximately half a million kilowatt hours per year for the North Texas Eagle Point power grid while eliminating the emission of 323 metric tons of CO2.

"A football stadium is not the typical LEED-Platinum candidate," said HKS project manager Greg Whittemore.. "It took creative thinking on the parts of the design and construction teams in conjunction with the UNT System and North Texas Athletics. Today, DATCU Stadium's LEED Platinum status is a testament to the team's dedication to sustainability."

Originally named Mean Green Stadium, it was renamed to Apogee Stadium when ResNet provider Apogee Telecom, Inc. purchased the naming rights in 2011. It was again renamed in the summer of 2023 when the Denton-Area Teachers Credit Union purchased the naming rights.

Fouts Field was home to North Texas football for 59 years, and was the site of some great moments and home to great players. Its days as the venue for North Texas football ended after the 2010 season, when the Mean Green moved into DATCU Stadium.

Though Mean Green fans and alumni complained of its shortcomings, Fouts, like DATCU, was once the dream of a North Texas athletic director. Theron J. Fouts, who was football coach, athletic director, dean of men and founder of the track and field program at North Texas, drove the campaign to build the stadium. Work began in 1951 and the stadium opened in 1952.

The stadium was originally called Eagle Stadium, but the name was changed to honor Fouts after he retired in 1954.

North Texas won its first game at Fouts, against North Dakota, and went on to win the Gulf Coast Conference championship, the first of 14 league championships won by the Mean Green during their tenure at Fouts. North Texas won 11 conference titles prior to moving to Fouts.

The stadium's seating capacity was upgraded in 1994 to 30,500 by the addition of grandstands behind the north endzone. The renovated stadium saw North Texas win four-straight league titles from 2001 to 2004, including a thrilling game in 2002 against New Mexico State in which the Mean Green clinched its second Sun Belt Conference championship.

In its time at Fouts, North Texas had a .605 winning percentage, going 155-100-7, and the Fouts turf was home to such legendary players as "Mean" Joe Greene, the NFL Hall of Famer and four-time Super Bowl champion considered the greatest defensive tackle in the history of the game, and Abner Haynes, AFL Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year in 1960. In all, more than 100 North Texas football players graduated from Fouts to the National Football League.

Fouts' star power extended beyond Mean Green football. The stadium was also a destination for film crews and was a location for such productions as the television movie The Jesse Owens Story. But Fouts may be best known in Hollywood as the home of the Texas State Armadillos in 1991's Necessary Roughness, starring Scott Bakula, Hector Elizondo, Fred Thompson, Larry Miller, Sinbad, Rob Schneider and supermodel Kathy Ireland.

The demolition of Fouts was completed in early 2019. The end-zone seats and students' grandstand on the east side of the stadium was razed in summer 2013, followed by the west side of the stadium in winter 2018-19.
