NO SOPHOMORE SLUMP FOR CALLOWAY

KeKe Calloway finished her freshman season as one of Mercer's leading scorers in the SoCon Tournament. The guard has started her sophomore season in much of the same fashion as she has led the Bears in scoring in both games. Calloway even scored a career-high 24 points against Georgia on Sunday. With 20.5 points per game, she is ranked fourth in the SoCon and 87th nationally.

KEKE FOR THREE!

In addition to leading Mercer in points per game, Calloway has hit a team-leading six three-pointers so far this season. The sophomore is ranked second in the SoCon and 43rd nationally in three-pointers made. She also ranks first in the conference and 32nd nationally in attempts.

OUTSTANDING OFFENSE

In just two games this season, Mercer has proved that it will continue to put on a show on offense. The Bears are leading the SoCon in scoring offense (74.0), field goal percentage (.450), three-point field goal percentage (.435), assists (33) and assists per game (16.5). Mercer is also ranked 36th nationally in three-point field goal percentage and 50th in total assists.

WILLIAMS IN THE STARTING LINEUP

Alex Williams, who was a solid player off the bench for Mercer last season, has started both games so far this year. The junior is averaging 8.5 points per game and 2.5 rebounds per game. Additionally, she leads the SoCon in both blocked shots (4) and blocks per game (2.0). Williams also ranks 52nd nationally in blocked shots and 91st in blocks per game.

MERCER PICKED SECOND IN SOCON PRESEASON POLLS

After shocking the Southern Conference last season and winning a share of the regular season title, Mercer has been picked to finish second in the conference for the 2016-17 campaign. Additionally, Kahlia Lawrence and Sydni Means were named to the Preseason All-Conference Team.

The Bears tallied three first place votes and were just two votes behind the Mocs in the coaches poll. Chattanooga was voted first in both the coaches and the media polls, just narrowly edging Mercer in both.

Lawrence led Mercer in 2015-16 and finished the season ranked second in the SoCon with 18.0 points per game. In just two seasons, she has scored over 1,000 career points and currently ranks 20th on Mercer's all-time scoring leaderboard. Lawrence also averaged 5.5 rebounds per game and added 71 assists, 48 steals and 10 blocks on the year.

Last season, Means blossomed as the Bears' starting point guard, finishing the season with 189 assist, 5.7 assists per game and a 2.91 assist/turnover ratio. Nationally, Means ranked sixth in assist/turnover ratio, 20th in total assists and 23rd in assists per game. She also led Mercer and the SoCon in steals (80) and was second in the SoCon with a 79.0 free throw percentage after going 90-of-124 from the charity stripe.

BEARS RANKED NO. 23 IN MID-MAJOR PRESEASON POLL
The Bears were voted No. 23 in the CollegeInsider.com Women's Mid-Major Top 25 Preseason Poll.

Mercer joins No. 4 Chattanooga as the only two SoCon teams to be ranked in the preseason poll, which is made up of head coaches from 31 mid-major programs. Only 14 points separates the Bears from the Top 20.

SERIES HISTORY

Campbell leads the series with Mercer, 26-12, which includes a 12-7 mark in Macon. Additionally, the Camels have won eight of the last 10 meetings. For several years, the teams met twice a season as both were members of the ASUN.

SCOUTING CAMPBELL

Campbell has played just one game so far this season, opening the year with a resounding 94-39 win over St. Andrews, an NAIA school. The Camels held the Knights to just 14 points in the first half and St. Andrews only reached double digits in the fourth quarter when it scored 21 points.

Breanna Foster scored a team-leading 19 points, which included a 5-for-11 performance from behind the arc. Foster only took one shot from inside the three-point line all game. The rookie was named the Big South Freshman of the Week for her performance against St. Andrews.

Brianna Cribb notched a double-double of 11 points and 10 rebounds, while Taya Bolden also pulled down 10 boards in the game. Caroline Bowns rounded out the double-figure performances with 14 points of her own.

The Camels return just two starters from a year ago in juniors Summer Price and MaKala Rouse. Together the pair averaged 14.4 ppg and 7.2 rpg last year.

Campbell is led by first-year head coach Ronny Fisher. Fisher spent eight seasons at Presbyterian before heading to coach the Camels.

MERCER FALTERS IN SECOND HALF AT GEORGIA IN 72-64 LOSS
KeKe Calloway scored a career-high 24 points to lead Mercer on Sunday afternoon, but it was not enough to sustain the Bears as the women's basketball team fell to Georgia, 72-64.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Mercer took control of the game early and surged to a 12-5 lead in the first quarter. Georgia found its footing towards the end of the quarter and outscored the Bears, 9-1 in the final 3:05 of the period to take a 14-13 lead. Mercer opened the second quarter with a 9-3 run of its own to retake the lead, 21-17, with 5:13 remaining in the half. A three-pointer from the Lady Bulldogs interrupted the Bears' momentum, but a layup from Kahlia Lawrence sparked another 9-4 run to close out the half and give Mercer a 30-24 advantage heading into halftime.

The Lady Bulldogs came out swinging in the second half and outscored the Bears 7-1 in the first 3:13 to tie the game, 31-31. Mercer answered with a 6-0 spurt, but another 8-3 Georgia run cut the lead to 40-39 with 3:38 left in the third quarter. Mercer continued to fight, but the Lady Bulldogs closed out the period with a 12-7 run that gave them a 51-47 lead.

Four quick Mercer points to open the final period tied the game, 51-51, for the fifth time. The teams traded baskets for the next five minutes, resulting in three more ties and three lead changes. Georgia took the lead for the last time with 2:49 on the clock as the Lady Bulldogs outscored the Bears 15-7 in the final minutes to grab the 72-64 win.

Head Coach ♦ 18th Season Overall ♦ 7th Season at Mercer ♦ Georgia '86, '88

Mercer University named veteran NCAA Division I coach Susie Gardner as the school's 10th women's basketball head coach on June 24, 2010.

With over 250 Division I wins to her resume, Coach Gardner has transformed Mercer into one of the premier mid-major programs in the southeast.

During the 2015-16 season, Gardner was named the Southern Conference Coach of the Year after leading a young Mercer team that started five underclassmen in all 35 games to a 24-9 record, a SoCon Regular Season Championship and an appearance in the SoCon Tournament Championship game. The Bears also earned a WNIT berth, playing in the postseason for the second consecutive season. Mercer's 24 wins also set a program record for the most wins in a season in the NCAA DI era. Mercer went 12-2 in league games and highlights included snapping Chattanooga's 52-game SoCon winning streak and setting a new margin of victory record in University Center with an 80-32 win over Wofford. Mercer led the SoCon in several categories including scoring margin (8.2), assists per game (13.7) and turnovers per game (11.5) and ranked sixth nationally in turnovers per game.

In just its second season in the SoCon, Mercer once again claimed the Player of the Year and Freshman of the Year awards as Kahlia Lawrence and Linnea Rosendal capped Mercer's postseason honors. Lawrence was also named to the SoCon All-Conference First Team and Rosendal and KeKe Calloway were selected to the All-Freshman Team. Lawrence finished the season second in the SoCon with 18.0 points per game while Sydni Means led the league in assists (189), assists per game (5.7), assist/turnover ratio (2.91) and steals (80), while ranking sixth nationally in assist/turnover ratio.

In her fifth year at the helm of the Mercer women's basketball program, Gardner led the Bears to a 20-15 record, the second time in three years that the Orange and Black has posted 20-plus wins. Mercer also registered a 9-5 record in Southern Conference play and advanced to the semifinals of the SoCon Tournament in the school's first year in the league. Mercer's appearance in the WBI Tournament was the second time under Coach Gardner and just the second time since the 1984-85 season that the Bears have played in the postseason. Mercer also recorded its third consecutive winning season, the first time in program history since joining the NCAA in 1982.

Senior Precious Bridges was named the SoCon Player of the Year having finished the season with a league-leading 20.5 points per game. Bridges led Mercer in points, points per game, minutes, assists and steals, while ranking fifth for the Bears in rebounds. She also became the first player in SoCon history to earn Player of the Month honors in four consecutive months. Kahlia Lawrence was named the SoCon Freshman of the Year after leading league freshmen in points per game and ranking fifth in rebounds per game.

In her fourth year at Mercer, Gardner directed her team to a 17-14 overall record, a 9-9 mark in Atlantic Sun play and a trip to the A-Sun Championship Semifinals. Three of the Bears' non-conference wins came against SoCon teams - Western Carolina, Furman and Samford - as Mercer prepared to join the league for the 2014-15 season. In A-Sun play, Mercer won four of its final five games of the regular season and routed Jacksonville, 59-36, in the first round of the A-Sun Tournament.

Teanna Robinson highlighted Mercer's individual achievements for the season, earning A-Sun Defensive Player of the Year accolades. Robinson 114 blocks on the year, setting a new Mercer record and almost doubling the previous mark. Additionally, Kendra Grant was named to the A-Sun All-Conference Second Team and Kate Alemann was an Academic All-Conference Selection.

The 2012-13 campaign represented year three for Gardner at Mercer and the results reflected all the work put in by Gardner and her staff to turn the Bears program around. Mercer posted a 20-12 overall record for the program's first 20-win season since the 1991-92 campaign. The Orange and Black went 13-5 during A-Sun play, setting a new program record for most league wins in a single-season. The Bears captivated the nation from early January to late February when they went on a 12-game winning streak, the longest for the program since the 1984-85 edition of the Bears won 14 consecutive games as a Division II member. Aided by the second-biggest turnaround in the country, based on total wins, Mercer capped off the season by earning the No. 1 seed in the 2013 Women's Basketball Invitational for its first appearance in a nationally sponsored postseason tournament since 1985.

Several Bears also achieved significant individual achievements under Gardner's direction during the 2012-13 season. Sophomore Precious Bridges and junior Kendra Grant were both named to the A-Sun All-Conference first team, the first time two Bears have made the first team since Andrea Congreaves and Jaana Sintonen were recognized in 1990-91. Bridges averaged 16.8 points per game to capture the A-Sun scoring title, making the 2012-13 season the third-straight campaign a Mercer player has led the A-Sun in scoring. Lastly, junior point guard Sharnea Boykin led the A-Sun and ranked fourth in the nation averaging 7.4 assists per game.

The 2011-12 season saw eight of Gardner's recruits make their Division I collegiate debuts with Mercer. In year two under Gardner the Bears finished 6-23, but the Bears overall record was not indicative of the significant improvements they made throughout the campaign. Mercer went on the road and beat a top mid-major program at High Point on Nov. 25, 2012 and won four games at home which is the most since the Bears were victorious in seven home tilts back in 2009.

The Bears placed two players on Atlantic Sun All-Conference squads with sophomore Briana Williams landing on the second team after leading the league in scoring for the second-straight season and freshman Precious Bridges represented Mercer on the All-Freshman team. Junior forward Ry'van Buchanan showed well in her first season in Macon, finishing second on the team and tied for 15th in the A-Sun averaging 10.8 points per game. Junior Alex Phillips tied for third in the A-Sun with 1.4 blocks per game and tied for ninth with 6.7 rebounds per game while Bridges paced the squad and ranked ninth in the A-Sun by averaging 31.8 minutes per game.

In her first year at Mercer, Gardner faced what she describes as her greatest challenge in 18 years of coaching at the Division I level. Her first team at Mercer was the third-youngest team in Division I basketball – the 12-player roster featured a combined seven years of collegiate playing experience prior to the season.

Mercer experienced tumultuous growth in Gardner's first season despite suffering numerous heartbreaking losses, dropping nine games by six points or less.

The season did produced several bright spots as freshman Briana Williams landed Atlantic Sun Freshman of the Year, Second Team All-Atlantic Sun team and A-Sun All-Freshman Team honors. Freshman guard Sharnea Boykin led the conference in both minutes played and assists and sophomore Alex Phillips increased her scoring average from 1.8 to 7.5 points per game.

Before arriving at Mercer, Gardner spent the three previous campaigns (2007-10) as an assistant coach at the University of Florida. She joined the Gators after four seasons (2003-07) as the head coach at the University of Arkansas to give her the past seven seasons as a coach in the Southeastern Conference, regarded by many as the toughest college women's basketball league in the nation.

At Florida, the 2009 Gators advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament with Gardner on staff. Likewise, UF sandwiched that with WNIT appearances in 2008 and 2010 (advancing to the round of 16 during Gardner's first year and to the second round in 2010).

With Gardner at the Razorbacks' helm in 2004-05, Arkansas earned a trip to the WNIT tournament. Prior to that, she had the SEC "Player of the Year" in 2003-04. Arkansas was a combined 64-54 during Gardner's tenure and her 2005-06 team raced out to the best SEC start in the Lady 'Hogs program history.

Gardner cut her teeth as a Division I head coach at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tennessee, where she had a highly-successful seven-season run (1996-2003) and led Austin Peay to a 112-93 record. The Lady Gobs accomplishments during that period included three Ohio Valley Conference tournament championships (2001, 2002 and 2003), an OVC regular season title (2003) and three NCAA post-season berths (2001, 2002 and 2003). Gardner was tabbed as the OVC Coach of the Year in 2003. She also produced the OVC "Player of the Year" in both 2003 and 2004, with her players also garnering the league's Freshman of the Year awards twice (2000 and 2001).

From 1992-95, Gardner was the assistant coach at Western Athletic Conference power San Diego State University. In her three seasons with the Aztecs, she was a part of a program that won three-consecutive WAC Tournament championships and, subsequently, also made three NCAA Tournament appearances. SDSU was 69-20 with Gardner on staff and garnered two WAC regular season crowns in 1994 and 1995.

Gardner is no stranger to Middle Georgia or the Southeast region, having spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (1986-88) following a highly-successful four-year career for the Bulldogs under legendary head coach Andy Landers. UGA made the NCAA Final Four her last two years as a player - including a national runner-up finish in 1985 - and reached the NCAA Tournament both of her years as a graduate assistant as well. The Bulldogs won the SEC title in 1983, 1984 and 1986 as Gardner played alongside other noteworthy Georgia players like Teresa Edwards, Janet Harris and Katrina McClain.

Gardner was a member of the 1983 Sports Festival South Team which earned a gold medal. She was also a member of the USA's Select Team which competed in Canada.

Gardner earned her Bachelor of Science degree from Georgia in 1986, followed by a Master of Education degree in 1988.
