» NEWS AND NOTES

A WIN AGAINST MERCER WOULD:

- Snap a five game losing streak to the Bears.
- Push the Owls record to 4-1 at home.
- Give KSU its first winning streak of the 2016-17 season.

THE ALL-TIME SERIES VERSUS MERCER

Kennesaw State is 6-14 all time against Mercer in the series with the Bears dominating the series of late winning the past five games and 10 of the last 11.

Last season came down to the wire as KSU had a look to tie the game, but couldn't get it to fall losing 76-73.

Ray had his first career 30-point game against Mercer a season ago.

SCOUTING MERCER

Mercer has had some tough losses this season on their way to a 5-7 record. They are on a current three game losing streak that includes a buzzer beater at Auburn and a triple overtime game against LaSalle.

The Bears are led by Ria'n Holland averaging 17.7 points per game.

LOU HENSON AWARD PRESEASON WATCH LIST

After being named to the ASUN Preseason All-Conference team, Kendrick Ray was selected to the Lou Henson Preseason Watch List. The Lou Henson award goes to the nation's top mid-major player.

Ray is currently first in the ASUN and fourth in the nation averaging 23.8 ppg. He has scored at least 20 points in nine of the 13 games this season and has four 30-point performances.

NATION LEADERS

Seniors Kendrick Ray and Aubrey Williams are both leading the Owls on the court this season as well as top 10 in the nation in a couple of statistical categories.

After posting an average of 28.0 points per game in the Gotham Classic, Ray is fourth in the nation averaging 23.8 points per game. He has posted four 30-point performances, nine 20-point performances and has been in double figures in every game this season.

Williams has been a force on the boards grabbing 10.9 per game putting him 12th in the country. He has seven double-doubles this season already. His career high came against Brewton Parker earlier in the season when he pulled down 20.

400 Career Victories

Head Coach Al Skinner got win number 400 against North Carolina A&T as the Owls defeated the Aggies 68-60. He's currently in his 24th season as a head coach.

Rough Early Schedule

KSU's early schedule has been a grind as only four of the first 13 games have been at home. After making it through the tough stretch of road games, now KSU will have a string of home games with three in a row starting December 22. The Owls are 3-1 on their home court this season as they host Mercer on December 28.

Double-Double Machine

Through 13 games, Aubrey Williams is averaging 11.8 points and 10.9 rebounds with seven double-doubles. Last season, Ray had the most double-doubles all season with four.

Per 40 minutes, he is averaging 13.9 rebounds per game and pulls down 19.8 percent of all rebounds when he is on the floor.

Freshmen Boosting Bench Play

Johannes Nielsen has been a consistent boost off the bench this season for the Owls. He has scored in double figures four times and shoots at an incredibly consistent rate going 34-52 from the floor making 65.4 percent of his shots. Against N.C. A&T, Nielsen scored eight of his 11 points in the final four minutes to help the Owls secure the victory.

Against Rider, James Scott made his debut for the Owls and didn't disappoint. The freshman scored 16 points going 6-10 from the floor. Both players assisted KSU in two comebacks in the game with one being in the first half and the other being in the second half.

1,000 Career Points

After setting a single-season record with 579 points in his first season at Kennesaw State, Ray is closing in on 1,000 career points after 13 games this season.

In his career at KSU and Quinnipiac, Ray has accumulated 976 points with 889 coming at KSU and 87 happening at Quinnipiac.

Leading the ASUN

Ray is leading the ASUN averaging 23.8 points per game. He has scored 30-plus points four times this season against UMBC, Alabama State, UMass and N.C. A&T. He has scored 20 points in nine of the 13 games.

Against UMass, Ray scored 35 points and was one shy of tying a Kennesaw State single-season record set a couple seasons ago by Yonel Brown.

Smart Outside Shooting

Kennesaw State doesn't shoot a lot of threes, but when they do it's usually a good shot leading to a high shooting percentage from behind the arc. The Owls are second in the ASUN shooting 40.1 percent going 77-192 from three-point land.

The 192 attempts is the lowest in the ASUN by 66 attempts and is 219 attempts less than the league leader NJIT, who has shot 411 three pointers this season.

Masterson of the Three

Nick Masterson has stepped up his offense this season averaging 11.4 points per game with a 41.5 percentage from the floor. Out of the team's 77 three pointers, Masterson has made 33 of them.

There have been five games that he has made three+ three pointers and tied a school record with seven against Iowa.

Dynamic Offensive Duo

After Ray and Yonel Brown were the most potent duo on the offensive last season averaging over 37 points between them, Masterson has filled in that roll this season.

Him and Ray are leading the conference as the top scoring duo in the league. Between the two, they are averaging 35.2 points per game.

Out of the 77 threes that the team has made, this duo has hit 71 of them.

Newcomer of the Year

Ray is the first Kennesaw State player to win the Newcomer of the Year award since the A-Sun started to award it in 2014. The only other KSU student-athlete to win a post-season award was Andre Morgan when he won Freshman of the Year during the 2005-06 season.

To go along with the ESPN coverage, Westwood One will air the conference final for the second-straight season on national radio.

Reaching 100

Since Skinner has taken over, Kennesaw State has been very efficient and successful on offense. This season, the Owls are averaging 72.4 points per game shooting 44.9 percent from the floor.

In the first season Skinner instituted his continuity offense, the Owls scored over 100 points in three games last season against Reinhardt, Lipscomb and North Florida. Since joining the division I ranks, KSU had never reached the century mark in a game. The last time the team scored 100 points they played at the NAIA level in 1993-94.

HEAD COACH AL SKINNER

Al Skinner

Head Coach • 24th Year
UMass • 1974

Al Skinner, a former Division I national coach of the year and two-time BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year, was named the head coach of the Kennesaw State men's basketball program on April 26, 2015.

In his first season at Kennesaw State and 23rd season as a head coach, Skinner had a big impact on the Owls team guiding them to a .500 record in the Atlantic Sun Conference for the first time since the 2006-07 season. The team won four of its final five regular season games, including beating the back-to-back A-Sun Champions, North Florida.

A big part of the success came from the guard play as Kendrick Ray and Yonel Brown both thrived under Coach Skinner as each of them set a new Division I single-season Kennesaw State points record with 579 and 578 points respectively. The leading duo in the A-Sun finished as one of three pairs in the country to average over 18 points per game with Ray averaging 18.7 ppg and Brown averaging 18.6 ppg.

Both student-athletes were honored at the end of the season as they were named A-Sun Second Team All-Conference, and Ray was unanimously voted as the Newcomer of the Year.

A current member of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Ethics Coalition, Skinner guided his teams to nine NCAA Tournament appearances and four conference titles during tenures at the University of Rhode Island and Boston College. His teams posted ten 20-plus win seasons.

The winningest coach in BC history, Skinner spent 13 seasons at The Heights, compiling a 247-165 (.560) record from 1997-2010. He took Boston College to six NCAA Tournaments in a seven-year stretch, leading his 2005-06 team to the Sweet 16. Four of his teams finished the year ranked in the final Associated Press Top 25 Poll, including the 2001 and 2007 clubs that concluded those seasons at No. 7.

After guiding the Eagles to a 27-5 overall record and the second round of the NCAA Tournament, Skinner was named 2001 National Coach of the Year by Chevrolet/CBS, ESPN, Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News and the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA). He also earned BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Skinner earned BIG EAST Conference Coach of the Year again in 2005 after leading Boston College to a 25-5 mark and the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to his time at BC, Skinner spent nine seasons as head coach at Rhode Island, leading the Rams to a 138-126 (.523) mark. Skinner took over as head coach at URI in 1988 after serving as an assistant on the Rams' bench from 1984-88.

During his tenure in Kingston, he led Rhode Island to a pair of NCAA Tournament berths (1993 and 1997) and two more National Invitational Tournament (NIT) appearances (1992 and 1996), as well as three 20+ win seasons. He was named the Atlantic-10 Coach of the Year in 1991-92 and was inducted into the University of Rhode Island Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

Skinner came to Kennesaw State after serving two seasons as associate head coach under longtime friend Tim O'Shea at Bryant University where the Bulldogs compiled a 34-29 (.540) overall record, including a 22-12 (.647) mark in the Northeast Conference.

Skinner first broke into coaching as an assistant at Marist College in 1982 following successful stints in the ABA and NBA from 1974-80 (Nets, Pistons, 76ers). Drafted by the ABA's New York Nets in the eighth round of the 1974 draft, Skinner was named to the 1974-75 ABA All-Rookie Team and led the Nets to an ABA Championship a year later.

Prior to his professional playing career, Skinner spent three years on the court at the University of Massachusetts from 1971-74, becoming the only player in Minuteman history to be named a three-time All-Yankee Conference selection.

A team captain and All-America Honorable Mention in 1973-74, Skinner remains one of the most decorated players in UMass basketball history, concluding his career with 1,235 points, 749 rebounds and 320 assists in 79 games. Skinner was inducted into the UMass Athletics Hall of Fame in 1982, and his No. 30 jersey was retired by the Minutemen on Feb. 18, 2004.

Skinner and his wife, Donna, have two grown children, Vaniecia and Andre.
