Monday night's game marks the 21st meeting in the all-time series between the schools with the series knotted at 10-10. The Paladins downed Mercer, 85-74, in the last meeting in the 2016 home finale at Timmons Arena after Mercer claimed a 69-65 victory earlier in the season in Macon, Ga. In 10 meetings in Greenville, S.C., Furman holds a 7-3 series advantage.

- ♦ Matt Rafferty, a 6-foot-7 forward and 2016 SoCon All-Freshman selection, was a starting quarterback during his prep career at Hinsdale (Ill.) Central High School.
- ♦ Freshman Tre Clark is the son of former Notre Dame football standout Willie Clark, who went on to play five seasons in the NFL for the San Diego Chargers and Philadelphia Eagles.
- ♦ Frank Selvy is Furman's most decorated hoops standout having been named SoCon Player of the Year three times and UPI National Player of the Year in 1954. The No. 1 overall pick of the Baltimore Bullets in the 1954 NBA Draft, Selvy scored 100 points in Furman's 149-95 victory over Newberry on February 13, 1954.
- ♦ The Paladins produced the nation's scoring leader in four consecutive seasons from 1953-56. Selvy averaged 29.5 points per game in 1953 before averaging a then NCAA record 41.7 per contest to lead the country in 1954. Fellow All-American and Paladin standout Darrell Floyd paced the NCAA with a 35.9 per game average in 1955 and 33.8 per contest the following season.
- ♦ Furman is seeking to end a 36-year drought by claiming its first Southern Conference Tournament title and NCAA Tournament bid since 1980.

- ♦ Six Paladins combined to swat 12 Citadel shots in Saturday's 83-68 victory in the SoCon opener. Kris Acox and Jalen Williams each turned away three shots apiece as Furman recorded its highest blocked shots total since rejecting 14 shots in 77-69 triumph over Utah Valley on December 29, 2009, at the Cal Golden Bear Classic in Berkeley, Calif.
- ♦ Furman's 69-67 loss versus South Carolina State on December 16, marked a rare defeat for the Paladins at Timmons Arena where they are 18-4 in their last 22 games, have won 14 of their last 16 regular season games and claimed 10 straight wins versus SoCon opponents.
- ♦ After taking over the Furman program prior to the 2013-14 campaign, Coach Niko Medved's squad posted a 16-41 record in his first 57 games at the helm. His rebuilding efforts, however, began to take shape late in the 2014-15 season as Furman has fashioned a 31-24 overall record, beginning with its home win over Western Carolina on February 26, 2015. During the 51-game run, Furman has reached the finals of the 2015 SoCon Tournament, reeled off a record 14 home wins in 2016, recorded 11 consecutive home wins, reached the second round of the 2016 CollegeInsider.com Tournament and snapped UAB's 26-game

ORIGIN OF THE PALADIN

Furman University athletic teams were known by different names until the 1961 school year. The baseball team was "Hornets," the football team "Hurricane," and the basketball team "Paladins."

The basketball team was dubbed "Paladins" by a Greenville sportswriter in the 1930s. By vote of the student body, all Furman athletic teams became the "Paladins" on September 15, 1961. A Paladin is a knight on a horse and the recognized mascot of Furman University's athletic teams.

HEAD COACH NIKO MEDVED

Niko Medved is entering his fourth season at the helm of the Paladin program after being named Furman University's 21st head men's basketball coach on April 12, 2013.

In just his third season at Furman, Medved guided the Paladins to a 19-16 overall record, third place finish in the Southern Conference and the school's first postseason victory in 40 years. He helped the Paladins to a school record 14 home victories during the 2015-16 campaign and led the Paladins to the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

Under Medved's guidance, guard Stephen Croone earned SoCon Player of the Year honors and was named first team All-SoCon, while forward Matt Rafferty was selected to the SoCon All-Freshman squad.

A native of St. Paul, Minn., and former Furman assistant, Medved took the reigns of the Paladin basketball program prior to the 2013-14 season after spending the previous six years as an assistant coach at Colorado State University, where he helped guide the Rams to four consecutive postseason appearances, including back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2012 and 2013.

"I am thrilled to be the head coach at Furman University," said Medved, who served as an assistant coach for the Paladins for seven seasons from 2000-06. "This is an exciting time to be at Furman, it is an outstanding university with tremendous leadership and is a homecoming for my wife and me. Greenville is a beautiful community with great people, and we couldn't be happier to return to the Upstate. I have high expectations for the program, and I look forward to leading Furman basketball to new heights."

In Medved's first season at the helm of the Paladin program, Croone ranked second in the league in scoring at 19.1 points per game and earned All-Southern Conference honors. Rookie guard William Gates Jr. was selected to the SoCon All-Freshman squad as the Paladins notched nine wins.

During the 2014-15 season, Medved helped guide Furman to the Southern Conference Tournament finals for the first time in 13 seasons as the Paladins downed No. 2 seed Chattanooga and No. 3 seed Mercer en route to the championship game. Under Medved's leadership, guard Stephen Croone garnered All-SoCon honors and NABC All-District accolades for the second straight year and guard Devin Sibley captured SoCon Freshman of the Year honors.

During his time as an assistant at Colorado State, Medved helped engineer a complete revitalization of the Rams basketball program as part of head coach Tim Miles' staff. After going 7-25 in 2008 and 9-22 the following season, Medved's recruiting and player development paid dividends as the Rams posted a 16-16 mark in 2010 to secure a berth in the College Basketball Invitational. A 19-13 record the next season led to a NIT trip before Colorado State fashioned a 20-12 season in 2011-12 to notch the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2003 and its first 20-win campaign since 1998.

Working under head coach Larry Eustachy in 2012-13, Medved and the Rams posted a 26-9 record, finished second in the Mountain West Conference and earned Colorado State's first back-to-back NCAA Tournament trips since 1990. The No. 8 seeded Rams ousted Missouri in their tournament opener before falling to eventual national champion Louisville in the round of 32. The 2013 Rams set a school record for wins (26), led the MWC in scoring during league play, ranked first in the nation in rebounding margin and earned the school its first top 25 ranking in the Associated Press poll since 1954.

Medved's recruiting efforts produced numerous standout players during his six years in Fort Collins, Colo., including 2013 honorable mention AP All-American and first team All-Mountain West Conference choice Colton Iverson, 2013 Mountain West Conference Sixth Man of the Year Daniel Bejarano, second team All-MWC pick Dorian Green, third team all-league selection Pierce Hornung, 2012 first team All-MWC guard Wes Eikmeier and two-time all-league performer Andy Ogide.

Prior to Colorado State, Medved spent one season at the University of Minnesota where he was involved in all aspects of the program, including recruiting, scouting, player development and fundraising.

Preceding his year at Minnesota, he spent seven seasons as an assistant at Furman under head coach Larry Davis and served as the school's interim head coach in the spring of 2006. Medved was instrumental in helping rebuild a struggling Paladin program that had posted just five winning seasons in 19 years before his arrival. Furman registered winning seasons in each of Medved's last three years in Greenville and four of the final five seasons. He helped the Paladins reach their first Southern Conference championship game in over 20 years in 2002, and the school achieved its first winning record in league play in 23 years during the 2004-05 campaign. Medved helped the Paladins recruit the highest-scoring freshman class in the country in 2004, which included future 1,000-point scorers Robby Bostain, Moussa Diagne and Eric Webb.

Medved started his career at the University of Minnesota in 1992, where he was a student manager and assistant. He also served as the associate head coach at Macalester College from 1997-1999 and worked four years as an instructor at the prestigious Nike All-America camp. He completed his B.S. in kinesiology in 1997 and his master's in sport management in 1999, both from the University of Minnesota.

In August 2011, Medved married the former Erica Nesselroad of Morgantown, W.Va. Nesselroad, a Furman graduate, played three seasons as a member of the Paladin softball team.

- ♦ All six of Furman's losses this season have been decided by six points or less, including deciding shots in the final three seconds at Presbyterian, Winthrop and against S.C. State. Dating back to last season, 15 of Furman's last 16 losses have come by fewer than 10 points with the lone exception being an 11-point loss at Western Carolina in 2015-16. During the same span, Furman has recorded nine wins by six points or less, including buzzer beating victories last season versus Wofford and Louisiana-Lafayette.

- ♦ Victories at Liberty, Gardner-Webb and Tennessee Tech gave Furman three consecutive true road wins for the first time since the 2011-12 campaign. The 68-62 triumph at Tennessee Tech made Furman one of just 17 NCAA Division I teams to score at least four true road wins by December 19. The Paladins claimed just eight combined road wins over the previous four seasons and have earned four non-conference road victories for the first time since the 1954-55 campaign.

- ♦ Junior Devin Sibley, the 2015 Southern Conference Freshman of the Year, leads the Paladins averaging 15.8 points per game. After scoring a team-high 20 points in a three-point win at Gardner-Webb on December 10, the Knoxville, Tenn., native tallied 13 points and eight rebounds in a loss to S.C. State. He followed that effort with 21 points, seven boards and three assists in a road win at Tennessee Tech, including a 5-for-6 performance from three-point range. He connected on 6-of-11 shots to pace the Paladins with 16 points at Michigan last time out. The 6-foot-2 guard averaged 19.4 points per game over Furman's final eight contests of the 2015-16 season, including a career-high 29-point performance versus ETSU in the SoCon Tournament, as the Paladins reached the second round of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

- ♦ Forward Matt Rafferty returned to the Paladin lineup on November 17, at Georgia after having to sit out all summer and throughout the preseason following a back injury that required surgery in August. The 2016 SoCon All-Freshman selection, who has seen his minutes per game slowly increase over the first month of action, has contributed 7.7 points and 5.8 rebounds per game in 12 outings, while connecting on 56.1% of his shots from the floor.

- ♦ Senior Kris Acox returned to Furman in September after helping his native Iceland qualify for next August's FIBA EuroBasket Finals. Acox and Iceland posted a 4-2 record during Group A play of the EuroBasket Qualifiers and the 6-foot-6 forward poured in nine points and grabbed two rebounds as Iceland rallied from a 14-point deficit to down Belgium, 74-68, to clinch a spot in next summer's 24-team event, which will be held August 31 - September 17, 2017.

- ♦ The 2016-17 Furman Paladins return four starters from a squad that posted a 19-16 overall record and finished with a share of third place in the Southern Conference standings with an 11-7 league mark a year ago. Furman earned a bid to the 2016 CollegeInsider.com Tournament and earned its first postseason victory in 40 years by downing Louisiana Monroe, 58-57, in the opening round at Timmons Arena on a buzzer beating putback by Daniel Fowler. The Paladins dropped an 80-72 decision to Louisiana-Lafayette in round two.

- ♦ The biggest void for Furman to fill in 2016-17 will be at point guard where it graduated SoCon Player of the Year Stephen Croone. The Covington, Ga., product averaged 17.1 points per game a year ago and finished his four-year career as a Paladin ranked fifth in career points (1,936), sixth in assists (385) and fifth in steals (177). He led the Paladins to the 2015 SoCon Tournament finals before pacing Furman to 19 wins and a second round appearance in the CIT last season.

- ♦ Furman announced the addition of two players to its roster for the 2017-18 season during the November signing period. Forward Noah Gurley of Fayette County High School in Fayetteville, Ga., and guard Alex Hunter of Leesville Road High School in Raleigh, N.C., will join the roster next year. Gurley, a 6-foot-8 senior, averaged 17 points, eight rebounds and four blocked shots during a breakout junior campaign en route to earning AAAA all-state and Region 5-AAAA Player of the Year honors last season. Hunter poured in 18.1 points per game and added 7.1 assists, 3.2 steals and 3.1 rebounds per game as a junior at Leesville Road. The 5-foot-11 Hunter was named Cap 8 Conference Co-Player of the Year and all-conference for the third consecutive season.
