50 Years of Mercer Basketball

The Mercer women's basketball team is celebrating 50 years of competition throughout the 2020-21 season as the team is going to highlight a different decade each month from October to February for their accomplishments and the impact they made on the program.

Mercer's inaugural season was in 1970-71 when the Bears won their first-ever game against Wesleyan, 45-23.

Throughout the last half century, the Bears have collected multiple championship banners, including nine regular season conference titles and eight tournament crowns. Mercer has also won two regional tournaments and has been to the postseason 15 times.

Back on Top!

The Mercer Bears are back on top in the Southern Conference, claiming their third SoCon Tournament crown in the last four seasons. The Bears defeated Wofford in the title game, 60-38, setting a conference championship game record for fewest points allowed. With the win, Mercer is headed back to the NCAA Tournament for the third time since 2018.

Thirty Under 30

Mercer assistant coach Kaitlyn Cresencia was recognized as a WBCA Thirty Under 30 presented by Morgan Stanley Global Sports & Entertainment honoree, announced on Wednesday by the organization. The program recognizes 30 up-and-coming women's basketball coaches age 30 and under at all levels of the game. Cresencia is in her third season with the Bears works primarily with Mercer's post players. She is committed to empowering the student-athletes and has implemented multiple programs to help the team, most notably Mercer's 'Big Picture' life skills program, which is a full year curriculum dedicated to prepare the student-athletes for life outside of basketball.

Core Four

Mercer has one of the most dynamic offenses in the Southern Conference with four of the top seven scorers in the league. Junior Amoria Neal-Tysor (16.9 ppg) is the second-leading scorer in the conference, while fellow junior Jaron Dougherty (16.2 ppg) ranks third in the conference. Redshirt senior Jada Lewis (14.2 ppg) owns the fifth-best scoring average in the conference, and senior Shannon Titus (13.0 ppg) ranks seventh in the SoCon in scoring average.

Flipping the Script

After an uncharacteristic 8-23 season last year, Mercer has more than doubled its win total for the 2020-21 season and owns an overall mark of 19-6. The Bears are the most improved team in this year's field of 64 for the NCAA Tournament, recording more wins (11), fewer losses (17) and the greatest improvement in win percentage (50.2 percent) than anyone else at the Big Dance.

Mercer is one of only three teams in the tournament who was under .500 last season and the only team with single-digit wins. The Bears are one of only five teams to record at least 10 fewer losses than a season ago and one of 10 teams with more wins than in 2019-20. Additionally, Mercer is the only team to improve its win total by double digits.

I Feel Like Dancin'

Mercer returns to the Big Dance for the third time since 2018 after capturing the Southern Conference Tournament title. The Bears are one of just 24 teams to compete in each of the last three NCAA Tournaments, along with: Baylor, Belmont, Central Michigan, Florida Gulf Coast, Florida State, Gonzaga, Iowa, Louisville, Marquette, Maryland, Michigan, N.C. State, Oregon, Oregon State, South Carolina, South Dakota State, Stanford, Syracuse, Tennessee, Texas, Texas A&M, UCLA and UConn.

Most Outstanding Amoria

Junior Amoria Neal-Tysor had a stellar Southern Conference Tournament that led to her being named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. The Sanford, N.C., native averaged 25.7 points per game while shooting 45.3 percent (29-of-64) from the field and 40.7 percent (11-of-27) from beyond-the-arc. She opened Mercer's championship run by scoring 27 points against Western Carolina in the quarterfinals before dropping a career-high 34 points against Furman to send the Bears back to the SoCon Championship game for the fifth time in six years. Neal-Tysor contributed 16 more points against Wofford in the title game.

Neal-Tysor has been a scoring machine over the last five games, going for double figures in all five games with four 20-point performances while averaging 24.8 points over that stretch.

Reaching Your Goals

Graduate transfer Jada Lewis came to Mercer for one reason: to win a championship and go to the NCAA Tournament. As a leader in the locker room, Lewis made her dreams a reality as she continued Mercer's tradition of winning by earning the program's third SoCon title in the last four years with a 60-38 victory over Wofford in the championship game on March 7.

Lewis, who became accustomed to winning at McEachern High School where she won four Georgia State titles, quickly became a leader for Mercer both on and off the court. She played a major role in the Bear's offensive success this season as her 87 assists leads the team, while her 45 3-pointers made rank second on the team and her 14.2 points per game is the third-best scoring average.

Last Time Out

Mercer captured its third Southern Conference Tournament Championship in the last four years with a 60-38 victory over No. 4 Wofford at Harrah's Cherokee Center on March 7.

With the win, the Bears earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament, securing the automatic bid from the SoCon.

Mercer led wire-to-wire and defended Wofford exceptionally well as a team, allowing the Terriers to score just 38 points in the game to set a new SoCon Championship Game record. The Orange and Black also posted the largest margin of victory in the championship game since 2014 when Chattanooga defeated Davidson by 26 points, 71-45.

The Bears prevented any of the Terriers' players to reach double figures while limiting Wofford to shooting just 24.5 percent (13-of-53) from the field, marking just the third time this season Mercer held its opposition under 25 percent from the floor. The team's perimeter defense played a large factor in that as well, holding the Terriers to just 4-of-16 (25.0 pct.) from beyond-the-arc. It was the 15th time this season a Mercer opponent shot 25.0 percent or worse on 3-pointers.

Shannon Titus, the SoCon Defensive Player of the Year each of the past two years, held down the fort in Mercer's defensive end, gathering 10 rebounds while blocking four shots and earning a steal.

Three Bears scored in double figures in the game, led by Jaron Dougherty's game-high 19 points. Amoria Neal-Tysor added 16 points of her own, while Jada Lewis chimed in with 13 points. Dougherty collected her 10th double-double of the year with 11 rebounds in the title matchup, while adding a career-high six steals on the defensive end of the floor. Allie Thayne played a huge role in the team's offensive efforts in the game as well with six of her seven rebounds coming on the offensive glass.

Series History

The Bears are 2-6 all-time against South Carolina and will share the hardwood with the Gamecocks for the first time since Nov. 24, 2006. Mercer's last win over South Carolina came on Jan. 15, 1981, while this will be the first neutral site meeting between the two squads since Dec. 21, 1977.

Scouting the Gamecocks

South Carolina earned the No. 1 seed in the Hemisfair regional after going 22-4 and capturing the SEC Tournament championship. The Gamecocks, who enter the tournament ranked fifth in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches poll and sixth in the AP poll, defeated Georgia, 67-62, to capture their sixth conference crown in the last seven seasons.

The 2017 national champions are led by sophomore forward Aliyah Boston, who is one of four finalists for the 2021 Jersey Mike's Naismith Trophy after being named a First Team All-American by the Associated Press and ESPN.com. Boston, who also collected co-Defensive Player of the Year honors from the SEC, averages 13.7 points and 11.7 rebounds per game while posting 15 double-doubles. Additionally, she is one of just 13 players in the country who recorded a triple-double this season.

Boston is one of three South Carolina players averaging double-digit points, along with Zia Cooke (15.9) and Destanni Henderson (12.6).

As a team, the Gamecocks lead the nation in blocks (184) and blocks per game (7.1), while ranking third in rebound margin (+14.8) and total rebounds (1,240). They are also fourth in rebounds per game (47.6) and offensive rebounds per game (16.6).

Susie Gardner

Head Coach ♦ 22nd Season Overall ♦ 11th Season at Mercer ♦ Georgia '86, '88

Mercer University named veteran NCAA Division I coach Susie Gardner as the school's 10th women's basketball head coach on June 24, 2010.

With more than 350 Division I wins on her resume, Coach Gardner has transformed Mercer into one of the top mid-major programs in the NCAA, let alone the Southeast.

Gardner has accumulated 177 total wins at Mercer, making her the all-time winningest coach in program history. Gardner's teams have amassed 20-plus wins in six-of-the-last-eight seasons, including five consecutive 20-or-more win seasons from 2014-2019.

In the 2019-20 season, Mercer advanced to the SoCon Semifinals for the sixth-consecutive season after knocking off No. 2 Chattanooga 63-55 for its first-ever tournament win over the Mocs. The Bears became the first 7-seed to advance to the conference semifinals since 2014 with the win. Gardner coached the SoCon Defensive Player of the Year in Shannon Titus, who put together one of the best defensive seasons in program history. She became the first Mercer player with 75+ steals and 50+ blocks in the same season and was the only player in Division I to accomplish that feat. Under Gardner, Mercer led the SoCon in blocks, blocks per game, steals, steals per game and turnovers forced while ranking 14th in the country in blocks.

Mercer continued its winning ways once again in the 2018-19 campaign, winning its second-straight Southern Conference Tournament title and advancing to the NCAA Tournament where the Bears fell just short of pulling off the upset of second-seed Iowa in Iowa City. The Bears won at least 25 games for the third straight season after going 25-7 overall and 14-0 in conference play while extending a streak of 34 consecutive SoCon regular season victories. Following the season, Gardner was named the SoCon Women's Basketball Coach of the Year and the Georgia Women's Coach of the Year. KeKe Calloway and Amanda Thompson shared SoCon Player of the Year honors (media and coaches, respectively) and Thompson was later named the SoCon Female Athlete of the Year.

The 2017-18 season was one for the record books as Mercer registered its first 30-win season in program history. The Bears concluded the season with a 30-3 overall record, claiming both the Southern Conference Regular Season and Tournament Titles. Mercer earned its first-ever nod in the NCAA Division I Tournament after snatching the SoCon's automatic berth. Mercer's SoCon Regular Season Title was the third consecutive season that the Bears claimed the top slot. Mercer has now competed in the postseason in four consecutive seasons following the NCAA Tournament berth.

During the 2017-18 season, Mercer led the conference in 12 categories, including but not limited to: scoring offense (70.7), scoring defense (54.9), total assists (538), assists per game (16.3), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.78) and field-goal percentage (43.7). The Bears also finished first in the NCAA in fewest turnovers (303) and turnovers per game (9.2).

Prior to the start of the 2016-17 season, Gardner authored a children's book to help promote children's literacy titled "1, 2, 3 Team!". The book, which touches on teamwork and how to be a good teammate, is geared towards readers ages four to eight. Gardner was named a finalist for the Georgia Author of the Year Award in the Children's Book category.

In her time at Mercer, Gardner has coached four SoCon Players of the Year, including Kahlia Lawrence who has thrice garnered the award. In addition, Gardner has coached three Freshman of the Year winners, one Defensive Player of the Year, nine First Team All-Conference honorees and three Second Team All-Conference winners. Five freshmen have been awarded a spot on the conference All-Freshmen team under Gardner's tutelage. Gardner has been twice named SoCon Coach of the Year (2018, 2016). Gardner's teams also excel in the classroom as 31 student-athletes have been named to the Academic Honor Roll/All-Academic Team under her guidance.

Gardner has taken the Bears to five postseason tournaments in eight seasons. Prior to Gardner's arrival, Mercer had not competed in postseason play since 1985. Under Gardner's guidance, Mercer has taken part in one NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament, two Women's National Invitation Tournaments and two Women's Basketball Invitational Tournaments.

Before arriving at Mercer, Gardner spent three seasons (2007-10) as an assistant coach at the University of Florida. She joined the Gators after four seasons (2003-07) as the head coach at the University of Arkansas, giving her seven seasons as a coach in the Southeastern Conference.

While at Florida, the 2009 Gators advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament with Gardner on staff. Florida sandwiched the NCAA Tournament appearance with WNIT appearances in 2008 and 2010 (advancing to the round of 16 during Gardner's first year and to the second round in 2010).

With Gardner at the Razorbacks' helm in 2004-05, Arkansas earned a trip to the WNIT tournament. Prior to that, she had the SEC Player of the Year in 2003-04. Arkansas was a combined 64-54 during Gardner's tenure and her 2005-06 team raced out to the best SEC start in the Lady 'Hogs program history.

Gardner cut her teeth as a Division I head coach at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn., where she had a highly successful seven-season run (1996-2003) and was 112-93. The Lady Govs accomplishments during that period included three Ohio Valley Conference tournament championships (2001, 2002 & 2003), and OVC regular season title (2003) and three NCAA post-season berths (2001, 2002 & 2003). Gardner was tabbed as the OVC "Coach of the Year" in 2003. She also produced the OVC Player of the Year in both 2003 and 2004, with her players also garnering the league's Freshman of the Year awards twice (2000 and 2001).

From 1992-95, Gardner was the assistant coach at Western Athletic Conference power San Diego State University. In her three seasons with the Aztecs, she was a part of a program that won three-consecutive WAC tournament championships and, subsequently, also made three NCAA tourney appearances. SDSU was 69-20 with Gardner on staff and garnered two WAC regular season crowns in 1994 and 1995.

Gardner is no stranger to middle Georgia or the Southeast region, having spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (1986-88) following a highly-successful four-year career for the Bulldogs under legendary head coach Andy Landers. UGA made the NCAA Final Four in 1983 and 1985 with Gardner on the squad - including a national runner-up finish in 1985 - and reached the NCAA tournament both of her years as a graduate assistant, as well. The Bulldogs won the SEC title in 1983, 1984 and 1986 as Gardner played alongside other noteworthy Georgia players like Teresa Edwards, Janet Harris and Katrina McClain.

Gardner was a member of the 1983 Sports Festival South Team which earned a gold medal. She was also a member of the USA's Select Team which competed in Canada.

Gardner earned her Bachelor of Science degree from Georgia in 1986, followed by a Master of Education degree in 1988.

Stat of the Game

The biggest stat to standout on the sheets was Georgia's ability to score in the post and grab rebounds. The Lady Bulldogs outrebounded Mercer 45-34, while owning the paint, 32-8.

Player of the Game

Sydney Means had an all-around performance today, scoring 11 points, while dishing seven assists and grabbing five rebounds. Means did not turn the ball over once and managed to swipe three steals in the process.

How It Happened

Neither team could grow separation from one another through the first 10 minutes of play as Georgia led by as many as three points. It was Mercer who struck first following Rachel Selph's jumper from the charity stripe for the 2-0 advantage. It didn't take long for KeKe Calloway to catch fire, banking home a three from downtown Macon to become the single-season SoCon leader in three pointers made with 96. Calloway tacked on two more triples, becoming Mercer's all-time leader in career threes. There were five ties in the opening frame with the last being at 14 apiece. Mercer outscored Georgia 5-4 over the final 3:57 to take the 19-18 lead at the break.

The second quarter proved to be much like the first quarter with neither team able to separate from one another. Lawrence registered 10 of Mercer's 12 points in the second quarter, while also assisting on Mercer's other basket with a dish to Sydney Means before the buzzer. The Lady Bulldogs outscored Mercer 16-12 in the second quarter to take the three-point lead, leading by as many as five points and trailing by as many as four.

The Lady Bulldogs owned the first five minutes of the second half, outscoring Mercer 11-3 to take the 45-34 lead. Georgia's Que Morrison scored six of the team's first 11 points in the half to help build the lead. The Bears stormed back to cut the deficit to five with 2:35 remaining in the quarter following a corner three from Calloway. The Lady Bulldogs stretched their lead back to 11, however Mercer proved resilient yet again, trimming the deficit to four at the conclusion of the quarter. With just five seconds remaining, LaKaitlin Wright pulled down a Georgia miss and found Lawrence for a three-point attempt at the buzzer. Lawrence missed the shot but was fouled and capitalized on all three attempts from the charity stripe to trim the Georgia lead to 52-48 with 10 minutes remaining.

The fourth-quarter went back-and-forth, despite Georgia never relinquishing the lead. Mercer cut the deficit to one possession 11 times in the fourth quarter, but could not get over the hump as the Lady Bulldogs held on to outscore Mercer 16-15 in the final 10 minutes of play.

NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES // MERCER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2019 NCAA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP FIRST ROUND Iowa City, Iowa | March 22, 2019

IOWA CITY, Iowa - Fifteenth-seeded Mercer's upset bid came up just short in a 66-61 loss to No. 2-seeded Iowa in the first round of the 2019 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament at Carver-Hawkeye Arena on Friday afternoon.

The Bears (25-8) forced Iowa (27-6) into 24 turnovers and tallied a season-best 17 steals behind a tenacious defensive game plan that translated to Mercer owning a two-point lead with just over four minutes remaining in the contest. Mercer was eliminated from the NCAA Tournament with the loss while Iowa advanced to the second round, where it will play No. 7 Missouri, which defeated No. 10 Drake in overtime.

Player of the Game

Amanda Thompson was the glue yet again for Mercer on Friday, doing a bit of everything to will the Bears to a near upset. The senior totaled 18 points (9-of-16), seven rebounds, six steals and two assists.

How It Happened

A buzzer-beating bucket by Shannon Titus at the end of the third quarter gave Mercer its first lead of the game, 51-50, and officially put the Hawkeyes on upset alert on their home court. Both teams traded blows to open the fourth quarter with Rachel Selph hitting a layup to go lead 53-52. Mercer's largest advantage of the contest (56-52) came with six minutes and 58 seconds remaining when KeKe Calloway knocked down one of her five three-pointers.

Calloway scored Mercer's final eight points in the game and made another three-pointer to regain the lead, 59-57, for Mercer. Iowa stifled the Bears' attack down the stretch, however. Shannon Titus fouled out with 2:56 remaining and Iowa leading 60-59. With Mercer trailing by three points with 13 seconds left, a jump ball was rewarded to Iowa, who then sealed it with two made free throws. The Hawkeyes scored nine of the final 11 points in the game.

Mercer's defensive presence kept the game tight throughout. Titus set the tone defensively in the first quarter, tallying two blocks and one steal on the Hawkeyes' first four possessions. The Bears fed off that and recorded seven steals and one block as a team over the first 10 minutes. Despite a scoring drought of nearly three minutes, Mercer heated up toward the end of the quarter and hit its final four shots, including two jumpers by Amanda Thompson, to trail by just four points, 16-12.

Five more steals by the Bears late in the second quarter helped them score eight of the final 13 points in the half to trail Iowa, 35-27, heading into the locker room. A pivotal 7-0 run with baskets by Calloway, Titus and Thompson in the third quarter shifted momentum in favor of Mercer. The Bears outscored Iowa, 24-15, in the frame.

Mercer - 61 • 25-8
