THE PARTICULARS

DROP THE PUCK

» The Merrimack College men's ice hockey team opens up a home-and-home series with No. 14 UMass Lowell on Friday at the Tsongas Center. Puck drop is set for 7:15 p.m.

FIVE THINGS TO KNOW

- » Merrimack will be meeting UMass Lowell for the first time since sweeping last year's Hockey East Tournament Opening Round best-of-three series. The Warriors took three of four games against the River Hawks last season; in addition to their postseason series sweep, they also split a home-and-home weekend in the regular season.
- » After winning three straight at one point in January, Merrimack has gone winless in its last seven games since then (0-6-1).
- » Merrimack has been outscored by 22 goals (33-11) in its last seven games.
- » Five of Merrimack's top-seven scorers are juniors, but rookie Chase Gresock leads the way with a team-high 20 points and nine goals, with 11 of those points coming in the last nine games. He is followed on the scoresheet by juniors Tyler Irvine (6g, 12a), Johnathan Kovacevic (4g, 11a), Sami Tavernier (3g, 9a), Patrick Kramer (5g, 5a) and Logan Coomes (2g, 7a). Senior Derek Petti is also up to 12 points on the year (5g, 7a), while Kovacevic is the team's top-scoring defenseman.
- » Merrimack will take on a UMass Lowell squad that sits in a tie for second place in the league standings a 10-game unbeaten streak. That run, however, ended last weekend when the River Hawks were swept in a two-game home-and-home series against Providence, as they were outscored by six goals over that stretch.

UP NEXT

» Merrimack will play its final home game of the season on Thursday, Feb. 28, against the University of Massachusetts. Puck drop is set for 7 p.m.

GETTING GREASY

Chase Gresock is the first Merrimack rookie to hit the 20-point threshold since 2018 graduates Brett Seney (26) and Jace Hennig (21) did so during their freshman years in 2014-15. He has 11 points in his last nine games alone.

BUCK THE TREND

- » Since ranking fifth in scoring in 2010-11 at 3.67 goals/game, Merrimack has finished no higher than 35th in any of the seven following seasons, falling as low as 57th (1.88).
- » So far this year, the Warriors clock in at 55th nationally in scoring offense (1.93) and 58th in shooting percentage (7.2).

THE JUNIOR CIRCUIT

- » The junior class has produced the bulk of Merrimack's scoring so far this season with 75 points in 30 games (2.50/game).
- » That accounts for 48.1 percent of the team's total offense.
- » Only 20 other teams nationwide -- and four in Hockey East -- have gotten more productivity out of their junior class.

LEADING THE PACK

- » Freshman Chase Gresock leads Merrimack in scoring so far with 20 points on the strength of a team-high nine goals. He is the first Merrimack rookie to hit the 20-point threshold since 2018 graduates Brett Seney (26) and Jace Hennig (21) did so during their freshman years in 2014-15.
- » Junior Tyler Irvine ranks second in overall scoring is the top play-maker with a team-high 12 assists, a new career-high.
- » Junior Johnathan Kovacevic is the top scoring d-man with 15 points (4g, 11a) and ranks third in overall scoring.
- » Gresock is also the highest scoring rookie on the team and ranks seventh among all Hockey East rookies (9-11--20).

UPS AND DOWNS

- » Merrimack has scored three-plus goals nine times and is 3-5-1 in those games. They have also been held to two goals or fewer 20 times, with four shutout losses, but oddly enough, they have more wins in those games (4-11-1).
- » However, Merrimack has been held to two or fewer goals in 13 of the last 17 games and is 1-11-1 in those contests.

SHOTS, SHOTS, SHOTS

- » Merrimack averages 26.97 shots per game (49th/NCAA).
- » Merrimack's high water mark for total shots in a single game was 41 against Maine on Feb. 16 (4-2 loss). They have recorded 30-plus shots in just 10 games all year.
- » Freshman Chase Gresock leads Merrimack and is among the league leaders in shots on goal with 92.
- » Before Feb. 16, Merrimack's last game with 40-plus shots was its March 2, 2018 postseason tilt at UMass Lowell last March.

MINIMAL

- » Merrimack's lowest shots total was 11 vs. Providence (11/16), marking its lowest in a game since Feb. 28, 2015 at UNH.
- » Merrimack broke a streak of 11 straight games without 30-plus shots in its 5-1 loss against Colorado College on Dec. 31, but has now shot under 30 in seven of its last 11 games since.

POWER OUTAGE

- » Merrimack's power play ranks 58th nationally (12.6%) despite averaging 4.50 power play attempts per game (7th/NCAA).
- » Merrimack had a season-high 10 power play attempts on Feb. 16 against Maine but scored just once.
- » The last time Merrimack had 10+ power play opportunities was against Sacred Heart on Oct. 9, 2016, when it went 1-for-14 on the man advantage and also lost (2-1).

ON THE DOTS

- » Merrimack has struggled in faceoffs, ranking 55th nationally and last in Hockey East at a 45.4 percent clip (859-1032).
- » Senior Michael Babcock leads the team with 255 total wins, while Derek Petti boasts the top win percentage at 48.8%.

DEFENSE

BLUE LINE BRIEFING

- » Merrimack's defense has kept the opposition under three goals just 10 times and is second-to-last in the country allowing 3.87 goals per game and last in Hockey East.
- » Merrimack also surrenders 31.47 shots per game (43rd/NCAA) and ranks 51st nationally in average shots margin (-4.50).

DEFENSELESS

- » Merrimack's defense is close to yielding over four goals per game for the first time in about 15 years (2004-05).
- » That team yielded 4.06 per game and won just eight times.
- » Merrimack allowed seven goals in three straight games at one point, the first time it has done so since January of 1998.
- » The nine goals allowed against Northeastern on Nov. 30 were the most since a 9-2 defeat at Michigan on Oct. 16, 2005.
- » Overall, Merrimack has now allowed six or more goals seven times, the most since the 1997-98 season (15).

MIND YOUR NET

- » Senior Craig Pantano is tied for fifth nationwide with four shutouts on the season, picking up his most recent blanking thanks to a career-high 42 saves Northeastern on Jan. 5.
- » Pantano is also 4-3-1 when recording 30 or more saves.
- » Senior Drew Vogler is 1-2-0 with a .910 SV% and 3.07 GAA in his last three games since the calendar turned to 2019.

MARGINAL

- » Merrimack's average scoring margin in a game is down to -1.93, the third-worst figure nationwide.
- » In league play, the number is -2.40, the worst mark nationally.

TWO AND UNDER AND DONE

- » In all of Merrimack's seven wins, the team has either shut out its opponent (four times) or hold them to two goals or less (3).
- » Otherwise, the Warriors have allowed three-plus goals in 19 of their 21 losses. Their only losses when allowing two or fewer are vs. Lake Superior (10/7, 1-0) and at UNH (1/4, 2-1, OT).

POINTS FROM THE POINT

- » Defensemen have accounted for just over 22 percent of Merrimack's offensive production with 34 points altogether, led by junior Johnathan Kovacevic's 15 points (4g, 11a).
- » Senior Alex Carle scored his first goal since Nov. 17, 2017, at Providence, when he lit the lamp last Saturday against Maine.
- » That accounted for the senior captain's first goal in 457 days.

KILLER INSTINCT?

- » Merrimack's penalty kill has been perfect in only nine games this year, including two games with seven-plus penalty kills and a season-high nine kills at Bemidji State on Nov. 10.
- » On the year, the unit ranks 57th nationally at 75.2 percent.
- » Merrimack's longest successful penalty-killing streak was 13 straight from Dec. 31 vs. Colorado College to Jan. 12 vs. UConn.
- » But it has also allowed two-plus goals in 10 games, including two games with three goals (vs. LSSU - 10/6; at BU - 1/21).

NOTES & NOTABLES

CENTURY MARKS

- » Senior Alex Carle and graduate student Matt McArdle both hit the century mark for career games played on Dec. 28 against Denver, becoming the third and fourth members of the senior class to do so.
- » Junior Tyler Irvine did so on Jan. 26 against Vermont, and classmate Sami Tavernier hit the mark on Feb. 15 against Maine.

OH BEHAVE

- » Merrimack is averaging 13.5 penalty minutes per game (9th/NCAA), giving opponents 4.43 power plays per game on average (12th/NCAA).
- » The last season that featured this many penalty minutes was in 2014-15 when it finished the year ranked fifth averaging 14.7 minutes per game.

IT USED TO BE A SURE THING

- » Merrimack's Jan. 4 loss at UNH ended its 52-game unbeaten streak when leading after two periods, dating back to November of 2013.
- » Merrimack was 44-0-8 in its last 52 games when leading after two periods.
- » The last time the team squandered a two-period lead and lost was on Nov. 30, 2013, at Yale; Merrimack blew a 1-0 lead and lost in overtime, 3-2.

SLOW STARTS

- » Merrimack is winless this season when allowing the first goal (0-14-0).
- » Their -19 goal margin in the first period isn't helping the cause, nor is their overall goal margin of -58 which ranks third-to-last nationally.
- » The Warriors are also yet to win a game when trailing after the first period (0-15-0) and when trailing after the second period (0-17-0).
- » Since the start of 2014-15, the Warriors have conceded the game's first goal in 104 games and have just 16 wins in those games (16-77-11, .207%).

YOU WOULDN'T THINK IT WOULD BE THE CASE...

- » ...but Merrimack has outshot the opponent in seven games and is winless.
- » Meanwhile, on the flip side, the Warriors' only seven wins have been when they have either been outshot by the opposition or tied in shots on goal.

SPREAD THE WEALTH

- » Merrimack had five different goal-scorers in its win vs. UConn on Jan. 12.
- » The 10 different point-scorers against UConn, meanwhile, are the most for the team in a game all season, topping the games against Lake Superior (10/6) and BU (10/20) that saw nine different players with at least one point.

AGAINST THE LEAGUE

- » Last year, Merrimack was 10-16-2 in league play and was outscored by a 78-59 margin (-19). It also won just two regular season series (UConn, UNH).
- » The Warriors are 4-15-1 with a league-worst -46 goal margin in 2018-19. They have yet to win any season series this year; they split with UConn.

THREE OR NOTHING?

- » So far in 2018-19, the Warriors are 3-5-1 when scoring three-plus goals and 4-16-1 when being held to two goals or fewer.
- » That is quite the contrast to the past five years; Merrimack had only four losses in the previous three years combined when scoring three-plus goals.
- » Since 2014-15, Merrimack is 49-11-9 (.775) when scoring 3+ goals, compared to 14-84-14 (.188) when scoring two or less.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

- » The Warriors have posted a winning record at Lawler Rink in eight of the last 11 years. So far in 2018-19, Merrimack is 3-10-2 in 14 home games.
- » Merrimack's last season with a winning road record was in 2011-12 (8-7-3).
- » The Warriors are 4-11-1 on the road so far this season.

IRON WARRIORS

- » Rising senior Michael Babcock represents the Warriors' iron man, leading all players with 139 appearances over his career.

NEVER HAVE I EVER

- » The two schools Merrimack has never faced are Mich. Tech and Penn State.

SCOTT BOREK Head Coach First Season

Scott Borek was named the eighth head coach of the men's ice hockey program in April of 2018. Borek arrived in North Andover with 33 years of collegiate coaching experience, including eight as a head coach.

Borek has spent the last 16 years as a Hockey East associate head coach, qualifying for the NCAA Tournament 13 times, while capturing five Hockey East regular season championships and one tournament championship. Over that time span, he has recruited 12 All-Americans, 16 student-athletes who played in the NHL and 18 Hockey East All-Conference honorees.

Serving as the associate head coach at Providence since 2015, Borek's responsibilities included oversight of recruiting, team defense and the penalty kill. This season, the Friars' defense was second in Hockey East and seventh nationally, while the penalty kill also was second in the league and sixth nationally. Providence advanced to the NCAA Tournament in all three seasons with Borek on the coaching staff.

Before Providence, Borek spent 13 seasons as the associate head coach at the University of New Hampshire. Serving as the recruiting coordinator while overseeing the team's forwards and power play units, Borek helped guide the Wildcats to nine NCAA Tournament appearances, a trip to the 2003 Frozen Four NCAA Championship game, one Hockey East Tournament title, and four Hockey East Tournament Championship game appearances.

Prior to joining Dick Umile's staff at UNH, Borek was the head coach at New England College in 2001-02. He also spent five seasons as the head coach of Lake Superior State from 1996-01, following a one-year stint there as Associate Head Coach under current Notre Dame head coach Jeff Jackson. As the Lakers' head coach, he was named the CCHA Coach of the Year in 2000 and was a Spencer Penrose Award Finalist, given to the Division I National Coach of the Year. Before Lake Superior State, Borek was also the head coach at Colby College from 1993-96 and was a finalist for the Division III Coach of the Year award in 1994.

Borek's coaching career began as a student assistant at Dartmouth College, after he sustained a career-ending neck injury during his sophomore campaign. He graduated from Dartmouth in 1985 with a B.A. in English and was immediately named an assistant coach for the Big Green.

Borek is married to the former Jill McCune. Together they have seven children, including Madeline Borek Harris (23), who along with her husband Caleb Harris live in Pennsylvania, Charley who is a sophomore at Tufts University, and Owen who is a senior at Brooks School in North Andover. Borek's son Gordie tragically passed in 2016 at the age of 22, as a sophomore at the University of New Hampshire. Jack, Jacob and Emma are age 15 and presently entering 9th grade at Triton School in Newbury, Massachusetts.
