TEAM HISTORY YOST ARENA

RED BERENSON RINK AT YOST ICE ARENA: HOME OF MICHIGAN HOCKEY FOR OVER 40 YEARS

The 2022-23 season marked the 50th year in which Yost Ice Arena served as the home of the Michigan ice hockey team. Since 1973-74, Yost has hosted more than five million fans who have helped make it one of the most exciting and intimidating venues in college hockey. The atmosphere has helped Michigan on the ice significantly.

The University of Michigan Board of Regents approved Oct. 19, 2017, an addition to the naming structure at historic Yost Arena. In honor of a legendary figure, the regents formally approved the designation of the ice rink as the Red Berenson Rink at Yost Ice Arena.

Yost Ice Arena is one of the most unique buildings in college hockey because it retains the charm of an old barn, but offers the amenities of the most modern of arenas. A new center-hung scoreboard featuring HD video boards was installed in 2011. Over the summer of 2012, the building received new bleachers, additional premium seating, an upgraded concourse and a new press box at a cost of $16 million.

In 2006, a $2 million project involved the creation of a new opponent locker room that is situated at the opposite end of the ice from U-M's locker room, making entering and exiting the ice easier for both teams.

The facility underwent a $1.4 million renovation in 2001, which installed a new balcony directly across from the press box that juts out over existing stands and provides nearly 300 new seats. In the entrance to the new seating level is a lounge that opens up onto a platform in the northeast corner of the arena and overlooks the ice. A new stairwell, new restrooms and a kitchen adjacent to the new seating area were also added to improve the amenities for the individuals sitting in the club seats. In addition, a center ice scoreboard

When construction was finished on Yost Field House in November, 1923, it became the nation's first field house. In 1973, Yost Ice Arena became the home of Michigan Hockey. Since 1996, over $21 million has been spent to upgrade the locker room facilities for U-M and its opponents, and to install new bleachers, an upgraded concourse, a new press box, additional club seating, as well as a state-of-the-art HD video board.

and monitors underneath the east and west wing balconies were installed.

A $5.5 million renovation project completed prior to the 1996-97 season brought new dasher boards with tempered glass, improved lighting and sound systems, ceiling insulation and the replacement of end zone scoreboards with fully automated boards on the east and west sides. First floor remodeling brought with it a new pro shop, concession stands and restrooms, new locker rooms and an improved lobby, complete with trophy showcases and ornate woodwork. Seating throughout was re-configured, and sight lines were improved.

The new second floor varsity area houses a well-appointed locker room and training area/weight room suite used exclusively by the Michigan hockey team. Second floor renovations also created a new concourse, complete with arena administrative offices and an elevator. Upgraded press facilities boast an enviable center ice vantage point.

In 1992, a $1 million project replaced the rink floor and refrigeration unit, and included the addition of a desiccant dehumidification system.

On five occasions, Yost has hosted NCAA tournament action. In addition to hosting tournament games in 1976-77 and 1990-91, the West Regional was held in Ann Arbor at the end of the 1997-98 and the 2001-02 seasons, while the Midwest Regional was held at Yost in 2002-03. In 1998, Michigan won a pair of games – including a 4-3 come-from-behind victory over the defending national champions, North Dakota – to advance to the Frozen Four where the Wolverines won their NCAA-record ninth national championship. In 2002, again Michigan won a pair of games at Yost to advance to the Frozen Four. In 2003, U-M was the only non-No. 1 seed to advance to the NCAA Frozen Four, toppling Maine and Colorado College on its home ice.

Built in 1923 as a field house, the structure was named in honor of Michigan's legendary football coach and athletic director, Fielding H. Yost. Before being converted to an ice arena in 1973, the building housed the great track teams of the 1950s and the Cazzie Russell-led basketball teams of the mid-1960s.

Although no one can fill Yost to capacity (5,800) quite like the Wolverines, a number of others, including local high school teams and recreational leagues call it home.

TEAM HISTORY

YOST ICE ARENA

The True Impact of Yost Ice Arena's Fans

"The crowd really energizes you and gives you an extra jump in your step. They really get behind us. It's a fun atmosphere to play in. It has to be intimidating for the other team to have to come in and play here." – Brendan Morrison, 1997 Hobey Baker winner and U-M captain

"This building is a big part of why I came here. On my first recruiting visit, the crowd was so unbelievable I wanted to get on the ice and start playing right then."

--Kevin Porter, 2008 Hobey Baker winner and former U-M captain

"The teams are already down two goals when they come into this place. It's a pretty ruthless crowd. When you play for Michigan, in their eyes, you can do no wrong. And, that's pretty special too ... a lot of guys feed off that energy." – Blake Sloan, former U-M alternate captain

"It's a hostile environment and that's why I think it's fun. I just think it captures the entire college atmosphere. The stands are right on top of you, and the fans are active and vocal." --Tom Anastos, former CCHA Commissioner

The Reputation

Yost Ice Arena's reputation for inducing a crowd-crazy atmosphere filtered right onto the April 28, 1997, pages of Sports Illustrated, which featured the game-night intensity prominently among its look at America's Top 50 athletic schools.

"Wolverines Capture National Hockey Title"

By B.S. Brown and Herb Ruskin
The Michigan Daily

COLORADO SPRINGS - Michigan reigns tonight as National Collegiate hockey champions. Flashing a powerful attack, the Wolverines netted four goals in the third period to cut down a strong Dartmouth sextet, 8-4, and wrap up the first NCAA championship.

Wally Gacek was again the hero of the evening as he worked the 'hat trick' and added three assists for a six-point total. It was Gacek who set up what proved to be the winner, feeding a pass to Wally Grant, who fired a 15-footer into Dartmouth's goal at 1:30 of the third. Gordie McMillan added a goal at 6:15. Gacek scored his third goal of the game five seconds later, netting a 35-footer on passes from Grant and Ted Greer.

Greer wound up the evening's scoring as well as his Michigan career by sinking a rebound at 15:14 with the assist going to Gacek.

Michigan played another superb game. Jack McDonald stood out in goal, especially in the third period, when he held Dartmouth scoreless.

The Wolverines jumped into an early lead, when Gacek grabbed Grant's pass and fired a 10-footer past Dartmouth's goalie, Dick Desmond, after only 50 seconds of the first period had elapsed.

Dartmouth was able to tie it up shortly afterward, as Bill Riley slammed a third rebound into the Wolverine net at 4:25. Gacek and Grant again teamed up at 10:55 of the initial stanza to give Michigan a one-goal lead. Grant fed the pass to Gacek who scored. The goal was the result of some very fancy passing that had Dartmouth completely confused.

With the Wolverines a man short after Dick Starrak had been caught tripping, Dartmouth evened the count at two on a goal by defenseman Crawford "Whitey" Campbell. The Big Green then moved out in front for the first time in the evening, when Walt Crowley fired the puck past goalie McDonald at 6:55 on a 10-foot shot. Ten seconds later, the Big Green moved two-up when Arnie Oss followed Jim Malone's shot up and netted the rebound.

Grant and Gacek halted the trend at 15:20 to move Michigan to within a goal. McMillan tied it up again at the 16:40 mark of the middle stanza. A timer's whistle had halted the play and for a while it looked like the goal would not count. The timer had stopped the action because of a misunderstanding of the rules on a player returning to the ice from a penalty.

Al Renfrew had gone directly to the ice after completing a two-minute board checking penalty, and it was claimed that he should have reported to his own bench first. Michigan coach Vic Heyliger protested and the NCAA rules committee awarded the goal after meeting between the second and third periods.

"Wolverines Win National Hockey Championship"

By Jim Barker
The Michigan Daily

COLORADO SPRINGS - Michigan's puckmen put on their greatest performance of the season last night as they walloped the Brown University Bruins, 7-1, to win the 1951 NCAA Hockey Tournament at the Broadmoor Ice Palace.

The triumph was truly a team victory as the Wolverines displayed a brilliant defense coupled with potent offensive power and speed to completely outclass the Bruins, who put up a game but hopeless battle.

The defensive work of Bob Heathcott, Alex MacLellan and Graham Cragg was beautiful to behold. Repeatedly they threw back Brown scoring thrusts and their backchecking plus the alertness of the Wolverine forward lines kept Brown from ever making a serious threat.

So outstanding was the Maize and Blue defense that goalie Hal Downes, who played a fine game himself in the nets, did not have a single save on a Brown shot for the first 15 minutes of the game.

Oddly enough there was very little body checking by Wolverine forwards and defensemen. The Wolverines threw back the Brown attackers by the simple process of poking the puck off their sticks before they ever could get over the Michigan blue line.

But in addition to the great work of the defense, which had been a sore spot in previous hockey games throughout the season, the Maize and Blue's highly-touted offense came through in fine fashion again.

Altogether, nine players shared scoring honors for Michigan with Neil Celley and John McKennell each scoring two goals. The Wolverines front line of Celley, Gil Burford and John Matchefts displayed far too much speed for the Brown defensemen.

The victory also broke a two-year old St. Patrick's Day "jinx" for the Wolverines. In the last two NCAA tourneys prior to this one, Michigan was defeated on St. Patrick's Day. But such was not the case last night.

By virtue of the victory, Michigan became the first team ever to win the NCAA Tournament twice since its inception in 1948. Michigan won the title in 1948, finished third in 1949 and 1950 and came back to win the title again last night. Michigan set another record in its 7-1 win over Brown. The Bruins, in being held to one goal, scored less goals in the game than any team in the four-year history of the tournament. The previous low had been set by U-M in its 4-2 loss to Dartmouth in 1949.

Despite the one-sided loss, Brown goalie Don Whiston played one of the greatest games ever seen in the NCAA tournament or in any collegiate hockey game for that matter. Whiston was peppered with Michigan shots all night. Time and time again he dove to the ice to stop a loose puck, and on other occasions he made magnificent saves to squelch almost sure goals. For his outstanding performance, Whiston was awarded the Most Valuable Player award for the tournament.

“M’ Wins NCAA Hockey Title”

By Ed Whipple
Special to the Daily

COLORADO SPRINGS - Michigan made hockey history here last night.

The Wolverines trounced crippled Colorado College, 4-1, in the jam-packed Broadmoor Ice Palace to become the first team to win two straight NCAA hockey championships.

Coach Vic Heyliger's teams now have grabbed three titles in five years. Michigan has never lost a final championship game.

Playing with the injured Omer Brandt - the only remnant of the Brandt-Hartwell-Frasca combination - the Tigers found themselves behind 3-0 for the second straight night when the first period ended.

Friday they fought back, to beat Yale, 4-3, but last night the Wolverines gave no openings for comebacks. After Graham Cragg made it 4-1 halfway through the second stanza the issue was never in doubt. The 2,500 rabid fans who came to see Michigan licked were disappointed by a Michigan team that received praise from Heyliger.

Michigan rolled out of its 3-0 first period margin as George Chin opened up matters at 11:35 when he beat Colorado goalie Ken Kinsley from close in. Five minutes later Michigan scored twice within one minute in what proved to be the clinching flurry. Captain Earl Keyes scored the second goal on assists from defensemen Jim Haas and Reggie Shave. Keyes tipped in a blue line shot off Haas' stick. The Tigers were shorthanded at the time and the Michigan power play paid off.

With Michigan's Doug Mullen off for holding, Colorado put on the pressure but its own power play backfired. Doug Philpott picked up a loose puck at center ice and sent a screaming 35-foot shot into the upper corner of the net for the 3-0 lead.

The teams traded goals in the second period. Cam Berry beat Michigan goalie Willard Ikola with a neat shot into the corner of the net to move up to a 3-1 deficit.

Cragg got that one back for Michigan to give them the 4-1 lead that they maintained intact for the remainder of the contest. Cragg's goal, his second of the tourney and only the third of the season, came on a long screen shot.

Chin was the highest scorer of the tournament with four points and he took a place on the all-tournament team named by the press.

Kinsley, who made 46 saves last night and 42 against Yale was the Most Valuable Player and first team goaltender.

The other first team forwards were Michigan's John McKennell and Doug Philpott. The defensemen were Jim Haas of the Wolverines and Lou Maccini of Colorado.

"Wolverine Hockey Sextet Wins NCAA Championship"

By Tom Dickinson
Special to the News

COLORADO SPRINGS - Michigan's hockey team, in one of the most dramatic triumphs in history, racked up the University of Minnesota, 7-3, here Saturday night to retain the United States collegiate hockey title for the third consecutive year.

Coming from behind in the second period, Coach Vic Heyliger's skaters rose to the heights to defeat one of the greatest Gopher teams of all time and earn the plaudits of 2,700 fans who jammed into the Broadmoor Ice Palace here to witness the sixth annual NCAA tournament finals.

Coach Heyliger's charges, who little more than two weeks ago were not even conceded a good chance to gain a tournament berth, completely outclassed Minnesota to return the national title to Ann Arbor for the fourth time in the past six years.

Michigan took a brief one-goal lead in the first period on a neat 15-foot angle shot by Jim Haas, but saw the lead disappear as Minnesota roared back to take a 2-1 margin as the teams left the ice following the initial 20 minutes of play. Regaining their poise, Michigan rattled two goals past Minnesota's celebrated goaltender, Jim Mattson, in the second period and scored four more in the third period to win the title.

Here's how it all happened.

Following Haas' goal, which came at 5:48 of the first period, the Gophers' capable wingman, Dick Meredith, converted past goalie Willard Ikola at 8:39 to tie up the game at 1-1. Dick Dougherty then put Minnesota ahead at 11:34 on a five-footer. Doug Philpott cashed in Reg Shave's rebound at 6:15 in the second period and Michigan was off to a string of five straight goals which salted away the championship.

Doug Mullen golfed in a high shot at 11:08 on assists by Pat Cooney and George Chin, and U-M took a lead it never relinquished. Four times during the second period Michigan was shorthanded, but a stalwart defense led by the alert and agile Ikola ward off Gopher chances.

When Gopher captain Tom Wagleitner was waived off for interference at 3:22 of the final frame, U-M went to work in earnest. Johnny Matchefts, voted the tournament's MVP, picked up the puck behind the Minnesota cage and rammed it past Mattson to give U-M a 4-2 lead.

Haas increased it to 5-2 with his second tally at 7:17, and with the Gophers shorthanded again, Philpott converted a beautiful pass from Haas at 9:14. Minnesota then finally connected on its final effort at 10:42 when Ken Yackel beat Ikola from close in. With seven minutes remaining, Coach John Mariucci removed Mattson from the ice in a futile, desperate effort to stave off what by then was inevitable defeat. Mattson returned in about 45 seconds, but twice more was taken off in favor of a sixth forward. The strategy backfired at 19:49, however, when Matchefts blasted in an empty netter for his second goal.

"Wolverines Win Fifth Hockey Championship"

By Tom Dickinson
Special to the News

COLORADO SPRINGS - Michigan's cinderella hockey team, skating as if its collective life depended on winning, throttled Colorado College 5-3 here Saturday night in the finals of the NCAA national tournament playoff.

A capacity-plus crowd of nearly 3,000 fans, roaring encouragement every minute to the host team, jammed every nook and cranny of the picturesque Broadmoor Ice Palace only to watch the Wolverines march to their fifth title in the last eight years.

Coach Vic Heyliger's players performed like the true champions they are against the tough and powerful Coloradoans. There was nothing tainted or fluky about the triumph. It was achieved by inspired, alert hockey which combined winning ingredients of an air-tight defense and a relentless, pressing attack in which five players scored goals.

Goalie Lorne Howes of Michigan staged a brilliant, almost superhuman exhibition of netminding which brought forth superlatives from even the most rabid Colorado partisans. Howes, a 21-year-old, 160-pound youngster, playing in his first NCAA Tourney, was credited with 47 saves - more than double that of Bengal goalie Jeff Simus, who had 21, the same number of stops made by Howes in the final frame alone.

Coach Cheddy Thompson's Tigers, fired up just as high as the Wolverines, were thirsty for victory over the Wolverines. But when it came to scoring the all-important goal which would have tied up the game Saturday, they just didn't have it.

The real victory script was written in the final, crazy 20 minutes of play. Heyliger's men had forged a narrow 2-1 lead in the first two frames and came out battling furiously to maintain the advantage.

Jay Gould's score at 6:18 of the last period stretched the lead, but the Tigers came back moments later to make it 3-2. Once more Michigan scored as Jerry Karpinka beat Simus for a seemingly safe 4-2 lead.

The Tigers were far from through as they swarmed around the Michigan net like angry bees before wing Clare Smith scored at 17:23 to put the Western Intercollegiate Hockey League champs within one goal of a tie. At 18:32, Thompson beckoned Simus from the Tiger cage and installed another forward. Fifty-nine seconds later, Michigan defenseman Mike Buchanan was penalized for an illegal center ice body check.

The fans screamed and shrieked for Colorado to notch the tying marker. With 10 seconds to go the Tigers got a faceoff in the circle to Howes' left. Four seconds later another faceoff developed, but this time captain Bill MacFarland got control of the puck and sent it flying down the ice and into the empty net with three seconds left to play.

"Michigan Hockey Team Wins Sixth National Crown"

By Tom Dickinson
The Michigan Daily

COLORADO SPRINGS - For the sixth time in nine years Michigan is the collegiate champion of the land. This unprecedented honor was earned in the fashion of a 7-5 triumph over Michigan Tech in the finals of the ninth annual NCAA tournament here Saturday night in the Broadmoor Ice Palace.

With an overflow throng of over 2,000 fans wildly cheering their sentimental favorite the Huskies jammed the arena on the grounds of the Broadmoor Hotel. The Michigan Tech brass band and 200 student followers proved no substitute for the hockey know-how which brought the title to the Wolverines.

Coach Vic Heyliger's Maize and Blue charges left the ice after the first period with a 4-3 lead only to see the Huskies pull ahead 5-4 in the early stages of the second period. But seconds after Michigan Tech's last goal of the evening Michigan scored to tie it up and two more counters soon after applied the clinchers. The final frame was scoreless as both squads were spent with the furious action of the first 40 minutes.

The gold trophy emblematic of collegiate hockey supremacy which was awarded to team captain Bill MacFarland will take its place on the Michigan trophy shelf alongside those earned in 1948, 1951, 1952, 1953 and 1955. Blonde, quiet-spoken Lorne Howes was far and away the difference between the Wolverines and their two tourney victims, St. Lawrence and Michigan Tech. The junior goaltender swept every individual honor in the book this year: All-American, All-Western League and most outstanding player of the playoffs.

Sharing the hero's mantle with Howes was the sophomore forward, speedy Ed Switzer of Preston, Ont. Switzer tallied three goals in Saturday's battle including the tying and winning markers.

Trailing 4-3 after the first period, the Engineers rallied for two goals to pull in front of the temporarily disorganized Blue. Tom Kennedy got the first one at 4:47 after intercepting an errant Michigan pass to skate in unmolested on Howes. The second came with the Wolverines two men short from a corner faceoff. Aubry skated behind the cage and hooked the puck into the open corner. The marker came at 7:25.

Then the revitalized Wolverines took charge with a three-goal outburst from which Michigan Tech never recovered. Switzer tipped in a 40-footer off the stick of Bernie Hanna at 7:58 to tie the score. An elbowing penalty to Ron Stenlund, hero of Tech's 10-4 Thursday night decision over Boston College led to the winning goal. The infraction came at 12:43 and Switzer's third tally came at 14:28 on a 20-foot blast from a wide angle. McDonald scored his second goal of the night just 21 seconds later beating his opponent to the center ice draw. He skated in and shot the puck from 10 feet out, then knocked home his own rebound.

"Defense Key to Win Over Denver"

By Larry Sullivan

DENVER - The 1963-64 Michigan hockey squad hung up its skates for the season this past week-end with a supportable claim of being the greatest in school history.

The team credentials were open to question - by the icers themselves perhaps more than anyone else - after losing the league title bid the week before. But they were almost unassailable after the Wolverines avenged that loss with a 6-3 triumph over WCHA champion Denver for the NCAA crown.

It was the seventh NCAA title for Michigan in 17 years of the tournament but the first for coach Al Renfrew, who played on the first U-M championship team in 1948 under the coaching of Vic Heyliger. The last Michigan NCAA crown was in 1956.

Renfrew called winning the 1964 championship game "the biggest thrill in my life." He added that it beat by a wide margin his enjoyment at having been a member of the champion team of 1948.

The NCAA tournaments have grown tougher over the years with a steady improvement of college hockey, the coaches agree, and Renfrew called the 1963-64 squad the best he has ever coached. Winning the two games at Denver, 3-2, over Providence in a semifinal game before the final contest against the Pioneers, gave the Blue a record-tying season of 24 victories. There were four losses and one tie.

The team also tied the school record for most goals in the regular season.

No other team in school history has won so many games, scored so many goals and claimed the national crown in one season.

Despite the six-goal outburst against Denver Saturday night, it was a new-found poise in defense that Renfrew singled out for praise. Hard checking by the defensive crew, led by the all-tournament team selectee, Tom Polonic, frustrated the Denver offense all night.

Taking a cue from the Pioneer victory at Ann Arbor the week before, Michigan soared to a 3-0 lead before Denver scored. The tournament hosts scored twice in the second period to creep to within one point and both schools scored single goals in the early minutes of the third period before two late markers by the Wolverines put them out of reach.

Jack Cole turned in his best game of the season and he and Mel Wakabayashi each scored twice for Michigan. Wilf Martin had the first goal and Alex Hood the last.

Denver goals were divided among Billy Staub, Ron Livingstone and Wayne Smith.

"Michigan Wins First NCAA Title Since 1964"

By Nicholas J. Cotsonika
The Michigan Daily

CINCINNATI - There were tears this time too, but for the 1995-96 Michigan hockey team, moist eyes dripped only joy.

The years of failure and frustration, of anguish and anger, are over.

The puck finally bounced the right way for the Wolverines. Brendan Morrison finally hit the back of the net instead of the goal post. Red Berenson's team is finally the national champion.

The Wolverines defeated Colorado College, 3-2, before 12,957 fans at Riverfront Coliseum on Saturday in another overtime heart-thumper. The championship win was Michigan's eighth - an NCAA record - and first since 1964.

The victory was richly ironic.

Michigan was bounced from the NCAA tournament in overtime the past three years. The Wolverines lost to Maine in 1993, Lake Superior in 1994 and Maine again in 1995. The breaks never went their way, and the goal they needed never came. The biggest change that enabled Michigan to win might have been Morrison's luck. In the second overtime of last year's semifinal thriller with the Black Bears, Morrison had Michigan's best opportunity to win it.

He hit the post.

The memory stayed with him, ringing in his head all season long. On Saturday, the puck squirted right to Morrison off a rebound. He put it between the pipes to score the winning goal, and he earned a ring that will stay with him for the rest of his life.

"When you look back on this, it's incredible," said Morrison, who was so focused on Michigan's title run, he played with a broken hand for nearly two months. "It seemed like it took forever to go in the net, but it did. It's incredible."

Many players said it isn't as incredible as it seems. They had a sign above the door in their locker room that read, "Something to prove." All the talk of ghosts and jinxes motivated Michigan to silence the critics.

"I'm sick of hearing the rumors that we can't win the big game," Bill Muckalt said. "I think we proved them wrong."

"The ghosts are gone," said Michigan goaltender Marty Turco.

Michigan jumped into the lead at 11:33 of the first period as Muckalt rifled Morrison's feed through Tiger goalie Ryan Bach's pads. But after Peter Geronazzo and Colin Schmidt struck in the second, Michigan found itself down, 2-1. The Wolverines came out flying in the third, and Mike Legg tied the game at two on the power play at 6:54. His goal, scored off a rebound of Steven Halko's slapshot, was the last in regulation.

Three and a half minutes into overtime, Morrison ended the game, the season and the waiting for the Wolverines. Michigan's day had come.

"Newest Title Shows That Hard Work Pays Off"

By Sharat Raju
The Michigan Daily

BOSTON - Years from now, no one will remember Michigan losing at Yost Ice Arena for the first time in 36 games. No one will remember the first Great Lakes Invitational loss in a decade, or losing to Michigan State four times in one season, or losing the CCHA regular season and conference playoffs.

But everyone will remember the West Regional victories at Yost. Everyone will remember Saturday's game and the outcome.

This season's edition of Michigan hockey really is unique, worthy of a movie or a book, or at least a miniseries. The Wolverines are a team everyone can relate to because they're not perfect, they're not unstoppable. There's no Hobey Baker Award winner here, no record-setting win total, no single player carrying the team on his shoulders night in and night out. Even Marty Turco couldn't always bail the Wolverines out, nor could Bill Muckalt.

We all can relate. Sometimes in life, you come up short. You can't win every award, every tournament or every accolade. But you can succeed if you work hard, play hard and come through when it counts.

And that's exactly what this team did. The Wolverines came through at the FleetCenter. They worked hard and fought back, and can truly be called Champions.

Captain Matt Herr often said early in the season that this team wasn't going to be the most talented in the country, but they would be the hardest-working one. That's something to live by in hockey, in sports and in life. If you work hard, good things happen.

This team worked the hardest and the best thing happened. And the one lesson I will always remember is that hard work does pay off contrary to what I've thought before. But now I've seen it. I'm a believer and I'm sure everyone who has borne witness to this season is a believer, too.

Michigan fans are spoiled this season. First a football national championship, now a hockey title. Again.

For a school that works so hard to be the best at everything ranging from the band to academics to athletics we deserve this, and we can bask in the glory of this season and this school year.

NCAA ALL-AMERICANS

MICHIGAN ALL-AMERICANS

Over Michigan hockey's 103-year history, Wolverine players have always grasped the team-first mentality. A select group of individuals, however, have demonstrated on-ice brilliance worthy of special mention.

Following the 1947-48 hockey season, Wally Gacek, Wally Grant and Connie Hill earned the Wolverines' first All-America honors en route to capturing the program's first NCAA hockey championship.

A total of 81 players have received this prestigious honor a total of 104 times. Sixty-five players have received All-America first team recognition and 20 have picked up second team honors.

A Wolverine has earned All-America recognition in 18 out of the last 25 seasons.

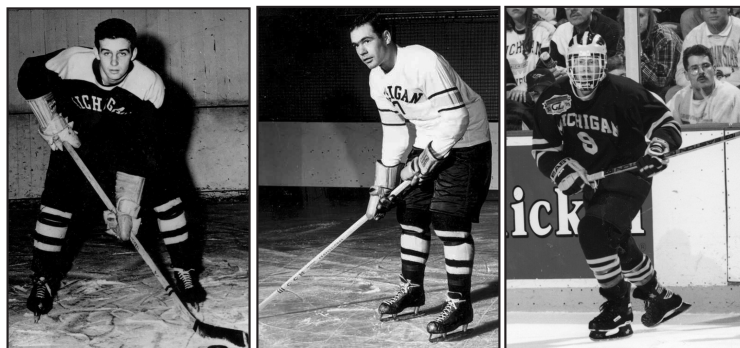

Other highlights in the history of Michigan's All-Americans includes the four Wolverines (Brendan Morrison-first team, John Madden-first team, Marty Turco-first team and Jason Botterill-second team) from the 1996-97 team to earn All-America status.

AWARDS & HONORS

THE HOBEY BAKER AWARD

The Hobey Baker Story

The Hobey Baker Memorial Award is presented to the outstanding college hockey player in the United States by the Decathlon Athletic Club of Bloomington, Minn.

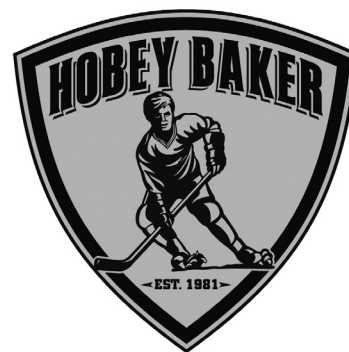

The idea for the Hobey Baker Award was conceived by then Decathlon Athletic Club chief executive officer Chuck Bard, who modeled the award after college football's Heisman Trophy.

Club directors gave the final go-ahead on Jan. 4, 1980. Bard, with assistance from Walter Bush, then president of the Minnesota North Stars, and Roger Godin of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, narrowed down a list of candidates after whom to name the award. The final list included hockey immortals Moose Goheen, Frank Brimsek, John Mariucci and Hobey Baker. The name and exploits of Baker intrigued Bard, who contacted Princeton for more information. Bard also contacted the present day Hobey Baker, a nephew of the award's namesake who resided in New York, and granted permission to use the name.

Baker was the captain of Princeton's hockey and football teams from 1910-14. He was a charter member of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame and was one of a handful of Americans inducted into Canada's Hockey Hall of Fame. Baker is best known for his outstanding sportsmanship. He was only penalized once in his collegiate career and always visited the opposition's locker room after a game.

The trophy was designed, the sponsor set and the committee enlarged. The first banquet was April 1, 1981. Neal Broten of Minnesota won the first award, and Gordie Howe delivered a memorable speech.

Since then, the award has become recognized as U.S. college hockey's premier individual honor. As such, it has helped promote U.S. college hockey, the skills needed to play the game and the ideals for which the original Hobey Baker lived and died.

THE HOBEY BAKER AWARD

Brendan Morrison - 1997

Brendan Morrison poses with head coach Red Berenson at the 1997 Hobey Baker Award presentation, which was held at the Frozen Four in Milwaukee, Wis. U-M's senior captain tallied 31 goals and 57 assists -- a U-M single-season record -- to lead the nation in scoring.

Kevin Porter - 2008

Kevin Porter stands between head coach Red Berenson and linemate and classmate Chad Kolarik at the 2008 Hobey Baker Award presentation in Denver, Colo., which also hosted the Frozen Four. The Wolverine captain scored 33 goals and 30 assists to finish second on the national scoring list.

Adam Fantilli - 2023

Adam Fantilli with head coach Brandon Naurato at the 2023 Hobey Baker Award Ceremony. The ceremony was held outdoors at Sparkman Wharf in Tampa, Fla., during the Frozen Four.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Big Ten Tournament Titles

2015-16, 2021-22, 2022-23

Michigan won its first Big Ten title on March 19, 2016 at the Xcel Energy Center in Minnesota as the No. 2 seed. Receiving a quarterfinal round bye in the six-team tournament, the Wolverines defeated No. 3 seed Penn State 7-2 in the semifinals on March 18. Michigan defeated No. 1 seed Minnesota 5-3 in the championship. Kyle Connor was named the MVP and was one of four Wolverines on the all-tournament team, including Steve Racine (G), Zach Werenski (D) and JT Compher (F).

Michigan won the 2022 Big Ten Tournament Championship on March 19, 2022 at Mariucci Arena as the No. 2 seed. The Wolverines held a 4-1 lead over the host Gophers, giving up two power-play goals in the final minute for a 4-3 decision. Erik Portillo was named the MVP and one of five Wolverines on the all-tournament team, which also included Matty Beniers (F), Brendan Brisson (F), Mackie Samoskevich (F), and Luke Hughes (D).

The Wolverines swept Michigan State in the quarterfinals 4-1 and 8-0 at Yost Arena on March 4 & 5, and earned revenge for four regular-season losses to Notre Dame - ultimately losing out on the B1G regular season title because of the final two losses in South Bend to finish the regular season - by beating the Irish 2-1 on March 12 at Yost.

Michigan captured its second consecutive Big Ten Tournament Championship on March 18, 2023 at Mariucci Arena as the No. 2 seed. All three of Michigan's tournament titles have been won in the state of Minnesota, when Michigan was the No. 2 seed and all three times they've worn blue.

Adam Fantilli was named the MVP after setting B1G tournament records for most points with 11 and most goals with seven in a single tournament. Gavin Brindley tied the record for most assists in a tournament with seven. Joining Fantilli on the all-tournament team were Rutger McGroarty, Seamus Casey and Luke Hughes.

The Wolverines swept Wisconsin at Yost on March 3 & 4, and took a 7-3 win over Ohio State in the semifinals on March 11.

Captain Kevin Porter accepts the CCHA regular season championship trophy from commissioner Tom Anastos. The 2007-08 Wolverines clinched the title on home ice with a 5-3 win vs. Ferris State.

As the No. 7 seed in 2010, U-M became the lowest seeded team in CCHA annals to capture the Mason Cup. U-M swept a home series vs. Lake Superior State, a road series at Michigan State and upset No. 1 Miami and Northern Michigan in Detroit.

- Michigan's all-time record in CCHA play was 557-313-73
- Eleven CCHA regular season championships were the most in the conference
- Michigan finished first or second in the CCHA regular standings 20 times in the last 23 seasons of the CCHA
- A Wolverine was named CCHA Player of the Year four times
- Red Berenson was the CCHA Coach of the Year twice ('94, '08)
- 23-3-2 record in conference during 2004-05 season set CCHA record for most wins, points (48) and win percentage (.857) in a 28-game schedule

- Nine CCHA tournament titles were second-most in the conference. All nine came from 1994-2013 -- no other school had more than four during the same 19-year span
- The Wolverines advanced to the CCHA tournament semifinals in 25 straight seasons, reaching the championship game in 18 instances
- Eight U-M players garnered the Bill Beagan Award, which honors the CCHA tournament's most valuable player.
- Michigan swept the CCHA championships -- regular season and tournament -- six times, more than any other program.

MICHIGAN HALL OF FAME

DEKERS BLUELINE CLUB

The Dekers Blue Line Club was organized for the purpose of supporting Michigan hockey. The club starts the "season" shortly after Labor Day with a picnic for Dekers and the Michigan hockey team and staff to welcome everyone to the new season.

Dekers member dues assist in accomplishing many of the Dekers Blue Line Club's annual activities and projects. Those include: alumni weekend, which includes alumni games and a golf outing; rings for graduating seniors; Dekers Hall of Fame; annual hockey picnic; parents' weekend; awards banquet; trophies; and a 50-50 raffle.

The Dekers' highly-acclaimed newsletter "Inside The Goal Crease" brings everyone up to date on the current activities of the team and the club. The Dekers Club built and continues to maintain the photo gallery and trophy cases in Yost Ice Arena.

In the past, Dekers donations have assisted in the purchase of uniforms for the hockey pep band, new furniture for the Michigan team locker room lounge, banners for the hockey pep band, team exercise equipment and a car for recruiting.

In its never-ending dedication to the students who play hockey at Michigan, the Dekers Club became the first booster club at Michigan to endow a scholarship. The scholarship covers the cost of room and board for one player each school year.

If you would like to consider joining the Dekers organization and assist in the sponsorship of these events and activities, you can find more information on the internet at MGoBlue.com, stop by the Dekers Booth in the lobby of Yost Ice Arena on home game nights or write to: The Dekers Blue Line Club, P.O. Box 2065, Ann Arbor, MI 48106.

THE ESPY'S

Mike Legg cradles the puck onto his stick blade, skates out in front, flips in a shot and sends the hockey world into a frenzy.

En route to the 1995-96 NCAA title, Michigan was assisted by perhaps the greatest goal ever scored in an organized hockey game - Mike Legg's lacrosse-style wraparound on Mar. 24 against Minnesota in the West Regional. Michigan had been outplayed by Minnesota, but Legg's goal tied the game 7:06 into the second period and provided his team with a new burst of energy. Six days later, Michigan won the national title and Legg, with his game-tying goal in the third period against Colorado College, would enhance his legendary status. The goal received unheard of attention around the sporting world.

Legg's goal won an ESPY for "Outrageous Play of the Year," and he traveled to New York on Feb. 10, 1997, for the black-tie award ceremonies which was televised nationally on ESPN. The goal had earlier won the 1996 "Play of the Year" by TSN and the 1996 "Goal of The Year" by Inside Hockey, a Swedish Hockey Magazine. Legg traveled to Stockholm and received his award at a banquet Aug. 8, 1996.

Media coverage was unprecedented. The night of the goal, CNN's Headline News showed it regularly on its sports updates every half hour, ESPN's National Hockey Night chose Legg's goal as the MCI Play of the Night and CNN Sports Tonight chose it as the Play of the Day. The goal was part of The Albert Achievement Awards on the Late Show With David Letterman and was also shown on Hockey Night in Canada on CBC. The sequence was captured in feature stories by USA Today, The Detroit News, The Boston Globe, The Minneapolis Star Tribune, The St. Paul Pioneer Press, The Wolverine, The Ann Arbor News, The Michigan Daily, The Hockey News, U.S. College Hockey Magazine, Hockey Player Magazine and Drop The Puck Weekly Update.

OPPONENT HISTORY

DUEL IN THE D

The Duel in the D showcases the most-played rivalry in all of college hockey - Michigan and Michigan State.

Since 2016, the rivals have played in Detroit once per season with a trophy and bragging rights on the line.

The "Iron D" Trophy features a forged iron "D" at its center to symbolize the city of Detroit, while the skyline of Hockeytown wraps around the base, including an image of Little Caesars Arena placed at the center. A large cup rests atop the trophy and hockey sticks, a red glass puck, and the logos of Michigan and Michigan State line the sides of the trophy. The trophy was designed and built by Erik and Israel Nordin at their studio, the Detroit Design Center.

OPPONENT HISTORY

OUTDOOR GAMES

- The Cold War in 2001 between Michigan and MSU popularized playing hockey outdoors in the modern era
- The Big Chill at the Big House in December 2010 and set the Guinness World Record for attendance with 113,411 fans
- The Frozen Confines at Wrigley Field marked Michigan's 10th all-time outdoor game; the program has a 5-4-1 record in these showcase events.
- Out of the 44 outdoor games in men's D1 hockey history, the Wolverines have participated in 23% of the contests.
- 10 appearances is more than any other program. MSU is next with six appearances while BC has four (confirm) appearances.
- Michigan Stadium hosted the 2014 NHL Winter Classic between Detroit and Toronto, setting an NHL attendance record of 105,491 (note: Guinness certified count for both the Big Chill, and the Winter Classic is identical at 104,173)

- Each Thanksgiving weekend from 1993-2010, the College Hockey Showcase brought together four traditional Big Ten rivals who did not compete in the same conferences at the time; Michigan and Michigan State were part of the CCHA, while Minnesota and Wisconsin were in the WCHA. The tournament was setup in a CCHA vs. WCHA format.

- Before Michigan State and Michigan left the WCHA for the CCHA in 1981, the four teams competed for the Big Ten championship. Between 1959 and 1981, Minnesota captured 10 titles, while Michigan, Michigan State and Wisconsin each took home five (including co-champs).

GREAT LAKES INVITATIONAL

In 1965, four men brainstormed for a way to bring more American-born players into the National Hockey League. They surmised that a prestigious tournament could make a difference: it would stress the quality of competition, both to develop the players and to attract NHL eyes.

Out of this vision, these four men - Lincoln Cavalieri, general manager of Olympia Stadium; John MacInnes, Michigan Tech's legendary coach and former Michigan goalie; Detroit Red Wings scout Jack Paterson; and Jack Tompkins, American Airlines Vice President and former Michigan netminder - created the Great Lakes Invitational College Hockey Tournament in 1965.

Before a crowd of 5,929 fans at Olympia Stadium in downtown Detroit, the University of Toronto claimed the first GLI title. The other inaugural year participants were Boston University, Colorado College and host Michigan Tech.

In 1974, the University of Michigan joined Michigan Tech as tournament co-host and Michigan State joined the in the four-team field in 1979.

Originating at Olympia Stadium, the GLI relocated to Joe Louis Arena in December 1979. In 2017 with the closure of Joe Louis Arena, the GLI relocated to Little Caesars Arena. The 2013 edition of the Invitational was held outdoors at Comerica Park, as part of the festivities of the 2014 NHL Winter Classic at Michigan Stadium.

The John A. MacInnes Trophy, aptly-named to honor the co-founder, has been presented to the tournament champion and its MVP since its introduction in 1993.

On Dec. 29, 2014, the Wolverines knocked off Michigan State, 2-1, to win the 2014 Great Lakes Invitational, despite missing four players to the World Junior Hockey Tournament. Michigan has won 17 GLI titles since the tournament's inception in 1965, the most by any team.
