Television Coverage

ESPN will broadcast the game to a national audience. Bob Wischusen (play-by-play), Brock Huard (color) and Allison Williams (sideline) will call the game.

Michigan IMG Radio Network Coverage

Jim Brandstatter (play-by-play) and Dan Dierdorf (color) bring the action to you from the booth, with Doug Karsch providing sideline reports and analysis. Anchored by WWJ-AM (950) in Detroit, the Michigan IMG Radio Network is comprised of 41 affiliate stations in Michigan and Ohio during football season (see page 3).

Bowl-ing for the 47th Time

The Wolverines will participate in a bowl game for the 47th time in school history. U-M has compiled a 21-25 record in bowl games, listing 11th in the NCAA in appearances and 17th in victories.

Michigan in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl

This will be the first-ever appearance in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl for Michigan. The Big Ten has played in the Peach Bowl on seven previous occasions, compiling a 2-5 record with all five setbacks coming by seven points or less. It will be the first time since 1990 that a Big Ten team will play in the Peach Bowl, as Indiana suffered a 27-24 loss to Auburn. The only conference schools to play in the Peach Bowl are Illinois (1985), Indiana (1987, 1990), Iowa (1982, 1988) and Purdue (1978, 1984).

Wolverines and Gators

This will be the fifth overall meeting between Michigan and Florida. The Wolverines have a 4-0 all-time record against the Gators and head coach Jim Harbaugh is 2-0. It will be the fourth meeting in a bowl game.

Wolverines Seek 11th Victory

The Michigan football team heads into bowl season looking to capture its 11th win of the season. With a victory, the Wolverines would become the 10th team in school history to secure at least 11 wins in a season. U-M has won 11 games on seven occasions, with the school record 12 victories coming in the 1905 and 1997 seasons. The last time Michigan won 11 games was 2011, completing an 11-2 campaign with a victory in the Sugar Bowl.

THE TEAM

Wolverines and Gators

- This will be the fifth overall meeting between Michigan and Florida
- The Wolverines have a 4-0 all-time record against the Gators and head coach Jim Harbaugh is 2-0
- In the only regular season match-up between the two schools, Michigan defeated Florida by a 33-17 score in the 2017 AdvoCare Classic at AT&T Stadium in Dallas
- The prior three games with the Gators were contested in bowl games, with the Wolverines posting victories in the 2003 Outback Bowl and the 2008 and 2016 Florida Citrus Bowl games

Michigan's UF Connections

- The Wolverines have two links to the University of Florida Gators in video coordinator Phil Bromley and defensive line coach Greg Mattison
- A four-starter at UF, Bromley played center and anchored the offensive line from 1981-84 and was an All-SEC selection in 1983 and 1984; earned his bachelor of science degree in psychology (1985) and master's in education (1988)
- Greg Mattison was the Gators' co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for three seasons (2005-07)

Michigan vs. SEC

- This will be the 15th time that Michigan faces a Southeastern Conference school in a bowl game
- The Wolverines have an 8-6 mark against the SEC in bowl games
- Michigan is no stranger to the Southeastern Conference and will face an SEC school for the 36th time in school history

- U-M has ranked in the top 20 nationally in time of possession all four years: 9th in 2015, 15th in 2016, 20th in 2017 and 4th in 2018
- The Wolverines have committed 320 penalties in 51 games (6.3 per contest); flagged 87 times in '15, 63 times in '16, 86 times in '17 and on 84 occasions this fall
- Michigan has scored 209 touchdowns while allowing just 101 to its opponents
- The Wolverine defense has listed in the top five nationally all four seasons
- A total of 33 Wolverines have earned All-Big Ten honors (1st, 2nd or 3rd team) in the past three years, including 16 players in 2016 and nine players in 2017
- Five players earned first-team All-America honors: Jake Butt (2015-16), Jourdan Lewis (2015-16), Jabrill Peppers (2016), Maurice Hurst (2017) and Devin Bush (2018)

- Butt and Peppers each collected a pair of national awards during the 2016 season: Butt won the Mackey Award and Senior CLASS Award while Peppers collected the Lott IMPACT Trophy and the Paul Hornung Award
- Bush earned second-team All-America honors in 2017, consensus first-team accolades in 2018 and was a two-time finalist for the Butkus Award

Harbaugh in Fourth Year Leading U-M

- Jim Harbaugh has compiled a 38-13 overall record in four seasons at Michigan
- Harbaugh has guided the Wolverines to three 10-win seasons in his four years leading the Michigan football program
- He was a semifinalist for the George Munger Collegiate Coach of the Year award this fall and was on the watch list for The Dodd Trophy and Paul Bear Bryan Coach of the Year awards
- Harbaugh is one of 22 coaches who is currently the head coach at his alma mater; Harbaugh, Paul Chryst (Wisconsin), Scott Frost (Nebraska) and Pat Fitzgerald (Northwestern) are the only Big Ten coaches leading their alma mater
- Harbaugh is one of four Big Ten coaches to win 10-plus games in each of his first two seasons directing a conference school; joined Fielding Yost (1901-02) as the only head coaches to collected back-to-back 10-win seasons in their first two seasons at U-M
- In addition to Harbaugh and Yost, Ohio State's Urban Meyer (2012-13) and Wisconsin's Paul Chryst (2015-16) also accomplished the feat
- Harbaugh is the second fastest coach to 20 wins at Michigan, trailing only Yost; Harbaugh accomplished the feat in 24 games and Yost won the first 29 games of his U-M career before tying Minnesota (6-6) in 1903
- Harbaugh was a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year award in 2016, and was a semifinalist for the George Munger Collegiate Coach of the Year honor that same season

NFL Coaching Pedigree

THE DEFENSE

National & Big Ten Leaders Across the Board

- The Wolverines lead the nation in total defense (262.5 avg.) and list second in pass defense (145.9 avg.)
- The defense has allowed 70 fewer yards than any team in the nation despite playing the 23rd toughest schedule in college football this fall
- Michigan has 75 points off turnovers and leads all FBS teams with four pick-sixes
- U-M leads the Big Ten in five defensive categories - total defense, pass defense, pass efficiency, first downs allowed and defensive touchdowns; ranks second in scoring defense
- In conference games, the Wolverines lead the Big Ten in four of the eight major defensive categories, while listing second in three of those other categories
- Michigan is 17th in the NCAA in rushing defense, allowing 116.6 yards per contest and a paltry 3.4 yards per rushing attempt
- U-M ranks 12th nationally in scoring defense at 17.6 points allowed per contest; held five opponent to 10 points or less
- The Wolverines are 16th nationally in third down defense this fall, allowing the opposition to convert at 32.1 percent (51-159)
- Michigan held three straight ranked opponents to a combined 4-of-34 on third down: #15 Wisconsin (2-11), #24 Michigan State (0-12) and #14 Penn State (2-11), including an 0-16 streak
- Teams are afforded 2.1 red zone chances per game against U-M, which is the third fewest in the NCAA (25 total trips); only 17.9 percent of drives reach the red zone

Suffocating the Opposition

- Michigan has held eight of its 12 opponents to their lowest yardage total of the season
- U-M has held all but two opponents to under 320 yards of total offense, including three teams below 190 yards: 94 yards by Michigan State, 132 yards by Nebraska and 186 vs. Penn State
- The Wolverines have held seven (7) opponents under 260 yards of total offense, tied for the most in the country; the rest of the Big Ten defenses combined have only accomplished this 23 times in 158 games
- Six opponents recorded their season lows in both rushing and passing against U-M: Western Michigan, Northwestern, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Michigan State and Penn State
- Michigan is the only team in country to hold six of its 12 opponents to under 100 passing yards; the rest of the Big Ten defenses combined have accomplished this 15 times in 158 games
- Six opponents have recorded 12 or fewer first downs; no other team has done that five times
- The defense has allowed the opposition to reach the red zone only 25 times this season, including just 19 times in Big Ten action; yielded 135 points on 17 touchdowns (10 rushing, 7 passing) and six field goals
- Opposing quarterbacks have completed just 48.9 percent of their passes (150-of-307)
- The defense has allowed just 13 passing touchdowns while collecting 11 interceptions; only two teams, SMU and Ohio State, have thrown more than one touchdown against the defense

- and six opponents did not throw a TD pass
- The Wolverines have collected an interception in nine contests, including a season-high two picks against both Wisconsin and Penn State
- The defense has contributed 54 pass breakups, including 11 interceptions, with 15 different players have recorded at least one breakup
- Michigan has batted down four or more passes in seven games; swatted away a season-high six breakup against Western Michigan
- The defense has forced the opposition into 52 three-and-out situations in 140 possessions (37.1%) this fall; included a stretch of 20-of-37 possessions against three straight top 25 teams -- #15 Wisconsin (5-11), #24 Michigan State (7-14) and #14 Penn State (8-12)
- In addition to stopping opponents on third down and turning them over, U-M generates a massive amount of negative yardage for opposing offenses with 221 sack yards as part of 343 negative rushing yards created; paired with 247 interception return yards, that totals 590 negative yards for the opponent (-49.2 avg.)

Nation's Best Defense under Don Brown

- Don Brown has coached the nation's top defense three of the past four seasons: 2015 at Boston College (254.3 avg.), 2016 at Michigan (245.6 avg.) and 2018 at Michigan (262.5 avg.)
- The defense has held the opposition to less than 225 yards of total offense 15 times in 38 games under Brown; tied for the most in the country with Alabama (42 games) over the past three seasons
- The Wolverines have held 12 opponents under 200 yards of total offense the past three seasons
- Michigan has held the opposition under 100 yards of offense in the first half a FBS-leading eight times this fall
- U-M led the nation the past two seasons in pass defense and third downs allowed (2016-17)
- Over the last three seasons, Michigan has allowed 140.2 passing yards per game in league play; the next-best Power 5 program in that category is Georgia (186.0), a difference of 46 yards per contest
- In three seasons, 16 of 20 opponents have been held at or under 14 points at Michigan Stadium and only two have score 28 points or more (averaging 12.65 points per game)
- U-M has listed in the top four nationally in six defensive categories in consecutive seasons
- The Wolverines have held 14 teams to less than 100 passing yards in a game, the most in the country since 2016
- Only seven teams have exceeded 200 passing yards against U-M under Don Brown; held 31 of 38 opponents under 200 passing yards with the next best team nationally accomplishing the feat only 27 times
- The Wolverines have allowed 9 or fewer completions in a game 16 times in 38 games, the most in the country; no other Power 5 team has accomplished it more than 12 times
- U-M has held 19 of 38 opponents the last three years to under 100 yards rushing; the team has an 18-1 record when holding the opposition to less than 100 rushing yards
- Michigan has registered six or more tackles for loss in all but seven games under Don Brown

- U-M has recorded at least one sack in 35 of 38 games under Brown
- The defense has generated negative rushing yards in six separate quarters this season (against three opponents) and 20 times overall under Don Brown; opposing offenses have been held to 10 or fewer rushing yards in 40 quarters during Brown's tenure
- The Wolverines have allowed fewer than 10 passing yards in eight separate quarters this season (against six different opponents); opposing quarterbacks have been held at or below that mark in 34 different quarters under Brown
- The defense has batted down or intercepted 162 passes over the past three years (55 in 2016, 53 in 2017 and 54 in 2018)
- Since 1997, only three Michigan teams have had four or more players record double-digits in tackles for loss: 1999 and both of Don Brown's defenses (2016, 2017); has four players with 7.0 or more TFLs this season
- The sack totals each of the past two seasons (46 in 2016, 42 in 2017) rank behind only the school record 51 sacks registered during the 2001 season; this year's squad has 31 sacks
- That same 2001 defense holds the school record with 123 tackles for loss; second and third on the list are the defenses the last two seasons (118.5 in 2016 and 114 in 2017); the team has 80 TFLs in 2018
- U-M racked up 315 tackles for loss and 119 sacks since Brown's arrival prior to the 2016 season (38 games)
- U-M has recorded double-digit tackles for loss in 17 games since Don Brown became defensive coordinator (2016-present; twice in 2018)
- 2016-17 marked the first time since the early 2000s that Michigan's defense has accumulated 100 or more TFLs in back-to-back seasons
- Brown was a finalist for the 2016 Broyles Award, presented to the nation's outstanding assistant coach, and a semifinalist in 2018

Stingy Pass Defense ... 3 Straight Seasons

- For the third straight season, Michigan has been dominating the NCAA in pass defense
- U-M led the national rankings in pass defense during both the 2016 and 2017 seasons and currently lists No. 2 in the NCAA (145.9 avg.) behind leader Miami, Fla. (140.8 avg.) this fall
- The Wolverines have allowed the opposition to just 145.9 passing yards per game in 2018
- The opposition has been held to less than 100 yards passing five times this fall and to fewer than 174 yards on nine occasions
- The 59 passing yards allowed against Rutgers was the lowest total for any opponent this season and the third-lowest figure in Brown's tenure with the Wolverines

- Michigan has held 14 opponents to 100 passing yards or less over the past three seasons
- U-M allowed just 150.1 yards through the air in 2017, and was the nation's only defense to hold 11 opponents under 200 passing yards; no other team reached double-digits
- Michigan led the NCAA by yielding just 142.5 yards per game through the air in 2016; held five opponents to less than 100 passing yards
- U-M also became the first defense to allow less than 1,750 passing yards in back-to-back regular seasons since Alabama (2004-05)

Defense Making Stops in the Backfield

- U-M is among the national leaders in stops behind the line of scrimmage, listing 37th in sacks (2.58 avg.) and 40th in TFLs (6.7 avg.)
- U-M has recorded 80 TFLs this season, with 21 different players contributing to the team's total
- The defense has posted six or more TFLs in eight games; tallied a season-high 14 TFLs vs. Nebraska and had 10 at Northwestern
- Chase Winovich leads the team with 14.5 TFLs
- Michigan recorded a season-high six sacks at Northwestern and tallied five vs. Penn State
- Twelve (12) different players have contributed to the team's 29 sacks, led by Josh Uche with seven stops of the quarterback
- U-M has posted at least two sacks in 10 games this fall; held without a sack against Rutgers and Ohio State
- Michigan's 14 TFLs against Nebraska are the highest known total since at least 1997; the previous high was 13 TFLs attained on multiple occasions, including five times over the past two seasons: Minnesota in 2017 and against Penn State, Rutgers, Maryland and Ohio State in 2016

Defenders Gain Big Ten & National Acclaim

- Three Wolverines earned All-American honors: Devin Bush [1st, Walter Camp Football Foundation (WCFF), Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Sports Illustrated, Sporting News; 2nd, Associated Press], Chase Winovich [2nd, WCFF and AFCA; 3rd, AP] and Lavert Hill [3rd, AP]
- Bush was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Dick Butkus Award; also one of the top 10 players to watch for the Walter Camp Player of the Year award
- Two players were semifinalists for national awards: Lavert Hill (Jim Thorpe Award) and Chase Winovich (Chuck Bednarik Award)
- A total of 12 defensive players earned some form of All-Big Ten Conference recognition, led by first-team honoree Devin Bush, Rashan Gary, Lavert Hill, David Long and Chase Winovich
- Bush was named the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and the Linebacker of the Year

U-M'S DEFENSE UNDER HARBAUGH

- Don Brown has led Michigan's defense in three of Coach Harbaugh's four seasons
- Brown has directed the nation's No. 1 ranked total defense three of the past four seasons: 2015 at Boston College, 2016 at Michigan and currently has the No. 1-ranked squad in 2018; finished third behind Alabama and Wisconsin in 2017
- The Wolverines' pass defense has been the nation's best the past three-plus seasons: No. 3 in 2015, No. 1 in 2016, 2017 and 2018
- U-M led the nation in pass efficiency defense in 2015, finished second in 2016, placed fourth in 2017 and is currently leading the NCAA in 2018
- Michigan has ranked in the top four nationally in total defense for four straight seasons: No. 4 in 2015, No. 1 in 2016, No. 3 in 2017 and No. 1 in 2018
- The Wolverines have held 21 of their 50 opponents under Harbaugh to 10 points or less, including four shut-outs; only 17 teams have managed to score 20 or more points vs. U-M
- U-M has scored 11 defensive touchdowns in four years: 1 in 2015, 3 in 2016, 3 in 2017 and 4 in 2018
- The defense has held the opposition to less than 100 rushing yards in 26 of the 50 games
- The Wolverines have posted 397 tackles for loss in 50 games (7.94 avg. per game): 76 in 2018, 114 in 2017, 121 in 2016 and 88 in 2015
- Quarterbacks have been sacked 151 times (3.02 avg.): 31 in 2018, 42 in 2017, 46 in 2016 and 32 in 2015
- Michigan led the nation in third down defense in consecutive seasons (2016-17); set a school record in 2016 by allowing the opponent to convert just 21 percent on third down and followed up by allowing the opposition to convert just 26.1 percent of its chances during the 2017 season
- Only three teams have converted more than six third-down chances against Michigan during Don Brown's tenure: Ohio State (2017), Notre Dame (2018) and Indiana (2018)
- U-M has held 12 opponents with two or less third down conversions over the past three seasons
- Michigan has finished in the top five in three-and-outs forced the past two seasons: first nationally in 2017 (83 in 162 series, 51.2%) and fourth in 2016 (73 in 164 possessions, 44.5%)

MICHIGAN IN THE CLASSROOM

- Not only has the U-M program done well on the field, the players have achieved at a high level in the classroom under head coach Jim Harbaugh, posting a perfect APR score each of his three seasons leading the program
- Michigan is one of seven schools to earn Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) Public Recognition Award each of the past four seasons: Air Force, Duke, Northwestern, Stanford, Vanderbilt and Wisconsin are the others
- For the fourth consecutive year, the Wolverines are the only Big Ten institution to earn APR Public Recognition in both football and men's basketball
- The 2018 team has 59 players with better than a 3.0 cumulative GPA, including 16 student-athletes with higher than a 3.5 GPA
- Junior offensive lineman Stephen Spanellis has a 3.901 cumulative GPA, which is the highest on the football team
- 137 student-athletes have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors during Coach Harbaugh's tenure (2015-18): 19 in 2015, 23 in 2016, 48 in 2017 and 47 in 2018
- Michigan set records the past two seasons for the most student-athletes earning Academic All-Big Ten in school history
- Linebacker Noah Furbush, a graduate student working on his master's degree in space engineering, was the team's nominee for the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete award
- The Wolverines had 47 players achieve Academic All-Big Ten honors this fall, including 15 players listed as the starter or backup at their respective position
- Michigan's record 48 players earning Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2017 was the most of any Big Ten school
- The Wolverines have five returning starters that earned 2017 academic all-conference accolades: Ben Bredeson, Devin Bush, James Rashan Gary, Sean McKeon, and Quinn Nordin
- Senior linebacker Jordan Glasgow is a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree and was on the ballot for academic All-America accolades
- Fifth-year senior linebacker Noah Furbush received the Bo Schembechler Postgraduate Scholarship by the Michigan Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall at the conclusion of the 2017 season.
- 2017 All-American Maurice Hurst, a rookie with the Oakland Raiders, became just the 11th player in school history to earn Academic All-Big Ten four times during his career
- Two-time All-American tight end Jake Butt, a member of the Denver Broncos, was named the 2017 Big Ten Medal of Honor recipient as the top senior student-athlete at Michigan; the prestigious honor is provided to one male and one female at each Big Ten institution each year
- Junior offensive lineman Stephen Spanellis (2016) earned the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame National High School Scholar-Athlete award; Spanellis has the highest cumulative GPA on the current team

• Eight Michigan players have been named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society during Coach Harbaugh's tenure; award recognizes players who were a starter or major contributor that graduated with a 3.2 GPA or better: Joe Kerridge (2015), Wayne Lyons (2015), Desmond Morgan (2015), Blake O'Neill (2015), Jake Rudock (2015), Michael Jocz (2016), James Foug (2017) and Michael Wroblewski (2017)

Graduate Students

- A total of nine active players on the 2018 roster are pursuing graduate degrees (see left)
- Michigan had five players enrolled in graduate programs during the 2017 season: Greg Froelich (Public Policy), Maurice Hurst (Social Work), Mike McCray (Social Work), Garrett Moores (Management) and Jack Wangler (Accounting)

IN THE COMMUNITY

More than 60 student-athletes are active participants in the Ann Arbor community, serving the program and charitable organizations:

- A tradition for more than 25 years, football players and student-athletes in other sports across Michigan Athletics visit patients at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital on Thursday nights throughout the year
- Team IMPACT with teammate Larry Prout – drafted as a member of the football team, Larry has had over 100 surgeries in his young life; 100 of our players sent videos to Larry when he had his 100th surgery back in the winter. Larry visits practice frequently and participates in different team activities.
- The Youth Impact Program (YIP) has been a summer program partnership between the Michigan Football program and middle school students from the city of Detroit. YIP allows football players to be mentors and teach the game of football to approximately 100-125 young men. Football partners with the Detroit Public School (DPS), the U.S. Marines and the School of Social Work at Michigan to provide education, leadership, discipline and football skills for the participants.
- The football team makes annual visits to the Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor, allowing the players a chance to give back to our military and thank them for their service to our country.
- Players partnered with Wolverine Human Services and former running back Vincent Smith and his Team Gardens program; played and spoke to the youth participants and helped build gardens at HOOP HOUSE
- The coaches and student-athletes work with the KIDSPORT Program to teach youngsters from around the Washtenaw County area about football, complete with youth run drills and demonstrations
- Student-athletes participate in reading programs throughout the Ann Arbor School system and attend and speak at ACT (Athletes for Community Transformation) at Bryant Community Center
- Football players engage with special needs students from across the area at Victors Day, an event put together by the T. Wall Foundation

Community Service Overseas

During both of its foreign trips, the Michigan football team participated in multiple community service activities

- In Rome, the team engaged in several service-based activities, including an afternoon with refugees at Borghese Gardens. Coach Harbaugh, his family and five players visited the SOS Children's Village, which provides stable homes to orphaned or abandoned children. The contingent provided Michigan apparel, played games and visited with the youth and their surrogate mothers, who dedicate their lives to providing a stable environment for these children.
- The team also interacted with representatives from the Federazione Italiana de American Football (FIDAF), an Italian football team, which included refugee players on its roster. The team met two individuals, Kana Jallow and Saikou Sanneh, and watched a documentary about their journey, struggles and the hard work it took to overcome these difficulties, and how the lessons learned in football apply to their every day life.

- In Paris, the Wolverines spent a morning providing a free instructional clinic to French, German, Hungarian and Italian youth and coaches to help spread the game of football across the globe. After the clinic concluded, a group of players broke off and played two soccer games against refugees from Somalia, Afghanistan, Sudan, Bangladesh, Guinea and Chad.
- Michigan Football partnered with Salomon Kabongo-Kooper and his initiative, Feed the City, where players and staff put together food and boxed meals for Paris' homeless. A group of Michigan players went to the northern part of the city to spend time interacting with refugees while another group spent time preparing food, packaging clothing and delivering the items to the homeless. The players at the refugee camp played soccer, ran races and taught the young people the game of American football.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Senior Chase Winovich was named as one of the players to watch for the AFCA Good Works team

- Winovich has been active with the Chad Tough Foundation, helping the organization raise over $350,000 for pediatric cancer research. Chase, teammates and Coach Brown died their hair/mustache orange for the Outback Bowl to raise awareness and funding for pediatric cancer research; generated $211,246 (does not include matching gift made by U-M Regent Ron Weiser). In addition, Chase danced at the "Dancing with the Michigan Stars" event in March 2018 that generated $143,000 for research
- Winovich participates in the program at Michigan where the student-athletes visit patients at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital on Thursday nights
- He has participated in the mystery reading program at St. Francis of Assisi School in Ann Arbor
- When home in Pittsburgh, Pa., Chase visits his former elementary school to speak with the students about the importance of education, exercising and pursuing their dreams

Running Backs Chris Evans and Karan Higdon have non-profit organizations that center around the development of young people, both on the football field and in their communities

Michigan Stadium -- 1927-2018 (91 Years)

The football program is in its 91st season in the "Big House" in 2018, with a 431-129-15 all-time record at Michigan Stadium. The largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.

Since that inaugural season, the capacity of Michigan Stadium has been altered 10 times to its present capacity of 107,601. The Wolverines have led the nation in attendance 38 times in the past 40 years, and reestablished the NCAA single-game attendance record at 115,109 fans during the 2013 Notre Dame game.

Michigan has drawn crowds of 100,000-plus for 286 consecutive games. On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state of Michigan, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.

Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones and was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

CAPACITY: 107,601 -- the largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football -- closer to the playing field with no running track -- no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 --- at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 -- Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 -- Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

REDEDICATION GAME: September 4, 2010 -- vs. Connecticut.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927, 50,532,034 fans have watched the Wolverines play at Michigan Stadium. Stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet -- Installed new FieldTurf in 2010. The original FieldTurf surface was installed in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season. Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

100,000-Plus Crowds at Michigan Stadium

The football program has played 286 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000. The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory.

Since then, Michigan has set numerous NCAA attendance marks and the Wolverines have led the nation for 38 of the past 40 seasons in attendance.

Jim Harbaugh

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach
University of Michigan (1986, B.A., Communications)
38-13 Record at Michigan; 26-9 Big Ten Record

Jim Harbaugh has led the University of Michigan football program to three 10-win seasons in his first four years in Ann Arbor, becoming one of just four Big Ten coaches to accomplish the feat in the history of the conference.

The J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach, Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in Michigan football history on Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth Michigan football player selected to lead college football's winningest program.

Harbaugh is the second fastest coach to 20 wins at Michigan, trailing only Yost; Harbaugh accomplished the feat in 24 games and Yost won the first 29 games of his U-M career before tying Minnesota (6-6) in 1903.

In his first two seasons as the Michigan head coach, Harbaugh guided the Wolverines to 10-win seasons. U-M has appeared in a bowl game in all four seasons with Harbaugh at the helm of the program, including two New Year's Six Bowl games (2016 Orange Bowl and 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl) and two other New Year's Day bowls (2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl and 2018 Outback Bowl).

Seven Wolverines have secured 11 All-America honors under Harbaugh: Devin Bush (first team, 2018; third team, 2017), Jake Butt (first team, 2015-16), Maurice Hurst (first team, 2017), Jourdan Lewis (first team, 2015-16), Jabrill Peppers (second team, 2015; first team, 2016), Chase Winovich (second team, 2018) and Chris Wormley (second team, 2016). Four of them were consensus All-Americans: Butt, Hurst, Lewis and Peppers.

Additionally, Butt won the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end in 2016, while Peppers received the Lott IMPACT Trophy and Paul Hornung Award and was a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race. Several other athletes have been national award finalists under Harbaugh, including Lewis (Jim Thorpe Award, 2016) and Bush (Butkus Award, 2017-18; Nagurski Award, 2018).

A total of 21 student-athletes have earned All-Big Ten first team recognition in Harbaugh's four seasons (four in 2015, six in 2016, three in 2017, eight in 2018). Those accolades have extended to the classroom as well, with Wolverines accruing 137 Academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure, including a program-record 48 in 2017.

Michigan finished with a 10-3 record in 2015, including a 41-7 win over No. 19 Florida in the 2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. The Wolverines finished in the top 12 of the national polls for the first time since 2011, ranking 11th in the Amway Coaches poll and 12th in the Associated Press media poll.

In 2016, the Wolverines took another step forward, coming within inches of claiming their first Big Ten East Division title and a spot in the conference championship game. U-M finished 10-3 and listed 10th in both polls at year's end.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular-season record and to the NFC Championship Game during his first season in 2011, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular-season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only matchup of brothers as head coaches in NFL history. He helped guide San Francisco back to the NFC title game after a 12-4 regular-season record in 2013 and posted an 8-8 mark during the 2014 season.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved in each of Harbaugh's four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 overall record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

After 4-8 and 5-7 records his first two seasons at the helm, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to an 8-5 record and a tie for second place in the Pac-10. The appearance in the Sun Bowl following the season was Stanford's first bowl game since the 2001 season. The program continued its ascension in 2010, posting a 12-1 overall record and 8-1 mark in the Pac-10. Stanford was selected for a BCS bowl game and proceeded to defeat Virginia Tech, 40-12, in the FedEx Orange Bowl in Harbaugh's final game with the program. The Cardinal finished the 2010 season ranked fifth in the national polls, and Harbaugh was named the Woody Hayes Award as the nation's top coach by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He accepted the 49ers head coaching position on Jan. 7, 2011.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League championship each season.

Harbaugh spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. He worked with the quarterbacks, helping quarterback Rich Gannon lead the organization to Super Bowl XXXVII after posting an 11-5 regular-season record and the AFC Western Division title. Gannon won the 2002 AP NFL MVP award and was selected to the 2003 Pro Bowl.

Harbaugh began preparing for a career as a coach during his professional playing days. He spent eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001). He worked as an offensive consultant and recruited for the Hilltoppers during that time. Harbaugh's effort helped his father's team capture the 2002 Division I-AA national championship.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. He was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor in 2005.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years. Harbaugh won the Chicago Tribune Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, earned first team All-America honors and finished third in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy following the 1986 season.

He completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns during his career, with all four statistical categories still listing among the top 12 in school history. He also added 12 rushing touchdowns during his career, including eight scores as a senior. Harbaugh became the first Michigan quarterback to ever throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin) and eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against rivals Michigan State and Ohio State.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and two sons, Jack and John. He also has three children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79. Harbaugh's brother, John, is head coach of the Baltimore Ravens and his sister, Joani, is married to University of Georgia men's basketball coach Tom Crean.
