Harbaugh in Fourth Year Leading U-M

- Jim Harbaugh has compiled a 30-12 overall record in four seasons at Michigan
- He was selected as one of the 20 coaches to watch for The Dodd Trophy, presented annually to the head coach of a team that enjoys success on the field, while also stressing the importance of scholarship, leadership and integrity
- Harbaugh is one of 22 coaches who is currently the head coach at his alma mater; Harbaugh, Paul Chryst (Wisconsin), Scott Frost (Nebraska) and Pat Fitzgerald (Northwestern) are the only Big Ten coaches leading their alma mater
- Harbaugh is one of four Big Ten coaches to win 10-plus games in each of his first two seasons directing a conference school
- He joined Fielding Yost (1901-02) as the only head coaches to collected back-to-back 10-win seasons in their first two seasons at U-M
- In addition to Harbaugh and Yost, Ohio State's Urban Meyer (2012-13) and Wisconsin's Paul Chryst (2015-16) also accomplished the feat
- Harbaugh is the second fastest coach to 20 wins at Michigan, trailing only Yost; Harbaugh accomplished the feat in 24 games and Yost won the first 29 games of his U-M career before tying Minnesota (6-6) in 1903
- Harbaugh was a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year award in 2016, and was a semifinalist for the George Munger Collegiate Coach of the Year honor that same season

Michigan at Home Under Harbaugh

- The Wolverines have compiled an 19-4 home record in four seasons under Jim Harbaugh
- U-M had its 10-game home winning streak

snapped against Michigan State (14-10) in 2017

- Michigan has an 9-4 mark in Big Ten games at the Big House under Harbaugh's leadership
- The only setbacks in Big Ten games came during the 2015 and 2017 seasons, losing to Michigan State and Ohio State during both years
- The Wolverines are a perfect 10-0 in non-conference games under Harbaugh at the Big House, outscoring the opposition by a 412-109 margin in those games

Harbaugh in September

- Michigan has compiled a 13-2 record in the month of September under Coach Jim Harbaugh
- The Wolverines had an 11-game winning streak in September snapped in the 2018 opener at Notre Dame
- U-M won all four games in September during the 2016 and 2017 season after posting a 3-1 mark in 2015
- Harbaugh is 2-0 against the Big Ten in the ninth month of the year, beating Penn State in 2016 and Purdue in 2017

U-M in the Big Ten Conference

- Michigan became the first school in conference history to win 500 games, claiming the milestone win in a 27-20 overtime victory at Indiana
- U-M has compiled a 503-206-18 record all-time in conference play, tops in Big Ten history
- Michigan has a 18-8 mark in Big Ten action under third-year head coach Jim Harbaugh
- Four of the eight losses came in top 10 matchups and four of the contests came down to the final play of the game
- U-M finished with a 7-2 mark in Big Ten play during the 2016 season; the team's only conference setbacks came on the final play at Iowa (FG) and on the final play of the second overtime at Ohio State (TD)

THE DEFENSE

Wolverines Dominating on Defense

- Michigan has been one of the most dominant defenses in the country during coordinator Don Brown's three seasons in Ann Arbor
- The Wolverines led the nation the past two seasons in pass defense and third downs allowed
- In addition, the program listed No. 1 in total defense during the 2016 season and followed up with a No. 3-ranking in 2017
- U-M has listed in the top four nationally in six defensive categories in consecutive seasons
- The Wolverines have held nine opponents under 200 yards of total offense the past three seasons
- Only six teams have exceeded 200 yards passing against Michigan under Don Brown
- U-M has held 15 of 29 opponents the last three years to under 100 yards rushing; the team has a 14-1 record when holding the opposition to less than 100 rushing yards
- Michigan has registered six or more tackles for loss in all but two games under Don Brown
- The 2017 game against Michigan State is the only time that Michigan did not record a sack during Brown's tenure
- The defense has batted down 119 passes over the past three years (55 in 2016, 53 in 2017 and 11 in 2018)
- Six different players intercepted at least one pass in 2017 and 14 different players have intercepted a pass under Don Brown
- Since 1997, only three Michigan teams have had four or more players record double-digits in tackles for loss: 1999 and both of Don Brown's defenses (2016, 2017)
- The sack totals each of the past two seasons (46 in 2016, 42 in 2017) rank behind only the 51 sacks registered during the 2001 season in school history
- That same 2001 defense holds the school record with 123 tackles for loss; second and third on the list are the defenses the last two seasons (118.5 in 2016 and 114 in 2017)

Michigan's Defense under Harbaugh

- Don Brown has led Michigan's defense in three of Coach Harbaugh's four seasons
- Brown directed the nation's No. 1 ranked total defense two of the past three seasons: 2016 at Michigan and 2015 at Boston College; finished third behind Alabama and Wisconsin in 2017
- The Wolverines' pass defense has been the nation's best the past three seasons: No. 3 in 2015 and No. 1 in 2016 and 2017

- U-M led the nation in pass efficiency defense in 2015, finished second in 2016 and finished fourth in 2017
- Michigan has ranked in the top four in total defense for three straight seasons: No. 4 in 2015, No. 1 in 2016 and No. 3 in 2017
- The Wolverines have held 17 of their 41 opponents to 10 points or less in four seasons, including four shutouts; only 15 teams have managed to score more than 20 points vs. U-M
- U-M has scored eight defensive touchdowns in four years: 1 in 2015, 3 in 2016, 3 in 2017 and 1 in 2018
- The defense has held the opposition to less than 100 rushing yards in 22 of the 42 games
- The Wolverines have posted 344 tackles for loss in 42 games (8.2 avg. per game): 23 in 2018, 114 in 2017, 121 in 2016 and 88 in 2015
- Quarterbacks have been sacked 126 times (3.0 avg.): 6 in 2018, 42 in 2017, 46 in 2016 and 32 in 2015

Back-to-Back NCAA Leaders in Pass Defense

- For the second straight season, U-M led the NCAA in pass defense, allowing just 150.1 yards through the air this season; UTSA finished second at 160.1 yards per game
- Michigan also became the first defense to allow less than 1,750 passing yards in back-to-back regular seasons since Alabama during the 2004-05 seasons
- In 2017, U-M was the only defense to hold 11 opponents to under 200 passing yards; no other team even reached double-digits
- In addition, U-M allowed 4.32 net yards per pass attempt, the best mark in the nation
- Michigan held three opponents to less than 100 passing yards and yielded just 101 yards threw the air to Rutgers
- The defense allowed only 11 passing touchdowns all season; South Carolina (2) was the only team to earn more than one through the air against U-M
- The Wolverines batted down 63 passes by the opposition, including 10 interceptions
- Khaleke Hudson led the team with 11 pass breakups; Devin Bush, Tyree Kinnel and Lavert Hill were tied for second with nine PBUs

Nation's Best on Third Down

- For the second consecutive season, Michigan led the nation in third down defense; set a school record in 2016 by allowing the opponent to convert just 21 percent on third down
- In 2017, the defense allowed its opponents to convert just 26.1 percent of its third down chances (47-180)
- Seven opponents converted three or less third down opportunities last fall, with U-M holding Purdue without a third down conversion (0-12)
- Only one team has converted more than six third-down chances against the Wolverines during Don Brown's tenure: Ohio State in 2017
- U-M has held nine opponents with two or less third down conversions over the past two seasons, including Florida, Purdue, Michigan State and South Carolina this year

U-M Among Nation's Best in 3-and-outs

- For the past two seasons, U-M first or second nationally at forcing three-and-outs by the opposition's offense
- The defense led the NCAA by forcing a three-and-out on 51.2 percent of the opponent possessions in 2017: 83 of 162 series
- U-M listed second in the NCAA, averaging 6.38 three-and-outs per contests, which was just behind Indiana (6.5 avg.)
- The defense forced five (5) or more three-and-out situations in 12 of the 13 games in 2017
- The Wolverines finished fourth nationally in three-and-outs during the 2016 season, averaging 5.62 per contest in 2016, with 73 three-and-outs in 164 possessions (44.5%)

Defense Playing in Opposition's Backfield

- The Wolverines have spent a lot of time in the opposition's backfield the past two seasons, racking up 235 tackles for loss and 88 sacks
- It's the first time since the early 2000s that Michigan's defense has accumulated 100 or more TFLs in back-to-back seasons
- The Wolverines posted 114 TFLs and 42 sacks during the 2017 season after registering 121 stops in the opposition's backfield and 42 sacks in 2016

SPECIAL TEAMS

2018 Special Teams Unit

- Ambry Thomas scored the team's first special teams touchdown of the season with a 99-yard kickoff return at Notre Dame
- Khaleke Hudson blocked a Western Michigan punt that set-up a touchdown
- U-M has converted all 15 point-after-attempts and 2-of-3 field goals
- Freshman Jake Moody has led the kickoff unit this fall, knocking 13-of-19 kicks for touchbacks
- Six of punter Will Hart's eight punts have been for 50 yards or more this fall
- The six 50-yard-plus punts are already more than the five (5) booted last season
- The Wolverines returned five special teams starters from last season: Camaron Cheeseman (LS), Quinn Nordin (K), Donovan Peoples-Jones (PR), Brad Robbins (P) and Ambry Thomas (KR)

A Look Back at the 2017 Special Teams

- U-M's kickoff return unit led the nation, allowing an average of just 15.0 yards per return
- The opposition was forced to punt to Michigan a school record 97 times during the season
- Michigan's opponents converted only 63 percent of their field goal opportunities (12-19)
- Donovan Peoples-Jones scored the team's only special teams touchdown on a 79-yard punt return against Air Force
- Peoples-Jones has 40 punt returns for 320 yards and one TD in 2017; ranked 28th nationally and fourth in the Big Ten in return average (8.0 avg.)
- Peoples-Jones ranks second all-time at Michigan for punt returns in a season; joined Steve Breaston (45 in 2003) as the only players with 40-plus returns in a season
- Quinn Nordin led the Big Ten and was 23rd nationally in field goals per game (1.46 avg.)
- Nordin's 79.2 percent conversion rate on field goals listed 42nd in the NCAA
- Michigan converted 19-of-24 field goal attempts in 2017, all by Nordin
- U-M had its streak of 301 consecutive point-after-attempts, the second-longest string in college football history, snapped at Penn State
- The Wolverines began the season with only one returning starter among its specialists, holder Garrett Moores

U-M's Special Teams under Harbaugh

- U-M has converted 58-72 field goal attempts (80.6%) and 159-of-162 point-after-attempts
- The Wolverines have 132 touchbacks in 261 kickoffs (50.6 pct.)
- Michigan punted the ball three or less times in 17 games, including two contests where the team did not attempt a punt (Hawaii and Maryland in 2016)
- The Wolverines have downed 75 punts inside the opposition's 20-yard line
- In 2016, U-M led the Big Ten and finished second nationally with seven blocked kicks: one PAT, two field goals and four punts; the total did not include three deflected punts and a punt by the opposition into its own player

- Led the NCAA with four blocked punts in 2016

Quinn Nordin

- Hit two kicks over 50 yards and seven over 40 yards in his career
- Named to the watch list for the Groza Award
- Converted a 45-yard FG and six PAT vs. SMU
- Hit a 28-yard field goal and both PATs at ND
- 2017 Lou Groza Award semifinalist
- 2017 Academic All-Big Ten
- 2017 All-Big Ten honorable mention (coaches and media)
- Starting placekicker in all 13 games in 2017, hitting 19-of-24 field goals and 35-of-38 PATs
- Hit 6-of-8 field goals from better than 40 yards this season; only misses came on a 52-yard attempt against Florida and 49-yarder vs. Minnesota
- Big Ten leader and 23rd nationally in field goals per contest (1.46 avg.)
- Seventh in the Big Ten and 42nd in the NCAA in field goal percentage (79.2 pct.); tied for 12th in U-M's season kicking annals
- Led the team with 92 points in 2017
- Hit four field goals (35, 26, 45 and 48) and one PAT against South Carolina in the Outback Bowl
- Earned Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week honors for his performance against Air Force; matched school record with five field goals against Air Force (35, 26, 49, 29, 36)
- Tallied 17 points against the Falcons, which was one point shy of the U-M record for most points by a kicker in a game
- Named co-Big Ten Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance against Florida; hit 4-of-6 FGs (25, 55, 30 and 50 yards) and 3 PATs in career debut vs. Florida
- Became the first kicker in U-M history to convert two field goals from 50 yards or better in a game (50 and 55 yards)
- Listed as nation's No. 1 kicker coming out of high school by Kornblue Kicking (junior and senior years)

Brad Robbins

- Expected to miss games after having back surgery prior to the 2018 season
- Starting punter in all nine Big Ten games and the Outback Bowl
- Punted 64 times for a 40.4-yard average with a 58-yard long in 2017; recorded four punts of 50 yards or more and had 23 punts fair caught
- 19 punts were been downed inside the opposition's 20-yard line, including four inside the 10-yard line and two inside the 5-yard line
- Punted seven times for a 41.1-yard average vs. Ohio State, including a 58-yard career-best boot
- Punted seven times for a 42.6-yard average vs. Michigan State; had two punts downed inside the 20-yard line and boomed a 57-yard long
- Made his career debut at Purdue, punting seven times for a 40.6-yard average
- Listed as the nation's top-rated punter coming out of high school (Kornblue Kicking)

Will Hart

- Team's starting punter and holder on field goals and PATs in the first three games

- Averaged over 50 yards per punt in each of the past two games
- Had a pair of 50-yard punts vs. SMU
- Punted three times for a 56.7-yard average against WMU; his 61-yard career long punt was the longest for a Wolverine since Kenny Allen had a 61-yard punt vs. FSU in the Orange Bowl
- Starting punter at Notre Dame, punting three times for 43.7-yard average with a 51-yard long
- Starting punter in three 2017 games
- Punted seven times for a 39.1-yard average vs. Cincinnati, with three boots downed inside the 20-yard line; had a 61-yard career long punt
- Made his career debut against Florida, punting twice for a 35-yard average; both punts were downed inside the Gators' 20-yard line (8, 11)

Jake Moody

- 13 of his 19 kickoffs have been touchbacks
- 4 -of-7 kickoffs were touchbacks vs. SMU and 7-of-8 were touchbacks vs. WMU
- Made his career debut at Notre Dame, booming 2-of-4 kickoffs for touchbacks
- Rated as the No. 1 kicker in the country by Kornblue Kicking

MICHIGAN IN THE CLASSROOM

- Not only has the U-M program done well on the field, the players have achieved at a high level in the classroom under head coach Jim Harbaugh, posting a perfect APR score each of his three seasons leading the program
- Michigan is one of seven schools to earn Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) Public Recognition Award each of the past four seasons: Air Force, Duke, Northwestern, Stanford, Vanderbilt and Wisconsin are the others
- For the fourth consecutive year, the Wolverines are the only Big Ten institution to earn APR Public Recognition in both football and men's basketball
- The 2018 team has 59 players with better than a 3.0 cumulative GPA, including 16 student-athletes with higher than a 3.5 GPA
- Junior offensive lineman Stephen Spanellis has a 3.901 cumulative GPA, which is the highest on the football team
- 90 student-athletes have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors during Coach Harbaugh's tenure (2015-17): 19 in 2015, 23 in 2016 and 48 in 2017
- Michigan set records the past two seasons for the most student-athletes earning Academic All-Big Ten in school history
- Linebacker Noah Furbush, a graduate student working on his master's degree in space engineering, is the team's nominee for the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete award
- The Wolverines had 48 players achieve Academic All-Big Ten honors last fall, including 15 players listed as the starter or backup at their respective position
- Michigan's record 48 players earning Academic All-Big Ten honors in 2017 was the most of any Big Ten school
- The Wolverines have five returning starters that earned 2017 academic all-conference accolades: Ben Bredeson, Devin Bush, James Rashan Gary, Sean McKeon, and Quinn Nordin
- Senior linebacker Jordan Glasgow earned 2017 CoSIDA Academic All-District honors and was on the ballot for academic All-America accolades
- Fifth-year senior linebacker Noah Furbush received the Bo Schembechler Postgraduate Scholarship by the Michigan Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall at the conclusion of the 2017 season.
- 2017 All-American Maurice Hurst, a rookie with the Oakland Raiders, became just the 11th player in school history to earn Academic All-Big Ten four times during his career
- Two-time All-American tight end Jake Butt, a member of the Denver Broncos, was named the 2017 Big Ten Medal of Honor recipient as the top senior student-athlete at Michigan; the prestigious honor is provided to one male and one female at each Big Ten institution each year
- Junior offensive lineman Stephen Spanellis (2016) earned the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame National High School Scholar-Athlete award; Spanellis has the highest cumulative GPA on the current team
- Eight Michigan players have been named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society during Coach Harbaugh's tenure; award recognizes players who were a starter or major contributor that graduated with a 3.2 GPA or better: Joe Kerridge (2015), Wayne Lyons (2015), Desmond Morgan (2015), Blake O'Neill (2015), Jake Rudock (2015), Michael Jocz (2016), James Foug (2017) and Michael Wroblewski (2017)

IN THE COMMUNITY

More than 60 student-athletes are active participants in the Ann Arbor community, serving the program and charitable organizations:

- A tradition for more than 25 years, football players and student-athletes in other sports across Michigan Athletics visit patients at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital on Thursday nights throughout the year
- Team IMPACT with teammate Larry Prout – drafted as a member of the football team, Larry has had over 100 surgeries in his young life; 100 of our players sent videos to Larry when he had his 100th surgery back in the winter. Larry visits practice frequently and participates in different team activities.
- The Youth Impact Program (YIP) has been a summer program partnership between the Michigan Football program and middle school students from the city of Detroit. YIP allows football players to be mentors and teach the game of football to approximately 100-125 young men. Football partners with the Detroit Public School (DPS), the U.S. Marines and the School of Social Work at Michigan to provide education, leadership, discipline and football skills for the participants.
- The football team makes annual visits to the Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor, allowing the players a chance to give back to our military and thank them for their service to our country.
- Players partnered with Wolverine Human Services and former running back Vincent Smith and his Team Gardens program; played and spoke to the youth participants and helped build gardens at HOOP HOUSE
- The coaches and student-athletes work with the KIDSPORT Program to teach youngsters from around the Washtenaw County area about football, complete with youth run drills and demonstrations
- Student-athletes participate in reading programs throughout the Ann Arbor School system and attend and speak at ACT (Athletes for Community Transformation) at Bryant Community Center
- Football players engage with special needs students from across the area at Victors Day, an event put together by the T. Wall Foundation

Community Service Overseas

During both of its foreign trips, the Michigan football team participated in multiple community service activities

- In Rome, the team engaged in several service-based activities, including an afternoon with refugees at Borghese Gardens. Coach Harbaugh, his family and five players visited the SOS Children's Village, which provides stable homes to orphaned or abandoned children. The contingent provided Michigan apparel, played games and visited with the youth and their surrogate mothers, who dedicate their lives to providing a stable environment for these children.
- The team also interacted with representatives from the Federazione Italiana de American Football (FIDAF), an Italian football team, which included refugee players on its roster. The team met two individuals, Kana Jallow and Saikou Sanneh, and watched a documentary about their journey, struggles and the hard work it took to overcome these difficulties, and how the lessons learned in football apply to their every day life.

- In Paris, the Wolverines spent a morning providing a free instructional clinic to French, German, Hungarian and Italian youth and coaches to help spread the game of football across the globe. After the clinic concluded, a group of players broke off and played two soccer games against refugees from Somalia, Afghanistan, Sudan, Bangladesh, Guinea and Chad.
- Michigan Football partnered with Salomon Kabongo-Kooper and his initiative, Feed the City, where players and staff put together food and boxed meals for Paris' homeless. A group of Michigan players went to the northern part of the city to spend time interacting with refugees while another group spent time preparing food, packaging clothing and delivering the items to the homeless. The players at the refugee camp played soccer, ran races and taught the young people the game of American football.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Senior Chase Winovich was named as one of the players to watch for the AFCA Good Works team

- Winovich has been active with the Chad Tough Foundation, helping the organization raise over $350,000 for pediatric cancer research. Chase, teammates and Coach Brown died their hair/mustache orange for the Outback Bowl to raise awareness and funding for pediatric cancer research; generated $211,246 (does not include matching gift made by U-M Regent Ron Weiser). In addition, Chase danced at the "Dancing with the Michigan Stars" event in March 2018 that generated $143,000 for research
- Winovich participates in the program at Michigan where the student-athletes visit patients at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital on Thursday nights
- He has participated in the mystery reading program at St. Francis of Assisi School in Ann Arbor
- When home in Pittsburgh, Pa., Chase visits his former elementary school to speak with the students about the importance of education, exercising and pursuing their dreams

Running Backs Chris Evans and Karan Higdon have non-profit organizations that center around the development of young people, both on the football field and in their communities

Michigan Stadium -- 1927-2018 (91 Years)

The football program is in its 91st season in the "Big House" in 2018, with a 426-129-15 all-time record at Michigan Stadium. The largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.

Since that inaugural season, the capacity of Michigan Stadium has been altered 10 times to its present capacity of 107,601. The Wolverines have led the nation in attendance 38 times in the past 40 years, and reestablished the NCAA single-game attendance record at 115,109 fans during the 2013 Notre Dame game.

Michigan has drawn crowds of 100,000-plus for 281 consecutive games. On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state of Michigan, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.

Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones and was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

CAPACITY: 107,601 -- the largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football -- closer to the playing field with no running track -- no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 --- at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 -- Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 -- Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

REDEDICATION GAME: September 4, 2010 -- vs. Connecticut.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927, 49,978,241 fans have watched the Wolverines play 570 games. Stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet -- Installed new FieldTurf in 2010. The original FieldTurf surface was installed in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season. Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

100,000-Plus Crowds at Michigan Stadium

The football program has played 281 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000. The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory.

Since then, Michigan has set numerous NCAA attendance marks and the Wolverines have led the nation for 38 of the past 40 seasons in attendance.

Jim Harbaugh

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach
University of Michigan (1986, B.A., Communications)
30-12 Record at Michigan; 18-8 Big Ten Record

Jim Harbaugh is in his fourth season as the J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach at the University of Michigan. He was named the 20th coach in U-M football history on Tuesday, Dec. 30, 2014. Harbaugh became the sixth former Michigan football player to be named the leader of college football's winningest program.

Jim Harbaugh is one of four Big Ten coaches to win 10-plus games in each of his first two seasons directing a conference school. Harbaugh joined Fielding Yost (1901-02) as the only head coaches to collected back-to-back 10-win seasons in their first two seasons at U-M. In addition to Harbaugh and Yost, Ohio State's Urban Meyer (2012-13) and Wisconsin's Paul Chryst (2015-16) also accomplished the feat.

Harbaugh is the second fastest coach to 20 wins at Michigan, trailing only Yost; Harbaugh accomplished the feat in 24 games and Yost won the first 29 games of his U-M career before tying Minnesota (6-6) in 1903.

In his first two seasons as the Michigan head coach, Harbaugh guided the Wolverines to 10-win seasons. U-M has appeared in a bowl game in all three seasons with Harbaugh at the helm of the program, including a New Year's Six Bowl with the 2017 Orange Bowl, and two other bowls played on New Year's Day (2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl; 2018 Outback Bowl).

Six Wolverines have secured nine All-American honors under Harbaugh: Devin Bush (third team, 2017), Jake Butt (first team, 2015-16), Maurice Hurst (first team, 2017), Jourdan Lewis (first team, 2015-16), Jabrill Peppers (second team, 2015; first team, 2016) and Chris Wormley (second team, 2016). Four of those have been consensus All-Americans: Butt, Hurst, Lewis and Peppers.

Additionally, Butt won the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end in 2016 while Peppers received the Lott IMPACT Trophy, Paul Hornung Award and was a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race that same season. Several other athletes have been national award finalists under Harbaugh, including Lewis (Jim Thorpe Award) and Bush (Butkus Award).

A total of 21 athletes have earned All-Big Ten recognition in each of Harbaugh's three seasons, including 13 first-team honorees (four in 2015, six in 2016, three in 2017). Ten of 11 defensive starters have earned the honor in consecutive seasons (2016-17). Those accolades have extended to the classroom as well, with Wolverines accruing 90 Academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure, including a program-record 48 in 2017.

Michigan finished with a 10-3 record in 2015, including a 41-7 win over No. 19 Florida in the 2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. The Wolverines finished in the top 12 of the national polls for the first time since 2011, ranking 11th in the Amway Coaches poll and 12th in the Associated Press media poll.

In 2016, the Wolverines took another step forward, coming within inches of claiming their first Big Ten East Division title and a spot in the conference championship game. U-M finished 10-3 and listed 10th in both polls at year's end.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular-season record and to the NFC Championship Game during his first season in 2011, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular-season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only matchup of brothers as head coaches in NFL history. He helped guide San Francisco back to the NFC title game after a 12-4 regular-season record in 2013 and posted an 8-8 mark during the 2014 season.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved in each of Harbaugh's four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 overall record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

After 4-8 and 5-7 records his first two seasons at the helm, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to an 8-5 record and a tie for second place in the Pac-10. The appearance in the Sun Bowl following the season was Stanford's first bowl game since the 2001 season. The program continued its ascension in 2010, posting a 12-1 overall record and 8-1 mark in the Pac-10. Stanford was selected for a BCS bowl game and proceeded to defeat Virginia Tech, 40-12, in the FedEx Orange Bowl in Harbaugh's final game with the program. The Cardinal finished the 2010 season ranked fifth in the national polls, and Harbaugh was named the Woody Hayes Award as the nation's top coach by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He accepted the 49ers head coaching position on Jan. 7, 2011.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League championship each season.

Harbaugh spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. He worked with the quarterbacks, helping quarterback Rich Gannon lead the organization to Super Bowl XXXVII after posting an 11-5 regular-season record and the AFC Western Division title. Gannon won the 2002 AP NFL MVP award and was selected to the 2003 Pro Bowl.

Harbaugh began preparing for a career as a coach during his professional playing days. He spent eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001). He worked as an offensive consultant and recruited for the Hilltoppers during that time. Harbaugh's effort helped his father's team capture the 2002 Division I-AA national championship.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. He was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor in 2005.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years. Harbaugh won the Chicago Tribune Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, earned first team All-America honors and finished third in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy following the 1986 season.

He completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns during his career, with all four statistical categories still listing among the top 12 in school history. He also added 12 rushing touchdowns during his career, including eight scores as a senior. Harbaugh became the first Michigan quarterback to ever throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin) and eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against rivals Michigan State and Ohio State.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and two sons, Jack and John. He also has three children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79. Harbaugh's brother, John, is head coach of the Baltimore Ravens and his sister, Joani, is married to University of Georgia men's basketball coach Tom Crean.
