Television Coverage

BTN will broadcast the game to a national audience. Kevin Kugler (play-by-play), Matt Millen (color) and Lisa Byington (sideline) will call the game.

Radio Coverage

Jim Brandstatter (play-by-play) and Dan Dierdorf (color) bring the action to you from the booth, with Doug Karsch providing sideline reports and analysis. Anchored by WWJ-AM (950) in Detroit, the Michigan Learfield IMG Radio Network is comprised of 40 affiliate stations in Michigan and Ohio during football season (see page 3).

Wolverines and Scarlet Knights

This will be the sixth meeting between Michigan and Rutgers, two of college football's oldest programs. The Wolverines lead the all-time series, 4-1, with victories in the last four match-ups. Rutgers won the inaugural meeting at home in 2014 and Michigan claimed victories at Michigan Stadium in 2015 and 2017 and on the road during the 2016 and 2018 seasons.

Wolverines from New Jersey

Michigan's roster features five players from the state of New Jersey: DL Michael Dwumfour, DB Brad Hawkins, DB Hunter Reynolds, OL Cesar Ruiz and OL Jon Runyan.

140th Season of Michigan Football

The 2019 season marks the 140th in Michigan Football history. The Wolverines have an NCAA-leading 955 victories, claimed 42 Big Ten Championships and won 11 national titles since the inception of the program in 1879.

U-M Ranked 20th in National Polls

- The Michigan football team dropped to 20th in the national polls following its loss at Wisconsin; lists No. 20 in the Amway Coaches Poll and No. 20 in the Associated Press rankings
- This week's match-up with Rutgers will be the first contest in the past 10 games where U-M will be listed outside of the top 10 of the polls
- Michigan finished last season ranked 14th in both national polls, the same position that it began the 2018 season
- The Wolverines have been ranked in the national polls for 17 straight games and for all but eight contests during Coach Harbaugh's tenure; first four games of 2015 and four contests in 2017
- U-M posted a 3-3 record against ranked teams in 2018, defeating No. 15 Wisconsin, No. 24 Michigan State and No. 14 Penn State while falling to No. 11 Notre Dame, No. 10 Ohio State and No. 10 Florida; the last time that U-M beat three top 25 teams in the same season was 2005 and the last time it defeated three straight top opponents was 1997

2019 Michigan Wolverines

- Seniors Ben Bredeson, Khaleke Hudson and Carlo Kemp were voted 2019 captains by their teammates; Shea Patterson and Josh Metellus were selected as alternate captains
- The Wolverines returned 13 starters on offense (eight) and defense (five)
- Michigan leads all Big Ten schools with 12 players listed on a watch lists for major national awards (see page 26 for complete list)
- The Wolverines have six returning specialist starters - LS Camaron Cheeseman, P Will Hart, K Jake Moody, K Quinn Nordin, PR Donovan Peoples-Jones and KR Ambry Thomas
- 71 players saw action vs. Middle Tennessee State, including 16 players that made their collegiate debut
- Eleven (11) true freshmen saw their first

- In addition to the freshman, five (5) additional Wolverines made their career debuts this season: DB Gemon Green, OL Ryan Hayes, OL Griffin Korican, TE Mustapha Muhammad and DL Luiji Vilain
- Graduate transfer DL Michael Danna made his Michigan debut in the opener
- U-M has players from 30 different states and three different countries this season, including 48 players from the state of Michigan, 16 student-athletes from the neighboring state of Ohio, 11 from Florida, eight from Georgia and six each from California and Connecticut
- The three international players are all defensive linemen: David Ojabo (Aberdeen, Scotland), Luiji Vilain (Ottawa, Canada) and Julius Welschof (Miesbach, Germany); defensive line coach Shaun Nua was also born outside the country in American Samoa (Pago Pago)
- Michigan welcomed eight early enrollees to campus in January 2019: TE Erick All, RB Zach Charbonnet, QB Cade McNamara, DL Gabe Newburg, DL David Ojabo, DB Jalen Perry, WR Mike Sainristil and DL Mazi Smith
- Heading into the 2019 season, a total of 23 players had started at least one game in their career: 13 on offense and 10 on defense
- Senior offensive lineman Ben Bredeson leads the team with 36 starting assignments during his career
- Senior defensive back Lavert Hill and senior safety Josh Metellus are tied for the team lead on defense with 29 career starts apiece

The Team under Coach Harbaugh

- Michigan has won 10 games in three of Harbaugh's four seasons leading the program
- The Wolverines have won 40 games during Coach Harbaugh's four seasons (40-15)
- Michigan has scored 220 touchdowns while allowing just 117 to its opponents during that stretch
- The Wolverine defense has listed in the top five nationally all four seasons

THE DEFENSE

The 2019 Defense

- Michigan returned five starters from the 2018 season: LB Devin Gil, CB Lavert Hill, LB Khaleke Hudson, DT Carlo Kemp and S Josh Metellus
- Hill is the team's lone returning first-team All-Big Ten performer, with Metellus collecting second-team honors in 2018
- Khaleke Hudson is the team's active career leader in tackles (169), tackles for loss (23.5) and sacks (11)
- Metellus and Hill are tied for the team lead with 28 career starts in the secondary, with Hudson in third with 26 assignments
- Hill paces the team with 18 career pass break-ups during his career (14 PBUs and 4 picks)
- A total of 16 Wolverine defenders made stops in the opposition's backfield, led by Hudson with 23.5 TFLs; Uche is second with 10 and Kwity Paye ranks third with eight
- The 16 players have combined to post 86 TFLs
- U-M's defense has 10 players that have combined to register 36.5 sacks in their career; Hudson leads the group with 11 sacks and is followed closely by Uche with nine sacks
- Five players have recorded interceptions during their career: Hill (4), Metellus (3), Hudson (2), Ambry Thomas (2) and Michael Dwumfour (1)
- Hill returned two of his interceptions for touchdowns and Metellus scored a pick-six in 2018
- 10 players have collected at least one PBU in their career: Hill (18), Metellus (16), Hudson (13), Josh Ross (2), Thomas (2), Jordan Glasgow (1), Brad Hawkins (2), Aidan Hutchinson (1), Paye (1) and Uche (1)
- Thomas is the team's active leader with four fumble recoveries during his career
- U-M returned just 50% of its 2018 defensive production, which ranked 106th nationally and 13th in the Big Ten; the only conference school returning less production is Rutgers (44%)

Nation's Best Defense under Don Brown

- Don Brown has coached the nation's top defense twice in the past four seasons: 2015 at Boston College (254.3 avg.) and 2016 at Michigan; his defenses have ranked in the top three all four years
- The defense has held the opposition to less than 225 yards of total offense 15 times in 42 games under Brown
- The Wolverines have held 12 opponents under 200 yards of total offense the past four seasons
- U-M led the nation in pass defense during the 2016 and 2017 seasons and finished second in 2018
- Over the last three seasons, Michigan has allowed 140.2 passing yards per game in league play; the next-best Power 5 program in that category is Georgia (186.0), a difference of 46 yards per contest
- In four seasons, 16 of 22 opponents have been held at or under 14 points at Michigan Stadium and only two have score 28 points or more
- U-M listed in the top four nationally in six defensive categories during the 2016 and 2017 seasons
- The Wolverines have held 15 teams to less than 100 passing yards in a game, the most in the country since 2016

- Only eight teams have exceeded 200 passing yards against U-M under Don Brown; held 34 of 42 opponents under 200 passing yards with the next best team nationally accomplishing the feat only 28 times
- The Wolverines have allowed 9 or fewer completions in a game 17 times in 42 games, the most in the country; no other Power 5 team has accomplished it more than 12 times
- U-M has held 20 of 42 opponents the last four years to under 100 yards rushing; the team has an 19-1 record when holding the opposition to less than 100 rushing yards
- Michigan has registered six or more tackles for loss in all but nine games under Don Brown
- U-M has recorded at least one sack in 39 of 42 games under Brown
- The defense has batted down or intercepted 170 passes over the past four years (55 in 2016, 53 in 2017, 55 in 2018 and 7 in 2019)
- Since 1997, only three Michigan teams have had four or more players record double-digits in tackles for loss: 1999 and Don Brown's defenses in 2016 and 2017
- The sack totals in 2016 (46) and 2017 (42) rank behind only the school record 51 sacks registered during the 2001 season; this year's squad had 34 sacks
- That same 2001 defense holds the school record with 123 tackles for loss; second and third on the list are the defenses in 2016 (118.5) and 2017 (114); the team had 88 TFLs in 2018
- U-M racked up 333 tackles for loss and 127 sacks since Brown's arrival prior to the 2016 season (42 games)
- U-M has recorded double-digit tackles for loss in 17 games since Don Brown became defensive coordinator (2016-present)
- 2016-17 marked the first time since the early 2000s that Michigan's defense has accumulated 100 or more TFLs in back-to-back seasons
- Brown was a finalist for the 2016 Broyles Award, presented to the nation's outstanding assistant coach, and a semifinalist in 2018

Stingy Pass Defense for 3 Straight Seasons

- Michigan has been the NCAA's most dominant pass defense the past three seasons
- U-M led the national rankings in pass defense during both the 2016 and 2017 seasons and finished No. 2 nationally (147.8 avg.) behind leader Miami, Fla. (135.6 avg.) in 2018
- U-M became the first program to allow less than 2,000 passing yards in three straight seasons since Miami (Fla.) accomplished the feat during 2001-03 seasons: 1853 in 2016, 1951 in 2017 and 1843 in 2018

- The Wolverines also became the first team since those Hurricane squads to allow less than 50% completion in three straight seasons: 43.6% in 2016, 48.8% in 2017 and 49.4% in 2018
- Michigan has held 15 opponents to 100 passing yards or less over the past three seasons
- U-M allowed just 150.1 yards through the air in 2017, and was the nation's only defense to hold 11 opponents under 200 passing yards; no other team reached double-digits
- Michigan led the NCAA by yielding just 142.5 yards per game through the air in 2016; held five opponents to less than 100 passing yards
- Over the past four years, the defense has collected 36 interceptions while allowing just 38 passing touchdowns: 2 TDs, 2 Int. (2019), 14 TDs, 11 Int. (2018), 11 TDs, 10 Int. (2017) and 11 TDs, 13 Int. (2016); 16 different players have registered at least one pick under Don Brown

IN THE COMMUNITY

More than 60 student-athletes are active participants in the Ann Arbor community, serving the program and charitable organizations:

- A tradition for more than 25 years, football players and student-athletes in other sports across Michigan Athletics visit patients at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital on Thursday nights throughout the year
- Team IMPACT with teammate Larry Prout – drafted as a member of the football team, Larry has had over 100 surgeries in his young life; 100 of our players sent videos to Larry when he had his 100th surgery back in the winter. Larry visits practice frequently and participates in different team activities.
- The Youth Impact Program (YIP) has been a summer program partnership between the Michigan Football program and middle school students from the city of Detroit. YIP allows football players to be mentors and teach the game of football to approximately 100-125 young men. Football partners with the Detroit Public School (DPS), the U.S. Marines and the School of Social Work at Michigan to provide education, leadership, discipline and football skills for the participants.
- The football team makes annual visits to the Veteran's Hospital in Ann Arbor, allowing the players a chance to give back to our military and thank them for their service to our country.
- Players partnered with Wolverine Human Services and former running back Vincent Smith and his Team Gardens program; played and spoke to the youth participants and helped build gardens at HOOP HOUSE
- The coaches and student-athletes work with the KIDSPORT Program to teach youngsters from around the Washtenaw County area about football, complete with youth run drills and demonstrations
- Student-athletes participate in reading programs throughout the Ann Arbor School system and attend and speak at ACT (Athletes for Community Transformation) at Bryant Community Center
- Football players engage with special needs students from across the area at Victors Day, an event put together by the T. Wall Foundation

Community Service Overseas

During both of its foreign trips, the Michigan football team participated in multiple community service activities

- In Rome, the team engaged in several service-based activities, including an afternoon with refugees at Borghese Gardens. Coach Harbaugh, his family and five players visited the SOS Children's Village, which provides stable homes to orphaned or abandoned children. The contingent provided Michigan apparel, played games and visited with the youth and their surrogate mothers, who dedicate their lives to providing a stable environment for these children.
- The team also interacted with representatives from the Federazione Italiana de American Football (FIDAF), an Italian football team, which included refugee players on its roster. The team met two individuals, Kana Jallow and Saikou Sanneh, and watched a documentary about their journey, struggles and the hard work it took to overcome these difficulties, and how the lessons learned in football apply to their every day life.
- In Paris, the Wolverines spent a morning providing a free instructional clinic to French, German, Hungarian and Italian youth and coaches to help spread the game of football across the globe. After the clinic concluded, a group of players broke off and played two soccer games against refugees from Somalia, Afghanistan, Sudan, Bangladesh, Guinea and Chad.
- Michigan Football partnered with Salomon Kabongo-Kooper and his initiative, Feed the City, where players and staff put together food and boxed meals for Paris' homeless. A group of Michigan players went to the northern part of the city to spend time interacting with refugees while another group spent time preparing food, packaging clothing and delivering the items to the homeless. The players at the refugee camp played soccer, ran races and taught the young people the game of American football.
- In South Africa, the Wolverines united under the banner of sports with youth and college players from the Cape Town area as well as professional players from the Springbok, the country's national rugby team. Michigan players learned the skills necessary to play rugby while teaching the game of football to the youth in attendance. The older rugby players ran a scrimmage to show the Wolverines how a full-field game is played and then put the student-athlete through two instructional sessions featuring rugby drills. The clinic ended with UTC choir singing the national anthems for the United States and South Africa. Captain Ben Bredeson participated in a jersey swap with the organizing rugby clubs and offered a few words of thanks for the opportunity to learn the fame of rugby.

Michigan Stadium -- 1927-2019 (92 Years)

The football program is in its 92nd season in the "Big House" in 2019, with a 433-129-15 all-time record at Michigan Stadium. The largest college football stadium in the country, it was completed in 1927 at a cost of $950,000, initially seating 72,000 fans. Michigan won the first game played at Michigan Stadium, defeating Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0, on Oct. 1, 1927. The stadium was officially dedicated on Oct. 22, 1927, with a 21-0 shutout over Ohio State.

Since that inaugural season, the capacity of Michigan Stadium has been altered 10 times to its present capacity of 107,601. The Wolverines have led the nation in attendance 38 times in the past 40 years, and reestablished the NCAA single-game attendance record at 115,109 fans during the 2013 Notre Dame game.

Michigan has drawn crowds of 100,000-plus for 288 consecutive games. On football Saturdays in Ann Arbor, Michigan Stadium ranks as the fourth-largest "city" in the state of Michigan, surpassing the population of Ann Arbor itself.

Michigan Stadium was the first college-owned football facility with a video scoreboard above both end zones and was also the first stadium to use electronic scoreboards for official time when, in 1930, two were installed.

CAPACITY: 107,601 -- the largest college-owned structures of its kind designed solely for football -- closer to the playing field with no running track -- no posts or other obstructions.

COMPLETION: 1927 --- at a cost in excess of $950,000 to seat 72,000 spectators. Capacity raised to 84,401 by addition of temporary wooden bleachers until 1949 when permanent steel stands replaced the wooden bleachers, increasing the capacity to 97,239. Seating capacity then raised to 101,001 in 1956, 101,701 in 1973, 102,501 in 1992 and 107,501 in 1998.

FIRST GAME: October 1, 1927 -- Michigan led by Captain Bennie Oosterbaan, defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 33-0. LaVerne (Kip) Taylor, Michigan end, scored first in the stadium on a 28-yard pass from halfback Louis Gilbert.

DEDICATION GAME: October 22, 1927 -- Michigan defeated Ohio State, 21-0.

REDEDICATION GAME: September 4, 2010 -- vs. Connecticut.

ATTENDANCE: Since 1927, 50,754,592 fans have watched the Wolverines play at Michigan Stadium. Stadium attendance record of 115,109 was set on Sept. 7, 2013 against Notre Dame.

FIELD: 360 x 160 feet -- Installed new FieldTurf in 2010. The original FieldTurf surface was installed in 2003, returning Michigan to an artificial surface for the first time since the 1990 season. Installed Prescription Athletic Turf in 1991, giving Michigan its first natural grass field since 1968. Field was also lowered 3-1/2 feet allowing better sightlines for those seated in the lower rows.

100,000-Plus Crowds at Michigan Stadium

The football program has played 288 consecutive home games in front of crowds in excess of 100,000. The last time Michigan did not have 100,000 in attendance in Michigan Stadium was on Oct. 25, 1975 vs. Indiana. A crowd of 93,857 was on hand for the 55-7 Michigan victory.

Since then, Michigan has set numerous NCAA attendance marks and the Wolverines have led the nation for 38 of the past 40 seasons in attendance.

Jim Harbaugh

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach
University of Michigan (1986, B.A., Communications)
40-15 Record at Michigan; 26-10 Big Ten Record

Jim Harbaugh has led the University of Michigan football program to three 10-win seasons in his first four years in Ann Arbor, becoming one of just four Big Ten coaches to accomplish the feat in the history of the conference.

The J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach, Harbaugh was named the 20th coach in Michigan football history on Dec. 30, 2014. He became the sixth Michigan football player selected to lead college football's winningest program.

Harbaugh is the second fastest coach to 20 wins at Michigan, trailing only Yost; Harbaugh accomplished the feat in 24 games and Yost won the first 29 games of his U-M career before tying Minnesota (6-6) in 1903.

In his first two seasons as the Michigan head coach, Harbaugh guided the Wolverines to 10-win seasons. U-M has appeared in a bowl game in all four seasons with Harbaugh at the helm of the program, including two New Year's Six Bowl games (2016 Orange Bowl and 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl) and two other New Year's Day bowls (2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl and 2018 Outback Bowl).

Seven Wolverines have secured 11 All-America honors under Harbaugh: Devin Bush (first team, 2018; third team, 2017), Jake Butt (first team, 2015-16), Maurice Hurst (first team, 2017), Jourdan Lewis (first team, 2015-16), Jabrill Peppers (second team, 2015; first team, 2016), Chase Winovich (second team, 2018) and Chris Wormley (second team, 2016). Four of them were consensus All-Americans: Butt, Hurst, Lewis and Peppers.

Additionally, Butt won the Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end in 2016, while Peppers received the Lott IMPACT Trophy and Paul Hornung Award and was a fifth-place finisher in the Heisman Trophy race. Several other athletes have been national award finalists under Harbaugh, including Lewis (Jim Thorpe Award, 2016) and Bush (Butkus Award, 2017-18; Nagurski Award, 2018).

A total of 21 student-athletes have earned All-

Big Ten first team recognition in Harbaugh's four seasons (four in 2015, six in 2016, three in 2017, eight in 2018). Those accolades have extended to the classroom as well, with Wolverines accruing 137 Academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure, including a program-record 48 in 2017.

Michigan finished with a 10-3 record in 2015, including a 41-7 win over No. 19 Florida in the 2016 Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. The Wolverines finished in the top 12 of the national polls for the first time since 2011, ranking 11th in the Amway Coaches poll and 12th in the Associated Press media poll.

In 2016, the Wolverines took another step forward, coming within inches of claiming their first Big Ten East Division title and a spot in the conference championship game. U-M finished 10-3 and listed 10th in both polls at year's end.

Harbaugh came to Ann Arbor after an impressive four-year run in the National Football League with the San Francisco 49ers. He led the franchise to the NFC Championship Game in each of his first three seasons, winning the George Halas Trophy as NFC champions in 2012. Harbaugh tallied a 49-22-1 overall record that included a 5-3 mark in the postseason as 49ers head coach.

Harbaugh led the Niners to a 13-3 regular-season record and to the NFC Championship Game during his first season in 2011, earning the AP NFL Coach of the Year award. He followed up with an 11-4-1 regular-season mark in 2012, culminating with an appearance in Super Bowl XLVII. Harbaugh's 49ers lost a back-and-forth affair, 34-31, to the Baltimore Ravens and his brother, John, in the only matchup of brothers as head coaches in NFL history. He helped guide San Francisco back to the NFC title game after a 12-4 regular-season record in 2013 and posted an 8-8 mark during the 2014 season.

Prior to making the jump to the 49ers, Harbaugh established himself as a leader of young men at the college level. He turned around a Stanford program that went 1-11 prior to his arrival. The Cardinal improved in each of Harbaugh's four seasons, culminating with a 12-1 campaign and FedEx Orange Bowl victory over Virginia Tech in 2010. Harbaugh finished his tenure at Stanford with a 29-21 overall record (.580) and 21-15 mark in Pac-10 Conference play.

After 4-8 and 5-7 records his first two seasons at the helm, Harbaugh led the Cardinal to an 8-5 record and a tie for second place in the Pac-10. The appearance in the Sun Bowl following the season was Stanford's first bowl game since the 2001 season. The program continued its ascension in 2010, posting a 12-1 overall record and 8-1 mark in the Pac-10. Stanford was selected for a BCS bowl game and proceeded to defeat Virginia Tech, 40-12, in the FedEx Orange Bowl in Harbaugh's final game with the program. The Cardinal finished the 2010 season ranked fifth in the national polls, and Harbaugh was named the Woody Hayes Award as the nation's top coach by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. He accepted the 49ers head coaching position on Jan. 7, 2011.

In his first head coaching experience, Harbaugh led the University of San Diego to a 29-6 record during his three seasons directing the program (2004-06). In his first year, the Toreros posted a 7-4 record after winning their final five games of the season. The team proceeded to post 11-1 marks during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, claiming the Pioneer Football League championship each season.

Harbaugh spent the 2002 and 2003 NFL seasons as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. He worked with the quarterbacks, helping quarterback Rich Gannon lead the organization to Super Bowl XXXVII after posting an 11-5 regular-season record and the AFC Western Division title. Gannon won the 2002 AP NFL MVP award and was selected to the 2003 Pro Bowl.

Harbaugh began preparing for a career as a coach during his professional playing days. He spent eight years as an NCAA-certified unpaid assistant coach for his father, Jack, at Western Kentucky (1994-2001). He worked as an offensive consultant and recruited for the Hilltoppers during that time. Harbaugh's effort helped his father's team capture the 2002 Division I-AA national championship.

Harbaugh played for five different organizations during his 15-year NFL career (1987-2001). He completed 2,305-of-3,918 passes for 26,288 yards and 129 touchdowns in 177 games. Harbaugh made 140 career starts. He was named the AFC Offensive Player of the Year, the NFL Comeback Player of the Year and a Pro Bowl selection after leading the Indianapolis Colts to the AFC Championship Game in 1995. He was inducted into the Colts Ring of Honor in 2005.

As a collegiate player, Harbaugh was one of the most efficient passers in NCAA history. In 1985, he led the nation in pass efficiency and finished as the runner-up in 1986. His career pass efficiency rating was the NCAA's top mark for more than 12 years. Harbaugh won the Chicago Tribune Big Ten Most Valuable Player award, earned first team All-America honors and finished third in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy following the 1986 season.

He completed 387-of-620 passes for 5,449 yards and 31 touchdowns during his career, with all four statistical categories still listing among the top 12 in school history. He also added 12 rushing touchdowns during his career, including eight scores as a senior. Harbaugh became the first Michigan quarterback to ever throw for more than 300 yards in a single game (310 vs. Wisconsin) and eclipsed the 200-yard passing mark 12 times. He led the Wolverines to a 21-3-1 record as a full-time starter during his final two seasons, including a pair of victories against rivals Michigan State and Ohio State.

Harbaugh and his wife, Sarah, have two daughters, Addison and Katherine, and two sons, Jack and John. He also has three children, Jay, James Jr., and Grace.

He is the son of Jack and Jackie Harbaugh. Jack was an assistant coach at Michigan from 1973-79. Harbaugh's brother, John, is head coach of the Baltimore Ravens and his sister, Joani, is married to University of Georgia men's basketball coach Tom Crean.
