Bowl Game Summaries

1902 Rose Bowl

vs. Stanford

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1902
Attendance: 8,000

Michigan	17	32	— 49
Stanford	0	0	— 0

A polo match as the sporting highlight of the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena had been satisfactory, but something more dramatic was needed in 1902. "Why not a football game?" offered one member of the committee, and immediately Tournament President James Wagner started a series of correspondence with the "best team in the West"—Fielding H. Yost's Michigan team.

Michigan was invited to play on January 1, 1902, against Stanford, champion of the "Pacific Coast Universities." The Wolverines left Ann Arbor on Dec. 17 with temperatures below freezing and six inches of snow on the ground. Eight days later, Michigan arrived in Los Angeles and was greeted by 80-plus degrees and newspaper reports listing several reasons why Stanford should win.

New Year's morning found the Michigan team outfitted in new uniforms with colorful Michigan banners, riding a large carriage in the Rose Parade. Thousands jammed the parade route, and following the parade Pasadena experienced its largest traffic snarl ever as fans headed for the football grounds.

The city was a riot of color—mostly blue and gold, for by a strange coincidence, blue and gold were adopted as the year's official colors of the Tournament. The color combination so closely resembled Michigan's colors that some of the Stanford faithful, a bit miffed by what they thought was a show of support for their opponents, began to tear down the banners and streamers.

The crowd of 8,000 stormed Tournament Park, and the first 2,500 who arrived ran for the highest priced reserved seats. The rest, even those holding tickets to the reserved section, were forced to stand on the dusty sidelines throughout the contest.

The game opened with a blistering sun moving the temperatures into the mid-80's. The teams lined up at 2:57 p.m., and with Michigan defending the south goal, the Wolverines' Everett Sweeley kicked off to open the first bowl game.

Stanford appeared every bit as capable as the papers reported, turning back the powerful Michigan offense, time and again, early in the contest. In fact, the game's first score did not come until 23 minutes into the first half. After a series of short gains moved the ball to the Stanford 30, halfback Willie Heston broke loose on a naked bootleg and picked up 21 yards on the first "big" play in Rose Bowl history. Three plays later, fullback Neil Snow bulled through the tiring Stanford line from the six. Bruce Shorts added the PAT to give Michigan a 6-0 lead.

Soon after Sweeley booted a 20-yard field goal, Michigan's Chris Redden returned a weak Stanford punt 25 yards for a TD, giving the Wolverines a 17-0 halftime lead.

Under the sheer power of the Michigan 11, Stanford's valiant defense began to crumble in the second half. The Wolverines proved relentless, scoring on nearly every possession.

With eight minutes remaining in the game, Stanford captain Ralph Fisher approached the Wolverine bench and offered to concede; Michigan consented.

The 49-0 victory capped one of the most unbelievable seasons in college football history, Michigan had outscored its opponents, 550-0, winning 11 straight games. Willie Heston, too, made believers out of his West Coast critics. He gained 170 yards on 18 carries as the Wolverines recorded 527 yards on the ground.

The tournament association, though realizing a profit of $3,161.86, thought the wide difference in the score would make an annual game unappealing to spectators. The following year they replaced the football game with a chariot race, and it would be 14 years before the Rose Bowl would again feature a post-parade football game.

1948 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1948
Attendance: 87,516

Michigan	7	14	7	21-49

Led by All-Americans Bob Chappuis and Bump Elliott, Michigan led the nation in total offense (412.7 yards/game) and passing average (173.9 yards/game). Chappuis, runner-up in the Heisman Trophy balloting, was the Big Ten leader in total offense for the second straight year. Elliott, the team's only two-way player, was named Most Valuable Player for Michigan and the Big Ten after leading the league in scoring.

When the Wolverines arrived in Pasadena, they were 15-point favorites and Crisler felt it was necessary to call a team meeting to stifle overconfidence. Ten minutes into the game, on Michigan's second possession, Jack Weisenburger spun across the line from the one to cap an 11-play, 64-yard drive and initiate the day's scoring. In the second quarter, Weisenburger gained another one-yard touchdown, and Chappuis jump-passed to Elliott from the 11-yard line to give the Maize and Blue a 21-0 halftime lead.

In the second half, Weisenburger collected his third touchdown of the game and the Wolverines recorded three TD passes from three different passers, including tosses of 18 yards from Chappuis, 45 yards from Hank Fonde, and 29 yards from Howard Yerges as Michigan rolled to a 49-0 victory. The score stood as USC's largest margin of defeat until 1966. In the game, Michigan shattered nine Rose Bowl records and accumulated 491 yards to the Trojans' 133. Jim Brieske's record of seven PATs remains unbroken.

In a special Associated Press poll following the game, Michigan replaced Notre Dame as the 1947 National Champion by a 226-119 margin.

1951 Rose Bowl

vs. California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1951
Attendance: 98,939

Michigan	0	0	0	14-14
California	0	6	0	0- 6

In 1950, the Wolverines struggled through the regular season, but won the final game at Ohio State to earn the right to travel to Pasadena. Michigan's 5-3-1 squad was slated to face the California Golden Bears, a 9-0-1 club rated fourth in the nation and making its third consecutive Rose Bowl appearance. The Bears were favored to win, and many of the 98,393 fans who filled the stadium had hopes of watching the Pacific Conference end its four-game losing streak.

On the second play of the game, California's Pete Schabarum ran around the left end 73 yards into the end zone, only to see it nullified on an illegal motion penalty. Cal pounded on the Michigan defense until early in the second quarter when QB Jim Marinos threw a 39-yard scoring strike to Bob Cummings. Les Richter missed the extra point, and California led 6-0. Late in the half, the Bears had moved to the Michigan 11-yard line and appeared ready to bring one more score into the locker-room, but the Wolverines had other plans, stopping Schabarum three yards short of the goal on fourth down.

At halftime, California held a 192-65 advantage in offensive yardage and a 10-2 edge in first downs, but the Wolverines instigated a new defensive formation during the intermission. Head coach Bennie Oosterbaan told his troops that "victory is still ours," renewing the team's faith in Michigan tradition and spirit, and the Wolverines returned to the field primed for victory.

Michigan was held scoreless until the fourth quarter when team MVP Don Dufek ran four identical plays starting from the four-yard line, finally scoring on fourth-and-one. The Wolverines extended their lead later in the quarter as Dufek again scored, this time from seven yards out. Michigan completely reversed Cal's first half domination by out-distancing the Bears 15-2 in first downs and 226-52 in total yardage during the half as the Wolverines won their third Rose Bowl in as many tries, 14-6.

1965 Rose Bowl

vs. Oregon State

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1965
Attendance: 100,243

Michigan	0	12	15	7-34
OSU	0	7	0	0- 7

After finishing no higher than fifth in the Big Ten during the previous seven years, all the pieces finally fell into place for the 1964 Wolverines. Air Force and Navy were forced to the air in the first two games, throwing a combined total of 75 passes. Michigan then ran off six victories in seven Big Ten games, dropping a one-point contest to Purdue, and shutting out Northwestern and Ohio State. The Wolverines' 8-1 record earned them the conference championship, and the team headed to Pasadena, breaking a drought of 14 years.

After USC upset top-ranked Notre Dame in the regular-season finale, it appeared that the Trojans would be Michigan's New Year's Day opponent. However, the Pac Eight Conference instead ruled in favor of the Oregon State Beavers, who had tied Southern Cal for the conference lead. The fourth-ranked Wolverines were installed as 11-point favorites over the eighth-ranked Beavers as Oregon State brought an 8-2 mark into the game.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Beavers broke open the scoring with a five-yard pass from Paul Brothers to Doug McDougal early in the second period. Steve Clark kicked the extra point for Oregon State's 7-0 start on its upset bid. Three possessions later, Wolverine tailback Mel Anthony broke free virtually untouched for 84 yards and the score. On the Wolverines' next possession, Carl Ward rambled 43 yards around the right end to put Michigan in the lead for good. Bob Timberlake's pass to Ben Farabee was broken up in the end zone, but the Wolverines still held a 12-7 advantage going into the locker room.

Anthony paced the third quarter attack after recovering a blocked Beaver punt, and extending the Wolverine lead with one- and seven-yard scores. Timberlake added a 24-yard TD run down the sideline in the fourth quarter to close the scoring and give Michigan a 34-7 triumph.

Anthony earned Player of the Game kudos for his efforts, and the Wolverines raised their postseason record to four victories against no losses.

1970 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1970
Attendance: 103,878

Michigan	0	3	0	0- 3
USC	3	0	7	0-10

In Bo Schembechler's debut at Michigan Stadium, the Wolverines outrushed Vanderbilt 367-55 en route to a 42-14 triumph, beginning a new era in Michigan football. Heading into the season's final game, the 7-2 Wolverines were slated to meet the top-ranked and undefeated Ohio State Buckeyes. Michigan responded by pounding out 266 yards on the ground and 108 through the air, while intercepting six Buckeye passes before the largest crowd ever to see a college football game up to that date. It also snapped OSU's 22-game winning streak, and earned U-M the Big Ten's Rose Bowl berth.

Facing the Wolverines in Pasadena was the University of Southern California. The Trojans compiled a 9-0-1 record and were ranked fourth in the polls. USC, coached by John McKay, was led by Pac Eight rushing leader Clarence Davis. The 1970 game marked the fourth consecutive Rose Bowl appearance for the Trojans.

Fate was not with the Wolverines from the beginning of their California trip. While running in practice out on the coast, Glenn Doughty, Michigan's second-leading rusher, injured his knee and was forced to undergo surgery. Then, the night before the game, Schembechler suffered a heart attack which kept him off the sideline and in the hospital during the contest. Defensive coordinator Jim Young assumed the coaching responsibilities for the game, but the players were unable to shake off their discouragement by kickoff time.

Southern Cal opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 25-yard field goal by Ron Ayala. Michigan added a field goal of its own two possessions later as Tim Killian nailed one from 20 yards out, giving the teams a 3-3 deadlock at halftime.

On third down with six yards to go late in the third quarter, Trojan quarterback Jimmy Jones hit Bob Chandler 13 yards downfield. Chandler broke several Wolverine tackles, scampered another 20 yards, and gave USC its margin of victory. Michigan saw fourth quarter drives stall at the Trojan 13, nine, and finally the 38 as time ran out, and returned to Ann Arbor with its first post- season defeat ever.

1972 Rose Bowl

vs. Stanford

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1972
Attendance: 103,154

Michigan	0	3	0	9-12
Stanford	0	0	3	10-13

By 1971, Bo had the foundation in place for a Big Ten dynasty. After stopping the Buckeyes, 10-7, in the regular season finale Michigan completed its first undefeated and untied season since 1948 and prepared to meet Stanford in Pasadena.

Stanford entered the contest with an impressive 8-3 record despite the loss of Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett to graduation the previous spring. John Ralston's Indians thrived on the talents of quarterback Don Bunce and running back Jackie Brown.

Dana Coin made a 30-yard field goal in the second quarter to produce the only points scored by either team in the first half. When the gun sounded after 30 minutes, Michigan held a 3-0 edge as they left the soggy Rose Bowl turf for the locker room.

Stanford egressed from the locker room to start the third period and held the Wolverines inches short of the game's first touchdown with a dramatic goal line stand. The Indians gained control of the ball and marched down the field where soccer-style kicker Rod Garcia added a field goal of his own, this one from 42 yards away. Early in the fourth quarter, Michigan fullback Fritz Seyferth plunged across from the one-yard line, and the Wolverines regained the lead, 10-3.

Facing fourth down on its own 33-yard line, Stanford used a fake punt to spring Brown for a 31-yard gain. Several plays later, Brown again broke free, this time for 24 yards and the score that tied the contest at 10 apiece. Minutes later, when Coin's 42-yard field goal attempt fell short, Indian Jim Ferguson caught and intended to return the ball, but Ed Shuttlesworth dropped him in the end zone to give Michigan two points on the safety and a 12-10 advantage. Following a Michigan punt, the Indians took over on their 22-yard line, and Bunce proceeded to complete five of his next six passes to move his squad down the field. With 16 seconds remaining in the game, Ralston sent Garcia in for one final play. The kick sailed 31 yards straight over the crossbar, and Stanford claimed a narrow victory, 13-12, on the 70th anniversary of their stunning loss to U-M in the first Rose Bowl game.

1976 Orange Bowl

vs. Oklahoma

Miami, Florida
January 1, 1976
Attendance: 80,307

Michigan	0	0	0	6- 6
Oklahoma	0	7	0	7-14

Under pressure from the conference coaches, led by Michigan's Bo Schembechler, the Big Ten finally lifted its long-standing policy of limiting post-season games to only the Rose Bowl. As a consequence, once the Wolverines lost their only regular-season game to top-ranked Ohio State, Michigan accepted an invitation to meet the Oklahoma Sooners in Miami's Orange Bowl.

The fourth-ranked Wolverines left for Miami armed with Gordie Bell, who led the nation's second-leading rushing team with 121.4 yards per game, and under the guidance of freshman field general Rick Leach. Oklahoma came in as defending Associated Press National Champions despite making its first postseason appearance since 1972, due to two years of NCAA and Big Eight probation. The Sooners' 10-1 record placed them second in both wire service polls, and they marked Michigan's first experience against a wishbone offense since meeting UCLA three years earlier.

The first quarter was a defensive battle, with the Wolverines putting together the only substantial drive, starting at the Michigan five-yard line and stalling at the Oklahoma 38. Following Bob Wood's attempted 51-yard field goal, the Sooners opened the scoring with successive passes of 40 yards from Steve Davis to Tinker Owens and a 39-yard reverse by Billy Brooks for the score.

The Wolverines drove as far as the Oklahoma nine-yard line in the third quarter, before being thwarted by a pass interception in the end zone. On the first play of the fourth quarter, Davis ran 10 yards around the left end to increase the Sooner lead to 14-0. Michigan finally got on the scoreboard following an Oklahoma fumble on its own two. Bell carried it over on the next play, but Leach's two-point conversion attempt was stopped. The Wolverines were only able to make it as far as midfield for the duration of the game, and the Sooners went on to a 14-6 victory.

Oklahoma was led by the defensive efforts of Leroy and Dewey Selmon (10 and 13 tackles, respectively) and, following Ohio State's 23-10 loss in the Rose Bowl to UCLA, was named national champion in both polls. Leroy Selmon went on to become the first draft choice in the NFL college draft later that spring.

1977 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1977
Attendance: 106,182

Michigan	0	6	0	0- 6
USC	0	7	0	7-14

By defeating Ohio State, 22-0, in the regular season finale, Michigan posted its largest margin of victory in the series in 30 years and handed the Buckeyes their first shutout in 112 games, a streak that began in 1964. The Wolverines tied OSU for first-place in the Big Ten with a 10-1 record, and earned their first Rose Bowl berth since 1971. At season's end, Michigan led the nation in total offense (448.1 yards per game), scoring offense (38.7 points) and scoring defense (7.2 points).

In Pasadena, the third-ranked Wolverines were slated to face No. 2 Southern California, a team with equally impressive credentials. The Trojans were stocked with players such as quarterback Vince Evans, running backs Ricky Bell and Charles White, linebacker Clay Matthews, and were coached by John Robinson. USC promised to provide Michigan with quite a challenge on New Year's Day.

It took until midway through the second quarter for either team to put points on the scoreboard. The Wolverines scored first when Rob Lytle smashed over the goal line from one yard out. Bob Wood's extra point attempt was blocked, and Southern Cal used the momentum to march 80 yards on the following drive, tying the score with Evans rolling in on a fourth-and-one play with 1:28 left in the quarter. The conversion was good, and USC held a 7-6 advantage at the half.

The game returned to the defenses in the second half. The Wolverines tallied just four first downs, and the Trojans used a relentless ground game to grind their way deep into Michigan territory in the fourth quarter. White scored on a seven-yard run with three minutes to go, but the Wolverines made it close by charging back to the USC 17 before running out on downs in the closing seconds.

Bell, the top pick in the 1977 NFL draft, left the game early in the first quarter with a head injury and was replaced by the freshman White, who went on to win the Heisman Trophy three seasons later. The game also marked Lytle's last in a Wolverine uniform as he led all Michigan rushers with 67 yards to up his then school record to 3,317 yards. USC finished No. 2 in the final football polls behind the Pittsburgh Panthers. The Wolverines finished No. 3 in the rankings, their highest finish under Bo Schembechler to date.

vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 2, 1978
Attendance: 105,312

Michigan	0	0	7	13-20
Washington	7	10	10	0-27

With a defense featuring Curtis Greer and Chris Godfrey on the line, Mel Owens at outside linebacker, and Dwight Hicks and Mike Harden in the backfield, the Wolverines held all but three of their opponents under 10 points during the 1977 season. Michigan had won 10 of 11 games and outscored its opposition by a three-to-one margin heading into the Rose Bowl to face the University of Washington Huskies.

Michigan failed to get out of the gate quickly enough and even a 20-point second half could not rescue the Wolverines. A first half low center snap resulted in a 13-yard loss on a fourth down punt and gave Washington field position early. Ten plays later, quarterback Warren Moon scored from two yards out. A field goal and Moon's second TD put the Huskies up 17-0 at halftime.

Moon's 28-yard scoring pass to Spider Gaines after Washington had stopped Michigan on the Husky three-yard line appeared to put the game away in the third quarter, but Wolverine quarterback Rick Leach launched one of the finest aerial assaults in the history of this classic contest. First, he fired a Rose Bowl record TD pass of 76 yards to Curt Stephenson. Washington countered with an 18-yard field goal, but Leach completed four straight passes, and Russell Davis scored from the two. Later in the fourth quarter, Leach fired first down passes of 11 and 12 yards to Ralph Clayton, then connected with Stanley Edwards, filling in for the injured Harlan Huckleby, for 32 yards and a TD.

Leach led another dramatic drive to the Washington eight-yard line, but a diving interception by linebacker Michael Jackson stopped Michigan and preserved the 27-20 Washington win.

1979 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1979
Attendance: 105,629

Michigan	0	3	7	0-10
USC	7	10	0	0-17

After shutting out the Fighting Illini of Illinois in the season opener, the Wolverines won nine of their next 10 games, including their third straight victory over Ohio State, and qualified for their third Rose Bowl in as many years.

Michigan played one of its finest defensive games in years, but a combination of circumstances and a relentless Southern California ground attack lifted the Trojans to a 17-10 victory in the 65th annual Rose Bowl Classic in Pasadena. An intercepted pass returned to the Wolverine 16-yard line set up USC's first touchdown of the game, a Paul McDonald to Hoby Brenner pass covering nine yards.

Michigan later drove to the Trojan 21-yard line, but a dropped pass stalled the Wolverines' progress, and allowed Gregg Willner to put the first "Big Blue" points on the board with a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter. USC extended its lead moments later on one of the more controversial calls in Rose Bowl history. On second down at the Michigan three-yard line, Trojan tailback Charles White dove through the heart of the offensive line in an attempt to score. During the ensuing contact, White lost the ball and Wolverine linebacker Jerry Meter came up with an apparent fumble recovery on the one-yard line. However, the line judge determined that White had crossed the goal line before losing control of the ball and signalled for the touchdown that put USC up by 11. Late in the half, the Trojans intercepted a Rick Leach pass and set up a Frank Jordan field goal from 35 yards away to increase their lead to 17-3 at halftime.

It didn't take long after leaving the locker room for the Wolverines to narrow the score. Midway through the third period, Leach tossed a 44-yard scoring strike to tailback Roosevelt Smith to close within seven points. Michigan held the strong USC offense scoreless for the remainder of the game, but was unable to put more points on the board as the score stayed unchanged for the duration. Playing in his third straight Rose Bowl, Leach set career records for total plays (94), total yards running and passing (523), and most yards passing (452) in the New Year's game. Leach shared Most Valuable Player honors with USC's White.

vs. North Carolina

Michigan	0	9	0	6-15

"Bo Schembechler is looking up into football's valhalla and saying, 'Thank you, Fielding Yost, thank you, Fielding Yost for that one'. . . They aren't even going to try the extra point. Who cares! Who gives a damn! I've never been so happy in all my cotton-pickin' 59 years." So said the Wolverines' all-time No. 1 cheerleader, Bob Ufer, describing the mayhem following "the greatest play in 100 years of Michigan football." Anthony Carter's dramatic, game-winning reception against Indiana was easily the season highlight of the 8-3 Wolverines as they headed to the Gator Bowl to oppose North Carolina's 7-3-1 Tar Heels.

Quarterback John Wangler opened the game with a 47-yard pass completion to Carter, but 20 yards in penalties took Michigan out of field goal range, giving the Wolverines a preview of events to come. Bryan Virgil booted a 20-yard field goal early in the second quarter and Wangler, hitting receivers at will, threw 53 yards to Carter for a 9-0 lead after Michigan missed the extra point. On the next series, Wangler was tackled by UNC linebacker Lawrence Taylor on a sprint out, suffering a severe knee injury, ending his playing time that night. Up to that point, he had accumulated 203 yards through the air. North Carolina finally scored on a one-yard plunge by Doug Paschal late in the quarter, and trailed 9-7 at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, the Tarheels took control of the game, driving 97 yards in 15 plays behind the running of Amos Lawrence, and scoring on a 12-yard pass from Matt Kupec to Phil Farris. North Carolina added a field goal with 7:31 remaining in the game to move ahead 17-9. However, the Wolverines never gave up, and with 1:28 to go, backup quarterback B.J. Dickey, Wangler's replacement, connected with A.C. on a 30-yard bomb to bring the game to within two. In an attempt to tie, Dickey's pass to Carter in the endzone failed, and Michigan fell short. Hindering the Wolverines throughout the game were two lost fumbles, two pass interceptions, the loss of Wangler and 87 yards in penalties.

1981 Rose Bowl

vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1981
Attendance: 104,863

Michigan	0	7	10	6-23
Washington	0	6	0	0- 6

The Wolverines may have started slowly in 1980, but by October, nobody was able to stop them. Beginning with the Illinois game on October 25, Michigan put together a streak of 15 consecutive scoreless quarters, shutout Indiana, Wisconsin, and Purdue, won the Big Ten title outright for the first time since 1971, and took a string of 18 straight quarters without allowing a touchdown into the Rose Bowl to face the Washington Huskies.

The Huskies compiled more total yards against the Michigan defense, 374, than any team had all season, but the Wolverines continued their consecutive no-touchdown string, and Bo Schembechler won his first Rose Bowl in six tries.

Washington dominated the game early, and on its second drive, the Huskies reached the Michigan one-yard line. But the Wolverines then stonewalled tailback Toussiant Tyler on fourth down and took the momentum from Washington. Butch Woolfolk put Michigan in the lead with a six-yard TD burst near halftime, and despite Chuck Nelson's two field goals, the Wolverines remained in command the rest of the way.

Ali Haji-Sheikh's 25-yard field goal capped a six-minute, 83-yard drive to open the second half. John Wangler connected with Anthony Carter for a seven-yard score, widening the Michigan margin to 17-6 with three minutes remaining in the third quarter. From there, the Wolverine defense took over with Keith Bostic forcing an interception and limiting the Huskies to 23 yards in total offense until the game's final minutes. Michigan clinched the victory on Stan Edwards' one-yard TD dive with four minutes remaining in the game to provide the final margin.

Butch Woolfolk's 182 yards rushing earned him game MVP honors, while Don Bracken's 73-yard punt in the first quarter set a Rose Bowl record. The season that had looked so bleak after a 1-2 beginning thus concluded with nine straight 'M' wins.

1981 Bluebonnet Bowl

Houston, Texas
December 31, 1981
Attendance: 50,107

Michigan	10	0	3	20-33
UCLA	0	0	7	7-14

In the game billed as a "mini-Rose Bowl," the 8-3 Wolverines came out smelling sweet on New Year's eve. Michigan's defense limited the powerful UCLA attack to 195 total yards and held the Bruins to just 33 yards on the ground. The Wolverines led the entire game, beginning with Ali Haji-Sheikh's 24-yard field goal, set up by Butch Woolfolk's 52-yard run. With one minute remaining in the first quarter, quarterback Steve Smith spotted Anthony Carter behind the Bruin secondary, for a 50-yard scoring bomb that upped the lead to 10-0. Michigan dominated the rest of the half, yielding only 58 total yards to UCLA. But 12 penalties kept the Maize and Blue off the scoreboard the rest of the half.

The Bruins narrowed the gap to 10-7, scoring on their first possession of the third quarter, but the Wolverines responded immediately, marching 52-yards before Haji-Sheikh kicked a 47-yard field goal, the longest of his career. UCLA again drove into Michigan territory, but two penalties and Winfred Carraway's sack of Bruin quarterback Tom Ramsey ended the march, and the Pacific-10 runners-up never again had a chance to take the lead. The Wolverines moved 74 yards ending in Woolfolk's one-yard TD run. After UCLA cut the lead to 19-14, Michigan drove 80 yards in seven plays with Smith scoring from nine yards out on the option play to clinch the victory. Reserve quarterback B.J. Dickey's touchdown run in the final minute iced the triumph.

Woolfolk closed his brilliant career at Michigan by gaining 186 yards rushing, bringing his four-year total to 3,861 and earning game MVP honors. Smith's 152 passing yards gave him Michigan's single-season record with 1,661 yards, and added to his total offense mark. Anthony Carter grabbed six receptions for 127 yards, and the Wolverines left Houston looking forward to the New Year.

1983 Rose Bowl

vs. UCLA

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1983
Attendance: 104,991

Michigan	0	0	7	7-14
UCLA	7	3	7	7-24

Michigan dominated the Big Ten in 1982, rolling through its conference schedule and winning the title outright in the second-to-last-game against Purdue. Even a loss to Ohio State in the regular season finale could not take the roses from the Wolverines as they prepared to face the UCLA Bruins in Pasadena. The game featured a rematch of the previous season's Bluebonnet Bowl participants, and gave the Maize and Blue an opportunity to avenge the 31-27 loss suffered at the hands of the Bruins earlier in the season. This contest, however, would be played in the Rose Bowl, a stadium UCLA had claimed as its home field for the 1982 regular season.

A one-yard plunge by Tom Ramsey on UCLA's second drive put the Bruins up 7-0 in the first quarter, a lead they never relinquished. In the second quarter, Wolverine quarterback Steve Smith ran an eight-yard option for a first down, but took a vicious hit from Bruin free safety Don Rogers. Smith left the game with a separated shoulder and did not return. Junior Dave Hall, with seven completions in 14 attempts for the season, finished the game in admirable fashion, but his inexperience hurt the Wolverines.

Late in the second quarter, kicker John Lee gave UCLA a 10-0 lead with a 39-yard field goal. However, the Wolverines stormed back after the intermission and drove 55 yards for a touchdown. Hall passed the final yard to fullback Eddie Garrett in the third quarter to bring U-M within three points at 10-7.

On the next drive the Bruins took control with Ramsey leading the way, passing for 33 yards and running for 20 in an 80-yard TD drive. With UCLA up 17-7 and nine minutes left to play, the Wolverines took over deep in their own territory. Here Hall showed his inexperience by lobbing a pass into the hands of Bruin Blanchard Montgomery. The 230-pound linebacker galloped 11 yards into the end zone to seal the Wolverines' fate.

After Hall passed to fullback Dan Rice for a one-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter, the score read 24-14 in UCLA's favor. Michigan could not muster another scoring drive, and UCLA took home the roses.

1984 Sugar Bowl

vs. Auburn

New Orleans, Louisiana
January 2, 1984
Attendance: 77,893

Michigan	7	0	0	0- 7
Auburn	0	0	3	6- 9

Buoyed by back-to-back shutouts of Michigan State and Northwestern and a last-second victory over Iowa, the 1983 Wolverines charged to a second-place finish in the Big Ten, suffering its only conference setback to the Illinois squad that went on to play in the Rose Bowl. By holding off a late Ohio State comeback bid in the season finale, the Wolverines raised their record to 9-2 and gained a trip to New Orleans to meet the Auburn Tigers in the Sugar Bowl.

Steve Smith led a powerful offensive attack early in the game during which Michigan held the ball for over nine minutes of the first quarter and gained 116 yards to the Tigers' 61. The Wolverines' second offensive drive in the game was highlighted by a 19-yard Smith to Triando Markray completion and 38 yards on four carries by Rick Rogers. Smith's four-yard keeper midway through the first quarter gave the Wolverines a lead they would keep for 52 minutes of the 60-minute contest.

Each team showed a strong defense for the remainder of the half, and Michigan took its 7-0 lead into the locker room.

Campbell attempted only two passes in the second half and handed off 42 times to backs Lionel James, Bo Jackson, and Tommy Agee, who together collected 306 yards on the ground.

While Michigan's offense was thwarted time and time again, the Tigers ran all over the tiring Wolverine defense, controlling the ball for over 23 minutes of the second half. After a 26-yard Don Bracken punt—one of a season-high eight punts—Auburn marched 68 yards, all on the ground, to set up a 31-yard Al DelGreco field goal.

The Tigers got a break when Smith was hit as he released the ball and Auburn's Gregg Carr grabbed it at the Michigan 41-yard line. Seven plays later, DelGreco chalked up his second three-pointer, a 32-yarder.

After another Michigan punt, Auburn took over on its own 39-yard line. The Tigers ran a ball control offense, using 15 rushing plays and 7:21 off the clock in reaching the Wolverines' one-yard line with 27 seconds to play in the game. Michigan called a timeout, but DelGreco booted the 19-yard field goal to send the Wolverines back to Ann Arbor with a taste of New Orleans but no sugar.

1984 Holiday Bowl

vs. Brigham Young

San Diego, California
December 21, 1984
Attendance: 61,243

Michigan	0	7	7	3-17
BYU	0	10	0	14-24

After upsetting top-ranked Miami in the season opener, Michigan's fortunes looked bright for 1984. But when quarterback Jim Harbaugh broke his arm against Michigan State, it took a great effort for the Wolverines to limp to a 6-5 record. Despite their less-than-spectacular season mark, Michigan found itself paired against No. 1-ranked Brigham Young in the Holiday Bowl. The Wolverines accepted the opportunity, and ended the season just how they had started—facing the nation's top-ranked team.

Aided by six Brigham Young turnovers and a blocked field goal attempt, Michigan held a 17-10 lead early in the fourth quarter. But BYU quarterback Robbie Bosco, hampered by an injured left knee and ankle suffered in the first stanza, led the Cougars to 80- and 83-yard TD drives to give BYU a 24-17 victory.

After a scoreless first quarter, BYU jumped on the scoreboard when Kelly Smith capped an 11-play, 80-yard drive with a five-yard TD run. The Wolverines knotted the score at seven after Rick Rogers scampered in from five yards out with 1:13 left in the half. But Bosco led BYU down the field in the last minute, and Lee Johnson booted a 31-yard field goal giving the Cougars a slim 10-7 halftime lead.

Michigan went ahead late in the third quarter, moving 47 yards after Tim Anderson blocked Johnson's field goal attempt and Chris Zurbrugg threw a 10-yard TD pass to Bob Perryman. Early in the fourth quarter, Bob Bergeron pushed the Michigan lead to 17-10 with a 32-yard field goal. Then Bosco went to work, driving BYU for two late TDs—the last coming with just 1:23 to play—and the win.

In collecting its 24th consecutive victory, BYU put together some impressive offensive figures (483 yards in total offense, 32 first downs) and went on to claim the national championship.

1986 Fiesta Bowl

vs. Nebraska

Tempe, Arizona
January 1, 1986
Attendance: 72,454

Michigan	3	0	24	0-27
Nebraska	0	14	0	9-23

The surprising 9-1-1 Wolverines — equipped with the nation's top scoring defense — found themselves matched against Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl.

After a 21-yard run by Jamie Morris set up a 42-yard field goal by Pat Moons to open the scoring, the Cornhuskers got rolling. Nebraska used 10 plays to move 74 yards for the touchdown that gave Nebraska a 7-3 lead early in the second quarter. McCathorn Clayton hit Doug DuBose in the endzone from five yards out for the score. The Cornhuskers added another tally when a 15-yard run by fullback Tom Rathman set up DuBose's second touchdown of the game, giving Nebraska a 14-3 halftime lead.

In the second half, an inspired Wolverine defense began forcing turnovers to help U-M climb back into contention. On its third play from scrimmage, Nebraska's DuBose fumbled, and Michigan's Jeff Akers recovered. A 19-yard run by Jamie Morris set up Gerald White's one-yard dive for a TD, pulling the Wolverines to within 14-10 early in the third quarter. Another fumble by Nebraska, this one by Clayton, was recovered by Michigan's Mark Messner on the next series, and White's 19-yard run set up a one-yard plunge by Harbaugh to give the Maize and Blue the lead at 17-14. The Wolverine defense forced Nebraska to punt on the next series, and Dave Arnold rushed in untouched to block his third punt of the season to set up a short Moons field goal. The Wolverines scored again on their next possession when a 14-yard run by Morris set up Harbaugh's second TD of the afternoon, giving Michigan a seemingly comfortable 27-14 lead.

The excitement was not quite finished, thanks to an elusive freshman quarterback for Nebraska. Steve Taylor moved the Cornhuskers 77 yards in four minutes to cut the Michigan lead to 27-21. With the Wolverines in a hole late in the game, Schembechler elected to take an intentional safety, and Nebraska was unable to mount a drive on its final possession.

The win gave Schembechler his third bowl victory in six years, and vaulted Michigan to the No. 2 spot (behind Oklahoma) in the final polls.

1987 Rose Bowl

vs. Arizona State

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1987
Attendance: 103,168

Michigan	8	7	0	0-15
Arizona St.	0	13	6	3-22

The Maize and Blue returned to the grass of the Rose Bowl after a four-year drought to face seventh-ranked Arizona State. The Sun Devils rolled to the Pac-10 title by running through its schedule unbeaten before slipping in their final game against Arizona.

Michigan made its first drive look easy. After Jim Harbaugh passed 24 yards to Greg McMurtry on the second play from scrimmage, the Wolverines quickly moved into scoring position. Jamie Morris took the handoff at the 18-yard line, broke two tackles, and smashed into the end zone. On the point-after attempt, the Sun Devils were caught when kicker Mike Gillette took the snap and passed to Gerald White in the end zone while the rest of the team remained huddled to the side. As the ecstatic Wolverine contingent cheered, the scoreboard flashed the score: Michigan 8, ASU 0.

Early in the second quarter, the Sun Devils' Kent Bostrom booted a 37-yard field goal. Michigan roared right back by powering the ball to the two-yard line before Harbaugh plunged to paydirt. Gillette kicked the conversion, and Michigan led 15-3. After adding a 27-yard field goal, Arizona State used the last four minutes of the half to mount a 60-yard drive that commenced when Jeff Van Raaphorst passed to Bruce Hill for the Sun Devils' first touchdown. As the teams took to the locker room, the Wolverines held a 15-13 advantage.

Opening the second half, Arizona State launched an 80-yard drive. Van Raaphorst again found Hill in the end zone, and after the two-point conversion failed, Michigan trailed by four. The Wolverines only touched the ball twice in the entire quarter, and netted just 22 yards, all from Harbaugh's pass completion in the third quarter. With 14:16 to go in the game, Bostrom added a 25-yard field goal and Arizona State had all the points needed for the victory.

Despite the disappointment of the final game, the 1986 season was a good one for Michigan Football. Wolverine fans were treated to the 32nd Big Ten title in school history, Bo Schembechler's 200th career victory to pass Fielding H. Yost as the winningest coach in Michigan history.

1988 Hall of Fame Bowl

vs. Alabama

Tampa, Florida
January 2, 1988
Attendance: 60,156

Michigan	0	14	7	7-28
Alabama	3	0	6	15-24

For the second time in his 19-year reign, Bo Schembechler would not be on the sidelines for a Michigan bowl game. Schembechler underwent quadruple heart bypass surgery in early December so offensive coordinator Gary Moeller was given the task of preparing the Wolverines for Alabama.

The Crimson Tide took the opening kickoff and moved the ball to Michigan's 34-yard line, where they had to settle for a 51-yard Philip Doyle field goal. In the second quarter, Jamie Morris broke a tackle for a 25-yard touchdown run, giving the Wolverines their first lead of the game. On Michigan's next possession, Morris again broke a tackle, then ran over a defender for a 14-yard TD run and the Wolverines went into the locker room with a 14-3 half time lead.

Michigan began the second half where it left off as Morris broke loose for a 77-yard TD run, lifting U-M to a comfortable 21-3 margin. Following Morris' run, the Crimson Tide launched a 72-yard drive in just under five minutes that culminated in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Dunn to Howard Cross.

After a Michigan punt, Alabama marched 85 yards, capped by Bobby Humphrey's one-yard TD run, cutting the Wolverine lead to five points with 13 minutes left in the game. Two more times Michigan's offense was held and Alabama was again able to drive against the Wolverine defense, this time for 79 yards, culminating in a 17-yard scoring run by Humphrey. Alabama's two-point conversion was successful and the Tide took the lead, 24-21, with just under five minutes remaining.

Facing fourth-and-three from the 20-yard line late in the fourth quarter, Brown lofted a 20-yard pass that John Kolesar pulled down in the corner of the end zone for a touchdown and ended Michigan's most exciting scoring drive of the season. In the game's waning moments, Alabama's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback David Arnold to seal the win.

Jamie Morris' 234 yards rushing set a Hall of Fame Bowl and Michigan bowl record. He also broke the Wolverines' single season rushing record with a total of 1,703 yards and ended his career with 4,393 rushing yards, third-best in Big Ten history.

1989 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 2, 1989
Attendance: 101,688

Michigan	3	0	6	13-22
USC	0	14	0	0-14

Coming off one of the toughest Ohio State games in recent history, many questioned whether or not Michigan could withstand a USC team that led the Pac-10 in rushing defense, total defense and was offensively led by Rodney Peete, the 1988 Heisman Trophy runner-up.

Michigan's first possession was highlighted by a 21-yard completion from Demetrius Brown to John Kolesar on the fourth play of the drive. U-M controlled the ball for 7:51 on 13 plays until it was stopped by the Trojan defense. Mike Gillette was called in to cap the drive with a 49-yard field goal with 4:07 remaining in the quarter.

At the beginning of the second quarter, the Trojan offense came to life. USC moved from its own 46-yard line to the Wolverine 22. Each side turned the ball over, however, before the Trojans scored the game's first touchdown on a one-yard run by Peete. USC began its second TD drive with 7:06 remaining in the half, ending with Peete's four-yard scoring run.

The opening minutes of the second half saw Brown's 22-yard scramble to the six, followed by his touchdown toss to Chris Calloway two plays later. U-M was unsuccessful on the two-point conversion, leaving the score at 14-9.

In the final minutes of the third quarter, the Michigan offense, led by running backs Tony Boles and Leroy Hoard, put together the longest drive of the game, amassing 64 of the 92 yards gained by U-M. A 23-yard pass from Brown to Derrick Walker put the Wolverines on the one-yard line, and Hoard took it in for the score. Michigan again failed on the two-point try, leaving the Trojans just one point behind with plenty of time left in the final quarter.

With 5:28 left to play in the game, the Wolverines sensed their third bowl victory in four years. On the very first play, Hoard exploded for a 61-yard run to the Trojan nine-yard line. On fourth-and-goal, Hoard scored to give Michigan a seven-point lead that became eight after Gillette's extra point with 1:57 remaining.

Peete then led the Trojans down the field in an attempt to tie the game, but linebacker John Milligan picked off an errant pass with 50 seconds remaining to secure a Wolverine win.

The victory gave Schembechler his second win in Pasadena and the Wolverines a 9-2-1 season record, finishing with a No. 4 national ranking by the Associated Press.

1990 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1990
Attendance: 103,450

Michigan	0	3	7	0-10
USC	0	10	0	7-17

Every Rose Bowl is a grand spectacle of the best college football has to offer, but the 1990 clash between Michigan and Southern California had added luster as it was the last game in Bo Schembechler's 27-year coaching career.

The first quarter was dominated by the defenses, as neither team was able to put any points on the scoreboard. USC opened the scoring in the second quarter on a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Todd Marinovich. Michigan answered USC's score midway through the second quarter. Leroy Hoard ripped off a 46-yard run and Michael Taylor connected with Greg McMurtry for 20 yards to get down to the Trojan eight-yard line. J.D. Carlson's 19-yard field goal cut USC's lead to 7-3 with 6:28 left. The Trojans closed out the first half scoring on a 34-yard Quin Rodriguez field goal that pushed USC's halftime lead to 10-3.

The Wolverines played an inspired third quarter, limiting the Trojans to just 27 yards while scoring the tying touchdown. Michigan scored on its second drive of the quarter as Allen Jefferson scored from two yards out to tie the game at 10.

The game's pivotal play came on a fourth-and-two from the Michigan 46 with 12:00 left in the contest. On that play, Wolverine punter Chris Stapleton's fake punt gained 24 yards, but a holding penalty and a subsequent unsportsmanlike conduct penalty pushed Michigan back to its own 21 and eliminated the first down. Southern Cal took advantage of Michigan's misfortune, marching 75 yards in 13 plays for the game-winning TD.

Despite the Rose Bowl defeat, the Wolverines had their first 10-win season (10-2) since 1986, and earned their second consecutive outright Big Ten Championship. Bo Schembechler ended his coaching career as the winningest coach in Michigan football history with a 194-48-5 record.

1991 Gator Bowl

vs. Mississippi

Jacksonville, Florida
January 1, 1991
Attendance: 68,927

Michigan	7	7	21	0-35
Mississippi	0	3	0	0- 3

Gary Moeller's Wolverines gained a share of the Big Ten title in his first season, as U-M met Mississippi in the Gator Bowl.

After both teams exchanged early turnovers, Michigan opened the scoring when Elvis Grbac threw deep down the right side of the field to Desmond Howard, for a career-long 63-yard touchdown reception. J.D. Carlson's extra point gave Michigan a 7-0 lead with 1:04 left in the first quarter.

Mississippi scored its only points of the game in the second quarter when Brian Lee kicked a career-long and Gator Bowl record 51-yard field goal to trim the margin to 7-3.

Following a 32-yard Howard return of the ensuing kickoff, Jon Vaughn sprinted around left end for a gain of 37 yards and a first down at the Rebel 31. Five plays later, Grbac threw seven yards to Jarrod Bunch for a 14-3 halftime lead. Grbac's touchdown pass, his 19th of the season, broke Jim Harbaugh's Michigan single season record for touchdown passes thrown (18 in 1985).

Early in the third quarter, Grbac threw a screen pass to Howard who eluded the Mississippi defense en route to a 50-yard touchdown reception and a 21-3 Michigan lead with 10:53 left in the third quarter.

Later in the quarter, Ole Miss quarterback Tom Luke was intercepted by Todd Plate at the Michigan 37. After a three-yard Ricky Powers run and an 11-yard Grbac-to-Howard completion, the Wolverines had a first down on the Ole Miss 49-yard line. On the next play, Powers blasted up the middle for a gain of 44 yards and a first down at the Rebel five. Bunch pounded into the end zone on the next play, giving Michigan a comfortable 28-3 lead.

As the third stanza was nearing completion, Grbac connected with Derrick Alexander over the middle for a 33-yard touchdown—Grbac's fourth of the game, and a Michigan single bowl record. That closed the scoring, giving Michigan a resounding 35-3 win.

Offensive linemen Dean Dingman, Tom Dohring, Greg Skrepenak, Matt Elliott and Steve Everitt were named the game's Most Valuable Players for leading the offense to a Michigan single game record 715 total yards.

vs. Washington

Pasadena, California
January 1, 1992
Attendance: 103,566

Michigan	0	7	0	7-14
Washington	0	13	8	13-34

With a fourth consecutive Big Ten title locked up, the Michigan Wolverines ventured to Pasadena hoping to add a Rose Bowl title and possible national championship to their already impressive list of accolades. Thus far, the 1991 season had seen Desmond Howard win the Heisman Trophy and Erick Anderson garner the first Butkus Award in school history. However, standing in the way of Gary Moeller's team were the Washington Huskies, a team boasting the nation's top-ranked defense.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Huskies went ahead as Billy Joe Hobert faked to Beno Bryant and ran off left tackle for two yards and the touchdown. Howard, an electrifying player, would then add another clip to his collegiate highlight film on Michigan's ensuing drive as he snared a leaping, 35-yard reception over eventual NFL first round selection Dana Hall. Three plays later, Elvis Grbac connected with Walter Smith on a nine-yard scoring pass. Two Travis Hanson field goals made the score 13-7 Huskies at halftime.

Washington extended its lead in the third quarter on an 80-yard touchdown drive. Hobert completed a five-yard TD toss to Mark Bruener and the two-point conversion to Aaron Pierce.

Facing a 21-7 deficit, the Wolverines were again unable to manage a first down and were forced to punt. Excellent field position awaited the Washington offense again, with the ball resting on the Michigan 48. On the second play of the final quarter, Hobert gave a play-action fake and found Pierce in the back of the endzone for a two-yard touchdown. The Wolverines found themselves trailing 27-7.

Michigan started the next drive at its own 29-yard line, and moved the ball out to the 38-yard line before a Grbac keeper on fourth-and-one was stopped. Washington took only six seconds to find the endzone again, as Mark Brunell hit Mario Bailey streaking down the right side for the Huskies final score of the game.

Tyrone Wheatley, a freshman, capped off an outstanding afternoon (68 yards on nine carries) and closed the scoring on a 53-yard touchdown run, and J.D. Carlson's 126th consecutive PAT.

Michigan	10	7	14	7-38

For the second consecutive season, the Michigan Wolverines and Washington Huskies celebrated the New Year together at the Rose Bowl. The Huskies were searching for an unprecedented third straight Rose Bowl victory, while the Wolverines were looking to avenge a 34-14 Rose Bowl defeat to Washington in 1992.

Trailing 7-3, the Wolverines energized their fans on a 49-yard touchdown pass from Elvis Grbac to Tony McGee, which capped a six-play, 69-yard drive and provided Michigan the lead after the first quarter. On its next possession, Michigan opened up a 17-7 lead as Tyrone Wheatley, on his way to a 235-yard rushing performance, sprinted untouched 56 yards for a touchdown.

In this offensive showdown, the Huskies responded with two straight touchdowns -- a 64-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jason Shelley, and an 18-yard touchdown strike from Brunell to Mark Bruener. Washington took a 21-17 lead into the halftime intermission.

Wheatley then went to work, taking advantage of a key block by All-American Steve Everitt on an 88-yard touchdown run -- his second long scoring play and a new Rose Bowl record. But the Huskies were far from through. They put together 10 straight points and went ahead 31-24 until Wheatley responded. His third touchdown run of the game -- a 24-yard scamper on a draw play -- tied the game at 31 and swung the momentum back to Michigan.

The Wolverines' game-winning score came on an 80-yard drive, as Grbac, facing third and short from the Huskies' 15-yard line, found McGee at the two. McGee fell into the endzone for the only score of the fourth quarter, the winning points in Michigan's thrilling 38-31 victory.

The 1994 Hall of Fame Bowl opened the New Year's Day bowl festivities with an 11 a.m. kickoff in unusually wet conditions for the Tampa, Fla., site. By the time the rain subsided and the other New Year's Day bowl games were set to begin, Michigan was well on its way to a 42-7 trouncing of North Carolina State. Tyrone Wheatley, in his third consecutive tremendous bowl outing, was named the game's MVP after compiling 124 rushing yards on 18 carries, including touchdown runs of 26 and 18 yards.

Michigan opened the scoring early in the second quarter -- the first points in what would become consecutive 21-point quarters. Wheatley took a pitch from Todd Collins on a sweep to the right and blazed down the sidelines for a 21-yard score. On their subsequent possession, the Wolfpack were forced to punt, and Derrick Alexander made N.C. State pay. He fielded the punt at Michigan's 21-yard line and burst up the middle of the field unchallenged for a 79-yard touchdown -- the longest punt return in Hall of Fame Bowl history.

The Wolverines put away the game late in the half. Closing a 13-play, 85-yard drive, Collins, on fourth-and-10 from the Wolfpack 31, found Amani Toomer in the right corner of the endzone for a score. The conversion gave the Wolverines a 21-0 lead.

The scoring continued for Michigan in the third quarter, as it strung together two more touchdowns—on Clarence Thompson's 43-yard interception return and Wheatley's 18-yard scoring run -- before N.C. State finally broke the shutout with a touchdown of its own. Wheatley's score -- his sixth bowl touchdown over the past three seasons -- was the 35th rushing TD of his career, breaking Rick Leach's school record for career rushing TDs. It was also Wheatley's 40th career touchdown, tying him with Anthony Carter for the most career TDs by a Wolverine. Ricky Powers closed the game's scoring with a 16-yard TD run with 3:13 left in the third.

1994 Holiday Bowl

San Diego, California
December 30, 1994
Attendance: 59,453

Michigan	10	7	7	0-24
Colorado St.	7	0	0	7-14

Michigan, who had taken its lumps on the defensive side of the ball during a 7-4 regular season, stuffed Colorado State when it recorded a 24-14 win at Jack Murphy Stadium that helped ease the sting of some painful late-season losses.

CSU nearly mirrored the Wolverines in total yardage (341-340), but gained just 51 yards rushing against a Michigan defense that forced four turnovers and had a key goal-line stand in the second half.

U-M struck first on the game's opening drive on Todd Collins' four-yard TD pass to Amani Toomer with 8:51 left in the opening quarter. The Rams took the ensuing kickoff and turned in a nine-play, 66-yard drive to tie the game, 7-7. The drive was culminated by Paul Turner's 32-yard TD reception.

All-American Remy Hamilton booted a 34-yard field goal with 2:46 remaining in the first quarter to put Michigan ahead 10-7. A blocked punt by freshman Chris Howard gave U-M the ball deep in Rams territory with less than two minutes left before halftime. Collins then connected with Mercury Hayes for a 16-yard TD strike to put U-M ahead 17-7 with 1:28 left in the half.

The Wolverines forced a turnover on CSU's first drive of the second half, taking over on the Rams' 17-yard line. Tyrone Wheatley made short work four plays later with a three-yard plunge into the endzone. That gave U-M a 24-7 lead with 11:58 left in the third quarter.

Midway through the third quarter, a 42-yard pass play helped CSU move the ball from its own 13-yard line to inside the Wolverine 10. A pair of pass interference calls against U-M gave the Rams seven plays to attempt to go eight yards into the endzone.

Four plays from the Michigan two-yard line turned up nothing for Colorado State, as a two-yard loss and incomplete pass on fourth down helped the Wolverines turn away the high-scoring Rams.

Michigan held a 24-7 advantage after three quarters and held that lead until 1:18 remained in the game. CSU finally cracked the stubborn U-M defense with an 18-yard TD pass by Anthony Hill to complete the scoring.

Collins threw for 162 yards (14-for-24) and two touchdowns, earning the game's offensive MVP honors. The Michigan defense tallied 11 tackles for loss, driving the CSU offense back 61 yards.

1995 Alamo Bowl

vs. Texas A&M

San Antonio, Texas
December 28, 1995
Attendance: 64,597

Michigan	7	3	3	7-20
Texas A&M	10	3	3	6-22

Aggies placekicker and Alamo Bowl offensive MVP Kyle Bryant booted a Michigan-opponent record five field goals in the game (27, 49, 47, 31 and 37 yards), and a Wolverine rally ran out of time at the third Alamo Bowl game.

Midway through the first quarter, Tshimanga Biakabutuka's fumble was recovered by the Aggies on U-M's five-yard line. Two plays later, Eric Bernard took it in to give Texas A&M a 7-0 lead.

The Wolverines responded quickly. Aided by 35 yards in Aggie penalties, Michigan went 77 yards in two plays to tie the game. The drive was capped off by a 41-yard Brian Griese to Amani Toomer touchdown pass.

After the two teams traded field goals, the two defenses settled in, holding their opposition scoreless on the next four possessions. On its final possession of the half, Texas A&M drove to the Michigan 32-yard line, where Bryant kicked a career-best 49-yard field goal at the gun to give the Aggies a 13-10 halftime lead.

Texas A&M extended the lead with a 47-yard field goal with 5:34 left in the third quarter. Michigan took the kickoff at the 19-yard line and ran the ball down to the Texas A&M four-yard line in 11 plays. The Wolverines had to settle for a Remy Hamilton 26-yard field goal to close the gap to 16-13.

The Aggies again extended their lead to six early in the fourth quarter, then held off an ineffective Wolverine offense. After a 31-yard interception return gave the Aggies possession at the Michigan four-yard line, Bryant kicked a 37-yard field goal to put Texas A&M ahead, 22-13, with 23 seconds remaining.

The Wolverines showed strokes of brilliance in the final seconds, with Griese completing long passes to Mercury Hayes and Toomer, the latter going for 44 yards and a touchdown. The onside kick was unsuccessful, and the Aggies ran out the clock to hand U-M a 22-20 defeat.

For the game, Griese completed nine-of-23 passes for 182 yards. Five of those passes went to Toomer, who tallied 135 yards and two touchdowns. Michigan managed only 129 yards on the ground, an Alamo Bowl-record 94 coming from Biakabutuka and 36 from Clarence Williams.

1997 Outback Bowl

vs. Alabama

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 1997
Attendance: 53,161

Alabama	3	0	0	14-17
Michigan	0	6	0	8-14

The highly-regarded defensive units of Michigan and Alabama were showcased in the New Year's Day Outback Bowl, but it was a Crimson Tide offense that led 'Bama to a 17-14 victory.

Michigan entered the game ranked 18th nationally in total defense while Alabama brought the No. 8 defense into the game. Neither unit disappointed.

The Wolverines held the Crimson Tide to 247 yards of total offense and effectively shut down Alabama for most of the game.

Alabama opened the game's scoring with a 43-yard Jon Brock field goal just 2:07 into the game.

Remy Hamilton knotted the game for Michigan with a 44-yard field goal with 8:03 left in the first half, then gave the Wolverines the lead with a 22-yard field goal 20 seconds before the intermission.

The turning point came as Michigan, already leading 6-3 early in the fourth quarter, worked a drive deep into Alabama territory. On third-and-five, quarterback Brian Griese, who started his first game of the season, attempted a short pass across the middle, but was deflected and intercepted by Alabama linebacker Dwayne Rudd. Rudd turned upfield and raced to an Outback Bowl record 88-yard interception return. The score, which came with 12:13 left in the game, gave the Crimson Tide a 10-6 lead that they never relinquished.

Alabama put the game away two possessions later when running back Shaun Alexander dashed 46 yards to put the Crimson Tide up 17-6 with 2:15 left in the game.

Griese hit receiver Russell Shaw with a nine-yard touchdown pass to end a nine-play, 80-yard drive with 1:16 left. After a pass-interference call, fullback Chris Floyd ran the ball in for a two-point conversion to bring Michigan to within three, 17-14.

The Crimson Tide recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Michigan finished the game with 415 yards in total offense, but it was unable to put the ball in the endzone. Three times the Wolverines failed to score after moving within the Alabama 35-yard line.

Griese completed 21-of-37 passes for 287 yards. He threw one touchdown and one interception.

Pasadena, California

Attendance: 101,219

Washington St.	7	0	6	3	-16
Michigan	0	7	7	7	-21

Michigan claimed its 11th national title with a 21-16 victory over Washington State at the Rose Bowl. The Wolverines' No. 1-ranked defense held the high-powered Cougars' offense to their lowest scoring output of the season, while Rose Bowl MVP Brian Griese completed 18-of-30 passes for 251 yards and three TDs.

WSU took a 7-0 first-quarter lead on a 15-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Leaf to wide receiver Kevin McKenzie.

U-M tied the score at seven entering the half as Griese threw a 53-yard touchdown pass to wideout Tai Streets.

After a Michigan punt pinned Washington State at the one-yard line, Leaf led a go-ahead 99-yard third-quarter scoring drive that ended with a 14-yard reverse by wide receiver Michael Tims. James Hall kept the deficit at 13-7 by blocking the extra point attempt.

The Wolverines' offense responded immediately as Griese and Streets connected on a 58-yard TD, their second long scoring play of the game. Kicker Kraig Baker hit the PAT to give Michigan its first lead, 14-13.

After a defensive stop, U-M extended its lead to 21-13 as Griese rolled right and found tight end Jerame Tuman for the game-winning 23-yard touchdown.

WSU scored the games final points with 7:25 remaining as kicker Rian Lindell hit a 48-yard field goal.

Holding a slim 21-16 lead, the Wolverines embarked on their most important drive of the season. U-M's 16-play series consumed 6:56 and saw Griese direct four third-down conversions. After lining up to attempt a potential 47-yard field goal, Jay Feely received the direct snap and proceeded to pooch punt.

Pinned deep at their seven-yard line with 29 seconds left, the Cougars added a little drama to the final moments. Leaf connected with Nian Taylor on a 46-yard pass play on third down to cross into Michigan territory. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf threw to Love Jefferson who lateralled the ball to Jason Clayton for a 36-yard gain to the U-M 16-yard line. WSU was unable to stop the clock as time ran out.

Dhani Jones recorded two sacks and a team-high 10 tackles, while Charles Woodson stopped a WSU drive with an endzone interception and recorded four PBUs. Offensively, Streets caught four passes for 127 yards and two TDs, and Chris Howard gained 70 yards rushing on 19 carries.

Michigan erased a pair of 14-point deficits in winning a thrilling 35-34 overtime game against Alabama in the 2000 FedEx Orange Bowl at Pro Player Stadium. The Wolverines played in, and won, their first overtime contest in school history.

With the score knotted at 28 at the end of regulation, Michigan scored on its initial play of overtime when quarterback Tom Brady found tight end Shawn Thompson on a 25-yard TD pass. Kicker Hayden Epstein hit the extra point to give U-M a 35-28 lead, its first of the contest.

On Alabama's first possession of overtime, Andrew Zow hit Antonio Carter with a 21-yard TD pass on the second play of the drive. However, Alabama's Ryan Pflugner pushed the extra point attempt wide right and Michigan claimed the victory.

Sophomore wide receiver David Terrell was named Orange Bowl MVP after setting career bests in receiving yards (150) and receiving touchdowns (three) as well as equaling his career-high in receptions (10). Brady capped his career with a career-best four TD passes on 34-of-46 passing for a UM bowl record 369 yards.

During regulation, Michigan trimmed the deficit to 14-7 with 58 seconds left in the first half when Brady hit Terrell on a 27-yard scoring strike.

Michigan held Alabama on its first offensive possession of the second half and marched 59 yards to even the score at 14. The Crimson Tide responded with back-to-back touchdowns from Shaun Alexander and Freddie Milons.

Michigan closed the gap when Brady and Terrell connected on a 20-yard TD pass with 5:42 left in the third quarter. After holding Alabama on its next possession, Michigan tied the game (28-28) as junior tailback Anthony Thomas scored on a three-yard run.

The Wolverines dominated the fourth quarter, but a fumble heading into the endzone for the go-ahead score and a blocked 36-yard field goal attempt on the final play of regulation, sent the game into overtime.

2001 Capital One Florida Citrus Bowl

vs. Auburn

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 2001
Attendance: 66,928

Michigan	7	14	10	0-31
Auburn	0	14	7	7-28

An efficient passing offense and a relentless ground attack led Michigan to a 31-28 victory over Auburn in the 2001 Florida Citrus Bowl. Drew Henson completed 15-of-20 passes for 294 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while tailback Anthony Thomas rushed 32 times for 182 yards and two touchdowns.

On its second possession, Michigan brought a trick out of the bag, using a flea-flicker to fool the Tigers' defense and score a 31-yard touchdown pass from Henson to David Terrell. This 76-yard drive in 70 seconds set Michigan's efficient tempo for the game.

Auburn struck back early in the second quarter when senior quarterback Ben Leard hooked up with wideout Ronney Daniels on a 19-yard touchdown pass. Leard hit Clifton Robinson for a 20-yard touchdown on the Tigers' next drive. Leard threw for 394 yards on the day, mostly in an effort to keep up with the Wolverine offense.

Michigan scored the next three touchdowns of the game due in large part to Thomas' brutish running. He racked up two touchdowns and became U-M's all-time leading rusher and scorer.

In the midst of the Wolverines' offensive explosion, sophomore safety Julius Curry and senior safety DeWayne Patmon each made key interceptions to halt Auburn drives into Michigan territory. Other defensive stars for the Wolverines included junior linebackers Eric Brackins and Larry Foote with 13 and eight tackles, respectively, and senior lineman Eric Wilson with six tackles and a sack.

Though Leard and junior running back Rudi Johnson tried to bring Auburn back, junior kicker Hayden Epstein connected on a 41-yard field goal towards the end of the third-quarter, giving U-M a 31-21 lead. Auburn added another late touchdown, but Michigan recovered an onside kick with 2:22 remaining and held on for the victory.

vs. Florida

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 2003
Attendance: 65,101

Florida	0	16	7	7-30
Michigan	7	14	14	3-38

Michigan claimed a 38-30 victory in a back-and-forth affair against No. 22 Florida in the 2003 Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium.

Tailback Chris Perry earned Outback Bowl MVP honors after setting a bowl game record and a modern era U-M bowl record with four touchdowns. Perry matched his career high with 28 carries for 85 yards and four TDs, and added a career-best six receptions for 108 yards. Quarterback John Navarre completed 21-of-36 passes for a career-high 319 yards and one score.

Victor Hobson tallied a career-best 12 tackles and two tackles for loss, and secured the win with an interception on Florida's final drive.

Michigan took advantage of a Florida turnover as Perry scored on a four-yard touchdown run late in the first quarter. U-M gained possession at the Florida three-yard line after recovering an errant shotgun snap. Florida, however, answered to take a 13-7 lead early in the second quarter on a pair of TD runs by tailback Ernest Graham.

U-M took control of the game on a 12-play scoring drive as Perry leaped over the goal line on a fourth-down play from the one-yard line.

The Gators regained the lead, 16-14, with 1:37 left in the first half as placekicker Matt Leach connected on a 29-yard field goal, but Michigan responded to take a 21-16 halftime advantage as Navarre completed an eight-yard touchdown pass to Bellamy with 27 seconds left.

Florida scored on its opening possession of the second half to gain a 23-21 lead. The Wolverines answered the Gators' TD and took the lead for good, 28-23, on a seven-yard TD run by Perry. U-M extended its lead to 35-23 as Perry scored his fourth TD of the game, a 12-yard run through the middle of the defense.

Florida trimmed the deficit to 35-30 with 8:21 remaining as Grossman fired a three-yard TD pass to tight end Aaron Walker.

On the Gator's next possession, a Hobson sack forced Florida to punt the ball away. U-M got the ball back and extended its lead to 38-30 with 2:20 left as kicker Adam Finley connected on a 33-yard field goal.

The Gators attempted to mount one final drive to tie the game. After reaching the Wolverine 37-yard line, Florida tried a wide receiver reverse pass, but it was intercepted by Hobson to seal Michigan's victory.

2004 Rose Bowl

vs. Southern California

Pasadena, California
January 1, 2004
Attendance: 93,849

USC	7	7	14	0-28
Michigan	0	0	7	7-14

Top-ranked Southern California aired it out in a 28-14 win against No. 4 Michigan in the 90th Rose Bowl game, claimed its ninth Associated Press national title.

USC quarterback Matt Leinart, who was voted the game's most valuable player, completed 23 of his 34 pass attempts for 327 yards and three touchdowns. USC managed to score four receiving touchdowns on Michigan's top rated pass defense.

U-M quarterback John Navarre finished his career by completing 27 of his 46 passes for 271 yards and a touchdown. Navarre was sacked a season-high nine times. Tailback Chris Perry carried 23 times for 85 yards and one score. Braylon Edwards added 10 catches for 107 yards.

The Wolverines threatened on their opening possession of the game, as they moved from their own 20 to the Trojans' 21. However freshman kicker Garrett Rivas' 48-yard field goal attempt was blocked by USC Shaun Cody. The Trojans took over and needed just four plays to score. The TD came on a 25-yard strike down the left hashmarks to Keary Colbert.

Michigan began its next-to-last drive of the first half at its own 6. The Wolverines gained a first down, but on third-and-18 from their 9, Navarre's pass bounced off Edwards' heel and into the hands of USC linebacker Lofa Tatupu. On third down from the six, Leinart tossed a soft pass to LenDale White in the left flat and he scrambled into the end zone for a 14-0 lead at the half.

Behind 21-0 early in the third quarter, Michigan answered with a 16-play, 76-yard drive. On second down from the USC five-yard line, Navarre fired a strike to tight end Tim Massaquoi. The touchdown pass was the 72nd of Navarre's career, breaking a tie with Elvis Grbac for the U-M all-time passing TD lead.

The Trojans answered with an eight-play, 72-yard drive to take a 28-7 lead. The Mike Williams took a reverse pitch and fired a 15-yard strike to a wide-open Leinart.

Michigan opened the fourth quarter with an 11-play, 85-yard drive to cut the USC lead to 28-14 with 11:06 remaining. From the two-yard line, Perry took a toss from Navarre and followed his blockers around the right side for the TD.

Leinart then fumbled a snap, which resulted in a turnover. Michigan was unable to take advantage and turned the ball over on downs. The Trojans ran out the clock.

2005 Alamo Bowl

vs. Nebraska

San Antonio, Texas
December 28, 2005
Attendance: 62,016

Michigan	7	7	7	7-28
Nebraska	7	7	3	15-32

The Wolverines were edged by the Nebraska Cornhuskers in a back-and-forth shootout at the 2005 Alamo Bowl. Despite relentless defensive pressure by Michigan (14 tackles for loss), the resilient Husker offense put up enough points for the victory. The San Antonio Alamodome saw two teams with a potent passing attack, and a plethora of self-inflicted wounds. Michigan and Nebraska combined for 15 penalties and five turnovers in the game. The Cornhuskers' Zac Taylor passed for 167 yards and three touchdowns, while Wolverine Chad Henne threw for 270 yards and 3 touchdowns.

Both teams got on the board quickly, with touchdowns on each team's opening drive of the game. Quarterback Zach Taylor hit receiver Terrance Nunn on a slant for a 52-yard score. On the ensuing kickoff, Steve Breaston had an Alamo Bowl record 69-yard return to the Nebraska 30. Shortly thereafter, Michigan capitalized with a 13-yard pass from Henne to tight end Tyler Ecker, knotting the score at 7-7.

Nebraska's next two possessions ended in interceptions on consecutive plays by cornerback Leon Hall, the Alamo Bowl Defensive MVP. Michigan was able to convert on one of those turnovers with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Henne to tight end Mike Massey. The Huskers responded with a seven-play, 70-yard touchdown drive, on a Nate Swift 14-yard touchdown catch. As a result, both teams headed into halftime tied at 14.

With a 21-yard TD pass to Mario Manningham and a seven-yard touchdown scramble, Henne sparked 28-17 Wolverine lead with less than a quarter to play.

Nebraska responded with a 31-yard touchdown run by Cory Ross to pull within three points, 28-25, with 8:08 remaining.

Michigan turned the ball over three times in the final 16 minutes, twice on fumbles with under eight minutes remaining in the regulation and an end zone interception. Terrance Nunn caught his second score on a 13-yard reception for the winning margin following a ruled fumble that gave the Husker's possession at U-M's 17-yard line.

Michigan's remaining two possessions were thwarted, including a desparation lateral play that nearly went the distance as time expired.

The University of Michigan football team was unable to climb out from a first-half deficit at the 2011 Gator Bowl on New Year's Day, falling 52-14 to No. 21 Mississippi State at Everbank Field. The Wolverines were unable to even their all-time bowl record and finish the campaign with a 7-6 record.

Michigan took the opening kickoff and marched 78 yards in 10 plays to take a 7-0 lead on a 10-yard pass from Denard Robinson to Roy Roundtree. Robinson had two huge runs during the drive, a run of 24 yards into Bulldogs territory and a 22-yard scamper to the 11-yard line, while completing all three passes for 27 yards.

Mississippi State answered on its opening possession on a four-yard pass from Chris Relf to receiver Arceto Clark on third-and-goal. After holding the Wolverines on their second possession, the Bulldogs grabbed the lead, 10-7, on a 42-yard field goal by Derek Depasquale.

The Wolverines took the ensuing kickoff and regained the lead, 14-10, on a 27-yard touchdown pass to Martavious Odoms with 34 seconds left in the first quarter. The five-play drive covered 72 yards in 100 seconds. Robinson completed all four passes for 72 yards, with each of the four completions coming to a different receiver.

The Bulldogs continued the scoring affair with 21 unanswered points to close out the first half, taking a 31-14 lead into the break.

The Michigan defense forced the Bulldogs into their first punt of the game on the opening series of the second half, and receiver Junior Hemingway gave U-M excellent field position as he returned the punt 33 yards to the Bulldogs' 23-yard line.

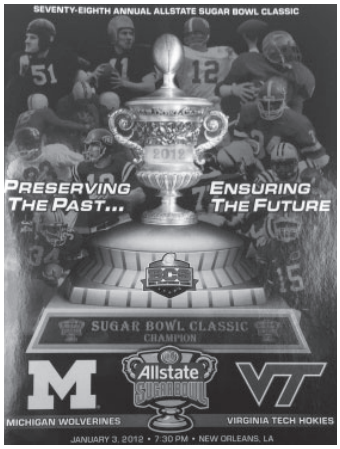

However, the Maize and Blue were unable to stage a comeback as MSU continued to score, closing out the game with six unanswered touchdown scores after the early Michigan lead to give the Bulldogs a 52-14 Gator Bowl victory.

2012 Sugar Bowl

vs. Virginia Tech

New Orleans, La.
January 3, 2012
Attendance: 64,512

Michigan	0	10	7	3	3-23
Virginia Tech	3	3	3	11	0-20

Brendan Gibbons drilled a 37-yard field goal in the first overtime session to give the University of Michigan football team (No. 13 AP/No. 12 USA Today Coaches) a 23-20 victory over Virginia Tech (No. 17 AP/No. 11 USA Today) on Jan. 3, 2012, in the 78th annual Allstate Sugar Bowl at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The triumph is U-M's first at the Sugar Bowl.

Virginia Tech had more than double Michigan's total yards, 377-184, and had 22 first downs to Michigan's 12 but settled for four field goals in regulation by third-string kicker Justin Myer, who tied the game with a 25-yard field goal with two seconds left before missing from 37 yards out in the opening possession of overtime.

Denard Robinson highlighted the offense with a pair of touchdown passes -- from 45 and 18 yards -- to wideout Junior Hemingway, the game MVP. Robinson finished 9-for-21 for 117 yards passing and threw an interception. He rushed 13 times for a season-low 13 yards. Meanwhile on defense, safety Jordan Kovacs, linebacker Desmond Morgan and defensive lineman Mike Martin notched 11, 10 and 10 tackles, respectively.

Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas, who was 19-of-28 for 214 yards with one interception, scored the Hokies' only touchdown on a one-yard keeper, capping a 16-play drive with 10:22 remaining in regulation. Virginia Tech then tied the game at 17-all after a successful two-point conversion.

Hokies receiver Danny Coale had eight catches for 117 yards and nearly made a spectacular diving catch for a touchdown in overtime. Coale held on to the ball for what was initially ruled a score, but the play was overturned on video review, which showed the receiver narrowly landed on the sideline. The result of that third-down play forced Tech to try for Myer's failed field goal.

Michigan then ran three consecutive runs to set up Gibbons in the middle of the field for the game-winner.

Tampa, Fla.
January 1, 2013
Attendance: 54,527

South Carolina	14	7	0	12-33
Michigan	3	10	9	6-28

After claiming two fourth-quarter leads, the University of Michigan football team fell to South Carolina (No. 11 AP/No. 10 USA Today), 33-28, on Tuesday, Jan. 1, 2013, in the Outback Bowl at Raymond James Stadium. The Gamecocks scored a touchdown with 11 seconds remaining to secure their second straight 11-win season.

The Wolverines took a one-point advantage with less than four minutes left on a touchdown reception by senior/junior receiver Jeremy Gallon, but Michigan was unable to halt South Carolina's game-winning drive.

Junior quarterback Devin Gardner threw for 214 yards and three scores, while Gallon caught a career-high nine passes for 145 yards and two touchdowns.

Senior quarterback Denard Robinson totaled a team-high 100 rushing yards and claimed first place on the all-time NCAA quarterback rushing list with 4,495 yards, passing Pat White (4,480) from West Virginia.

Michigan had the ball and a one-point lead (22-21) when the Maize and Blue regained possession with 10 minutes remaining in the game. On a fourth-and-four, Michigan faked a punt and narrowly gained a first down. On the next play, Jadeveon Clowney hit senior running back Vincent Smith as he took the handoff, causing a fumble that Clowney recovered.

South Carolina quarterback Connor Shaw connected with Sanders on the first South Carolina play for a 30-yard touchdown pass to reclaim the lead, 27-22, with eight minutes to go.

On the ensuing Michigan possession, the Wolverines picked up four first downs, before Gardner found Gallon in the end zone for the second time on the afternoon. The score gave Michigan its second lead, 28-27, with 3:29 remaining in the contest.

The Gamecocks marched the ball down the field in the final minutes, scoring a 32-yard touchdown with 11 seconds remaining to take a 33-28 advantage, leaving the Wolverines without time to respond as the final seconds elapsed.

2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl

vs. Kansas State

Tempe, Ariz.
December 28, 2013
Attendance: 53,284

Michigan	3	3	0	8-14
Kansas State	14	7	0	10-31

The University of Michigan football team fell to Kansas State, 31-14, on Saturday (Dec. 28) in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl. Freshman quarterback Shane Morris, who made his first career start in place of the injured Devin Gardner, tallied 239 yards total offense for Michigan, while safety Thomas Gordon led the way with nine tackles.

Kansas State's Tyler Lockett accumulated five catches for 63 yards and three touchdowns in the first half after leading the Wildcats with more than 1,100 yards and eight scores during the regular season.

Morris completed 15-of-19 first-half passes for 121 yards, but the Michigan offense was unable to reach the end zone and went into the half down 21-6.

The Wolverines defense stepped up in the third frame, as linebacker Jake Ryan forced a fumble that was recovered by Mario Ojemudia, marking the first turnover of the contest, with less than two minutes remaining in the third.

Kansas State got the ball back and drove down to the U-M five-yard line early in the final quarter, but the Wildcats were stopped there and forced to settle for a 22-yard field goal. This made the score 24-6 with less than 10 minutes remaining in the game.

Later in the quarter, a Morris' pass attempt was intercepted by Dante Barnett and returned 51 yards deep into Michigan territory. Two plays later, the Wildcats extended their lead to 31-6 following a one-yard scoring plunge.

The U-M offense finally found the end zone on its final drive, which featured a 40-yard run by Morris. Running back Fitzgerald Toussaint scored the touchdown in his final game, turning the corner from just three yards out. Following a successful two-point conversion attempt, the score was 31-14 with just a minute and a half remaining.

During the last Michigan drive, fifth-year senior receiver Jeremy Gallon set the single-season program record for receiving yardage. He passed Braylon Edwards, whose 1,330 yards in 2004 marked the previous record. Gallon finished his final season with 89 receptions, 1,373 yards and nine scores.

2016 Citrus Bowl

vs. Florida

Orlando, Florida
January 1, 2016
Attendance: 63,113

Michigan	7	10	14	10-41
Florida	7	0	0	0-7

The Michigan football team defeated Florida, 41-7, on Saturday (Jan.1) in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl. Graduate student quarterback Jake Rudock, who completed 20-of-30 (64.5%) pass attempts on the day, tallied 307 yards total offense for Michigan. Junior runningback De'Veon Smith led the team in carries, with 25 rush attempts for 111 yards.

Rudock closed his collegiate career with an impressive effort at Citrus Bowl Stadium, the same field where he clinched a state and national championship with St. Thomas Aquinas High School. The game MVP, as voted by the media, Rudock completed 20-of-31 passes for 278 yards and three touchdowns, becoming just the second Michigan quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season (John Navarre, 2003).

Leading 17-7 at halftime, the Wolverines scored on their first two possessions of the third quarter -- the first on a three-yard slant to receiver Grant Perry (5 receptions, 51 yards) and the second on a two-yard plunge from fullback Sione Houma to claim a 31-7 lead.

Rudock started the fourth quarter where he left off, tossing a seven-yard touchdown to tailback Drake Johnson (58 rushing yards on six carries, two total touchdowns), before kicker Kenny Allen closed the scoring with a 25-yard field goal with 6:42 to play.

In the first half, Florida leaned heavily on QB Treon Harris and a series of trick plays to convert 7-of-9 third downs. Harris' scrambling ability yielded more than five yards per carry, but his inconsistency through the air (8-17-1, 146 yards) and two red-zone interceptions proved ominous.

Harris did not complete a second half pass, finishing the game 8-of-21 with one interception and 55 yards on 11 carries. Michigan held Florida to 28 yards in the second half and 0-for-4 on third downs. Defensive lineman Chris Wormley's 2.5 tackles for a loss led the Michigan defense with the Wolverines recording six TFLs in the game. Linebacker Joe Bolden had a team-high seven total tackles.

Miami Gardens, Florida
December 30, 2016

Michigan	3	3	9	17-32
Florida State	17	3	0	13-33

The No. 6-ranked Wolverines and No. 10 Seminoles produced an instant classic, with FSU escaping with the win, 33-32, in the Orange Bowl.

U-M fought valiantly to claim a 30-27 lead with 1:57 left to play after FSU built a 27-15 lead with less than eight minutes remaining in the game. Michigan scored a pair of touchdowns only to see Florida State score the winning TD with 36 seconds left.

Trailing by 14 entering the third quarter, Michigan drove to FSU's 10-yard line before Kenny Allen converted a 37-yard field goal.

Later in the quarter, the defensive pressure broke through as Mike McCray picked off a pass and returned it for a touchdown. U-M was unable to convert the two-point try, making the score 20-15.

On third-and-22, FSU's Dalvin Cook slipped a tackle and rumbled 71 yards to U-M's 16-yard line. Three plays later, Francois ran into the end zone to give FSU a 27-15 lead.

With less than eight minutes to play, Michigan took the ball at FSU's 37 after a targeting penalty on a punt. U-M converted two third downs, the final one as Wilton Speight found Khalid Hill for a TD, cutting the deficit to 27-22 with 5:22 to play.

U-M's defense forced a three-and-out, getting the ball back with 4:14 remaining. Two plays after a third-down run by Speight, Chris Evans broke through the line for a 30-yard score. Speight found Amara Darboh on the two-point attempt, giving U-M a 30-27 lead with 1:57 to play.

On the ensuing kickoff, FSU's Keith Gavin broke a tackle and ran 66 yards to U-M's 34-yard line. On third down, Francois found Nyquan Murray on a fade for the touchdown and a 33-30 lead with 36 seconds left. The extra point was blocked and Josh Metellus returned it for a defensive conversion, making the score 33-32 in favor of the Seminoles.

Michigan was come-from-behind again as a fourth-down pass was intercepted to seal the game.

With Jabrill Peppers unable to play after sustaining an injury the day before the game, FSU raced out to a 17-3 lead after the first quarter.

U-M tallied its first half points on a 19- and 28-yard field gaols by Allen.

Speight finished 21-of-38 for 163 yards and a touchdown. Evans led the ground game with eight carries for 49 yards and one TD.

2018 Outback Bowl

vs. South Carolina

Tampa, Florida
January 1, 2018
Attendance: 45,687

Michigan	6	3	10	0-19
USC	0	3	13	10-26

Five second-half turnovers were costly as South Carolina scored 23 unanswered points in a 26-19 comeback victory over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

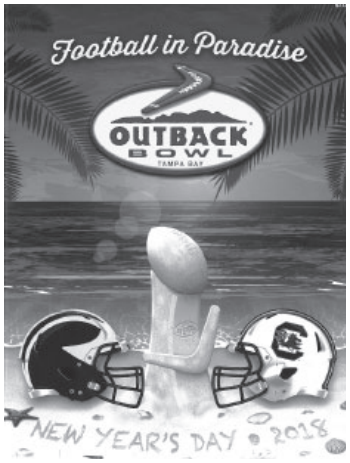

The Wolverines led 19-3 late in the third quarter but the Gamecocks took momentum and responded with touchdowns on three straight drives.

Following a first-half defensive struggle, Michigan marched 66 yards on its first possession of the third quarter, scoring the game's first touchdown when Ben Mason bullied his way into the end zone from one yard out, giving Michigan a 16-3 lead.

Noah Furbush proceeded to intercept Jake Bentley on the next possession and returned the ball to USC's 27-yard line. Michigan couldn't capitalize as Karan Higdon fumbled on the four-yard line. The defense produced another three-and-out and increased its lead to 19-3 as Quinn Nordin buried a 48-yarder.

South Carolina began its rally as Rico Dowdle scampered into the end zone from 17 yards out; the two-point conversion attempt failed to make the score 19-9. Michigan then fumbled on a handoff exchange and South Carolina responded immediately as Bentley found Bryan Edwards for a touchdown on the very first play after the turnover to make the deficit 19-16 entering the fourth quarter.

USC then took its first lead of the game, 23-19, as Bentley found Shi

Smith for a 53-yard scoring strike with 11:33 to play.

Michigan tried to answer and drove deep into South Carolina territory, but the scoring opportunity ended as Brandon Peters' pass was intercepted by JaMarcus King in the end zone. The Wolverines forced a punt following the turnover but Donovan Peoples-Jones fumbled and the Gamecocks recovered on U-M's 14-yard line. The defense held USC to a field goal to keep the deficit within one score, 26-19, with 3:47 to play.

U-M was unable to answer on the final two drives, turning the ball over on downs and throwing an interception.

Both teams' defenses exerted control from the outset but U-M benefited from a trio of USC miscues, converting three field goals from Nordin (35, 26, 45) during the opening 30 minutes into a 9-3 halftime advantage. South Carolina got on the board with 8:45 to play in the second quarter when Parker White connected from 44 yards out.

#17 Michigan	10	6	0	0-16
#9 Alabama	7	7	7	14-35

The No. 17-ranked Wolverines built a 16-14 halftime lead at the Vrbo Citrus Bowl, but No. 9 Alabama scored 21 unanswered points in the second half to defeat the Wolverines, 35-16, at Camping World Stadium.

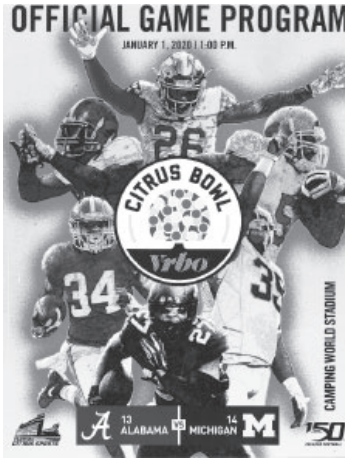

Michigan used a strong rushing attack in scoring on its final four possessions of the first half, getting a touchdown and three field goals to build its two-point halftime advantage. The Wolverines ran for 135 yards on 27 carries while accumulating 286 yards in the first half. However, the Wolverines managed just 27 yards on 16 rushes and gained 109 total yards in the second half.

Shea Patterson completed 17-of-37 passes for 233 yards and one TD and Zach Charbonnet rushed 13 times for 84 yards. Josh Metellus and Jordan Glasgow paced the defense with 11 and 10 tackles, respectively.

Alabama scored on its first play as Mac Jones hit Jerry Jeudy in stride on a deep ball for 85 yards and a 7-0 lead.

Michigan started to click on offense on its second series. Charbonnet ripped off runs of 12, 9 and 12 yards before Patterson found Donovan Peoples-Jones for 34 yards to the Alabama 18. An 11-yard rush from Hassan Haskins set up the tying score, as Patterson connected with Nick Eubanks for a seven-yard TD.

The Wolverines gashed the Tide with a few more double-digit rushing plays and some timely passes but two consecutive drives stalled inside Alabama territory and forced Nordin field goals. Nordin was perfect on a 36-yard field goal to make the score 10-7 late in the first quarter and connected from 42 yards out to increase the lead to 13-7 midway through the second quarter.

The Tide immediately regained the lead 14-13 with a scoring drive capped by Najee Harris' leap into the end zone with 3:32 to play in the second quarter.

Michigan went back on top 16-14 with another Nordin field goal as time expired in the half. Nordin made good on a 57-yard boot, setting a Citrus Bowl record and matching a school mark for longest field goal.

Alabama received the ball to start the second half and struck quickly to go up, 21-16. Jones found DeVonta Smith down the right side for a 42-yard passing play to the end zone.

After trading possessions, Alabama struck again as Jones completed a 20-yard TD pass to Miller Forristall. The play pushed the lead to 28-16 early in the fourth quarter and was setup by 14- and 58-yard receptions from Jeudy.

Alabama salted away the game with a 75-yard tuchdown drive that ended with only 0:26 left in the contest.

2021 Capital One Orange Bowl

vs. Georgia

Miami Gardens, Florida
December 31, 2021
Attendance: 59,746

#3 Georgia	14	13	0	7 - 34
#2 Michigan	0	3	0	8 - 11

Making its first College Football Playoff appearance and facing Georgia for the first time since 1965, Michigan fell behind early and could not solve the No. 3 Bulldogs' nation-leading defense in a 34-11 CFP semifinal loss in the Capital One Orange Bowl on New Year's Eve at Hard Rock Stadium.

The Bulldogs scored on their first five drives of the game, getting three touchdowns and two field goals to build a 27-3 lead at halftime.

J.J. McCarthy came on in relief of Cade McNamara and went 7-of-17 passing for 131 yards, including a 35-yard touchdown connection with Andrel Anthony. Erick All had four receptions for 63 yards, and Josh Ross led the defense with 11 tackles.

Georgia scored touchdowns on its first two possessions. Stetson Bennett completed a nine-yard pass play to Brock Bowers, and then the Bulldogs used a halfback pass from Kenny McIntosh to Adonai Mitchell for an 18-yard score. Jack Podlesny's 43-yard field on the third series made the score 17-0 with 12:26 left in the half.

Michigan got on the scoreboard with 7:19 left in the first half as Jake Moody booted a 36-yard field goal. The drive covered 57 yards in nine plays, with the biggest chunk coming on a 42-yard pass play from McNamara to Roman Wilson down the right sideline to Georgia's 19.

The Bulldogs closed out the half with two more scoring drives and took a 27-3 lead into the break.

In the second half, Michigan moved inside Georgia territory on all five possessions but was unable to crack through for any points until late in the contest. Its first possession ended with an end zone interception, the second with a fumble around midfield and the next two series with turnovers on downs on the Georgia side of the field.

The Bulldogs completed their scoring at 11:11 of the fourth quarter as Bennett found James Cook down the left sideline for 39 yards to cap a six-play, 59-yard drive. That provided the eventual national champions with a 34-3 lead.

After forcing a punt, the Wolverines finally found the end zone with 4:25 left in the game, as Anthony faked out his defender down the left sideline and ended up wide open to take in McCarthy's throw for a 35-yard TD. U-M successfully went for two, with Henning going in on an end around to bring the score to the final of 34-11.

Michigan finished the season with a 12-2 overall record, marking the third 12-win season in program history.

2022 Vrbo Fiesta Bowl

vs. TCU

Glendale, Arizona
December 31, 2022
Attendance: 71,723

#3 TCU	14	7	20	10 - 51
#2 Michigan	0	6	24	15 - 45

The No. 2-ranked Wolverines' magical season came to an end in the College Football Playoff Semifinal, falling 51-45 to Texas Christian in a topsy-turvy affair in the Vrbo Fiesta Bowl at State Farm Stadium.

The two teams combined for 96 points and 1,012 yards, including a record-breaking 44 points in the third quarter alone. When all was said and done, Michigan (13-1) totaled 528 yards, including 342 through the air.

Two costly turnovers, one in each half, proved to be the ultimate stumbling blocks for the Wolverines. The Horned Frogs returned two interceptions for touchdowns, one in the first quarter and one in the third, and U-M was never able to recover.

Quarterback J.J. McCarthy completed 20-of-34 passes for 343 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions, while also adding 52 rushing yards and a touchdown on the ground. Tailback Donovan Edwards added 119 yards in the ground game, while Roman Wilson added 18 yards and a touchdown and Kalel Mullings punched in a touchdown as well.

Seven different receivers hauled in catches in the contest, with Ronnie Bell and Wilson both eclipsing the century mark. Bell caught six passes for 135 yards and a touchdown, and Wilson grabbed five passes for 104 yards and a score.

Kicker Jake Moody provided the first three scores for Michigan in the contest, knocking in a career-long and school-record 59-yard field goal to end the first half, setting a new high for the College Football Playoff as well.

Despite allowing a season-high 51 points, the defense forced three turnovers in the contest. Rod Moore tallied a game-high 12 tackles to go along with his fourth interception of the season, while Mike Sainristil hauled in a pick of his own to go along with seven total tackles. Mazi Smith forced and recovered a fumble while tallying three stops in the contest.

The Wolverines nearly pulled off the biggest comeback in the history of the College Football Playoff, erasing a 17-point first-half deficit thanks in part to a 24-point third quarter. Michigan had the ball and a chance to complete the comeback, trailing by six with just under a minute to play. However, the TCU (13-1) defense stood firm and U-M turned the ball over on downs to end its season and national title hopes.
