Who are the Michigan Wolverines?

- Michigan is led by fifth-year head coach Juwan Howard -- former U-M All-American and Fab Five member, top five NBA Draft pick, All-Star and two-time champion. Following his 25-year professional career -- 19 years as a player and six with the Miami Heat, Howard made his way back to Ann Arbor for his first head coaching position.
- Mentored by legendary coaches Pat Riley and Erik Spoelstra, Howard is a huge believer in culture and instilled six core values into his program -- Discipline, Family, All-In, Accountability, Trust and Sacrifice.
- Even though U-M avoids clichés, the Maize and Blue live by the mantra -- "Get Better 1% Each Day"
- Howard believes, and wants, his program to be "solution based" as well as "player led." He gives everyone on staff, and the roster, a voice, allowing them the freedom to express opinions and strategies.
- Howard strives to develop his roster into a "position-less" team as wants his players to rotate, and be able to play multiple spots during a game.
- U-M wants to play at a fast-paced, "read-and-react" offense with a mix of ball screen actions and downhill drives. The offense is coordinated by Howard Eislew. U-M runs a man-to-man defense, however, the Wolverines incorporate zone options. The defense is coordinated by Saddi Washington.
- Howard wants his Wolverines to gain confidence and keep shooting. So the "green light" is on for everyone -- if you miss, take the next one.

Suspension: Dug McDaniel

- Starting with U-M's game at Maryland (Jan. 11), Dug McDaniel will not travel to road games until further notice due to an academic suspension. However, McDaniel will dress for home games. While the team is away from Ann Arbor, he will work towards meeting several academic goals he has set.

- Phil Martelli served as U-M's interim head coach for 10 games while Howard continued his rehabilitation. Howard returned to the sidelines in the Bahamas at the Battle 4 Atlantis over Thanksgiving, however, served as an assistant. - U-M Athletics Director Warde Manuel made the decision that whomever was the coach on the floor would get credit for U-M's win or loss. So, Phil Martelli will be credited with U-M's 5-5 start.
- Starting this season, the NCAA allows for two additional coaches; a total of five. Director of Program & Player Development Jay Smith and Video Analyst Jaaron Simmons are U-M's two designated assistants under the new rules. One caveat, while they are allowed to coach, they cannot off-campus recruit.

Portal Success

- Over the last six years, Michigan has dipped into the transfer portal eight times.

- In the COVID-19 altered 2020-21 season, guard Mike Smith (Columbia) helped U-M to the 2021 Big Ten regular season title, a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament (East) and the program's fourth Elite Eight appearance since 2013.
- In 2017-18, guard Jaaron Simmons (Ohio), who is currently an assistant coach/video analyst, helped the Maize and Blue to a second straight Big Ten Tournament title as well as advance to the Final Four and national title game vs. Villanova.

World Champion Wolverines

- Former U-M stars, Orlando Magic teammates and brothers Moritz and Franz Wagner helped Germany capture a historic gold medal at the 2023 FIBA World Cup. With its first World Championship, Germany secured a spot for the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris.
- In addition to the Wagner brothers, Olivier Nkamhoua (Finland) and Iggy Brazdeikis (Lithuania) competed for their respective countries. Youssef Khayat (Lebanon) withdrew due to injury.
- Jevohn Shepherd provided the basketball analysis for the ESPN television broadcasts.

- After a 38-26 win over Notre Dame, U-M's student managers won the 2023 national title at the Manager Games Tournament at the Final Four Fan Fest. U-M opened with a 44-41 win over Liberty before knocking off Kentucky (26-21) -- in front of head coach John Calipari -- to reach the title game against the Irish.

Former University of Michigan All-American and Fab Five member Juwan Howard is preparing to begin his fifth season patrolling the sidelines of his alma mater as the David and Meredith Kaplan men's basketball head coach.

During his first four seasons in Ann Arbor, Howard has compiled a 79-46 record, with two NCAA Tournament (2021 & 2022) selections as well as a postseason NIT appearance (2023).

Capturing the 2021 Big Ten regular-season title (14-3) under Howard, the Wolverines have posted four straight 10-plus Big Ten win seasons as he has tallied a 46-31 mark in conference play.

Howard's four 10-plus win seasons helped the Maize and Blue extend the program's streak to eight straight seasons, as well as in 11 of the last 12 seasons with double-digit Big Ten wins.

In addition to the program's 15th Big Ten title, Howard's Wolverines had to back-to-back Sweet 16s (2021 & 2022) part of five straight advancements to the second weekend for the Maize and Blue. While navigating the COVID-19 pandemic, U-M fell just short of the program's seventh trip to the Final Four falling to UCLA 51-49 in the 2021 Elite Eight.

The Wolverines were primed for a third NCAA selection, but COVID-19 canceled the 2020 Big Ten and NCAA postseasons. In 2023, U-M was selected for the postseason NIT, where the Maize and Blue advanced to the second round.

In his second season, Howard not only guided the Wolverines to their 15th conference regular-season title, but U-M earned its second No. 1 seed in the Big Ten Tournament as well as the No. 1 seed in the NCAA East Region -- the program's third No. 1 seed in history. Howard became the first to earn a No. 1 seed as a player and as a coach in the NCAA Tournament.

For his efforts that season, Howard was named the 2021 Associated Press National Coach of the Year, the Wolverines' second recipient and first since Bill Frieder in 1985. He was the first Big Ten coach to be recognized with the award since 2005.

The AP honor highlighted a slew of accolades as Howard was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year and earned the USBWA's District V Coach of the Year and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 7 Coach of the Year awards. He was honored by the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) with the Henry Iba Award.

Before returning to his alma mater, Howard spent six years on the staff of the Miami Heat. Working under coach, and mentors, Erik Spoelstra and Pat Riley, Howard helped the Heat to three division titles (2014, '16, and '18) and Eastern Conference championship in 2014.

Coaching Staff

Associate Head Coach Phil Martelli

With nearly five decades of basketball experience, legendary collegiate coach Phil Martelli begins his fifth season with the University of Michigan basketball program serving as the associate head coach under Juwan Howard.

Joining the U-M coaching staff in 2019, Martelli's influences continue to be felt throughout the program. Compiling a 79-48 record during his time in Ann Arbor, Martelli has been instrumental in helping the Wolverines to the 2021 Big Ten title and back-to-back Sweet 16s at the 2021 and 2022 NCAA Tournaments, which extended U-M's run with five straight second weekend trips.

Before heading to Ann Arbor, Martelli spent 34 years at Saint Joseph's, with the final 24 seasons as head coach, where he built the Hawks' into one of the most consistent Atlantic 10 programs. The Hawks' all-time leader in career victories (444), Martelli recorded nine 20-plus win seasons including a school-record 30 in 2004. His A-10 record of 218-176 ranks second all-time, trailing only Temple's John Chaney.

Martelli's teams made 13 postseason appearances (7 NCAA, 6 NIT) advancing to two NCAA Sweet 16s (1997, 2004) and the 2004 Elite Eight. That 2004 team finished the regular season a perfect 27-0 and No. 1 in the country before suffering its first loss in the A-10 Tournament. Despite that, Saint Joseph's advanced to the Elite Eight. Martelli and his point guard Jameer Nelson swept the consensus National Coach and Player of the Year honors that year.

Overall, Martelli was named the A-10 Coach of the Year four times (1997, 2001, '04, '05), the USBWA District Coach of the Year twice (1997, 2004) and the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year four times (1996, '97, 2004, '16). He won six A-10 regular season/divisional titles (1997, 2001, '02, '03, '04, '05) and guided the Hawks to three A-10 Tournament titles (1997, 2014, '16). His 18 postseason wins (7 NCAA, 11 NIT) are the most in Saint Joseph's history.

Martelli spent seven years as head basketball coach at Bishop Kenrick High School in the Philadelphia Catholic League; current Hall of Fame women's basketball coach Geno Auriemma served as an assistant under Martelli from 1979-81. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at his alma mater Widener College in 1977, helping the Pioneers reach the 1978 NCAA Division III Final Four and title game.

Assistant Coach Saddi Washington

With nearly two decades of coaching experience, Saddi Washington begins his eighth season as an assistant coach with the University of Michigan basketball program.

With the Wolverines, Washington has been responsible for working with U-M's wings and continues to coordinate defensive strategies. Overall with Washington, the Maize and Blue has 168 victories including a program record 33 wins during the 2017-18 season (33-8), which closed with a national runner-up finish. The following season (2018-19), U-M recorded a second 30-win season, going 30-7.

Throughout his time in Ann Arbor, the Wolverines have won 10-plus Big Ten games in each season with Washington on the bench as he carries an 84-49 record in conference play. U-M claimed the 2021 Big Ten regular season title, back-to-back Big Ten Tournaments (2017, '18), advanced to five NCAA straight Sweet 16s, as well as a trip to the 2018 Final Four and national title game against Villanova.

Prior to heading to Ann Arbor, Washington spent a decade as a member of Oakland University's staff (2006-16) serving seven years as an assistant before being promoted to the associate head coach under Greg Kampe his final three seasons. Washington helped the Golden Grizzlies to 198 wins and five 20-plus win seasons. Oakland made back-to-back trips to the NCAA Tournament (2010, '11) after winning two straight Summit League regular season and conference tournament titles.

Before starting his coaching career serving as a volunteer assistant coach at Romulus High School (2005) under current Alabama head coach Nate Oats, Washington had a seven-year professional career overseas.

Collegiately, Washington was named to the 1994 Mid-American (MAC) All-Freshman Team, averaging 14 points per game at Western Michigan. A two-time All-MAC selection, he was a first-team pick as a senior in 1998 after scoring 626 points (21.6 per game). Assistant Coach Howard Easley

Following a successful 21 years playing and coaching in the NBA, Howard Easley returned to his native state of Michigan, joining Juwan Howard as an assistant coach with the University of Michigan basketball program.

Beginning his fifth season in Ann Arbor, Easley continues work with the Wolverine backcourt as well as serving as U-M's offensive coordinator. Compiling a 79-48 record during his time in Ann Arbor, Easley has been instrumental in helping the Wolverines to the 2021 Big Ten title and back-to-back Sweet 16s at the 2021 and 2022 NCAA Tournaments, which extended U-M's run with five straight second weekend trips.

Easley has served as a mentor and coach to several Wolverines guards during his time, who have gone on to earn All-Big Ten honors and was well as start professional careers -- Eli Brooks (2022 All-Big Ten, G-League), Kobe Bufkin (2023 All-Big Ten, NBA), Jett Howard (2023 All-Big Ten, NBA) as well as overseas professionals DeVante' Jones (France) and Mike Smith (Poland). Prior to his return to NCAA coaching, Easley spent nearly a decade moving up the ranks in the NBA as a player development assistant with the Los Angeles Clippers, and as an assistant coach with the Washington Wizards (2014-16) and New York Knicks (2016-19).

Chosen with the 30th overall selection by the Minnesota Timberwolves in the 1994 NBA Draft, Easley played 12 seasons in the NBA, making stops with eight teams -- Minnesota, San Antonio, Utah, Dallas, New York, Phoenix, the Clippers and Denver. He played in 786 NBA games and recorded 5,116 career points, 2,748 assists, 540 steals and 516 3-point field goals. His career was highlighted by playing five seasons with the Utah Jazz and Hall of Fame point guard John Stockton, contributing to two Western Conference titles in 1997 and 1998.

A four-year starter at Boston College (1991-94), Easley helped guide the Eagles to the 1994 NCAA East Regional Final, where he earned all-regional tournament honors. He added All-Big East second team honors as a junior (1993) and senior (1994).
