THE 2025 SEASON

Michigan State Series History

- This will be the 118th meeting in the all-time series with Michigan State
- The Wolverines lead the all-time series, 74-38-5, and have won 29 of the last 46 games (.630) played between the two schools dating back to 1979
- U-M has compiled a 37-18 mark against MSU since 1970, with winning streaks of eight games (1970-77) and six games (2002-07) during that stretch of 55 games
- After losing his first game against the Spartans in 1969, head coach Bo Schembechler won 13 of his next 14 games in the series and posted a 17-4 record during his tenure at U-M
- Michigan won back-to-back games in 2018 and 2019 and Michigan State followed with a pair of wins during the 2020 COVID season and 2021 season in East Lansing before the Wolverines' won the past three seasons (2022-24)

Battle for State Supremacy

- The annual battle on the gridiron between Michigan and Michigan State started in 1898 and has featured some of the most exciting contests in both schools' histories
- The two programs have met every year since 1945, a streak of 79 consecutive seasons
- With the exception of 1943 and 1944, when the series was suspended due to World War II, the Wolverines and Spartans have met on the football field every year since 1910

73rd Battle for the Paul Bunyan Trophy

- Today's game between the in-state rivals will be the 73rd played for the Paul Bunyan Trophy
- The Wolverines hold a 41-29-2 advantage in the trophy game
- Michigan has won 37 of the past 55 games played between the two schools since 1970
- The Paul Bunyan Trophy dates back to 1953, when Michigan State entered the Big Ten, and has become the cornerstone of the Michigan-Michigan State rivalry since its inception
- A donation by then-Michigan governor G. Mennen Williams, the Paul Bunyan Trophy stands nearly four feet tall
- The wooden trophy depicts the figure of legendary folk hero Paul Bunyan astride an axe, with his feet planted over the state of Michigan. On each corner of the state lies a flag emblazoned with the Michigan 'M' or the Spartan 'S.' Each year the winner of the Michigan-Michigan State game is awarded ownership of the prize

U-M vs. MSU at the Big House

- The 2026 game will be the 62nd game between the two rivals at Michigan Stadium
- The Wolverines have compiled a 37-21-3 record at Michigan Stadium
- U-M has claimed victories in 14 of the last 20 games played at Michigan Stadium
- The Wolverines boast an impressive 21-8 home record against the Spartans since 1968
- Michigan sports a 52-23-3 all-time record against Michigan State in Ann Arbor

U-M vs. MSU at Spartan Stadium

- Michigan sports a 22-15-2 all-time record against Michigan State in East Lansing, including a 20-12-1 mark at Spartan Stadium
- Michigan has a 5-5 record against MSU in the last 10 games played at Spartan Stadium
- Michigan has entered East Lansing ranked in the AP poll on 29 occasions and holds a 17-10-1 mark in those matchups with Michigan State

Greater Rushing Effort Key to Victory

- One of the major components to securing victory in the annual Michigan-Michigan State football game has been the ground game, with the most productive rushing attack winning 48 of the last 55 games in the series
- From 1969 through 1994 -- 26 consecutive games -- the winning team gained more yards on the ground
- MSU put an end to the string by winning in 1995 despite being out-gained in the rushing department by the Wolverines, 218 to 73
- U-M lost the rushing battle in 2024, 163-119, but came out on top 24-17 at Michigan Stadium

2025 Schedule Notes

- The Wolverines face one of college football's toughest schedules during the 2025 season, playing six home games and six road contests
- Both of Michigan's setbacks this fall have come against teams that have been ranked, losing on the road to Oklahoma (currently 11th/13th) and USC (currently unranked after listing 18th)
- U-M is one of 12 Power Conference teams facing six road tilts in 2025: BYU, California, Duke, Houston, North Carolina, SMU, Stanford, TCU, UCLA, Utah and West Virginia are the others
- Michigan is playing six road games for just the second time in school history; posted a 6-0 road record in 1986 and is 1-2 this season
- This is the first time in the modern era of Michigan football that the program will not play consecutive home games; the only other seasons that U-M did not play at least back-to-back home contests was 1924 and 1937
- U-M played consecutive night games to open the season for the first time in school history; the Maize and Blue have a 53-29 all-time record in games starting after 5 pm local time
- Two of the Wolverines' 2025 foes were ranked in the preseason AP Top 25 poll: Ohio State (2nd) and Oklahoma (18th)
- Five of the Wolverines' 12 opponents played in bowl games last season: Oklahoma (Armed Forces Bowl), Nebraska (Pinstripe Bowl), USC (Las Vegas Bowl), Washington (Sun Bowl) and Ohio State (CFP/Rose Bowl/NC Game)
- The Wolverines traveled to Norman, Okla.,

during the non-conference to face head coach Sherrone Moore's alma mater (L, 13-24)

- U-M is one of 10 FBS schools not playing an FCS opponent this season: the others are Colorado, Notre Dame, Sam Houston, Stanford, Texas, Tulane, UCLA, USC and Wisconsin
- Michigan will play three rivalry trophy games during the season: Paul Bunyan Trophy (Michigan State), George Jewett Trophy (Northwestern) and the Bussin' Bowl Trophy (Nebraska; W, 30-27)

U-M Ranked in National Polls

- Michigan enters the Michigan State game ranked in the top 25 of the national polls; lists 24th in the AFCA Coaches poll and 25th in the AP media poll
- The Wolverines have been ranked for 114 of their last 135 games dating back to the start of the 2015 season
- Michigan has been ranked in the Associated Press national polls 935 times, the second-most of any program in college football
- The Wolverines had been listed in the national rankings for 60 of the past 70 polls dating back to third game of the 2021 season; had a string of 54 straight rankings snapped in 2024
- U-M ranked in the top 10 of the polls for 45 straight rankings which was its longest string in more than 20 years (2021-24); 34 of those rankings the Wolverines listed in the top 5
- Michigan was listed in the top five of the national polls for a school record 32 straight rankings (2021-23); streak was snapped with the 2024 preseason rankings
- U-M ranked in the top three of the final polls - No. 1 in 2023 and No. 3 in both 2021 and 2022; this was the first time in school history that the program finished the year ranked in the top 5 for three consecutive seasons

Michigan in Big Ten Action

- The Wolverines enter the Michigan State game riding a 30-5 record in league play over their last 35 regular season games
- U-M has claimed wins in 36 of its last 42 games against conference schools
- Michigan has a 71-22 mark in Big Ten action in its last 93 games; 36-9 at home, 32-13 on the road and 3-0 in neutral site contests
- The program had its 24-game winning streak - 27 contests if you count three Big Ten Championship Games - end with a loss at Washington earlier last season (2024)
- The 24-game winning streak surpassed the previous school record mark of 19 games spanning the 1990-92 seasons
- The conference only counts the Michigan streak at 24 games as it doesn't count the Big Ten Championship Game as a league game; U-M won the 2021, 2022 and 2023 title games during the current streak

Winning at the Big House

- U-M has won 30 of its last 32 games at Michigan Stadium, dating back to the start of the 2021 season
- A 23-game winning streak ended with a setback to Texas early in 2024 season
- The team's only setbacks over the past 30

games came against top five teams: #3 Texas and #1 Oregon

- The 23-game winning streak at the Big House was the program's best since a 28-game streak from 1969-73 under Bo Schembechler
- Michigan claimed three straight undefeated seasons at home, posting a perfect 8-0 record in 2022 and 7-0 slates in 2021 and 2023
- U-M has finished the season unblemished at home on 26 occasions since 1940, including the 1973 and 1992 seasons where they recorded ties at home
- The Wolverines posted a perfect home record five times since 2016: 7-0 (2023), 8-0 (2022), 7-0 (2021), 7-0 (2018) and 8-0 (2016)

Michigan Football in Night Games

- The Wolverines have a 1-1 record in night games this year; defeated New Mexico (34-17) and lost at Oklahoma (13-24)
- The setback against the Sooners ended a 13-game winning streak in night games
- U-M has won 18 of its last 21 night games
- Michigan has compiled a 53-29 overall record in games starting after 5 p.m. local time, posting a 16-2 record at Michigan Stadium, a 29-17 mark on the road and an 8-10 record on a neutral site
- U-M went 2-0 in night games during the 2024 season after posting a 6-0 mark in 2023

2024 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

- Michigan won the 2024 ReliaQuest Bowl, defeating 11th-ranked Alabama by a 19-13 score. Jordan Marshall was named the game's MVP after setting career highs with 23 carries for 100 yards in his first career start. Dominic Zvada scored 13 of the Wolverines' 19 points on four field goals - 45, 30, 21 and 37 yards - and one PAT. The defense held the Crimson Tide to 260 yards of offense, including just 68 rushing yards as they registered five sacks and three turnovers (2 fumbles, 1 interception).
- U-M faced the NCAA's second toughest schedule, with its opponents compiling a .677 winning percentage (109-52).
- The Wolverines hosted and won all three rivalry trophy games, retaining possession of the Little Brown Jug (Minnesota), Paul Bunyan Trophy (Michigan State) and George Jewett Trophy (Northwestern).
- In addition, Michigan won "The Game" against rival Ohio State, handing the second-ranked team in the country a 13-10 loss. It was U-M's fourth straight win in the series.
- The Maize and Blue were one of the nation's most disciplined teams, listing fifth in the NCAA in fewest penalties (4.0 avg.) and 14th in fewest penalty yards (39.54 avg.).
- The Wolverines finished third in the Big Ten and 20th nationally in time of possession (31:54 avg.); won the time of possession battle in nine of their 13 games.
- Michigan had 9 players (4 defense, 3 offense and 2 special teams) recognized with first, second or third team All-Big Ten accolades and seven Wolverines collected honorable mention honors.
- Dominic Zvada was selected as the Bakken-Andersen Kicker of the Year after leading the Big Ten and setting a U-M record by converting 95.5% of his field goals (21-22); hit 13 straight fields to end the season.
- Zvada connected on a school record 7 field goals over 50 yards (52, 53, 55, 53, 56, 56, 54).
- The program had three players receive recognition as finalists for national awards: DT Mason Graham (Nagurski Trophy and Outland Trophy), TE Colston Loveland (Mackey Award) and LS William Wagner (Mannelly Award).
- Graham and Zvada earned first-team All-America recognition in 2024, with Graham becoming the 89th player in school history to earn consensus All-American honors.
- The defense ranked in the top 25 of seven (7) NCAA categories: rushing defense (5th), fourth downs allowed (8th), total defense (10th), sacks (18th), scoring defense (19th), first downs (19th) and red zone defense (24th).
- U-M's special teams units ranked No. 3 in ESPN's College Football Power Index Efficiency Rankings this season (72.0); finished eighth in the NCAA in kick return defense and was 11th in blocked kicks (2 FGs, 1 punt).

- (28), Cole Sullivan (19), Troy Bowles (14), Chase Taylor (4), Nathaniel Owusu-Boateng (2), John Weidenbach (1) and Zach Ludwig (1)

Sherrone Moore
J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach
University of Oklahoma (2008, B.A., Communications)
12-7 Record at Michigan; 7-5 Big Ten Record

Sherrone Moore is in his second season as head coach of the University of Michigan Football program in 2025. Moore was named the 21st head coach in U-M Football history on January 26, 2024, following six years as a member of the offensive staff. Moore is the first African American head coach in the history of the program.

In his first year leading the Wolverines, U-M won eight games, including its bowl matchup against No. 11 Alabama. Michigan's campaign included wins in all four of its rivalry matchups, including The Game (Ohio State). U-M captured the Paul Bunyan Trophy (Michigan State), the Little Brown Jug (Minnesota), and the George Jewett Trophy (Northwestern). U-M finished with a top-10 defense against the NCAA's second-toughest schedule.

Five players earned All-American honors, including consensus honoree Mason Graham and first-teamer Dominic Zvada. Graham was a finalist for the Outland Trophy and Nagurski Award and Colston Loveland (Mackey Award) and William Wagner (Mannely Award) were also national award finalists. Nine players earned first, second, or third-team All-Big Ten status.

Before he was named head coach, Moore spent three years as the tight ends coach (2018-20), and three years as Donald Graham Offensive Line Coach (2021-23). He was also Sanford Robertson Offensive Coordinator in 2023 after two seasons as co-O.C. (2021-22), leading the Wolverines on the offensive side of the ball during an unprecedented run of success that included three consecutive Big Ten Championships (2021-22-23) and the 2023 National Title.

While Moore was coordinating the offense and coaching the line, U-M averaged 38.4 points, 207.5 rushing yards, 3.52 tackles for loss allowed, and 1.18 sacks allowed per game. The offense was a top-15 scoring unit in all three seasons and the rushing offense was top-15 twice while the unit ranked first or second in team rushing touchdowns in all three years. Under Moore, all five of the offensive line starters earned some form of All-Big Ten honors including six different first-team honorees. U-M also became the first program to win back-to-back Joe Moore Awards (2021-22) honoring the top offensive line in college football. U-M was top-five in TFLs allowed twice and top-30 in sacks allowed in all three seasons.

The line blocked for three straight 1,000-yard backs in Hassan Haskins (1,327 yards, 20 rushing touchdowns, 2021), Blake Corum (1,463, 18, 2022), and Corum again (1,245, 27, 2023). In 2021 and 2022, U-M nearly had a second 1,000-yard back in Corum (952 yards) and Donovan Edwards (991 yards). Moore oversaw the running production of the offensive line as Corum set single-season rushing touchdown (27), total touchdown (28) records in 2023 while he was the only player in FBS to score in every game of the season.

Moore produced four NFL draft picks at tight end (Zach Gentry, fifth round) and offensive line (Olusegun Oluwatimi, fifth; Andrew Stueber, seventh; Ryan Hayes, seventh) as a position coach and helped guide Stueber (second team), Oluwatimi, and Zak Zinter (consensus) to All-American honors, including the Rimington Award winner and Michigan's first Outland Trophy recipient, Oluwatimi (2022).

Moore joined the Wolverine staff after four seasons at Central Michigan (2014-17). He was selected for and participated in the inaugural 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute sponsored by the American Football Coaches Association in January 2018. Working as an offensive coach throughout his career, Moore has worked with productive tight end groups at several stops, and his knowledge of the trenches helped him transition into one of the premier offensive line coaches in the nation.

Six tight ends combined for 119 receptions, 1,611 yards, and 13 touchdowns in Moore's three seasons leading the position group at U-M. Those players had one season with third-team All-Big Ten honors and three seasons with all-conference honorable mention recognition.

Moore mentored the Chippewas tight ends during his four-year stay at CMU (2014-17) and added the duties of assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2017 season. He produced second-team (Ben McCord) and third-team (Tyler Conklin) All-MAC honorees with Conklin earning an NFL Scouting Combine invitation.

Moore spent five seasons at Louisville before joining the Central Michigan staff. He worked as a graduate assistant coach for three seasons (2009-11) before spending the final two years as the Cardinals' tight end coach (2012-13). During Moore's two seasons as a full-time assistant coach, Louisville had a 23-3 record with a BCS bowl appearance and a Big East title in 2012. As a graduate assistant, Moore helped the Cardinals to a pair of bowl appearances and helped develop All-BIG EAST first-team offensive guard Mark Wetterer. Moore also earned his master's degree in sports administration from Louisville.

Moore played two seasons along the offensive line for the University of Oklahoma (2006-07). He played in 14 games at offensive guard and helped the Sooners win two Big 12 Championships and played in two BCS bowl games. Before joining the Sooners, Moore was a two-year starter at Butler County (Kansas) Community College. He was a member of two conference championship teams the posted a 20-3 record. Moore earned second-team all-conference accolades.

Moore earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Oklahoma in 2008. He and his wife, Kelli, were married in 2015. Together, they have two daughters, Shiloh, and Solei.
