QUICK HITS

» U-M is coming off its second conference win of the 2025 season in as many games, defeating Washington, 1-0, on the road Saturday (Sept. 20).

» This season marks the first time Michigan has won its first two Big Ten matchups since 2020, when the Maize and Blue opened the campaign with three straight conference wins (Northwestern, Michigan State, Rutgers.)

» Michigan checks in at No. 5 in the latest United Soccer Coaches Poll, its highest ranking since Dec. 4, 2010 when it finished season ranked fourth in the nation after a run to the College Cup.

» Isaiah Goldson saved all four shots on target to secure his third clean sheet of the 2025 season. The Saturday contest marked the second straight game he has recorded four saves with the other being against Indiana (Sept. 13). For his efforts, Goldson was recognized as the Big Ten and College Soccer News Goalkeeper of the Week.

2025 NOTES AND HEADLINES

STINGY DEFENSE

- Michigan has allowed two or fewer goals in all seven matches this season with three shutouts.
- U-M has conceded just three total goals in the opening half and six scores overall.
- The Wolverines have not given up more than one goal at home and have held opponent to seven shots or fewer in all four home games.
- Michigan ranks second in the Big Ten in goals-against average with a rate of 0.86.

DRAWING CONTACT

- Michigan is tied for the national lead in penalty kick attempts with five.
- The Wolverines have converted four of those five attempts with Quin Rogers converting two, including the most recent try against Washington on Sept. 20.
- Shuma Sasaki has been the main catalyst for the penalties, drawing three fouls in the box.
- U-M is just one of three program to earn five more opportunities from the penalty spot.

SIGNATURE WIN

- Michigan defeated No. 1 Indiana on Sept. 13 by a score of 3-2 at Bill Armstrong Stadium.
- The win marked the first win over a No. 1-ranked team in the history of Michigan men's soccer
- It was U-M's first win in Bloomington since the 2021 campaign and the third win while facing Indiana on the road.
- Michigan has now defeated the Hoosiers in two consecutive matchups, defeating IU, 1-0, in the quarterfinal round of the Big Ten tournament.

WEEKLY HONORS

- Starting goalkeeper Isaiah Goldson earned two weekly awards after his four-save performance against Washington on Sept. 20. The junior was named the goalkeeper of the week by the Big Ten Conference and College Soccer News.
- After the win over Indiana, two Michigan players -- Kyle Pierson and Joao Paulo Ramos -- earned weekly honors.
- Pierson was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week after scoring his second goal of the season against the Hoosiers. The honor marks the first conference weekly recognition of the season for the Maize and Blue and the first of Pierson's career.
- Ramos was named College Soccer News Offensive Player of the Week after his three-point performance in Bloomington. Ramos scored Michigan's opening goal of the contest from the penalty spot and assisted on Pierson's goal.

BALANCED ATTACK

- Through seven games, 14 different players have tallied at least one point with eight players notching three or more points.
- Quin Rogers leads the team with six points on three goals. Rogers secured a brace in the 2-0 win over UC Riverside on Aug. 24, his first two goals since the 2023 season and buried a penalty against Washington on Sept. 20.
- Shuma Sasaki and Kyle Pierson are tied for second on the team with five points. Sasaki has also contributed to both penalty goals by drawing the foul in the box. Pierson scored two goals and assist for the first points of his Michigan career.
- Rounding out the goal scorers is Grayson Elmquist, Raymundo Mendez, Nolan Miller and Mitar Mitrovic, Michael Ramirez and Joao Paulo Ramos. Mendez, Miller and Mitrovic scored their first goals of the year in the 3-1 win over Creighton while Ramirez found the back of the net against Oakland. The tallies marked the first in the Michigan tenures of Mendez and Mitrovic, and the first career goal for Ramirez.

- Matthew Fisher paces the team with two assists while eight other players have notched one helper this season.

WHAT U-M RETURNS

- U-M returns 19 letterwinners and added 12 newcomers to complete its 31-man roster.
- Seven primary starters from the 2024 roster return for 2025, including Michigan's top three defenders in Will Baker, Matthew Fisher and Nolan Miller.
- Isaiah Goldson returns for his third season in net for the Maize and Blue. The junior tallied 67 saves and stopped 78-percent of the shots he faced in 2024.
- All-Big Ten freshman team member Kamau Brame is set for his second season in Ann Arbor. Brame started 12 matches as a defensive midfielder for Michigan in 2024.
- Rounding out the returning starters is Joao Paulo Ramos who notched three points on three assists in his sophomore season in 2024.
- Among the senior class, Oliver Martin is poised to build on a solid 2024 season where he scored three goals in 19 appearances for U-M.

TRIO PICKED AS BIG TEN PLAYERS TO WATCH

- Raymundo Mendez, Nolan Miller and Shuma Sasaki have been named Michigan's Big Ten Players to Watch ahead of the 2025 season.
- Mendez joins the Wolverines from Seattle Pacific where he was named conference player of the year and landed on the first team in 2024.
- Miller is entering his senior season at defender for the Maize and Blue, notching 10 points in three years at U-M.
- Sasaki transferred to Michigan from University of the Cumberland. The graduate student registered 49 points (12 goals, 25 assists) in four years with the Patriots.

MILLER NAMED DEFENDER TO WATCH

- Senior Nolan Miller was named to the United Soccer Coaches Defender to Watch List for 2025.
- Miller has 4,676 minutes at centerback in three seasons for the Maize and Blue.
- The Troy, Mich., native has served on the team leadership council in 2024 and will lead the team again in 2025.
- Last season, Miller scored two goals including the game-tying tally against Wisconsin to send Michigan to the Big Ten Tournament.

2025 NEWCOMERS

- 12 new student-athletes will join the squad for the 2025 season.
- Eight freshmen are set to contribute to the team, including Patrick Los, Nick Nobles and Jake Tatch.
- Los is a TopDrawerSoccer four-star recruit and ranks as the third-best goalkeeper recruit in the country in 2025.
- Nobles and Tatch are both three-star recruits as rated by TopDrawerSoccer. Tatch was named Gatorade California Boys Soccer Player of the Year.
- Four transfers were added to roster as Raymundo Mendez (Seattle Pacific), Mitar Mitrovic (Marquette), Michael Ramirez (Northwestern) and Shuma Sasaki (University of the Cumberland) are set for their first year in Ann Arbor.
