vs. #19 Indiana • Saturday, October 31 • 7 p.m. • Crisler Center (Ann Arbor, Mich.) • B1G+

MICHIGAN WOLVERINES
13-8 (4-6 Big Ten)

vs.

No. 1 NEBRASKA CORNHUSKERS
21-0 (10-0 Big Ten)

No. 19 INDIANA HOOSIERS
12-7 (5-5 Big Ten)

TOP STORYLINES

▶ The University of Michigan volleyball team (13-8, 4-6 Big Ten) will return to Crisler Center for a pair of ranked matchups, facing No. 1-ranked Nebraska for a Maize Out match on Friday (Oct. 30) at 6:30 p.m. and No. 19-ranked Indiana on Saturday (Oct. 31) at 7 p.m. Both matches will be streamed live on B1G+.

▶ Michigan split the weekend on the road last week, sweeping Northwestern on Thursday (Oct. 22) but falling to No. 6 Wisconsin on Sunday (Oct. 25) after taking the first set 25-20. The Wolverines split the previous weekend, taking down Illinois in five sets but dropping a four-set match at Minnesota. In Michigan's last home weekend, U-M defeated Iowa but lost to ranked Oregon. The Wolverines sit in 12th in the Big Ten with a 4-6 record and are 46th in the RPI.

▶ The Wolverines continue to produce offensively, sitting in the top 25 nationally in kills and assists per set, ranking 20th in assists per set (12.95), and 23rd in kills per set (13.79). In total, Michigan has recorded 1,062 kills and 997 assists, both top-10 marks in the Big Ten, and ranks sixth in the conference with a .265 hitting percentage, which currently ranks third all-time in program history.

▶ Ella Demetrician led Michigan in kills in both of last week's contests, including a game-high 20 on Sunday. Continuing her well-rounded campaign, she recorded 17 digs and added three service aces against the Wildcats. Demetrician leads the Big Ten with 319 kills and ranks third in kills per set with 4.14. In conference play, Demetrician has 154, ranking fourth in both kills and kills per set.

▶ Meredith Martin leads the Big Ten in both digs (310) and digs per set (4.03), including a match-high 14 on Sunday, and recorded 22 digs and 12 assists over the two matches last week. The libero ranks third on the team with 88 assists and has contributed five kills and seven service aces in her freshman season. She is 17 digs away from entering the top five.

▶ Weekly Honors: Meredith Martin (B1G Freshman of the Week, 9/14)

▶ Milestone Watch: Morgan Burke (2,947 assists, 53 away from 3000), Meredith Martin (310 digs, 17 away from top five all-time for freshman)

Wolverines Running A Top 25 Offense in Nation

Through nine weeks, the Wolverines hold a top-25 offense nationally ranking 20th in assists per set and 23rd in kills per set. U-M is averaging 13.79 kills and 12.95 assists per set this season while doing so on a .265 hitting percentage good for 28th nationally and eighth in the Big Ten conference. The offense is coached by Kassie Kadera and led by Morgan Burke and Camille Edwards in a 6-2 system. Michigan is seventh in the nation in assists per set among teams running a 6-2 system.

Demetrician Top Five Offensive Conference Player

Ella Demetrician ranks in the Top five in six marks including leading the conference in total kills and total attacks. In conference play, Demetrician ranks fourth in both total kills and kills per set while ranking third in kills per set overall. She has 18 straight matches reaching double-digit kills and has only missed double-digits once in the third game of the season where she tallied nine kills against South Carolina. Demetrician has reached double-digit kills in every Big Ten match including 20 in the most recent match at Wisconsin. The junior has 319 kills on a .252 hitting percentage adding 15 aces, 29 blocks and 185 digs. She leads the Wolverines in kills, ranks second in digs, fourth in aces and sixth in blocks. Demetrician has improved year-over-year and is averaging over 1.2 kills and points per set more than last season on hitting almost 40 points better. She has set career-highs in kills, assists and points and is only five digs and five aces away from matching last season's totals.

Demetrician Averages Year By Year

Stat	2024	2025	2026

Martin Top Three In Digs Per Set in Big Ten

Meredith Martin has played every set as the team's Libero this season totaling 310 digs with a 4.03 dig per set average. Martin ranks first in total digs and second in digs per set on the season in the Big Ten while ranking second in digs and third in digs per set in conference games. The freshman has hit double-digit digs in nine of the 10 Big Ten games and 18 of the 21 matches this season with a season-high of 29. Martin became just the eighth freshman in U-M history to reach 300 digs and is 16 digs away from entering the top five in program history. She is 10th among freshman in digs per set across the NCAA this year. Martin has added 88 assists, seven aces and five kills. She ranks third on the team in assists and sixth in aces. With Martin's next assist she will have the most assists for a freshman Libero/DS in program history.

Gordon Hits 250 Season Kills, Career Year for Junior

Cymarah Gordon is hitting .310 this season with 254 kills ranking second in both marks for the Wolverines. Gordon has 15 double-digit kill matches including six in Big Ten matches after just four total last season. The junior did not play in her first season and found her stride by the end of last season while exploding this year. Gordon has surpassed every counting stat from last year in seven less sets and four less matches including her kills by almost 150. She has improved her blocking in conference play with two or more blocks in six matches including six twice and now has 57 on the season ranking third on the team and has 18 more than fourth place. Gordon ranks 14th in the conference in kills per set averaging 3.30 and has added 0.74 blocks per set for 3.68 points per set ranking second on the team.

Burke Closing In On 3,000 Career Assists

Morgan Burke has tallied double-digit assists this season and reached 500 assists on the season over the weekend at Wisconsin. The senior has played in 107 matches while starting 95 straight and is on track to become the seventh Wolverine to reach 3,000 career assists. Burke sits at 2,947 with a 6.49 assist per set average meaning she is about eight sets away from reaching the milestone. This season, Burke has been U-M's starting setter and led the team in assists in all but two matches including 17 matches with 20-or more assists with seven coming in Big Ten matches. She also leads the team in aces with 29 this year and is one of two Wolverines to break at least 20 aces this season. Burke ranks sixth in the conference in aces overall. She has also added 146 digs this season recording double-digits three times but not since Sept. 11 but has at least five in every Big Ten match. Burke is Michigan's active leader in assists, aces and digs and grew up in Nebraska having won multiple State Championships in the Bob Devaney Center, home of Nebraska volleyball.

Schnichels Three Straight Double Digit Kills Matches

Sydney Schnichels seems to have found her stride recording three straight double-digit kill matches hitting over .200 in all three matches, doing so for just the second time this season. Schnichels has added eight aces, 17 digs and eight blocks in the last three matches along with 41 kills. The senior has 179 kills this season on a .209 hitting percentage ranking third on the team in kills. She has eight double-digit kill games this season with four in Big Ten play and doing so against the first ranked opponent in her career after 13 at Wisconsin. Schnichels transitioned from opposite to outside this season and has improved over the season and now has 119 digs with four or more in every match since Sept. 11. She has set career-highs in every stat this season and ranks second on the team in aces with 23.

Hanes Hitting .422, Passes 100 Kills On Season

Jenna Hanes has been a key contributor for the Wolverines over the past two seasons joining Burke as the only players to start every match in 2025 and 2026. Hanes is hitting .422 this season with just 12 attack errors while recording 107 kills on 225 swings. The junior middle has added 61 blocks ranking second on the team and has reached five or more blocks in four conference matches this season and seven total. Hanes has never had more than two errors in a match and just four attack errors in Big Ten play this season. She has added eight aces, 43 digs and three assists. Last year, Hanes set the program record hitting percentage with at least 300 swings and would rank fourth all-time if she has 75 more swings on her current hitting percentage.

Senyapici Leading Blocker, Found Offense Over Weekend

Ece Senyapici leads the Wolverines with 80 blocks this season with at least two in all but two contests this season. Senyapici is working on her offense and had a good weekend recording 10 kills on 17 swings bringing her season total to 72 on a .258 hitting percentage. The sophomore did not see action last season but has played every set this year. Senyapici has a high of eight blocks doing so at Valparaiso and Iowa and reached five blocks five more times including on Sunday against Wisconsin. She has started to serve for the team and has yet to record an ace while adding 32 digs and three assists. Senyapici is tenth in the Big Ten in total blocks and 15th in blocks per set.

Johnson Quietly Contributing 100-Kill Season

Lydia Johnson hasn't recorded double-digit kills in any match this season but has been a key attacker with at least three kills in all but two matches totaling 111 on the season to rank fourth on the team. Johnson is one of seven to play in every set this season doing so as a rotational opposite hitter. The senior holds a .249 hitting percentage this year while adding 35 blocks, 34 digs and five assists. In her career, Johnson has 354 kills on 949 swings with 16 aces, 102 digs and 129 blocks.

Edwards Setting Up Offense As Second Setter

Camille Edwards has played in every match for the Wolverines this season and 73 of 77 sets as Michigan's second setter in a 6-2. Edwards has tallied 331 assists reaching double-digits in all but one match this season and has 20 or more four times including in a five-set win over Illinois. The junior ranks second on the team in assists trailing only Burke. Edwards has added 18 aces ranking third on the team but has not tallied one in the past four matches. She has also tallied 90 digs with five or more in 10 matches and a career-high of nine. Edwards has 620 assists in her career with 180 digs and 30 aces.

McMillin Serving Sub For Wolverines

Trixie McMillin has seen action in 18 sets across 10 matches including nine of 10 Big Ten contests. McMillin has mostly seen action at the service line and has yet to record an ace or an error through 19 serves. The junior has not tallied a dig or assist yet either but is one-for-one on receptions. In her career, she has played in 53 matches and 153 sets with 75 digs, 13 aces and nine assists.

Brady Three Serves at Wisconsin, First Action Since 10/9

Hannah Brady returned to the court with three serves over two sets at Wisconsin including one that resulted in an overpass kill. The sophomore has recorded 51 serves this year with three aces and five errors. Brady started a few matches at Libero serving for Martin but did not see action since Iowa. She did not play at all last year and recorded an ace in her debut earlier this year. Adding to her aces, Brady has tallied four digs and three assists.

White Serves Twice at Northwestern, Nine Sets Played This Season

Ellie White served twice over the past weekend making her fifth appearance of the season twice as a serving sub and three times as a setter. White has 19 assists this season on 77 sets adding 12 digs in nine sets. She has 198 assists, 68 digs and 18 aces in her three year career.

Greskovics Seeing Action In Wolverines Backcourt

Carly Greskovics has played in 27 sets across 13 matches this year including playing in seven of the 10 Big Ten games, but did not see action over the past weekend. Greskovics totaled 23 digs this year with five assists and one ace. The senior has eight digs in conference play and has helped in serve receive with 42 reception attempts and 38 receptions. Greskovics has played in 45 matches over four seasons with 91 digs, 16 assists and four aces in 109 sets.

Stanton-Parker No Action In Past Two Weekends

Leni Stanton-Parker recorded three kills at UCLA with no errors in just her fourth collegiate match. She did not play as a freshman but made her debut in the season opener this year. Her first impact came at Valparaiso tallying five kills on 16 swings with two digs. Stanton-Parker last played on Oct. 10 vs. Oregon with no kills on two swings. She has eight kills on 24 swings with six digs this season.

All 17 Wolverines Have Seen Action in 2026

This season, all 17 Wolverines have played with six players starting every match and seven players seeing action in every set and nine playing in every match. Five other Wolverines have played in four or more matches while three freshmen have played just once or twice. Kapri Garnett has tallied a kill in both of her matches while Megan Ingersoll and Jaden Jones both played in the final non-conference weekend with Ingersoll recording a kill.

Awards and Honors:

Martin Named Big Ten Freshman of the Week

Meredith Martin had 74 digs over the four matches over the past weekend while tallying back-to-back 20 digs matches to earn All-Tournament team at the Valpo Popcorn Classic on September 7th. Martin averaged 4.63 digs per set over the week which led all Big Ten players and ranked 50th nationally. The freshman became just the fourth Wolverine to earn Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors joining May Pertofsky, Paige Jones, and Mackenzi Welsh. There was just one Libero to win freshman of the Week last year in USC Taylor Deckert.

Hanes With Record Hitting Percentage As Sophomore

Last season, middle blocker Jenna Hanes finished with a .450 hitting percentage setting the highest hitting percentage in program history at a minimum of 300 swings. Hanes tallied 185 kills on 360 attacks while committing 23 errors. She had 15 errorless games in 2026 while never tallying more than two errors in a single game. Only three Wolverines have hit over .400 on 300 or more swings joining Cori Crocker in 2019 and Jess Robinson in 2022.

Wolverines Have Strong Blocking Season

After finishing in the bottom three in the Big Ten in blocks in 2024 and 2025, the Wolverines had a top 10 single season blocks per set mark and a top ten in single season total blocks in program history. The Wolverines averaged 2.41 blocks per set and totaled 291.5 total blocks with 55 solo blocks and 473 block assists. In 2025, U-M averaged 1.99 blocks per set. Serena Nyambio tallied 104 blocks in Big Ten play last season becoming the first Wolverine player in the 25-point rally scoring era to reach that feat. U-M's blocking system was run by Bjarne Huus who started in 2025 and was elevated to Associate Head Coach after the season.

Demetrician To Lead Team After Strong Sophomore Season

Ella Demetrician enters her third season at U-M and her first as the primary outside hitter following Jacobs' graduation. She started 26 games and played in 30 of 33 matches last season, ranking second on the team with 284 kills (2.87/set) and 326 points (3.29/set). She hit .214 on 700 swings while adding 20 aces and 41 blocks. She also ranked third in digs per set with 190 digs and recorded 15 double-digit kill matches and seven double-doubles. As a freshman, she played 94 sets and had 185 kills while hitting .144. One of two Wolverines selected for Big Ten Media Days, Demetrician will be a team leader. Against Pittsburgh, she had 16 kills on 46 swings, six digs and 41 receptions.

Hanes Coming Off Record Setting Sophomore Season

Jenna Hanes played just five sets as a freshman before starting all 33 matches last season and setting a U-M single-season record with a .450 hitting percentage. She totaled 185 kills and 23 errors on 360 swings while adding 19 solo blocks and 99 block assists for a 1.01 blocks-per-set average. Hanes ranked second in blocks per set, fourth in points per set and sixth in kills per set while adding 14 aces. The second middle last season behind Serena Nyambio, Hanes will now become the team's primary middle blocker. In two exhibitions, she had 14 kills, three errors, seven digs and five blocks.

Burke Returns For Senior Season. Ranks Eighth In Career Assists

Morgan Burke has started every game the past two seasons and is the only returning player to do so. As the lone setter in 2024, she recorded 1,168 assists (9.98/set). In U-M's 6-2 system last season, she still started every game and led the team with 791 assists, recording double-digit assists in every match and 20 or more in 20 matches. She set a career high with 56 assists against Iowa and added 11 double-doubles and 241 digs, second on the team. She started both exhibitions with 52 assists, 16 digs and one ace over nine sets.

Schnichels Primed For Breakout In 2026 Season, Transitions To Outside Hitter

Sydney Schnichels transferred from Minnesota before the 2025 season and played in 16 matches and 44 sets for Michigan. She recorded 38 kills on 129 swings while adding four assists, 13 digs and 15 blocks, with a season-best seven kills against Purdue. After primarily playing opposite last season, Schnichels will shift to outside hitter following Jacobs' departure. A former top-20 recruit and the No. 1 player in Minnesota, she was also an All-American, Academic All-American and AVCA Best and Brightest First Team selection in high school. She will look to take a major step forward as Michigan's second outside hitter. In two exhibitions, she had 19 kills on 54 swings, 18 digs and two aces.

Gordon Strong Redshirt Freshman Campaign, Ready for Next Step Forward

Cymarah Gordon returned from an early freshman-season injury and totaled 129 kills in 2025. She recorded four double-digit kill matches, including two in the final four matches, while adding 56 blocks. Gordon played in 84 sets and hit .242 while contributing as an opposite hitter. She got her first opportunity seven matches into the season and recorded 10 kills and two blocks against 26 attacks. Gordon led Michigan with 24 kills and three blocks against Notre Dame in an exhibition after recording eight kills against Pittsburgh.

Johnson Back For Senior Season, Ranked Fifth On Team in Hitting Percentage

Lydia Johnson returns for her senior season after a strong 2025 campaign. She played in 30 of 33 matches and 103 of 121 sets, totaling 218 points on 183 kills, 65 blocks and two aces while hitting .298. She ranked fifth in kills and third in blocks behind the two middles. Johnson will look to retain her opposite hitter role in the 6-2 system while competing with Gordon for the starting spot. She had 18 kills across the two exhibitions.

Senyapici U-22 Experience Over The Summer, Ready To Play As Redshirt Freshman

Ece Senyapici did not play as a freshman but is poised for action after gaining international experience and following Serena Nyambio's graduation. A Turkish youth international, Senyapici debuted with the U-22 Turkiye team at the Shanghai Future Star Tournament and U-22 European Championships. She previously played at the U16, U17, U19 and U20 levels, including helping Turkiye win the 2024 U20 European Championship. At the U-22 Championships, she played six sets across three matches with three kills and three blocks. Senyapici will begin the season as one of U-M's two starting middles. She added nine kills and five blocks in two exhibitions.

Martin Continues Family Tradition, Top 100 Recruit of Freshman Class

Meredith Martin arrives in Ann Arbor as a Top 100 recruit and continues a family legacy at Michigan. The Northville, Michigan, native attended Marian High School and played for Legacy Volleyball Club. All three of her siblings attended Michigan, while her father earned an MBA from the Ross School of Business. Martin was an AAU All-American, won the 2024 Triple Crown and enters as the No. 70 recruit and sixth at her position by PrepDig. She will compete with Greskovics, McMillin and Brady for libero and defensive specialist opportunities.

Edwards Hopes For Healthy Season, Competing For Second Setter Spot

Camille Edwards debuted against Delaware with 11 assists and five digs before an injury ended her freshman season. She returned last season and totaled 278 assists (4.41/set) in 63 sets and 18 matches, recording double-digit assists in 15 matches and a season-high 26 against Rutgers. She led Michigan with 18 assists in the NCAA Tournament win over Xavier while adding an ace and four digs. Edwards also recorded 12 aces and 85 digs and will compete for the second setter role. In two exhibitions, she totaled 49 assists, 19 digs and four aces.

White Battling For Second Setter Spot, Hopes for Less Injuries in 2026

Ellie White was a two-time Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year and has played in 20 matches across her first two seasons at Michigan. Injuries limited her late last season, but she recorded double-digit assists in her first 10 matches and had a career-high 18 at Virginia. She added 18 aces, including four against Marshall, and ranked fifth on the team despite playing 60 fewer sets than the player ahead of her. White will compete with Edwards for the second setter spot. She did not play in the exhibitions but led the setters with 29 assists and an ace in the Maize and Blue Scrimmage.

Greskovics Hoping To Earn Libero Jersey In Senior Season

Carly Greskovics has played in 32 matches and 82 sets across her first three seasons. Last season, she appeared in eight matches and 18 sets, primarily as a serving specialist, while also contributing defensively, including four digs at Michigan State and a key dig against Iowa. Her best season came in 2024, when she recorded 33 assists, six digs, one ace and one kill. The senior will compete for the libero role while also providing defensive and serving depth. She did not play in the exhibitions but recorded seven digs in the Maize and Blue Scrimmage.

McMillin 60 Sets as Sophomore, Compete for Libero Jersey

Trixie McMillin will compete for the libero jersey after playing in 18 matches and 60 sets last season. She played in 25 matches and 75 sets as a freshman and has totaled 75 career digs, nine assists and 13 aces. McMillin played in 13 of 20 Big Ten matches last season, including matches against Iowa, Northwestern, Penn State, Purdue and Rutgers that went five sets. She will battle for the libero role while contributing in the back row regardless of the jersey. Against Notre Dame, she recorded seven digs with one reception error on 15 chances.

Brady Hoping To Play After First Year, Family Legacy In A2

Hannah Brady did not see action as a freshman in 2025. She holds her high school's career digs record with 1,207 and was a four-year starting libero at Oaks Christian High School, earning First Team All-League honors and AVCA Phenom recognition. Brady comes from a sports family that includes a mother who played softball at Fresno State, a sister who was an All-American at UCLA and uncle Tom, who played football at Michigan. She did not play in the exhibitions but led the four liberos with 10 digs in the Maize and Blue Scrimmage.

Stanton-Parker Making Strides, Ready To Play

Leni Stanton-Parker did not see action as a freshman but improved throughout fall practices and saw spring action to prepare for this season. She is from Washington, D.C., and finished high school at IMG Academy after helping Langley win a 2023 state championship. She earned First Team All-State honors that season with 173 kills and 21 blocks and later earned IMG Academy MVP honors. She was also a five-year USA National Team Development Program invitee. Stanton-Parker will compete at outside hitter. Against Notre Dame, she had 10 kills and a .182 hitting percentage, while adding seven kills and four digs in the Maize and Blue Scrimmage.

Jones Heads North, Conference Player of Year in Florida

Jaden Jones joins Michigan as one of four freshmen after graduating with honors from Tampa Bay Technical High School. The reigning 6A Western Conference Player of the Year, Jones earned First Team honors in 2026 after Second Team honors in 2024 and 2025. She will provide depth at middle blocker. Jones did not play in the exhibitions but recorded seven kills in the Maize and Blue Scrimmage.

Ingersoll Helps Team To AAU Junior National Championship

Megan Ingersoll comes from Birmingham, Alabama, and helped her team win the AAU Junior National Championship in the spring. She recorded 536 kills as a junior, including a 35-kill match, while earning two All-County First Team honors and one All-State Second Team honor. She was ranked among the nation's top 150 by PrepVolleyball.com. Ingersoll will provide depth at outside hitter and compete for playing time. She recorded two kills and an ace at Notre Dame before adding five kills and nine digs in the Maize and Blue Scrimmage.

Garnett Brings Family Lineage After High School in L.A.

Kapri Garnett comes from an athletic family, with her father Kevin Garnett being an NBA Hall-of-Famer, 15-time All-Star, NBA champion and MVP. Garnett attended Campbell Hall, which also produced several notable athletes and celebrities, including the Holiday brothers and Olson sisters. She earned First Team Gold Coast League honors in 2025 and helped her team to a CIF Division championship. Garnett averaged 2.9 kills per set with 209 kills as a senior and was named a standout at the Viewpoint Tourney. She will learn from Gordon and Johnson at opposite. Garnett did not play in the exhibitions but recorded 10 kills on 22 attacks in the Maize and Blue Scrimmage.

Coaching Staff for 2026 Sees A Change From 2025

Head Coach Erin Virtue returns for her fourth season at the helm and is joined by Bjarne Huus, Kassie Kadera and newcomer Jason Gibbs. Huus and Kadera enter their second seasons with the program in adjusted roles, while Gibbs replaces Nick Clark following his three seasons at Michigan. Virtue has compiled a 47-46 record over three seasons, improving from seven wins in her first year to 18 in year two and 22 last season, including an 11-9 conference mark. Huus, promoted to Associate Head Coach in the spring, works with the Wolverines' blocking unit after helping Michigan post one of the top 10 blocking seasons in program history. Kadera, now General Manager/Assistant Coach, works directly with the setters and offense after helping Michigan set a program record for hitting percentage in her first year. Gibbs joins U-M after two seasons at Arkansas State, where he helped the program win the 2024 Sun Belt regular-season championship and earn an NCAA Tournament berth in 2025. He will work with the Wolverines' passers and liberos. The support staff remains unchanged with Kenzie Shand returning as director of operations and Matt Adams as performance analyst.

Three Key Losses From 2025 NCAA Tournament Season

After being the only Big Ten team to return its leaders in kills, assists, digs and blocks per set in 2025, Michigan returns just one of those four statistical leaders this season. The Wolverines lost Allison Jacobs, Serena Nyambio, Maddi Cuchran, Amalia Simmons and Jacyn Bamis from last year's 22-11 team to graduation. Jacobs earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention, AVCA All-North Region First Team and unanimous First Team All-Big Ten honors after recording career highs of 473 kills, 34 aces and 63 blocks while contributing 227 digs and 45 assists. A three-time captain, she started every match and recorded 25 double-digit kill performances. Nyambio led Michigan with 151 blocks and became the first Wolverine since 2003 to record 100 or more Big Ten blocks in a season. She added 220 kills while hitting .394 and finished third on the team in points. Cuchran started and played every set over the past two seasons as Michigan's libero. She totaled 408 digs, 152 assists and 27 aces as a senior while recording 24 double-digit dig performances and surpassing 1,000 career digs. Simmons appeared in 41 matches over three seasons, totaling 234 kills, 88 digs and 41 blocks, while Bamis recorded seven kills and one block in three matches as a graduate transfer. Jacobs, Nyambio and Cuchran leave significant production for the Wolverines to replace in 2026.

Three Named to 2026 Leadership Council

With the graduation of the entirety of last year's leadership group, three new faces were selected to lead the team this season after a team and coaching staff vote. Seniors Morgan Burke, Lydia Johnson and Sydney Schnichels were selected to the team's leadership committee. Burke was a rising leader last season learning under last year's council. Burke and Johnson enter their fourth season with the Wolverines while Schnichels starts her second season after time at Minnesota.

Demetrician and Schnichels Go To Big Ten Media Day

Ella Demetrician and Sydney Schnichels represented the Wolverines at the fifth Big Ten Media Days, each for their first times. Demetrician and Schnichels along with Head Coach Erin Virtue started the day live on Big Ten Network before talking with other media outlets, making TikToks and taking pictures. This year was the first year with two locations with stations at the Big Ten Network offices and the InterContinental Hotel.

Second Straight Season With Double Digit Crisler Matches

Michigan will host 11 matches at Crisler Center this season including seven of eight home conference games, two matches in the Big Ten/SEC Challenge and two other non-conference games. This year marks the second consecutive season that U-M will host double-digit contests there, with last season being the first time hosting double-digit matches. In 2025, the Wolverines sold out Crisler for the first time in program history with 12,707 fans against Nebraska becoming just the fourth women's event to sell out the Center. In 2024, Michigan hosted nine matches at Crisler Center, up from eight in the first season under Virtue.

Volleyball Growing Across NCAA, Includes Michigan

The Wolverines had their best attended season in program history last year and reached an average of over 3,000 and a total of over 40,000 for the first time in program history. The Wolverines have been around a top 20 attended program over the past five seasons and sold out Crisler for the first time in program history last season with it becoming just the fourth time a women's program has accomplished that.

Weekend Recaps

Wolverines Split Road Weekend, Sweep Northwestern, Force No. 6 Wisconsin To Four

Michigan volleyball split its Big Ten road matches, sweeping Northwestern before falling to No. 6 Wisconsin in four sets to move to 13-8 overall and 4-6 in conference play. Against Northwestern, Ella Demetrician led the offense with 11 kills on .500 hitting, while Sydney Schnichels contributed 10 kills and six of Michigan's 10 service aces. Jenna Hanes and Ece Senyapici combined for 10 error-free kills as the Wolverines controlled the match with efficient offense and strong serving. Michigan then claimed the opening set against Wisconsin before the Badgers rallied to win the next three. Demetrician tied for the match high with 20 kills, Schnichels added 13 kills and five blocks, and Meredith Martin recorded a match-high 14 digs in the loss.

Michigan Falls To Ranked Minnesota, Beats Illinois in Five Sets on Road Trip

Michigan volleyball split its Big Ten road matches, falling to No. 21 Minnesota in four sets before earning a five-set victory over Illinois to improve to 12-7 overall and 3-5 in conference play. Against Minnesota, Cymarah Gordon and Ella Demetrician led the offense with double-digit kills, Demetrician added 16 digs for a double-double, and Meredith Martin recorded a match-high 20 digs. Michigan then rebounded against Illinois behind a career performance from Sydney Schnichels, who totaled 18 kills on .519 hitting, three blocks, and an ace. Demetrician and Gordon added 12 and 10 kills, respectively, while Jenna Hanes contributed six blocks and error-free hitting. In the deciding fifth set, a key ace from Morgan Burke helped Michigan before Demetrician delivered the winning kill.

Wolverines Split Home Weekend, Win Over Iowa, Fall to Ranked Oregon

Michigan volleyball split its home Big Ten matches, defeating Iowa in four sets before falling to Oregon in four sets. Against Iowa, Ella Demetrician recorded 17 kills and 12 digs, Cymarah Gordon added 16 kills on .500 hitting and six blocks, and Sydney Schnichels contributed 12 kills as Michigan earned its first home conference win. Demetrician again led the offense with 17 kills against Oregon, while Gordon added 10 kills and four blocks and Schnichels posted a team-high six blocks. After losing the first two sets to the Ducks, Michigan rallied to win the third and held two set points in the fourth, but Oregon completed a late comeback to secure the match.

Michigan Splits West Coast Trip, Picks Up First Big Ten Win vs. USC

Michigan volleyball split its West Coast trip, defeating Southern California in four sets before falling to UCLA in straight sets to move to 10-5 overall and 1-3 in Big Ten play. Against USC, Ella Demetrician and Cymarah Gordon combined for 33 kills, Morgan Burke contributed 33 assists, and Jenna Hanes recorded six blocks as the Wolverines earned their first conference victory. Michigan then struggled in the opening set against UCLA but pushed the Bruins beyond 25 points in each of the final two sets. Demetrician led Michigan with 14 kills, Gordon, Hanes, and Lydia Johnson combined for 21 kills with only four errors, and Meredith Martin collected a match-high 19 digs.

Wolverines Suffer Back-To-Back Defeats To Open Big Ten Action

Michigan volleyball dropped its first two Big Ten matches at Crisler Center, falling in four sets to No. 14 Penn State and in straight sets to undefeated Washington. The Wolverines won a competitive opening set against Penn State, 25-23, but the Nittany Lions controlled the next three sets; Cymarah Gordon led Michigan with 16 kills, while Meredith Martin recorded a career-high 29 digs. Against Washington, Michigan held leads and mounted late rallies but narrowly lost each set, with Ella Demetrician delivering a match-high 18 kills on a .353 hitting percentage. The losses move U-M to 9-4 and 0-2 Big Ten record.

Michigan Ends Non-Conference Play With Three Wins Including Two Sweeps

Michigan volleyball closed non-conference play with three victories, defeating Eastern Michigan in four sets before sweeping Cornell in consecutive matches to improve to 9-2. Ella Demetrician led the Wolverines throughout the stretch, totaling 55 kills and recording double-doubles against both Eastern Michigan and Cornell in the finale. Sydney Schnichels earned her first career double-double against Eastern Michigan, while Cymarah Gordon was a consistent offensive and blocking presence. Michigan combined efficient hitting, strong serving from Morgan Burke, and solid defense at the net to control both Cornell matches, finishing non-conference action on a three-match winning streak.

Maize and Blue Split Weekend In Tampa Falling In Ranked Contest

Michigan volleyball split its two matches at the South Florida Invitational, falling to No. 11 TCU in a competitive four-set contest before sweeping host South Florida to improve to 6-2. Cymarah Gordon starred against TCU with a career-high 22 kills and a .538 hitting percentage, while Morgan Burke matched her career high with six aces and added a double-double of 24 assists and 11 digs. Against South Florida, Ella Demetrician led Michigan with 14 kills, Sydney Schnichels added 11 kills on .500 hitting and eight digs, and Gordon contributed 10 kills. After overcoming deficits in the first two sets, the Wolverines controlled the closing stretch of the third to complete the sweep.

Wolverines Win Valpo Popcorn Classic, Strong Weekends from Demetrician & Martin

Michigan volleyball earned two victories at the Valpo Popcorn Classic, sweeping Cincinnati in three closely contested sets before defeating Valparaiso in four sets to improve to 5-1. Ella Demetrician led the Wolverines throughout the tournament, recording double-doubles in both matches and earning Most Valuable Player honors after posting 21 kills, 16 digs, and five blocks against Valparaiso. Cymarah Gordon contributed 19 kills and four blocks in the finale, while Meredith Martin surpassed 20 digs in both matches and joined Gordon on the All-Tournament Team. Michigan also received strong contributions from Lydia Johnson, Jenna Hanes, Camille Edwards and Ece Senyapici, using balanced offense, tough serving, and strong blocking to secure both wins.

Michigan Splits First Ever Big Ten/SEC Challenge, First Loss Against South Carolina

Michigan volleyball split its two matches in the Allstate Big Ten/SEC Challenge, surrendering a two-set lead in a narrow five-set loss to South Carolina before rebounding with a four-set victory over LSU to improve to 3-1. Cymarah Gordon led the Wolverines in both matches, totaling 33 kills and eight blocks, while Jenna Hanes delivered 14 error-free kills on a .737 hitting percentage against South Carolina. Morgan Burke recorded double-doubles in both contests, and Meredith Martin anchored the defense while adding her first career kill against the Gamecocks. In the LSU victory, Ella Demetrician contributed 14 kills, while Sydney Schnichels recorded nine kills, eight digs, three blocks, and three aces—including two consecutive aces to complete Michigan's match-clinching 7-0 run.

Wolverines Sweep Sharks and Hurricanes In Opening Weekend

Michigan volleyball opened its season with consecutive home sweeps over LIU and Miami, improving to 2-0 behind efficient offense and strong defense. Ella Demetrician led the Wolverines with 12 kills in each match, while Sydney Schnichels added 11 kills against LIU and Cymarah Gordon recorded 11 kills on a .421 hitting percentage against Miami. Setters Morgan Burke and Camille Edwards directed an attack that hit .475 in the opener and .329 the following day, while Meredith Martin anchored the defense with 14 digs against Miami. Ece Senyapici also provided five block assists against the Hurricanes as Michigan used strong serving, decisive scoring runs, and balanced play to win all six sets.

ERIN VIRTUE • 4TH YEAR

60-54 OVERALL
60-54 AT MICHIGAN
28-42 BIG TEN

Erin Virtue was announced as the seventh head coach in Michigan volleyball history on Jan. 17, 2023. She returns to Ann Arbor after spending five seasons (2011-15) with the Maize and Blue as recruiting and offensive coordinator.

In her first season with the program, Virtue led the team to a 7-22 record and a 5-15 conference record. The Wolverines won four of their last nine matches including a win over Ohio State. In her second season as head coach, Virute coached the team to a 18-13 record and a 8-12 conference record. U-M finished 10th in the Big Ten and two Wolverines earned Big Ten honors including Allison Jacobs earning first team honors. The Wolverines continued to grow under Coach Virtue in year three going 22-11 and earning the first NCAA Tournament berth since 2021. Jacobs earned All-American honorable mention honors while earning first team All-Region and All-Big Ten honors under Coach Virtue while Serena Nyambio earned second team All-Big Ten honors.

Virtue is a member of the USA Women's National Team program, where she serves as offensive coordinator. Since 2019, she also is the director of the USA National Team Development Program, where she oversees all U15-U23 development programs for indoor and beach programs for both boys and girls. She served as the offensive coordinator and setters coach for the Women's National Team that earned a Gold Medal in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics and a Silver Medal in the 2024 Paris Olympics.

Virtue served as Michigan's recruiting and offensive coordinator from 2011-15, coinciding with a run of four NCAA Tournament appearances, including two Sweet 16s and one Final Four appearance. The 2012 Wolverines tallied seven victories over top-25 opponents en route to a modern-day school-record 27 wins and a Final Four appearance.

Michigan teams won a combined 100 matches during Virtue's time in Ann Arbor with nine All-America selections, and Virtue coordinated five recruiting classes that ranked among the nation's top 20.

She coached senior setter Lexi Dannemiller in each of her four seasons with the Wolverines. Dannemiller, a six-time Big Ten Setter of the Week and an All-Big Ten Freshman Team selection in 2011, ended her career second in assists in the U-M record book (5,321) while helping the Wolverines to a national semifinal appearance in 2012. In her first season at Michigan, Virtue helped recruit the 12th-best class in the country, according to PrepVolleyball.com. Virtue also is a three-time recipient of the "30 Under 30" award, presented by the American Volleyball Coaches Association to honor up-and-coming coaching talents at all levels. She is one of three to earn the honor on three occasions.

Following her time at Michigan, Virtue spent three years (2016-18) as the associate head coach at Northwestern.

Prior to her first stint with the Wolverines, Virtue spent four seasons (2007-2010) at Cincinnati, where she helped the Bearcats to a 101-36 record. She was responsible for coaching the setters and liberos, mentoring setter Annie Fesl, who ended her career with the second most assists in program history (5,746), and three All-Big East selections. Virtue helped put together top-30 recruiting classes in 2008 and 2009, according to PrepVolleyball.com, while helping the Bearcats earn "Highest Honorable Mention" honors from the website for their 2010 class.

Virtue started her coaching career in 2006, spending that season at Loyola (Chicago) working with the setters while handling recruiting and training organization before joining Cincinnati.

Prior to her coaching career, Virtue was a standout volleyball player at the University of Illinois (2001-05). She helped lead the Fighting Illini to a spot in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2003, earning All-Big Ten and honorable mention All-America accolades. During her time at Illinois, she also participated with the USA National A2 program during the summer of 2004 and was a coach at the USA A2 camp in 2006.

After graduating from Illinois in 2005 with a degree in kinesiology, Virtue trained with U.S. national team for a year (2005-06) before joining the coaching ranks.

Bjarne Huus Associate Head Coach

2nd Season at Michigan/1st as Associate Head Coach

Bjarne Huus joined the Wolverines staff after two years as a coach at Long Beach State and now enters his second season at Michigan and his first as Associate Head Coach.

In his first season with Michigan, Huus worked with the defense and blockers and helped U-M to a 22-11 record. Huus helped Serena Nyambio to a 100-block conference season, the first for Michigan in the 25-point rally scoring era, and a second team All-Big Ten selection. U-M finished in the top half in the Big Ten in blocks and blocks per set after finishing in the bottom three in both categories in the prior season.

Huus was elevated into the Associate Head Coach position prior to the 2024 season after joining the staff in March of 2023, as the team's assistant and mental performance coach. In his first season with the team, Long Beach State posted a 21-10 overall record, recording the team's first 20-win season since 2016 and reaching the championship match of the first-ever Big West Championship tournament.

Huus, a Long Beach State alumni, returns to the Beach after playing professionally overseas, playing on Norway's National Team, and serving as the head coach for the Norwegian Girl's Youth National Team in the Nordic Championship U17 in 2022.

Huus began his Long Beach State career in 2015 and went on to play four years with the LBSU Men's Volleyball team culminating with him leading the squad to the 2018 NCAA National Championship. While at the Beach, Huus helped LBSU capture the 2017 MPSF and 2018 Big West Conference Titles. In three of four years, his Long Beach State squads advanced to the Final Four.

Kassie Kadera General Manger/Assistant Coach

2nd Season at Michigan/1st as General Manager

Kassie Kadera joined the University of Michigan Volleyball coaching staff in February 2025 and enters her first season as Assistant Coach and Recruiting Coordinator under Coach Virtue.

In her first season, Kadera was responsible for the offense and helped the Wolverines to a 22-11 record. The Wolverine offense set a program record for hitting percentage at .276 while primary setter Morgan Burke recorded double-digit assists in every match with a career high of 56.

Kadera joins after four seasons at University of Memphis Volleyball coaching staff after joining in July 2021. After three seasons at Eastern Michigan University, Kadera became the Associate Head Coach at Memphis where the Tigers tallied 54 wins in four seasons with two players earning AAC second team honors.

While at Eastern Michigan, Kadera served as the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach for the Eagles, as she navigated the program through the Covid-19 pandemic from both recruiting and travel perspectives. She specialized in working with the setters.

Prior to her time with the Eagles, Kadera was the head coach at Walsh University, an NCAA DII school in Canton, Ohio. After she joined Walsh University as an Assistant Coach for the 2014 season, the was promoted to the Head coach for the 2015-2018 campaigns. In 2018, Kadera led Walsh to its first ever East Division title and second conference tournament appearance. Kadera also spent time with Maverick Volleyball Club, Xtreme Volleyball Club, and Nova Juniors, where she was responsible for training the setters. Kadera broke into coaching as a volunteer assistant with the University of Akron in 2012.

On the court, Kadera was a four-year starter at setter for the University of Toledo from 2008-2011. A three-time co-captain of the Rockets, she ranked third in the MAC in assists per set in 2008, 2010, and 2011 and led the conference in 2009. Kadera earned All-MAC Second Team honors in 2009, 2010, and 2011 and was a seven-time All-Tournament Team selection. A graduate with a Bachelors Degree in Sport Management at Toledo, Kadera ranks second in program history in career assists with 4,853.

Jason Gibbs Assistant Coach

1st Season at Michigan

Jason Gibbs enters his first year with the Michigan volleyball program as an assistant coach, primarily working with the passers and liberos.

Gibbs joins Michigan after serving two seasons as an assistant coach at Arkansas State. With the Redwolves, he worked with the passers and helped the team clinch the Sun Belt regular-season championship in 2024, the program's first since 2016. In 2025, Arkansas State won the A-Sun Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Tournament before falling to Baylor in the first round. Last season, the Redwolves averaged 14.48 digs per set with a .927 reception percentage. Prior to Arkansas State, Gibbs spent one season at his alma mater, Lewis University, as an assistant coach for the men's program.

As a player, Gibbs competed at Lewis University for five years, appearing in 81 matches and helping lead the Flyers to two NCAA Final Fours, two MIVA regular-season titles and two MIVA Tournament championships. He primarily served as a libero, recording 403 career digs and earning MIVA Defensive Player of the Week honors three times. Gibbs also brings international experience, having represented the USA Beach U17 and U19 National Teams. He earned gold medals at the U17 and U19 USAV Beach High Performance Championships and competed at the 2018 U19 FIVB Beach World Championships in Nanjing, China.

He earned his bachelor's degree in organizational communication from Lewis University.
