GAME INFORMATION

Television Coverage
CBS will televise the game to a national audience. Brad Nessler (play-by-play), Charles Davis (color) and Jenny Dell (sideline) will call the game.

Radio Coverage
Doug Karsch (play-by-play), Jon Jansen (color) and Jason Avant (sideline) will call the action on the LEARFIELD Michigan Sports Network. Anchored by WCSX (94.7 FM) in Detroit, the Michigan Radio Network is comprised of 30 affiliate stations in Michigan and Ohio (see page 3).

147th Season of Michigan Football
The 2026 season marks the 147th year of intercollegiate football for the University of Michigan football program. The Wolverines have an NCAA-leading 1,026 victories, claimed 45 Big Ten Championships and won 12 national titles since the inception of the program in 1879.

Wolverines and Bruins
Michigan and Oregon will face each other for the 12th time this Saturday at Michigan Stadium. This will be the initial meeting between the two schools as Big Ten Conference opponents. The Wolverines lead the all-time series, 8-3, and will meet for the first time on the gridiron since 2000. Michigan has a 5-1 record against UCLA at Michigan Stadium, including victories in the last two meetings (1990 and 1996).

Last Meeting vs. UCLA
The 14th-ranked Bruins defeated the third-ranked Wolverines, 23-20, in temperatures that eclipsed 100 degrees at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena (Sept. 16, 2000). Anthony Thomas led the offensive production for the Wolverines, gaining 182 yards on 24 carries and scoring on a 68-yard run.

THE 2026 SEASON

2026 Schedule Notes

• The Wolverines play one of college football's toughest schedules in 2026, with their opposition compiling a .620 winning percentage in 2025

• Six of the Wolverines' foes were ranked in the preseason top 25: Ohio State (1st), Oregon (2nd), Indiana (6th), Oklahoma (9th), Penn State (17th) and Iowa (22nd)

• U-M is in the midst of playing eight home games for the eighth time this century, joining the 2024, 2022, 2016, 2011, 2009, 2007 and 2005 campaigns

• Five opponents won 10-plus games in 2025, led by national champion Indiana (15-0); Oregon (13-2), Ohio State (12-2), Oklahoma (10-3) and Western Michigan (10-4)

• Michigan's 12 foes in 2026 compiled a 98-60 overall record (.620) and a 60-45 mark (.571) in conference games during the 2025 season

• The Wolverines are one of 13 FBS schools not playing an FCS opponent this season; the others are Fresno State, Hawaii, Michigan State, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Oklahoma, Penn State, Texas, Tulane, UCLA, UNLV and USC

• Michigan played two rivalry trophy games during the season, not including its annual battle with Ohio State in "The Game" to end the regular season: Little Brown Jug (Minnesota; L, 20-14) and Paul Bunyan Trophy (Michigan State; L, 6-15)

• Eight of the Wolverines' 12 opponents played in bowl games during the 2026 season

• Four of those teams played in the CFP 12-team playoff: Indiana, Oregon, Ohio State and Oklahoma

• Six of the nine Big Ten opponents played in the postseason -- Indiana (CFP National Champions), Oregon (CFP), Ohio State (CFP), Iowa (ReliaQuest), Minnesota (Rate) and Penn State (Pinstripe) -- while non-conference foes Oklahoma (CFP/home game) and Western Michigan (Myrtle Beach) also participated in bowl action

Michigan Unranked in the National Poll

• U-M heads into the matchup with fourth-ranked UCLA unranked in both national polls

• The Wolverines will face six teams ranked in the preseason top 25 rankings this fall

• The Maize and Blue finished 18th in the 2025 College Football Playoff rankings; listed No. 21 (AP) and No. 22 (AFCA) in the other final polls

• The Wolverines have been ranked for 123 of their last 150 games dating back to the start of the 2015 season

• Michigan has been ranked in the Associated Press national polls 945 times, the second-most of any program in college football

• The Wolverines had been listed in the national rankings for 71 of the past 88 polls dating back to third game of the 2021 season; had a string of 54 straight rankings snapped in 2024

• U-M listed in the top 10 of the polls for 45 straight rankings which was its longest string in more than 20 years (2021-24); 34 of those rankings the Wolverines listed in the top 5

KYLE WHITTINGHAM

J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Head Football Coach
Brigham Young University (1984)
5-5 Record at Michigan; 182-93 Career Record

Kyle Whittingham was named the 22nd head football coach in the 146-year history of the University of Michigan football program on Dec. 26, 2025. Whittingham signed a five-year contract with the Wolverines that runs through the 2030 season.

Whittingham comes to Ann Arbor after finishing his 21st season as Utah's head coach in 2025 and his 32nd overall season with the Utes. He was the program's head coach since December 2004 and was a member of the coaching staff since 1994.

Whittingham is Utah's all-time wins leader (177); ranks third among all active FBS head coaches and third among head coaches who remained at the same school. He finished with a 177-88 (.668) record at Utah. The Utes had a winning record in 18 of his 21 seasons as head coach and won 10-plus games in a season on eight occasions (2008, 2009, 2010, 2015, 2019, 2021, 2022 and 2025).

His teams performed at a high level in the postseason, winning 11 bowl games (11-6), which ranks among the top four active coaches. He has led Utah to 11 different bowl destinations during his tenure, including two Rose Bowls, one Fiesta Bowl, one Sugar Bowl and the 15th-ranked Utes will face the Nebraska Cornhuskers in the Las Vegas Bowl for the fifth time in his career (Dec. 31, 3:30 pm).

He is the second-longest tenured active head football coach at the NCAA's Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS), trailing only Iowa's Kirk Ferentz.

Whittingham led Utah to three conference championships including an undefeated 2008 season capped by a Sugar Bowl win over Alabama. He earned three national Coach of the Year awards, including the AFCA and Bear Bryant Awards in 2008 and the Bobby Dodd Trophy in 2019.

Whittingham is credited with recruiting top players and developing their fullest potential. His players achieved great success on and off the field during their time in Salt Lake City. He had 35 players earn All-America selection, including 17 of those who earned selection from the major award associations, and 10 of whom were either consensus or unanimous honorees. Players also earned 105 first-team all-conference awards, including 60 in the Utes' 15 seasons at the Power conference level. In addition, eight of those individuals were named conference player of the year. In the classroom, six Utes earned Academic All-America honors and 400 academic all-conference accolades were received by Willingham's players.

Utah's success on the field carried over to the NFL as Whittingham developed NFL talent on a yearly basis. The Utes had 31 selections from 2017-25, which ranks as the most among current Big 12 schools.

Whittingham coached 391 games during his 32 seasons at Utah, contributing to a record 262 wins. He spent 11 seasons as an assistant coach with the program before being elevated to head coach in 2004. Whittingham joined the staff as defensive line coach in 1994 and was promoted to defensive coordinator starting with the 1995 season. He spent the next 10 years running the defense while either mentoring the linebackers or safeties during that time.

Whittingham was a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Brigham Young, during the 1985-86 seasons. He spent the 1987 season as the defensive coordinator at the College of Eastern Utah. He joined the Idaho State program for six seasons (1988-93), mentoring the linebackers and serving as the special teams coordinator for four seasons before assuming the role of defensive coordinator for his final two seasons.

Whittingham is a 1984 graduate of BYU and earned a master's degree from the school in 1987. He played linebacker for the Cougars from 1978-81, earning first-team All-WAC and WAC Defensive Player of the Year accolades in 1981.
