Seven months after meeting for the national championship, the No. 16-ranked Michigan (1-0) will face No. 4 UConn (1-0) on Friday (Nov. 6) as part of the Hall of Fame Series Boston at TD Garden. Tipoff is set for 8 p.m., with the game televised nationally on TNT and truTV and streamed on HBO Max. Brian Anderson (play-by-play), Grant Hill (analyst) and Lauren Jbara (sideline reporter) will call the action.

Game Day Notes

- A Rare Rematch: Michigan and UConn meet just seven months after the Wolverines' 69-63 victory in the 2026 NCAA championship game. It marks the 11th time since 1996 that the previous season's national finalists have met again the following season.
- Michigan Has Been Here Before: The last such rematch came on Nov. 14, 2018, when Michigan defeated Villanova, 73-46, just seven months after falling to the Wildcats in the national title game. Defending national champions have won six of the previous 10 rematches.
- Seven Months Ago: Elliot Cadeau scored a team-high 19 points against UConn and was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player. Trey McKenney hit a key three-pointer and added two late free throws to help secure Michigan's second NCAA national championship and first since 1989.
- Championship Pedigree: Michigan and UConn have combined to win three of the last four NCAA national championships. The Huskies won back-to-back titles in 2023 and 2024, while Michigan claimed the 2026 crown. UConn has reached three of the past four national championship games.
- A Little History: Michigan leads the all-time series against UConn, 3-2, including its 69-63 victory in the 2026 national championship game. Before April's matchup, the programs had not met since UConn defeated Michigan, 74-60, at the Battle 4 Atlantis in the Bahamas.
- A Boston Homecoming: Freshman Quinn Costello returns to his home state for Friday's matchup at TD Garden. The Medford, Mass., native scored 13 points and made three three-pointers in his collegiate debut against Oakland.
- Opening Night: Michigan began its title defense with an 84-68 win over Oakland on Monday (Nov. 2). Roddy Gayle Jr. and McKenney scored 17 points apiece, while Tennessee transfer J.P. Estrella added 15 points and a career-high 12 rebounds in his Wolverine debut.
- A Different Look: Michigan returns seven players from its national championship team, including preseason All-Big Ten selections Cadeau and McKenney. The Wolverines added four transfers and six freshmen while replacing three NBA lottery picks -- Morez Johnson Jr. (No. 9, Dallas), Yaxel Lendeborg (No. 11, Golden State) and Aday Mara (No. 12, Oklahoma City).
- UConn Reloads: The Huskies return guards Silas Demary Jr. and Braylon Mullins from last season's national runner-up team. Demary, the preseason Big East Player of the Year, averaged 10.1 points and 5.9 assists last season, while Mullins averaged 12.0 points. UConn also added several transfers, including Nik Khamenia (Duke) and Na'jai Hines (Seton Hall).
- The Hurley Era: Dan Hurley enters his ninth season at UConn after leading the Huskies to three Final Fours and two national championships in the past four seasons. UConn went 34-6 last season and enters 2026-27 ranked No. 4 nationally and favored to win the Big East.

Next Up

- Michigan returns to Crisler Center on Wednesday (Nov. 11) to host Marquette at 7 p.m. The Wolverines also host William & Mary (Nov. 15) before traveling to Philadelphia to face Villanova (Nov. 21) at the Xfinity Mobile Arena.

Storylines

A Championship Rematch

Exactly seven months after meeting for the national championship, Michigan and UConn are back on the same floor. The stakes are different, but the memories of April 6 are still fresh.

• The Leaders & Best: Michigan defeated UConn, 69-63, at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis to win its second NCAA championship and first since 1989, ending the Big Ten's 26-year title drought. Michigan leads the all-time series, 3-2.
• Championship Heroes: Elliot Cadeau scored a team-high 19 points and earned Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors. Trey McKenney hit a key three-pointer and added two late free throws to help seal the victory.
• Defense Delivered: After scoring at least 90 points in its first five NCAA Tournament games, Michigan held UConn to 63 in the championship. Friday's rematch is part of the Hall of Fame Series Boston at TD Garden (8 p.m., TNT; Brian Anderson, Grant Hill and Lauren Jbara).

A New Coach, Same Expectations

Mike Boynton Jr. takes over Michigan's national championship program, but he's no stranger to the head coaching chair or the Wolverines' success.

• A Familiar Face Takes Over: Promoted to head coach July 1 after Dusty May departed for the Dallas Mavericks. Boynton spent the previous two seasons as Michigan's assistant coach and defensive coordinator.
• Three Championships in Two Seasons: Helped Michigan compile a 64-13 record, winning the 2025 Big Ten Tournament, 2026 Big Ten regular-season championship and 2026 NCAA title. Under his direction, Michigan climbed from No. 12 to No. 1 nationally in KenPom adjusted defensive efficiency.
• Head Coaching Experience: Spent seven seasons leading Oklahoma State (2017-24), compiling a 119-109 record and guiding the Cowboys to the 2021 NCAA Tournament. Coached future No. 1 NBA Draft pick Cade Cunningham.

Same Program, Different Team

Michigan returns seven players from its national championship team, but with 10 newcomers and only one returning starter, the Wolverines have a much different look this season.

• Seven Champions Return: Elliot Cadeau, Trey McKenney, Roddy Gayle Jr., Howard Eisley Jr., Oscar Goodman, Harrison Hochberg and Ricky Liburd are back from Michigan's 37-win championship team.
• One Starter Back: Cadeau is the lone returning starter after starting all 40 games last season. McKenney played in all 40 games off the bench, while Gayle appeared in 39.
• Ten New Faces: Added four transfers -- J.P. Estrella (Tennessee), Jalen Reed (LSU), Moustapha Thiam (Cincinnati) and Kenny Noland (Columbia) -- along with six freshmen to help replace the production and experience lost from last year.

A Season to Remember

Michigan put together one of the best seasons in program history, going 37-3, dominating the Big Ten and winning its second NCAA national championship.

• A Record-Setting Season: Set a school record with 37 wins, captured its first national championship since 1989 and finished No. 1 in the final Associated Press poll with all 57 first-place votes.
• Big Ten Dominance: Finished 19-1 in conference play, winning the regular-season title by four games. Went 10-0 in Big Ten road games, becoming the first conference team to go unbeaten on the road since Indiana in 1975-76.
• March Madness Run: Won its first five NCAA Tournament games by double digits, becoming the first team in tournament history to score at least 90 points in each. Averaged 90.2 points over six games, capped by a 69-63 victory over UConn.

Cadeau Takes the Lead

After earning Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors, Elliot Cadeau returns as Michigan's floor leader and lone returning starter.

• Running the Show: Led Michigan with 234 assists (5.9 apg) last season, helping direct an offense that scored at least 90 points in its first five NCAA games.
• Final Four MVP: Recorded 13 points and 10 assists against Arizona in the national semifinal before scoring a team-high 19 points against UConn in the championship game, earning Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors.
• Preseason Recognition: Named preseason All-Big Ten and selected to the NABC Player of the Year and Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year watch lists. Also earned preseason third-team All-America honors from ESPN, CBS Sports, The Field of 68 and 247Sports.

Three Lottery Picks Gone, Three New Big Men Arrive

Michigan lost three starting frontcourt players to the NBA Draft, all lottery picks. Now the Wolverines are counting on three transfers to replace that size, production and experience.

• A Historic NBA Draft: Morez Johnson Jr. (No. 9, Dallas), Yaxel Lendeborg (No. 11, Golden State) and Aday Mara (No. 12, Oklahoma City) became Michigan's first three lottery picks in the same draft. Lendeborg was the Big Ten Player of the Year, while Mara earned Defensive Player of the Year honors and set Michigan's single-season record with 103 blocks.
• J.P. Estrella (Tennessee): Made an immediate impact in his Michigan debut, recording 15 points and a career-high 12 rebounds against Oakland.
• Thiam and Reed Add Size: Moustapha Thiam (Cincinnati), a 7-2 center, averaged 12.8 points, 7.1 rebounds and 1.6 blocks last season and has 138 career blocks. Jalen Reed (LSU) returned Oct. 11 after missing 317 days with an Achilles injury.

McKenney's Next Step

After helping Michigan win the national championship as a freshman, Trey McKenney returns for his sophomore season with a bigger role and higher expectations.

• Freshman Sharpshooter: Averaged 9.9 points, making 68 three-pointers (39.1 percent) and shooting 89.5 percent from the free-throw line. Played all 40 games off the bench.
• March Momentum: Averaged 12.0 points in six NCAA Tournament games, shooting 54.8 percent from the field and 48.0 percent from three (12-for-25). Hit a key three-pointer and two late free throws in the championship victory over UConn.
• Ready for More: Named preseason All-Big Ten, selected to the Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year watch list and earned ESPN preseason All-America honorable mention. Scored 21 against Eastern Michigan and 18 against Oregon State in exhibitions before adding 17 against Oakland in the opener.

Defense Remains the Foundation

Defense was a big part of Michigan's national championship run under Boynton. Now, as head coach, he looks to maintain that identity with a rebuilt frontcourt.

• An Elite Defense: Michigan finished No. 1 nationally in KenPom adjusted defensive efficiency last season, holding opponents to 38.2 percent shooting and averaging 6.1 blocked shots per game (242 total).
• A New Frontcourt: Lost Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Aday Mara and fellow lottery picks Morez Johnson Jr. and Yaxel Lendeborg. Transfers Thiam, Estrella and Reed will be counted on to maintain Michigan's defensive presence inside.
• Defense on Display: Michigan held Oakland to 22.2 percent shooting (8-for-36) in the second half of its opener. UConn held Gardner-Webb to 25.5 percent shooting for the game in an 86-46 victory.

vs. UConn

Michigan vs. UConn

• Championship Rematch: Michigan and UConn meet for the first time since the Wolverines defeated the Huskies, 69-63, in the 2026 NCAA national championship game in Indianapolis. It marks the first time the programs have met in consecutive seasons.
• Series Edge: Michigan leads the all-time series, 3-2, winning two of the last three meetings. The Wolverines have faced a nationally ranked UConn team in each of the last four matchups, posting a 2-2 record.
• Home-Court Advantage: Michigan is 1-0 against UConn in Ann Arbor, winning 68-63 in 2010. The Wolverines are 0-1 in Storrs and 2-1 at neutral sites, including their national championship victory.
• Nearly 70 Years Apart: The programs first met Dec. 18, 1939, in White Plains, N.Y., with Michigan earning a 62-45 victory. They did not meet again until Feb. 7, 2009 -- a span of 69 years and 51 days.
• Top-Ranked Competition: UConn was ranked No. 1 in 2009, No. 15 in 2010, No. 18 in 2015 and No. 7 in 2026. Michigan was ranked No. 3 for the most recent meeting, the only matchup in series history featuring two top-10 teams.

The 2026 National Championship | Michigan 69, UConn 63

• National Champions: No. 3 Michigan defeated No. 7 UConn before 70,720 fans at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis on April 6, 2026, capturing the program's second NCAA national championship and first since 1989. The victory capped a school-record 37-win season (37-3).
• Cadeau's Championship Moment: Elliot Cadeau scored a game-high 19 points, going 8-for-9 at the free-throw line, to earn Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors. He added three rebounds, two assists and two steals.
• Defense Delivered: Michigan held UConn to 30.9 percent shooting (21-for-68) and 27.3 percent from three-point range (9-for-33). The Wolverines also controlled the paint, outscoring the Huskies, 36-22.
• Winning Without the Three: Michigan made just two three-pointers (2-for-15, 13.3 percent) but converted 25 of 28 free throws (89.3 percent). Yaxel Lendeborg went 5-for-5 at the line, while Cadeau made eight of nine attempts.
• Championship Supporting Cast: Morez Johnson Jr. recorded a 12-point, 10-rebound double-double, while Lendeborg added 13 points. Trey McKenney contributed nine points and eight rebounds, and Aday Mara finished with eight points.
• Battle on the Boards: UConn outrebounded Michigan, 46-39, including a 22-12 advantage on the offensive glass. Despite that edge, the Wolverines held the Huskies to 63 points and built an 11-point second-half lead.

Memorable Outings

• Douglass From Deep: Stu Douglass made nine three-pointers across the 2009 and 2010 meetings, going 6-for-8 from deep against No. 1 UConn in 2009 and adding three triples in Michigan's 2010 victory. He combined for 33 points in the two games.
• Harris Against the Huskies: Manny Harris averaged 16.5 points across the 2009 and 2010 meetings, scoring 15 in Storrs and 18 in Ann Arbor. He also totaled 12 rebounds and seven assists in the two contests.
• Championship Carryover: Elliot Cadeau, Roddy Gayle Jr. and Trey McKenney all appeared in Michigan's 2026 national championship victory over UConn and returned to the Wolverines for the 2026-27 season. Cadeau led the trio with 19 points, while McKenney added nine points and eight rebounds.
• Kemba Walker Connection: Future four-time NBA All-Star Kemba Walker played in both the 2009 and 2010 meetings for UConn. He went scoreless in 20 minutes as a freshman in 2009 before scoring 15 points, including 11 free throws, in the 2010 matchup at Crisler Arena.

Memorable Series Meetings

• Jan. 17, 2010 | Michigan 68, No. 15 UConn 63: Manny Harris led Michigan with 18 points and eight rebounds as the Wolverines upset the ranked Huskies before 13,536 fans at Crisler Arena. Stu Douglass added 13 points, while DeShawn Sims grabbed 11 rebounds. Michigan held UConn to 1-for-11 shooting from three-point range, earning its first series victory since 1939.
• Feb. 7, 2009 | No. 1 UConn 69, Michigan 61: Michigan led the nation's top-ranked team, 34-33, at halftime before falling at Gampel Pavilion. Stu Douglass scored 20 points off the bench, connecting on six three-pointers, while Manny Harris added 15 points and five assists. UConn's Hasheem Thabeet finished with 17 points, 12 rebounds and six blocks.
• Nov. 25, 2015 | No. 18 UConn 74, Michigan 60: Caris LeVert scored 21 points and grabbed five rebounds in the opening round of the Battle 4 Atlantis in the Bahamas. Derrick Walton Jr. added 10 points, hitting all three of his three-point attempts, but Michigan shot just 32.1 percent from the field.
• Dec. 18, 1939 | Michigan 62, UConn 45: Michigan claimed the inaugural meeting in White Plains, N.Y., earning a 17-point victory in the first chapter of a series that would not resume for nearly seven decades.

Who are the Wolverines?

The Leaders & Best

• A New Era: Mike Boynton Jr. begins his first season as Michigan's head coach after two seasons as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator. A former seven-year head coach at Oklahoma State (119-109), Boynton helped guide the Wolverines to the 2026 national championship and provides continuity for a program coming off a historic 37-3 season.

• A Defensive Foundation: Michigan ranked 12th nationally in KenPom adjusted defensive efficiency in 2024-25 before climbing to No. 1 during its national championship season. The Wolverines went 64-13 during Boynton's two seasons as an assistant, with defense playing a major role in that success.

• Building the Culture: Boynton puts a premium on relationships, trust and accountability. He wants players to embrace their roles, lead by example and make winning plays, especially when games are on the line.

• Offensive Approach: Michigan looks to create space, attack off ball screens and use perimeter shooting to open driving lanes. Boynton has pointed to shooting and offensive rebounding as strengths, with an emphasis on getting to the basket and creating second-chance opportunities.

• Defensive Approach: Communication, rim protection and ball-screen coverage remain priorities. Boynton can adjust his schemes to fit his personnel, including using 7-2 Moustapha Thiam in drop coverage to protect the paint and contain opposing ball handlers.

• Experience on the Bench: Boynton's staff brings a mix of college head-coaching and NBA experience. Associate head coach Mike Martin spent 14 seasons leading Brown, while offensive coordinator Dylan Murphy worked eight seasons in the Orlando Magic organization. Kyle Church serves as assistant coach/general manager, Akeem Miskdeen as assistant coach/recruiting coordinator and KT Harrell as assistant coach.

The Backcourt

• Championship Experience: Michigan brings back Elliot Cadeau, Roddy Gayle Jr. and Trey McKenney, giving the Wolverines a veteran foundation in the backcourt. Columbia transfer Kenny Noland adds another proven scorer and ball handler, while Ricky Liburd, Joseph Hartman and Malachi Brown provide size and depth on the perimeter.

• Running the Show: Cadeau started all 40 games during Michigan's championship season, averaging 10.5 points and a team-best 5.9 assists. His 234 assists marked his second straight 200-assist season. The Final Four Most Outstanding Player matched his career high with 19 points in the 69-63 national championship win over UConn.

• The Veteran: Gayle brings toughness, leadership and the ability to defend multiple positions. The 6-5 guard earned NCAA All-Midwest Regional Team honors during Michigan's championship run and can attack off the dribble, finish through contact and provide a physical presence on the perimeter.

• A Bigger Role: McKenney enters his sophomore season after earning Big Ten All-Freshman Team honors and preseason All-Big Ten recognition. He averaged 9.9 points, led Michigan with 68 three-pointers and shot 39.1 percent from long range and 89.5 percent at the free-throw line. The Flint native gives Michigan a proven outside shooter who can also create his own shot.

• Another Scoring Option: Noland joins Michigan after averaging 17.1 points and 3.7 assists during his final season at Columbia. The 6-2 guard can run the offense or play off the ball, giving the Wolverines another experienced playmaker alongside Cadeau.

• Young Perimeter Depth: Liburd returns for his sophomore season after redshirting in 2025-26. Freshmen Hartman and Brown both stand 6-6 and bring length and versatility to the backcourt. Hartman adds another outside shooting option, while Brown brings a defense-first approach.

The Frontcourt

• Size to Spare: Michigan features a pair of seven-footers in 7-3 freshman Marcus Møller and 7-2 junior Moustapha Thiam. Add 6-11 J.P. Estrella and 6-9 Jalen Reed, and the Wolverines have plenty of size and several options around the basket.

• Protecting the Paint: Thiam arrives from Cincinnati after earning All-Big 12 honorable mention. He started all 31 games he played last season, averaging 12.8 points, 7.1 rebounds and 1.6 blocks. His size and length give Michigan a rim protector who can also score around the basket.

• Work on the Glass: Estrella joins Michigan from Tennessee, where he averaged 10.0 points and 5.4 rebounds last season. He recorded five double-doubles, led the Volunteers with 92 offensive rebounds and shot 59.6 percent from the field. The 6-11 big man brings an active, physical presence around the basket.

• Back in Action: Reed brings four seasons of experience from LSU, where he played in 79 games with 39 starts. He averaged 9.5 points and 5.7 rebounds in six games last season before an Achilles injury ended his year. He returned to the court in Michigan's Oct. 11 exhibition against Eastern Michigan after 317 days away from game action.

• The Danish Big Man: Møller gives Michigan another intriguing option at 7-3. The Copenhagen native developed his game in Spain with Unicaja Málaga and has represented Denmark internationally. He brings a soft shooting touch, perimeter skills and the ability to stretch the floor despite his size.

Roster Construction

• A New-Look Roster: Michigan enters 2026-27 with seven returning members of its national championship team and 10 newcomers. The Wolverines added four transfers and six freshmen, combining championship experience with a largely rebuilt roster.

• The Returning Seven: Elliot Cadeau, Roddy Gayle Jr., Howard Eisley Jr., Oscar Goodman, Harrison Hochberg, Ricky Liburd and Trey McKenney are back from Michigan's 37-3 national championship team. Cadeau, Gayle and McKenney provide the most established returning experience.

• Four Transfers: J.P. Estrella (Tennessee), Jalen Reed (LSU), Moustapha Thiam (Cincinnati) and Kenny Noland (Columbia) bring experience to Michigan's frontcourt and backcourt. All four arrive from different programs, giving Boynton several new options as he builds his rotation.

• Six Freshmen: Michigan welcomes Malachi Brown, Brandon McCoy Jr., Lincoln Cosby, Quinn Costello, Joseph Hartman and Marcus Møller. The group adds size, shooting and versatility, although McCoy will miss the season following an ACL injury suffered during the August foreign tour.

• A Historic NBA Draft: Michigan lost three players to the NBA Draft after its championship season, with Morez Johnson Jr. (No. 9, Dallas), Yaxel Lendeborg (No. 11, Golden State) and Aday Mara (No. 12, Oklahoma City) all selected in the lottery. It marked the first time Michigan had three lottery selections in the same draft.

• Championship Turnover: In addition to the three NBA selections, Michigan lost Nimari Burnett and Will Tschetter to exhausted eligibility, while L.J. Cason, Winters Grady and Malick Kordel transferred. Charlie May also departed to become a graduate assistant at Georgia.

The Ligther Side

There's more to Michigan Basketball than points, rebounds and assists. From trash talk and pregame rituals to hidden talents, fashion debates and friendly rivalries, the Wolverines shared a little insight into their personalities and life behind the scenes. Here's a look at the lighter side, straight from the players themselves.

The Players Have Spoken

• The Undisputed Trash-Talk King: Elliot Cadeau is the runaway choice as Michigan's biggest trash talker in practice. Every player who answered the question named Cadeau, either alone or alongside another teammate. Roddy Gayle Jr. didn't hesitate: "By far."
• The Locker Room Comedian: Howard Eisley Jr. received the most recognition as the team's funniest player, although Lincoln Cosby and Joseph Hartman also earned plenty of votes. Apparently, there's no shortage of comedians in the Michigan locker room.
• The Fashion Debate: Cadeau received plenty of recognition for his off-court style, but Trey McKenney wasn't ready to concede the title. "Elliot Cadeau is into fashion, but I would say I have pretty good style. I'm up there."
• The Battle for the Speakers: Malachi Brown and Joseph Hartman were popular choices for the team's best pregame playlist, with Cadeau also receiving votes. The Wolverines apparently have several players competing for control of the locker room music.
• The Reality TV Survivor: Harrison Hochberg was a popular choice when teammates were asked who would last the longest on a reality show. McKenney, Lincoln Cosby and Gayle also received nominations. Hochberg, however, selected McKenney for Too Hot to Handle.
• The Trivia Night MVP: Hochberg was the most popular choice when teammates were asked who they'd want on their trivia team. Cadeau, Marcus Møller, Hartman, Gayle and Oscar Goodman all selected him.
• The Hidden Gems: Møller and Hartman received recognition for having underrated games. Cadeau believes Møller has NBA potential, while Kenny Noland admitted he didn't expect a 7-3 center to shoot the ball as well as he does.
• The Ultimate Competitor: Cadeau is one of the toughest players to face in practice. Gayle says he always wants to win and tries to "dominate every drill," challenging everyone else to match his intensity.

Pregame Rituals

• J.P. Estrella > Perfect Timing: Has a 47-minute playlist that must finish just before the coaches enter the locker room. The final song has to end at exactly the right moment.
• Trey McKenney > A Little Motivation: Watches the same motivational speech from Creed on the bus before every game.
• Elliot Cadeau > Sleep Comes First: Needs 11 to 12 hours of sleep the night before a game.
• Marcus Møller > Nine Songs, 40 Minutes: Listens to the same nine-song, 40-minute playlist before every game.
• Joseph Hartman > Music Is a Must: Needs music playing for 45 minutes before tipoff.
• Roddy Gayle Jr. > Three-Song Routine: Takes a lap while listening to the same three songs before games.
• Lincoln Cosby > Bringing the Heat: Eats a bag of Takis before every game.
• Jalen Reed > Doritos and Cheese: Had an unusual pregame meal in 10th grade, eating Doritos and cheese before every game. His assessment? "I never threw up." He no longer follows the ritual.
• Moustapha Thiam > Nap Time: Takes multiple naps on game day.

Hidden Talents

• The Music Makers: Elliot Cadeau produces music, while Howard Eisley Jr. can rap. The Wolverines have some musical talent beyond their pregame playlists.
• The Yo-Yo Specialist: Malachi Brown can perform tricks, including Around the World and Walk the Dog.
• The Great Dane in the Kitchen: Marcus Møller considers himself a good chef, while Harrison Hochberg enjoys cooking Italian food.
• The Backyard Games Champion: Lincoln Cosby considers himself especially good at cornhole, KanJam and Spikeball.
• The Golf Enthusiasts: Hochberg enjoys golf, while Oscar Goodman is working on improving his game. Goodman also considers himself a strong swimmer.
• The Juggler: Ricky Liburd can juggle.
• The Gamers: Roddy Gayle Jr. enjoys NBA 2K, Rainbow Six Siege and Apex Legends, while Joseph Hartman considers himself particularly good at NBA 2K.

A Little Friendly Fire

• The Defender Nobody Wants: Trey McKenney and Elliot Cadeau both selected Roddy Gayle Jr. as the teammate they least want guarding them. Cadeau called Gayle Michigan's best on-ball defender. McKenney offered a different explanation: "Just because he fouls so much."
• Don't Sleep on the Big Fella: Cadeau and Kenny Noland both singled out Marcus Møller as an underrated teammate. Noland was surprised by Møller's shooting ability, while Cadeau predicted an NBA future for the 7-3 center.
• The Freshmen to Watch: McKenney selected Ricky Liburd as an underrated teammate, while Gayle pointed to Malachi Brown, calling him a sleeper who plays especially hard on defense.
• The Name Game: McKenney thinks he has the team's best nickname: Trey. Why? Because many people don't realize his real first name is John, he's the third generation to carry the name, and that's how he became Trey.
• The Great Dane: Møller has the nicknames, "The Great Dane" and "M&M."
• A Little Friendly Warning: When asked who he'd least want guarding him in practice, Lincoln Cosby jokingly dismissed Joseph Hartman: "Not Joseph Hartman because it is over for him if he does."

What Fans Might Not Know

• Speed Kills: Elliot Cadeau believes his quickness is one of the most overlooked parts of his game. "I feel like people don't realize how fast I am on the court."
• More Than a Shooter: Quinn Costello doesn't want to be labeled strictly as a shooter, while Oscar Goodman believes fans might be surprised by his athleticism and outside shooting ability.
• Guarding Everybody: Moustapha Thiam believes his versatility is one of his biggest strengths, particularly his ability to defend all five positions.
• The Competitive Edge: Kenny Noland wants fans to recognize his competitive nature as much as his shooting and ball-handling. "I just love to compete."
• The Little Things Matter: Trey McKenney believes the simplicity of his game is often overlooked, particularly his ability to make an impact without doing anything flashy.
• Finding His Confidence: J.P. Estrella says his biggest improvement since arriving at Michigan has been regaining his confidence on the court. He believes he has more to his game than he's shown in previous seasons.
• Growing as a Leader: Roddy Gayle Jr. believes his leadership has grown since arriving at Michigan, particularly his ability to connect with teammates and bring the group together.

Michigan's NBA Legacy

• Michigan has produced 83 NBA Draft selections, including 35 first-round picks, highlighted by two No. 1 overall selections: Cazzie Russell (1966, New York Knicks) and Chris Webber (1993, Orlando Magic).

• Michigan has produced NBA Draft selections in seven consecutive decades, from the 1960s through the 2020s, and has had at least one player selected in 12 of the last 16 drafts.

• Since 2011, Michigan has had 21 players selected in the NBA Draft, including 15 first-round picks, underscoring the Wolverines' sustained success in developing professional talent.

• Michigan has had multiple first-round selections in the same NBA Draft six times (1990, 1994, 2013, 2014, 2023 and 2026), highlighted by three first-round selections in both 1990 and 2026.

• The Wolverines have produced multiple NBA lottery selections in three drafts: 1990 (Rumeal Robinson and Loy Vaught), 1994 (Juwan Howard and Jalen Rose) and 2026 (Morez Johnson Jr., Yaxel Lendeborg and Aday Mara).

The 2026 NBA Draft: The Lottery Trio

• Michigan had three players selected within a four-pick span (Nos. 9-12) of the 2026 NBA Draft, with Morez Johnson Jr. going ninth overall (Dallas Mavericks), Yaxel Lendeborg 11th (Golden State Warriors) and Aday Mara 12th (Oklahoma City Thunder). All three were NBA lottery selections.

• The Wolverines became the first program in NBA Draft history to have three players selected within a four-pick span, while also recording their first three lottery selections in the same draft.

• During the 2025-26 season, the Wolverine trio helped Michigan to a school-record 37 victories (37-3), the Big Ten regular-season championship and the program's second NCAA national championship, its first since 1989.

• Michigan matched its program record with three first-round selections, equaling the 1990 draft class of Rumeal Robinson (No. 10, Atlanta Hawks), Loy Vaught (No. 13, Los Angeles Clippers) and Terry Mills (No. 16, Milwaukee Bucks).

• Michigan was the only program nationally with three lottery selections in the 2026 NBA Draft, joining North Carolina (2005), Florida (2007), Kentucky (2010, 2015, 2017) and Duke (2019, 2025) among schools to accomplish the feat since the lottery expanded to 14 picks in 2004.

• Michigan became the first school since Florida in 2007 to have three non-freshmen selected in the same NBA Draft lottery. The Gators' trio included juniors Al Horford (No. 3, Atlanta Hawks), Corey Brewer (No. 7, Minnesota Timberwolves) and Joakim Noah (No. 9, Chicago Bulls).

• Michigan became the first NCAA national champion since Villanova in 2018 to have three players selected in the first round of the ensuing NBA Draft. The Wildcats, who defeated Michigan 79-62 in the 2018 national championship game, had Mikal Bridges (No. 10, Philadelphia 76ers), Donte DiVincenzo (No. 17, Milwaukee Bucks) and Omari Spellman (No. 30, Atlanta Hawks) selected.

• Lendeborg earned Big Ten Player of the Year and NCAA Midwest Regional Most Outstanding Player honors, while Mara was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year after setting Michigan's single-season record with 103 blocked shots.

• Mara and Johnson were named to the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament Team, joining teammate Elliot Cadeau, who earned Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors following Michigan's 69-63 victory over UConn in the national championship game.

A Championship Season

Historic Season

• A Season for the Ages: Michigan finished 37-3, capturing its second NCAA national championship, 16th Big Ten regular-season title and ninth outright conference crown. The Wolverines set a program record for victories and tied Illinois' 2004-05 team for the Big Ten single-season wins record.

• A Perfect Road Trip: Michigan completed its first undefeated true road season in program history, finishing 11-0 overall and 10-0 in Big Ten play. The Wolverines became the first Big Ten team to go unbeaten in conference road games since Indiana's undefeated national championship season in 1975-76.

• No. 1 at the Finish: U-M remained nationally ranked throughout the season, climbed to No. 1 in the Associated Press poll on Feb. 16 and finished as the unanimous No. 1 team following its national championship (57 first-place votes).

• Dominance by the Numbers: U-M averaged 87.3 points per game while allowing 69.5, producing a +17.8 scoring margin. The Wolverines reached 90 points 17 times, recorded seven victories by 40 or more and 10 games by at least 30.

• Three Losses, 16 Points: U-M's three defeats came by a combined 16 points, with none by more than eight -- Wisconsin (91-88, -3), No. 3 Duke (68-63, -5) and No. 18 Purdue (80-72, -8).

• Record-Setting Production: Michigan established single-season program records for points (3,493), rebounds (1,603), blocked shots (242) and three-pointers (367). The Wolverines' 745 assists tied the school record set by the 1988-89 national championship team.

• A November Statement: Michigan captured the Players Era Festival championship in Las Vegas, defeating San Diego State (94-54, +40), No. 21 Auburn (102-72, +30) and No. 12 Gonzaga (101-61, +40) by an average of 36.7 points.

• An Unprecedented Stretch: Michigan won six consecutive games by at least 25 points, including three victories by 40 or more and two against nationally ranked opponents. According to research conducted with the Associated Press, no team had accomplished that combination since at least 1995-96.

• Three Lottery Picks: Michigan's championship roster produced three NBA lottery selections -- Morez Johnson Jr. (No. 9), Yaxel Lendeborg (No. 11) and Aday Mara (No. 12). It marked the first time in program history that three Wolverines were selected in the lottery in the same draft.

NCAA Champions

• The Wait Is Over: Michigan defeated UConn, 69-63, to capture its second NCAA national championship and first since 1989, ending a 37-year title drought.

• A Big Ten Breakthrough: U-M delivered the Big Ten's first NCAA national championship since Michigan State in 2000, ending a 26-year drought.

• The Road to the Title: As the No. 1 seed in the Midwest Regional, U-M defeated Howard (101-80), Saint Louis (95-72), Alabama (90-77) and Tennessee (95-62) before knocking off fellow No. 1 seed Arizona (91-73) in the national semifinal and UConn (69-63) in the championship game.

• An NCAA Tournament First: Michigan became the first team in NCAA Tournament history to score at least 90 points five times in a single tournament, accomplishing the feat in each of its first five games.

• Five Games, Five Double-Digit Wins: U-M won its first five games by an average of 21.6 points, becoming the first team to combine five consecutive 90-point performances with five double-digit victories in the same tournament.

• A Final Four Statement: Michigan defeated Arizona, 91-73, in the national semifinal. The 18-point victory tied the largest margin in an NCAA Tournament matchup between No. 1 seeds since seeding began in 1979.

• Cadeau's Championship Moment: Elliot Cadeau scored a game-high 19 points against UConn and was named NCAA Final Four Most Outstanding Player. He also recorded 13 points and 10 assists against Arizona, becoming just the second Wolverine to post a points-assists double-double in a Final Four game, joining Rumeal Robinson in 1989.

• Championship Honors: Aday Mara and Morez Johnson Jr. joined Cadeau on the NCAA Final Four All-Tournament Team, while Yaxel Lendeborg earned Midwest Regional Most Outstanding Player honors.

Big Ten Crown

• Back on Top: Michigan captured its 16th Big Ten championship and first since 2021, finishing 19-1 (.950) to claim the outright title.

• A Conference Record: U-M's 19 Big Ten victories established a single-season record, surpassing Indiana's mark of 18, set in both 1974-75 and 1975-76.

• Perfect Away from Home: U-M went 10-0 in Big Ten road games, becoming the first Big Ten team in 50 years to finish unbeaten on the road in league play.

• A Four-Game Cushion: U-M won the Big Ten by four games over Nebraska, Michigan State and Illinois, which each finished 15-5. It was the Wolverines' largest championship margin since the conference adopted its 20-game schedule.

• Finishing Strong: After suffering its lone conference loss to Wisconsin, U-M closed the regular season with 15 consecutive Big Ten victories, including wins at No. 7 Purdue, No. 10 Illinois and No. 8 Michigan State.

• Player of the Year: Yaxel Lendeborg earned Big Ten Player of the Year honors after averaging 15.1 points, 6.8 rebounds and 3.2 assists. He became the ninth Wolverine to win the award and first since Nik Stauskas in 2014.

• Defensive Player of the Year: Aday Mara became the second Wolverine to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year honors, joining Gary Grant. Mara set Michigan's single-season record with 103 blocked shots, becoming the first Wolverine to surpass 100 in a season.

• Coach of the Year: Dusty May earned Big Ten Coach of the Year honors from the conference media. He also received the USBWA Henry Iba National Coach of the Year Award.

A Championship Timeline

• Nov. 3, 2025 | A Historic Opener: Michigan opened with a 121-78 victory over Oakland, recording just the sixth 120-point game in program history and its first since 1990. The Wolverines set a school record with 69 first-half points, tied the single-game mark with 19 three-pointers and recorded 31 assists, their first 30-assist performance in 33 years.

• Nov. 24-26, 2025 | A Statement in Las Vegas: Michigan captured the Players Era Festival championship with victories over San Diego State (94-54), No. 21 Auburn (102-72) and No. 12 Gonzaga (101-61). The Wolverines became the first team in college basketball history to post back-to-back victories by at least 30 points against ranked opponents. Their 40-point win over Gonzaga was Michigan's largest against an AP-ranked opponent and handed the Bulldogs their largest loss in 35 years. Lendeborg earned tournament MVP, Big Ten Player of the Week and USBWA Oscar Robertson National Player of the Week honors.

• December 2025 | Back at No. 1: Michigan climbed to the top of the Coaches Poll for the first time since 2013, marking its return to No. 1 in either major national poll after more than a decade.

• Jan. 2, 2026 | Another Ranked Rout: Morez Johnson Jr. scored a career-high 29 points on 10-of-12 shooting as Michigan defeated No. 24 USC, 96-66. Combined with its wins over Auburn and Gonzaga, Michigan became the first team in AP Poll history to win three consecutive games against ranked opponents by at least 30 points.

• Jan. 6, 2026 | 14 Straight: Michigan survived a 74-72 road test at Penn State to improve to 14-0, its best start since 2018-19 and just the fourth 14-0 opening in program history.

• January 2026 | Offensive Firepower: Michigan twice matched the program record with three consecutive 100-point games during the same season and had seven 100-point performances by late January. The Wolverines also surpassed Indiana's Big Ten single-season record of five victories by at least 40 points, eventually extending the mark to seven.

• Jan. 27-30, 2026 | Back-to-Back Top-10 Wins: Michigan defeated No. 5 Nebraska, 75-72, and No. 7 Michigan State, 83-71, for its first consecutive top-10 victories since 2020-21. The win in East Lansing was Michigan's first at the Breslin Center since 2018, highlighted by Lendeborg's 26 points and 12 rebounds.

• February 2026 | May Reaches 50: Dusty May became the fastest coach in Michigan history to reach 50 victories, accomplishing the milestone in his 61st game with the Wolverines.

• Feb. 13, 2026 | The Best Start Yet: At 23-1, Michigan established the best 24-game start in program history.

• Feb. 16, 2026 | No. 1 in the Nation: Michigan rose to No. 1 in the AP Top 25 for the first time since Jan. 30, 2013, receiving 60 of 61 first-place votes. At 24-1 overall and 14-1 in Big Ten play, the Wolverines owned the best 25-game overall start and 15-game conference start in program history.

• Feb. 17, 2026 | No. 1 Wins at Mackey: One day after claiming the top ranking, Michigan defeated No. 7 Purdue, 91-80, at Mackey Arena. It was the Wolverines' first victory as the nation's No. 1 team over an AP top-10 opponent since defeating No. 5 Vanderbilt in 1965. Six Wolverines scored in double figures.

• Feb. 27, 2026 | Big Ten Champions: Michigan defeated No. 10 Illinois, 84-70, in Champaign to clinch the outright Big Ten championship. It marked the program's 16th conference crown, ninth outright title and first championship since 2020-21.

• March 8, 2026 | A Record-Setting Finish: Michigan defeated No. 8 Michigan State, 90-80, to close the regular season 19-1 in Big Ten play. The Wolverines set conference records for league victories and completed a perfect 10-0 Big Ten road season, while winning the championship by four games.

• March 10, 2026 | Big Ten Awards Sweep: Lendeborg was named Big Ten Player of the Year, Mara earned Defensive Player of the Year and May received Coach of the Year honors from the conference media. Michigan also placed three players -- Mara, Lendeborg and Johnson -- on the Big Ten All-Defensive Team.

• March 15, 2026 | A No. 1 Seed: Michigan earned the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament's Midwest Region, just the fourth No. 1 seed in program history, joining the 1985, 1993 and 2021 Wolverines.

• March 19, 2026 | Howard, 101-80: Michigan opened NCAA Tournament play by shooting a program tournament-record 67.2 percent from the field. Johnson finished 8-for-8 with 21 points and 10 rebounds.

• March 21, 2026 | Saint Louis, 95-72: Michigan advanced to the Sweet 16 for the seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament in which it participated. Since 2013, the Wolverines have reached nine Sweet 16s in 10 NCAA appearances.

• March 27, 2026 | Alabama, 90-77: Michigan secured its 34th victory, setting a program single-season wins record. The Wolverines also became the first Michigan team since the 1989 national champions to score at least 90 points in each of their first three NCAA Tournament games.

• March 29, 2026 | Tennessee, 95-62: Michigan overwhelmed Tennessee by 33 points to reach its ninth Final Four and first since 2018. Lendeborg scored 27 points and earned Midwest Regional Most Outstanding Player honors. Mara recorded his 100th block of the season, while Cadeau surpassed 1,000 career points and 600 career assists.

• April 4, 2026 | Arizona, 91-73: Michigan defeated fellow No. 1 seed Arizona to become the first team in NCAA Tournament history to score at least 90 points five times in a single tournament. Mara scored a career-high 26 points with nine rebounds, while Cadeau added 13 points and 10 assists.

• April 6, 2026 | NATIONAL CHAMPIONS: Michigan defeated UConn, 69-63, to capture its second NCAA national championship and first in 37 years. Cadeau scored a game-high 19 points and earned Final Four Most Outstanding Player honors. The victory gave Michigan a program-record 37 wins and delivered the Big Ten its first NCAA men's basketball championship since 2000.

• April 2026 | Unanimous No. 1: Michigan finished atop the final Associated Press Top 25, receiving all 57 first-place votes following its national championship.

Mike Boynton Jr.

Mike Boynton Jr. was named the David and Meredith Kaplan Men's Basketball Head Coach in June 2026, becoming the 19th head coach in the storied history of the Michigan basketball program.

Apprentice Meets the Master

- Coming Full Circle: Nearly 10 years after succeeding Underwood at Oklahoma State, Boynton now leads Michigan while his former mentor coaches Big Ten rival Illinois. The two will be on opposite benches when the Wolverines host the Fighting Illini on Feb. 9 at Crisler Center.

The Return

- Back in the Head Coach's Chair: Mike Boynton Jr. returns to the head coaching ranks after seven seasons at Oklahoma State (2017-24). After joining Michigan as an assistant in 2024, he helped the Wolverines win three championships in two seasons, including the 2026 national title. Now gets another opportunity to lead a program, this time taking over the defending national champions.

Michigan | Building a Champion

- Shock the World: Helped Michigan compile a 64-13 record over two seasons, winning the 2025 Big Ten Tournament, 2026 Big Ten regular-season title and 2026 NCAA national championship. The Wolverines went from eight wins in 2023-24 to 27 in Boynton's first season and a school-record 37 in his second.
- Defense Built for a Title: Served as Michigan's defensive coordinator during the 2025-26 national championship season, helping develop one of the nation's top defenses. The Wolverines won their first five NCAA Tournament games by double digits before holding Connecticut to 63 points in the national championship game.
- Defense Comes First: Has built his coaching reputation around toughness, ball pressure and making opponents work for everything. His Oklahoma State teams regularly ranked among the Big 12's better defensive units, including a No. 4 national ranking in KenPom defensive efficiency in 2021-22.

Oklahoma State | Seven Seasons at the Helm

- Leading the Cowboys: Compiled a 119-109 record over seven seasons (2017-24), taking over at age 35 as one of the youngest head coaches in major college basketball. Guided Oklahoma State to the 2021 NCAA Tournament and NIT quarterfinals in 2018 and 2023.
- Making an Early Statement: Went 21-15 and reached the NIT quarterfinals in his first season (2017-18). The Cowboys swept Kansas during the regular season, winning in both Lawrence and Stillwater, and knocked off four teams that eventually reached the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight.
- Taking Down the Big Boys: During his seven seasons at Oklahoma State (2017-24), Mike Boynton Jr. recorded 23 wins over nationally ranked opponents, including 11 against top-10 teams. His 23 ranked victories were the third-most in program history, trailing only legendary coaches Eddie Sutton and Henry Iba.
- March Madness in Stillwater: Led Oklahoma State to a 21-9 record, No. 11 final AP ranking and No. 4 NCAA Tournament seed in 2020-21. The Cowboys reached the Big 12 Tournament championship game and won their first NCAA Tournament game since 2009, defeating Liberty before falling to Oregon State in the second round.
- Coaching the No. 1 Pick: Recruited and coached Cade Cunningham, the 2021 consensus first-team All-American, Big 12 Player of the Year and eventual No. 1 overall NBA Draft selection. Cunningham helped lead the Cowboys to the 2021 NCAA Tournament.

The Coaching Tree | Martin and Underwood

- Two Familiar Mentors: Worked with Frank Martin and Brad Underwood, two coaches known for their demanding, physical styles. Boynton and Underwood were together on Martin's South Carolina staff in 2012-13 before spending the next four seasons together at Stephen F. Austin and Oklahoma State.
- A Mid-Major Powerhouse: Helped Stephen F. Austin go 89-14 over three seasons (2013-16), winning three straight Southland Conference regular-season and tournament titles. The Lumberjacks went 53-1 in conference play and pulled off NCAA Tournament upsets of No. 5 seed VCU (2014) and No. 3 seed West Virginia (2016).
- From Assistant to Successor: Followed Underwood to Oklahoma State in 2016-17, helping the Cowboys reach the NCAA Tournament. When Underwood left for Illinois after one season, Oklahoma State promoted Boynton, then 35, to head coach.

From Brooklyn to the Big Ten

- Brooklyn Roots: Grew up in Brooklyn, New York, and played at Bishop Loughlin Memorial High School. Averaged 15.0 points and 11.0 assists as a senior, earning first-team All-New York City honors. Was inducted into the school's athletics hall of fame in 2011.
- A Gamecock on the Court: Played four seasons at South Carolina (2000-04), appearing in 125 games. As a senior point guard, averaged 9.9 points and 3.5 assists while leading the Gamecocks in assists, steals and three-pointers. Helped South Carolina reach the 2004 NCAA Tournament.
- Working His Way Up: Started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Furman (2004-05), followed by stops at Coastal Carolina (2005-07), Wofford (2007-08) and South Carolina (2008-13).
- A USA Basketball Connection: Served as an assistant coach for the United States at the 2022 FIBA U18 Americas Championship, helping the Americans win gold, and the 2023 FIBA U19 World Cup. Also worked as a court coach at the 2021 USA Basketball Men's U19 National Team training camp.

The Wolverine Coaching Staff

Mike Martin | Associate Head Coach

• Two Minds, One Offense: Shares offensive coordinator responsibilities with Dylan Murphy, combining 14 seasons of Division I head coaching experience with Murphy's NBA and G League background.
• A Career Built at Brown: Returned to his alma mater as an assistant before taking over in 2012, compiling a program-record 171 victories over 14 seasons. Guided Brown to its first 20-win season in 2018-19 and earned Ivy League Coach of the Year honors.
• Six Seconds from March Madness: Came within seconds of taking Brown to the 2024 NCAA Tournament before Yale's Matt Knowling scored the winning basket off a pass from Danny Wolf in the Ivy League Tournament championship game. Wolf later helped Michigan win the 2025 Big Ten Tournament title.
• From Player to Coach: Four-year guard and team co-captain at Brown before playing professionally in Ireland. Brings experience as both a player and head coach to Michigan's staff.

Kyle Church | Assistant Coach

• Two Roles, One Staff: Balances on-court coaching responsibilities with overseeing Michigan's roster management, personnel and recruiting strategy, an increasingly important role in the era of NIL and the transfer portal.

- Last name: LIE-bird

Who is Ricky Liburd?

- A Diamond in the Rough: Long, athletic guard with an intriguing combination of size, shooting and ball-handling ability. Developing two-way player with the versatility to contribute on the perimeter and the physical tools to grow into a larger role.

- Smooth Operator: Creative offensive player who uses footwork, hesitation moves and changes of direction to create space. Comfortable attacking closeouts, pulling up from midrange or creating his own shot off the dribble.

- More Than a Shooter: Can stretch defenses from beyond the arc while also attacking the basket. Combines a smooth shooting stroke with good body control, giving him multiple ways to score.

- Defensive Versatility: Uses his length, quickness and anticipation to defend multiple positions. Can pressure ball handlers, disrupt passing lanes and match up against guards or bigger wings.

- Relentless Motor: Brings energy, effort and a willingness to learn. Competitive player who works to make an impact on both ends of the floor while continuing to develop his overall game.

Did You Know?

- Three Straight: Won back-to-back Florida state championships with Sagemont Prep in 2024 and 2025 before joining Michigan's 2026 national championship team. Was part of championship programs in three consecutive seasons across high school and college.

- Saved His Best for Last: Scored 29 points with nine rebounds, four assists and three blocks in Sagemont's 84-59 victory over Victory Christian in the 2025 Florida Class 1A state championship game.

- An Unexpected Journey: Originally signed with Coastal Carolina before requesting his release and joining Michigan in May 2025. Redshirted during the Wolverines' 2025-26 national championship season, using the year to develop his game.

- More Than Basketball: Competed in cross country and track throughout high school and also played two seasons of varsity volleyball at Nova High School. Brings a multisport background to the basketball court.

- A Sweet Family Business: His father, Melvin, owns Melly Mel's Cakery, a family business offering specialty cakes, including its Famous Rum Cake. A unique family connection away from basketball.

Reminds Us Of ...

- Professional Comparisons: Stephon Castle and Nickeil Alexander-Walker -- long, athletic 3-and-D guards who take pride in their defense and can knock down outside shots. Use their size and length to pressure the ball, guard different positions and get into passing lanes. Can hit open threes, attack closeouts and contribute without needing the ball in their hands.

- Last name: muh-KEN-ee

Who is Trey McKenney?

- All Three Levels: Versatile guard who can score from just about anywhere on the floor. Comfortable knocking down threes, pulling up from midrange or using his strength to finish at the rim.

- More Than Just a Shooter: Has a quick first step, a strong frame and the ability to create his own shot. Uses changes of speed, footwork and body control to create separation rather than relying solely on quickness. Doesn't need much room to get a clean look.

- Plays at His Own Pace: Patient and under control with the ball. Knows when to slow things down, change directions or attack an off-balance defender. Comfortable creating opportunities in the half-court offense and doesn't need to play at full speed to be effective.

- A Little Bit of Everything: Can play on or off the ball, initiate offense, create his own shot or work alongside another ball handler. Equally comfortable spotting up, attacking a closeout or finding an open teammate.

- Built for Contact: Strong, physical guard who uses his frame to his advantage. Comfortable absorbing contact on drives, finishing in traffic and battling for rebounds. His size and strength also help him compete against bigger players and hold his own defensively.

- Loves to Compete: Confident, aggressive and willing to take on difficult matchups. Doesn't shy away from physical play, big moments or tough situations. Brings a competitive mentality on both ends of the floor while continuing to develop his all-around game.

Did You Know?

- Flint Roots, Michigan Pride: Grew up in Flint, Mich., before starring at Orchard Lake St. Mary's. One of the state's most decorated high school players, he stayed close to home to continue his basketball career with the Wolverines.

- Big Stages, Big Experiences: Before beginning his sophomore season, had already experienced a high school state championship, a Big Ten regular-season title, a Final Four, an NCAA national championship and an international gold medal with Team USA. Built an impressive championship resume before turning 20.

- Pretty Good Company: Won the 2025 Michigan Mr. Basketball award, joining former Wolverines Glen Rice (1985), Terry Mills (1986), Chris Webber (1991) and Robert Traylor (1995).

- A Championship Moment: Knocked down a key three-pointer with 1:50 remaining and added two late free throws in Michigan's 69-63 victory over UConn in the 2026 national championship game.

- Professional Comparisons: Eric Gordon, Norman Powell and CJ McCollum -- strong, confident scoring guards who can get buckets in a variety of ways. Have deep shooting range, can create their own shots and are just as comfortable pulling up as they are catching and shooting. Use their strength to get to the basket and aren't afraid of taking big shots.

Who is Kenny Noland?

• Veteran Floor General: Experienced combo guard who brings four seasons of Ivy League basketball experience to Michigan. Comfortable running an offense, controlling the tempo and providing a steady presence in the backcourt.

• More Than a Point Guard: Versatile scorer and playmaker who can create his own offense or set up teammates. Equally comfortable handling the ball or playing off it, giving U-M another option alongside Elliot Cadeau.

• Crafty Scorer: Uses hesitation moves, changes of pace and strong footwork to create separation. Effective attacking off ball screens, getting into the paint and pulling up from midrange.

• Perimeter Threat: Dangerous outside shooter who can knock down catch-and-shoot opportunities or create space off the dribble. Adds another proven scoring option to Michigan's backcourt.

• Makes the Right Read: Patient decision-maker who recognizes defensive coverages and finds open teammates. Understands when to distribute and when to look for his own shot.

Did You Know?

• Ivy League Standout: Earned second-team All-Ivy League honors in 2025-26 after averaging career bests of 17.1 points, 3.6 assists and 1.5 steals at Columbia.

• Longevity: Played in all 111 games during his four seasons at Columbia, starting 57. Started 54 of his final 55 games with the Lions.

• A Perfect Progression: Increased his scoring average every season at Columbia, going from 6.7 points as a freshman to 7.7 as a sophomore, 12.7 as a junior and 17.1 as a senior.

• Leaving His Mark: Finished his Columbia career with 1,225 points, 281 assists, 126 steals and 178 three-pointers. Ranked among the Lions' career leaders in all four categories.

• Wall Street Was Calling: Interned in the fixed income and equities department at BTIG in New York City during the summer of 2025. Received an offer to return as a full-time sales and trading analyst but chose to continue pursuing basketball.

• Academic Excellence: Maintained a 4.1 GPA at Apex Friendship High School in North Carolina and received the Mayor of Apex Gold Coin Award, becoming just the fifth person to earn the honor.

Pronunciation

- Last name: kuh-DOH

Who is Elliot Cadeau?

- Born to Lead: Natural floor general who plays with confidence, sees plays develop and thrives on creating opportunities for teammates. Comfortable directing the offense, communicating with teammates and taking charge in big moments.

- Pass-First Point Guard: Creative playmaker with exceptional court vision and anticipation. Finds teammates in scoring position, delivers passes through tight windows and has a knack for turning difficult situations into easy baskets.

- Controls the Tempo: Knows when to push the pace and when to slow things down. Uses changes of speed, hesitation moves and quick decisions to keep defenders guessing. Comfortable running the break or managing the half-court offense.

- Crafty Ball Handler: Uses tight handles, quick changes of direction and body control to navigate traffic and breakdown defenders. Can get into the lane, draw defensive attention and create scoring opportunities for himself or teammates.

- Big-Game Confidence: Comfortable in pressure situations and doesn't shy away from the spotlight. Has shown the ability to deliver as both a scorer and playmaker, including earning Most Outstanding Player honors at the 2026 Final Four.

Did You Know?

- Final Four MOP: Named the 2026 Final Four Most Outstanding Player after helping Michigan capture the 2026 NCAA national championship. Recorded 13 points and 10 assists against Arizona, then scored a game-high 19 points in the 69-63 championship victory over UConn.

- His Superpower: Born with partial hearing loss in his right ear, Cadeau wore a hearing aid growing up and has described his hearing difference as his "superpower." Has spoken about how the experience shaped his approach to communication and everyday life.

- Seeing Clearly: Diagnosed with keratoconus in his left eye while at North Carolina, a condition affecting the shape of the cornea. Underwent treatment to address the condition and has discussed the difference improved vision made in his life and basketball career.

- Swedish Roots: Holds dual American and Swedish citizenship, speaks both English and Swedish fluently and has represented Sweden in international basketball competition.

- Ahead of the NIL Game: Signed an NIL endorsement agreement while still in high school, becoming part of an early wave of prep basketball players taking advantage of endorsement opportunities.

Reminds Us Of ...

- Professional Comparisons: Ricky Rubio, T.J. McConnell and Rajon Rondo -- creative, pass-first point guards who see the floor extremely well and have a knack for finding open teammates. Can control the pace of a game, get into the lane and create easy baskets for others. See plays develop before they happen and know how to put teammates in position to score.

Who is Quinn Costello?

• The Stretch Four: A 6-10 forward who brings size, shooting touch and athleticism. Can stretch the floor with his outside shooting, put the ball on the floor and attack the basket. Runs the floor well, has a soft touch around the rim and gives Michigan another scoring option in the frontcourt.

• More Than a Shooter: Has a good feel for the game and knows how to use his size. Moves well without the ball, finds open spots and can make the extra pass. Comfortable facing the basket, reading defenses and creating opportunities for himself or teammates. Continues to develop his game beyond just shooting threes.

• Plays with a Motor: Brings energy, toughness and a competitive edge. Runs the floor hard, battles for rebounds and isn't afraid of contact. Uses his length to contest shots and make plays defensively. Stays active and finds ways to contribute even when he's not scoring.

• A Quick Learner: Has impressed Mike Boynton Jr. with how quickly he picks things up and makes adjustments. Boynton believes Costello could have a bigger impact as a freshman than some might expect.

Did You Know?

• From Unknown to All-American: After transferring to The Newman School, repeated his sophomore year and reclassified from 2025 to 2026. Went from playing on Newman's second team and averaging just 1.7 points as a sophomore to a consensus four-star, top-50 recruit and a 2026 McDonald's All-American.

• A Championship Performance: Helped The Newman School win its first National Prep Championship in 2026, finishing 38-3. Saved one of his best games for the championship, scoring 24 points with eight rebounds and four assists against Blair Academy. Knocked down six three-pointers in the first half alone.

• A Summer Breakthrough: Made a name for himself playing for Middlesex Magic on the Under Armour circuit in 2025. Entered the spring without much national attention but finished with 25 high-major scholarship offers. Also earned Most Outstanding Player honors at the Pangos All-American Camp.

• A Family of Rowers: Basketball wasn't necessarily the family sport growing up. Both of his parents, Kevin and Bethany, rowed at Boston College. Quinn tried several sports as a kid but took to basketball early. Says he was always one of the bigger kids and fell in love with the game almost immediately.

Reminds Us Of ...

• Professional Comparisons: Michael Porter Jr., Lauri Markkanen and Trey Murphy III -- tall, athletic forwards who can really shoot the ball. Have a smooth outside shot, can score off the catch or dribble and use their height to shoot over smaller defenders. Can attack closeouts, finish above the rim and get out and run in transition.

Pronunciation

- First Name: MAR-kus
- Last Name: MULL-uh

Who is Marcus Møller?

- The Modern Big Man: A 7-3 center from Denmark who brings size, length and a soft shooting touch. Can score around the basket, step outside and knock down threes, and put the ball on the floor when needed. Moves well for his size and gives Michigan another big man who can stretch the floor and create mismatches.

- More Than Just Size: Has a good feel for the game and wants to be more than a traditional back-to-the-basket center. Worked on his guard skills while playing in Spain, where big men and guards often trained together. Comfortable facing the basket, reading defenses and making plays away from the rim.

- A Presence in the Paint: Uses his height, long arms and timing to protect the basket and change shots. Makes things difficult for opposing players around the rim and uses his length to battle for rebounds. Continues to work on his strength, physicality and ability to defend smaller players on the perimeter.

- Ready to Compete: Didn't want to be eased into things after arriving at Michigan during the summer. Told the coaches he was ready to jump right into practice and compete. Has embraced the challenge of adjusting to the physicality and pace of college basketball.

Did You Know?

- A Remarkable Comeback: Diagnosed with testicular cancer in January 2026 while playing in Spain. Returned home to Denmark for treatment and continued working out whenever he could. Announced he was cancer-free in May and arrived at Michigan in July, determined to get back to basketball. Says staying active and being on the court helped him remain positive during treatment.

- On His Own at 16: Left Denmark at age 16 to join Unicaja Málaga's developmental program in Spain. Spent several years playing against older competition while continuing his education online. Credits his family for supporting his decision to leave home and chase his basketball dreams.

- Seven Feet at 15: Started playing basketball when he was nine and was already around seven feet tall by age 15. Says he's always been taller than just about everyone around him, so he doesn't really remember having one big growth spurt.

- The Family Chef: One of the things he misses most about Denmark is his dad's cooking, especially his chicken and salmon. Has been trying to recreate some of those meals in Ann Arbor and considers himself a pretty good cook. Rates his own cooking an eight out of 10 and thinks he might actually make a better steak than his dad.

Reminds Us Of ...

- Professional Comparisons: Kristaps Porzingis, Brook Lopez and Chet Holmgren -- tall, skilled big men who can stretch the floor with their shooting and protect the basket with their length. Move well for their size, have a soft touch and can score inside or step out for threes. Can find open teammates and use their length to change shots around the rim.

Who is Joseph Hartman?

• The Do-It-All Guard: A 6-6 guard who brings size, versatility and a well-rounded game to the backcourt. Can knock down outside shots, attack the basket, handle the ball and create for teammates. Most comfortable at shooting guard but can play either backcourt position.

• A Feel for the Game: Smart, instinctive player who sees the floor well and knows when to attack or get teammates involved. Reads defenses, makes the extra pass and understands how to play with or without the ball. Grew up around college basketball and has the instincts of a coach's son.

• Plays with an Edge: Competitive, physical guard who isn't afraid to mix it up. Uses his size and strength to defend multiple positions, battle for rebounds and get into passing lanes. Willing to fight through contact and make the hustle plays that don't always show up in the box score.

• Whatever the Team Needs: Doesn't get caught up in whether he's playing point guard or shooting guard, starting or coming off the bench. Willing to take on whatever role the team needs, whether that's scoring, setting up teammates or helping defensively. More concerned with making the right play and helping his team win than putting up numbers.

Did You Know?

• Raised Around the Game: His father, Carlin Hartman, is Florida's associate head coach and helped the Gators win the 2025 national championship. Joseph grew up around college basketball, spending plenty of time at practices, games and in locker rooms. Says his dad has been one of his biggest influences, both on and off the court.

• A Basketball Childhood: Born in Richmond, Va., when his dad was coaching at Richmond. One of his earliest basketball memories came when the family lived in New York and Carlin coached at Columbia. Joseph loved watching his dad throw alley-oops to the big guys during workouts, especially when they finished with dunks.

• A Late Basketball Bloom: Despite growing up around basketball, his parents never pushed him to play. Always liked the game, but it wasn't until eighth grade that he really fell in love with it and started taking it seriously.

• Finding His Own Path: Even with his dad coaching at Florida, Joseph and Carlin felt it would be better for him to go somewhere else and make his own name. Carlin even talked with other coaches who had coached their sons before they decided that some independence away from Gainesville would be good for Joseph.

Reminds Us Of ...

• Professional Comparisons: Josh Hart, Austin Reaves and Donte DiVincenzo -- tough, smart guards who can do a little bit of everything. Can handle the ball, knock down outside shots, make the extra pass and defend different positions. Play with good instincts, aren't afraid of contact and seem to have a knack for being in the right place at the right time. Don't need to be the leading scorer to make an impact.

Pronunciation

- First Name: ROD-ee

Who Is Roddy Gayle Jr.?

- Big Ten Toughness: Physical, athletic guard who brings strength, experience and an edge to both ends of the floor. Comfortable playing through contact, battling for rebounds and taking on difficult defensive assignments.

- Downhill Attacker: At his best attacking the basket, using his strong frame, quick first step and explosiveness to get into the paint. Can finish through contact, elevate above defenders and create opportunities at the free-throw line.

- More Than a Slasher: Capable of scoring at all three levels, creating off the dribble or finding teammates when defenses collapse. Uses his strength and body control to create space and can take on a larger offensive role when needed.

- Transition Threat: Dangerous in the open floor, whether pushing the ball himself, running the wing or finishing with a powerful dunk. Can turn a defensive rebound or steal into a quick scoring opportunity.

- Defensive Versatility: Uses his strength, length and athleticism to guard multiple positions. Comfortable defending on the perimeter, fighting through screens and matching up against bigger wings.

- Emotional Spark: Plays with passion and intensity, feeding off the energy of his teammates and the crowd. Whether it's a powerful dunk, defensive stop or hustle play, has a knack for delivering momentum-changing moments.

Did You Know?

- A Championship Collection: Helped Michigan win the 2025 Big Ten Tournament, 2026 Big Ten regular-season championship and 2026 NCAA national championship. Was part of the Wolverines' school-record 37-win season and their first national title since 1989.

- Niagara Falls Roots: Grew up in Niagara Falls, N.Y., and starred at Lewiston-Porter High School before transferring to Wasatch Academy in Utah. Scored more than 1,000 points early in his high school career.

- A Basketball Family: His father helped coach and develop his game growing up, while his mother has been a trusted source of guidance and support. Credits both with helping shape his development and important life decisions.

- Business Beyond Basketball: Has an interest in real estate and entrepreneurship, exploring student-housing investments with former Michigan teammate Nimari Burnett. Sees business as a potential career path beyond basketball.

Reminds Us Of ...

- Professional Comparisons: Josh Hart, Bruce Brown and Luguentz Dort -- strong, athletic two-way guards who play with an edge. Like to attack downhill, finish through contact and get to the free-throw line. Embrace tough defensive assignments, bring plenty of energy and aren't afraid to mix it up physically.

Who is Oscar Goodman?

• Versatile Two-Way Forward: Athletic, physical forward who combines size, strength and basketball IQ to impact both ends of the floor. Comfortable playing inside or on the perimeter, with the versatility to fill several roles.

• Physical & Fearless: Embraces contact, using his strength, balance and footwork to establish position and finish through defenders. Attacks the basket with confidence and has a soft touch around the rim.

• More Than a Finisher: Developing perimeter shooter who can also handle the ball, make the extra pass and create opportunities for teammates. Comfortable operating from multiple spots on the floor.

• Instinctive Defender: Uses his length, mobility and anticipation to guard multiple positions. Communicates well, recognizes rotations and brings a physical presence on the defensive end.

• High-IQ Competitor: Plays with poise, maturity and a strong understanding of the game. Makes quick decisions, moves the ball willingly and brings consistent effort without needing to be the focal point of the offense.

Did You Know?

• A Kiwi Through and Through: Has represented New Zealand at the U15, U16, U17 and U19 national team levels, competing in major international tournaments around the world.

• All Blacks Pride: A passionate fan of New Zealand's legendary All Blacks national rugby team, one of the country's most iconic sporting traditions.

• Making History: Helped New Zealand finish fourth at the 2025 FIBA U19 World Cup in Switzerland, its best finish in tournament history. Averaged 6.4 points, 5.1 rebounds and 1.9 assists.

• An Early Arrival: Graduated from high school and enrolled at Michigan for the winter 2025 semester, getting a head start on college basketball through practices and scout-team work.

• An NBA Pipeline: Developed at the NBA Global Academy in Australia, whose alumni include NBA players Josh Giddey and Dyson Daniels (both went directly to the professional ranks), Johnny Furphy (Kansas), Tyrese Proctor (Duke) and Alex Condon (Florida).

Reminds Us Of ...

• Professional Comparisons: Jaime Jaquez Jr., Deni Avdija and Andre Jackson Jr. -- strong, skilled forwards who can do a little bit of everything. Use their footwork and strength to score inside but are also comfortable handling the ball and creating for teammates. Play with patience, rebound well and know how to use their size to their advantage.

Who is J.P. Estrella?

- Physical Frontcourt Presence: Skilled, energetic big man who brings size and toughness to Michigan's frontcourt. Comfortable battling in the paint and providing interior scoring and rebounding.

- More Than a Traditional Big: Mobile frontcourt player who can operate around the basket or face up to the rim. Uses his footwork and soft touch to create scoring opportunities.

- Relentless on the Glass: Active rebounder who uses positioning, timing and effort to create second-chance opportunities. Particularly effective pursuing offensive rebounds.

- Pick-and-Roll Threat: Sets solid screens, rolls hard to the basket and provides a target for guards attacking the paint. Comfortable finishing through contact around the rim.

- Battle-Tested Competitor: Brings three seasons of SEC experience and three NCAA Elite Eight appearances to Michigan. Plays with confidence and intensity against high-level competition.

Did You Know?

- From Opponent to Wolverine: Estrella's final game at Tennessee came against Michigan in the 2026 NCAA Elite Eight. He finished with seven points and seven rebounds as the Wolverines defeated the Volunteers, 95-62, on their way to the national championship.

- Three Straight Elite Eights: Helped Tennessee reach three consecutive NCAA Tournament Elite Eights (2024-26), bringing extensive postseason experience to Michigan.

- Maine's Finest: Led South Portland High School to its first Class AA state championship in 30 years in 2022. Averaged 20.2 points, 11.8 rebounds and 4.1 blocks as a junior, earning Class AA South Tournament Outstanding Player honors.

- Basketball in the Family: His mother, Allie (Booth) Estrella, was named Maine Miss Basketball in 1995 before playing at Boston College from 1995-99. Estrella lists his mother as his favorite athlete.

- Seven-Inch Growth Spurt: Grew seven inches between his sophomore and junior years of high school, with his shoe size jumping from 13 to 17. Now stands 6-11 with a 7-2 wingspan.

Reminds Us Of ...

- Professional Comparisons: Bobby Portis, Isaiah Hartenstein and Naz Reid -- skilled big men who can score in the post or step away from the basket. Have good footwork, a soft touch and can knock down open jumpers. Play with physicality, set solid screens and work hard on the glass, especially when it comes to creating second-chance opportunities.

Pronunciation

- First Name: MAL-uh-kigh

Who is Malachi Brown?

- The Lefty Guard: Athletic lefty guard who can knock down outside shots, attack the basket and finish through contact. Has good size and length, with the ability to play different spots on the perimeter.

- Defense Comes First: Takes pride in guarding the other team's best player, something his father challenged him to do growing up. Likes to pressure the ball, jump passing lanes and make things difficult for opposing guards. Has the size and quickness to defend multiple positions.

- Plays with an Edge: Brings energy, toughness and a competitive attitude to the floor. Doesn't need a lot of shots to make an impact and is willing to do the little things to help his team. Likes to get out in transition and turn defensive stops into easy baskets.

- Building His Game: Describes himself as a three-and-D player but wants to become more than that. Continues to work on his ballhandling, creating his own shot and getting stronger. Arrived at Michigan around 193 pounds and reached 205 during summer workouts.

Did You Know?

- From Under the Radar to Michigan: Wasn't heavily recruited before catching Michigan's attention at the Adidas All-American Camp in 2025. Had just one other Division I offer, from UC Santa Barbara, when Dusty May visited his high school practice and offered him a scholarship. Brown committed on the spot.

- A Big Summer: Averaged 15.3 points, 4.5 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 1.3 steals with Tennessee Impact during the summer of 2025, earning Adidas 3SSB Circuit Third Team honors. Finished as a three-star prospect ranked among Tennessee's top seven players in the Class of 2026.

- One Final High School Stop: Played his first three seasons at Kingston High School before transferring to Knoxville Catholic for his senior year. Averaged 15.9 points, 5.7 rebounds, 2.5 assists and 2.2 steals, helping the Fighting Irish reach the 2026 Tennessee Division II-AA state semifinals.

Reminds Us Of ...

- Professional Comparisons: Herb Jones, Dyson Daniels and Kentavious Caldwell-Pope -- long, athletic wings who make their mark on defense. Can pressure the ball, get into passing lanes and make life difficult for opposing guards. On offense, can make open threes, cut to the basket and keep the ball moving without needing a lot of shots.

Who is Jalen Reed?

• Physical Presence: Strong, athletic forward who brings size, toughness and four seasons of SEC experience. Comfortable battling in the paint, finishing through contact and providing an interior defense.

• Swiss Army Knife: Versatile 6-9 forward who can handle the ball, pass, defend multiple positions and protect the rim. Comfortable attacking off the dribble or creating opportunities for teammates.

• More Than a Traditional Big: Possesses a developing perimeter game and the ability to face up defenders. Combines strong footwork and touch around the basket with the ability to step outside and knock down an occasional three-pointer.

• Defensive Versatility: Uses his size, strength and mobility to challenge shots, protect the paint and compete on the glass. Gives Michigan another physical option across multiple frontcourt matchups.

• Battle-Tested Leader: Experienced competitor who started 39 games at LSU and served as a team captain. Brings maturity, resilience and a willingness to do the physical work that doesn't always appear in the box score.

Did You Know?

• 317 Days Later: Returned to game action in Michigan's exhibition against Eastern Michigan on Oct. 11, 2026, after missing 317 days following a left Achilles injury at LSU.

• Back-to-Back Comebacks: Suffered season-ending injuries in consecutive seasons at LSU -- a right ACL tear in December 2024 and a left Achilles injury in November 2025.

• Basketball Bloodlines: His late father, Justin Reed, starred at Ole Miss from 2000-04, becoming the first player in program history to earn All-SEC honors in all four seasons. He was the 2001 SEC Freshman of the Year and helped the Rebels reach the 2001 NCAA Sweet 16.

• Coast-to-Coast Prep: A native of Jackson, Miss., Reed spent two seasons at national powerhouse Oak Hill Academy in Virginia before finishing his prep career at Southern California Academy. Earned consensus four-star recruiting recognition.

• Never Leave on a Miss: Has a personal basketball superstition of never leaving the gym after a missed shot. Enjoys playing video games and listening to music, and lists shrimp alfredo as his favorite food.

Reminds Us Of ...

• Professional Comparisons: Kevon Looney, Xavier Tillman Sr. and Isaiah Stewart -- skilled, physical 4/5 men who are comfortable playing inside or facing the basket. Have good footwork, a soft touch around the rim and can find teammates from the high post. Can score inside, knock down open shots and use their strength and mobility to defend different positions.

Pronunciation

- First name: moo-STAH-fah
- Last name: CHAHM

Who is Moustapha Thiam?

- Elite Rim Protector: Athletic 7-2 center who uses his tremendous length, timing and instincts to challenge shots and protect the paint. Changes opponents' approach around the basket and provides a defensive presence behind Michigan's perimeter defenders.

- More Than a Traditional Big: Possesses a developing inside-out game, combining soft touch and improving footwork around the basket with the ability to face up defenders and step outside for occasional three-pointers.

- Above-the-Rim Threat: Mobile big man who runs the floor, sets screens and provides a target for guards attacking the paint. Dangerous rolling to the basket, catching lobs and finishing above the rim.

- A Presence on the Glass: Uses his size, length and positioning to compete for rebounds on both ends. Provides second-chance opportunities offensively while helping control the defensive glass.

- Underrated Passing Big: More than just a scorer and rim protector, Thiam has a natural feel for finding open teammates. Comfortable passing out of the post, facilitating from the high post and making smart reads when defenses collapse around him.

- Developing Playmaker: Shows growing comfort reading defenses and finding open teammates. Can facilitate from the high post or make passes out of the paint, adding another dimension to Michigan's offense.

Did You Know?

- From Senegal to Michigan: A native of Dakar, Senegal, Thiam moved to the United States in 2022. Attended DME Academy in Daytona Beach, Fla., before beginning his college career at UCF, transferring to Cincinnati and ultimately joining Michigan.

- A Fixture: Started all 65 games over his first two collegiate seasons, making 34 starts at UCF in 2024-25 and 31 at Cincinnati in 2025-26.

- A Record-Setting Freshman: Blocked 88 shots at UCF in 2024-25, setting a school freshman record and ranking fourth nationally. Rejected a career-high eight shots against Kansas State on Feb. 26, 2025, tying UCF's single-game record.

- A Three-Game Statement: Scored a career-high 28 points with eight rebounds in Cincinnati's upset victory at No. 8 Kansas on Feb. 21, 2026. Followed with 21 points at No. 16 Texas Tech and 24 against Oklahoma State in his next two games.

Reminds Us Of ...

- Professional Comparisons: Walker Kessler, Donovan Clingan and Chet Holmgren -- long, mobile big men who can change a game with their shot-blocking and presence around the basket. Use their size and wingspan to protect the rim, alter shots and make opponents think twice about driving inside. Can finish lobs, score around the rim and run the floor well for their size.

Season Ending Injury

• The Injury: Tore the ACL in his right knee during Michigan's final game of its European tour against Mega Superbet on Aug. 27, 2026.

• Surgery and Recovery: Had successful surgery Sept. 10 in Los Angeles, performed by Dr. Neal ElAttrache. Expected to make a full recovery and return for the 2027-28 season.

Who is Brandon McCoy Jr.?

• Explosive Two-Way Guard: Athletic guard with good size, speed and a lot of bounce. Plays hard on both ends and can make an impact scoring, passing or defending.

• Attacks the Basket: Likes to get downhill, attack defenders and finish above the rim. Can create his own shot off the dribble and has the ability to knock down shots from the perimeter.

• Defensive Playmaker: Uses his length, quickness and instincts to pressure the ball and jump passing lanes. Creates steals, gets out in transition and can change a game with his defense.

• Does a Little of Everything: Can handle the ball, set up teammates and help on the boards. Has the size and athleticism to play different roles in the backcourt.

• Used to the Big Stage: Has played against some of the best young talent in the world through USA Basketball, national all-star games and high school championship runs.

Did You Know?

• The Gold Standard: Won three gold medals with USA Basketball at the 2023 FIBA U16 Americas Championship, 2024 FIBA U17 World Cup and 2025 FIBA U19 World Cup. Was named Best Defensive Player at the 2024 U17 World Cup after averaging 3.4 steals per game.

• A Fab Five Commitment: Announced his commitment to Michigan during the Fab Five's Final Four broadcast against Arizona on April 4, 2026. The announcement came the same night the Wolverines earned a spot in the national championship game.

• Familiar Faces: Played alongside fellow Michigan freshman Quinn Costello at the 2026 McDonald's All-American Game and Jordan Brand Classic. Also teamed with former Wolverine Morez Johnson Jr. on the United States' gold medal-winning team at the 2025 FIBA U19 World Cup.

Reminds Us Of ...

• Professional Comparisons: Amen Thompson, Jalen Suggs and Anthony Black -- explosive, athletic guards who love to play fast and attack the basket. Use their size and speed to get downhill, push the ball in transition and create for teammates. Bring that same aggressiveness on defense, pressuring the ball, jumping passing lanes and helping on the glass.

#5 | Lincoln Cosby

- Year Freshman
- Position Forward
- Stats 6-10 | 215
- Hometown Cincinnati, Ohio
- Prep Montverde Academy [Montverde, Fla.]
- Michigan College of Literature, Science & the Arts
- Degree Undecided
- Birthday November 29, 2008 in Nashville, Tenn.

Recovering from ACL

• The Injury: Suffered a torn ACL after playing five games at Montverde Academy during the 2025-26 season. Continues to rehab and is expected to miss the 2026-27 season.

• Recovery First: Michigan is giving Cosby time to fully recover while he works on his strength and adjusts to college basketball. A redshirt season would allow him to focus on getting healthy without losing a year of eligibility.

Who Is Lincoln Cosby?

• Versatile Forward: Athletic forward with good size, length and the ability to play several positions. Comfortable on the perimeter but can also make plays around the basket.

• Inside-Out Scorer: Can put the ball on the floor, attack the basket and finish through traffic. Also has a perimeter shot that makes him a threat away from the paint.

• More Than a Scorer: Good passer who sees the floor well and looks to get teammates involved. Comfortable handling the ball and making plays rather than just looking for his own shot.

• Defensive Versatility: Has the length and quickness to guard multiple positions. Can stay with players on the perimeter, challenge shots inside and help on the boards.

• Room to Grow: Young forward with a nice combination of size and skill. The time away from games gives him a chance to get stronger, work on his game and prepare for his return.

Did You Know?

• A Year Ahead of Schedule: Reclassified from the Class of 2027 to 2026 before committing to Michigan in February. Was ranked among the top 10 players nationally in the 2027 class before becoming a four-star, top-50 prospect in 2026.

• Overtime Elite History: Became the youngest player to sign with Overtime Elite in 2023 at just 14 years old. Spent two seasons in the program before moving to Montverde Academy in Florida.

• The Team Comedian: Calls himself an introvert, but his teammates have a different take. During a September appearance on Defend the Block, Cosby learned that several teammates considered him the funniest guy on the team. Says he's more outgoing once he gets comfortable around people.

Reminds Us Of ...

• Professional Comparisons: Jaden McDaniels, Jonathan Isaac and Mikal Bridges -- long, athletic forwards who can cover a lot of ground defensively. Use their length to bother shooters, disrupt passing lanes and challenge shots. Have the mobility to play on the perimeter, can put the ball on the floor and attack the basket, and don't need a lot of touches to contribute.

#7 | Howard Eisley Jr.

- Year Junior
- Position Guard
- Stats 6-0 | 180
- Hometown New York, New York
- Prep Archbishop Stepinac High School
- Michigan College of Literature, Science & the Arts
- Degree Communications & Media
- Birthday September 15, 2005 in New York, N.Y.

Who is Howard Eisley Jr?

• The Ultimate Teammate: Walk-on guard who understands his role and does whatever the team needs. Brings energy to practice, supports his teammates and helps out wherever he can.

• Everyday Competitor: Works hard every day and helps push his teammates in practice. Takes pride in being prepared and making sure the guys he's going against are ready for game day.

• High Basketball IQ: Grew up around basketball and has a good feel for how the game is played. Understands spacing, tempo and where he needs to be on the floor.

• Offensive Fundamentals: Capable of attacking off the dribble, finding open teammates and knocking down perimeter shots. Continues to develop his game while providing valuable practice competition.

Did You Know?

• Basketball Runs in the Family: Son of former Detroit Southwestern and Boston College standout Howard Eisley, who played 12 NBA seasons with eight teams. His father finished his NBA career with 5,116 points, 2,748 assists, 540 steals and 516 three-pointers. He also spent five seasons (2019-24) as an assistant coach at Michigan under Juwan Howard.

• Playing with Legends: His father played alongside Hall of Famers John Stockton and Karl Malone with the Utah Jazz, helping the team reach back-to-back NBA Finals in 1997 and 1998 against Michael Jordan's Chicago Bulls.

• Used to Winning: Helped Archbishop Stepinac High School in New York win back-to-back CHSAA Division AA City and State championships in 2023 and 2024. At Michigan, has been part of the 2025 Big Ten Tournament championship, 2026 Big Ten regular-season title and 2026 NCAA national championship teams.

• First College Bucket: Scored his first collegiate points on a three-pointer against La Salle on Dec. 21, 2025. Also picked up his first career steal in that game.
