WOLVERINES START SEASON 3-1, FACE TOUGH TEST IN COLLEGE BASEBALL SERIES

MICHIGAN AT COLLEGE BASEBALL SERIES FEBRUARY 20-22

GLOBE LIFE FIELD (ARLINGTON, TEXAS)
TV: FloCollege | Stats: MGoBlue.com

TOP STORYLINES

» The University of Michigan baseball team (3-1) heads to Arlington, Texas, for the College Baseball Series and a big test after winning the inaugural College Baseball Series in Surprise, Ariz. The event will take place at Globe Life Field, home of the Texas Rangers, and features six teams. Michigan will kick off the tournament facing No. 16-ranked Florida State (3-0) on Friday (Feb. 20) at 11 a.m. CT. The weekend will continue with Michigan taking on No. 15-ranked Louisville (2-2) on Saturday (Feb. 21) at 11 a.m. CT and concludes with a matchup against undefeated Kansas State (4-0) on Sunday (Feb. 22) at 6:30 p.m. CT. All three games will be streamed live on FloCollege.

» Michigan opened the season in Arizona, facing two preseason Top 25 teams, and went 3-1, winning the inaugural College Baseball Series. The Wolverines opened with taking down No. 12-ranked Oregon State 5-3, with two runs in the eighth inning breaking a 3-3 tie; the victory was highlighted by four RBI from Evan Haeger. The winning ways continued as the Wolverines held on to defeat Stanford 7-6 and used small ball to defeat No. 24 Arizona 4-1. U-M suffered its first loss of the season on Monday (Feb. 16), falling 5-4 in 10 innings against No. 11 Oregon State.

» The Wolverine pitching staff shone over the opening weekend with a team 3.00 earned-run average and a 2.25 WHIP while striking out 8.3 batters per nine innings. The ERA and WHIP rank third among conference teams and are in the top 50 nationally.

» Tate Carey drew the Opening Day start and struck out five batters in five innings of work while allowing three runs on seven hits in a no-decision. The sophomore has yet to be tagged with a loss at Michigan in 19 appearances, holding a 9-0 record with a career 3.77 ERA.

» Cade Montgomery made his Michigan debut on Saturday (Feb. 14) against Stanford, allowing no earned runs in 6.1 innings. The junior allowed one unearned run on five hits and a walk while striking out five and picking up the win. He spent his first two years at Utah Tech with a career 4.05 ERA in 108.2 innings pitched.

» Kurt Barr earned the Sunday start and pitched seven innings, striking out eight Wildcats. Barr allowed just one run on six hits to pick up his first win of the season and 13th of his career. The senior holds a 3.88 ERA over 190.0 innings pitched with the Wolverines.

PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

Coach Smith Reaches 900 Career Wins After 3-1 Weekend

In his fourth season with the Wolverines, Head Coach Tyrcy Smith has totaled 95 wins with Michigan and with the win over Stanford reached 900 in his head coaching career. He started at Miami (Ohio) tallying 317 wins, adding 287 at Indiana and 201 at ASU before coming to U-M. He became the 138th coach in NCAA baseball history and the 94th in D-1 to reach 900 wins. Coach Smith ranks 15th among active D1 head coaches in wins.

Carey Earns Opening Day Start, No-Decision vs. No. 12 OSU

Sophomore Tate Carey was named the opening day starter and pitched five innings allowing three runs on seven hits with five strikeouts. Carey walked just one batter and did not earn a decision in the game which U-M ended up winning. He has not suffered a loss in his U-M career with a 9-0 record across 19 appearances and eight starts. He holds a 3.77 ERA for his career with 56 strikeouts in 62 innings.

Montgomery Shines in U-M Debut, 6.1 Innings vs. Stanford

Junior transfer Cade Montgomery made his debut for the Wolverines on Saturday (Feb. 14) after two seasons at Utah Tech. Montgomery pitched 6.1 innings to earn the win and allowed no earned runs (one unearned run) while striking out five batters. The junior allowed five hits and one walk against a Stanford offense that has scored 29 runs over four games. He holds a 4.05 career ERA with 97 strikeouts in 106.2 innings.

Kurt Barr Throws Gem in Season Debut

Senior captain Kurt Barr started on Sunday against No. 24 Arizona and struck out eight batters over seven innings. Barr allowed one run on six hits picking up the win. In his career, Barr is 13-9 with 50 appearances and 32 starts totaling 190.0 innings, 159 strikeouts and his career ERA is 3.88 ranking 65th all-time.

DeVooght Appears Three Times, Two Saves, No Runs

Junior Gavin DeVooght appeared in three contests all from the bullpen in close situations. On Friday, DeVooght faced four batters in the ninth walking one until retiring three in a row to earn the save. He returned to the next day with the first three runners reached until a throw out at home and a strikeout garnered him his second save. DeVooght pitched again on Monday and allowed no runs on two hits while striking out three in the seventh, eighth and ninth innings. This season he has allowed one unearned run on four hits while striking out four in 4.2 innings. He is one of 20 players nationally with three appearances on the mound and one of nine with two saves.

Brinham Impresses In Debut, Two Appearances

Freshman Shane Brinham was the first freshman to debut over the weekend for the Wolverines coming into the first game in the seventh inning. Brinham pitched 1.2 scoreless with two strikeouts in his first outing and did not allow a baserunner and picked up the win. He returned to the mound two days later and pitched the final two innings in a 4-1 game to earn his first save. Against Arizona, he allowed one hit and struck out one. Brinham was a draft pick of the Dodgers but did not sign and currently holds a 0.00 ERA over 3.2 innings at U-M.

Lally Jr. First Arm Out of Pen, Started Monday

Senior David Lally Jr. was the first arm out of the pen on Friday and pitched 1.1 scoreless innings although he allowed two hits and a walk. He returned to the mound on Monday and started allowing two runs (one earned) on two hits while striking out three. In his two years at Michigan, he has a 4.80 ERA with 17 appearances and 14 starts over 80.2 innings with 58 strikeouts.

Debiec Two Appearances, Four Strikeouts in 2.2 Innings

Senior Max Debiec pitched twice over opening weekend allowing two runs on two hits in 2.2 innings. He struck out four batters with no walks. The senior stands 6-foot-7 and held a 2.57 ERA last year over 19 games with three saves.

Novara, Preston Barr, Finkbeiner See Action First Week

Along with the other seven arms who were used over the weekend, three others saw action on the mound. Wyatt Novara pitched in the finale on Monday and allowed one run in one inning of work. Preston Barr has appeared twice and has struggled so far allowing four runs on three hits. Tyler Finkbeiner made his debut on Monday against Oregon State and after balking in a run did not allow a runner he put on base score. The Wolverines still have other options out of the pen who have yet to see action including Keegan O'Hearn, Slade Moore, Grant Bradley and Erik Puodzianas.

Stressler Leads Hitters Over First Four Games

Transfer outfielder Brenden Stressler is currently hitting .500/.563/.786 with all three marks leading the team. His average is 10th in the Big Ten and 99th in the nation while his slugging percentage ranks 26th in the conference. Stressler has two of the five extra base hits for Michigan so far this season and the lone home run. He homered in his first at-bat as a Wolverine and added another run in the contest. On the season, he has three runs, three RBIs and 11 total bases.

Haeger Named Tournament MVP, Five RBIs In Weekend

Evan Haeger was chosen as the Surprise College Baseball Series MVP and went 6-for-15 over the weekend with a team-leading five RBIs. Haeger's five RBIs all came with two outs which ranks tied for 18th in the NCAA so far this year including a career-high four in the win against Oregon State on Friday. He added a run and a stolen base over the four games as well.

Ladehoff Three Extra Base Hits In Opening Weekend

Designated Hitter Cade Ladehoff tallied five hits over four games with three going for extra bases. The junior reached base in every game and recorded two doubles and a triple with two runs and two RBIs this year. Ladehoff joins Stressler with an OPS over 1.000 at 1.074 to begin the year. He has only seen action as designated hitter and returns to the lineup after missing most of last year due to an injury.

Pace Jr. Started All Four Games, Hitting .300

Redshirt junior Greg Pace Jr. is one of six Wolverines to start every contest doing so in centerfield. Pace has tallied three singles and drawn three walks in 10 at-bats while adding two runs and an RBI. He has also stolen a base and is 1-for-2 so far this year. Pace has boosted his career average to .230 and has 46 hits, 50 runs and 31 RBIs in 200 at-bats in his four seasons at Michigan.

Miller Started At Catcher Three Times, Three Hits

Catcher Noah Miller started three of the four games over the weekend and tallied three hits with one RBI. The redshirt sophomore added three walks and reached base in all three games extending his on-base streak to seven games, dating back to last year. He also caught the only batter who tried to steal so far this season. Miller has 27 hits so far in his career with 11 runs and 19 RBIs.

Ossenfort Scores Twice Against Arizona, Four Hits in 2026

Junior Matt Ossenfort appeared in all four games over the weekend with three starts at 14 at-bats. Ossenfort reached base in all four games including hits in the last three. His best game came against Arizona where he tallied two runs on two hits helping U-M win 4-1. The junior has one error so far this season but has turned four double plays, one in each game.

Turner Four Hits, Two Runs In Opening Weekend

After seeing action mostly in the outfield last year, Colby Turner has played every moment at second base. He has tallied hits in three of the four games including a two-hit, one run, one RBI day on Monday against Oregon State. Turner has been solid defensively with just one error in 19 chances recording 8 putouts, 10 assists and three double plays.

Jefferies Back In Infield, Three Runs on Three Hits

Brayden Jefferis saw action across seven positions last year but has seen every moment of the season at third base to start the year. The sophomore tallied three runs, three hits and two RBIs over the first four games and added five walks. He reached base in each contest including a two-hit day against Stanford.

Culbertson Everyday Shortstop

Drew Culbertson made his debut for U-M starting opening day and has held down the shortstop position since then. The junior went 2-for-3 for his first two hits of the season and added an RBI. Culbertson has also recorded two sacrifice bunts this season while turning four double plays in the field.

Kilgman Makes Michigan Debut, Starts Sunday

Catcher Elie Kilgman made his debut behind the plate in the bottom of the eighth on opening day before making his first start on Sunday. Kilgman singled in the start for his first hit of the season and tallied another hit of the bench on Monday. He joins as a graduate transfer after two years at Sacramento State.

Morrow Earns Collegiate Debut, Scores in Opener

Redshirt-freshman Dane Morrow made his Michigan and collegiate debut as a pinch runner on opening day, scoring a run on Haeger's single. Morrow got his first at-bat on Monday singling and scoring in his first at-bat. He spent his first season at Tennessee but did not see any action.

Campbell Pinch Runs Twice, Starts On Monday

Freshman Josh Campbell started on Monday recording a fly-out in his only at-bat but scored against Stanford and Oregon State as a pinch-runner. Campbell was a top recruit from the state of Michigan.

Luna Clutch Hit On Saturday

In his debut, Carson Luna came in as a pinch-hitter and delivered a one-out RBI single in the seventh inning. Luna got the start at first base on Monday but went 0-for-2 against Oregon State. The redshirt freshman began his career at Texas.

Kim Struggles in Early Chances in 2026

So far this season, Jonathan Kim has seen two at-bats and has not recorded a hit, striking out both times. He walked in the finale on Monday and recorded a putout as the team's left fielder.

Mullens Sees One Chance, Executes Bunt

After redshirting last season, Cooper Mullens has seen one chance this year which was a pinch-hit appearance against Oregon State on Friday. Mullens laid down a successful sacrifice bunt in the eighth inning and both runners ended up scoring in a 5-3 win.

PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

Preseason Awards and Honors:

DeVooght Named TO NCBWA Stopper of Year Watchlist

Gavin DeVooght was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Watchlist. DeVooght spent his freshman year with Ohio State before transferring to Michigan last season. He pitched in five games, starting four amassing 15.2 innings. An injury shut down his season early, but he struck out 14 batters and earned two wins in the opening week of the season over No. 2-ranked Virginia and Stetson. DeVooght was a Big Ten All-Freshman team selection in 2024 at Ohio State. He is one of 104 players on the watchlist to begin the season and one of 13 from the Big Ten.

Carey Slated As Big Ten Preseason Pitcher of The Year Twice

Sophomore Tate Carey was chosen as the Preseason Big Ten Pitcher of the Year by Perfect Game and Just Baseball Media. The sophomore held a 9-0 record last year with a team-leading 3.63 earned-run average and 1.21 WHIP. He struck out 51 batters over the course of his 57 innings. He also pitched a no-hitter against Akron as a freshman, the first by a Wolverine since 1994. Last season, Carey earned NCBWA Freshman All-America honors and was selected to the All-Big Ten Freshman team.

Carey, DeVooght, Miller Selected As Players To Watch

Coach Tracy Smith selected sophomore Tate Carey, junior Gavin DeVooght and redshirt-sophomore Noah Miller as Big Ten Players to watch heading into the 2026 season. Carey finished his freshman season with a 9-0 record and team leading 3.63 ERA and a 1.21 WHIP. Carey started the 2025 season in the bullpen before earning a mid-week start against Akron where he threw a no hitter thus gaining a spot in the weekend rotation by the end of the year. DeVooght pitched 15.2 innings last year for the Wolverines after transferring in from Ohio State. He got two wins in the opening weekend Puerto Rico Challenge last year before his season ended early in the conference opener against Illinois. Miller split time last year at catcher but earned the majority of starts by the end of the season. He was named to the All-Big Ten tournament team at catcher while slashing .293/.402/.476 over the course of the season.

Six Named to D1 Baseball 2026 Big Ten Draft Rankings

Greg Pace Jr. leads the six Wolverines on the 2026 Big Ten MLB Draft rankings as the 18th-ranked player. Pace Jr. enters his redshirt junior season after slashing .313/.448/.586 last year. Cade Montgomery is the next Wolverine on the list coming in at 22. Montgomery joins the program after two seasons at Utah Tech where he struck out 48 batters in 57.1 innings last year. Gavin DeVooght is the third Wolverine on the list ranking 42nd. DeVooght pitched 15.2 innings last year with 14 strikeouts before an injury ended his season early. Colby Turner closely follows at 44th on the list after a streaky 2025 season where he finished with .238/.347/.427 slash line and 61 total bases. Redshirt sophomore Noah Miller ranks 56th on the list after being named to the All-Big Ten Tournament team last year and a .293 batting average and 11 extra-base hits. Lefty Wyatt Novara rounds out the list at 60th overall and has shown flashes as a 6-3 lefty but has managed 11.0 innings over his two seasons.

Carey Ranks 6th in D1 Baseball 2027 Big Ten Draft Rankings

Tate Carey was the only Wolverine on the D1 Baseball Draft Rankings and finished his freshman campaign with nine wins, the second most all-time by a Michigan freshman. He led the team in ERA at 3.63 while striking out 51 batters in 57 innings during his first season in Ann Arbor. His 51 strikeouts was good for a tie for third on the team. He combined for two shutouts, including a no-hitter -- the first by a Wolverine since 1994.

D1 Baseball Names Brinham Impact Freshman For 2026

Coming in at 14th on the list of Impact freshman is Shane Brinham who was selected with the last pick of the MLB Draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers. Brinham did not sign and honored his commitment to Michigan instead. Brinham was the No. 1 player in British Columbia and No. 3 in all of Canada by PBR while he ranked as the No. 1 left handed pitcher in British Columbia by Perfect Game. Brinham pitched 51.2 innings in his senior year where he struck out 89 batters with a 0.82 ERA.

New Look Roster After Some Key Losses From 2025 Season

U-M lost its full starting infield from the past season, a group that started 44 games together with three of the four playing in every game. Mitch Voit led the Wolverines in most offensive categories including a 1.139 OPS, 14 home runs, 60 RBIs, 139 stolen bases, 14 stolen bases and was the only player to start every game last season. Benny Casillas also had over a 1.000 OPS due to his .401 batting average and led the team with 21 doubles. Jeter Ybarra and Cole Caruso held down the corners and combined for 18 home runs, 89 RBIs, 74 runs and both hit over .280. Matt Spear started the most games at catcher in 2025 for Michigan and hit .231 with five home runs. On the mound, Will Rogers graduated after recording eight saves in 23 appearances across 58.1 innings and Dylan Vigue transferred after 59.1 innings with a 4.25 ERA and 51 strikeouts.

Coach Smith Enters Fourth Season In Charge of Wolverines

Head Coach Tracy Smith enters his fourth season at U-M and 29th collegiate coaching season. He has a 93-79 overall record at Michigan with a 898-691-1 record over his 29 years of coaching. Coach Smith has taken his previous three teams to NCAA Regional Appearances doing so in his fourth season at Miami (OH) and Indiana and his first at ASU. He is one of just 19 coaches to take three teams to an NCAA Regional and could become just the third to lead four different teams to a NCAA regional.

Valentine and Huntzinger Return To Coaching Staff

Assistant Head Coach Jake Valentine and Pitching Coach Brock Huntzinger are back on the staff for their third and fourth seasons with the program respectively. Valentine joined U-M from Washington State where he helped WSU to a 29-23 record and its first ranking since 2010. He has also spent time at Portland, UC Riverside and Stephen F. Austin after his playing career finished at Hawai'i Pacific. Huntzinger spent 10 years in professional baseball reaching Triple-A after being selected in the third round. He spent time under Coach Smith at Indiana and ASU before he was the coach at Boise State.

Three New Additions to Staff For 2026 Season

The Wolverines are joined by Andrew Stone, Adam Cornwell and Cole Caruso. Stone joins the program as an assistant coach after spending four years at Michigan State. He spent two years as a volunteer coach before becoming an assistant and working with the infielders and hitters while serving as the first base coach. Before coaching at Michigan State, Stone spent two years at Kalamazoo College where the Hornets set their second-highest win total. As a student-athlete, Stone spent five years at Western Michigan playing in 155 career games and finished with a career average on .304. He helped the Broncos to the 2016 MAC tournament title and the first NCAA berth since 1989. Cornwell joins as the Recruiting and Player Development Assistant. He joins from the University of Indianapolis after four seasons, serving as the team's pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. In his four seasons at UIndy, the team reached three Midwest Regional titles, two Midwest Super Regional titles, and back-to-back trips to the NCAA D2 World Series. Before coaching at UIndy, he coached at Dayton and Iona. Cornwell played for Indianapolis for three seasons before finishing his career at Pittsburgh. With the Greyhounds, he led the team to a pair of NCAA Division II Tournament appearances. Caruso joins as the team's hitting and infield development assistant after serving as U-M's third baseman the past two seasons. He started 114 games over two seasons. In his senior season, Caruso slashed .284/.360/.512 with 23 extra base hits and 11 home runs.

Series Recaps--

Wolverines Go 3-1 In Opening Weekend, Two Ranked Wins

University of Michigan opened its season with a 3-1 weekend at the Surprise College Baseball Series, showing both resilience and balance in wins over No. 12 Oregon State, Stanford and No. 24 Arizona before falling in extra innings to No. 11 Oregon State. The Wolverines rallied late in Friday's 5-3 win over the Beavers, tying the game in the sixth on Evan Haeger's two-run single before he delivered the go-ahead two-run knock in the eighth, backed by shutdown relief from Shane Brinham and Gavin DeVooght. On Saturday, Michigan built a lead behind Cade Montgomery's 6.1 strong innings and Cade Ladehoff's all-around effort, then survived a wild ninth in a 7-6 victory over Stanford, with DeVooght stranding the tying runs. Sunday's 4-1 win over Arizona was fueled by Kurt Barr's seven dominant innings and timely small ball, as Matt Ossenfort and Greg Pace Jr. sparked a balanced 10-hit attack. The finale saw Michigan erase a 3-1 deficit against Oregon State with clutch RBIs from Colby Turner, Noah Miller and Ossenfort, but a walk-off homer in the 10th spoiled another late push despite DeVooght's steady relief, closing a weekend defined by late-inning execution and deep pitching performances.

Meet Team 160-

Team 160 is made up of 18 players who saw action last season, five players who redshirted last season, eight freshman and nine transfer students. U-M returns three defensive starters from the final game of last season in Greg Pace Jr., Brayden Jefferis and Noah Miller. Pace Jr. and Miller will remain at CF and C respectively as Jefferis shifts to 3B most likely. The Wolverines return seven pitchers who started games last season highlighted by Tate Carey, Kurt Barr and David Lally Jr. Michigan's roster has two grad students, six seniors, eight juniors, six redshirt-sophomores, five sophomores, six redshirt-freshmen and eight freshman. Positionally, U-M has listed 17 pitchers on its roster with three catchers, 11 infielders and five outfielders.

Haeger Brings Family Tradition To Ann Arbor

Evan Haeger is new to Michigan this year as a redshirt sophomore with previous stops at Houston and Alabama. Haeger played in 39 games at Houston, including 11 starts last season after not seeing action at Alabama in his first collegiate season. The only Cougar to start one game at every outfield position, he was strong defensively with just one error over the season. At the plate, he totaled 11 runs on 12 hits including three doubles while bringing home four runners. Haeger's father, Greg, played baseball at Michigan from 1988-1990 before being drafted in the 21st round by the Detroit Tigers. Greg Haeger played in 153 games totaling 114 hits, 79 runs, 79 RBIs with a .270 average. He also saw seven appearances on the mound not allowing a run in 8.2 innings while striking out 11. Evan Haeger adds depth to a competitive outfield.

Brayden Jefferis Star Freshman, Plan To Anchor 3B

Brayden Jefferis is returning for his sophomore season after an All-Big Ten Freshman campaign for the Wolverines last year. Jefferis appeared in 41 games including 29 starts, in which he saw action in seven different positions and only committed one error. At the plate, he posted a .267 batting average and a .398 on-base percentage with 28 hits, 20 runs and 18 RBIs. Jefferis broke out on March 29th against Penn State with a four hit, two run, two RBI day. After moving around the field last year, Jefferis will hold down third base in 2026.

PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

Pace Jr. Finds Bat in 2025, Ready for Big 2026

Greg Pace Jr. is back for his redshirt junior season after making a huge impact for the Wolverines last season. Pace Jr. appeared in 54 of U-M's 56 total games, including 32 starts. In the field, he has been near perfect, with only two errors throughout his three seasons at U-M in his 164 chances. As a hitter, Pace Jr. had 99 at-bats and recorded 31 hits, 30 runs, and 21 RBIs for a .313 batting average, good for third on the team. He finished the season as one of three players with an OPS over 1.000 due to a .448 on base percentage and .586 slugging percentage. Pace was second on the team in stolen bases last season with eight and added 14 extra base hits. In his first two seasons, Pace struggled at the plate with 12 hits in 91 at-bats and received a medical redshirt after an injury early in the 2024 season. In the final game of the season, Pace Jr. hit a massive 440 foot home run to the batter's eye in center field becoming just the eighth player to do so in over 600 games at Charles Schwab Field. He is currently slated to be the center fielder this season.

Miller Returns to Behind The Plate, Emerges Last In Season

Catcher Noah Miller is back for his redshirt sophomore season after contributing for the Wolverines last year. Miller appeared in 37 games, including 22 starts mostly at the catcher position. In those games, he registered 24 hits, 11 runs, and 18 RBIs with a .293 hitting percentage. In the Big Ten Tournament, Miller totaled four hits in eight at-bats including two doubles and his first career home run. He earned All-Big Ten Tournament honors adding one run and three RBIs to his totals. He played in two games in the 2024 season including one start before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Miller comes into the season as the starting catcher and contributes defensively catching for runners stealing last year.

Lally Jr. Back After Leading U-M in Innings in 2025

Senior David Lally Jr. is back for his second season for the Wolverines after spending his freshman and sophomore years at Notre Dame. Last year at Michigan, Lally Jr. posted a 4.95 ERA and 1.34 WHIP over a team-leading 76.1 innings. He struck out 54 batters and was one of five qualified U-M pitchers on the season. Lally pitched two seven inning complete games, one against Purdue and the other against Mount St. Marys. The 2025 season was an improvement from his two years spent at Notre Dame where he combined for a 7.04 ERA over 30.2 innings pitched. Lally will return to the starting rotation this season and improve on last season.

Kurt Barr Returns, Former All-Big Ten Selection

Kurt Barr is back for his senior season with the Wolverines. A key piece to the starting rotation the past two seasons, Barr led the team in strikeouts in last year and ERA the season before. Throughout his 31 career starts, 49 career appearances, and 183.0 innings pitched, Barr has struck out 151 total batters and posted a 12-9 record. Barr holds a 3.98 career ERA with a season-best 3.41 ERA coming in 2024 where he was also an All-Big Ten Third Team Selection. He pitched a complete game in 2024 against Minnesota and had six starts last season of six or more innings. Barr is joined by his brother Preston on the team and figures to have a spot in the rotation.

Veteran Longo Brings Experience to Young Infield

Graduate Student Joe Longo is back to play for the Wolverines after completing four years with the program. After seeing no action as a freshman, Longo saw the most game action his sophomore year, hitting .277 with an on base percentage of .371 in 42 games. He added a strong season at the plate as a junior, where he hit .281 with 25 hits and seven extra base hits. Last season, he saw limited action with just four starts across 23 games but came up clutch twice with a pinch-hit home run against Illinois and a pinch-hit bases clearing double against Penn State. Over his career, Longo has started 55 games and played in 101 with nine home runs, 26 runs and 38 RBIs. Longo will provide leadership and with pinch-hit chances most likely.

Culbertson Joins U-M as Third School, Opening Day Shortstop

Transfer Drew Culbertson comes to Michigan for his junior season after his freshman year at Missouri and sophomore season at Oklahoma State. Last season at Oklahoma State, Culbertson saw action in 44 games, starting in 39 of them. In 104 at-bats, he drew 17 walks for a .302 on-base percentage and added 14 runs and 11 RBIs. As a freshman at Missouri, he played in 48 games, starting in 45 of them with eight multi-hit games in his freshman season and scoring 22 runs including a home run. Across his two collegiate seasons, Culbertson has totaled 11 stolen bases and seven extra base hits. He is currently penciled in as the opening day shortstop.

Montgomery Transfers In, Adds Depth To Starting Rotation

Another transfer looking to make an impact this season is junior Cade Montgomery. Prior to U-M, Montgomery spent two years in the rotation at Utah Tech. After a 6.91 ERA over 17 appearances and six starts his freshman season, he made huge improvements his sophomore year. Last season he pitched 57.1 innings pitched over 10 starts with a 2.35 ERA and 48 strikeouts allowing just 19 walks. He went at least five innings in every outing of his sophomore campaign until his final appearance on April 25. He struck out a career high nine batters in six scoreless frames against California Baptist. Montgomery will challenge for a spot in the rotation this season.

Carey To Lead Staff After Breakout Freshman Season

NCBWA Freshman All-American Tate Carey is looking to lead the Wolverines on the mound this season. As a freshman, he appeared in 18 games with seven starts, pitching 57.0 total innings. With the second-most wins as a freshman in U-M history, Carey's 9-0 record was backed by his team leading 3.63 ERA and 1.21 WHIP. Throughout the season, he threw one complete game, a seven-inning no-hitter, as well as combining for a shutout. Carey's first start came against Akron on April 8th and he threw a no-hitter to earn himself a spot in the rotation. He followed it up with seven strikeouts in five innings against Mount St. Marys. Carey started in five of the last six weekends allowing just 10 runs and striking out 44 in 40 innings. He earned All-Big Ten honors making the All-Freshman team and earned a NCBWA All-American and National Pitcher of the Week honors.

6' 7" Debiec Contribute from The Pen After Strong Season

Senior Max Debiec is back to Michigan for his final season after spending one year at Washington, Texas A&M, and Folsom Lake College (JUCO). After only playing in three games at Washington as a freshman and a redshirt season at Texas A&M the following season, Debiec had a breakout year at Folsom Lake College being selected as an All American. He slashed .449/.500/.775 with 12 home runs and added 20 appearances on the mound with 47 strikeouts. In his first season with the Wolverines, he appeared in 19 games pitching 28.0 innings and began his U-M time with 11.2 scoreless innings. In 2025, he compiled a 2.57 ERA and 1.36 WHIP with 15 scoreless outings and 20 strikeouts. Debiec will add to U-M's bullpen this season.

Turner Hopes To Find Consistency in 2026, Strong Summer

Junior Colby Turner returns for his second season with the Wolverines after beginning his collegiate career at San Diego State. An accolade-filled freshman season, Turner earned Mountain West Freshman of the Week honors five times and slashed .361/.417/.582 with 15 extra base hits. Last season at Michigan, he played in 45 games with 39 starts. Over 143 at-bats, Turner hit .238 with 10 doubles and five home runs. He was a streaky hitter starting his time at U-M 0-13 and just 2-18 over the first month of the season. Turner heated up in March including a 3-for-4 day with six RBIs against USC. He ended the season cooler with three hits in the final six games. Defensively, he was strong with one error in 81 chances. Turner was named a Cape Cod League All-Star over the summer and comes into the 2026 season hoping to find a consistent bat and starting at second.

Luna Joins U-M After Redshirt Season At Texas

Redshirt-freshman Carson Luna joins the Wolverines after a season at Texas where he did not see game action. Before his collegiate career, Luna was ranked 141st nationally and 14th in the state of Texas by Perfect Game. His senior season he hit .381 with four home runs and 19 RBIs, and led his team to their first Southwest Preparatory Conference Championship since 1991. Luna was a first team all conference shortstop his junior and senior year, and was a First Team All-VYPE Houston Private School Baseball selection his senior season. Luna will get chances this season, most likely at 2B or SS.

DeVooght Back From Injury, Hoping To Stay Healthy

Junior Gavin DeVooght is looking to bounce back for a successful season after an injury cut his sophomore season short. Prior to injury, he pitched in 15.2 innings over five total appearances and four starts where he registered a 5.17 ERA, striking out 14 batters with a 2-2 record. He dazzled in the Puerto Rico Challenge allowing just four hits and no runs over 7.1 innings while striking out nine and picking up two wins. His final appearance came as a start against Illinois where he pitched one inning before an arm injury sidelined him for the remainder of the season. Before Michigan, he spent a year at Ohio State where he was a Big Ten All-Freshman Team selection, striking out 37 in 44.1 innings and compiling a 5.08 ERA. DeVooght will start the season in the bullpen, but may get a chance to start at some point.

Stressler Strong Fall, Ready For First Big Ten Season

Brenden Stressler is a junior transfer who spent his past two seasons at Saint Louis. In his freshman season, he played in 30 games and registered a .207 batting average with 10 RBIs. He broke out his sophomore year, starting all 59 games and hitting .287 in 216 at-bats with 21 extra-base-hits including 11 home runs, along with 14 stolen bases. Stressler was the only Bilkein to start every game last season and led the team in home runs and was second in hits. He was U-M's best hitter in the fall hitting .727 with a 2.197 OPS across two games. Stressler will start in the outfield, most likely in left or right field.

Mann Adds Depth To Bullpen, Former Football Player

Previously a dual-sport athlete in baseball and football, Brandon Mann returns for his senior season. Last season, Mann appeared in 10 games and pitched 9.1 innings. He struggled early on but allowed just one run over his final 6.2 innings adding four strikeouts. The senior pitched 36 innings for his first two years in 40 appearances and two starts. Mann will add depth and experience to the Michigan pen.

Morrow Transfers From Tennessee, Compete in Infield

Dane Morrow joins the Wolverines as a redshirt freshman after a year spent at Tennessee. The Vols made it to the super regional last year. Throughout his high school career at Trinity High in Louisville, Kentucky, Morrow collected four years of All-District and All-Region honors, with two seasons of All-State honors. He finished his high school career with a .380 average, 38 runs, 29 RBIs and was the second ranked shortstop in the state. Morrow is not in the projected opening day lineup but will fight for at-bats and opportunities.

Kim Back For Senior Season, Compete in Competitive Outfield

Veteran senior Jonathan Kim is prepared for his final season after a previous three successful seasons for the Wolverines. As a junior, Kim appeared in 46 total games with 29 starts totaling 115 at-bats. He hit .270 that season, recording 31 hits, 18 runs, 15 RBIs, and five stolen bases. With similar numbers his sophomore season, he hit .272 over 136 at-bats. As a freshman, Kim was an All-Big Ten Third Team selection and an All-Big Ten Freshman Team selection. These honors were backed by an impressive, team-leading .322 batting average along with 15 extra-base-hits. He holds a .290 career average with 115 hits, 63 runs and 58 RBIs with 26 doubles, two triples, and eight home runs. Kim is slated to start in left field but has competition.

Novara Back From Injury, Hoping For Strong Season in Bullpen

Junior Wyatt Novara returns for his third season with the Wolverines. Novara is looking to improve this season after only 4.2 innings pitched last season due to an injury. In his career, Novara has appeared in 19 games with two starts with eight strikeouts. He is strong academically and was a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar last year. The Michigan native was a preseason High School All-American his senior year and was named to the MLive Dream Team his junior and senior year. Novara will add depth in bullpen as a left-handed pitcher.

Preston Barr Finds Stride As Freshman, Hoping for Next Step

Sophomore Preston Barr is hoping to improve upon a well-played freshman season. After an initial, undesirable game against UCLA, Barr held a 5.26 ERA over the remaining 17.1 innings he pitched the remainder of the season. With a 1-1 record on the season, he recorded his first career win over Central Michigan on May 7th and added seven strikeouts over 18.2 innings with just four walks. Barr will aim to take the next step and earn high leverage roles this year.

Kligman Enters Fifth Year, An Experienced Catcher, Competing For Starts

Transfer graduate student Elie Kligman comes to Michigan after two years at Sacramento State with previous stops at Fullerton Community College and Wake Forest. In his two years at Sacramento State, Kligman appeared in 73 games for the Hornets at either catcher or designated hitter. At the plate last season, he hit .245 and had an on-base percentage of .368 with 21 walks. Kligman finished with six multi-hit games as well as six extra base hits. In his junior season, he hit .292 with nine extra base hits and threw out nine runners. Kligman is an orthodox Jew and will not play Friday after sundown through sunrise on Sunday. When he is able to Kligman will see starts at catcher and potentially designated hitter.

Leitgeb Back After Injury, College Baseball Family

After an injury before the season forced Brock Leitgeb to redshirt last year, he is looking to bounce back in his redshirt sophomore season. In his freshman season, he appeared in 34 games including 24 starts behind the dish recording nine hits with three going for extra bases while adding seven runs and seven RBIs. Leitgeb has two brothers, one who is currently playing baseball at Washington and one who previously played baseball for Washington. Leitgeb will see action at catcher most likely at some point during the season.

PLAYER & TEAM NOTES

Finkbeiner A Top Rated Recruit From Michigan, Ready For First Season

Tyler Finkbeiner is ready for his freshman season with the Wolverines. The Michigan native was a force his senior year in high school, compiling 67 strikeouts and a 0.72 ERA over 38.2 innings pitched with a 6-0 record. He was ranked the fourth overall player in Michigan and the second ranked right-handed pitcher by Perfect Game and earned All-State honors twice. His mother, Amy, and father, Chad, played volleyball and baseball, respectively, down the road at Wayne State. Finkbeiner will see time in the bullpen to start.

Laffitte From California, Could See Action In New Look Infield

From Pacific Palisades, California, freshman Jack Laffitte prepped at Harvard-Westlake. Laffitte was a 2025 All-Mission League First Team selection as well as a 2025 Los Angeles Daily News All-Area Team, helped by his batting average of .453 in the Mission League. He was ranked the 19th best third baseman in California. Laffitte could see some action in the infield this season or get some at-bats as a pinch hitter.

Ladehoff Returns From Injury, Strong Hitter, Could Start At DH

Redshirt sophomore Cade Ladehoff is back for his second season with the Wolverines after a monstrous freshman season at New Jersey Institute of Technology. At NJIT, he set multiple single-season records including hits (79), RBIs (60), and total bases (142). The National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Freshman Second Team All-American designated hitter transferred to U-M his sophomore year, where he appeared in 17 games totaling 10 runs on eight hits with two home runs before suffering a hand injury. Ladehoff is back and healthy this season and is penciled in to start as the opening day designated hitter.

O'Hearn Two-Way Contributor, Shift to Mound Likely, Tops at 100 MPH

Keegan O'Hearn is looking to build on a solid season with the Wolverines last year. The red-shirt sophomore had success at the plate, slashing .281/.439/.563 with nine runs on nine hits including two home runs. His best day came in a doubleheader against Ohio State where he homered in both games of a doubleheader scoring four total runs and five RBIs. He also spent some time on the bump for U-M, totaling four strikeouts over 2.2 innings of work and can throw over 100 MPH but is working on his control. O'Hearn factors into the bullpen this season and could see some scattered at-bats.

Brinham Brings International Experience, Drafted By Dodgers, Did Not Sign

Freshman Shane Brinham joins U-M from North Vancouver, British Columbia. Brinham was the 10th overall ranked player in British Columbia, and the top ranked left-handed pitcher. In his senior year of high school, he pitched 51.2 innings and accumulated a 0.82 ERA with 89 strikeouts. He was drafted with the final pick of the 2025 MLB Draft by the Los Angeles Dodgers but did not sign with the team. Brinham has played with the Canadian U18 Junior National Team and has shown poise on the mound in practice. He figures to get chances in the bullpen to start but could challenge for the rotation by the end of the season.

Hughes Transfers In From UNC, Adds A Lefty Arm To Bullpen

Transfer John Hughes joins Michigan after redshirt season spent at North Carolina. The left-handed pitcher was ranked 29th overall in the state of Illinois coming out of high school, and was the third ranked left-handed pitcher. He holds the Illinois state record with 26 straight scoreless playoff innings throughout his high school career. Hughes was a two-time Illinois State champion and pitched 15 innings over senior year with a 2-0 record, 21 strikeouts and a 1.70 ERA. He should see some action in the bullpen this season.

Quedens Back For Second Season, Hoping to Make Bigger Impact

Sophomore Michael Quedens is back for the Wolverines after making four appearances last season, totaling four innings pitched over four appearances and one start. He struggled with command last season but hopes to find better locations this year. Prior to his collegiate career, Quedens was ranked as the 51st left-handed pitcher in the nation, and 19th in California according to Perfect Game. He will see some opportunities in the pen again this year.

Ossenfort Brings SEC and ACC Experience, Strong Bat At First Base

Junior Matthew Ossenfort joins U-M after playing his sophomore season at NC State, and his freshman season at Vanderbilt. He played in six games at Vanderbilt, and recorded a home run as his first collegiate hit against Valparaiso. Last season at NC State, Ossenfort hit .240 in 24 appearances including 16 starts where he totaled 50 at-bats with 12 hits and six RBIs. He is penciled in at first base to start the season.

Campbell Top Rated Outfielder In Michigan, Spent Time at IMG

Michigan native Josh Campbell returns to the state for his freshman season at Michigan after spending his high school career at IMG Academy. Campbell helped IMG win the Max-Preps National Championship in 2023 and 2025 with a career .354 batting average. He was the top ranked outfielder and the third overall ranked player in Michigan for his class. Campbell has two brothers who both played college baseball with his brother Sanborn still playing now at Toledo after four years at Stanford. His dad played football at Michigan State. Campbell could see some action this season in a competitive outfield.

Moore Top 25 Player In State of Michigan, Ready for Chances in Bullpen

Freshman Slade Moore comes out of West Bloomfield, Michigan, attending the same high school as former Michigan running back Donovan Edwards. In his senior season, the left-hander pitched 49.0 innings and compiled 110 strikeouts with 1.20 ERA. He was ranked as the seventh best left-handed pitcher in Michigan, and the 23rd best overall player, earning All-State honors twice. Moore will see action in the bullpen this season most likely.

Raymond Stays Local, Excited To Don Maize and Blue This Year

Caleb Raymond is one of the five pitchers recruited in the Wolverine's freshman class and hails from Ann Arbor. Raymond was a four year varsity letter winner at Ann Arbor Skyline high school and earned All-Region honors his senior year. Over the summer before his freshman year, he pitched 37.2 innings with a 6-0 record, 48 strikeouts, and a 1.12 ERA. Raymond will add to a deep Michigan bullpen.

Mullens Returns To Playing After Redshirt Season In 2025

Redshirt sophomore Cooper Mullens is back for the Wolverines after redshirting last season. Mullens saw action as a freshman where he appeared in 25 games and tallied four hits, three runs, and five RBIs in 18 at-bats. Mullens will find playing time in the new look infield this year.

Bradley Back For Sophomore Season, Saw Second Most Action For Freshman Pitcher

Right-hander Grant Bradley is hoping to improve on his freshman season which saw him in a variety of role. Last season, Bradley pitched a total of 16.1 innings in 13 appearances and three starts, totaling 17 strikeouts with a 1-1 record. Bradley had four scoreless outings last year and will hope to continue that throughout this season most likely in relief.

Brown Back After Redshirt Last Season, Hoping To See Playing Time

Redshirt freshman Justin Brown is a right-handed pitcher hoping to make the field this year for Michigan. Attending high school only a half hour outside of Ann Arbor, Brown won a State Championship with Northville in his senior year where he pitched 62.0 innings, recording 84 strikeouts and a 1.80 ERA earning All-Region honors. Brown will add to the U-M bullpen.

Rudden Joins From Colorado, Earned All-State Honors, Adds To Bullpen

Freshman Wyatt Rudden is a right-handed pitcher who prepped at Cherry Creek High School in Greenwood Village, Colorado. As a senior, Rudden was a First Team All-State Selection by Prep Baseball Colorado, and won the Colorado High School Baseball Roy Halladay award. He possessed a career 2.15 era with 13 wins and 148 strikeouts in 117 innings pitched. Rudden will look for early action in the Wolverines bullpen.

Hill Returns After Injury, Ready To Make An Impact In Michigan Bullpen

Michigan native and redshirt freshman Brennan Hill is another pitcher hoping to make an impact this season. Hill comes from a family of athletes, with every member having played or is playing college athletics. His mother, Lindsay, and his father, Jason, both played sports at Aquinas College. His brother Tyler played baseball at Lansing Community College, Ball State, and Davenport, while his brother Drew currently plays baseball at Wayne State. Hill did not see action last year due to an injury but will look for action this year in the Michigan bullpen.

Puodziunas Hopes To See Time This Season After Redshirt Last Year

Another right-hander, Erik Puodziunas, is looking to make the field this season as a redshirt freshman. Originally from Sherman Oaks, California, Puodziunas prepped at Notre Dame High School. A dual-sport athlete in high school, he played varsity baseball for two years and varsity football for three years. As a senior, he had a 1.55 ERA and a 5-1 record over 40.2 innings pitched. He will most likely see time in the bullpen this season.

Twomey Joins From Nation's Capital, Hoping to See Time In Infield

Will Twomey is a freshman infielder from Washington D.C. who prepped at Georgetown Prep. His senior year, he slashed .398/523/687 and was selected as a First Team All Private School in Maryland. He was ranked as the best overall player in Washington D.C. and 30th 3B in the country. Twomey will fight for a spot in the new look infield this year.

Park Back For Third Season, Strong in Very Limited Action Last Year

Junior Joonsung Park is back for the Wolverines for his junior season. Last season, he only had three at-bats, but got a hit in two of them with one being a grand slam against Villanova (Feb. 16). As a freshman, Park started three games with 13 total appearances, and tallied three hits with four runs and two RBIs. Park is a favorite of the players and hails from South Korea. He will hope to find more playing time this year, most likely in the infield.

Michigan W-L: 96-80

Tracy Smith enters his fourth year as head coach for the Wolverines. Smith holds a 93-79 in his three seasons at Michigan and finished 4th in the Big Ten Tournament in his first two seasons. He led U-M to sixth in the conference in the regular season in his first season, fourth in his second season and seventh in his third season.

He has led 15 Wolverines to All-Big Ten teams, including Pitcher of the Year Connor O'Halloran in 2023 who was a fifth round pick in the 2023 MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays. U-M tallied six honors in the 2024 season including three members on the first team. In 2025, Michigan had two members on the first team, one on the second team and two freshman selections. Smith also worked with Mitch Voit who collected multiple All-American honors and was selected as a first round pick in the 2025 MLB Draft by the New York Mets.

Smith came to Ann Arbor with 25 years of head coaching experience and 805 victories while producing 90 MLB Draft picks, including seven first-rounders and seven USA Baseball Collegiate National Team selections. One of just eight coaches all-time to bring three different Division I schools to the NCAA Tournament, Smith most recently led the Arizona State University baseball program between 2015-21 and advanced the Sun Devils to four NCAA Regional appearances in six seasons.

Smith earned National Coach of the Year and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in 2013 after leading Indiana to the school's only Men's College World Series appearance in a 49-win campaign. The Hoosiers followed that performance with 44 victories in 2014 before Smith moved west to ASU. Before his time at Indiana, Smith led his alma mater, Miami University (Ohio), for nine seasons.

At Arizona State, Smith signed the nation's top recruiting class in 2016, including eight players drafted by the Major League out of high school. His 2017 class was also rated in the Top-5 nationally and was the No. 1 class in the West region.

Among the 92 MLB Draft selections developed under Smith, a staggering 60 of them have come over his past 12 seasons, including the No.1 overall pick of the 2020 MLB Draft, Spencer Torkelson, three first-rounders in 2019, 2020 and 2025 (Hunter Bishop, Alike Williams, Mitch Voit, respectively), and the fourth overall pick in 2014 in Kyle Schwarber. In addition, three other first-round selections played under Smith's tutelage in 2009 in Eric Arnett, Josh Phegley, and Matt Bashore.

Torkelson, already playing with the Tigers, was a two-time Golden Spikes Award semifinalist, given annually to the top player in college baseball. He was a unanimous All-America selection and became the first Pac-12 player in history to be crowned the league home run champion in three consecutive seasons.

Despite the 2020 MLB Draft being shortened to five rounds from 40 due to the fallout from COVID-19, the Sun Devils made history as ASU's five draft selections through the first four rounds marked a program record. The five selections in the 2020 MLB Draft were the most of any program. In addition, it was ASU's third consecutive season with five draft picks and the fourth season in the last five years with the total.

In guiding Indiana to consecutive 40-win seasons in his final two campaigns in Bloomington, Smith secured back-to-back Big Ten championships for the first time in school history. The Hoosier's title in 2013 was the school's first since 1949 and its first outright title since 1932 en route to the No. 4 national seed, the first national seed in Big Ten history. Smith mentored two Big Ten Players of the Year, three Big Ten Pitchers of the Year, and a pair of Big Ten Freshman of the Year at Indiana.

In nine years at Miami (Ohio), Smith compiled eight consecutive 30-win seasons, two NCAA Regional appearances, and advanced to the Mid-American Conference Tournament finals six times. He began his coaching career as head coach at Miami University-Middletown in 1990, served as an assistant coach at Miami (Ohio) from 1993-94, and was the pitching coach at Indiana from 1995-96.

Smith was a four-year letterwinner as a pitcher and infielder at Miami (Ohio) before playing three seasons in the Chicago Cubs organization. He graduated from Miami (Ohio) in 1989 with a bachelor's degree in education before completing a master's degree in sport organization from the school in 1992. A native of Kentland, Indiana, Smith and his wife, Jaime, have three sons, Casey, Ty, and Jack.
