Quick Notes

- Michigan is making its ninth Final Four appearance and third in the last 10 NCAA Tournaments; U-M is 7-1 all-time in national semifinal games and has reached the national title game in each of its last seven Final Four appearances.
- U-MM punched its ticket to the Final Four with wins over No. 16 Howard (101-80), No. 9 Saint Louis (95-72), No. 4 Alabama (90-77) and No. 6 Tennessee (95-62).
- During its 2026 run, the Wolverines reached their seven straight Sweet 16s in their last seven NCAA Tournament appearances and made their fifth Elite Eight in the last 10 NCAA trips.
- U-M has 90+ points, 25+ field goals, 15+ assists, 10+ three-pointers and 8+ blocks in all four NCAA Tournament games. Six Wolverines are averaging double figures in the NCAA Tournament, with a seventh at 9.5 points per game. Yaxel Lendeborg leads at 21.0 points per game.
- Lendeborg has three straight 20-plus point games, scoring 25 against Saint Louis, 23 against Alabama, and 27 against Tennessee. He has added 25 rebounds and 13 assists in that stretch while shooting 61.3 percent from the field and 70.0 percent from three, with at least three triples in each game.
- Lendeborg is the first Wolverine with three straight 20-point NCAA Tournament games since Juwan Howard had four in a row in 1994. He is the fourth Wolverine to do it, joining Glen Rice (6; 1989), Howard, and Cazzie Russell (3; 1965).
- Elliot Cadeau has four straight games with seven-plus assists. His 33 total assists are the third most by a Wolverine in a single NCAA Tournament, trailing Rumeal Robinson (56; 1989) and Trey Burke (38; 2013).
- Quietly, against Tennessee, Cadeau posted eight points and 10 assists, his fifth career 10+ assist game, while surpassing 1,000 career points (1,003) and 600 career assists (603) across his time at Michigan and North Carolina.
- Cadeau's 10 assist game vs. Tennessee was the 10th such performance in U-M NCAA Tournament history, joining Rumeal Robinson (3), Gary Grant (2), Xavier Simpson, Derrick Walton Jr., Trey Burke, and Jalen Rose.
- With two blocks against Tennessee, Aday Mara extended his single-season blocks record and became the first Wolverine to reach 100, surpassing Roy Tarpley's previous mark of 97 set in 1985-86.

Who is Michigan?

The Leaders & Best

- U-M is built on reliability, confidence, passion, relationships, responsibility, humility, and a shared willingness to sacrifice for the greater good of the team.
- Dusty May emphasizes collective excellence over individual accolades, fostering a team-first culture rooted in trust, accountability, and unselfish play.
- Offensively, the Wolverines play at a fast pace with an emphasis on transition opportunities and a read-and-react system. The attack is driven by spacing, long-range shooting, and multiple ball-screen actions. Ball movement is non-negotiable, with players encouraged to pass up good shots for great ones and to shoot decisively and confidently.
- Defensively, Michigan employs an active man-to-man scheme highlighted by frequent switching on both on- and off-ball actions. The Wolverines typically exchange all four perimeter positions while maintaining traditional coverage with the five. Constant communication, active hands, and disruptive energy are demanded on every possession.
- Staff collaboration is central to the program's identity. Akeem Miskdeen and Drew Williamson work closely with May in coordinating the offense, while Mike Boynton Jr., Justin Joyner, and Kyle Church oversee defensive principles, game-to-game adjustments, and player development.
- Scouting responsibilities are shared across the staff: Boynton handles most scouts individually, the Joyner/Williamson tandem collaborates on assignments, and Church and Miskdeen form the third scouting pair -- ensuring comprehensive preparation and attention to detail.

Roster Construction

- In his first two seasons, head coach Dusty May has aggressively rebuilt Michigan's roster, adding 18 new players through a combination of the transfer portal, international recruiting, and prep signings.
- Roster philosophy centers on toughness, basketball IQ, and a team-first mindset -- cornerstones of May's "connected culture" built on trust, accountability, and shared purpose.
- Each recruiting cycle has intentionally blended experienced transfers with elite young talent, aligning with May's belief in pairing maturity and immediate impact with long-term development.

- Lendeborg is a relentless rebounder and interior anchor who led all of Division I with 26 double-doubles last season at UAB, pairing physicality with consistent production on both ends of the floor.
- Johnson Jr. provides a powerful freshman presence, bringing strength, athleticism, and defensive toughness that translate immediately in the paint and on the glass.

Michigan: Year One

- In his first season in Ann Arbor, Dusty May guided Michigan to a 27-10 record, a runner-up Big Ten regular-season finish (14-6), and as the No. 3 seed, captured the program's fourth Big Ten Tournament championship.
- After earning a double-bye in the Big Ten Tournament, U-M defeated Purdue (86-68) and edged Maryland in a last-second thriller (81-80) to advance to the title game. The Wolverines then overcame an 11-point second-half deficit to defeat Wisconsin (59-53) and claim the 2025 Big Ten Tournament crown.
- May led the Maize and Blue back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2022, where Michigan earned two opening-round victories -- over No. 12 UC San Diego (68-65) and No. 4 Texas A&M (91-79) -- to advance to the Sweet 16 for the sixth straight tournament.

The Florida Atlantic Era: The Rise

- When May was introduced as head coach at Florida Atlantic in 2018, he inherited a program with only one winning season in the previous decade. In six years, he transformed the Owls into a nationally recognized contender.
- In his debut season (2018-19), May guided the Owls to a 17-16 record, delivering the program's first winning campaign since 2010-11. By 2021-22, FAU had achieved four consecutive winning seasons -- a first in school history.
- The 2022-23 season became the defining breakthrough: a Division I-leading 35 wins, both Conference USA regular-season and tournament championships, and the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance, which culminated in a historic trip to the Final Four.
- The momentum carried into 2023-24, as FAU spent multiple weeks ranked in the national polls, earned back-to-back NCAA Tournament bids for the first time ever, and marked its successful transition into the American Conference.
- Over six seasons (2018-24), May compiled a 126-69 record, setting school records for overall wins, postseason appearances, and national rankings -- a tenure that redefined Florida Atlantic basketball on the national stage.

The Climb: Building Experience

- May joined Billy Kennedy's staff at Murray State (2006-07) before spending two seasons at UAB (2007-09) under former Indiana head coach Mike Davis, gaining valuable insight into pace, spacing, and offensive execution.
- From 2009-11, May reunited with Kennedy at Murray State, helping the Racers capture the 2010 Ohio Valley Conference championship and earn a first-round NCAA Tournament victory -- the program's first in more than two decades.
- He followed Kennedy to Louisiana Tech (2011-15), where the Bulldogs rose to national prominence as one of the country's most efficient mid-major programs. During May's four-year tenure, Louisiana Tech produced three straight 27-plus win seasons and made back-to-back NIT appearances.
- In 2015, May moved to the Southeastern Conference, joining Mike White's staff at Florida. Over three seasons (2015-18), he helped the Gators reach multiple NCAA Tournaments, including a run to the 2017 Elite Eight, while earning a reputation as one of the SEC's sharpest offensive minds.
- That success and his growing reputation for player development and offensive creativity paved the way for May's first head coaching opportunity, when he was introduced as the head coach at Florida Atlantic University in March 2018.

Catching the Bug: How It Began

- May's coaching journey began at his alma mater, Indiana University, where he served as a student manager under legendary head coach Bob Knight from 1996-2000. During those formative years in Bloomington, he absorbed the program's principles of discipline, preparation, and attention to detail that would anchor his own coaching philosophy.
- After graduation, May transitioned into video coordination and administrative roles at both USC and Indiana, gaining valuable early experience in player development, opponent scouting, and program operations while building relationships that would shape his coaching path.
- In 2005, May earned his first full-time assistant coaching position at Eastern Michigan under former Michigan assistant Charles E. Ramsey (2005-06) -- marking his official entry into the Division I coaching ranks and the beginning of a steady climb through the profession.
