MIAMI UNIVERSITY, PLEASE

When referring to Miami, please use Miami University, Miami University (Ohio) or Miami (Ohio). Please do not use Miami of Ohio, University of Miami of Ohio, etc. The latter are not the proper names for our institution. Also, in 1997, the University began using its new nickname, the RedHawks. It is one word with a capital H. Thank you.

Head Coach Jack Owens

Jack Owens Head Coach Eastern Illinois '00

Having begun the process of returning the Miami University men's basketball team to prominence, Jack Owens returns for his third season as the head coach of the RedHawks.

Last season, Owens led Miami to 15 victories and saw several of his players earn awards. Sophomore guard Nike Sibande was named Third-Team All-MAC after averaging 16.1 points and 5.1 rebounds per game. One of Owens' newest recruits, guard Mekhi Lairy earned a spot on the All-MAC Freshmen Team after averaging 6.3 points per game. Finally, senior guard Darrion Ringo showed his defensive prowess with a MAC-leading 67 steals as he earned a spot on the MAC All-Defensive Team.

Despite being hired in April 2017, Owens quickly showed his recruiting prowess by bringing in six new players to join the roster and saw immediate results. He led Miami to 16 wins in 2018 and a berth in the College Basketball Invitational. It was the 'Hawks most victories and first postseason appearance since 2011.

Sibande, one of Owens' recruits, was named MAC Freshman of the Year and Honorable Mention All-MAC. Ringo, who Owens got to transfer in from Eastern Arizona, was Third-Team All-MAC and was the only player in the nation to finish in the top 10 in both assists and steals. Another one of Owens' recruits, forward Dalonte Brown, joined Sibande on the MAC All-Freshmen Team.

The 2018 CBI appearance continued a pattern of success for Owens as his teams have advanced to postseason play in 14 of the past 19 seasons and went on to the NCAA Tournament in 11 of the past 15 years, including four trips to the Sweet 16. He has also helped secure several top recruiting classes, produced NBA talent and developed some of the nation's top players.

Prior to joining Miami, Owens spent the past nine seasons on staff at Purdue University, three as an assistant coach and the last six as its associate head coach. During his time the Boilermakers recorded 209 wins (23.2/year), including 27 during his final year (2016-17 season) to help Purdue win a Big Ten Regular Season Championship.

In Owens' nine seasons with Purdue, the Boilermakers made the NCAA Tournament on seven occasions, advancing to the Sweet 16 three different times.

Owens has helped produce five NBA draft picks, including AJ Hammons and Robbie Hummel and multiple professional basketball players. In 2017, he helped guide Caleb Swanigan to national attention, he was named one of five finalists for the John R. Wooden Award, given to the nation's top player. Owens came to Purdue after a five-season stint as an assistant at Southern Illinois. In 2003-04, Owens was part of a Southern Illinois team that went 25-5 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament. In the next four seasons at SIU, Owens helped guide the Salukis to three more NCAA Tournament berths, a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16, a Missouri Valley Conference title and an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament.

Prior to joining SIU, Owens served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Eastern Illinois, during the 2002-03 season, and spent the 2001-02 campaign as an assistant at Barton County Community College, which reached as high as No. 2 in the national polls during the season. Owens began his coaching career as an assistant at Howard Community College during the 2000-01 season, serving as the team's interim head coach for a portion of the year.

The Indianapolis native began his collegiate playing career at Murray State, and played a season at Howard Community College before playing two seasons at Eastern Illinois. While at EIU, Owens averaged 11.7 points and 6.5 assists per game as a senior, earning honorable mention All-Ohio Valley Conference honors. He also served as team captain during his final campaign, and garnered team MVP and Outstanding Defensive Player honors. During the 1999-00 season, Owens remained a part of the Eastern Illinois program as a student assistant coach.

Owens and his wife, Kamilah, have three daughters, Alanah, Aniyah and Anyah.

RedHawk Coaching Staff

Jeff Rutter
Assistant Coach
Winona State '88

A coach with extensive experience around the Midwest, Jeff Rutter returns for his third season as an assistant coach for Miami. He focuses on running the RedHawk offense, along with working on recruiting.

In his first two seasons with the RedHawks, Rutter helped lead Miami to 31 wins and a berth in the CBI in 2018.

In 2018, Miami's 16 victories were the most since 2011, and it was also their first postseason appearance since 2011. He mentored guard Darrian Ringo, who earned All-MAC honors and was the only player in the nation to finish in the top 10 in both assists and steals.

Rutter has also instrumental in the development of guard Nike Sibande, who was named MAC Freshman of the Year in 2018 after leading Miami with 15.1 points per game in 2018. In 2019 he was named Third Team All-MAC after improving to 16.1 points and 5.1 rebounds per game. Freshman forward Dalonte Brown, who was named to the All-MAC Freshmen Team in 2018, averaged 8.0 points and 5.4 rebounds per game during his rookie campaign.

Prior to arrive at Miami, Rutter spent the past four seasons at Drake, first as an assistant coach and then serving the last half of the 2017 season as the interim head coach. He was the lead recruiter for Reed Timmer, the program's all-time leading scorer and 3-time MVC Men's Basketball Scholar Athlete of the Year. Rutter also recruited forward Nick McGlynn, a First-Team MVC selection, and recruited a group that led the nation in NABC Honors Court selections with seven. During Rutter's tenure as head coach, he helped the Bulldogs win five straight home games, secure a road win at Missouri State, finished third in the league in scoring, first in 3-point shooting and scored over 100 points twice.

Prior to his time with Drake, Rutter spent seven seasons at Iowa State. During his time with the Cyclones he helped coach 13 All-Big 12 student-athletes and 32 professional basketball players (nine NBA players). Rutter helped guide the Cyclones to two NCAA Tournaments, both times advancing out of the first round. He spent the first four seasons of his ISU tenure as an assistant coach with Greg McDermott before assuming the role of director of operations in the spring of 2010 under Fred Hoiberg.

Rutter began his coaching career as a full-time assistant with the Bison from 1992-95. He then spent a season as an assistant at Stetson before taking on his first head coaching job at UW-Parkside, where he helped rebuild that program from 1996-03. Rutter then spent three seasons as an assistant coach at UNI from 2003-06 and advanced to three straight NCAA Tournaments.

Rutter and his wife Shari have a son, AJ.

J.R. Reynolds
Assistant Coach
Eastern Illinois '04

J.R. Reynolds returns for his third season as an assistant coach. His main focus is working with the RedHawk forwards and recruiting.

In his first two seasons with the RedHawks' Reynolds saw several players earn honors for their play. He mentored forward Dalonte Brown to an All-MAC Freshman Team selection in 2018 after he averaged 8.0 points and 5.4 rebounds per game during his rookie season. He saw Brown improve his scoring average to 11.5 points per game during his sophomore campaign in 2019. Guard Nike Sibande has had a fantastic couple of seasons under Reynold's watch. He was named MAC Freshman of the Year after averaging 15.1 points per game in 2018 and Third-Team All-MAC after averaging 16.1 points per contest in 2019. Guard Darrian Ringo was Third-Team All-MAC in 2018 and All-MAC Defensive Team in 2019. During his junior year he was the only player in the nation to finish in the top 10 in both assists and steals.

Reynolds assisted in a significant improvement for the RedHawks immediately once the staff was on board. During the 2017-18 season, Miami won its most games and qualified for the postseason for the first time since the 2010-11 campaign.

Reynolds came to Miami from Eastern Illinois, where he spent four seasons as an assistant coach for his alma mater. Reynolds helped the Panthers advance to the 2014 OVC Tournament, just the second time EIU had made back-to-back tournament appearances since the 2003 season. In 2015, he helped coach the Panthers to posting their second winning season since the 2001 season. EIU finished with an 18-15 record including winning an NCAA Division I school record nine straight games in December and January. EIU appeared in the CollegeInsiders.com Postseason Tournament beating Oakland in the opening round for the program's first NCAA Division I postseason victory.

Prior to his time at Eastern Illinois, Reynolds spent three seasons as a graduate assistant at Purdue. Working with Owens and head coach Matt Painter, the Boilermakers compiled a record of 77-27, as well as winning the Big 10 and advancing to the Sweet 16 in his first season.

Reynolds began his coaching career as an assistant at Southeastern Illinois College from 2004-07, helping lead the team to three straight 20-win seasons for junior college Hall of Fame coach Todd Franklin. Reynolds graduated from Eastern Illinois in 2004 with a Bachelor's Degree in economics and earned a Master's Degree from Purdue in 2012.

Coach Reynolds and his wife Leah have two sons, Jay and Cameron.

RedHawk Coaching Staff

Kenneth Lowe
Assistant Coach
Purdue '13

Former Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Kenneth Lowe is in his third season as an assistant coach at Miami. His main focus is working with the team on the defensive end, as well as assisting with recruiting. He joined the RedHawks after spending the four seasons with Purdue as an assistant video coordinator. He handled day-to-day film study and breakdown for the student-athletes and coaching staff.

"Kenneth is great with the guys," said head coach Jack Owens. "From a defensive standpoint he knows everything I'm looking for. He also excels in helping our team with skill development."

Prior to returning to Purdue, Lowe played professionally overseas for nine seasons in Turkey, Germany, Hungary, Venezuela and then in Finland from 2009-13. He led his team (Pyrinto) to the 2010 and 2011 Finnish League championship and the 2012 Gold Medal Cup. Along the way, he was named the Finnish League Player of the Month in February 2012.

Lowe graduated from Purdue in 2004 as one of the top defensive players in school history. He was the Big Ten's Defensive Player of the Year twice (2003 and 2004) while being a second-team All-Big Ten honoree in 2004 and a third-team choice in 2003.

Damon Frierson
Assistant to the Head Coach
Miami '99

Returning for his third year as Assistant to the Head Coach is Miami legend and Hall of Famer Damon Frierson.

Frierson handles several tasks for the men's basketball team. He is responsible for budget, team academics and the admission process for all of the newcomers. He serves as mentor to each of current players drawing upon his own experiences at Miami. Frierson also works with the program's managers and student assistants. He is the point person for an increased effort in both alumni and Miami Basketball alumni engagement.

A two-time All-MAC selection and the fifth all-time leading scorer for Miami men's basketball, Frierson propelled the RedHawks to MAC regular-season titles in 1997 and 1999 and a MAC Tournament crown in 1997. Leading Miami to three post-season appearances during his career from 1996-99, he was a key component on one of the greatest NCAA Tournament runs in program history as the 1999 RedHawks reached the Sweet 16. He owns the single-season record for minutes played (1,201) and ranks among MU statistical leaders in seven single-season categories and 12 career lists. Frierson is part of Miami's top scoring duo with Wally Szczerbiak, finishing his career with 1,644 points.

For all of his success with the Red and White, Frierson was inducted into the Miami Hall of Fame as part of the 2015-16 class.

Cowan Olinger
Director of Basketball Operations
Purdue '17

Cowan Olinger will be the new Director of Basketball Operations for Miami beginning with the 2019-20 season. He has spent the last 2 years as Graduate Assistant with Miami.

"I am thrilled that Cowan will now be joining our program full-time," said Owens. "His creativity has been an asset to what we are trying to build to and his ideas will continue to advance us further."

Olinger is responsible for all the behind the scenes and video operations of the program. That includes film breakdown of practices, games and opponent film, along with film exchange between schools. He also assists the coaching staff with opponent scout preparations and maintaining the recruiting database.

Prior to Miami, Olinger served as a student-manager at Purdue University from 2013-2017, spending his last year as Head Manager.

Olinger earned his bachelor's degree in Organizational Leadership and Supervision from Purdue in 2017 and earned his master's degree in Sport Leadership and Management from Miami in 2019.

Retired Numbers

RON HARPER

Ron Harper, the second-leading scorer in Mid-American Conference history, played at Miami from 1983-86. He became the first player in Miami history to have his jersey retired when he was honored in a ceremony at his final home game in 1986.

Harper was selected the MAC Player of the Year in 1985 and 1986. With 2,377 career points and 1,119 career rebounds, he became the first player in league history to top 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds. He ranked among the nation's leaders in scoring (24.4), rebounding (11.7) and steals (3.3) as a senior and was named a second-team All-American by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association, Associated Press, United Press International, and the National Association of Basketball Coaches. He also was named District IV Player of the Year by the USBWA. Harper became the first player in MAC history to record a "triple-double" when he registered 38 points, 19 rebounds and 12 assists against Ball State in 1986.

Harper averaged 24.9 points per game as a junior and was selected MVP of the MAC Tournament, during which he set a Miami and MAC Tourney record with 45 points against Ball State. As a sophomore, Harper averaged 16.3 ppg. He was selected Player of the Week by Sports Illustrated after registering 26 points and 13 rebounds and leading Miami to a 63-57 win at Indiana in the season opener.

Harper still owns or is tied for 19 Miami records, including points in a game (45) and career (2,377); field goals in a game (19), season (312), and career (969); rebounds in a career (1,119); and steals in a game (7), season (101) and career (287).

The high-flying Harper was drafted by the Cleveland Cavaliers in the first round of the 1986 NBA draft (eighth overall pick). After 3 1/2 years with the Cavs, he was traded to the Los Angeles Clippers, where he spent 3 1/2 seasons before signing a free agent contract with the Chicago Bulls, with whom he won three NBA championships (1996-98). In 1999, he signed with the Los Angeles Lakers and helped them win two NBA championships (2000 and 2001). Harper also served as an assistant coach for the NBA's Detroit Pistons.

WAYNE EMBRY

Former standout Wayne Embry (Miami '58), who played for Miami from 1956-58, had his jersey retired during the 1995 season.

Embry, a 6-foot-7 center, was a two-time all-Mid-American Conference player and led Miami to conference championships and NCAA Tournament appearances in 1957 and 1958. He led the MAC in scoring and rebounding his last two seasons and still holds several school records, including best career rebounding average (15.5).

He currently ranks No. 12 on Miami's all-time scoring list with 1,401 points and No. 2 on the all-time rebounding list with 1,117. He holds both Miami records for most rebounds in a game (34) and season (488). Embry is one of only 14 players in MAC history to total more than 1,000 career points and rebounds. He was a third-team Helms Athletic Foundation All-American as a senior.

In 1999, Embry received the highest honor a basketball player can achieve with his induction into the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass. Most recently, a stretch of U.S. Route 40 in front of Tecumseh High School near Springfield, Ohio, was named after him.

Following his graduation, Embry played 11 years of professional basketball with the Cincinnati Royals, Boston Celtics and Milwaukee Bucks and was a five-time NBA All-Star. Embry, who was inducted into the Miami Athletic Hall of Fame in 1970, is the former president and CEO of the Cleveland Cavaliers. He also has served as a member of Miami University's Board of Trustees. Embry currently is serving as the Senior Basketball Advisor to the President for the NBA's Toronto Raptors.

DICK WALLS

Dick Walls (Miami '53), a former Goodyear executive who played at Miami from 1951-53, had his No. 44 jersey retired during the 1995 season. The 6-foot-7, 260-pound center led MU in scoring and rebounding all three seasons and helped guide Miami to league titles his last two seasons.

A first-team all-MAC selection in 1951 and 1953, Walls led the conference in rebounding (14.3) in 1951 and in scoring (21.1) and rebounding (14.4) in 1953. He currently ranks 28th in career scoring at Miami (1,124), second in career rebounding average (14.0), fourth in career rebounds (978) and ninth in career free throws made (340).

Walls owns three of the top seven single-season rebound totals in school history, including 333 boards in 1952, which ranks No. 4 on the all-time list. He tallied the second-highest single-game point total in school history when he poured in 44 points against Western Reserve in 1952.

Following his graduation, Walls played for the Goodyear Wingfoots in the National Industrial Basketball League.

DARRELL HEDRIC

Darrell Hedric (Miami '55), a former player, assistant coach, head coach and associate athletic director at Miami, had his jersey No. 86 retired at halftime of the Ohio game in 1997.

Hedric played at Miami from 1952-55, was an assistant coach for 11 seasons and served as head coach from 1971-84. In his 14 seasons as head coach, he led Miami to a 216-157 record. His 216 wins are the second most in school history and the fourth-most in Mid-American Conference history. Hedric directed Miami to five regular-season MAC Championships, one MAC Tournament title and four NCAA Tournament appearances.

One of Hedric's greatest moments in coaching was Miami's stunning 84-81 overtime win over defending national champion Marquette in the first round of the 1978 NCAA Tournament in Indianapolis.

Another of Hedric's "claims to fame" was recruiting former All-American and five-time NBA World Champion Ron Harper to Miami in 1982. Hedric was inducted into Miami University's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1978.

WALLY SZCZERBIAK

Wally Szczerbiak (Miami '99) became the most recent member of an elite club to have his jersey retired. On Sept. 22, 2001, at halftime of the Cincinnati football game, Szczerbiak, who played from 1995-99, became the fifth player in Miami history to have his No. 32 retired.

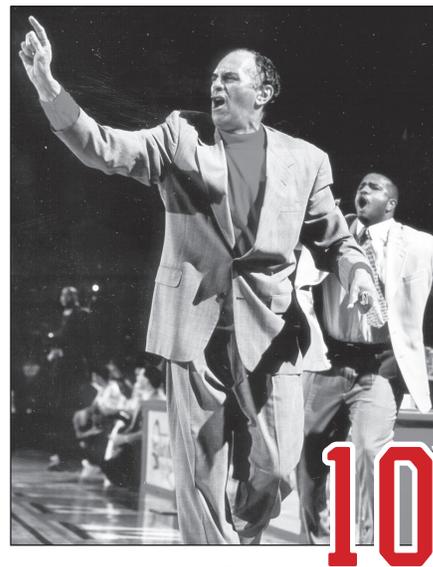

Szczerbiak was a unanimous choice as the Mid-American Conference Player of the Year as a senior in 1999, becoming just the fourth player in Miami history to earn the honor. Szczerbiak also was a finalist for the Naismith, Robertson and Wooden National Player-of-the-Year Awards, finishing third in the voting for the Wooden Award.

He led Miami through its most magical season in 1998-99—the first time a Miami team collected two wins in the NCAA Tournament—which culminated in an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance. His 43-point, 12-rebound, three-block, two-assist effort in the first round of the tournament lifted Miami to a 59-58 win over Washington and catapulted the RedHawks onto the covers of such national publications as Sports Illustrated and USA Today. For the tournament, Szczerbiak averaged 30.0 points per game to lead all scorers.

Szczerbiak ranks second in career scoring at Miami with 1,847 points. He is also the school's career leader in three-point field goal percentage with a .431 mark and set Miami's single-season scoring mark in 1998-99 with 775 points.

Following his illustrious Miami career, Szczerbiak was selected by the Minnesota Timberwolves as the sixth overall pick in the 1999 NBA Draft. He was member of the 2000 NBA All-Rookie Team and the MVP of the 2001 Schick Rookie Challenge game. Szczerbiak also spent two seasons with the Boston Celtics. He played 10 seasons in the NBA, his last stop with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

In February 2009, Szczerbiak was inducted into Miami University's Athletic Hall of Fame.

CHARLIE COLES

On Feb. 14, 2015, Miami University retired its sixth men's basketball number, bestowing the honor upon Charlie Coles (Miami '65).

Coles was a standout guard for the Red and White from 1963-65 and captured Second-Team All-MAC honors as a junior and senior. Coles averaged double figures in scoring all three seasons. Coles ranks 30th on Miami's career scoring list with 1,096 points and his 15.4 ppg career average ties for 10th.

He went on to a coaching career that spanned almost five decades, nearly half of which were enjoyed in the MAC. Coles spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Miami from before becoming its head coach in 1996. He guided the RedHawks for 16 seasons (1996-2012) and is Miami men's basketball's all-time wins leader with a 263-224 record.

Combined with his six seasons as head coach at Central Michigan (1985-91), Coles amassed a MAC record of 218-155, posting more conference wins than any other coach in league history. Over 22 years as a collegiate head coach in the MAC, Coles tied for second among MAC leaders for career coaching wins with a 355-308 record.

Coles was twice named MAC Coach of the Year (1987; 2005) and was the 2011 NABC District 14 Coach of the Year. As a MAC head coach, his teams made eight postseason appearances (Central Michigan: NCAA 1987 – Miami: NCAA 1997, 1999, 2007; NIT 2005, 2006; CBI 2008, 2011). He was presented with a Guardian of the Game Pillar Award for Education presented by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) in 2011.

Coles was inducted into the Miami Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990, the Greater Cincinnati Basketball Hall of Fame in 2008, Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame in 2011 and MAC Hall of Fame in 2014.
