Miami's 1955 team boasted the most dominant defense in Miami football history, surrendering just 47 points or a paltry 5.2 points per game through nine games. The Ara Parseghian-coached team, which went 9-0 and won the MAC Championship, blanked four opponents and allowed just two foes to score more than once.

In 1977, a Dick Crum-coached Miami team went 10-1 and captured the MAC Championship. On the season, the team ran a then-program record 871 plays from scrimmage, which stood until 2002, and rolled up 3,954 yards total offense, a record that stood until 1986.

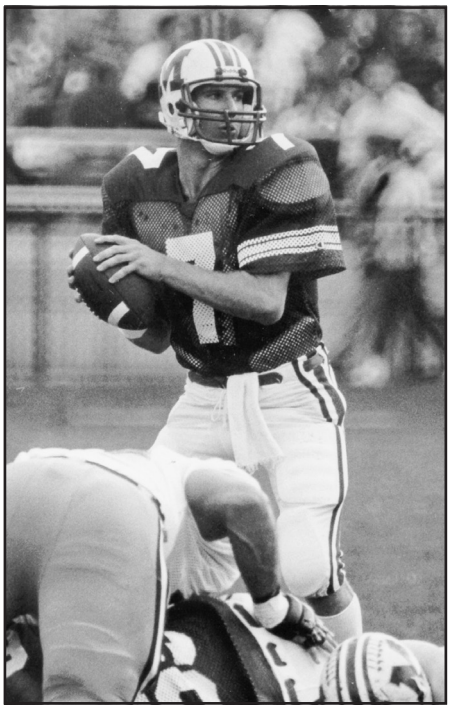

Miami's 2003 MAC Championship team, coached by Terry Hoeppner, crushed the program's previous standards for offense, averaging a whopping 501.1 yards of total offense and 43.0 points per game. The RedHawks' 7,016 yards of total offense for the season crushed the previous record by 2,134 yards. Miami's totals for total offense, scoring and passing yardage were also all MAC records.

In 1952, Tom Pagna spearheaded a vaunted Miami ground game that averaged a program record 311.2 yards per contest. Pagna averaged 118.2 yards a game that season as Miami went 8-1.

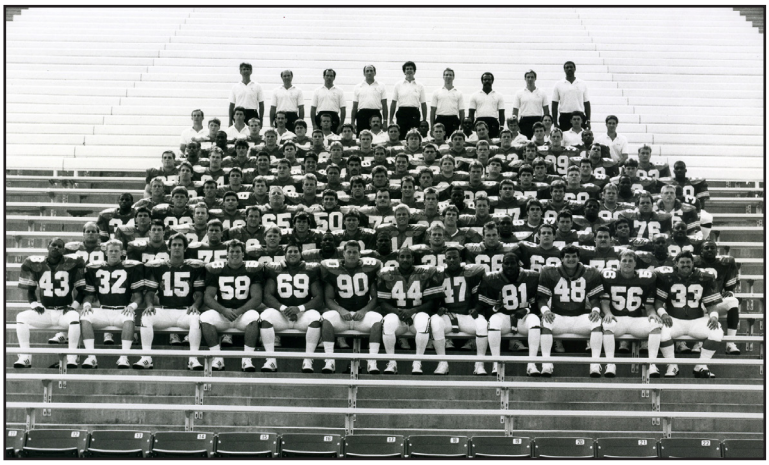

In 1986, Terry Morris led Miami to its 13th MAC Championship by guiding the most efficient passing attack in program history at that time. As a team, Miami completed 195-of-320 passes for a .609 completion percentage. Morris boasted a .627 completion rate on his own. Since then, Miami quarterback Ben Roethlisberger shattered the record with a 69.1 completion rate in 2003.

Miami's 1973 team restricted its opponents to a meager 161.3 yards of total offense per game on the way to a MAC Championship and the first of three Tangerine Bowl victories. The team blanked three opponents over the course of an 11-game season and allowed just 1.8 yards per rush.

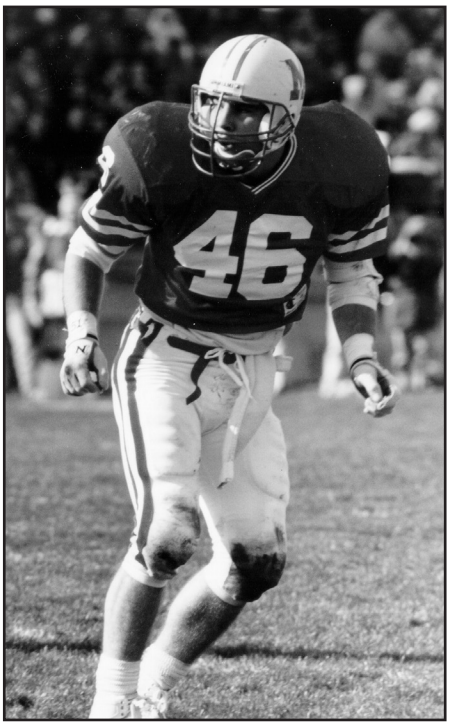

In 1986, Miami forced a whopping 44 turnovers, including a program-best 23 fumbles, on the way to a MAC Championship and a berth in the California Bowl. The team, which also totaled 21 interceptions, forced an average of 3.7 turnovers per game.

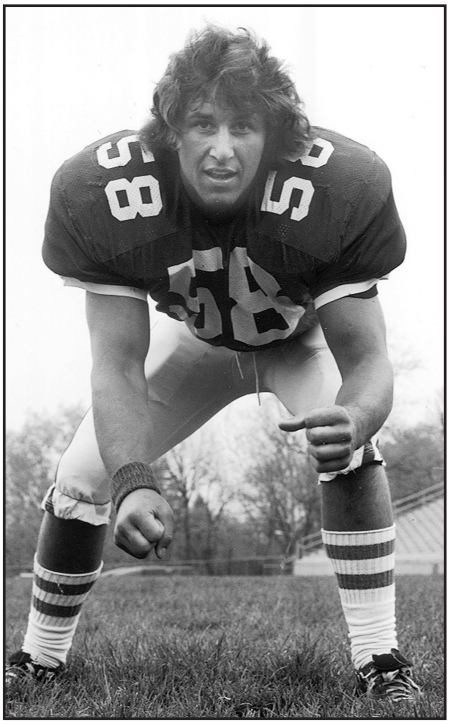

Miami's 1995 team intercepted a program-record 22 passes and was the last Miami defensive unit to allow under 300 yards of total offense per game. The 251.6 yards allowed per game is the lowest by a Miami defense in the last 30 years.

Note: Two opponents were known by different names when Miami played them. Arkansas A&M later became Arkansas-Monticello, and Carnegie Tech became Carnegie Mellon. Also, Case Institute of Technology and Western Reserve University merged and became Case Western Reserve University. Miami's win against Michigan State in 1994 came via a forfeit by the Spartans.

Cradle Of Coaches

Throughout the sports world, Miami University is recognized as "The Cradle of Coaches" because of the number of coaching legends who began their careers on the Oxford campus.

College football luminaries such as Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Ara Parseghian and John Pont used Miami as a training ground, as did professional coaching greats like Weeb Ewbank, Paul Brown and Sid Gillman.

At one point in 1977, five of the 10 head football coaches in the Big Ten were products of Miami University.

Bob Kurz, a 1958 graduate of Miami and former Miami Sports Information Director, helped put the legacy in context with his book Miami of Ohio: The Cradle of Coaches, which lays out the program's proud coaching tradition from its humble beginnings through the 2002 season, when it was last revised. His inspiration for the biography came in 1959, when Miami graduates Paul Dietzel and Parseghian were coaching the No. 1 and No. 2 college programs in the land and Brown, Gillman and Ewbank were revolutionizing the professional game.

Prior to the 2004 season, Kurz and his wife, Marian, provided a gift to the University to construct a Cradle of Coaches Plaza beyond the South endzone of Yager Stadium. The beautifully architected plaza provides a grand entrance to the stadium that is adorned with life-sized statues of some of the program's greatest coaching legends.

The below list contains just some of the college and NFL head coaches who started at Miami, either as players, assistant coaches or head coaches. Their years and roles at Miami are noted in italics.

Cradle Of Coaches Association

The Cradle of Coaches Association was established in 1971 to acknowledge the role Miamians have played in establishing Miami University as the Cradle of Coaches. While all Miami Alumni who go on to coach or those who have coached at Miami are considered a part of the Cradle of Coaches, the Cradle of Coaches Association began inducting individuals into the Association in 1992 to further recognize their accomplishments. In 1999 and 2000, Miami's Hall of Fame Committee further developed criteria for induction into the Cradle of Coaches to be more inclusive of all sports. The list of inductees thus far follows.

National Coaches Of The Year

Throughout the sports world, Miami has the unique reputation as the "Cradle of Coaches." At last count, more than 100 Miami graduates were active in coaching or administrative work in the professional and collegiate levels. More than 30 of the men and women in the collegiate ranks are presently head coaches. Over the past 65 years, 20 collegiate and professional coaches with Miami roots have stood atop their respective professions as National Coaches of the Year.

Miami has been the training ground for 20 "National Coach of the Year" recipients at the professional and collegiate levels, including 12 in football. To the right is a list of those coaches.

Attendance: 15,000

Playing in its first bowl game, Miami used its outstanding speed and quickness to defeat Texas Tech 13-12 in the 1947 Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. Miami opened the scoring in the first quarter with a six-play, 70-yard scoring drive, culminating in a 1-yard touchdown run by Ara Parseghian. The Red Raiders responded with a 45-yard scoring drive in the second quarter, ending in a 3-yard touchdown run by Tech's Jim Conley. After a scoreless third quarter, Miami went ahead for good early in the fourth quarter. After co-captain Bill Hoover blocked a Red Raider kick, Paul Shoults scored on a 2-yard run to make the score 13-6 after Jake Speelman's conversion kick. Texas Tech bounced back when defensive tackle Bernie Winkler intercepted a Mel Olix pass and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown, but Miami's Ernie Plank blocked the extra point attempt to preserve the victory.

Attendance: 24,000

A fierce Miami defense held Arizona State all-American halfback Wilford White to 106 yards rushing en route to a 34-21 Salad Bowl win. Although the 21 points were the most scored against Miami during the season, ASU's White was held to his second-lowest rushing total of the season. Miami used a balanced offensive attack to become the fourth straight visiting team to win the Salad Bowl. Jim Bailey's 108 yards rushing topped a 225-yard ground attack, while quarterback Nobby Wirkowski completed 16 of 24 passes for 231 yards.

The high-powered Houston Cougars used four second-quarter touchdowns to hand Miami its first bowl defeat in three tries, 49-21 in the 1962 Tangerine Bowl. Houston used a near-perfect balance of rushing (207 yards) and passing (206), while Miami managed just 54 yards on the ground. Miami quarterback Ernie Kellermann completed 17 of 40 passes for 265 yards and one touchdown. Cougar quarterback Billy Roland, who completed 11 of 17 passes for 199 yards, was the game's MVP. Houston's Bill McMillan connected on a school-record seven extra-point tries and added a touchdown reception for 13 points on the day.

Miami capped its first undefeated season (11-0) since 1955 with a 16-7 win over Southeastern Conference power Florida in the frigid Tangerine Bowl in Gainesville. Florida finished the regular season 7-4 and tied for fifth in the SEC, but the Gators won their last five games to earn the Tangerine Bowl bid on their home field. Despite 20-degree temperatures, Miami rolled up 239 rushing yards against the SEC's No. 1 defense. Fullback Chuck Varner, the game's Outstanding Back, finished with 157 yards on 28 carries and one touchdown. Quarterback Steve Sanna completed one pass in eight attempts as Miami used a T-formation to get the ball to Varner.

For the second straight year, Miami capped an unbeaten season (10-0-1) by defeating a Southeastern Conference opponent. Miami capitalized on two early Georgia turnovers en route to a 21-10 victory. Miami used its potent rushing attack to pound out 228 yards on the ground, with fullback Rob Carpenter gaining 114 yards on 30 carries. Quarterback Sherman Smith earned Most Valuable Back honors, rushing for 90 yards and scoring one touchdown. He completed only one pass, but it was an important 7-yard touchdown to Ricky Taylor. After taking a 21-3 lead at the half, the Miami defense held the Bulldogs to one touchdown in the second half despite three fumbles by the MU offense.

Attendance: 20,247

Miami became the only team to capture three consecutive bowl titles from 1973-75 with a 20-7 win over South Carolina in the 1975 Tangerine Bowl. Miami's win gave the team a three-year record of 32-1-1, which tied Oklahoma for the best three-year record in the nation. Miami used its traditionally strong rushing attack to gain 238 yards on the ground, led by fullback Rob Carpenter's 120 yards on 29 carries and two touchdowns. Quarterback Sherman Smith completed 10 of 13 passes for 137 yards with one interception. The South Carolina offense came into the game averaging more than 409 yards of total offense, but the Miami defense held the Gamecocks to 284 yards of total offense, including just 56 rushing yards.

Entering the 1986 California Bowl, San Jose State led the nation in total offense and passing. The Spartans lived up to their billing in racking up 426 yards en route to a 37-7 win over Miami. San Jose State quarterback Mike Perez completed 21 of 37 passes for 291 yards and three touchdowns, while the San Jose defense forced six turnovers and sacked Miami quarterbacks Terry Morris and Mike Bates six times. The Spartan defense held Miami tailback George Swarn, who had rushed for 1,112 yards during the regular season, to just 46 yards on 15 carries. Perez and Miami defensive tackle Andy Marlatt were honored as the game's Most Valuable Players.

Ladd-Peebles Stadium
Mobile, Ala.
Attendance: 40,620

Playing his last game at Miami, junior quarterback Ben Roethlisberger torched the Louisville Cardinals for 376 yards and four touchdown passes, as the RedHawks claimed their first bowl victory since the 1975 Tangerine Bowl, 49-28 over Louisville. Miami scored the first three touchdowns of the game and led by as much as 35-7 after a 26-yard TD pass from Roethlisberger to Michael Larkin. A furious Cardinal rally would close the deficit to 35-28 late in the third quarter, but a Mike Smith touchdown run and a Matt Pusateri interception return for a touchdown would provide the RedHawks with all the security they needed. Roethlisberger, who declared for the NFL Draft following the game, was named the MVP.

Shreveport, La.
Attendance: 43,000

After rallying to take its first lead of the game midway through the third quarter, Miami was unable to hold off a potent Iowa State ground attack and fell 17-13 to Iowa State. Miami had trailed 10-0 late in the first half, but quarterback Josh Betts hooked up with running back Luke Clemens on a 28-yard touchdown pass to close the gap to three right before the teams headed for the locker room. The RedHawks took their only lead of the game in the third quarter, when Mike Smith scored from two yards out. The dangerous combination of Cyclone running back Stevie Hicks and quarterback Bret Meyer proved too much, however, as ISU rumbled for 295 yards on the ground, including a one-yard touchdown plunge in the fourth quarter that put ISU up for good. Miami had a last chance late in the fourth quarter after stuffing the Cyclones on fourth-and-inches, but ISU's Ellis Hobbs picked off a Betts pass to end the game. The game was the last for Terry Hoeppner as Miami's head coach.

Austin Boucher threw for 289 yards and two touchdowns and Thomas Merriweather added 100 yards and two scores on the ground to lead Miami to a 35-21 win over Middle Tennessee in the GoDaddy.com Bowl. The victory made the RedHawks the first team in FBS history to go from double-digits losses (1-11 in 2009) to double-digit wins (10-4 in 2010). The RedHawk defense gave Miami its first lead as true freshman Dayonne Nunley picked off Dasher's pass and ran it in from 52 yards to put Miami on top, 21-14. MTSU came right back on a 54-yard touchdown run to tie the score at 21-21. Later, Chris Givens hauled in a 17-yard pass with 54 seconds left in the third to put the RedHawks on top for good, 28-21, before another Boucher TD pass to Nick Harwell put the final at 35-21. Boucher was the game's MVP, while Merriweather was the Offensive MVP, Nunley was the Defensive MVP and DeMarco Paine was the Special Teams MVP.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 17
MIAMI 16

Dec. 26, 2016
Tropicana Field
St. Petersburg, Fla.
Attendance: 15,717

The Miami University football team battled to the end against Mississippi State in the St. Petersburg Bowl on Monday, but the Bulldogs blocked the RedHawks' 37-yard field goal attempt with five seconds remaining to hold on for a 17-16 victory. Miami (6-7 overall) outgained Mississippi State (6-7 overall) 433-335 yards during the contest, holding the lead until the fourth quarter. Sophomore quarterback Gus Ragland finished 21-for-29 for 257 yards with two touchdowns and an interception. His top target was junior tight end Ryan Smith, who had seven receptions for 72 yards, both career highs.

Attendance: 11,721

Miami held North Texas scoreless in the second half and posted a convincing 27-14 win in the Frisco Football Classic presented by Ryan Thursday afternoon. Despite missing key starters Sterling Weatherford and Matthew Salopek, the RedHawks (7-6) used a stingy defense to hold the Mean Green (6-7) to 89 rushing yards, well off their average of 246.

Brett Gabbert, the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player, threw two touchdowns and completed 22 of 31 passes for 228 yards, with more than half of those yards going to Jack Sorenson. Sorenson pulled in seven catches for 116 yards, becoming the fourth Miami player all-time to accumulate at least 3,000 career receiving yards. Kenny Tracy had a career-high 92 rushing yards and a touchdown for the Red and White.

Years To Remember: 1973

The 1973 football season is the opening chapter in a trilogy of seasons that helped Miami carve a unique niche in college football history. From 1973-75, Miami amassed an amazing 32-1-1 record, capturing three Mid-American Conference and Tangerine Bowl titles along the way.

Miami opened the 1973 season with a 32-0 win over Dayton. In a sign of things to come, the MU defense held the Flyers to just nine rushing yards and 63 passing yards, while Miami's offense rolled up 384 total yards.

In Week 2, Miami traveled to West Lafayette to take on Big Ten foe Purdue. The Boilermakers led 19-10 midway through the fourth quarter when Miami staged a furious comeback. Junior Brad Cousino blocked a Purdue punt and returned it 26 yards to the Purdue 34 yard-line. That set up a 30-yard TD pass from Steve Sanna to fullback Chuck Varner that cut the gap to 19-17.

Miami held Purdue on the following series and again forced the Boilermakers to punt. Miami's pressure on the punt resulted in just a 14-yard kick, giving Miami the ball on its own 39 yard-line. Varner ended the ensuing 61-yard scoring drive with a 3-yard plunge, his third touchdown of the game, to give Miami the win.

In a Week 3 tilt at South Carolina, Miami was out to prove that its 21-8 win over the Gamecocks the previous year was no fluke. After a 3-3 first half, Miami went up 10-3 in the third quarter on a 20-yard run by Varner. That score was set up when junior John Roudebush recovered a South Carolina fumble on the Gamecock 34-yard line. Miami recovered another USC fumble later in the period, and sophomore David Draudt kicked a 37-yard field goal to give Miami a 13-3 lead. Despite allowing a fourth-quarter touchdown, the Miami defense proved to be the difference in the 13-11 win, holding South Carolina to 169 total yards and nine first downs.

"Our defense did another great job just like it did last week against Purdue," said head coach Bill Mallory. "These have to be the best back-to-back victories in Miami football history."

Miami opened the MAC slate with an easy 31-6 victory over Marshall. Hitchens opened the game with two touchdown runs in the first quarter and finished the half with 83 yards. Miami's rushing attack tallied 241 yards, while defense held the Thundering Herd to just 24 rushing yards.

Miami was without its top two players, Hitchens and Cousino, when Ohio visited Oxford for Homecoming. Subbing for the injured Hitchens, sophomore Randy Walker scored Miami's only touchdown in the first quarter. Walker finished with 160 yards on 38 carries. Draudt sealed the 10-6 victory with a 41-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. Miami's defense held the Bobcats to 67 rushing yards, 54 passing yards and six first downs.

The running attack of Varner, Hitchens and Smith helped the Red and White spoil Bowling Green's Homecoming, 31-8, in Week 6. MU rolled up 380 of its 421 total yards on the ground, as all three backs topped 100 yards. Hitchens led the way with 122 yards, including a season-long 62-yarder in the first quarter.

Defense was the name of the game when Miami put its 6-0 record on the line against Toledo on Oct. 27. Playing in front of the largest home crowd of the season, Miami thwarted the high-powered Toledo offense, which was led by the nation's top offensive player, quarterback Gene Swick. The Miami defense held the Rockets to just seven rushing yards and limited Swick to 151 passing yards in a 16-0 shutout. Hitchens scored the game's only TD in the first quarter, and Draudt set a school record with three field goals.

The following week, Miami was held to just 52 rushing yards but still managed a 24-9 win at Western Michigan. Miami got off to a quick start when Walker returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a score, the longest kick return in school history. Miami scored two more first-half TDs on Steve Sanna's 75- and 64-yard scoring strikes to Larry Harper and John Wiggins.

In Week 9, all that stood in the way of Miami's first MAC title in seven years and a trip to the Tangerine Bowl was defending conference champion Kent. Miami led 17-10 after three quarters on the strength of Varner's 9-yard TD catch and 2-yard scoring run. Draudt iced the 20-10 road win with a school-record 52-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

Miami closed out the regular season with a 6-0 victory over Cincinnati in the traditional Thanksgiving Week game. The only score came when Larry Harper returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for a score. The Miami defense held the Bearcats to 92 total yards and finished the season as the nation's leader in total defense and rushing defense.

In the Tangerine Bowl in Gainesville, Fla., Miami was pitted against Southeastern Conference power Florida. Despite 20-degree weather, Miami amassed 239 rushing yards against the SEC's top defense en route to a 16-7 victory. Varner carried 28 times for 157 yards and a touchdown and was named the game's Outstanding Back. Miami's heralded defense limited the Gators to 189 total yards, including just 90 rushing yards.

The victory capped Miami's first undefeated season since 1955 and gave the squad a No. 15 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

Years To Remember: 1974

After the successful 1973 season, Miami lost 12 letterwinners to graduation, and head coach Bill Mallory left the "Cradle" to build a national power at Colorado. Those people left behind a winning legacy, however, and this season's team rallied behind the cry of "11 more in '74."

In his first game as head coach, Dick Crum shut out Eastern Michigan 39-0. It was the first time the two schools had met on the gridiron, and the triumph gave Miami a school-record 13 victories in a row. Miami's potent rushing attack racked up 284 yards in the game, led by junior Randy Walker, who totaled 103 yards. The powerful Miami defense, which led the nation in total defense in 1973, showed that it was still a force, holding EMU to one yard passing and 104 total yards in the game.

Miami's winning streak ended the following week with a 7-7 tie at Purdue. After a scoreless first half, Purdue took a 7-0 lead late in the third quarter. Miami tied the game on a 35-yard touchdown pass from Steve Sanna to Ricky Taylor with 2:53 left to play. Purdue had a chance to win the game but missed a 32-yard field goal with four seconds left. Sanna completed 23 of 36 passes for 227 yards on the day.

Marshall felt the wrath of Miami the following week as the Red and White got back on winning track with a 42-0 branding of the Herd. After a disappointing rushing attack the previous week, Miami rolled up 344 rushing yards at Marshall. Walker and sophomore Rob Carpenter combined for 235 yards and four touchdowns in the game.

In the Week 4 contest at Kentucky, the Wildcats jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first seven minutes of the game. Despite surrendering 349 total yards in the game, Miami did not relinquish another point the rest of the game, and rallied for a 14-10 victory. Brad Cousino helped set up both of Miami's third-quarter touchdowns, forcing a fumble that set up a 6-yard touchdown pass from Sherman Smith to Ricky Taylor, and later blocking a Wildcat punt that was recovered by Brad Miller for the deciding score.

The next two weeks saw Miami dismantle MAC rivals Ohio and Bowling Green by a combined score of 65-13. In the 31-3 victory at Ohio, Miami piled up 397 rushing yards, including 123 by Walker. In a 34-10 win over Bowling Green, Miami ran for 264 yards. Smith led the way with 109 yards, while Carpenter pitched in with 84 yards and two TDs.

Toledo took to the air in Week 7 to try to upset the 5-0-1 Redskins. Rocket quarterback Gene Swick assaulted the Miami secondary by completing 25 of 38 passes for 341 yards and a touchdown. Miami clung to a 17-14 lead heading into the fourth quarter and looked for someone to put the game away. Carpenter proved to be the man for the job, scoring on runs of 49 and 20 yards en route to 181 yards and UPI Running Back of the Week honors. Walker completed a halfback option to Larry Harper for Miami's final score in the 38-22 win.

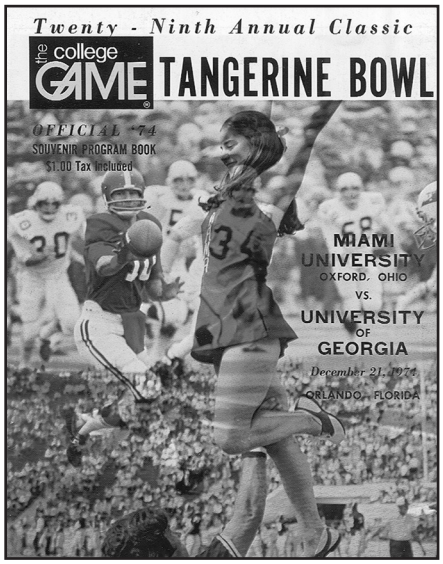

After being scorched by the Toledo offense, Miami's defense responded with a 31-0 shutout of Western Michigan. Smith led Miami's rushing attack with 132 yards and two TDs.

Looking to capture its second consecutive MAC championship, Miami played host to Kent in the home finale. The preseason MAC favorite, Kent had already been eliminated from title contention but was looking to spoil Miami's title hopes. Miami led 16-10 in the fourth quarter, but the Flashes used an 80-yard, 19-play scoring drive to take a 17-16 lead with just 59 seconds remaining. On Miami's final possession, Walker completed a 28-yard option pass to Smith to get the Redskins near midfield, and Senna completed a pair of sideline passes that moved Miami to the Kent 22-yard line. After three quick running plays resulted in no gain, the game was in the hands and foot of kicker David Draudt, whose 39-yard game-winner with six seconds left gave Miami its second consecutive conference championship and a return trip to the Tangerine Bowl.

Said Draudt: "This has not been a very good year for me. I had missed some field goals I should have made, but this was one I wasn't going to miss."

Miami concluded the regular season with a 9-0-1 record after a 27-7 triumph at rival Cincinnati. Miami put up 21 points in the opening half on a fumble recovery on the opening drive and two touchdown passes from Sanna. Miami's defense handled the rest, limiting the Bearcats to 119 total yards, including just 14 rushing yards, and three first downs.

For the second consecutive year, Miami concluded its season with a trip to Orlando for the Tangerine Bowl. Miami turned two Georgia turnovers into scores in taking an early 14-3 lead. Miami then used its running attack to pound out 228 yards, slowing down Georgia's potent offense in the process. Carpenter led Miami with 114 yards on 30 carries, but it was quarterback Sherman Smith who made a big difference in the outcome. Smith rushed for 90 yards and a touchdown, and completed a 7-yard TD pass to earn Most Valuable Back honors. Despite losing three fumbles in the second half, Miami limited the Bulldogs to one score en route to the 21-10 victory.

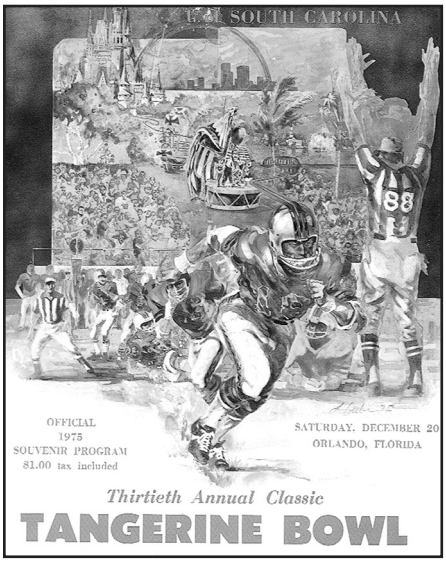

Miami ended the season with a 10-0-1 record and enjoyed a No. 10 ranking in the final Associated Press poll, marking the first time a MAC team had finished among the Top 10 teams nationally.

Years To Remember: 1975

As the 1975 season opened, Miami rode an impressive 23-game unbeaten streak that dated back to the final game of the 1972 season. More importantly, the Redskins had their sights set on a third consecutive Mid-American Conference championship.

The Red and White opened the campaign with a 50-0 thrashing of Marshall at Miami Field. The Miami offense blistered the Herd for 476 total yards, including 416 rushing yards. The 50 points were the most scored by Miami since a 66-6 blowout of Marshall in 1971.

Miami traveled to Michigan State in Week 2 looking to extend not only its unbeaten streak but also its three-game unbeaten streak against Big Ten foes. The Spartans struck first on a 4-yard touchdown run in the second quarter to lead 7-0 at halftime. Miami opened the second half with an 80-yard drive that was capped by a 30-yard scoring strike from Sherman Smith to running back Randy Walker. The extra point missed, however, making the score 7-6. After Miami recovered a Michigan State fumble at the Spartan 19-yard line midway through the third period, Smith broke through the Michigan State defense from 12 yards out and put Miami up 13-7. Michigan State climbed back on top with a 56-yard aerial strike with 1:08 left in the game and held on for a 14-13 win, ending Miami's school-record 24-game unbeaten streak.

Still regrouping from the previous week's loss, Miami returned home for a hard-fought battle with Ball State. Miami held on to defeat the Cardinals, 35-28, extending its MAC winning streak to 12 games.

Week 4 saw Miami make its third trip in three years to Ross-Ade Stadium to take on Purdue. Neither team was able to reach the 200-yard mark in total offense, but Miami used a Purdue turnover on its own 34-yard line to punch in its first touchdown on a 4-yard run by Tom Zwayer. Miami iced the game late in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard plunge by Rob Carpenter, securing the 14-3 victory.

In the next week's game at Dayton, Miami used a blocked punt safety and a 30-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Mike Rhodes to capture a 10-0 win over the Flyers. The MU defense limited Dayton to just three first downs and 190 yards of total offense.

The following week, the Miami defense smothered Ohio in a 17-9 win. In one of the all-time best defensive efforts in school history, the Red and White limited the Bobcats to just 88 total yards, including minus nine rushing yards.

The Miami defense stood tall again against Bowling Green in Week 7. After allowing the Falcons 10 first-half points, the Redskins shut down Bowling Green and caused two second-half turnovers that allowed Miami to escape, 20-17. The game-winning score was a 42-yard field goal by freshman Fred Johnson with 3:46 left in the game.

In the Parents' Day tilt in Week 8, Miami faced the high-powered Toledo Rockets. Miami used its ground attack to control the game and keep the ball out of the hands of Toledo quarterback Gene Swick. Running back Randy Walker spearheaded the 35-21 victory by piling up 163 yards and a touchdown, including 111 yards in the first half.

Miami became just the second team in MAC history to win three consecutive league titles with its 44-21 victory over Western Michigan in Week 9, guaranteeing the Redskins another trip to the Tangerine Bowl. Miami's rushing attack accounted for 478 yards and all six MU touchdowns. Smith led the ground assault with 175 yards and four touchdowns.

In the conference finale, Carpenter led the Redskins to a 27-8 win over Kent, giving Miami its third straight undefeated league record and pushing the team's three-year conference mark to 16-0. Carpenter accounted for three of Miami's four touchdowns and 153 of the team's 285 rushing yards.

Miami won its fifth straight decision over Cincinnati in the regular-season finale, 21-13. For the second week in a row, Carpenter topped the 150 yard mark, finishing the regular season with 1,022 rushing yards.

Miami's visit to the 1975 Tangerine pitted two teams with stark contrasting styles. South Carolina used a high-powered offense, led by quarterback Jeff Grantz, to average more than 409 yards of total offense, while Miami relied on a stingy defense that allowed just 213 yards a game.

Miami used its traditional running attack to grind out 238 yards on the ground, led by Carpenter's 120 yards and two touchdowns. Smith also played an important role in the Redskins' 20-7 win, completing 10 of 13 passes for 137 yards and running for another 64 yards. The Miami defense held the Gamecocks to 284 total yards, including just 56 rushing yards.

Miami ended the season with an 11-1 record and was ranked in the Top 20 for the third year in a row, this time finishing at No. 12. Miami's near-perfect record of 32-1-1 over the previous three seasons was matched only by 1975 national champion Oklahoma.

Years To Remember: 2003

Behind a high-flying offense that staged an all-out assault on the program and MAC record books and a defense with a knack for big plays, Miami University returned to the national college football stage, ending the program's longest MAC Championship drought and earning its first bowl game victory since 1975.

Ironically, the highest-scoring offense in program history made a dismal debut at the University of Iowa, falling 21-3—the first time the Red and White was kept out of the endzone in 93 games. Junior place kicker Jared Parseghian extended his MAC record with his 18th consecutive field goal conversion on Miami's opening drive, but the RedHawks, who were twice intercepted in the red zone, would not score again.

After an uncharacteristically early bye week, Miami returned to action at Northwestern University two weeks later and took out its frustrations with a 44-14 thrashing of the Wildcats. Junior quarterback Ben Roethlisberger shook off his four-interception performance at Iowa by torching Northwestern for 353 yards and three touchdowns, including a season-long 61-yard TD strike to Martin Nance, who caught four passes for 126 yards and two touchdowns in a breakout performance.

Miami made its first visit to Ft. Collins, Colo., the following week to take on Colorado State. On an eye-opening day, the RedHawks ambushed the Rams in their own house, scoring the game's first 14 points and leading by as much as 21. It was junior running back Mike Smith's day to break out, as Smith rolled through the Rams for 125 yards and three TDs.

The next week brought the 108th Battle of the Victory Bell, as Miami and Cincinnati clashed on the RedHawks' brand new field turf. Miami roared out to a 28-0 lead and held a 42-17 edge early in the fourth quarter, but the Bearcats rallied with 20 unanswered points in the fourth. With UC receiving a punt that would put it in position to drive for a winning score, Miami forced a key fumble to secure Miami's third straight Victory Bell win.

With the arrival of October, Miami began conference play with a homecoming tilt versus Akron. Miami built a 24-10 advantage in the third quarter, but the Zips tallied 10 unanswered points and were driving for the go-ahead score in the fourth quarter. An interception by sophomore John Busing killed the drive and Akron's chances, as Miami tallied 21 points in the fourth quarter and clinched the 45-20 win.

Sophomore punt returner Ryne Robinson put on a show for a Parent's Weekend crowd the following weekend versus Buffalo. Robinson returned back-to-back punts for touchdowns and set a MAC record with 237 punt return yards, as Miami dominated, 59-3.

After its three-game homestand, Miami traveled to Ball State to spoil the Cardinals' homecoming festivities. Busing intercepted BSU's first pass of the day and returned it 65 yards for a touchdown, and sophomore Darrell Hunter later added a 64-yard interception return for a TD. The RedHawks held Ball State to just 29 yards rushing in the 49-3 thrashing.

A visit to Kent State proved to be the gut-check of the year for the RedHawks, as Miami found itself trailing for the first time in more than six games early in the fourth quarter. Roethlisberger and Nance answered the bell, however, connecting on a pair of fourth-quarter TDs and guiding Miami to a 38-30 win. Nance finished with 181 yards and three touchdowns.

Weeknight football came to Oxford on Nov. 4, as Miami hosted nationally-ranked Bowling Green for an ESPN2 televised night game. The RedHawk defense restricted the vaunted Falcon offense to season lows in points and total offense and senior Cal Murray rushed for a pair of touchdowns in an impressive 33-10 victory.

MAC-East rival Marshall came to town the following week for another nationally-televised contest, and Miami overcame the Thundering Herd and winds gusting up to 50 mph to secure their first MAC East title. Roethlisberger threw for 282 yards and a pair of TDs in spite of the nasty conditions.

With a berth to the MAC Championship already secured, Miami traveled South and closed out the regular season at UCF. Roethlisberger completed his first 14 passes and tied a program record with five TD passes on the day, as Miami cruised to the 56-21 win.

Six days later, Miami went to Bowling Green for a re-match with the Falcons in the MAC title game. BGSU became the only team to score first versus the RedHawks, but it would not be enough to stop Roethlisberger, who set a MAC Championship game record with 440 yards passing. Miami defeated BG, 49-27.

The motto all year was "Play 14" and the 14th and final game of the magical season took place in Mobile, Ala. in the GMAC Bowl. Playing his last game as a RedHawk, Roethlisberger powered Miami to a 35-7 second-quarter edge and finished with 376 yards, four TDs and MVP honors. Junior Matt Pusateri returned a fourth-quarter interception 35 yards for a TD to ice the RedHawks' record 13th straight win.

The RedHawks finished the season at 13-1 and one of only four teams nationally with one loss. Their No. 10 final AP ranking matched the best in program history.

JOHN PONT #42

Jersey No. 42, worn by halfback John Pont through three varsity football campaigns, was retired by the Athletic Advisory Council following his senior season in 1951. Pont thus became the first athlete in Miami history to have his jersey retired.

Pont was destined for stardom from the first time he handled the ball in college competition. In the 1949 opener against Wichita, Pont returned the opening kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, helping Miami to a 23-6 victory. Over the next three seasons, Pont became the top ground-gainer in school history, amassing 2,457 rushing yards and 4,184 yards of total offense. He averaged an astounding 9.5 yards each time he handled the ball, including 6.9 yards per rush. A three-time first-team all-MAC and all-Ohio selection, he received honorable mention all-America honors twice.

Pont led the MAC and was the leading sophomore rusher in the nation in 1949, registering 977 yards. He also led the league in scoring as a sophomore, tallying 54 points. Pont led the MAC in rushing again as a senior, totaling 883 yards, and paced Miami with 66 points.

Pont, who still ranks No. 7 in career rushing yards at Miami, served as an assistant coach at Miami from 1953-55 and as head coach from 1956-62. He was later head coach at Yale (1963-64), Indiana (1965-72), Northwestern (1973-77) and Mount St. Joseph (1990-92). He was named National Coach of the Year in 1967 after leading Indiana to a Big Ten co-championship and a Rose Bowl berth.

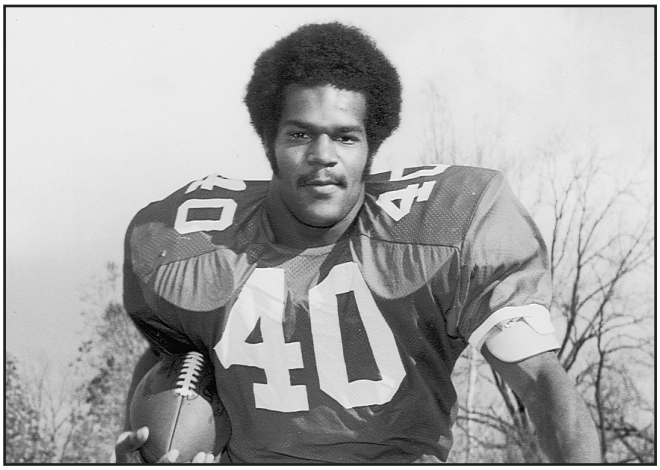

Pont is a charter member of the Miami Athletic Hall of Fame and is also a member of the MAC Hall of Fame.

He passed away on July 1, 2008.

BOB HITCHENS #40

Jersey No. 40 was retired in 1973 to mark the accomplishments of tailback Bob Hitchens, who concluded his career as the most prolific runner in Miami history. At the end of his three-year tenure (1971-73), Hitchens owned Miami's season and career records for points, rushing touchdowns, rushing attempts and rushing yards.

Hitchens, who was the first player in Miami history to lead the team in rushing three consecutive years, received first-team all-MAC accolades his sophomore and junior seasons and was a second-team all-league selection as a senior. He helped lead Miami to a 25-6 record, including an 11-0 mark his senior year, when MU notched a MAC championship and a Tangerine Bowl victory over Florida.

Hitchens' junior year was a banner one, as he established school records for points (90), rushing touchdowns (15), rushing attempts (326) and rushing yards (1,370). He led the MAC in scoring and rushing, was a four-time MAC Player of the Week and topped the 100-yard rushing mark seven times, including a career-best 218 yards in Miami's win at South Carolina. For his accomplishments, he was honored as team MVP, MAC Offensive Player of the Year, Miami Athlete of the Year and a third-team Associated Press All-American.

Following his playing career, Hitchens was an assistant coach at Carnegie Mellon University and later served as an assistant at Miami from 1980-87.

Hitchens, who still holds the school record for carries in a game (45), was inducted into the Miami Athletic Hall of Fame in 1980.

BEN ROETHLISBERGER #7

Joining Red and White gridiron luminaries John Pont and Bob Hitchens, Ben Roethlisberger took his place in Miami Football history when his jersey No. 7 was retired on October,13, 2007, becoming just the third in program history to have his number retired. Roethlisberger ended his three-year playing tenure (2001-03) as the most prolific passer in program history.

Roethlisberger owns every major Miami single-game, single-season and career passing mark, while topping Mid-American Conference charts in most completions in a season, and passing yards in a season. He also is the NCAA record holder for most games in a season gaining 200 or more yards passing (14 in 2003) and consecutive games in a season with at least 200 yards passing (14 in 2003).

Roethlisberger helped orchestrate one of the most impressive seasons in Miami history as the 2003 RedHawks compiled 13 consecutive victories, a Mid-American Conference Championship, a GMAC Bowl victory and a No. 10 final ranking in the national polls.

He captured third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press during his record-breaking junior campaign and became just the third Miami player to garner the Vern Smith Award as the Mid-American Conference Most Valuable Player.

After forgoing his final year of collegiate eligibility and entering the NFL draft as a junior, Roethlisberger was selected with the 11th overall pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers, the highest draft position of any Miami player in program history.

During his Miami career, he also was named the 2001 MAC Freshman of the Year, earned All-MAC honors all three seasons and was selected to the 2001 All-Freshman Team by the Football Writers Association and the Sporting News. Roethlisberger was twice named Miami's Male Co-Athlete of the Year, earning the honor in 2001-02 and 2003-04. He also was named the RedHawks' team MVP all three seasons.

Travis Prentice #41

Travis Prentice (1996-99), will become the fourth RedHawk to have his football jersey retired on Sept. 6, 2014.

At the completion of his Miami career, the Louisville, Ky., native owned 35 career and single season Miami records. Prentice would rank first in rushing yards (5,596), rushing attempts (1,138), scoring (468), touchdowns (78) and all-purpose yards (6,118) to go along with many other Miami records. Still to this day, his 5,596 rushing yards rank sixth all-time in NCAA history, behind Ron Dayne (6,397), Ricky Williams (6,279), Tony Dorsett (6,082), DeAngelo Williams (6,026) and Charles White (5,598).

"Touchdown Travis" was a three-time first-team All-MAC performer that played in 44 career games (33 starts), finishing with 73 rushing touchdowns, second-most in NCAA history behind Monte Balls' 77. Despite his 1,138 rushing attempts, the three-time Doak Walker semifinalist lost just two fumbles in his RedHawk career. From Nov. 2, 1996 to Oct. 9, 1999, Prentice recorded 862 consecutive rushing attempts without losing a fumble, which still stands as an NCAA record today.

Prentice's individual accolades helped produce Miami victories on the field. In his four years with the Red and White, Miami would record 31 wins and just 13 losses and would finish no worse than second in the MAC East in that four year span. Miami was 14-1 during Prentice's career when he surpassed 150 yards on the ground and went 24-4 in games that saw him top the 100-yard plateau. He would finish his career with 28 100-yard games.

Other career highlights for the tailback included 35 games with a touchdown, 25 games with at least two touchdowns and went over 1,500 rushing yards in three consecutive seasons. All three were NCAA records back in 1999.
